Defendants GMAC Mortgage, LLC ("GMACM") and Executive Trustee Services, LLC ("ETS" and, together with GMACM, the "Debtor Defendants"), each a debtor and debtor in possession in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases (collectively with all affiliated debtors and debtors in possession, the "Debtors"), submit this motion (the "Motion") to dismiss the above-referenced adversary proceeding (the "Adversary Proceeding") commenced by pro se plaintiffs Brian Finell Kimber and Malinda Kimber ("Plaintiffs") for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted and insufficient service of process or, in the alternative, requesting that the Court exercise its discretion to abstain from exercising jurisdiction over the Adversary Proceeding. In support hereof, the Debtor Defendants submit the Declaration of Erica J. Richards, dated March 6, 2013 (the "Richards Decl."), attached hereto as Exhibit 1, and respectfully represent:

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

- 1. The Plaintiffs' claims should be dismissed under principles of res judicata and collateral estoppel. Indeed, the vast majority of the claims asserted in this action have already been litigated and dismissed by the Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Texas.
- 2. The Plaintiffs are joint debtors in a chapter 13 bankruptcy case currently pending before the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Texas (the "Texas Bankruptcy Court"). On November 20, 2012, the Plaintiffs filed an adversary complaint in their chapter 13 case (the "Texas Complaint"), against the same defendants named in the instant Complaint, and asserting identical claims and requests for relief. Pursuant to an order entered on February 21, 2013, the Texas Bankruptcy Court dismissed the majority of the claims asserted in the Texas Complaint on the merits, and ordered the Plaintiffs to file an amended Texas Complaint as to the remaining counts on or before March 6, 2013, or such counts will also be defendants before this Court under principles of res judicata and collateral estoppel. Accordingly, the Complaint should be dismissed pursuant to FRCP 12(b)(6) for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. To the extent the Texas Bankruptcy Court's ruling with respect to the remaining counts of the Texas Complaint are not yet final, the Debtors respectfully submit that this Court nonetheless should abstain from exercising jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334(c)(1) in the interest of comity and judicial efficiency.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. The Court has jurisdiction over this adversary proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 (a) and 1334(b). Venue is proper under 28 U.S.C. § 1409. This is a non-core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(b)(1) and (b)(2). Nonetheless, pursuant to Local Bankruptcy Rule 7012-1, the Debtor Defendants consent to entry of a final order or judgment by this Court if it is determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgment consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

III. BACKGROUND

A. General Bankruptcy Case Background

- 4. On May 14, 2012 (the "Petition Date"), each of the Debtors filed a voluntary petition for relief under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in this Court. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors and their non-debtor affiliates operated the fifth largest mortgage servicing business in the United States.
- 5. The Debtors are managing and operating their businesses as debtors in possession pursuant to Bankruptcy Code sections 1107(a) and 1108. Their chapter 11 cases (collectively, the "Bankruptcy Case") are being jointly administered pursuant to Rule 1015(b) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"). No trustee has been appointed in the Bankruptcy Case.

- 6. On May 16, 2012, the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York appointed a nine member official committee of unsecured creditors (the "Creditors' Committee").
- 7. On November 30, 2012, the Court entered an order approving the retention of SilvermanAcampora LLP ("SilvermanAcampora") as special counsel to the Creditors' Committee [Dkt. No. 2315].

B. Events Giving Rise to the Adversary Proceeding¹

- (i) Origination and Foreclosure of Plaintiffs' Loan
- 8. Plaintiffs are borrowers under a mortgage loan (the "Loan") that was originated by Amerigroup Mortgage Corporation ("Amerigroup") on May 2, 2009. The Loan is evidenced by a note in the amount of $175,950.00 (the "Note"), which is secured by real property located at 6109 Bridgewood Drive, Kileen, Texas 76549 (the "Property") pursuant to a deed of Trust (the "Deed of Trust") executed contemporaneously with the Note. On or about June 6, 2012, Amerigroup assigned the Deed of Trust to GMACM.
- 9. As a result of Plaintiffs' continuing default under the Loan, GMACM initiated a non-judicial foreclosure with respect to the Property. On August 7, 2012, the Property was sold at a foreclosure sale.

The facts described below are based upon counsel's investigation of the Plaintiffs' personal bankruptcy proceedings. If the Court desires, the Debtors will provide the Court with the loan documents and pleadings filed in the Plaintiffs' personal bankruptcy cases.

(ii) Plaintiffs' Bankruptcy Cases

- 10. On August 7, 2012, the same day as the foreclosure sale of the Property, Mr. Kimber filed a petition for chapter 13 protection in the Texas Bankruptcy Court, Case No. 12-11803 (HCM) (the "Plaintiff's First Bankruptcy Case").
- 11. On September 10, 2012, the Texas Bankruptcy Court entered an order for summary dismissal of Plaintiff's First Bankruptcy Case for failure to timely file a plan and/or schedules. Plaintiff's First Bankruptcy Case was closed on November 29, 2012.
- 12. On October 8, 2012, Plaintiffs filed a joint petition for chapter 13 protection in the Texas Bankruptcy Court, Case No. 12-61074 (CAG) (the "Plaintiffs' Bankruptcy Case").
- 13. On November 20, 2012, Plaintiffs filed the Texas Complaint in the Plaintiffs' Bankruptcy Case, thereby initiating an adversary proceeding, Case No. 12-ap-6040 (CAG) (the "Texas AP"), against: GMACM; Amerigroup; Transcontinental Title Co.; Mortgage Electronic Registration Systems, Inc. ("MERS"); Susan Turner ("Turner"), ETS; Pite Duncan, LLP; Gabrial Ozel; Raye Mayhorn; Realty Executives of Killeen, Inc.; Sol Jessy Lockhart; and Alarcon Law Group P.C. (collectively, the "Defendants"). The Texas Complaint, which is identical to the instant action, asserts claims for: (a) violation of the automatic stay in Plaintiff's First Bankruptcy Case (Count I); (b) avoidance of defective deed of trust (Count II); (c) declaratory relief (Count III); and (d) turnover (Count IV). See Texas Complaint, attached as Exhibit A to the Richards Decl.
- 14. On December 17, 2012, Plaintiffs filed a Motion For Rule to Show Cause Against Defendants GMAC Mortgage, Sol Jessy Lockhart and Realty Executives of Killeen, Inc. dba Realty Executives International and Pite Duncan, LLP For Violation of Automatic Stay

Provisions of Section 361 of Bankruptcy Code (ECF # 14) (the "Show Cause Motion") in the Texas AP.

- 15. On December 20, 2012, the Debtor Defendants filed a motion to dismiss the Texas AP (ECF # 16) (the "Texas MTD").
- 16. On January 7, 2013, the Debtor Defendants filed a response to the Show Cause Motion (ECF # 24).
- 17. At a hearing held on February 19, 2013, the Texas Bankruptcy Court denied Plaintiffs' Show Cause Motion and granted in part the Texas MTD.
- Granting in Part and Denying in Part Motion to Dismiss (ECF # 41) (the "Texas Order"), pursuant to which the Texas Motion to Dismiss was granted with prejudice as to Counts II, III, and IV against GMACM, ETS, MERS, and Turner (collectively, the "GMACM Defendants"). Also pursuant to the Texas Order, the Texas Motion to Dismiss was granted with prejudice as to Count I against Defendants Turner and MERS, and denied without prejudice as to Count I against the Debtor Defendants. See Texas Order, attached as Exhibit B to the Richards Decl.
- 19. The Texas Bankruptcy Court has ordered Plaintiffs to file an amended Texas Complaint as to Count I against the Debtor Defendants on or before March 6, 2013. The amended Texas Complaint must make specific factual allegations about the notice Plaintiffs gave the Debtor Defendants of Plaintiff's First Bankruptcy Case. If Plaintiffs fail to comply with the Texas Bankruptcy Court's directions, the Texas Order provides that the Texas Bankruptcy Court may also dismiss Count I against the Debtor Defendants.

(iii) The Adversary Proceeding

- 20. On November 26, 2012, Plaintiffs filed the instant Complaint initiating the Adversary Proceeding. A summons and notice of pretrial conference (the "Summons") was issued with respect to the Adversary Proceeding on November 29, 2012.
- 21. As of the date hereof, no affidavit of service of the Complaint and Summons had been filed. Also as of the date hereof, the Debtor Defendants have no record of being served by any other legally sufficient means, either directly upon an officer or through their registered agent.
- 22. The Debtor Defendants learned of this Adversary Proceeding through MERS, which notified the Debtor Defendants of the Complaint on November 27, 2012. The Debtor Defendants also learned of this case through its monitoring of the Bankruptcy Case docket.
- 23. The Complaint is brought against the same defendants named in the Texas AP, and asserts identical claims and requests for relief as those made in the Texas Complaint.
- 24. At the request of the Debtors, SilvermanAcampora contacted Plaintiffs to discuss the basis for the Adversary Proceeding, and whether Plaintiffs would consent to withdraw the Complaint in light of the apparent duplication of the causes of action already being asserted in the Texas AP. Plaintiffs refused to withdraw the Complaint.

IV. ARGUMENT

A. The Adversary Proceeding Should Be Dismissed Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7012(b) and FRCP 12(b)(5) and (6)

25. Bankruptcy Rule 7012 incorporates by reference Rule 12(b)-12(i) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure ("FRCP"). FRCP 12(b) provides that a party may assert specified defenses by motion, including lack of subject matter jurisdiction, insufficient service of process, and failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted, and that a motion asserting any of these defenses may be made before pleading. The Adversary Proceeding should also be dismissed pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7012(b)(6) because Plaintiffs have failed to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. The Adversary Proceeding should be dismissed pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7012(b) and FRCP 12(b)(5) because Plaintiffs failed to provide sufficient service of process.

(i) Failure to State a Claim

- (a) Legal Standard
- 26. Plaintiff's Complaint should also be dismissed on the ground that Plaintiff has failed to plead sufficient facts to establish his claims against the Debtor Defendants.
- 27. FRCP 12(b)(6) permits dismissal of an action for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. For FRCP 12(b)(6) purposes, a court must accept the plaintiff's factual allegations as true, drawing all reasonable inferences in the plaintiff's favor.

 Bernheim v. Litt, 79 F.3d 318, 321 (2d Cir. 1996).
- 28. The Court's review on a motion to dismiss pursuant to FRCP 12(b)(6) is generally limited to "the facts as asserted within the four corners of the complaint, the documents attached to the complaint as exhibits, and any documents incorporated in the complaint by reference." McCarthy v. Dun & Bradstreet Corp., 482 F.3d 184, 191 (2d Cir. 2007). In addition, the Court may also consider "matters of which judicial notice may be taken" and "documents either in plaintiffs' possession or of which plaintiffs had knowledge and relied on in bringing suit." Brass v. Am. Film Techs., Inc., 987 F.2d 142, 150 (2d Cir. 1993). See also, Fed. R. Evid. 201(b), (d) ("A judicially noticed fact must be one not subject to reasonable dispute in that it is either (1) generally known within the territorial jurisdiction of the trial court or (2) capable of accurate and ready determination by resort to sources whose accuracy cannot reasonably be questioned . . . [A] court shall take judicial notice if requested by a party and supplied with the necessary information."); Norris v. Hearst Trust, 500 F.3d 454, 461 n.9 (5th Cir. 2007), ("[I]t is clearly proper in deciding a 12(b)(6) motion to take judicial notice of matters of public record."); Hirsch v. Arthur Andersen & Co., 72 F.3d 1085, 1088, 1092 (2d Cir. 1995) (noting that, in connection with a motion to dismiss, a court may consider all papers appended as well as matters of judicial notice).

- (b) Plaintiff's Claims are Barred by Res Judicata and Judicial Estoppel
- 29. Plaintiffs' claims have already been litigated and dismissed on the merits by the Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Texas. Thus, Plaintiffs' claims are barred by the doctrines of res judicata and collateral estoppel. Sure-Snap Corp. v. State St. Bank & Trust Co., 948 F.2d 869, 870 (2d Cir. 1991).
- 30. If, based on the face of the complaint, incorporated documents, matters of public record, and matters of which a court could take judicial notice, a successful affirmative defense appears, then dismissal under FRCP 12(b)(6) is proper. See, e.g., Hall v. Hodgkins, 305 Fed. Appx. 224, 228 (5th Cir. 2008), Banco Santander de Puerto Rico v. Lopez-Stubbe (In re Colonial Mortg. Bankers Corp.), 324 F.3d 12, 16 (1st Cir. 2003). See also Rodi v. S. New England Sch. of Law, 389 F.3d 5, 12, 17-19 (1st Cir. 2004) ("[A] properly raised affirmative defense can be adjudicated on a motion to dismiss so long as (i) the facts establishing the defense are definitively ascertainable from the complaint and the other allowable sources of information, and (ii) those facts suffice to establish the affirmative defense with certitude." (citation omitted)). Thus, where claims and issues are precluded based on res judicata or judicial estoppel, they are subject to dismissal under FRCP 12(b)(6). See, e.g., Aegis Realty Corp. v. Langer (In re Aegis Realty Corp.), 301 B.R. 116 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2003) (dismissing claim on res judicata grounds on a motion to dismiss by defendant); Gazes v. Delprete (In re Clinton St. Food Corp.), 254 B.R. 523 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2000) (dismissing claim on res judicata and collateral estoppel grounds on a motion to dismiss by defendants).

- permitted more than "one bite of the apple." Sure-Snap Corp. v. State St. Bank & Trust Co., 948 F.2d at 870. Res judicata pertains to the preclusive effect of a prior adjudication, and is actually composed of two doctrines. The first is "claim preclusion," under which the effect of a judgment extends to the litigation of all issues relevant to the same claim between the same parties, whether or not raised at trial; the second is collateral estoppel or "issue preclusion," which bars the re-litigation of issues actually adjudicated, and essential to the judgment, in a prior litigation between the same parties. 18 Charles Alan Wright and Arthur R. Miller, Federal Practice and Procedure § 4402 (1981) (citing Kaspar Wire Works, Inc. v. Leco Eng'g & Mach., Inc., 575 F.2d 530, 535- 36 (5th Cir. 1987)); see also Parklane Hosiery Co. v. Shore, 439 U.S. 322, 327 n.5 (1978). Res judicata prevents a party from re-litigating a cause of action, thereby giving finality to legal proceedings. Kelley v. S. Bay Bank (In re Kelley), 199 B.R. 698, 702 (B.A.P. 9th Cir. 1996).
- 32. To determine whether the doctrine of claim preclusion bars plaintiffs' relitigation of their claims, bankruptcy courts in the Second Circuit "consider whether (1) the prior decision was a final judgment on the merits, (2) the litigants were the same parties, (3) the prior court was of competent jurisdiction, and (4) the causes of action were the same." Corbett v. MacDonald Moving Servs., Inc., 124 F.3d 82, 87–88 (2d Cir. 1997). In addition, "[i]n the bankruptcy context, the Court must also determine 'whether an independent judgment in a separate proceeding would impair or destroy rights or interests established by the judgment entered in the first action." HSBC Bank USA, Nat'l Ass'n v. Adelphia Commc'ns Corp., Nos. 07-CV-553A(RJA), 07-CV-555A(RJA), 07-CV-554A(RJA), 2009 WL 385474, at *11 (W.D.N.Y. Feb. 12, 2009) (citing Corbett, 124 F.3d at 89).

- 33. On the other hand, "the principle of collateral estoppel, or issue preclusion, bars re-litigation of any factual or legal issue that was actually decided in previous litigation between the parties, whether on the same or a different claim." Dennis v. Rhode Island Hosp.

 Trust, 744 F.2d 893, 898 (1st Cir. 1984) (quoting RESTATEMENT (SECOND) OF JUDGMENTS, § 27 (1982)). As with claim preclusion, "[t]he underlying principle of issue preclusion is that one who has actually litigated an issue should not be allowed to relitigate it." Chase v. Chase (In re Chase), 392 B.R. 72, 81 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2008). (citation and internal quotation marks omitted). The essential elements of issue preclusion are: (1) the issue sought to be precluded must be the same as that involved in the prior action; (2) the issue must have been actually litigated; (3) the issue must have been determined by a valid and binding final judgment; and (4) the determination of the issue must have been essential to the judgment. Id.
- 34. Here, all the elements of claim preclusion and issue preclusion are satisfied with respect to the Debtor Defendants, thus barring Plaintiffs' prosecution of the Adversary Proceeding against the Debtor Defendants. Plaintiffs and the Debtor Defendants were all parties to the Texas AP, over which the Texas Bankruptcy Court had proper jurisdiction. Plaintiffs asserted identical claims against the same parties in the Texas AP and, pursuant to FRCP 12(b)(6), the Texas Bankruptcy Court dismissed all but one of those claims against GMAC and ETS for failure to state a claim, and directed that Plaintiffs amend the Texas Complaint or risk dismissal of that count as well. That dismissal became final upon expiration of the 14-day time to file a notice of appeal of the Texas Bankruptcy Court's final order entered on February 21, 2013. Thus, the Texas Bankruptcy Court's ruling is a final decision on the merits.

See, e.g., Federated Dep't Stores, Inc. v. Moitie, 452 U.S. 394, 399 n.3 (1981) (stating that dismissal under FRCP 12(b)(6) is a "judgment on merits"); Teltronics Servs., Inc. v. L M Ericsson Telecomme'ns, Inc., 642 F.2d 31, 34 (2d Cir. 1981), ("Judgments under Rule 12(b)(6) are on the merits, with res judicata effects" (quoting Exchange Nat'l Bank of Chic. v.

Touche Ross & Co., 544 F.2d 1126, 1130-31 (2d Cir. 1976))). Additionally, the determination of whether Plaintiffs stated a claim for relief was essential to the judgment on the Texas MTD.

Accordingly, each of the claims sought to be pursued by Plaintiff in the Adversary Proceeding is barred under principles of res judicata and/or judicial estoppel, thus warranting dismissal.

35. For the reasons set forth above, the Adversary Proceeding should be dismissed in its entirety for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7012(b) and FRCP 12(b)(6).

(ii) Insufficient Service of Process

36. Bankruptcy Rule 7004 incorporates by reference FRCP 4(c)(1), 4(h) and 4(l). FRCP 4(c)(1) in turn provides that the plaintiff is responsible for having the summons and complaint served within the time allowed, and FRCP 4(h) requires that a corporation must be served in the manner prescribed by FRCP 4(e)(1) for serving an individual, or by delivering a copy of the summons and complaint to an authorized agent and by mailing a copy of each to the defendant. In addition, under Bankruptcy Rule 7004(b)(3), service may also be effectuated by mailing a copy of the summons and complaint to "an officer, a managing or general agent, or to any other agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process" Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7004(b)(3). Bankruptcy Rule 7004(b)(9) also authorizes service upon a debtor by mailing a copy of the summons and complaint to the address shown in the bankruptcy petition.

Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7004(b)(9). Bankruptcy Rule 7004(e) further requires that service of the summons and complaint be delivered or deposited in the mail within 14 days after the summons is issued, and FRCP 4(l) requires that proof of service must be made to the court by the server's affidavit. Rule 9078-1 of the Local Bankruptcy Rules provides that, unless the Court orders otherwise, "any party serving a pleading or other document shall file proof of service by the earlier of (i) three days following the date of service, and (ii) the hearing date." Local Bankr. R. 9078-1.

37. Upon information and belief, the Debtor Defendants have not been served with the Complaint and Summons by any means prescribed by Bankruptcy Rule 7004. Accordingly, the Debtor Defendants request that the Adversary Proceeding be dismissed for insufficient service of process pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7012(b) and FRCP 12(b)(5).

B. The Court Should Abstain from Exercising Jurisdiction Over the Adversary Proceeding

- 38. To the extent the Court determines that principles of res judicata and collateral estoppel do not apply to the first Count of the Complaint, the Court nonetheless should abstain from exercising jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334(c)(1). Notwithstanding the presence of "related to" jurisdiction, a district court may abstain from exercising that jurisdiction on "any equitable ground," including "the interest of justice, or in the interest of comity with State courts or respect for State law. . . ." 28 U.S.C. § 1334(c)(1).
- 39. Although the statute refers to comity with State courts, these factors apply with equal force where, as here, there are parallel proceedings pending in two federal courts. See, e.g., Smith v. Bayer Corp., 131 S. Ct. 2368, 2382 (2011) ("[W]e would expect federal courts to apply principles of comity to each other's class certification decisions when addressing a common dispute."); Cortez Byrd Chips, Inc. v. Bill Harbert Constr. Co., 529 U.S. 193, 198, (2000) (observing that, where parallel proceedings were pending before U.S. District Courts in Alabama and Mississippi, "under principles of deference to the court of first filing, the Alabama court should have considered staying its hand").

Bankruptcy Court, and has been in large part disposed of on the merits. It would be an inefficient use of judicial resources for this Court to exercise its concurrent jurisdiction to rule on the merits of Plaintiffs' claims. Moreover, there is no risk of prejudice to Plaintiffs arising as a result of this Court's abstention, as the Texas AP involves identical allegations against the same parties, and is being heard in a venue that is more convenient for the Plaintiffs. To the contrary, the continuation of parallel proceeding poses the threat of inconsistent rulings on the same issue by two courts of equal standing. Such an outcome would limit the finality of both decisions, thereby giving rise to further judicial inefficiencies and causing inherent prejudice to all parties involved. As such, the Debtor Defendants respectfully request that the Court decline to exercise jurisdiction in favor of the Texas Bankruptcy Court and dismiss the Adversary Proceeding.

V. CONCLUSION

Accordingly, for the reasons set forth herein, the Debtor Defendants respectfully request that the Court dismiss the Adversary Proceeding with prejudice and grant such other and further relief as it deems just and proper.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

- 1. This Court has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1334.
- 2. This matter is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b) and Rule 7001 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules").
- 3. The legal predicates for the relief sought herein are based upon Section 544 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (the "Bankruptcy Code").
- 4. This is the proper forum in which to maintain this proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1409.

PARTIES

- 5. The Plaintiff is the Chapter 13 Debtor/Creditor (the "Debtor/Creditor") for the bankruptcy estate of the BRIAN FINELL KIMBER AND MALINDA KIMBER. Plaintiff loan is a Department of Veterans Affairs approved loan.
- 6. Plaintiff filed a previous bankruptcy case for relief on August 07, 2012 under Chapter 13 of the Bankruptcy Code, case number 12-11803-hcm.
- 7. The Defendant Amerigroup Mortgage Corporation, asserted to be a division of Defendant Mortgage Investors Corporation (collectively, "Amerigroup") is (or was) a corporation(s) that was organized under the laws of the State of Ohio and appears to be the original holder of a promissory note, related to the Deed of Trust described herein, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit A (DEED OF TRUST).

 Turner purportedly signed thousands of mortgage-related documents on behalf of several different banks and in multiple handwritings. See Exhibit "C" (Assignment dated June 6, 2012) allegedly signed by Susan Turner.
- 13. The Plaintiff's has reviewed the documents (Assignments) signed by Susan Turner and has concerns about the integrity of that Assignment and the process utilized by MERS/GMAC in filing the Assignment.
- 14. Subsequently, MERS filed the Assignment, Susan Turner, the individual who signed the Assignment on behalf of MERS does not appear to be a MERS employee. It is not apparent what steps Susan Turner took in order to pass a fraudulent Assignment.
- 15. Based on this fraudulent Assignment and inconsistencies, the Plaintiff should be given the opportunity to question Susan Turner about the methods she used and what documents were signed by her.

- 26. On or about August 15, 2012, Plaintiff's received a notice from Sol Lockhart, stating that their property was now owned by the Department of Veterans Affairs via foreclosure sale on August 07, 2012.
- 27. Sol Lockhart and her agents continued to threaten Plaintiff with eviction. They left notice after notices on Plaintiff's home and in Plaintiff's mail box demanding that he get out of his home. See Exhibit "D" (Notice From Sol Lockhart).
- 28. Plaintiff has suffered actual damages as a result of the aforementioned activities. Plaintiff's damages include emotional distress, out-of-pocket expenses.
- 29. Plaintiff's emotional distress damages include, but are not limited to, the fear that his financial situation may cause them to lose their house. These worries and concerns were separate from the anxiety he felt about filing for bankruptcy. Their reactions and emotions were not fleeting or inconsequential, especially in light of the fact that Defendant and it's agents repeatedly failed to correct its error. The circumstances surrounding the violations make it obvious that a reasonable person would suffer significant emotional harm.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests an order finding the Defendant to be in civil contempt by violating the automatic stay, and awarding Plaintiff actual damages, including costs and punitive damages pursuant to 11 U.S.C. 362(k) and for contempt of court.

COUNT TWO

(AVOIDANCE OF DEFECTIVE DEED OF TRUST)

- 30. Prior to the commencement of the bankruptcy case, the Debtors on or about May 02, 2009 executed and delivered to Amerigroup a deed of trust (the "Deed of Trust") upon the Real Property to secure a promissory note believed to be in the original principal amount of $175,000 (the "Note").
- 31. The Deed of Trust was recorded among the Land Records of Bell County, Belton Texas on or about June, 2009 in Lot 98, Block 3, of Bridgewood addition phase II, an addition to the City of Killeen, Bell County Texas, according to the plat thereof recorded in Cabinet D, Slide 105A, 106B & 106C of the Plate records, Bell County, Texas.
- 32. Amerigroup is asserted to be the original holder of the Note related to the Deed of Trust described herein.
- 33. First Title & Escrow, Inc. is the original Trustee of the Deed of Trust.
- 34. The Deed of Trust for which Amerigroup is the beneficiary is defective and invalid as to the Plaintiff pursuant to Real Property Sec. § 12.0011 (Instruments Concerning Property:

- 36. Further, pursuant to Section 544(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Plaintiff, as Debtor, holds the status of a bona fide purchaser of property of the bankruptcy estate and takes such property without knowledge and holds the power to avoid the lien of the Deed of Trust against the Real Property.
- 37. The Defendants failed to perfect the recordation of the Deed of Trust pursuant to Title 3 Chapter 12 Recording of Instruments resulting from the absence of a legally sufficient acknowledgement and affidavit. As such, the Deed of Trust upon the Real Property is void and invalid as to the Plaintiff pursuant to Section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff seeks the relief as set forth at the conclusion of this Adversary Proceeding Complaint.

COUNT THREE

(DECLARATORY RELIEF)

- 38. The Debtor incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 37 as fully set forth herein.
- 39. The defective Deed of Trust is voidable by the Plaintiff in the exercise of the powers granted to the Plaintiff, as

- 40. Accordingly, the Plaintiff seeks a declaration that the Deed of Trust, Assignment and the asserted lien and security interests of Defendants in and to the Real Property and/or the proceeds thereof be declared void as to the Plaintiff and the bankruptcy estate (or alternatively subordinate to the interest of the Plaintiff and the bankruptcy estate).
- 41. The Plaintiff also seeks a declaration that the interests of the Plaintiff and the bankruptcy estate in and to the Real Property and the proceeds thereof are superior to the unperfected interest of Defendants.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff seeks the relief as set forth at the conclusion of this Adversary Proceeding Complaint.

(TURNOVER)

- 22. The Plaintiff incorporates by reference all of the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 41 as fully set forth herein.
- 23. By reason of the foregoing, the security interest, and lien of the Defendants and the Deed of Trust in and to the Real Property and/or the proceeds thereof are void as against the Plaintiff. Further, the Deed of Trust is void as to the Plaintiff, as Trustee, pursuant to Section 544 of the Bankruptcy Code.

3. The Motion to Dismiss is DENIED without prejudice as to Count I against Defendants GMACM and ETS.

4. Plaintiffs are ORDERED to file an amended complaint as to Count I against

GMACM and ETS on or before March 6, 2013. The amended complaint must make specific factual allegations about the notice they gave GMACM and ETS of the Chapter 13 bankruptcy case they filed in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Texas, Austin

Division on August 7, 2012 (Case No. 12-11803). If Plaintiffs do not file an amended complaint on or before March 6, 2013, or if Plaintiffs do file an amended complaint on or before March 6,

2013 but the amended Complaint does not make the specific factual allegations stated above, this

Court may dismiss Count I against Defendants GMACM and ETS.
