CERTIFICATION OF COUNSEL REGARDING ORDER APPROVING SECOND STIPULATION (I) AUTHORIZING THE DEBTORS' CONTINUED USE OF CASH COLLATERAL AND GRANTING ADEQUATE PROTECTION AND (II) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

The undersigned hereby certifies as follows:

1. On June 29, 2012, the above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors") filed a motion [Docket No. 574] (the "Sale Motion"), seeking, among other things, approval of bidding and auction procedures relating to the sale (the "Blitz Sale") of substantially all of the assets of Debtors' Blitz U.S.A., Inc. and Blitz RE Holdings, LLC (the "Blitz Assets") free and clear of all liens, claims, encumbrances and other interests.

2. On September 10, 2012, the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") filed an objection to the Sale Motion [Docket No. 749] (the "Sale Objection"), objecting to, among other things, the ability of the agent under the Debtors' prepetition credit facility (the "Prepetition Agent") and prepetition secured lenders thereunder (the "Prepetition Lenders") to get paid in full from the proceeds of the Blitz Sale upon the closing date (which is expected to be on or about September 28, 2012) (the “Lender Disbursement Issue”).

3. In addition to the issues raised in the Sale Objection, the Committee and the Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Lenders have entered into a series of stipulations whereby the Investigation Termination Date (as such term is defined under the final DIP financing order entered in these chapter 11 cases) was extended with respect to several alleged potential challenges and causes of action by the Committee (the “Preserved Challenges”).

4. Moreover, in an effort to resolve certain issues and impediments relating to the formulation of a chapter 11 plan in these cases, the Debtors are currently involved in an ongoing mediation (the “Mediation”) before The Honorable Kevin Gross. An initial mediation session was held on September 4, 2012 and a second mediation session was held on September 27, 2012. One of the issues considered in connection with the Mediation is the Debtors’ ability to fund a plan process, as Debtors believe that the proceeds of the Blitz Sale will be sufficient to satisfy all outstanding claims of the Prepetition Lenders (subject to resolution of the Lender Disbursement Issue) and administrative claims payable as of the closing date, but that the Debtors may require additional funding in order to continue with the Mediation and to achieve a chapter 11 plan in these cases

5. As stated on the record at the September 25, 2012 hearing (the “Hearing”), the Debtors, the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Lenders and the Committee have reached an agreement that will, among other things, (i) provide the Debtors with an additional $1.5 million to fund the plan process through the continued use of the Prepetition Lenders’ Cash Collateral (as such term is used under section 363 of the United States Bankruptcy Code); (ii) provide the Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Lenders with a complete release of any and all causes of action, including the Preserved Challenges; and (iii) resolve the Lender Disbursement Issue. The parties noted on the record at the Hearing that the settlement remained subject to documentation and that the parties intended to submit an agreed Stipulation to the Court for approval under certification of counsel.

6. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is an agreed Second Stipulation (I) Authorizing the Debtors' Continued Use of Cash Collateral and (II) Granting Related Relief (the "Second Stipulation") between the Debtors, the Committee, the Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Lenders documenting the agreement that was stated on the record at the Hearing. Attached hereto as Exhibit B is a proposed form of order (the "Proposed Order") approving the Second Stipulation. Each of the parties to the Second Stipulation have consented to the submission of the Second Stipulation for approval and entry of the Proposed Order pursuant to this Certification. Moreover, the assigned trial attorney from the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware has reviewed the Second Stipulation and indicated that he has no objection to the submission of the Second Stipulation for approval pursuant to this Certification.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request that the Proposed Order be entered at the Court's convenience.

2. The Debtors shall be authorized to use the Prepetition Lenders' Cash Collateral during the period from the Closing Date through December 31, 2012 (the "Extended Maturity Date"), in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Second Stipulation. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors' use of Cash Collateral pursuant to this Second Stipulation shall not be subject to any of the limitations or budget constraints that were contained in the DIP Order or the First Stipulation.

3. The Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Lenders are entitled, pursuant to sections 105, 361 and 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, to adequate protection of their interests in the Prepetition Collateral, including Cash Collateral, which shall consist of the following: (i) during the period until the Extended Maturity Date, payments from the Debtors equal to interest calculated at the non-default rate under the Prepetition Credit Agreement, payable on October 31, 2012, November 30, 2012 and December 31, 2012, respectively, and (ii) reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses of the Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Lenders, after notice to the Debtors, the Office of the United States Trustee (the "U.S. Trustee") and the Committee, and an opportunity to object as provided in Paragraph 12 of the DIP Order.

4. The Debtors and the Committee each acknowledge that the obligations of the Debtors under the Prepetition Credit Agreement are (i) legal, valid, binding and enforceable against each Debtor, and (ii) not subject to any contest, attack, objection, recoupment, defense, counterclaim, offset, subordination, recharacterization, avoidance or other claim, cause of action or other challenge of any nature under the Bankruptcy Code, under applicable non-bankruptcy law or otherwise. The Debtors and the Committee also acknowledge that they do not have, hereby forever release and are forever barred from bringing or asserting any claims, counterclaims, causes of action, defense or setoff rights relating to the Prepetition Credit Facility, whether arising under the Bankruptcy Code, under applicable non-bankruptcy law or otherwise against the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Lenders and their respective officers, directors, employees or attorneys (collectively, the "Prepetition Lender Group").

5. The Debtors and the Committee also acknowledge that the Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Lenders have liens and security interests in and to the Prepetition Collateral, including liens on the common stock of Reliance Products Holdings, Inc. (the "Reliance Stock") and rights to the $2.5 million letter of credit issued by Kinderhook, and such liens and security interests are legal, valid, enforceable, non-avoidable and duly perfected and are not subject to avoidance, attack, objection, recoupment, defense, counterclaim, offset, subordination, recharacterization, avoidance or other claim, cause of action or other challenge of any nature under the Bankruptcy Code, under applicable non-bankruptcy law or otherwise.

6. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors and the Committee agree not to take any actions against the Prepetition Lender Group, including the filing of any motion or any other action involving any interest of the Prepetition Lender Group, without the approval of the Prepetition Agent.

7. Nothing in this Second Stipulation or any order approving the same shall restrict the Debtors, in consultation with the Committee, from using any proceeds from the Blitz Sale (following repayment of the Prepetition Credit Facility in accordance with Paragraph 1 of this Second Stipulation) or Cash Collateral to pay outstanding administrative expenses incurred in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases, including, but not limited to, accrued and allowed professional fees in excess of the amounts set forth in the Professional Fee Budgets under the DIP Order and First Stipulation.

8. The Debtors shall use their reasonable best efforts, subject to their fiduciary duties, to effectuate a sale (the “Reliance Sale”) of either the Reliance Stock or the equity interests or assets of Reliance Products Holdings, Inc., Reliance Products, Inc., Moll PlastiCrafters, Inc., Renaissance Plastics, Inc. and Reliance Products Limited Partnership (collectively, the “Reliance Entities”) by December 31, 2012. The Debtors shall determine, in consultation with Reliance’s investment banker (the “Reliance Investment Banker”), appropriate benchmarks for effectuating the Reliance Sale by December 31, 2012 (the “Sale Benchmarks”). The Debtors shall consult with the attorneys and financial advisors to the Committee (the “Committee Professionals”) prior to setting the Sale Benchmarks and shall use reasonable efforts to include the Committee Professionals in discussions with the Reliance Investment Banker regarding the Sale Benchmarks; provided, however, that the Committee Professionals shall not be permitted to speak to the Reliance Banker without either the Independent Director (as defined herein) or some other representative of the Debtors being present. Upon establishing the Sale Benchmarks, the Debtors shall provide them to the Committee Professionals and the Prepetition Agent.

9. James A. Pearson, who is currently a director for each of the Debtors, shall serve as the independent director (the "Independent Director") charged with overseeing the Reliance Sale. The Independent Director shall also be appointed as a member of the board of directors or governing bodies of each of the Reliance Entities.

10. The Debtors and/or the Independent Director shall provide the Committee Professionals with updates at least on a weekly basis, commencing during the week of October 1, 2102, through either a call or the provision of information, regarding the status of the Reliance Sale. The Debtors and/or Independent Director shall provide copies of any written reports provided in connection with the weekly updates to the Prepetition Agent. The Debtors will provide the Committee Professionals with copies of the CIM and teasers developed for the Reliance Sale process and copies of management presentations for the Reliance Sale. The Debtors shall provide the Committee Professionals with the number of potential bidders who (i) received copies of such CIM and teaser; and (ii) (x) in connection with the Reliance Sale, signed non-disclosure agreements and (y) were given management presentations. The Debtors and/or Independent Director shall also provide the Committee Professionals (for their eyes only) with copies of (subject to appropriate redactions regarding the names of Prospective Buyers (as defined herein)) a copy of the engagement letter for the Reliance Investment Banker and any final indications of interest received after the date of this Second Stipulation. For the avoidance of doubt, neither the Independent Director, the Debtors nor the Reliance Entities (or any officer, director, manager, employee or agent, or any other person acting or purporting to act on their behalf) shall be required to provide the Committee Professionals with the name of, or other identifying information with respect to any prospective buyer in connection with the Reliance Sale (each, a "Prospective Buyer"); but rather, the parties hereto will continue to discuss the sharing of this information, with all of their respective rights being reserved on the issue. Notwithstanding anything in this Paragraph to the contrary, not later than the date on which a definitive asset purchase agreement is entered into, to the extent the Debtors and/or Reliance Entities are not otherwise restricted from doing so under the terms of an applicable non-disclosure agreement (an "NDA"), the Debtors shall provide to the Committee Professionals (for their eyes only) the identity of the counterparty to the asset purchase agreement and provide the Committee Professionals (for their eyes only) a list of all other Prospective Buyers that expressed an interest in the Reliance Sale; provided, however, that notwithstanding the language of any NDA, the Debtors shall identify for the Committee Professionals, provided that such information is known to the Independent Director or the Debtors, any "insiders" (as such term is defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code) or affiliates of the Debtors, Kinderhook or any of the principals of Kinderhook, or Crestwood that have submitted an offer upon receipt of the offer in connection with the Reliance Sale; and provided further that the Committee Professionals shall be precluded from contacting any Prospective Buyer regarding the Reliance Sale.

11. Neither the Committee Professionals nor any member of the Committee shall be permitted to speak to the Reliance Banker without either the Independent Director or some other representative of the Debtors being present.

12. The parties agree that should any issues arise with respect to the Reliance Sale or the terms of this Order, the parties may seek a hearing before the Court on such shortened notice as may be appropriate under the circumstances.

13. The Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation of this Second Stipulation.

WHEREAS, the Debtors, the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Lenders and the Committee have reached an agreement pursuant to this Stipulation (the “Second Stipulation”) that will, among other things, (i) provide the Debtors with an additional $1.5 million to fund the plan process through the continued use of the Prepetition Lenders’ Cash Collateral; (ii) provide the Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Lenders with a complete release of any and all causes of action, including the Preserved Challenges; and (iii) resolve the Lender Disbursement Issue;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY AGREED THAT:

1. Contemporaneously with the closing of the Blitz Sale, through the use of proceeds from the Blitz Sale or other available cash (all of which constitutes Cash Collateral of the Prepetition Lenders), the Debtors shall repay the Prepetition Lenders so that (i) the outstanding principal balance under the Prepetition Credit Facility is reduced to $1.5 million; and (ii) all accrued interest and submitted expenses under the Prepetition Credit Facility are paid to September 28, 2012.

2. The Debtors shall be authorized to use the Prepetition Lenders’ Cash Collateral during the period from the Closing Date through December 31, 2012 (the “Extended Maturity Date”), in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Second Stipulation. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors’ use of Cash Collateral pursuant to this Second Stipulation shall not be subject to any of the limitations or budget constraints that were contained in the DIP Order or the First Stipulation.

3. The Prepetition Agent and the Prepetition Lenders are entitled, pursuant to sections 105, 361 and 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, to adequate protection of their interests in the Prepetition Collateral, including Cash Collateral, which shall consist of the following: (i) during the period until the Extended Maturity Date, payments from the Debtors equal to interest calculated at the non-default rate under the Prepetition Credit Agreement, payable on October 31, 2012, November 30, 2012 and December 31, 2012, respectively, and (ii) reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses of the Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Lenders, after notice to the Debtors, the Office of the United States Trustee (the "U.S. Trustee") and the Committee, and an opportunity to object as provided in Paragraph 12 of the DIP Order.

4. The Debtors and the Committee each acknowledge that the obligations of the Debtors under the Prepetition Credit Agreement are (i) legal, valid, binding and enforceable against each Debtor, and (ii) not subject to any contest, attack, objection, recoupment, defense, counterclaim, offset, subordination, recharacterization, avoidance or other claim, cause of action or other challenge of any nature under the Bankruptcy Code, under applicable non-bankruptcy law or otherwise. The Debtors and the Committee also acknowledge that they do not have, hereby forever release and are forever barred from bringing or asserting any claims, counterclaims, causes of action, defense or setoff rights relating to the Prepetition Credit Facility, whether arising under the Bankruptcy Code, under applicable non-bankruptcy law or otherwise against the Prepetition Agent, the Prepetition Lenders and their respective officers, directors, employees or attorneys (collectively, the "Prepetition Lender Group").

5. The Debtors and the Committee also acknowledge that the Prepetition Agent and Prepetition Lenders have liens and security interests in and to the Prepetition Collateral, including liens on the common stock of Reliance Products Holdings, Inc. (the "Reliance Stock") and rights to the $2.5 million letter of credit issued by Kinderhook, and such liens and security interests are legal, valid, enforceable, non-avoidable and duly perfected and are not subject to avoidance, attack, objection, recoupment, defense, counterclaim, offset, subordination, recharacterization, avoidance or other claim, cause of action or other challenge of any nature under the Bankruptcy Code, under applicable non-bankruptcy law or otherwise.

6. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors and the Committee agree not to take any actions against the Prepetition Lender Group, including the filing of any motion or any other action involving any interest of the Prepetition Lender Group, without the approval of the Prepetition Agent.

7. Nothing in this Second Stipulation or any order approving the same shall restrict the Debtors, in consultation with the Committee, from using any proceeds from the Blitz Sale (following repayment of the Prepetition Credit Facility in accordance with Paragraph 1 of this Second Stipulation) or Cash Collateral to pay outstanding administrative expenses incurred in connection with these Chapter 11 Cases, including, but not limited to, accrued and allowed professional fees in excess of the amounts set forth in the Professional Fee Budgets under the DIP Order and First Stipulation.

8. The Debtors shall use their reasonable best efforts, subject to their fiduciary duties, to effectuate a sale (the "Reliance Sale") of either the Reliance Stock or the equity interests or assets of Reliance Products Holdings, Inc., Reliance Products, Inc., Moll PlastiCrafters, Inc., Renaissance Plastics, Inc. and Reliance Products Limited Partnership (collectively, the "Reliance Entities") by December 31, 2012. The Debtors shall determine, in consultation with Reliance's investment banker (the "Reliance Investment Banker"), appropriate benchmarks for effectuating the Reliance Sale by December 31, 2012 (the "Sale Benchmarks"). The Debtors shall consult with the attorneys and financial advisors to the Committee (the "Committee Professionals") prior to setting the Sale Benchmarks and shall use reasonable efforts to include the Committee Professionals in discussions with the Reliance Investment Banker regarding the Sale Benchmarks; provided, however, that the Committee Professionals shall not be permitted to speak to the Reliance Banker without either the Independent Director (as defined herein) or some other representative of the Debtors being present. Upon establishing the Sale Benchmarks, the Debtors shall provide them to the Committee Professionals and the Prepetition Agent.

9. James A. Pearson, who is currently a director for each of the Debtors, shall serve as the independent director (the “Independent Director”) charged with overseeing the Reliance Sale. The Independent Director shall also be appointed as a member of the board of directors or governing bodies of each of the Reliance Entities.

10. The Debtors and/or the Independent Director shall provide the Committee Professionals with updates at least on a weekly basis, commencing during the week of October 1, 2102, through either a call or the provision of information, regarding the status of the Reliance Sale. The Debtors and/or Independent Director shall provide copies of any written reports provided in connection with the weekly updates to the Prepetition Agent. The Debtors will provide the Committee Professionals with copies of the CIM and teasers developed for the Reliance Sale process and copies of management presentations for the Reliance Sale. The Debtors shall provide the Committee Professionals with the number of potential bidders who (i) received copies of such CIM and teaser; and (ii) (x) in connection with the Reliance Sale, signed non-disclosure agreements and (y) were given management presentations. The Debtors and/or Independent Director shall also provide the Committee Professionals (for their eyes only) with copies of (subject to appropriate redactions regarding the names of Prospective Buyers (as defined herein)) a copy of the engagement letter for the Reliance Investment Banker and any final indications of interest received after the date of this Second Stipulation. For the avoidance of doubt, neither the Independent Director, the Debtors nor the Reliance Entities (or any officer, director, manager, employee or agent, or any other person acting or purporting to act on their behalf) shall be required to provide the Committee Professionals with the name of, or other identifying information with respect to any prospective buyer in connection with the Reliance Sale (each, a "Prospective Buyer"); but rather, the parties hereto will continue to discuss the sharing of this information, with all of their respective rights being reserved on the issue. Notwithstanding anything in this Paragraph to the contrary, not later than the date on which a definitive asset purchase agreement is entered into, to the extent the Debtors and/or Reliance Entities are not otherwise restricted from doing so under the terms of an applicable non-disclosure agreement (an "NDA"), the Debtors shall provide to the Committee Professionals (for their eyes only) the identity of the counterparty to the asset purchase agreement and provide the Committee Professionals (for their eyes only) a list of all other Prospective Buyers that expressed an interest in the Reliance Sale; provided, however, that notwithstanding the language of any NDA, the Debtors shall identify for the Committee Professionals, provided that such information is known to the Independent Director or the Debtors, any "insiders" (as such term is defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code) or affiliates of the Debtors, Kinderhook or any of the principals of Kinderhook, or Crestwood that have submitted an offer upon receipt of the offer in connection with the Reliance Sale; and provided further that the Committee Professionals shall be precluded from contacting any Prospective Buyer regarding the Reliance Sale.

11. Neither the Committee Professionals nor any member of the Committee shall be permitted to speak to the Reliance Banker without either the Independent Director or some other representative of the Debtors being present.

12. The parties agree that should any issues arise with respect to the Reliance Sale or the terms of this Order, the parties may seek a hearing before the Court on such shortened notice as may be appropriate under the circumstances.

13. The Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation of this Second Stipulation.
