Notice Period and Sale Notice

8. Interested Parties shall have (i) five (5) business days from service of the Sale Notice to file and serve any objections to a Limited Notice De Minimis Sale and (ii) ten (10) business days from service of the Sale Notice to file and serve any objections to a Noticed De Minimis Sale (the "Notice Period"); provided, however, the Debtors shall consult with the Creditors' Committee as soon as practicable upon the commencement of any marketing process that the Debtors expect will culminate in a De Minimis Sale, including providing the Creditors' Committee with (i) the information, to the extent known, described in a Sale Notice, (ii) any offering documents provided to prospective purchasers related to the De Minimis Sale, and (iii) any additional information reasonably requested by the Creditors' Committee.

9. With respect to all De Minimis Sales, the Sale Notice will specify:²

(i) a description of the asset(s) proposed to be sold;

(ii) (a) an identification of the executory contracts and unexpired leases, if any, to be assumed, assigned, or rejected in connection with the sale, (b) the amounts the Debtors believe are required to cure any defaults pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 365(b), (c) a statement regarding the adequate assurance of future performance by the proposed assignee, consistent with Bankruptcy Code Section 365, and (d) with respect to executory contracts and unexpired leases to be rejected: (I) the proposed effective date for the rejection, (II) notice of the bar date for claims arising from the rejection, and (III) that if any of the Debtors has deposited funds with the counterparty as a security deposit or other arrangement, such counterparty may not set off or otherwise use such deposit without the prior authority of the Court or agreement between the counterparty and the Debtors;

(iii) the identities of any parties holding or asserting Liens in the property and a statement indicating how the Debtors propose to satisfy Bankruptcy Code Section 363(f) with respect thereto;

(iv) a statement identifying the broker, if any, and the amount of the proposed commissions;

(vii) the identity of the proposed purchaser (including a statement indicating whether the proposed purchaser is an "insider" as defined in Bankruptcy Code Section 101(31)); and

(viii) the major economic terms and conditions of the De Minimis Sale, including net proceeds.³

² The Sale Notice shall provide information only relating to the proposed sale of the Debtors' assets and shall not be required to contain information regarding the sale of third party assets that are being consummated in the same sale by the Debtors in their capacity as servicer.

10. Objections to all De Minimis Sales, including objections that relate to the assumption, assignment, or rejection of related contracts (the “Objections”), shall be in writing, filed with the Court, and served on the applicable Interested Parties and counsel to the Debtors so as to be received by all such parties prior to 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on the last day of the Notice Period. Each Objection must state with specificity the grounds for the Objection.

11. If any economic terms of a De Minimis Sale are amended in a manner adverse to any Interested Party after transmittal of the Sale Notice, the Debtors shall serve a revised Sale Notice on all applicable Interested Parties describing the proposed De Minimis Sale, as amended. If a revised Sale Notice is required, the Notice Period will expire on the later of the original Notice Period expiration date or five (5) business days from service of the revised Sale Notice.

12. If an Objection to a De Minimis Sale is properly filed and served by an Interested Party:

(i) The Debtors may negotiate with the objecting party and may change the terms of the sale without the requirement of extending the Notice Period, as long as (a) the revised terms are no more onerous to the Debtors than those set forth in the Sale Notice, and (b) the revised terms do not adversely affect the rights of any other Interested Parties; provided, however, that the Debtors shall provide notice of all changes as soon as reasonably practicable to the Interested Parties, whether or not such changes impact the Interested Parties.

(ii) The De Minimis Sale may not proceed absent (a) written agreement between the Debtors and the objecting party resolving the Objection; or (b) entry of an order by the Court specifically approving the De Minimis Sale.

³ This information may, but is not required to, be provided by attaching the applicable contract or contracts to the Sale Notice.

(iii) The Debtors may schedule a hearing on the proposed De Minimis Sale (a) on the next omnibus hearing date in the Debtors' cases on regular or shortened notice, provided that the Interested Parties are provided by the Debtors at least five (5) business days' prior written notice of such hearing date and time following the expiration of the applicable Notice Period, or (b) in accordance with the Court's order establishing case management procedures (including the right of the Debtors and/or the objecting party to move for an emergency hearing). Upon the scheduling of such a hearing, the Debtors will provide notice of the hearing on the party filing the Objection and the Interested Parties.

13. If no Objection to a De Minimis Sale is filed or served by an Interested Party consistent with the De Minimis Sale Procedures, upon the expiration of the relevant Notice Period, such De Minimis Sale will be deemed final and fully authorized by the Court under the terms of this Order, including the payment of related brokers' commissions, if applicable, and the assumption, assignment, or rejection of executory contracts or unexpired leases, if applicable (including the payment of cure costs related thereto), and no further notice or Court approval to consummate the De Minimis Sale will be required or necessary. The Debtors may consummate a De Minimis Sale prior to the expiration of the applicable Notice Period if they obtain each Interested Party's written consent to such De Minimis Sale.

Effects of Sale

14. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Code Section 363(f), all sales of assets and interests in assets pursuant to this Order shall be free and clear of all Liens, if any, and any such valid, and where applicable perfected, Liens will attach to the proceeds of the sale with the same force, validity, priority, perfection and effect as such Liens had on the assets and interests in assets immediately prior to the sale, subject to the rights, claims, defenses and objections, if any, of the Debtors, the Creditors' Committee, or the applicable Interested Party. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing in this Order shall be construed to invalidate or subordinate any duly perfected, non-voidable, valid liens of governmental units for personal property taxes, real property taxes, special taxes, special assessments, and infrastructure improvement taxes arising before or after the commencement of these Chapter 11 cases to the extent that such liens of governmental units take priority over previously granted and perfected consensual liens or security interests in assets of the Debtors under applicable non-bankruptcy law.

15. All buyers will take assets sold by the Debtors pursuant to the De Minimis Sale Procedures subject to the terms of the documentation executed in connection with the sale, which may (but is not required to) include provisions that the buyers are taking the assets “as is” and “where is,” without any representations or warranties from the Debtors as to the quality or fitness of such assets for either their intended purpose or any particular purpose.

16. Upon the closing of a De Minimis Sale, the Debtors may (a) assume any executory contract or unexpired lease to be assigned to a proposed purchaser or other third party as a part of the proposed sale and provide for the payment of the related cure amount, and (b) reject any executory contract or unexpired lease identified for rejection in the Sale Notice. The counterparties to any executory contracts or unexpired leases identified in the Sale Notice pursuant to the Noticed De Minimis Sale Procedures are hereby barred from asserting any further cure claims in respect of such executory contracts or unexpired leases after the objection period for a Noticed De Minimis Sale has passed and subject to the resolution of any Objection made within the Notice Period.

17. With respect to all Limited Notice De Minimis Sales and Noticed De Minimis Sales consummated pursuant to this Order, this Order shall be sole and sufficient evidence of the transfer of title to any particular purchaser, and all such sales consummated pursuant to this Order shall be binding upon and shall govern the acts of all persons and entities who may be required by operation of law, the duties of their office, or contract, to accept, file, register or otherwise record or release any documents or instruments, or who may be required to report or insure any title or state of title in or to any of the property sold pursuant to this Order, including without limitation, all filing agents, filing officers, title agents, title companies, recorders of mortgages, recorders of deeds, administrative agencies, governmental departments, secretaries of state, and federal, state, and local officials, and each of such persons and entities is hereby directed to accept this Order as sole and sufficient evidence of such transfer of title and shall rely upon this Order in consummating the transactions contemplated hereby.

The Quarterly Report

18. On or before the 30th day following each calendar quarter in which the Debtors consummate a De Minimis Sale, commencing with the calendar quarter beginning on August 1, 2012, the Debtors shall file and serve on the Creditors' Committee and the Interested Parties a report summarizing all Limited Notice De Minimis Sales and Noticed De Minimis Sales that were consummated during the immediately preceding calendar quarter (each, a "Quarterly Report"). With respect to each applicable sale, each Quarterly Report shall include:

- (i) a description of the assets sold;
- (ii) the identity of the purchaser and any relationship such party has with the Debtors and their estates;
- (iii) the total consideration received in connection with the sale;
and
- (iv) the identity of any broker(s), and the amount of the commissions paid to such broker(s);

Miscellaneous

19. To the extent not previously authorized by this Court or as otherwise required by applicable law, the Debtors shall seek Court authority to retain any brokers or liquidators assisting the Debtors in De Minimis Sales.

20. Any sale to an “insider,” as defined in Bankruptcy Code Section 101(31) is excluded from this Order. For the avoidance of doubt, any affiliate (as that term is defined in the Bankruptcy Code) of Ally Financial, Inc. shall be deemed an “insider.”

23. Subject to paragraphs 14 and 22, absent further order of the Court, the proceeds of any De Minimis Sale shall be used only for the payment of operating expenses in the ordinary course of business that are (i) afforded administrative expense status under Section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, or (ii) otherwise authorized by any prior orders of the Court; provided, however, that for the avoidance of doubt, absent further order of the Court, no proceeds of any De Minimis Sale shall be used to pay down any of the Debtors' prepetition credit facilities.

24. To the extent applicable, the 14-day stay of Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 6004(h) is hereby waived, and this Order shall be effective immediately. Furthermore, De Minimis Sales shall be deemed authorized pursuant to the terms of this Order and no further or additional waivers of the 14-day stay of Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 6004(h) shall be required for the Debtors to consummate a De Minimis Sale, subject to compliance with the notice and other procedures set forth herein.

25. The Debtors are authorized to execute and deliver all instruments and documents, and take such other action as may be necessary or appropriate to implement and effectuate the transactions contemplated by this Order.

Nothing in this Order shall be deemed to allow the Debtors to abandon real or personal property in violation of any applicable state or federal laws or regulations, including but not limited to environmental laws and regulations.

27. Nothing in this Order shall be construed to prevent the Debtors, in their sole discretion, from seeking this Court's approval at any time of any proposed sale after notice and an opportunity for a hearing.

28. No further orders of this Court are necessary to effectuate the terms set forth herein for the transactions contemplated herein.
