14. The liens granted to the Ally Secured Parties pursuant to this Order shall be perfected by operation of law immediately upon entry of this Order by the Court. None of the Ally Secured Parties shall be required to take any action in order to validate and to perfect the liens granted pursuant to this Order.

Critical Origination Vendors

15. Pursuant to section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, in the reasonable exercise of their business judgment, to pay some or all of the prepetition claims of Critical Origination Vendors, upon such terms and in the manner provided in this Order and the Motion and subject to the Management Approval Process (as defined below); provided, that payments to Critical Origination Vendors on account of prepetition claims shall not exceed $2,210,000 during the first thirty (30) days following the Petition Date; provided, further, that payments to Critical Origination Vendors on account of such prepetition claims may not be accelerated and shall be made only in the ordinary course in accordance with Customary Trade Terms.

16. As used herein, the term “Management Approval Process” means the advance review and approval by James L. Whitlinger, Chief Financial Officer of Residential Capital, LLC, following consultation with the Debtors’ management and FTI Consulting, of any prepetition payment made to a Critical Origination Vendor.

17. Notwithstanding payment to any party of a prepetition claim made in accordance with the terms of this Order, any statutory committee appointed in the Debtors’ cases

(the "Committee") shall retain the right to review and seek recovery of any such payment by an appropriate motion.

18. Promptly after entry of this Order and weekly thereafter, the Debtors shall provide counsel for the Committee and the Office of the Office of the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York with a schedule of all payments made to Critical Origination Vendors on account of prepetition claims in accordance with the terms of this Order, which shall include the name and address of the Critical Origination Vendor and the amount and date of the payment.

19. If a Critical Origination Vendor refuses to supply products and/or services to the Debtors on Customary Trade Terms (or such other terms as are agreed by the parties) following receipt of payment on its prepetition claim, then the Debtors may, in their sole discretion and without further order of the Court:

- (a) declare that any payments made to the Critical Origination Vendor on account of such claim be deemed to have been in payment of then-outstanding (or subsequently accruing) postpetition claims of the Critical Origination Vendor without further order of the Court or action by any person or entity; and
- (b) take actions to recover or seek disgorgement of any payment made to the Critical Origination Vendor on account of its prepetition claim to the extent that the payments exceeded the postpetition claims of the Critical Origination Vendor, without giving effect to any rights of setoff, recoupment, claims, provision for payment of reclamation or trust fund claims, or other defense.

Under any such circumstances, such Critical Origination Vendor shall immediately repay to the Debtors any payment made to it on account of its Critical Origination Vendor claims to the extent that such payments exceed the postpetition claims of the Critical Origination Vendor, without giving effect to any rights of setoff, recoupment, claims, provision for payment of reclamation or trust fund claims, or other defense.

20. Nothing herein shall:

- (a) constitute a waiver of the Debtors' rights to seek damages, disgorgement or other appropriate remedies against any breaching Critical Origination Vendor;
- (b) be construed to waive, limit, or in any way affect, the Debtors' ability to dispute a claim of a Critical Origination Vendor;
- (c) be deemed an admission to the validity of the underlying obligation, including any payment made pursuant to this Order;
- (d) be deemed to constitute an assumption or rejection of any executory contract or prepetition or postpetition agreement between the Debtors and a Critical Origination Vendor; or
- (e) be deemed to require the Debtors to make any of the payments to Critical Origination Vendors authorized herein.

21. Notwithstanding entry of this Order, the Debtors' rights to enforce the automatic stay provisions of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to any creditor who demands payment of its prepetition claims as a condition to doing business with the Debtors postpetition are preserved.

22. The banks and other financial institutions at which the Debtors maintain their disbursement accounts are authorized and directed at the Debtors' direction, to receive, process, honor, and pay, to the extent of funds on deposit, any and all checks drawn or electronic fund transfers requested or to be requested by the Debtors in respect of the claims of Critical Origination Vendors.

23. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to issue new postpetition checks, or effect new electronic fund transfers, on account of the claims of Critical Origination Vendors to replace any prepetition checks or electronic fund transfer requests that may be lost or dishonored or rejected as a result of the commencement of the Debtors' chapter 11 cases.

Repurchase and Related Obligations

24. Pursuant to sections 105(a), 363(c)(1), 1107 and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to honor in their sole and absolute discretion all mortgage loan repurchase or repurchase-related obligations (or, in their sole discretion, to pay “make-whole” payments in lieu of repurchase), in accordance with their applicable representations and warranty obligations, arising in the ordinary course of business in connection with: (a) their sale of GA Loans to Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac or Ginnie Mae securitization trusts; and (b) their sale of Non-GA Loans, in each case without regard to whether such obligations arose prepetition or postpetition; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to limit, or in any way affect, the Debtors’ ability to dispute or contest the validity or amounts of such claims or obligations.

25. Pursuant to sections 105(a), 363(c)(1), 1107 and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors are authorized, but not required, in their sole and absolute discretion:

- (a) to honor all mortgage loan repurchase or related obligations in accordance with their applicable representations and warranty obligations, arising in the ordinary course of business in connection with:
 - (i) their servicing of the GA Loans, in accordance with the applicable GA Guides, GA Servicing Agreements, and related documents; and
 - (ii) their servicing and subservicing agreements with other clients;
- (b) to satisfy prepetition penalties incurred in connection with “servicer error” claims made by counterparties to the Debtors’ subservicing agreements;
- (c) to satisfy prepetition penalties in the event the Debtors fail to meet required deadlines with respect to foreclosure and sale activities for GA Loans; and
- (d) with respect to Ginnie Mae Loans, to honor repurchase obligations in connection with loan modifications, foreclosures, and short sales;

provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to limit, waive, or in any way affect, the Debtors’ ability to dispute or contest the validity or amounts of such claims or obligations.

26. Pursuant to sections 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors are authorized to resell modified Ginnie Mae Loans to Ginnie Mae guaranteed securitization trusts or to submit claims to HUD for reimbursement by the FHA or VA, as applicable, with respect to repurchased Ginnie Mae Loans in accordance with their prepetition practices.

27. To the extent that the automatic stay of Bankruptcy Code section 362(a) applies to requests by the Governmental Associations that the Debtors repurchase GA Loans, the automatic stay is hereby modified pursuant to section 362(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, to the limited extent necessary, to allow the Governmental Associations to submit repurchase or repurchase-related requests to the Debtors, including, without limitation, requests for indemnity, credit enhancement, recourse liability, make-whole payments, or other remedies provided by the GA Guides and GA Purchase Documents; provided, however, that such requests are limited to such requests and remedies as may be made in the ordinary course; provided, further, that the automatic stay, to the extent applicable will remain in effect with respect to any effort by the Governmental Associations to enforce or collect on any such request.

28. Any undisputed, noncontingent and liquidated postpetition claims of Ginnie Mae arising under, or pursuant to, the Debtors' sale of the Ginnie Mae Loans, including, without limitation, repurchase, indemnity, credit enhancement, recourse liability, make-whole payments, or other remedies provided by the Ginnie Mae MBS Guide or other applicable GA Purchase Documents, shall be granted administrative expense priority pursuant to section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

29. For the avoidance of doubt, all payments by the Debtors to the Governmental Associations, including, without limitation, repurchase, make-whole and indemnity payments, shall be made free and clear of any lien, security interest, or other interest of any party, including, without limitation, any prepetition or postpetition lender.

Other Relief

30. The Debtors are authorized and empowered to take all actions and execute such documents as may be necessary or appropriate to carry out the relief granted herein.

31. Nothing herein shall be deemed to limit the rights of the Debtors to operate their business in the ordinary course, and no subsequent order shall be required to confirm such rights.

32. Notwithstanding the relief granted herein and any actions taken hereunder, nothing contained herein shall constitute, nor is it intended to constitute, the assumption of any contract or agreement under Bankruptcy Code section 365 or the waiver by the Debtors or their non-Debtor affiliates of any of their rights pursuant to any agreement by operation of law or otherwise.

33. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Order, any action to be taken pursuant to the relief authorized in this Order is subject to the terms of any cash collateral order or debtor in possession financing order entered in these chapter 11 proceedings. To the extent that there is any inconsistency between the terms of this Order and the terms of any order relating to postpetition financing or cash collateral, the terms of the orders relating to postpetition financing or cash collateral shall govern, except with respect to the first priority liens granted in paragraphs 8 and 11 of this Order.

34. Nothing in this Order shall discharge, release, or otherwise preclude any setoff or recoupment right of the United States of America, its agencies, departments, or agents.
