CORPORATE DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Pursuant to Rule 8012 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and Rule 7.1 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Appellees Avianca Holdings S.A. ("Avianca Holdings") and the other entities that were chapter 11 debtors along with it (together with Avianca Holdings, the "Debtors"),[1] by and through their undersigned counsel, hereby state:

1. Avianca Holdings[2] is a publicly traded corporation. No publicly-held corporations own 10% or more of the equity interests of Avianca Holdings nor of any other Debtor.

STATEMENT OF THE ISSUES

1. Whether the Bankruptcy Court properly found that there is no residual value in the 2023 Noteholders' interest in their collateral based on the results of a comprehensive marketing and solicitation process conducted by the Debtors and in the absence of any evidence to the contrary.

2. Whether the Bankruptcy Court properly concluded that certain of the Debtors were hopelessly entangled and that the substantive consolidation of those Debtors for the purposes of the Plan was appropriate.

3. Whether the Bankruptcy Court properly approved the exclusion of three Debtors from the substantive consolidation with the other Debtors for the purposes of the Plan on the basis that they were operated and managed independently of the rest of the Debtors.

4. Whether the Bankruptcy Court correctly held that the requirements of section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code were not applicable to confirmation of the Plan due to the acceptance of the Plan by Appellants' class.

INTRODUCTION

The holders of Avianca Holdings' 9.00% Senior Secured Notes due 2023 (the "2023 Notes") have no right to a recovery from collateral securing their liens until more than $2.5 billion of claims under the Debtors' postpetition financing credit facility (the "DIP Facility") have been satisfied in full. The DIP Facility was secured, among other property, by the same collateral that secured the 2023 Notes (the "Shared Collateral") and, because of marshalling required by the order approving the DIP Facility, the Debtors were obligated to satisfy the claims under the DIP Facility (the "DIP Facility Claims") first with the proceeds of the Shared Collateral before looking to any other collateral. Prior to seeking confirmation of their plan of reorganization (the "Plan"), the Debtors ran a comprehensive marketing process to solicit new investors to provide equity financing on terms that would allow the Debtors to repay the DIP Facility in full and distribute surplus value to the holders of 2023 Notes ("2023 Noteholders") and other junior creditors. No interested investor emerged, demonstrating that the market valued the Debtors at less than the DIP Facility Claims and the secured claims that were senior to the DIP Facility Claims. Accordingly, no residual value was left in the Shared Collateral to secure the 2023 Notes after satisfaction of the DIP Facility Claims. Recognizing this reality, the overwhelming majority of creditors, including the 2023 Noteholders, voted to accept the Plan.

Not Appellants. Appellants, part of the small minority of 2023 Noteholders who objected to the Plan, imagine (with absolutely no evidentiary basis) that the Debtors were worth far more than the value implied by their marketing process and that the Plan should, accordingly, be unwound and additional value should be attributed to the 2023 Notes. This Court should instead affirm the Bankruptcy

Court's well-reasoned conclusions in its Order (I) Confirming Further Modified Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Avianca Holdings S.A. and its Affiliated Debtors and (II) Granting Related Relief (the "Confirmation Order").[3]

The Bankruptcy Court properly allocated the burden of proof with respect to the value of the Shared Collateral. In fact, contrary to Appellants' disingenuous assertion, the Bankruptcy Court analyzed the value of the Debtors using precisely the burden-shifting framework that Appellants champion. Regardless, the only valuation evidence before the Bankruptcy Court was submitted by the Debtors and established conclusively that the value of all of the Debtors' assets—including the 2023 Notes' collateral—was less than the amount of the outstanding DIP Facility Claims and the secured claims that were senior to the DIP Facility Claims. Therefore, the Bankruptcy Court did not err in finding that the 2023 Noteholders, including Appellants, are unsecured creditors.

The Bankruptcy Court likewise did not err in finding that the Debtors that constituted the Avianca-branded airline business could be substantively consolidated for purposes of the Plan (the "Consolidated Debtors") given the integration of their operations and the hopeless entanglement of their affairs. The [3] Appellees further reiterate that, for the reasons discussed in Appellees' Motion to Dismiss Appeals as Equitably Moot and accompanying documents [Dkt. Nos. 13, 14, 15] and Appellees' Reply in Support of Motion to Dismiss Appeals as Equitably Moot and accompanying document [Dkt. Nos. 22, 23], this Court need not consider the merits of this Appeal because no remedies can be equitably granted.

Bankruptcy Court considered the Debtors' evidence and applied the Augie/Restivo factors to reach its determination that the Consolidated Debtors were hopelessly entangled because, inter alia, the Consolidated Debtors have tightly integrated operations, utilize a centralized cash management system, provide intercompany loans and other advanced capitalization to each other, are serviced by the same employees, share a headquarters and legal, marketing, and human resources, and in many cases share officers and directors. Moreover, the Bankruptcy Court did not err in finding that three Debtors—Aero Transporte de Carga Unión, S.A. de C.V. ("Aerounión"), Avifreight Holding México, S.A.P.I. de C.V. ("Avifreight"), and Servicios Aeroportuarios Integrados SAI S.A.S. ("SAI") (together, the "Non-Consolidated Debtors")—which did not guarantee the 2023 Notes, should be excluded from the substantive consolidation given the Non-Consolidated Debtors' separate operations, accounting, financial and treasury systems, and management teams.

Finally, the Bankruptcy Court did not err in finding that the Plan properly placed Appellants in class 11 thereunder ("Class 11") with other general unsecured creditors of the Consolidated Debtors, that Class 11 overwhelmingly voted to accept the Plan, and that even if section 1129(b) of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") were applicable to the Plan (it is not), the Plan would be fair and equitable as to Appellants' class.

Appellants' attempt to unwind the Plan and force the Debtors back into expensive and protracted bankruptcy proceedings is wholly meritless. This Court should affirm the Confirmation Order.

STATEMENT OF THE CASE

I. AVIANCA AND THE CHAPTER 11 CASES

Appellees (together with their affiliates, "Avianca") are the second-largest airline group in Latin America and the most important carrier in the Republic of Colombia and the Republic of El Salvador. A-151 ¶ 1; A-1994 ¶ 3.[4] Avianca operates an extensive network of routes from its primary hubs in Bogotá and San Salvador (in addition to other focus markets) and prior to its chapter 11 cases offered passenger services on more than 5,350 weekly flights to more than 76 destinations in 27 countries. A-1995 ¶ 5.

Despite an effective debt re-profiling executed in the second half of 2019 and a significant improvement in Avianca's liquidity position in early 2020, the Debtors were compelled to file for protection under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code on May 10, 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic. A-151-52 ¶ 1; A-1995

No. 17] ("Appellants' Brief" or "App. Br."). References to "AA-[ ]" refer to pages of Appellees' supplemental Appendix, submitted herewith.

¶ 6. Two Debtors subsequently filed chapter 11 petitions on September 21, 2020. A-151 ¶ 1 n.4.

II. THE 2023 NOTEHOLDERS AND THE DIP FINANCING

In connection with the original issuance of the 2023 Notes, certain of the Debtors granted to the 2023 Notes indenture trustee (in its capacity as collateral trustee) liens on the Shared Collateral, consisting of certain intellectual property, equity interests in certain subsidiaries, and the Debtors' interests in certain aircraft. A-158 ¶ 12; A-445 ¶ E(iii). All creditors with prepetition liens on the Shared Collateral were party to a collateral sharing agreement, dated November 1, 2019 (the "Collateral Sharing Agreement"),[5] which governed their relative rights to the Shared Collateral. A-158 ¶ 13; A-445 ¶ E(iv). Under the Collateral Sharing Agreement, the 2023 Notes indenture trustee had sole authority to act with respect to the Shared Collateral, including sole authority to consent to priming liens on the Shared Collateral. A-158 ¶ 13; A-445 ¶ E(iv).

In the early stages of the Debtors' bankruptcy cases, the Debtors' greatest challenge was to raise postpetition financing they needed to survive during their restructuring process, a particularly acute need in light of the drastically decreased revenue caused by COVID-19. A-152 ¶ 2. To partially address this challenge, the [5] Contrary to Appellants' assertion, the Collateral Sharing Agreement was entered into more than six months prepetition and thus was not entered into "to induce [ ] the DIP Lenders to provide a credit facility to Debtors." See App. Br. at 7.

Debtors negotiated with an ad hoc group of 2023 Noteholders who offered to direct the 2023 Notes indenture trustee to consent to the priming of the 2023 Notes' prepetition liens and to backstop at least $200 million of new money loans under Tranche A of the DIP Facility ("Tranche A DIP Loans"). A-152 ¶ 2; AA-9-10 ¶ 19. Ultimately, the Debtors succeeded in obtaining the Bankruptcy Court's final approval of the DIP financing in October 2020 (the "Final DIP Order"). A-439; A-152-53 ¶ 4. Appellants did not object to the entry of the Final DIP Order. Id.

The Final DIP Order granted liens to the DIP collateral agent (on behalf of all DIP lenders) on all of the "DIP Collateral" (as defined therein), including liens on the Shared Collateral that were senior to the liens securing the 2023 Notes. A-159 ¶ 15; A-459-61 ¶ 5(a)-(b). The 2023 Notes indenture trustee, in its capacity as "Applicable Authorized Representative" of the 2023 Noteholders under the Collateral Sharing Agreement, at the direction of holders of more than the requisite majority of the principal amount of the then-outstanding 2023 Notes, consented to the priming of their liens on the Shared Collateral on the terms of the Final DIP Order and related DIP credit documents. A-158-59 ¶ 14; A-448-49 ¶ (F)(iii). No other consent was required. Id. The Final DIP Order also contains a marshalling provision that states that the DIP Facility Claims should "be satisfied first from proceeds of the Shared Collateral and second from proceeds of other DIP Collateral (whether or not an event of default or exercise of remedies has occurred)." A-94 at n.2; A-159 ¶ 16; A-484 ¶ 28.

Consistent with the foregoing, following entry of the Final DIP Order, all 2023 Noteholders received notice (the "Bondholder Roll-Up Notice") in September 2020 that "[t]he priming of the existing liens on the 2023 Notes Collateral [i.e., the Shared Collateral] will entitle [the DIP Facility Claims] to be repaid from proceeds of the 2023 Notes Collateral in full prior to any distribution from the proceeds of the 2023 Notes Collateral on account of any other claims that are secured by the 2023 Notes Collateral, including the [2023] Notes." A-152-53 ¶ 4; A-159 ¶ 18; AA-635.

The Bondholder Roll-Up Notice also informed the 2023 Noteholders that they had the opportunity to convert their 2023 Notes into Tranche A DIP Loans at a ratio of $100:$20 without investing any new money, or at a ratio of $100:$34 if they elected to invest new money. AA-635. Ultimately, holders of approximately 75% of the 2023 Notes participated in the roll-up.[6] A-152-53 ¶ 4; A-533 ¶ D(1)(d). The holders of Appellants' bonds chose not to participate and continued to hold their 2023 Notes. A-160-61 ¶ 20. In so doing, they took a bet that Avianca's business would recover rapidly enough that the DIP Facility would be repaid in full and that the 2023 Noteholders would receive more than 20% of recovery under the Debtors' chapter 11 plan.

As a result of the Final DIP Order (and a subsequent amendment to the Final DIP Order), at the time of the confirmation hearing, the interests of the remaining 2023 Noteholders in the Shared Collateral were junior to over $2,510,000,000 of DIP Facility Claims, consisting of over $1,600,000,000 of Tranche A DIP Loans and loans under Tranche B of the DIP Facility ("Tranche B DIP Loans") that would exceed $910,000,000 upon any conversion or refinancing. A-160 ¶ 20; id. n.8; id. n.9; AA-89-91 ¶¶ (a), (c); see also A-441 ¶ (c); AA-66-77 ¶¶ 19, 21; AA-37 ¶ 20.

III. THE DEBTORS' MARKETING PROCESS

The credit agreement governing the DIP Facility gave the Debtors an option, subject to certain conditions, to convert the Tranche B DIP obligations into equity in AGIL (the successor to Avianca Holdings). A-161 ¶ 24; A-2445 ¶ (b); see also A-490 ¶ 36; A-545-46 ¶ M. The Tranche B lenders were not obligated to provide any additional credit to the Debtors in connection with emergence from chapter 11. A-161 ¶ 24. From April through June of 2021, the Debtors conducted an extensive process to solicit debt or equity investments to refinance either or both tranches of the DIP Facility and to provide exit financing (the "Marketing Process"). A-161 ¶ 25; A-329 at 120:7-121:1; A-964 ¶ 11. The Marketing Process was rigorous and comprehensive; the Debtors' investment banker, in consultation with the investment banker for the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Creditors' Committee"), contacted over 125 potentially interested parties, and more than 35 parties accessed a data room containing comprehensive information on the Debtors' business plan, cash flow projections, and other pertinent matters. A-162 ¶ 26; A-388 at 179:12-24; A-964 ¶ 11.

The Marketing Process did not result in an offer to provide debt or equity investments in amounts sufficient to clear the DIP Facility Claims. A-162 ¶ 27; A-320 at 111:16-25; A-330 at 121:8-24; A-964 ¶ 11. Despite the Debtors' extensive efforts, the market determined the aggregate value of all of the Debtors' assets (as encumbered by interests that are senior to both the DIP Facility Claims and claims under the 2023 Notes (the "2023 Notes Claims")) to be less than those DIP Facility Claims. A-163 ¶ 30; A-320 at 111:16-25; A-330 at 121:8-24; A-964 ¶¶ 11-12.

Because the Debtors were unable to raise alternative financing to allow them to repay the DIP Facility Claims in full, the Debtors negotiated—with the support of the Creditors' Committee—the conversion of the Tranche B DIP into equity and a further investment in equity from the Tranche B lenders. A-162-63 ¶ 28; A-85-86 ¶ II.D; A-333 at 124:15-17. The conversion was carried out on terms more favorable to the Debtors than those contemplated under the DIP, i.e., the Tranche B DIP lenders accepted an economic impairment in order for the Debtors to viably emerge from chapter 11. A-167-68 ¶ 41, 42 n.12; see A-2445-446 ¶ (b).

Because the Shared Collateral represents only a subset of the Debtors' asset base, whose value is necessarily less than the value of all of the Debtors' assets (as encumbered by interests that are senior to both the DIP Facility Claims and the 2023 Notes Claims), the Marketing Process demonstrated that no residual value remained in the Shared Collateral to satisfy the 2023 Notes Claims. In other words, the 2023 Notes had become completely unsecured.

IV. THE PLAN, SUBSTANTIVE CONSOLIDATION, AND CONFIRMATION

In light of the lack of any residual value in the Shared Collateral, the 2023 Notes Claims were classified in Class 11 ("General Unsecured Avianca Claims") under the Plan, together with other general unsecured claims against the Consolidated Debtors.[7] A-69 ¶¶ 112, 114; A-94 ¶ B(11). Under the Plan, holders of allowed Class 11 claims (including the 2023 Noteholders) are to receive their pro rata shares of either (a) the Unsecured Claimholder Cash Pool or (b) if such holder is an Eligible Holder and makes a valid election, the Unsecured

[7] "General Unsecured Avianca Claims" are defined as "General Unsecured Claim[s] against any of the [Consolidated] Debtors, other than General Unsecured Convenience Claims . . . ." A-69 ¶ 112. In turn, "General Unsecured Claim" is defined as "any Claim that is not a Secured Claim, an Intercompany Claim, a Subordinated Claim, or a Claim entitled to priority under the Bankruptcy Code." Id. ¶ 114.

Claimholder Equity Pool and the Warrants (as each such term is defined in the Plan). A-94 ¶ B(11).

The Plan also effected a substantive consolidation of the Consolidated Debtors on the basis that the Consolidated Debtors' operations were tightly integrated, such that untangling each one's separate operations and affairs would be difficult, time-consuming, and expensive. A-101-02 ¶ B; A-59 ¶ 17; A-79 ¶ 225; A-362-64 at 153:3-155:10; A-366-67 at 157:5-158:2; A-955-57 ¶¶ 17-22. Indeed, the Consolidated Debtors utilize a centralized cash management system; share officers, directors, and shareholders; routinely provide intercompany loans and other capitalization to one another; and share a headquarters and legal, marketing, and human resources. A-286 at 77:5-16; A-347-49 at 138:3-140:3; A-955-57 ¶¶ 17-20.

The Plan excluded the Non-Consolidated Debtors from the consolidation. In contrast to the Consolidated Debtors, the Non-Consolidated Debtors maintain their own operations and have their own treasury systems and management teams. A-349-50 at 140:12-141:3; A-363-64 at 154:9-155:5; A-958 ¶¶ 23-28. Because their operations and financial systems were already separate, there was no difficulty disentangling them from the Consolidated Debtors. Id.

The Court entered an order approving the Debtors' disclosure statement (the "Disclosure Statement") and solicitation procedures on September 15, 2021.

AA-221-28. The Debtors solicited votes on the Plan from September 22, 2021 to October 15, 2021. A-775 ¶ 5; A-777 ¶ 13. Holders of claims totaling over $3.645 billion—approximately 99% of the total amount of all claims voted—accepted the Plan, including 98.96% of the amount of claims in Class 11 and 77.49% of the amount of 2023 Notes Claims. A-781. The Plan had the support of the Creditors' Committee, the fiduciary representing the interests of all of the Debtors' unsecured creditors. AA-639-46. Of the approximately 80,000 parties that received notice of the confirmation hearing before the Bankruptcy Court, only four individuals or groups filed objections to confirmation of the Plan. A-274 at 65:3-10; A-156-57 ¶ 9. After the Debtors' diligent efforts to resolve certain concerns raised by these objections, only two groups of objectors—Appellants and an additional small group of 2023 Noteholders[8]—proceeded with their objections (the "Objections") at the confirmation hearing. A-156-58 ¶¶ 9-11.

After a lengthy hearing during which Appellants presented arguments and cross-examined the Debtors' witnesses, see generally Transcript of October 26, 2021 Hearing beginning at A-209, on November 2, 2021, the Bankruptcy Court overruled the Objections on the merits and entered the Confirmation Order, noting that the findings of fact and conclusions of law therein were "an integral part of the Confirmation Order." A-14; A-16 ¶ V; A-150-99.

[8] The additional group of 2023 Noteholders (the "Burlingame Appellants") also appealed the Confirmation Order but did not file an opening brief. On February 11, 2022, the Burlingame Appellants stipulated to voluntarily dismiss their appeal with prejudice, and such dismissal was ordered on February 14, 2022 [Dkt. No. 29, Case No. 1:21-cv-10004-AJN].

APPLICABLE STANDARD OF REVIEW

The standard of review for findings of fact is clear error and the standard of review for legal conclusions is de novo. See Lynch v. Lapidem Ltd. (In re Kirwan Offices S.A R.L.), 592 B.R. 489, 499-500 (S.D.N.Y. 2018), aff'd, 792 F. App'x 99 (2d Cir. 2019); Butler Wooten & Peak LLP v. GM LLC (In re Motors Liquidation Co.), 943 F.3d 125, 129 (2d Cir. 2019). Moreover, a bankruptcy court's decision to confirm a plan of reorganization is reviewed for abuse of discretion. In re Kirwan Offices S.A R.L., 592 B.R. at 500. A bankruptcy court "abuses its discretion if it rests its conclusion on clearly erroneous factual findings or an incorrect legal standard." Blecker v. Picard (In re Bernard L. Madoff Inv. Sec., LLC), 605 B.R. 570, 582 (S.D.N.Y. 2019), aff'd, 830 F. App'x 669 (2d Cir. 2020) (internal quotation omitted).

For mixed questions of law and fact, the standard of review depends "on whether answering it entails primarily legal or factual work." Id. When an argument on appeal is primarily fact-based, the Court should apply the clearly erroneous standard. Adelphia Recovery Tr. v. FPL Grp., Inc. (In re Adelphia Commc'ns Corp.), 652 F. App'x 19, 20-21 (2d Cir. 2016) ("To the extent that arguments . . . are mostly or entirely fact-based, however, we review the [lower court's] relevant factual findings for clear error.").

As described herein, the issues in Appellants' Brief concern pure questions of fact or, at most, mixed questions of law and fact in which the factual issues predominate. The burden of proving that the Bankruptcy Court's findings were clearly erroneous rests "squarely on the shoulders of" the Appellants. Ivers v. Ciena Capital LLC (In re Ciena Capital LLC), 440 B.R. 47, 52 (S.D.N.Y. 2010); see also Scherling v. Ehrenkranz (In re Eljay Jrs., Inc.), 123 B.R. 961, 963 (S.D.N.Y. 1991) ("Where appellant seeks review of a Bankruptcy Court's findings of fact on appeal, it carries the burden of proving that the findings are clearly erroneous.").

SUMMARY OF THE ARGUMENT

Appellants argue that the Bankruptcy Court made "several critical errors" in holding that (A) the Shared Collateral has no residual value, (B) substantive consolidation under the Plan was proper, (C) 11 U.S.C. § 1129(b) does not apply to the Plan, and (D) the Plan would satisfy the absolute priority rule. See App. Br. at 16, 21, 24, 27. Appellants are wrong on all accounts, and the Confirmation Order should be affirmed.

The Bankruptcy Court did not err—much less clearly err—in finding that the evidence before it established that there was no residual value in the Shared Collateral available to satisfy the 2023 Notes after payment of the DIP Facility Claims. The Bankruptcy Court understood that a robust market test, such as the Marketing Process conducted by the Debtors, is the best indicator of the value of an enterprise or its assets. Indeed, the Marketing Process provided direct information about the value the market ascribes to the Debtors as a going concern—of which the value of the Shared Collateral is only a portion. After careful review of the Debtors' ample evidence concerning the value of their assets established by the Marketing Process, the Bankruptcy Court correctly shifted the burden of proof to Appellants, who failed to adduce any evidence to the contrary, thus failing to carry their ultimate burden of persuasion.

The Bankruptcy Court also correctly held that the substantive consolidation of the Consolidated Debtors—and the exclusion of the Non-Consolidated Debtors—under the Plan was proper. Again, the Bankruptcy Court committed no clear error in determining, based on the ample and uncontroverted evidence presented by the Debtors, that application of the Augie/Restivo factors, which are governing in this district, demonstrated that the Consolidated Debtors were hopelessly entangled, and that creditors dealt with the Consolidated Debtors as an undifferentiated whole. Similarly, the Bankruptcy Court committed no clear error in determining, again based on the ample and uncontroverted evidence presented by the Debtors, that application of the Augie/Restivo factors demonstrated that the Non-Consolidated Debtors were not hopelessly entangled with the Consolidated Debtors, were separate, distinct entities with separate operations and systems, and were not viewed as one with the Consolidated Debtors.

Finally, the Bankruptcy Court correctly held that section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code did not apply to confirmation of the Plan because, by its own terms, it applies only to classes that reject a chapter 11 plan. Class 11, in which Appellants' claims were properly classified because the Bankruptcy Court properly found that the 2023 Notes were unsecured, voted to accept the Plan. Accordingly, section 1129(b) and the absolute priority rule were not in play at confirmation.

ARGUMENT

I. THE BANKRUPTCY COURT PROPERLY ALLOCATED THE BURDEN OF PROOF

Appellants argue that the Bankruptcy Court "entirely misconstrued the holding" of In re Heritage Highgate Inc., 679 F.3d 132 (3d Cir. 2012) by "plac[ing] the entire burden of valuing the Shared Collateral on Creditors." App. Br. at 18. This argument is based on a gross distortion of the Bankruptcy Court's actual ruling.

Appellants correctly state that Heritage Highgate holds that a creditor bears the "ultimate burden of persuasion . . . to demonstrate by a preponderance of the evidence both the extent of its lien and the value of the collateral securing its claim" only after the debtor makes an initial showing that the value of the collateral is insufficient. App. Br. at 18. The Bankruptcy Court's error, according to Appellants, is in "disregarding the Third Circuit's holding and the overwhelming consensus in the Second Circuit that debtors bear the initial burden."[9] Id.

In fact, the Bankruptcy Court did precisely what the Heritage Highgate court did. The Bankruptcy Court first correctly explained the burden-shifting approach of Heritage Highgate, "under which the secured creditor bears the ultimate burden of persuasion once the debtor has produced 'sufficient evidence' that 'the collateral is of insufficient value.'" A-166 ¶ 37 (emphasis added). The Bankruptcy Court then concluded that:

> "[e]ven under the framework of In re Heritage Highgate, the Debtors have produced sufficient evidence—namely the declaration and testimony of Mr. Neuhauser regarding [9] Though it is academic given the Bankruptcy Court's proper application of Heritage Highgate, it is worth noting that Appellants' statement that "the growing consensus is that debtors bear the burden of proof," App. Br. at 17, is incorrect in the Southern District of New York. Case law in this district indicates that a creditor will bear the burden of proof in the situation presented here. See, e.g., In re Sneijder, 407 B.R. 46, 55 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2009) (determining that the secured creditor bore the burden of proof in establishing both the extent of its lien and the value of its collateral). Any burden-shifting framework used by the courts in this district is typically in situations involving adequate protection. See, e.g., Off. Comm. of Unsecured Creditors v. UMB Bank, N.A. (In re Residential Capital, LLC), 501 B.R. 549, 590-91 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2013) (finding that the creditor bears the initial burden of establishing the amount and extent of its lien under section 506(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, and that "[o]nce the amount and extent of the secured claim has been set, the burden shifts to a debtor seeking to use, sell, lease, or otherwise encumber the lender's collateral under sections 363 or 364 of the Code to prove that the secured creditor's interest will be adequately protected"); ESL Invs., Inc. v. Sears Holdings Corp. (In re Sears Holdings Corp.), 621 B.R. 563, 571 (S.D.N.Y. 2020) (same).

> the Solicitation Process—that the burden of proof has shifted to the Objectors to prove that the value of the Shared Collateral exceeds the value of the DIP Facility Claims."

Id.; see also A-167 ¶ 40 ("[T]he Debtors have proven by a preponderance of the evidence that the interest of the holders of 2023 Notes Claims in the Shared Collateral has no value."). The Bankruptcy Court went on to properly hold that Appellants "have not adduced any evidence to suggest that the value of the Shared Collateral exceeds the amount of the Tranche A DIP Facility Claims, much less the Tranche A DIP Facility Claims and the Tranche B DIP Facility Claims combined," and thus that Appellants "failed to meet their burden of proof that their interest in the Shared Collateral has any value." A-167 ¶ 40. Appellants' failure to submit any evidence concerning the value of the Shared Collateral to rebut the evidence presented by the Debtors is fatal to their arguments.

Thus, in an effort to invoke the de novo standard of review with respect to the value of the Shared Collateral, Appellants brazenly manufacture a legal dispute where none exists. The Bankruptcy Court analyzed the value of the Shared Collateral under the very burden-shifting framework that Appellants contend should apply. Appellants' arguments to the contrary should be ignored, and they should perhaps be admonished.

II. THE BANKRUPTCY COURT'S FINDINGS OF FACT WERE NOT CLEARLY ERRONEOUS

Under the clear error standard, where the Bankruptcy Court's "account of the evidence is plausible in light of the record viewed in its entirety, the court of appeals may not reverse it even though convinced that had it been sitting as the trier of fact, it would have weighed the evidence differently." Amadeo v. Zant, 486 U.S. 214, 223 (1988) (internal quotation marks and citation omitted) (emphasis added). The type of error that warrants reversal "must strike the court as wrong with the force of a five-week-old unrefrigerated dead fish." Helen-May Holdings, LLC v. Geltzer (In re Kollel Mateh Efraim, LLC), 456 B.R. 185, 190–91 (S.D.N.Y. 2011), aff'd, 582 F. App'x 61 (2d Cir. 2014) (internal quotation marks and citation omitted) (emphasis added) ("This Court gives deference to the Bankruptcy Court's factual determinations because of its expertise and superior position to make determinations of credibility." (internal quotation marks and citation omitted)); see also In re Ciena Capital LLC, 440 B.R. at 52 ("'In reviewing findings for clear error, [the appellate court is] not allowed to second-guess either the trial court's credibility assessments or its choice between permissible competing inferences. Even if the appellate court might have weighed the evidence differently, it may not overturn findings that are not clearly erroneous.'") (quoting Ceraso v. Motiva Enters., LLC, 326 F.3d 303, 316 (2d Cir. 2003) (citing Anderson v. Bessemer City,

(In re Motors Liquidation Co.)*, 430 B.R. 65, 77 (S.D.N.Y. 2010) ("A reviewing court must accept the ultimate factual determination of the fact-finder unless that determination either is completely devoid of minimum evidentiary support displaying some hue of credibility or bears no rational relationship to the supportive evidentiary data.") (internal quotation marks and citation omitted).

As detailed herein, Appellants' arguments concerning the value of the Shared Collateral and the Debtors' substantive consolidation are issues of fact, and Appellants have not met (and indeed cannot meet) their burden of proving that the Bankruptcy Court's findings were clearly erroneous.

A. The Bankruptcy Court's Findings Concerning the Value of the Shared Collateral Were Not Clearly Erroneous.

Appellants are simply incorrect to argue that valuation of collateral is a question of law (see App. Br. at 3). The Bankruptcy Court's determination of the value of the Shared Collateral is a factual finding, to which the clearly erroneous standard of review applies. See Nestle Holdings, Inc. v. Comm'r, 152 F.3d 83, 86 (2d Cir. 1998) ("[F]actual determinations, such as the values assigned to assets, are reviewed only for clear error.") (citation omitted) (emphasis added); First Brandon Nat'l Bank v. Kerwin (In re Kerwin), 996 F.2d 552, 560 (2d Cir. 1993) ("No one disputes that the bankruptcy court's valuation comprises a finding of fact subject to review under the clearly erroneous standard.") (emphasis added); In re Turner Spares, Ltd., Inc., 210 B.R. 235, 237 (S.D.N.Y. 1997) ("With respect to valuation, the Bankruptcy Court has broad discretion to determine the proper valuation of assets, and those findings should not be set aside unless clearly erroneous.") (emphasis added); see also Jordan v. N.Y. Mortg. Servicing Corp., No. 92-CV-319, 1992 WL 397040, at *1 (N.D.N.Y. Dec. 28, 1992); Kraut v. Comm'r, 527 F.2d 1014, 1020 (2d Cir. 1975); Clinton Cty. (In re LightSquared Inc.), 534 B.R. 522, 535 (S.D.N.Y. 2015), aff'd, 644 F. App'x 24 (2d Cir. 2016).

Appellants argue that the Bankruptcy Court erred in finding that the Marketing Process provided a sufficient indication of value. App. Br. at 21. They are incorrect. First, as numerous courts have recognized, the market's verdict is not only a sufficient indicator of value but the best indicator of value. Any other valuation is speculative by comparison. Second, the appraisal methodologies suggested by Appellants are not required and are recognized by courts as being inferior due to their lack of market information. The Bankruptcy Court, which has significant discretion to determine the value of assets, thus correctly relied on the Debtors' substantial evidence concerning their Marketing Process, and did not commit clear error in so doing.

i. The Debtors' Marketing Process Was the Best Indicator of Value

Courts consistently acknowledge that market exposure—which demonstrates what a willing buyer would pay a willing seller in an arms' length transaction—is "the best way to determine value." Bank of Am. Nat'l Tr. & Sav. Ass'n v. 203 N. LaSalle St. P'ship, 526 U.S. 434, 457 (1999) (emphasis added); see also In re Granite Broad. Corp., 369 B.R. 120, 140-41, 143 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2007) (finding that "there is no dispute that in many circumstances the best evidence of value is what a third party is willing to pay in an arm's length transaction" and that "there is no question that in appropriate circumstances, 'People who must back their beliefs with their purses are more likely to assess the value of the [asset] accurately than are people who simply seek to make an argument'" (quoting In re Cent. Ice Cream Co., 836 F.2d 1068, 1072 n.3 (7th Cir. 1987))); In re Am. Land Acquisition Corp., No. 12-76440, 2013 Bankr. LEXIS 2353, at *24-25 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. June 10, 2013) (citing to U.S. Supreme Court cases that note that "in bankruptcy, the value of the property . . . is the price a willing buyer in the debtor's trade, business, or situation would pay to obtain like property from a willing seller[,]" and finding that a debtor's valuation was incorrect in light of an offer that was significantly lower) (internal quotation marks and citation omitted); Keener v. Exxon Co., USA, 32 F.3d 127, 132 (4th Cir. 1994) ("An actual price, agreed to by a willing buyer and a willing seller, is the most accurate gauge of the value the market places on a good. Until such an exchange occurs, the market value of an item is necessarily speculative.") (citation omitted); In re Chemtura Corp., 439 B.R. 561, 586 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2010) (finding that "the marketplace is often as good or better an indication of a company's value than expert testimony alone would be"); In re Claar Cellars LLC, 623 B.R. 578, 587 n.7 (Bankr. E.D. Wash. 2021) ("In light of the complexities and dynamics associated with expert-based valuations, some courts have expressed a strong preference for market-driven valuations. . . . At day's end, we will know the true value of the debtors' assets only after the plan agent exposes them to the market."); In re Flour City Bagels, LLC, 557 B.R. 53, 78-79 (Bankr. W.D.N.Y. 2016) (giving little weight to the low book value of assets offered as evidence of value, as the market, even through an ultimately unsuccessful transaction, proved the actual value was much higher); Prime Lending II, LLC v. Buerge (In re Buerge), Nos. KS-12-074, 12-077, 12-078, 13-022, 13-023, 13-024, 13-025, 2014 Bankr. LEXIS 1264, at *46 n.87 (B.A.P. 10th Cir. Apr. 2, 2014) (collecting cases and finding that "[t]hese cases suggest the best way to determine a fair price is to have an open auction").

Here, the Marketing Process conducted by the Debtors was a real-time test, providing information directly from the market about the value the market ascribes to the Debtors as a going concern—of which the Shared Collateral is only a part. The Debtors' Chief Executive Officer, Adrian Neuhauser, provided a declaration in support of confirmation and ample testimony at the confirmation hearing regarding the Marketing Process. See generally A-327-330; A-960-77.[10] Mr. Neuhauser testified that the Debtors sought to "carry out as . . . broad and [ ] comprehensive a marketing effort as we could to ensure that we had properly priced the equity," A-329 at 120:7-11, and that the Marketing Process was "a rigorous process led by the Debtors' management and advisors," A-964 ¶ 11. This rigorous process spanned months and involved the Debtors' contacting over 125 potentially interested parties, many of whom participated in focused diligence sessions with the Debtors' management team and professional advisors. Id. The results of the Marketing Process yielded no investor who was willing to invest sufficient capital to take out the Tranche B DIP Loans, demonstrating the market view that the aggregate value of all of the Debtors' assets (as encumbered by interests that are senior to both the DIP Facility Claims and the 2023 Notes Claims) was less than the amount of even a portion of the outstanding DIP Facility Claims. A-162-64 ¶¶ 27, 30-31.

[10] Appellants' repeated attempts to make hay of the fact that Mr. Neuhauser used the word "believe" in his declaration, implying that this means Mr. Neuhauser could not conclusively testify to the value of the Shared Collateral, is another bit of distortion. See App. Br. at 5, 11, 21. Contrary to Appellants' allegations, Mr. Neuhauser conclusively stated his view in his declaration ("[T]he DIP Facility Claims exceed the value of the Shared Collateral" (A-964 ¶ 12)) and at the confirmation hearing (the value of the Shared Collateral is "less than what the DIP facility is worth, because . . . we were unable to raise financing to that amount" (A-320 at 111:20-25)). Counsel to Appellants should know this because he asked Mr. Neuhauser directly at the confirmation hearing whether "you believe that you can state with certainty that the value of the DIP Facility–the amount of the DIP facility claims exceeds the value of the shared collateral?" Mr. Neuhauser unambiguously answered, "I do." A-326-27 at 117:23-118:2 (emphasis added).

In short, the Debtors established the value of the Shared Collateral by determining what an actual interested party was willing to pay for their actual assets, of which the Shared Collateral was only a part. There could be no better evidence of value, and none was presented to the Bankruptcy Court. This was more than sufficient for the Bankruptcy Court to conclude that the Shared Collateral had no residual value.

ii. Appellants' Suggested Appraisal Techniques Are Inferior to the Market Test

Appellants argue that the Debtors did not conduct a "proper market test" because "[a] market test derives a fair market valuation of collateral based upon data from recently sold comparable properties by comparing them with the subject collateral on a point-by-point basis and making necessary adjustments to account for all significant differences between them." App. Br. at 21 (emphasis in original). In other words, Appellants' counsel contends—without any support and without putting forward any such data, expert testimony, or other evidence—that it is preferable to determine value not by exposing an asset to the market and assessing the results, but by determining the value of recently sold other assets and making "necessary," unspecified adjustments "to account for all significant differences between them." Id. This is contrary to both logic and law.

Courts are given significant discretion in determining the proper method for valuing assets. See Motors Liquidation Co. Avoidance Action Tr. v. JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A. (In re Motors Liquidation Co.), 576 B.R. 325, 425 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2014) ("[T]he Court need not choose any party's proffered appraisal wholesale, but may instead pick and choose to determine 'the best way' to value the collateral."); see also In re Genco Shipping & Trading Ltd., 513 B.R. 233, 242-43 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2014) ("[C]ourts have broad discretion to determine the extent and method of inquiry necessary for a valuation . . . depend[ing] on the facts of each case.") (internal quotation marks and citations omitted). Nevertheless, while there is no one appraisal technique that must be proffered by a party, see In re Motors Liquidation Co., 576 B.R. at 425, courts across many jurisdictions have found valuation techniques employed by experts, such as conducting the kind of comparable transaction analysis suggested by Appellants, limited for their lack of market information. See In re Claar Cellars LLC, 623 B.R. at 587 n.7 ("As with many valuation disputes in bankruptcy cases, the parties now advance their respective views about valuation through the use of experts who (despite their best intentions) usually present opinions that are influenced by the posture of the litigation. . . . At day's end, we will know the true value of the debtors' assets only after the plan agent exposes them to the market.").

In fact, other valuations models, such as precedent transactions, comparable companies, or discounted cash flow, "are, after all, only artificial constructs, or proxies, for market value." Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. v. HomeBanc Corp. (In re HomeBanc Mortg. Corp.), 573 B.R. 495, 518 (Bankr. D. Del. 2017). The precedent transactions model looks to what the market has paid for past transactions of similar companies; the comparable companies model estimates the value of a company based on the value of comparable public companies; and the discounted cash flow model estimates the value of a company based on projections of free cash flow years into the future, discounted to present value. See generally In re Chemtura Corp., 439 B.R. at 574-79. These models are appropriate and commonly employed in situations where there is no actual market data, but they are inferior to a true market test, like that employed here, because they are subjective across numerous dimensions and typically hotly contested by dueling experts. See, e.g., In re HomeBanc Mortg., 573 B.R. at 505-06, 518, 522 (finding that the discounted cash flow model and other valuation models were artificial constructs, whereas the real-life auction results provided a fair market value of the asset, and finding that the most "obvious" valuation method "is to enter the marketplace and see what someone is willing to pay"); In re Motors Liquidation Co., 576 B.R. at 425 (finding that only "[i]n the absence of a fair market sale price to use as a benchmark, the Court must look to other indicia of value, including the appraisals offered by the parties at trial") (emphasis added); Off. Comm. of Unsecured Creds. v. UMB Bank, N.A. (In re Residential Capital, LLC), 501 B.R. 549, 595-97, 603 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2013) (finding that the valuation models from four different experts contained flawed assumptions and inputs, and holding that when "an asset is sold in an arm's-length transaction, the fair market value of such asset is conclusively determined by the price paid"); see also VFB LLC v. Campbell Soup Co., 482 F.3d 624, 633 (3d Cir. 2007) ("Absent some reason to distrust it, the market price is a more reliable measure of the stock's value than the subjective estimates of one or two expert witnesses.") (internal quotation marks and citation omitted); In re Boston Generating, LLC, 440 B.R. 302, 323-24 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2010) (rejecting the use of a model to value assets, as "[t]here are numerous critical assumptions that underlie [the expert's] DCF valuation. . . . Small changes in assumptions result in substantial differences in value" and concluding that a sales process in the open marketplace was the "best indicator" of value)[11]; In re Chemtura Corp., 439 B.R. at 574 (finding that different experts

[11] Appellants argue that because there were "several [valuation] data points" offered by the parties in Boston Generating, the Bankruptcy Court's reliance on the Debtors' single valuation made use of the same methodologies—discounted cash flow analysis, comparable companies analysis, and precedent transactions analysis—and yet, "seemingly modest differences in assumptions, comparables, and means of implementation resulted in substantial differences in valuation").

Put simply, all the experts in the world could say that an asset had a certain value, but if no party is willing to pay that value, then the asset is not worth what the experts proclaim. Here, no expert testified that the value was more than that indicated by the Marketing Process. Thus, Appellants' attempt to persuade the Court that a comparable transaction model or another appraisal technique must be used in place of the Marketing Process is incorrect and unsupported.

B. Substantive Consolidation is Purely a Question of Fact, and the Bankruptcy Court's Findings Were Not Clearly Erroneous.

Appellants do not challenge the standard the Bankruptcy Court applied in determining that substantive consolidation was appropriate, but only the factual conclusions the Bankruptcy Court reached. Thus, the questions on appeal related to substantive consolidation are entirely questions of fact. See Windels Marx Lane methodology—the Marketing Process—is in error. See App. Br. at 22-23. Appellants fail to mention that the Boston Generating court explicitly points out limitations in the other valuation methodologies used therein, finds that "the true test of value is the sale process itself" (internal quotation marks and citation omitted) and that "absent a showing that there has been a clear market failure, the behavior in the marketplace is the best indicator of enterprise value," and ultimately decides that "[b]ased on the entirety of the record, the Court finds that the Sale Transaction is the best determination of the value of the Debtors' assets." In re Boston Generating, 440 B.R. at 323, 325-26.

& Mittendorf, LLP v. Source Enters., Inc. (In re Source Enters., Inc.), 392 B.R. 541, 553-54 (S.D.N.Y. 2008) (reviewing the bankruptcy court's substantive consolidation decision for clear error, and finding that the determination that both the first and second Augie/Restivo prongs were met was not clearly erroneous); In re Republic Airways Holdings Inc., 582 B.R. 278, 284–85 (S.D.N.Y. 2018) (finding that the bankruptcy court "committed no clear error in making its Augie/Restivo factual findings, nor did it commit legal error in applying the law to those facts").

In the Second Circuit, courts apply the Augie/Restivo test when assessing the propriety of substantive consolidation. See Union Sav. Bank v. Augie/Restivo Baking Co., Ltd. (In re Augie/Restivo Baking Co., Ltd.), 860 F.2d 515, 518 (2d Cir. 1988). Under this test, a court may order substantive consolidation over the objection of a party in interest only when the proponent of substantive consolidation establishes one of the following two independent bases:

(i) the affairs of the debtor entities proposed to be consolidated are so entangled that substantive consolidation will benefit all creditors of the consolidated estate ("Hopeless Entanglement"); or

(ii) creditors dealt with the debtor entities proposed to be substantively consolidated as a single economic unit and did not rely on their separate identities in extending credit ("Creditor Reliance").

See id.; see also In re Extended Stay, Inc., No. 09-13764, Adv. Pro. No. 11-02254, 2020 Bankr. LEXIS 2128, at *139-40 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Aug. 8, 2020) (holding that the satisfaction of either Augie/Restivo prong "will support a request for substantive consolidation"); In re 599 Consumer Elecs. Inc., 195 B.R. 244, 248 (S.D.N.Y. 1996) (noting that "substantive consolidation could be warranted on either ground; the Second Circuit's use of the conjunction 'or' suggests that the two cited factors are alternatively sufficient criteria").

Courts have significant discretion to consider various factors to establish Hopeless Entanglement or Creditor Reliance based on the facts of the case, and no factor necessarily outweighs any other. See, e.g., In re Republic Airways Holdings Inc., 565 B.R. 710, 719-22 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2017), aff'd, 582 B.R. 278 (S.D.N.Y. 2018) (finding consolidation of airline debtors appropriate due to, among other factors, the sharing of overhead, management, and back-office functions; significant intercompany obligations; overlaps in the creditor pools due to guarantees; shared headquarters and cash management systems; and the significant time that would be necessary to untangle the assets).

i. The Debtors Established that the Consolidated Debtors Should be Substantively Consolidated, While the Non-Consolidated Debtors Should be Excluded

The Debtors provided ample evidence to satisfy both prongs of the Augie/Restivo test to justify substantive consolidation of the Consolidated Debtors.

First, the Debtors demonstrated Hopeless Entanglement through a declaration and live testimony explaining that, among other things, the Consolidated Debtors:

- utilized a centralized cash management system (A-955-56 ¶ 18);
- provided intercompany loans and other capitalization to the other Consolidated Debtors as necessary (id.);
- shared numerous employees who worked for all of the Consolidated Debtors, regardless of the employees' physical locations or specific Consolidated Debtor employers (id.);
- shared many of the same officers, directors, and shareholders, including Chief Executive Officer, Chief Operating Officer, Chief People Officer, Chief Planning Officer, General Counsel, Chief Information Officer, and Chief Commercial Officer (id.);
- shared the same back-office functions (such as legal, marketing, and human resources), all of which were provided by Avianca Holdings (id.);
- shared a headquarters (id.); and
- shared creditor pools due to the various cross-entity guarantees (A-956 ¶ 19).

The Debtors presented evidence that the Consolidated Debtors had tightly integrated affairs and operations such that untangling them and separating out their affairs would be extremely difficult, expensive, and time-consuming.[12] See, e.g.,

[12] Appellants argue that neither the Disclosure Statement nor the Plan identifies the assets and liabilities of each Debtor or how they are being distributed. App. Br. at 13, 26. Indeed, the inability to readily separate the assets and liabilities of each Consolidated Debtor due to tight entanglement and the time and costs it would require to untangle them—which formed the very basis for the Bankruptcy Court's finding that the Consolidated Debtors are hopelessly entangled, and thus that substantive consolidation was proper—is the reason why neither the Disclosure

I mean, I can't even fathom how long it would take, with my – you know, based on my experience and knowing the way the – the airlines operate."); A-362-63 at 153:16-154:8 (testimony of Ms. Hughes) (explaining why disentangling the Consolidated Debtors would be "next to impossible"); A-369 at 160:17-20 (testimony of Ms. Hughes) (". . . I've been doing this for a very long time, and I can't imagine how [untangling the Consolidated Debtors] would be done, and it would take millions of dollars and 20 years to accomplish. . . ."); A-352 at 143:13-24 (testimony of Ms. Hughes) (". . . I'll tell you I've never seen [an airline with financial statements and general ledgers as] complex as Avianca Holdings by a longshot."); compare Chem. Bank N.Y. Tr. Co. v. Kheel (In re Seatrade Corp.), 369 F.2d 845, 847-48 (2d Cir. 1966)

Statement nor the Plan does what Appellants suggest. Where a plan of reorganization expressly seeks to substantively consolidate debtors thereunder, the debtors need not (and indeed, in most instances, logically cannot) identify each individual debtor's assets and liabilities. See, e.g., In re Augie/Restivo Baking Co., Ltd., 860 F.2d at 518-19 (noting that granting substantive consolidation is appropriate where "no accurate identification and allocation of assets is possible"); In re WorldCom, Inc., No. 02-13533, 2003 Bankr. LEXIS 1401, at *105, *107 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Oct. 31, 2003) (finding that debtors are hopelessly entangled, such that substantive consolidation should be granted, where "identification and allocation of assets and liabilities cannot be achieved"). The sole case cited by Appellants on this point did not involve an expressly sought or granted substantive consolidation. See ACC Bondholder Grp. v. Adelphia Commc'ns Corp. (In re Adelphia Commc'ns Corp.), 361 B.R. 337, 359 (S.D.N.Y. 2007) ("The parties agree that the Bankruptcy Court did not expressly undertake to analyze and make a finding that the Plan effects a substantive consolidation. Rather, Appellants argue that the Bankruptcy Court improperly approved a Plan that implicitly imposes substantive consolidation and ignores the integrity of each Debtor's separate estate.").

(ordering substantive consolidation because of "expense and difficulty amounting to practical impossibility of reconstructing the financial records of the debtors to determine intercorporate claims, liabilities and ownership of assets").[13]

Second, the Debtors demonstrated Creditor Reliance through a declaration and live testimony explaining that, among other things, the Consolidated Debtors:

- held themselves out to customers and creditors as one, single enterprise (A-955-56 ¶ 18; A-957 ¶ 20; A-176 ¶ 82);
- had creditors that dealt and continue to deal with "Avianca" as a single, consolidated entity (A-176 ¶ 82);
- were perceived by creditors as one "Avianca" brand (A-955-56 ¶ 18); and
- had funded debt that was guaranteed by other Consolidated Debtors, such that many of the Consolidated Debtors were jointly and severally liable for the debt of many other Consolidated Debtors (see generally A-367-68 at 158:7-159:23).

[13] Appellants insinuate that a small number of cherry-picked substantive consolidation factors demonstrate that the Bankruptcy Court's findings approving the Consolidated Debtors' substantive consolidation is clearly erroneous. Specifically, Appellants rely heavily on the fact that the Consolidated Debtors maintain separate sub-journals and observe certain corporate formalities. See App. Br. at 12-13. These factors do not undercut the reality that the Consolidated Debtors' operations were hopelessly entangled. Indeed, Ms. Hughes testified that "there is an attempt to create subledgers" for the Consolidated Debtors' transactions, which all fall under the same general ledger, "as best [the Debtors] can of an [ ] enterprise that's completely integrated." A-351-52 at 142:18-143:5. Nor do these factors undercut the propriety of substantive consolidation, given the numerous factors that favor substantive consolidation. Courts must consider a variety of factors in making substantive consolidation determinations and no one factor is outcome determinative. See In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Grp. Inc., 138 B.R. 723, 764-65 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1992) (listing factors that courts may consider in substantive consolidation and noting that the factors are listed "in no singular order of importance") (emphasis added); see also In re WorldCom, Inc., 2003 Bankr. LEXIS 1401, at *105 ("As shown by each decision granting substantive consolidation, a decision to substantively consolidate affiliated debtors need not be supported by the presence of all such factors.") (emphasis added).

Like the majority of creditors of consolidated debtors in Northwest Airways, the majority of creditors of the Consolidated Debtors relied on the fact that the Consolidated Debtors were "inextricably intertwined" such that "[i]t would do no party any good to require that they be untangled." See AA-1683 at 100:21-25.

The Debtors also provided sufficient evidence to show that the standards for substantive consolidation could not be met for the three Non-Consolidated Debtors—Avifreight, Aerounión, and SAI—as these three entities are not hopelessly entangled. See A-187-88 ¶ 126; A-958-59 ¶¶ 23-28; A-363 at 154:12-13 (testimony of Ms. Hughes) (responding "No" when asked if it "[w]ould be difficult to disentangle those [Non-Consolidated Debtor] entities"). The Bankruptcy Court considered the Debtors' evidence that:

- Unlike the Consolidated Debtors, each of the Non-Consolidated Debtors maintained their own distinct operations (A-958 ¶ 23); maintained accounting and treasury systems separate from the Consolidated Debtors (see id. ¶ 24; A-347 at 138:3-10 (testimony of Ms. Hughes) (explaining that the centralized cash management system "excludes" SAI, Aerounión, and Avifreight)); were not marketed as falling under the "Avianca" brand (A-958 ¶ 23); and were not understood by the market or creditors as falling under the "Avianca" brand (id.).

- SAI, a ground-handling services provider in Colombian airports, had a distinct management team and maintained operational and financial systems separate from all other Debtors. A-958 ¶ 24; A-364 at 155:1-5 (testimony of Ms. Hughes) ("And in SAI, again, you know, it was an acquired entity. It is run and maintained completely separate and has a management team that's separate and books and records that are separate. It's actually quite easy – I mean, it's already separate. It's not hard to separate. It already is separate.").

- Because Avianca is SAI's largest customer, it was "not marketing [itself] to Avianca as Avianca controlled because Avianca [i]s [its] customer" and thus "from a customer proposition perspective, [SAI is] quite separate." A-364 at 155:11-25 (testimony of Ms. Hughes).

- SAI's headquarters was separate from that of the Consolidated Debtors. A-958 ¶ 24.

- Aerounión, an airline in Mexico, ran independently from the Consolidated Debtors pursuant to Mexican foreign investment regulations. See A-958 ¶ 25; A-353 at 144:7-8 (testimony of Ms. Hughes) ("Aerounión, its business is run completely separate.").

- Aerounión had a distinct management team and maintained operational and financial systems separate from those of the Consolidated Debtors. See A-958 ¶ 25; A-363 at 154:18-20 (testimony of Ms. Hughes) ("Aerounión runs its own business, has its own set of books and records, has its own set of customers. They – they – they run an independent business.").

- Creditors did not rely on Aerounión as part of the Avianca brand. See A-958 ¶ 23; A-365 at 156:7-18 (testimony of Ms. Hughes) (explaining that a creditor initially refused to speak with Avianca's financial advisor, citing a belief that Avianca and Aerounión were not related entities).

- Aerounión's headquarters was separate from that of the Consolidated Debtors. See A-958 ¶ 25.

- Avifreight was a holding company, established with the sole purpose of complying with Mexican foreign investment regulations for foreign ownership of Aerounión, and was controlled and operated separately from the Consolidated Debtors. See A-958 ¶ 26; A-342 at 133:15-18 (testimony of Ms. Hughes) ("Well, Avifreight is a holding company. Avifreight has no operations. Avifreight, it holds voting and nonvoting shares and receives dividends. It's – it's – it's – it's a nonentity.").

- Avifreight had no operations and no creditors, and it maintained its own books and records. See A-351 at 142:14-17; A-365 at 156:19-23 (testimony of Ms. Hughes).

Thus, the evidence was clear that neither Hopeless Entanglement nor Creditor Reliance was established to justify substantive consolidation with respect to Avifreight, Aerounión, or SAI.

Based on the wealth of evidence provided by the Debtors in declarations in advance of confirmation and in live testimony at the confirmation hearing, the Bankruptcy Court committed no error (and certainly no clear error) in finding that (i) both of the Augie/Restivo factors were satisfied for the Consolidated Debtors, warranting their substantive consolidation, and that (ii) based on the Augie/Restivo factors, the Non-Consolidated Debtors were properly excluded from the substantive consolidation.

III. THE BANKRUPTCY COURT CORRECTLY HELD THAT SECTION 1129(B) DID NOT APPLY TO THE PLAN

Appellants argue that the Plan violates the "absolute priority rule" codified in section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. This argument fails for many reasons and, indeed, borders on frivolous. First, by its own terms, section 1129(b) applies only to classes that vote to reject a chapter 11 plan. Knowing this, Appellants attack the accepting vote of Class 11[14] by arguing that the 2023 Notes Claims should have been placed in a separate class. This argument fails because the 2023 Notes Claims were properly classified as general unsecured given that, as explained supra, the assets securing these claims had no residual value after satisfaction of the DIP Facility Claims. But even if the Debtors had adopted Appellants' preferred classification scheme and placed the 2023 Notes Claims in a separate class, that class would still have voted to accept the Plan. For this reason, neither section 1129(b) nor the absolute priority rule embedded in it was applicable to the Plan and was thus simply irrelevant to its confirmation. Even if section 1129(b) applied to the Plan, however, the Plan still would satisfy the absolute priority rule with respect to Appellants' claims because the Plan does not allow any stakeholders junior to Appellants to receive or retain any value.

[14] The Debtors' court-approved Disclosure Statement made it clear that (i) 2023 Notes Claims would be general unsecured claims in Class 11 under the Plan, expected to recover only 1.0% of the amount of their claims, and (ii) if Class 11 voted to accept the Plan, all holders of allowed claims in that class would receive enhanced distributions under the Plan. A-161 ¶¶ 21-22; A-560-61 ¶ A(2)(b)(xii). Appellants fashion these accurate and unremarkable disclosures into "an active campaign to silence dissent and opposition to the Plan." App. Br. at 19. Nonsense.

First, the Debtors' representation that the 2023 Notes Claims would be unsecured was, and continues to be, amply supported by the Debtors' evidence as described supra. Second, offering all members of a class increased recoveries in exchange for a vote in favor of a plan of reorganization has "long been customary in Chapter 11 plans." In re MPM Silicones, LLC, No. 14-22503, 2014 WL 4637175, at *3 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Sept. 17, 2014) (noting the "clear rationale in such provisions" in that they "offer a choice to avoid the expense and, more importantly, the uncertainty of a contested cramdown hearing"); see also In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Grp., 138 B.R. 714, 717 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1992); In re Zenith Elecs. Corp., 241 B.R. 92, 105 (Bankr. D. Del. 1999) ("There is no prohibition in the Code against a Plan proponent offering different treatment to a class depending on whether it votes to accept or reject the Plan."). In support of their argument, Appellants rely solely on In re Adelphia Commc'ns Corp. But Adelphia concerned an alleged violation of section 1123(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code, which mandates the same treatment under a plan of reorganization for each claim or interest of a particular class. See 11 U.S.C. § 1123(a)(4). In Adelphia, class members who voted to accept the plan received additional recoveries consisting of broad releases and exculpations, while those class members who voted to reject the Plan received no such benefits. 361 B.R. at 362. Here, no such disparate treatment exists; upon Class 11's vote to accept the Plan, all holders of allowed claims in that class would receive enhanced recovery. A-94-95 ¶ B(11).

A. Deficiency Claims Are Properly Classified with Other Unsecured Claims.

A chapter 11 plan generally must place each claim into a class with substantially similar claims. See 11 U.S.C. §§ 1122(a), 1123(a)(1). In this Circuit, "classification is constrained by two straight-forward rules: Dissimilar claims may not be classified together; similar claims may be classified separately only for a legitimate reason." Aetna Cas. & Sur. Co. v. Clerk, U.S. Bankruptcy Court (In re Chateaugay Corp.), 89 F.3d 942, 949 (2d Cir. 1996). "Claims are similar if they have 'substantially similar rights to the debtor's assets.'" In re Quigley Co., Inc., 377 B.R. 110, 116 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2007) (quoting with emphasis In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Grp., Inc., 138 B.R. 723, 757 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1992)).

All non-priority unsecured claims are generally considered to be substantially similar because "they are . . . of equal legal rank entitled to share pro rata in values remaining after payment of secured and priority claims." In re 266 Wash. Assocs., 141 B.R. 275, 282 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1992), aff'd, 147 B.R. 827 (E.D.N.Y. 1992). The portion of a secured creditor's claim that exceeds the value of its collateral is known as a "deficiency" claim. Here, because the value of the Shared Collateral is, as discussed above, insufficient to provide any recoveries on account of 2023 Notes Claims, the 2023 Notes Claims are deficiency claims in their entirety. The Bankruptcy Code treats that deficiency claim as an unsecured claim, see 11 U.S.C. § 506(a)(1), and deficiency claims are ordinarily classified with other unsecured claims. See In re 266 Wash., 141 B.R. at 282. Many courts have rebuked attempts to classify deficiency claims separately as gerrymandering. See, e.g., John Hancock Mut. Life Ins. Co. v. Rte. 37 Bus. Park Assocs., 987 F.2d 154, 161–162 (3d Cir. 1993); In re Bryson Props., XVIII, 961 F.2d 496, 502 (4th Cir. 1992); Phoenix Mut. Life Ins. Co. v. Greystone III Joint Venture (In re Greystone III Joint Venture), 995 F.2d 1274, 1279–80 (5th Cir. 1991); In re 266 Wash., 141 B.R. at 282-87.

B. A Chapter 11 Plan Must Satisfy the Absolute Priority Rule Only as to a Rejecting Class.

The Bankruptcy Code provides two mechanisms to ensure that a chapter 11 plan treats creditors fairly: either a class votes to accept the plan, or the plan treatment of each impaired rejecting class complies with the requirements set forth in section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. See 11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(8), (b)(1). Crucially, these two mechanisms are alternatives. If all impaired classes vote to accept the plan, section 1129(b) does not come into play.

As to the first alternative, a class of claims is considered to accept a plan if the plan is accepted by two-thirds in amount and a majority in number of the claims actually voted in the class. See 11 U.S.C. § 1126(c). There is no requirement that all creditors in a class accept the plan, and the dissent of particular creditors is irrelevant for the purposes of section 1126(c). (The Bankruptcy Code provides protection to individual dissenting creditors by other means, such as the best interest of creditors test. See 11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(7)(A)(ii).)

As to the second alternative, the plan will be confirmed despite the rejection of an impaired class if it satisfies the "cramdown" requirements of section 1129(b) as to that class. See 11 U.S.C. § 1129(b)(1). If the rejecting class consists of unsecured claims, the plan must satisfy the "absolute priority rule": it must either provide the members of the class with a full recovery or provide zero recovery to holders of junior claims and interests. See 11 U.S.C. § 1129(b)(2)(B).

C. Appellants' Claims Were Properly Classified with General Unsecured Claims.

As described supra, Class 11 consists of all "General Unsecured Avianca Claims," which are defined as "General Unsecured Claim[s] against any of the [Consolidated] Debtors, other than General Unsecured Convenience Claims . . . ." A-69 ¶ 112. In turn, "General Unsecured Claim" is defined as "any Claim that is not a Secured Claim, an Intercompany Claim, a Subordinated Claim, or a Claim entitled to priority under the Bankruptcy Code." Id. ¶ 114. Matching up the legal characteristics of the 2023 Notes Claims against the criteria for inclusion in Class 11, it is clear that the 2023 Notes Claims belong there.

Criterion for Class 11	2023 Notes
Asserted against Consolidated Debtors	✓ 2023 Notes were never guaranteed by other Debtors.
Not a Secured Claim	✓ Collateral has no value after satisfaction of DIP claims. See infra.
Not an Intercompany Claim	✓ 2023 Notes are not held by Debtors or their subsidiaries.
Not a Subordinated Claim	✓ 2023 Notes are not subject to subordination under 11 U.S.C. § 510(b)–(c).
Not entitled to priority	✓ No party has asserted that 2023 Notes Claims are entitled to priority.
Not a General Unsecured Convenience Claim	✓ Individual 2023 Notes Claims of up to $500,000 were entitled to elect to be placed into a separate class under 11 U.S.C. § 1122(b).

Of these characteristics, the only one that Appellants dispute is that the 2023 Notes are unsecured. But as explained supra at pages 8-10, the Shared Collateral does not have value in excess of the approximately $2.5 billion of DIP Facility Claims that had to be satisfied first from the Shared Collateral.

D. Section 1129(b) Does Not Apply Because Appellants' Class Accepted the Plan.

Here, the Debtors' voting agent reported that the holders of 92% in number and nearly 99% in amount of Class 11 claims voted to accept the Plan. See A-781 (copied in relevant part below, with emphases added).

Class	Ballots Not Tabulated	Number Voted	Number Accepted	Number Rejected	Total Amount Voted	Amount Accepted	Amount Rejected	Voting Result
Class 3 - Engine Loan Claims	0	1	1 100.00%	0 0.00%	$58,923,703.04	$58,923,703.04 100.00%	$0.00 0.00%	Accept

Class 11 - General Unsecured Avianca Claims (2023 Notes Only)	22	166	139 83.73%	27 16.27%	$53,893,000.00	$41,760,000.00 77.49%	$12,133,000.00 22.51%	Accept
Class 11 - General Unsecured Avianca Claims Total	69	417	384 92.09%	33 7.91%	$3,501,476,772.05	$3,464,935,265.42 98.96%	$36,541,506.63 1.04%	Accept
Class 15 - General Unsecured Convenience Claims	11	263	204 77.57%	59 22.43%	$10,958,172.55	$9,553,233.89 87.18%	$1,404,938.66 12.82%	Accept

What is more, even if the Debtors had placed Appellants' claims in a separate class consisting solely of the 2023 Notes Claims—as Appellants advocate—section 1129(b) still would not apply because the 2023 Noteholders, considered separately from the holders of other General Unsecured Avianca Claims, voted to accept the Plan. As the Debtors' voting agent showed in its voting report, 83.73% (i.e., more than a majority) of the voting 2023 Noteholders voted to accept the Plan, and those holders accounted for 77.49% (i.e., more than two-thirds) of the amount of the 2023 Notes Claims actually voted. See A-781.[15]

Because Class 11 voted to accept the Plan (as would the hypothetical class of the 2023 Notes Claims that Appellants champion), section 1129(b) is entirely irrelevant. Thus, Appellants' "absolute priority" arguments fail as a matter of law.

E. Even if Section 1129(b) Were Applicable, the Plan Would Satisfy the Absolute Priority Rule.

Even if section 1129(b) were applicable to Appellants' class (however constituted), their appeal would still fail. Appellants complain that the Plan allocates value to the general unsecured creditors and equity holders of the [15] Appellants note that "less than one-third of the amount of the 2023 Notes entitled to vote on the Plan voted to accept the Plan." App. Br. at 15. This is like arguing that a politician who received 77% of the votes cast at an election didn't win because only half of the eligible population voted. The Bankruptcy Code is clear that what matters for plan confirmation purposes is the percentage of those who voted, not the percentage of those who were entitled to vote. See 11 U.S.C. § 1126(c) (referring to fractions of "allowed claims . . . held by creditors . . . that have accepted or rejected the plan") (emphasis added).

Non-Consolidated Debtors. And so it does. But that allocation of value is no violation of the absolute priority rule, because Appellants are not creditors of the Non-Consolidated Debtors.For the Plan to comply with the absolute priority rule, section 1129(b) requires that no holder of a claim or interest junior to the 2023 Notes Claims and to other General Unsecured Avianca Claims either receive or retain any property thereunder. Obviously, the junior claims and interests must be claims against and interests in the same debtors, here the Consolidated Debtors. The Non-Consolidated Debtors have their own capital structures, and not one of them was a guarantor of the 2023 Notes.[16] With respect to the Consolidated Debtors, junior claims and interests are the Subordinated Claims, the Existing AVH Non-Voting Equity Interests, the Existing AVH Common Equity Interests, and the Other Existing Equity Interests (each as defined in the Plan)—none of which is entitled to receive or retain any value under the Plan. See generally A-96-98; A-172 ¶ 58. Accordingly, even if Appellants' class had rejected the Plan, the Plan would have passed the absolute priority test with flying colors.

CONCLUSION

For all of the foregoing reasons, the Bankruptcy Court's order confirming the Plan should be affirmed.

4. Since founding Seabury in 1995, I have overseen over 1,500 engagements for more than 300 clients in over 50 countries. I have advised on more than $125 billion of equity, debt and lease placements/restructurings at Seabury and negotiated or restructured over $250 billion of new aircraft purchase agreements. Among other airline restructurings and transactions, I have advised Republic Airways in its successful chapter 11 reorganization; secured a $450M equity investment for Azul Airlines from HNA Airlines Group; led liquidity capital raises for Air Canada ($1 billion) and US Airways ($1.1 billion) amidst the global credit crisis in 2008-2009; led Northwest Airlines' financial restructuring by securing $750 million of new equity and $1.2 billion of exit debt financing and restructuring of over $10 billion of liabilities; advised Air Canada on its CCAA reorganization; led Avianca Holdings' $4.6 billion out-of-court debt and lease restructuring (2019) and advised America West Airlines, Continental Airlines, Chautauqua Airlines, and Frontier Airlines on their respective out-of-court restructurings/liquidity programs. In the wake of 9/11, I also led a number of high-profile airline restructurings including successfully reorganizing Air Canada, America West, Northwest Airlines and US Airways.

5. Before Seabury, I was the CFO and CIO for Continental Airlines Inc. and its parent company. Before working at Continental, I served as vice president of syndications at Manufacturers Hanover Trust Company and served in the Corporate Finance Division of Exxon Corporation. I hold an A.B. magna cum laude in Economics from the College of the Holy Cross and an M.B.A. in Finance from the Wharton Graduate School of the University of Pennsylvania.

SEABURY'S RETENTION

6. The Debtors retained Seabury in April 2020 to act as their investment banker in connection with a potential restructuring to be completed either in court or outside of a chapter 11. The Seabury team, under my supervision, worked closely with the Debtors' management and other professionals retained by the Debtors with respect to these issues and came to understand the Debtors' capital structure, liquidity needs, and business operations. Through this process, it became clear that the Debtors would need to file for chapter 11 protection and to obtain debtor-in-possession financing for their operations.

7. Seabury worked with key members of the Company, including, but not limited to, members of the finance, financial planning and analysis, fleet and other groups to evaluate and understand the Debtors' cash flows, capital structure, fleet strategy, and operations. As part of an evaluation of the Debtors' liquidity position, the Debtors' advisors assisted in the development of rolling 13-week cash forecasts (updated weekly), as well as a full set of long-term forecasts of the Debtors' future profitability, cash flows and balance sheets. These forecasts take into account anticipated cash receipts and disbursements during the projected period and consider the effects of the chapter 11 filing, including: incremental administrative costs of a complex chapter 11 filing with a large number of stakeholders; required operational payments; and cost-saving initiatives already undertaken and contemplated to be undertaken by the Debtors. They also take into account the unprecedented adverse market conditions facing the airline industry during and as a result of the global COVID-19 pandemic, and the impact of those macro conditions on the Debtors' current and future business.

THE DEBTORS' EFFORTS TO OBTAIN POSTPETITION FINANCING

8. In any chapter 11 case, it is critical for the debtors to maintain or obtain liquidity sufficient to finance the case. Certainty of financing to maintain confidence in the viability of a company is particularly critical for a successful chapter 11 case, especially during a global pandemic where it is extremely difficult to forecast future revenues. Such uncertainties impact the ability of the Debtors to ensure that they will have access to cash to pay operational expenses should revenue remain suppressed in the near to medium term. The Debtors and their advisors analyzed the funding requirements necessary for debtor-in-possession financing based on the forecast of the Debtors' management, and concluded that the Debtors will require approximately $1.2 billion in new money financing for the duration of these chapter 11 proceedings. Seabury worked with the Company's network planning and FP&A teams to develop an extensive six-year operating plan and profitability forecast which was fed into a cash forecast developed by Seabury and which served as the basis for the DIP sizing. The proposed DIP financing amount allows the company to maintain operational cash requirements, while ensuring the Company's projected cash balance remains robust in downside scenarios.

9. Similar to other airlines, the Debtors sought support from various Latin American governments that could have helped them avoid a chapter 11 filing, or could have helped finance the chapter 11 cases. The Debtors engaged in extensive negotiations with the governments of the Republic of Colombia ("RoC"), the Republic of Ecuador, and the Republic of El Salvador both before the Petition Date and post-filing, with a focus on the RoC where the Debtors have over a 50% market share in the domestic airline market and roughly 75% of their employees on a go forward basis.

10. Beginning shortly after the airline was grounded by certain governments in their efforts to slow the spread of COVID-19, the Debtors began discussions with the RoC to provide financial support to the airline. Governments throughout the world began providing support to their countries' respective airlines, and Avianca believed government support was particularly justified since it was unable to operate in Colombia—which represents approximately 70% of its operations, and where it holds approximately 50% market share—as a result of governmental restrictions that closed down domestic and international passenger flights within, to, and from the country.

11. While the Debtors continued to seek DIP financing support from the RoC, Seabury also approached the private loan market in an effort to realize the best possible financing terms. Beginning in April 2020, Seabury began developing a post-COVID business plan, in conjunction with the Debtors' FP&A group, to demonstrate to prospective lenders the cash needs of Avianca and the potential future performance of the business. Seabury and Avianca also worked extensively on developing a financing structure that accommodated both private market and government financing and addressed the Company's lack of available collateral. The Debtors had previously completed a comprehensive financial and operational restructuring in late 2019 in which they had pledged virtually all of their unencumbered collateral to a group of lenders under an approximately $375 million secured convertible loan facility (the "Stakeholder Facility") and for approximately $484 million of 9.00% Senior Secured Notes due 2023 (the "Existing Notes") which were issued in 2019 under an exchange offer for a prior unsecured bond issuance due 2020. The lack of readily available unencumbered collateral made reliance on private market DIP financing especially challenging.

12. As a first step, the Debtors and Seabury negotiated with a group of key prepetition lenders under the Stakeholder Facility which included Kingsland Holdings S.A. ("Kingsland") and United Airlines Inc. ("United") as well as an affiliate of Citadel Advisors LLC ("Citadel"), and certain Latin American investors including Caoba Capital (collectively, the "Stakeholder Facility Lenders"), which together had loaned the Debtors $375 million of financing in December 2019/January 2020 as part of the Debtors' highly-successful, out-of-court restructuring in the second half of 2019. The Debtors and Seabury engaged in negotiations with the Stakeholder Facility Lenders to obtain their agreement to anchor an effort to raise approximately $1.2 billion of new money financing. As part of these negotiations, the Stakeholder Facility Lenders agreed in principle to (i) roll-up their approximately $386 million of outstanding loans under the Stakeholder Facility (including $11 million of payment-in-kind ("PIK") interest) into a subordinated DIP loan tranche and (ii) potentially lend some or all of the $316 of new money that would, if fully subscribed, aggregate to $722 million in a subordinated structure (collectively, the "Tranche B DIP Loans"). Critically, the Stakeholder Facility Lenders also agreed in principle to release their liens (subject to certain conditions) on valuable collateral securing the pre-petition Stakeholder Facility, which consisted principally of (i) the Debtors' 70% equity interest in their loyalty program company, LifeMiles Ltd.—one of the largest airline loyalty programs in Latin America—and (ii) a pledge over Avianca's affiliates representing its cargo freighter operations and (iii) a pledge over certain Colombian peso-denominated credit card receivables (collectively, the "Stakeholder Facility Collateral").

13. Given the near certainty that some or all of the Stakeholder Facility Lenders would participate in the DIP financing, and further, that the Avianca Holdings S.A. ("AVH") Board of Directors (the "Board") included designees of the stakeholders (e.g., United and Kingsland), the Board, on advice of counsel, implemented measures to make certain that those directors did not receive information, or participate in the deliberations regarding issues that might advantage the participating Stakeholder Facility Lenders in any negotiations with the Debtors. Specifically, the independent directors of the Board negotiated with the participating Stakeholder Facility Lenders on behalf of the Debtors, and the applicable designees on the Board were excluded from any discussions during the DIP process that the independent directors determined, with advice of counsel, might provide the participating Stakeholder Facility Lenders with an advantage in negotiations with the Debtors.

14. With an initial agreement in place with the Stakeholder Facility Lenders, Seabury formally launched in early June 2020 a solicitation process for raising a $900 million senior DIP loan tranche (the "Tranche A DIP Loans"). Seabury also continued to solicit interest from other lenders in the Tranche B DIP Facility to provide the necessary new money thereunder or to serve as alternative lenders for the full $700 million of Tranche B DIP Loans. Seabury contacted over 100 potential lenders that Seabury believed might be interested in, and capable of, entering into a DIP financing transaction. These potential investors included banks, private equity firms, hedge funds and the Debtors' prepetition lenders. Seabury established a data room to provide detailed financial and business information about the Debtors to potential investors, including the high-level business plan and a detailed DIP lender presentation. Over 35 parties signed non-disclosure agreements with the Debtors to obtain access to the data room. Throughout June, Seabury held extensive discussions with potential investors regarding the Debtors' business and worked closely with the Debtors to refine a financing structure and respond to due diligence inquiries from investors.

15. Also during the month of June, the Debtors' discussions with the RoC had progressed to the point where the RoC felt that it would be constructive to hire outside financial and legal advisors to assist in the analysis of a potential financing. On June 30, 2020, the Debtors filed a motion for authority to reimburse the fees and expenses of up to an aggregate cap of $3 million of the RoC's professionals (including Arnold & Porter and Perella Weinberg Partners) in connection with their evaluation of various DIP financing proposals. That motion was initially approved on July 16, 2020 (as amended by a subsequent order of the Court on August 17, 2020).

16. Around the same time, the Debtors sought to hire Goldman Sachs Lending Partners LLC ("GS") to assist with their efforts to obtain support from the RoC due to GS's long history of working with both the private and public sectors on a variety of financing transactions in Colombia. The Debtors wished to engage GS to explore and identify options with respect to both a potential DIP financing facility and an exit facility, in each case with the involvement of the RoC. The Debtors filed a motion on July 15, 2020 (which was granted on July 27, 2020) for authority to indemnify GS, as arranger of a potential DIP financing facility for the Debtors, and reimburse its legal fees and expenses subject to an aggregate cap of $1 million.

17. Seabury's initial solicitation process for the $900 million of senior Tranche A DIP Loans and the $700 million Tranche B DIP Loans using solely private capital sources resulted in submission of indications of interest by over 10 parties, including the Stakeholder Facility Lenders, that reflected strong interest for the Tranche B DIP Loans but less so for the Tranche A DIP Loans. The feedback Seabury received after this initial round of Tranche A DIP solicitation was that (i) the Debtors did not have sufficient unencumbered collateral with which to secure a DIP financing that would be adequate to meet the Debtors' liquidity needs and (ii) that the funding and subordination structure of the Tranche B DIP Loans as originally proposed was not acceptable to potential Tranche A lenders. Due to the nature and limited amount of the available collateral, including the complexity of financing transactions related to the fleet of aircraft, the universe of potential transaction partners was extremely limited. Moreover, not a single party was willing to provide financing on an unsecured basis. In order to remedy these deficiencies, the Debtors sought to materially improve the collateral supporting the potential DIP Facility.

18. First, Seabury successfully negotiated with the Stakeholder Facility Lenders a revised subordination and funding agreement whereby they would, as Tranche B DIP Lenders, agree that (i) their collateral interests would become immediately subordinated (not over time), and (ii) they would agree to fund pro rata new money loans proportionate to their overall DIP loan commitments, rather than being backloaded, as was the case with the initial Tranche A solicitation.

19. Second, in order to free up additional assets to pledge as collateral for the DIP Facility, the Debtors, Seabury and Milbank engaged in negotiations with an ad hoc group of holders (the "Ad Hoc Group") of the Debtors' Existing Notes. The Existing Notes are secured by important collateral of the Debtors, including the Debtors' trademarks, intellectual property, and certain aircraft (the "Shared Collateral"). After extensive arms-length negotiations, as described more fully below, the Ad Hoc Group agreed to allow the prepetition liens to be primed on the Shared Collateral so that such collateral could be pledged for the benefit of all potential DIP lenders. The noteholders who are part of the Ad Hoc Group also agreed to enter into a Restructuring Support Agreement and a commitment agreement to provide Tranche A DIP Loans that include the following terms: (i) a consensual priming of the Shared Collateral in support of the Tranche A and Tranche B DIP Loans; (ii) agreement to concede that in connection with the Debtors' ultimate restructuring and plan of reorganization, the approximately $484 million Existing Notes secured by the Shared Collateral would be satisfied by a roll-up of only $220 million of Tranche A DIP Loans; and (iii) an agreement to backstop a minimum of $200 million of new Tranche A DIP Loans, the latter providing a "anchor investor group" for the renewed solicitation of the $900 million of Tranche A new money loans.

20. Third, also in an effort to further obtain additional unencumbered collateral to secure a potential DIP facility, the Debtors, Seabury and Milbank also engaged in negotiations with certain affiliates of Advent International Colombia S.A.S. ("Advent"), the owners of a 30% minority stake in LifeMiles. In light of the economic value of Advent's minority stake in LifeMiles, as well as the incremental value of the Debtors' owning an undivided 100% equity stake in LifeMiles,[3] the Debtors determined that the purchase of Advent's minority stake would be in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and their DIP solicitation process to the extent

[3] The LifeMiles entity is governed by a shareholders agreement as between Avianca and Advent (the "Shareholders Agreement"), which will be amended as part of the DIP Facility transactions. It is my belief that the amendment, and ultimate prospect of ultimate elimination, of the Shareholders Agreement and its corresponding minority protections increases today the value of the Debtors' 70% stake, as does the consolidation of 100% ownership (inclusive of the future effect of the Call Option) with the Debtors. Among other minority protections, Advent has various consent rights under the Shareholders Agreement—including with respect to any attempt by Avianca to pledge its 70% stake. Advent and Avianca are also parties to a pre-petition put agreement, whereby the Debtors must purchase Advent's 30% stake for fair market value at Advent's election in October 2023. Contemporaneously herewith, AV Loyalty Bermuda, Ltd. (the entity holding Avianca's 70% stake) will file for chapter 11 and be incorporated into the Debtors' jointly administered cases.

it could be obtained at a reasonable cost. The Debtors and Advent subsequently engaged in extensive arms-length negotiations regarding the terms of a potential securities purchase (including between Milbank and Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, as counsel to Advent). The Debtors and Advent agreed that the Debtors, subject to Bankruptcy Court approval, will purchase (i) 19.9 percentage points of Advent's 30% minority stake in exchange for cash and Tranche A DIP Loans in the aggregate amount of $195 million,[4] and (ii) a call option for the remaining 10.1 percentage points of Advent's 30% minority stake which the Debtors may exercise upon payment of $5 million in cash (the "Call Option"), in each case as more fully described in the securities purchase agreement with Advent ("SPA") and the Sale Motion.

21. As a result of the SPA, the Debtors will be able to immediately pledge the additional 19.9% of LifeMiles equity and the Call Option as collateral for the DIP Facility. The remaining equity stake in LifeMiles is a valuable asset which, pursuant to the SPA, the Debtors will be acquiring on terms beneficial to the estates. Based on my experience and my discussions with valuation experts, I believe that the value of LifeMiles 89.9% equity plus the Call Option is approximately $1.6 billion to $2.6 billion. Therefore, the US $195 million purchase price for the 19.9% LifeMiles equity stake and the $5 million Call Option for the remaining 10.1% is eminently reasonable, and allows the Debtors to take advantage of a discount that would likely not otherwise exist absent the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the airline industry, the general uncertainty of Avianca's chapter 11 cases, and the resulting difficulty of Advent attempting to sell its minority stake to any other potential purchaser. The purchase by the Debtors of this minority equity stake is a crucial element to allow the Debtors to secure the full $1.2 billion of new money under the

[4] The Debtors shall pay either (i) $187.5 million in Tranche A DIP Loans plus $7.5 million in cash, or (ii) $168.5 million in Tranche A DIP Loans plus $26.5 million in cash (the "Advent Election"), which election shall be made prior to the hearing.

Tranche A and Tranche B DIP Loan facilities and will thereby support the necessary liquidity to continue running their businesses.

22. Based on the aforementioned negotiations with Advent, the Stakeholder Facility Lenders, and the Ad Hoc Group, the Debtors were able to develop a path forward whereby they would be able to re-approach the market to solicit interest in a DIP facility that would be secured by a substantial amount of newly available collateral. The Debtors, Seabury and Milbank also completed several rounds of further negotiations to improve the economic terms of the agreements with Advent, the Stakeholder Facility Lenders (as future Tranche B DIP Lenders), and the Ad Hoc Group, including with Paul Hastings LLP and Evercore Group LLC, as advisors to the Ad Hoc Group, Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft LLP, as counsel to Kingsland, and Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, as counsel to Advent. During this time, the Debtors were able to obtain additional concessions from each of Advent, the Stakeholder Facility Lenders, and the Ad Hoc Group regarding the economic and non-economic terms of a potential DIP facility.

23. While the Debtors were able to fill their entire Tranche B facility, the Debtors still required approximately $700 million in additional Tranche A new money commitments to combine with the new money being provided by the Ad Hoc Group to reach $900 million of new Tranche A funding. To ensure maximum success in syndicating the Tranche A DIP Loans to private investors, the Debtors and Seabury engaged in discussions with GS and JPMorgan Chase Bank N.A. ("JPM") with respect to GS and JPM acting as "co-arrangers" (the "Co-Arrangers") for the Tranche A DIP Loans, with Seabury, as the Debtors' investment banker, providing overall guidance and marketing and investor due diligence support to the Co-Arrangers, while also serving as the exclusive advisor with respect to the placement of the Tranche B DIP Loans. A motion for approval of the Debtors' engagement of the Co-Arrangers and the payment of their fees was filed with the Bankruptcy Court on August 11, 2020, and the Court approved the motion on August 19, 2020.

24. Working together with Seabury, the Co-Arrangers contacted nearly 300 DIP lender prospects, some of which (approximately 40 parties) were already engaged in substantial due diligence efforts directly with the Seabury team. These efforts, in conjunction with the 100-plus additional parties contacted by Seabury (bringing the total parties contacted by Seabury and the Co-Arrangers to approximately 425), resulted in over 250 parties conducting due diligence through the Debtors' public and private data rooms. The "re-launch" of the Tranche A and Tranche B DIP solicitation process yielded a fully-funded DIP Facility from more than 120 institutions providing final commitment bids (over 40 with commitments in excess of $1 million), arranged through a roll-up of prepetition lender facilities as well as new monies provided by existing lenders, private equity firms, and hedge funds.

25. The Debtors' "re-launch" of their DIP solicitation process, in light of the collateral release/priming commitments from the Stakeholder Facility Lenders and the Ad Hoc Group (and the agreement to purchase Advent's minority stake in LifeMiles), resulted in the Debtors securing financing commitments from private lender parties with total aggregate commitments of approximately $881 million (inclusive of $226.8 million from the Ad Hoc Group and other 2023 Noteholders). The Debtors have also included a mechanism in the DIP Facility whereby a governmental entity (i.e., an "Additional Lender" as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) may participate in the DIP Facility in the amount of up to approximately $250 million. This funding will be backstopped by other DIP Lenders to ensure that the Debtors have sufficient funding regardless of whether any such Additional Lender participates in the DIP Facility. The terms of this backstop commitment are set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement and the Backstop Commitment Letter (a copy of which is annexed to the DIP Motion as Exhibit F), and are a critical component of the proposed DIP Facility.

26. Without the release and/or sale of significant collateral by the Stakeholder Facility Lenders, the Ad Hoc Group, and Advent, these additional DIP lenders would not have participated in the DIP Facility because there would have been too little material collateral against which to lend, and the Debtors thus would not have been able to raise sufficient liquidity to fund their businesses and these chapter 11 cases.

27. The Debtors selected the financing proposed by DIP Lenders as the best bid for postpetition financing secured by the available collateral based on multiple factors, including the size and certainty of the committed amount, flexibility to draw or not draw the commitment, the applicable upfront fees and commitment fees on any undrawn amount, the applicable interest rate on drawn amounts, the reasonableness of conditions precedent and applicable financial covenants, and the other contractual commitments to which the DIP Lenders have agreed. Importantly, the Debtors did not receive alternate proposals.

28. The DIP Facility is critical to providing the liquidity necessary for the Debtors to survive and operate successfully, and to prosecute their chapter 11 cases to completion. Especially given the uncertainty in the airline industry and the ongoing development of a business plan, the Debtors must secure financing immediately in an amount sufficient to continue weathering the storm that is affecting airlines across the world. Based on over thirty years of experience in restructuring as both a principal and advisor, I believe the process the Debtors have undertaken to secure the debtor-in-possession financing has been both comprehensive and exhaustive, and in seeking approval of the DIP Facility, the Debtors are seeking approval of the best financing available to the Debtors given the circumstances. A chart illustrating the finalized key terms of each agreement with the foregoing parties under the proposed DIP Facility is below:

Party	Total DIP Commitment	New Money Commitment	Prepetition Collateral to be Made Available	Roll Up of Prepetition Debt (or Consideration to be Paid)

[8] As of September 30, 2020, such amount to further increase by the PIK interest on the Stakeholder Facility until the Closing Date.

THE PROPOSED DIP FACILITY IS NECESSARY AND SUFFICIENT TO MEET THE DEBTORS' LIQUIDITY NEEDS

29. Seabury worked closely with the Debtors' management team and other advisors to assess the Debtors' cash needs for their businesses and chapter 11 cases. Based on the extensive work of Seabury to assess the Debtors' immediate and projected liquidity needs, I believe that the DIP Facility will provide necessary and sufficient liquidity for the Debtors to fund their operations during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases and to fund the administration of these chapter 11 cases.

30. The abrupt and acute downturn in the airline industry since the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic has severely depleted the Debtors' liquidity. As of the date hereof, the Debtors' unrestricted cash on hand is approximately $150 million. Even with the commencement of commercial passenger operations which began as of September 1, 2020, the Debtors are projected to have negative operating cash flow over the coming eight to ten months of these chapter 11 cases, even before including professionals' fees and other restructuring expenses, as the Debtors work to rebuild their business within the COVID-19 environment afflicting the industry.

31. Without immediate access to sufficient DIP financing, the Debtors will be unable to continue their operations throughout the pendency of these chapter 11 cases. The Debtors need the DIP Facility to fund working capital, make capital expenditures, cover payroll obligations, pay suppliers, cover overhead costs, and make any other payments that are essential for the continued management, operation, and preservation of the Debtors' business. The ability to make these payments when due is essential to the continued operation of the Debtors' business during the pendency of these cases. The funds that would be made available to the Debtors under the DIP Facility are therefore necessary to preserve the value of the Debtors' estates for the benefit of all stakeholders.

32. If the Debtors cannot quickly access the DIP Facility, based on the Debtors' financial forecasts, the Debtors will not be able to continue to operate their business beyond early- to the latter part of October 2020. This would negatively impact the Debtors' revenue, jeopardize the Debtors' stakeholders' confidence in the Debtors' business, and harm the value of the Debtors' estates to the detriment of all stakeholders. Based on the Debtors' financial forecasts, the liquidity provided by the DIP Facility will allow the Debtors to implement their business plan and weather industry headwinds related to macroeconomic uncertainty associated with the global COVID-19 pandemic and the current challenges facing the aviation industry.

33. The size of the DIP Facility, combined with access to receipts, is calculated to permit the Debtors to maintain the minimum amount of liquidity sufficient to sustain operations during these chapter 11 cases. Because the Debtors' expect that in the context of the COVID-19 pandemic their operating cash flow will be negative in the majority of weeks in the coming six to eight months, the borrowings under the DIP Facility will enable the Debtors to continue to maintain a minimum cash balance of at least $500 million (versus the $400 million minimum cash covenant in the DIP credit agreement) and provide sufficient liquidity to fund the remainder of these chapter 11 cases. Based on the Debtors' projected operating cash flow, a DIP Facility funding new money of approximately $1.2 billion is necessary in order to maintain that minimum liquidity requirement. This amount addresses the Debtors' predicted liquidity needs and enables the Debtors to account for potential fluctuations over time, such as changes in fuel costs, as well as other developments that may occur related or unrelated to the COVID-19 pandemic.

34. I believe that the work done in evaluating the Debtors' cash needs was reasonable. The Debtors' estimated cash needs reflect the result of modeling along with various stress tests assuming a number of different valuations, and the size of the DIP Facility is reasonable under the circumstances. Based on current forecasts, the Debtors' operational needs during the course of these proceedings are expected to far exceed the amount of cash on hand and, as of the date hereof, the Debtors are not projected to be able to maintain the minimum liquidity thresholds needed to run their business without the risk of potential disruption, unless the proposed financing is approved. Given the volatility of the current environment, particularly accounting for the uncertainties regarding how the COVID-19 pandemic may affect the Debtors and their operations in the near and medium term, it is essential for the Debtors to have access as soon as possible to a financing facility that will provide them sufficient liquidity.

35. The proceeds of the DIP Facility provide the Debtors with needed stability and sufficient liquidity to continue to operate their business in the normal course, provide comfort to their employee, customer, and vendor constituencies, and fund the administration of these chapter 11 cases. The ability of the Debtors to obtain sufficient working capital and liquidity through the DIP Facility is vital to the preservation and maintenance of the going concern value of the Debtors.

THE DIP FACILITY HAS BEEN NEGOTIATED AT ARMS-LENGTH AND IN GOOD FAITH

36. Since engaging with their key stakeholders regarding potential debtor-in-possession financing in the weeks leading up to the filing, and continuing after the filing, the Debtors and their advisors have engaged in extensive negotiations with the DIP Lenders and their advisors regarding the proposed DIP Facility.

37. The DIP Lenders and the Debtors have exchanged numerous drafts of term sheets and debtor-in-possession loan documents with respect to the proposed DIP Facility and have conducted hours of intense negotiations over the telephone and on video conference. Paul Hastings LLP and Evercore Group LLC, as advisors to the Ad Hoc Group; Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft LLP, as counsel to Kingsland, Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP, as counsel to Advent, and the Co-Arrangers and their counsels, Simpson Thatcher and Clifford Chance, as well as Milbank and Seabury, as advisors to the Debtors, were fully engaged in this process, exchanging significant diligence information through a virtual data room, participating in countless conference calls, videoconferences, and negotiations to work toward finalizing debtor-in-possession financing terms and final documentation. This process involved, among other things, extensive evaluation and testing of the Debtors financial forecasts by the Debtors' and the DIP Lenders' financial advisors. The negotiations culminated in the proposed DIP Facility, as documented in the DIP Credit Agreement, the approval of which is sought on a final basis in the DIP Motion.

38. Over the course of these negotiations, the Debtors materially improved the terms of the financing as compared to those originally offered. Notably, the lenders in the Ad Hoc Group have agreed to execute a Restructuring Support Agreement with the Debtors and have agreed to vote in favor of the Debtors' eventual chapter 11 plan (subject to the fulfillment of certain conditions). By agreeing to vote in favor of such a plan, the Ad Hoc Group has substantially furthered the Debtors' ability to exit these cases through a smooth reorganization and plan process.

39. While Kingsland is a holder of equity interests in Avianca Holdings S.A. as well as certain seats on the Board, and United is in the process of foreclosing on common shares of AVH held by BRW Aviation LLC,[9] both also hold significant economic interests as secured creditors within the $375 million pre-petition senior secured Stakeholder Facility. The DIP Facility has been properly evaluated and vetted by the Debtors' independent members of the Board. As set forth above, the Board implemented procedures early in the process to address any conflicts of interest. To my knowledge, no "back channel" discussions occurred between and among management and the directors designated by any of the Stakeholder Facility Lenders, and all relevant representatives and employees of the Stakeholder Facility Lenders were specifically excluded from any calls or meetings that would have given them an advantage or might adversely influence the Debtors' ability to negotiate at arms' length. While the directors designated by Kingsland and Kingsland (in its capacity as a third party irrevocably designated by United in the structuring of its loan to BRW in 2018) did receive general updates relating to the affairs of the Debtors, including general updates related to the Debtors' efforts to raise DIP financing, any matters relating to those lenders' role in the DIP Financing, as well as other sensitive information (including the terms of competing offers), were always discussed outside of those directors' presence. Moreover, no Stakeholder Lender had any involvement on behalf of the Debtors in the Debtors' negotiation or approval of the Tranche B DIP Financing in which the Stakeholder Facility Lenders are participating as lenders.

40. Based upon my observations and involvement in the negotiation of the DIP Facility in this matter, the negotiations with the potential lenders have at all times been conducted at arm's length and in good faith.

THE EXIT EVENT TRANSACTIONS ARE FAIR AND REASONABLE

41. The Exit Event Transactions (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) are fair and reasonable components of the DIP Facility, and provide the Debtors with flexibility for their eventual restructuring and emergence from chapter 11. With respect to the Tranche B DIP Facility, the Debtors shall have the option to either (i) repay the Tranche B DIP Facility (including the Tranche B Back-end Fee) in cash, or (ii) repay the entire $722.3 million Tranche B DIP Facility (plus all accrued fees and interest during the term of Tranche B Loan which may total as much as approximately $910 million through the maturity date of the DIP Facility) with common shares of the reorganized Debtors, which shall constitute no less than 72% of the aggregate common equity on a fully diluted basis (i.e., the "Equity Floor"). If the Debtors so elect, the right of the Tranche B DIP Lenders to subscribe to such equity securities shall include an 8.5% discount to the pre-money plan equity valuation of the reorganized Debtors, which discount is very favorable to the Debtors relative to similar equity discounts provided in comparable transactions.

42. The Tranche B equity conversion option preserves the Debtors' liquidity, lowers the barriers to exiting chapter 11, and was a key concession of the prepetition Stakeholder Facility Lenders (who are also Tranche B DIP Lenders) in their negotiations with the Debtors. The equity conversion option is critical not only to the Debtors and their ability to maintain flexibility in structuring their plan of reorganization, but also to the Tranche A DIP Lenders since many of the Tranche A DIP Facility Lenders' commitments to fund were based on the Debtors' ability to eventually equitize the Tranche B DIP Facility, inclusive of accrued fees and PIK interest.

43. The Debtors' decision to exercise the equity conversion option (and all aspects of the conversion, including the 72% equity floor and 8.5% discount) will be subject to a robust marketing process to be conducted by the Debtors and Seabury prior to seeking confirmation of the Debtors' plan of reorganization by the Court, as well as the Court's further review and approval of that process. Further, such decision to exercise the option to convert Tranche B loans into equity will be subjected to the Committee's right to object, along with other parties in interest, in connection with confirmation of the Debtors' eventual chapter 11 plan. Additionally, the Exit Event Transactions shall be subject to (i) the approval of the Debtors' disinterested and independent directors who are not affiliated with any of the Tranche B DIP Lenders, and (ii) further market testing (in consultation with the Committee) to determine whether any equity conversion is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates. As section 2.10(d) of the DIP Credit Agreement specifically provides, "The Tranche B Lenders acknowledge that the Borrower intends to solicit other equity financing proposals and may accept any such proposals."

THE ASSUMPTION OF CONTRACTS WITH LIFEMILES AND UNITED AIRLINES IS A SOUND EXERCISE OF BUSINESS JUDGMENT

44. As part of the negotiations with Advent and United, each of which are DIP Lenders under the Tranche A and Tranche B DIP facilities, respectively, the Debtors have agreed to assume (i) certain contracts with LifeMiles, which shall be assumed upon the closing of the DIP Facility or at confirmation (as applicable), as set forth in further detail in the Sale Motion and the SPA, and (ii) certain contracts with United, which shall be amended and assumed upon entry of the Final Order and subsequently amended and/or assumed at confirmation, all as set forth in more detail in the Assumption Notice (as defined herein). In connection with the Order (I) Authorizing and Approving Procedures to Reject or Assume Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases and Abandon Certain Aircraft and Equipment and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 261]), the Debtors have filed that certain Notice of Assumption of Certain Executory Contracts (As Amended) in Connection with Its Continued Relationship with United Airlines, Inc. contemporaneously herewith (the "Assumption Notice") which, among other things, lists the contracts with United to be assumed and amended pursuant to that certain Omnibus Amendment to Certain Commercial Arrangements Among United, Avianca and Certain of Its Affiliates, dated September 21 (the "United Omnibus Amendment"), a copy of which is attached to the Assumption Notice.

45. With respect to the LifeMiles agreements that the Debtors have agreed to assume under the SPA with Advent, the Debtors' assumption of these agreements will ensure the continued success of Avianca's LifeMiles loyalty program, which is one of the largest and most recognized coalition loyalty programs in Latin America—particularly in Avianca's core markets of Colombia and Central America, with approximately 9.7 million members as of December 31, 2019, and 586 active commercial partners. Frequent flyer programs such as the LifeMiles program build and maintain a loyal customer base, especially among business travelers who pay higher fares than do leisure travelers. Prior to COVID-19, approximately 32% of the Debtors' total passenger revenues were generated from passengers who are members of the LifeMiles program. LifeMiles generated revenues in excess of $337 million in 2019, with approximately 70% of its cash receipts coming from non-Avianca sources. The LifeMiles program is an important source of revenues for the Debtors, enhances the loyalty of the Debtors' most valued customers, and ensures that the Debtors can effectively compete with other major airlines that offer their own loyalty programs. Additionally, with respect to any amounts that may be due under the LifeMiles agreements being assumed at closing, no cash, other than the application of cashless netting, or any other consideration shall be required to be paid by the Debtors at closing to satisfy the cure obligations pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (as more fully set forth in the proposed order for the Sale Motion). In light of the foregoing, I believe that the assumption of the contracts with LifeMiles as set forth in the SPA is a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment.

46. With respect to United, which has a principal amount of approximately $154 million of prepetition loans outstanding under the Stakeholder Lender Facility (through September 30, 2020) which are designated to roll up into the subordinated Tranche B Loans, the Debtors have agreed to assume and amend pursuant to the United Omnibus Amendment ten total agreements (as amended) with United comprised of five bilateral alliance agreements, two codeshare agreements, two frequent flyer program agreements, and one special prorate agreement (an interline agreement in which the distribution of fees and the settlement of ticket costs between carriers are precisely defined) (collectively, the "Assumed United Agreements"). Together, these Assumed United Agreements and the United Omnibus Amendment govern the Debtors' important business relationship with United—including in their capacities as members of the Star Alliance, the world's largest global airline alliance—and the assumption of the Assumed United Agreements will inure to the Debtors' benefit upon their emergence from chapter 11 by preserving this relationship.

47. Prior to seeking assumption, the Debtors agreed with United to amend each of the Assumed United Agreements under the United Omnibus Amendment to provide for a three-year term from the assumption date and no-termination provision for the Debtors (with an exception permitting termination in the case of an uncured material breach by United or certain adverse events with respect to the Debtors' air operator's certificates).

48. The Debtors' go-forward relationship with United is subject to certain terms and conditions in connection with the DIP Facility. As part of its agreement to participate in the subordinated Tranche B DIP facility, United sought to ensure a long-term business relationship with Avianca incorporated into the United Omnibus Amendment. Accordingly, at confirmation the Debtors will agree to (i) further amend the Assumed United Agreements to provide for an incremental seven-year extension and no-termination provision for the Debtors (with an exception permitting termination in the case of an uncured material breach by United or certain adverse events with respect to the Debtors' air operator's certificates), thus extending those agreements until September 2030, and (ii) amend and assume the Joint Business Agreement with United and other parties thereto (the "JBA"), which governs revenue sharing, services integration, and pricing/scheduling coordination among Avianca, United and Compañía Panemeña de Aviación, S.A. ("Copa") on routes between the United States and Central and South America (excluding Brazil, Mexico and the Caribbean), which is still inactive as the parties have not yet filed for regulatory approval. Such amendment will provide for a two-year period of good faith negotiations so as to modify the JBA for the benefit of all parties to accommodate post-COVID-19 conditions. If the parties cannot come to agreement within that two-year period, any party to the JBA may terminate the JBA without triggering any damage claims. If the Debtors do not meet the foregoing conditions or otherwise fail to comply with the terms of the United Omnibus Amendment, then (a) the repayment of United's Tranche B DIP Loans in cash or equity shall be at United's option, and (b) the Debtors will pay liquidated damages of $35 million to United, which damages shall be afforded administrative expense priority in the Debtors' chapter 11 cases (the "UA Liquidated Damages Claim").[10]

49. United and Avianca have reached a reasonable solution to resolve the uncertainty surrounding the JBA. While the JBA is expected to provide Avianca with $35 million to $50 million in incremental annual revenue, the JBA was designed prior to the parties being impacted by COVID-19. As such, the parties (including Copa) need time to re-evaluate the optimal structure of the JBA in the new post-COVID world and, if a mutual agreement cannot be reached, the parties would not be bound to move forward with the JBA (and Avianca would not be liable for damages).

50. The Debtors' proposed modifications and the two-step process of adding non-cancelable terms to the United Assumed Agreements are reasonable given that the Debtors likely will wish to assume the contracts as part of their eventual chapter 11 plan for the reasons outlined below. What is more, the UA Liquidated Damages Claim provision limits the Debtors' exposure in the event that a competing offer arises.

51. United has long been a key partner to Avianca, and their business relationship as Star Alliance partners has operated under the Assumed United Agreements and predecessor contracts for over ten years. Each of the Assumed United Agreements are arm's length in nature and mutually beneficial to the parties. Furthermore, Avianca ran a vigorous competitive process in 2016-2017 in order to select a long-term partner, which competition was won by United based upon the best set of economic contributions likely to be made to Avianca over the following 10-year period (from 2018-2028). The current framework of the Avianca-United relationship is the product of that competitive process.

[10] If the Debtors are not able to assume the JBA as amended, the Debtors are permitted to reject the JBA and enter into a separate 2-year agreement with United with terms similar to the proposed amendments, without incurring the UA Liquidated Damages Claim.

52. Avianca has derived over $90 million in annual incremental revenues from its relationship with United and other Star Alliance members in the years 2017-2019, and expects to continue to derive similar benefits during the ten-year term of the Assumed United Agreements. If the JBA is consummated and the requisite regulatory approvals are obtained, Avianca would likely enjoy significant incremental annual revenues during its term (as much as $35 million to $50 million per year).

53. Replacing United with another major airline partner, if viable at all, will require significant investment in systems, relationships, network redesign, etc. and will put in jeopardy the entire relationship with Star Alliance, of which United is a charter member and a driving force. Also, maintaining Avianca's relationship with the broader Star Alliance—and therefore United—is key to the loyalty business of LifeMiles and to its value, both in the short-term as collateral for the DIP loans and cash flow for Avianca's business, and in the long-term as a critical revenue/profit source and strategic component to Avianca's business.

54. For the foregoing reasons, I believe that the assumption of the United Assumed Agreements and entry into the United Omnibus Amendment is a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment.

THE DIP FACILITY IS THE BEST OPTION CURRENTLY AVAILABLE TO THE DEBTORS

55. The DIP Facility is attractive for several reasons. First, the DIP Lenders have agreed to several contractual undertakings and, in the case of the Ad Hoc Group, to sign a Restructuring Support Agreement and to agree to support the Debtors' eventual chapter 11 plan. Second, the Tranche B DIP Lenders have agreed to accept repayment in a manner that will preserve the Debtors' liquidity; namely, the Debtors will have the option at emergence, subject to satisfying certain conditions precedent, to convert the total obligations outstanding on the Tranche B DIP Loans into equity of the reorganized Debtors. Third, and as discussed more fully above, each of the Stakeholder Facility Lenders, Advent, and the Ad Hoc Group have agreed to release, sell, or have primed, respectively, a material portion of collateral so that such collateral can be made available to all DIP Lenders. Without these agreements in place, the Debtors would not be able to raise sufficient liquidity as evidenced by the Debtors' first foray into the marketplace. The Debtors are not aware of any financing being available on equal or better terms from other lenders.

56. In an effort to obtain the most attractive financing available to the Debtors, an extensive marketing process was launched immediately after the Petition Date. Moreover, upon reaching agreements with their prepetition stakeholders for the release of substantial collateral, the Debtors re-launched a second marketing process with revised terms. As described above, over 425 parties were contacted in order to seek proposals for the Debtors' $1.2 billion of new money DIP financing need. Over the course of this DIP marketing process, approximately 225 parties accessed information about Avianca through virtual data rooms established and managed by Seabury and the Co-Arrangers. The DIP Facility is critical to providing the liquidity necessary for the Debtors to survive and operate successfully, and is the best financing facility available to the Debtors at the conclusion of this process.

57. Seeking the approval of the DIP Facility on a secured basis is reasonable since it is not expected the Debtors could secure financing on a unsecured basis due to a number of considerations, including the severe negative impact the global COVID-19 pandemic has had on the Debtors' revenue streams and cash flows and in light of the general current market conditions. As set forth above, Seabury has not received any interest in, or proposals for, an unsecured facility. Based on my experience, unsecured financing would not be a viable option given the current state of the airline industry and the Company's current financial position.

58. With respect to the partial roll up of the Existing Notes and the full roll up of the Stakeholder Facilities (the "Roll-Up DIP Loans"), as well as the Debtors' full release of the Stakeholder Facility Lenders in the proposed DIP order, the Debtors determined that this component of the DIP Facility is appropriate and necessary under the circumstances. The Roll-Up DIP Loans are a material component of the DIP Facility required by both the Ad Hoc Group lenders and the Stakeholder Facility Lenders as a condition to their commitment to provide postpetition financing and to release the collateral securing their prepetition debt so that it may be pledged to secure the DIP Facility. Without the additional protections and compensation offered by the Roll-Up DIP Loans, neither the Ad Hoc Group lenders nor the Stakeholder Facility Lenders would be willing to finance the DIP Facility. Additionally, as discussed above, the Debtors conducted an extensive marketing process and were unable to obtain postpetition financing on better or similar terms that did not provide for repayment of prepetition obligations. Moreover, based on my experience and my discussions with valuation experts, the aggregate value of the collateral securing the obligations under the Existing Notes (i.e., the Shared Collateral) exceeds the aggregate amount of the Roll-Up DIP Loans being used to satisfy the Existing Notes obligations, and the aggregate value of the collateral securing the obligations under the Stakeholder Facilities exceeds the aggregate amount of the Roll-Up DIP Loans used to satisfy the outstanding obligations under the Stakeholder Facilities. The market shares this valuation assessment as evidenced by the amount of the DIP commitments received post the addition of this supplemental collateral to the DIP Loan collateral package.

59. Based on my thirty years of experience in restructuring, I believe the process the Debtors have undertaken, and continue to undertake, in order to secure additional DIP financing, has been a comprehensive and exhaustive solicitation process. Additionally, based on my experience and knowledge of the market, the fees and expenses in the proposed DIP Facility and in the related fee and engagement letters, and the other economic terms of the DIP Facility, are fair and reasonable under the circumstances and are within the market for comparable debtor in possession financings. I am confident that the Debtors would be unable to obtain this level of credit on more attractive terms, and that on the whole, the DIP Facility is the best financial option currently available to the Debtors.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

I submit this declaration in support of the Debtors' Motion for a Final Order (I) Authorizing the Debtors to Enter into Amendments to Their Postpetition DIP Credit Documents and Enter Into Additional Documents in Furtherance Thereof, (II) Granting and Reaffirming Liens, (III) Granting Superpriority Administrative Expense Claims, (IV) Modifying the Automatic Stay, and (V) Granting Related Relief (the "DIP Amendment Motion"),[2] filed contemporaneously herewith.

2. Except as otherwise indicated, all statements in this declaration are based on my personal knowledge of the Debtors' operations and finances gained throughout Seabury's engagement by the Debtors, my discussions with the Debtors' senior management, other members of the Seabury team, and the Debtors' other advisors, and my review of relevant documents and/or my opinions based upon my experience. If called to testify, I would testify to each of the facts set forth herein based on such personal knowledge, discussions, review of documents, or my opinions based upon my relevant professional experience.

3. I am not being specifically compensated for this testimony other than through payments received by Seabury as a professional retained by the Debtors. I am over the age of 18 and authorized to submit this declaration on behalf of the Debtors.

BACKGROUND AND QUALIFICATIONS

4. Since founding Seabury in 1995, I have overseen over 1,500 engagements for more than 300 clients in over 50 countries. I have advised on more than $125 billion of equity, debt, and lease placements/restructurings at Seabury, and negotiated or restructured over $250 billion of new aircraft purchase agreements. Among other airline restructurings and transactions, I secured for Azul Airlines S.A. a $325 million convertible note issue (2020) and $450 million equity investment (2015); led Avianca Holdings' $4.6 billion out-of-court debt and lease restructuring (2019) and served as Avianca's principal investment banker and financial advisor for its $2.0 billion DIP loan financing (2020); advised Republic Airways in its successful chapter 11 reorganization (2016); completed liquidity capital raises for Air Canada ($1 billion) and US Airways ($1.1 billion) amidst the global credit crisis in 2008-2009; led Northwest Airlines' financial restructuring by securing $750 million of new equity and $1.2 billion of exit debt financing and restructuring of over $10 billion of liabilities; and served as principal investment banker and restructuring advisor in out-of-court restructurings for Air Canada, America West Airlines, Continental Airlines, Chautauqua Airlines, and Frontier Airlines.

5. Before Seabury, I was the CFO and CIO for Continental Airlines Inc. and its parent company. As CFO of Continental and its parent holding company, I supervised Continental's successful chapter 11 process from December 1990 to emergence in April 1993, including raising all exit equity and debt financing for Continental's reorganization.

6. Before working at Continental, I served as vice president of syndications at Manufacturers Hanover Trust Company and in the Corporate Finance Division of Exxon Corporation. I hold an A.B. magna cum laude in Economics from the College of the Holy Cross (1974) and an M.B.A. in Finance from the Wharton Graduate School of the University of Pennsylvania (1976).

SEABURY'S RETENTION AND ROLE IN THESE CASES

7. The Seabury team, under my supervision, has worked closely with the Debtors' management and other professionals retained by the Debtors with respect to the Debtors' restructuring, and has come to intimately understand the Debtors' capital structure, liquidity needs, and business operations.

Case 1:21-cv-10118-AJN Document 24-1 Filed 02/23/22 Page 37 of 223

8. The Debtors retained Seabury in April 2020 to act as their investment banker in connection with a potential restructuring to be completed either in court or outside of chapter 11. Seabury worked with key members of the Company, including, but not limited to, members of the finance, financial planning and analysis, fleet, and other groups to evaluate and understand the Debtors' cash flows, capital structure, fleet strategy, and operations. As part of an evaluation of the Debtors' liquidity position, Seabury assisted in the development of rolling 13-week cash forecasts (updated weekly), as well as a full set of long-term forecasts of the Debtors' future profitability, cash flows, and balance sheets.

9. When it became clear that the Debtors would need to file for chapter 11 protection and to obtain debtor-in-possession financing for their operations, the Debtors retained Seabury under the Bankruptcy Code to act as their financial advisor and investment banker.[3]

10. Seabury assisted the Debtors in analyzing the funding requirements necessary for debtor-in-possession financing based on the forecast of the Debtors' management, and concluded that the Debtors would require approximately $1.2 billion in new money financing for the duration of these chapter 11 proceedings. The Company's executive management, supported by Seabury, developed a DIP loan structure which would ultimately provide approximately $1.216 billion of working capital financing while also rolling up certain pre-petition secured claims and asset purchases.[4]

[4] Additional information regarding the Debtors' DIP structure, and Seabury's efforts to raise the Debtors' DIP financing, can be found in the Declaration of John E. Luth in Support of Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order (I) Approving Terms of, and Debtors' Entry Into and Performance Under, the DIP-to-Exit Facility Commitment Letters and (II) Authorizing Incurrence, Payment and Allowance of Obligations Thereunder as Administrative Expenses [Docket No. 1920].

11. Seabury has also assisted the Debtors in developing a post-COVID business plan (covering years 2021 through 2028), which has served as the underpinning and guidepost for the Debtors' comprehensive restructuring efforts. In recent months, Seabury has participated in successful negotiations with new and existing aircraft lessors to establish a core fleet of aircraft, consistent with the new business plan, at current market economics. Moreover, Seabury continues to be involved in the Debtors' efforts to develop a chapter 11 plan of reorganization.

12. The Debtors commenced a competitive marketing process for exit financing, led by Seabury, on April 14, 2021. The purpose of this process was to solicit at least $300 million of additional equity capital, and possibly $1.2 billion or more, in order to provide the Debtors with an alternative source of exit equity financing. The intent was to secure sufficient interest from alternative parties to position the Debtors to negotiate reasonable, arms-length terms and conditions for the equity conversion option being negotiated with the Tranche B Lenders. Seabury and the Debtors solicited proposals from any party or group of parties willing to provide exit equity capital on more attractive terms than the Tranche B conversion option and of sufficient size to pay off the Tranche B obligations. Indications of interest in exit equity financing were due to Seabury by June 2, 2021.

13. The Debtors and Seabury initially contacted over 125 potential investors. Many of these parties, such as current DIP lenders, were already highly familiar with the Debtors' business. Ultimately, over 35 parties signed up for access to a data room containing comprehensive information on the Debtors' business plan, cash flow projections, DIP loan collateral, and other materials. Many of these potential investors also participated in focused diligence sessions with Avianca's management and professionals.

14. Although the main purpose of this marketing process was to obtain additional equity capital (to either supplement or replace the Tranche B conversion option), the Debtors and Seabury also actively discussed debt financing structures with dozens of potential investors. At the same time, the Debtors sought the advice of (and are in the process of formally retaining) Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC ("Credit Suisse") as a debt capital markets advisor for exit debt financing, along with other banks. The Debtors did so in order to benefit from Credit Suisse's and other banks' expertise and to obtain their advisory and structuring services in connection with the exit debt financing.

15. As a result of those discussions, the Debtors have now obtained two important financial commitments for replacement DIP financing, as further described below. The Debtors, by the DIP Amendment Motion, now seek the Court's approval of the Final DIP Amendment Order, which would approve the Debtors' entry into this new financing, whose proceeds would be used, in part, to repay the existing approximately $1.43 billion in "Tranche A" DIP obligations due upon repayment of the existing Tranche A DIP Loans, inclusive of all fees and accrued interest. Furthermore, the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Loans would convert, at the Debtors' option, into long-term debt financing upon the Debtors' emergence from chapter 11.

The DIP Facility

16. On September 21, 2020, the Debtors filed the Motion for an Order (I) Authorizing the Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Financing, and (B) Grant Liens and Superpriority Administrative Expense Claims, (II) Modifying the Automatic Stay, and (III) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 964] (the "DIP Motion"). On October 5, 2020, this Court entered an order (Docket No. 1031, the "First Final DIP Order") approving a senior tranche of loans and notes ("Tranche A") and a junior tranche of loans and notes ("Tranche B").

17. The Debtors' obtaining postpetition financing was a major step forward in the Chapter 11 Cases, coming after months of negotiations with existing lenders and bondholders, existing equity holders, other sources of new-money financing, the Committee, and other stakeholders, led by the Debtors' management team, Seabury, and other arrangers. Since then, the DIP Facility has given the Debtors the liquidity needed to make meaningful progress in the Chapter 11 Cases.

18. Tranche A, which is now fully drawn, consists of loans and notes, the consideration for which consisted of new money from prepetition noteholders and new lenders, Advent International's sale of LifeMiles equity to the Debtors, and a roll-up of prepetition secured notes. The Debtors have consistently paid interest and fees on Tranche A in kind. As a result, the total amount owing under Tranche A as of July 31, 2021 was approximately $1.395 billion, inclusive of accrued interest but without Back-end fees.

19. Tranche A may be repaid in cash at any time without penalty, but must be paid in full in cash no later than its maturity date or the date on which the Debtors consummate their chapter 11 plan. Whenever Tranche A is repaid, the Debtors will be charged Tranche A Back-end Fees of 1.75% for certain Tranche A loans that were originally made by lenders that provided a backstop and 0.75% for other Tranche A loans. Therefore, if as planned a payoff of the Tranche A Loans occurs by the end of August 2021, the total amount owed is approximately $1.43 billion, with Back-end Fees and accrued interest.

20. Tranche B, which is also fully drawn, consists of loans and notes, the consideration for which consisted of new-money investments (mostly from lenders under the prepetition credit facility known as the "Stakeholder Facility") and a roll-up of all outstanding loans under that same facility. As with Tranche A, the Debtors have consistently paid interest and fees on Tranche B in kind. As a result, the total amount owing under Tranche B is now approximately $790,000,000 and, together with exit fees of 10%, will equal or exceed $935,000,000 upon the Debtors' emergence from chapter 11 (based upon an exit timing of approximately October 31, 2021).

21. Tranche B may, at the Debtors' option and subject to certain conditions, be converted into equity in the reorganized Debtors upon consummation of a chapter 11 plan. The Debtors have subjected that option to a rigorous market test and, working together with the Committee, are close to securing the final terms and conditions of conversion of the Tranche B Loans along with an additional $200 million of exit equity financing from the Tranche B Lenders.

New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility

22. The Debtors, with Seabury's guidance, have now obtained two important financial commitments for replacement DIP financing. The first commitment, from a group of lenders that includes many of the existing Tranche A DIP Lenders, is for $1,050,000,000 in New Tranche A-1 DIP/Exit Loans. The second commitment, from a group of four new-money lenders, is for $550,000,000 in New Tranche A-2 DIP/Exit Notes. The two tranches have slightly different commercial terms, but both will be used to refinance the existing Tranche A and both will convert (at the Debtors' option and subject to satisfaction of all conditions) to a 7-year exit financing facility upon emergence (the "Exit Notes"). These commitments are memorialized in those certain DIP-to-exit commitment letters, which were executed on July 21, 2021 and approved by the Court (pursuant to the Commitment Approval Order) on July 26, 2021. The New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility will simply replace the existing Tranche A DIP Facility, and the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility Secured Parties will simply step into the shoes of the existing Tranche A DIP Facility Secured Parties.

23. If the relief requested in the DIP Amendment Motion is granted, the Debtors will be able to refinance the majority of their existing DIP Loans (specifically, approximately $1.43 billion of Tranche A loans and notes) with cheaper debt that will convert into exit financing at the Debtors' option. These new loans, the "New Tranche A DIP/Exit Loans," will be provided by a diverse group of lenders, including several existing Tranche A lenders.

24. As further described below, I believe that the Debtors' borrowing of the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Loans is a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment. The following chart contains a summary of the material terms of the proposed New Tranche A DIP/Exit Loans, together with references to the applicable sections of the relevant source documents.

SUMMARY OF MATERIAL TERMS OF NEW TRANCHE A DIP/EXIT FACILITY[5]
DIP Lenders Bankruptcy Rule 4001(c)(1)(B)	New Tranche A-1: Group of institutional lenders represented by Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP (the "New Tranche A-1 Lenders"). New Tranche A-2: Group of lenders represented by Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meager & Flom LLP (full group) and Paul Hastings LLP (one lender as fund counsel) (the "New Tranche A-2 Lenders," and together with the New Tranche A-1 Lenders, collectively, the "New Tranche A DIP Lenders").	Notice of Appearance of Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP [Docket No. 1926]; Final DIP Amendment Order at ¶ 24.

At the election of a New Tranche A DIP Lender, any or all of its New Tranche A DIP Loans will be documented	DIP-to-Exit Facility Term Sheets at p. 1 ("Amount") and p. 2 ("Use of Proceeds").

	as notes pursuant to a note purchase agreement and indenture (the "New Tranche A DIP Notes" and, together with the New Tranche A DIP Loans, collectively, the "New Tranche A DIP Loans/Notes"). The New Tranche A DIP Notes will have substantially identical economic terms, guarantees, collateral grants, representations and warranties, covenants, and payment terms and conditions as the New Tranche A DIP Loans. The full amount of the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility will be drawn at closing and will be used (in part) to repay the existing Tranche A DIP Facility in full in cash. The remaining proceeds, if any, will be used for working capital and general corporate purposes and for fees and other expenses incurred in connection with the New Tranche A DIP Loans/Notes.
Interest Rate Bankruptcy Rule 4001(c)(1)(B); Local Rule 4001-2(a)(3)	Fixed interest rate of 9.00% per annum, which may be payable, at the Debtors' discretion, in cash or in kind. If converted to Exit Notes, rate of 9.00% per annum payable in cash. During the continuance of a payment default, the New Tranche A DIP Loans/Notes and all other outstanding obligations in respect of the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility will bear interest at an additional 2% per annum. Lender Obligations Bankruptcy Rule 4001(c)(1)(B); Local Rule 4001-2(a)(3)	Commitment Premium: [redacted] (for New Tranche A-1) and [redacted]% (for New Tranche A-2) of commitments under the New Tranche A DIP Loans/Notes, due and payable to certain lenders on the Closing Date, in cash or in the form of original issue discount.[6] Prepayment Premium: Prior to the Maturity Date, any prepayment of New Tranche A DIP Loans/Notes (other than in connection with a Conversion Election) shall be accompanied by (x) a premium equal to 9.00% of the principal amount of New Tranche A DIP Loans/Notes so prepaid plus (y) all accrued interest, payable in cash on the New Tranche A DIP Loans/Notes so prepaid. Exit Fee: If on the earlier of the Maturity Date and the date on which the Borrower or any of its successors exits from its Chapter 11 Case (whether by way of consummation of a plan	DIP-to-Exit Facility Term Sheets at p. 2 ("Commitment Premium" and "Prepayment before the Maturity Date/Exit Fee") and p. 6 ("Conversion Premium").

	of reorganization or otherwise), the Borrower has not made a Conversion Election or the Conditions Precedent to Conversion Election are not satisfied on such date, the Borrower shall pay the New Tranche A DIP Lenders, for their ratable benefit, a premium in an amount equal to 9.00% of the New Tranche A DIP Loans/Notes then outstanding. Conversion Premium: If the Borrower exercises the Conversion Election, a conversion premium in an amount equal to [redacted]% (in the case of New Tranche A-1 DIP Loans/Notes) or [redacted]% (in the case of New Tranche A-2 DIP Loans/Notes) of the (x) principal amount of the New Tranche A DIP Loans/Notes and (y) all accrued interest, and shall be paid in the form of Exit Notes to the New Tranche A DIP Lenders.
Bank Fees Bankruptcy Rule 4001(c)(1)(B); Local Rule 4001-2(a)(3)	Seabury Securities LLC is the Debtors' financial advisor and investment banker. While Seabury will earn $4.25 million in fees for the incremental $170 million of DIP loan financing, the total amount of fees earned by Seabury during the Chapter 11 Cases (inclusive of exit debt success fees) is unlikely to be affected because Seabury's aggregate success fees for the Chapter 11 Cases as a whole will be bounded by the cap set forth in its engagement letter. In addition, payment of Seabury's success fee for the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility will be deferred until final fees are determined. Credit Suisse Securities (USA), LLC advised the Debtors regarding debt capital markets. It will earn a success-based $6.5 million fee upon the funding of the New Tranche A DIP/Notes, as set forth in its engagement letter and retention application. JPMorgan Chase, N.A. ("JPMorgan") will continue to act as administrative agent and collateral agent for the DIP Facility and will earn an annual administration fee of [redacted]. In addition, it will act as a fronting lender for up to $325 million during the first 10 days after the initial funding of the New Tranche A-1 DIP Loans, in exchange for a Fronting Fee of [redacted]% of the principal amount of fronted loans, not to exceed a total of [redacted]. JPMorgan will also be appointed joint lead arranger and bookrunner for the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Loans and will receive a Transaction Fee of [redacted] in exchange for the various services it is providing to the Debtors. Governing Law Bankruptcy Rule 4001(c)(1)(B)	New York.	DIP Credit Agreement, Section 11.05 ("Governing Law").

25. The New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility is an improvement over the existing Tranche A DIP Facility in two respects. First, the fixed interest rate of 9.00% is lower than the existing interest rate of LIBOR plus 12.00%. Second, and most importantly, unlike the existing Tranche A DIP Facility, the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility locks in $1,600,000,000, plus capitalized fees, of committed exit financing (subject to satisfaction or waiver of all conditions precedent) at a moment when the debt market is favorable to borrowers.

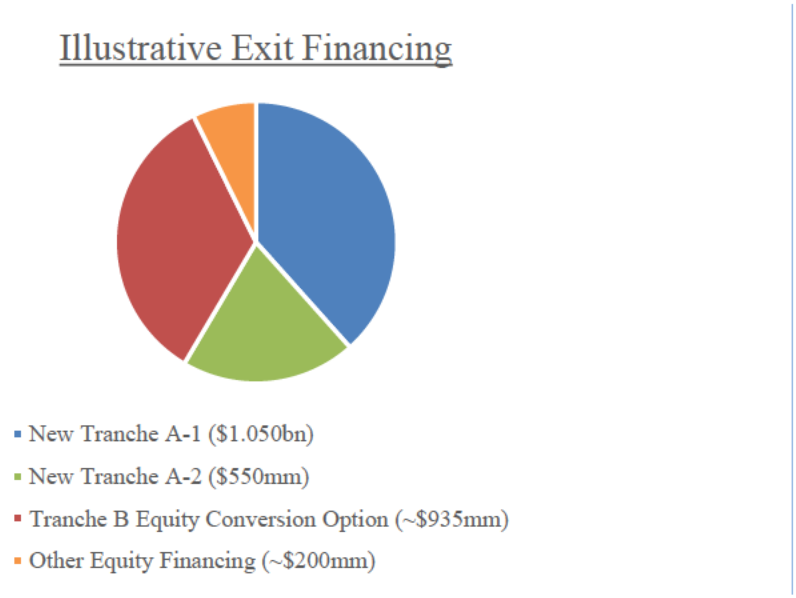
26. This newly committed financing will be a key component of the Debtors' contemplated plan of reorganization in their Chapter 11 Cases. Between the Tranche B Lenders' expected agreement to convert the Tranche B Loans into equity, supplemented with $200 million of additional exit equity financing, and these new debt conversion options, the Debtors are expected to have shortly secured commitments for all of the exit financing needed for emergence, as shown in the illustrative chart below.



27. In addition, the interest expense under the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility will be lower than under the existing Tranche A and continue to be paid in kind. While some additional customary milestones were added, the dates remain the same for the existing milestones, all of which are realistic. Further, no consideration is being provided to the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties other than as described in the DIP Amendment Motion.

28. The fees (principally, a commitment premium of [redacted]% for New Tranche A-1 and [redacted]% for New Tranche A-2 (both of which have already been authorized under the Commitment

Approval Order) and a conversion premium of [redacted]% for New Tranche A-1 and [redacted]% for New Tranche A-2) are not unreasonable and are in line with fees that I would expect the Debtors to pay for any alternative sources of long-term exit financing. I also believe that the new milestones for confirmation and emergence should be comfortably achievable.

29. In addition, under the First Final DIP Order, the liens of the existing DIP Facility primed, on a consensual basis, the prepetition creditors that asserted a lien in the "Shared Collateral." The basis for the consent was a direction letter made pursuant to a "Collateral Sharing Agreement"—essentially a prepetition intercreditor agreement—that remains in full force and effect.

30. As already approved pursuant to the Commitment Approval Order, the Debtors have also agreed to pay the professional fees and expenses of the New Tranche A DIP Lenders and to indemnify them and their advisors, in each case in exchange for providing the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility and on the same terms as set forth in the First Final DIP Order, and payment of such professional fees and indemnification obligations will become DIP Obligations under the Final DIP Amendment Order. No "success" fees or the like will be due to the New Tranche A DIP Lenders' advisors with respect to the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility.

31. The obligations owing to the New Tranche A DIP Lenders are set forth in the summary chart above, and the commitment obligations have already been approved by the Court. If the New Tranche A-1 DIP Loans and the New Tranche A-2 DIP Loans convert (at the Debtors' option) to 7-year exit financing upon emergence, then the Conversion Premiums will be [redacted]% and [redacted]%, respectively, due upon such conversion into exit financing.

32. Further, the Debtors are seeking the Court's approval of the fees of JPMorgan Chase Bank, Goldman Sachs, and BofA Securities. In my opinion, the fee provisions contained in these banks' letter agreements (attached to the DIP Amendment Motion at Exhibits C-1 through C-3 are reasonable terms and conditions of their engagements.

33. In the case of JPMorgan, it will continue to act as administrative agent and collateral agent for the DIP facility and is assisting the Debtors in implementing the proposed amendments in those capacities. In addition, JPMorgan is being appointed as a joint lead arranger and bookrunner for the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Loans. Under its fee letter, it will continue to earn an annual agency fee of [redacted] and will receive a transaction fee of [redacted]. JPMorgan's agreement to continue to provide administrative and collateral agency services is particularly beneficial to the Debtors because the time and cost of hiring a replacement agent would be extremely burdensome given the extensive foreign collateral securing the DIP Facility. As an example, JPMorgan had to retain at least 14 foreign law firms to assist with perfecting the collateral in over 18 jurisdictions as part of the original DIP Facility, and the Debtors will avoid significant costs by not replicating this process at this time. JPMorgan will also provide "fronting" at the inception of the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility in exchange for a fee of [redacted] of the New Tranche A-1 DIP/Exit Loans being fronted, to be capped at [redacted]; if certain of the new lenders are unable to fund the new facility immediately at closing, JPMorgan's fronting services ensure that the facility will nevertheless close and the Debtors will receive the funds necessary to repay the existing Tranche A DIP Facility.

34. JPMorgan, Goldman Sachs, and BofA Securities, as joint lead arrangers and bookrunners, each helped advise the Debtors' management team on the structuring and arrangement of the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility. In particular, JPMorgan and Goldman Sachs acted as co-lead arrangers for the existing Tranche A DIP Facility, and their engagement in the new transaction helped provide continuity in bringing existing lenders into the new facility. BofA

Securities previously acted as a restructuring advisor for the Debtors' 2023 bond offering and the Debtors' related exchange offer, and it leveraged its familiarity with the Debtors' business to provide advice to the Debtors on this new long-term financing. Each of these fees was negotiated at arm's length, and the I believe that the aggregate fixed fees (Credit Suisse's success-based fee of $6,500,000, JPMorgan's fee of $[redacted], BofA Securities' fee of $[redacted], and Goldman Sachs's fee of $[redacted], totaling $[redacted] million or approximately [redacted]% of the new principal amount) is highly reasonable under the circumstances.

35. The New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility (and related fees and expenses) were negotiated in good faith, both the process and its commercial terms are fair and reasonable, and the proceeds will be used only for purposes that are permissible under the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors' advisors, including Seabury, actively sought out alternative proposals, engaged in an extensive, competitive marketing process, and no other party provided a superior proposal that would both improve on the economics of the existing Tranche A DIP Facility and provide the Debtors with an attractive exit financing option. The Debtors and their advisors determined that the DIP Financing was the most advantageous under the totality of circumstances, best tailored to assure the Debtors' smooth transition out of chapter 11, and in the estates' best interests to replace the existing Tranche A DIP Facility with the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility at this point, as the latter offers the Debtors an exit conversion option that paves the way to financing a plan of reorganization, as well as allows for interest expense savings.

36. For these reasons, I believe that the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility will be highly beneficial to the estates and is critical to drive the Chapter 11 Cases toward their conclusion. Based upon my thirty years of experience in investment banking, commercial lending, and corporate restructuring, I believe that the Debtors' decision to enter into the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility is an exercise of their sound business judgment.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

RELIEF REQUESTED

1. By this Motion, the Debtors request entry of an order, substantially in the form annexed hereto as Exhibit A (the "Final DIP Amendment Order"), amending the First Final DIP Order[2] and authorizing the Debtors to amend their DIP Agreement[3] and related credit documents so as to refinance the existing "Tranche A" loans and notes with $1.6 billion in "New Tranche A-1" and "New Tranche A-2" credits that will convert into long-term exit financing at the Debtors' option (upon satisfaction of all conditions precedent), on terms consistent with those certain DIP-to-Exit Facility Term Sheets annexed hereto as Exhibits B-1 (New Tranche A-1) and B-2 (New Tranche A-2), and to pay certain related fees as disclosed herein. In support of this Motion, the Debtors rely on the *Declaration of John E. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

4. By this Motion, the Debtors are seeking authorization to amend their DIP Agreement and related credit documents and enter into new note purchase agreements and new indentures in accordance with such amendments in order to replace the existing approximately $1.43 billion Tranche A DIP Facility with a $1.6 billion New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility to be provided by a diverse group of lenders, including several existing Tranche A lenders. Luth Decl. ¶ 23. The primary advantage of this new facility is that it may, at the Debtors' option and subject to satisfaction of customary terms and conditions, convert into a 7-year exit financing facility upon the Debtors' emergence from bankruptcy protection. Luth Decl. ¶ 22. This committed exit financing will be a key component of any chapter 11 plan that the Debtors may propose in these cases. Luth Decl. ¶ 26. In addition to this undoubted benefit, as described below, the new facility also provides the Debtors with incremental liquidity at lower interest rates and can be paid in kind during the pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases. Luth Decl. ¶ 27.

5. The Debtors are also seeking authorization to pay certain fees in connection with the proposed amendments. These fees (principally, a commitment premium[4] of [redacted]% for New

[4] The Debtors have already received the Court's authorization to pay the commitment premiums and fee and expense reimbursements. See Revised Order (I) Approving Terms of, and Debtors' Entry Into and Performance Under, the DIP-to-Exit Facility Commitment Letters and (II) Authorizing Incurrence, Payment, and Allowance Tranche A-1 and [redacted]% for New Tranche A-2 and a conversion premium of [redacted]% for New Tranche A-1 and [redacted]% for New Tranche A-2) are not unreasonable and, as stated in the Luth Declaration, are in line with the fees that the Debtors would be expected to pay for any alternative sources of long-term exit financing. Luth Decl. ¶ 28. The Debtors are also seeking to approve the fees of certain investment banks that assisted the Debtors in structuring, marketing, and ultimately obtaining the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility, including fees related to agency services going forward. Luth Decl. ¶¶ 32-34.

6. For these reasons, and those set forth below, the Debtors believe that amending the DIP Agreement on the terms described in this Motion constitutes a sound exercise of their business judgment.

BACKGROUND

A. General Background

7. On May 10, 2020, each of the Debtors except AV Loyalty Bermuda, Ltd. and Aviacorp Enterprises, S.A. filed voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in this Court, commencing their Chapter 11 Cases. On September 21, 2020, the remaining two Debtors filed voluntary petitions commencing their Chapter 11 Cases.

8. The Debtors continue to manage and operate their businesses and properties as debtors-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107 and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors' cases are jointly administered pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2015(b). No trustee or examiner has been appointed. On May 22, 2020, the U.S. Trustee appointed the official committee of unsecured creditors (the "Committee") pursuant to section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code.

of Obligations Thereunder as Administrative Expenses [Docket No. 1938] (the "Commitment Approval Order"). The DIP-to-exit commitment letters authorized by the Court to be executed and entered into by the Debtors under the Commitment Approval Order are attached as Exhibit B-1 and Exhibit B-2 to the version of this Motion that has been provided to the Court, the U.S. Trustee's office, and the Committee.

9. Additional information regarding the Debtors' businesses, their capital structure, and the circumstances leading to the filing of these cases is set forth in the Declaration of Adrian Neuhauser in Support of Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Pleadings [Docket No. 20].

B. The Existing DIP Financing

10. Last fall, this Court entered the First Final DIP Order, approving a senior tranche of loans and notes ("Tranche A") and a junior tranche of loans and notes ("Tranche B"). The Debtors' obtaining postpetition financing was a major step forward in the Chapter 11 Cases, coming after months of negotiations with existing lenders and bondholders, existing equity holders, other sources of new-money financing, the Committee, and other stakeholders, led by the Debtors' management team, Seabury Securities LLC ("Seabury"), and other arrangers. Luth Decl. ¶ 17. Since then, the DIP Facility has given the Debtors the liquidity needed to make meaningful progress in the Chapter 11 Cases.

11. Tranche A, which is now fully drawn, consists of loans and notes, the consideration for which consisted of new money from prepetition noteholders and new lenders, Advent International's sale of LifeMiles equity to the Debtors, and a roll-up of prepetition secured notes. The Debtors have consistently paid interest and fees on Tranche A in kind. As a result, the total amount owing under Tranche A as of July 31, 2021 was approximately $1.395 billion, inclusive of accrued interest but without Back-end Fees. Luth Decl. ¶ 18.

12. Tranche A may be repaid in cash at any time without penalty, but must be paid in full in cash no later than its maturity date or the date on which the Debtors consummate their chapter 11 plan. Whenever Tranche A is repaid, the Debtors will be charged Tranche A Back-end Fees of 1.75% for certain Tranche A loans that were originally made by lenders that provided a backstop and 0.75% for other Tranche A loans. Therefore, if as planned a payoff of the Tranche

A Loans occurs by the end of August 2021, the total amount owed is approximately $1.43 billion, with Back-end Fees and accrued interest. Luth Decl. ¶ 19.

13. Tranche B, which is also fully drawn, consists of loans and notes, the consideration for which consisted of new-money investments (mostly from lenders under the prepetition credit facility known as the "Stakeholder Facility") and a roll-up of all outstanding loans under that same facility. As with Tranche A, the Debtors have consistently paid interest and fees on Tranche B in kind. As a result, the total amount owing under Tranche B is now approximately $790,000,000 and, together with exit fees of 10%, will equal or exceed $935,000,000 upon the Debtors' emergence from chapter 11 (based upon an exit timing of approximately October 31, 2021). Luth Decl. ¶ 20.

14. Tranche B may, at the Debtors' option and subject to certain conditions, be converted into equity in the reorganized Debtors upon consummation of a chapter 11 plan. Consistent with prior representations to the Court, the Debtors have subjected that option to a rigorous market test and, working together with the Committee, are close to securing the final terms and conditions of conversion of the Tranche B Loans along with an additional $200 million of exit equity financing from the Tranche B Lenders. Luth Decl. ¶ 21.

DEBTORS' EFFORTS TO OBTAIN EXIT FINANCING COMMITMENTS

15. As previously reported to the Court, the Debtors commenced a competitive marketing process for exit financing, led by Seabury, on April 14, 2021. The purpose of this process was to solicit at least $300 million of additional equity capital, and possibly $1.2 billion or more, in order to provide the Debtors with an alternative source of exit equity financing. Luth Decl. ¶ 12. The intent was to secure sufficient interest from alternative parties to position the Debtors to negotiate reasonable, arms-length terms and conditions for the equity conversion option being negotiated with the Tranche B Lenders. Seabury and the Debtors solicited proposals from any party or group of parties willing to provide exit equity capital on more attractive terms than the Tranche B conversion option and of sufficient size to pay off the Tranche B obligations. Indications of interest in exit equity financing were due to Seabury by June 2, 2021. Id.; see also Notice Regarding Exit Equity Financing Process [Docket No. 1739].

16. The Debtors and Seabury initially contacted over 125 potential investors. Many of these parties, such as current DIP lenders, were already highly familiar with the Debtors' business. Ultimately, over 35 parties signed up for access to a data room containing comprehensive information on the Debtors' business plan, cash flow projections, DIP loan collateral, and other materials. Many of these potential investors also participated in focused diligence sessions with Avianca's management and professionals. Luth Decl. ¶ 13.

17. Although the main purpose of this marketing process was to obtain additional equity capital (to either supplement or replace the Tranche B conversion option), the Debtors and Seabury also actively discussed debt financing structures with dozens of potential investors. At the same time, the Debtors sought the advice of (and are in the process of formally retaining) Credit Suisse Securities (USA) LLC ("Credit Suisse") as a debt capital markets advisor for exit debt financing, along with other banks. The Debtors did so in order to benefit from Credit Suisse's and other banks' expertise and to obtain their advisory and structuring services in connection with the exit debt financing. Luth Decl. ¶ 14.

18. As a result of those discussions, the Debtors have now obtained two important financial commitments for replacement DIP financing. The first commitment, from a group of lenders that includes many of the existing Tranche A DIP Lenders, is for $1,050,000,000 in New Tranche A-1 DIP/Exit Loans. The second commitment, from a group of four new-money lenders, is for $550,000,000 in New Tranche A-2 DIP/Exit Notes. The two tranches have slightly different commercial terms, but both will be used to refinance the existing Tranche A and both will convert (at the Debtors' option and subject to satisfaction of all conditions) to a 7-year exit financing facility upon emergence (the "Exit Notes"). Luth Decl. ¶ 22. These commitments are memorialized in the Commitment Letters, which were executed on July 21, 2021 and approved by the Court on July 26, 2021. See generally Commitment Approval Order.

SUMMARY OF MATERIAL TERMS OF NEW TRANCHE A DIP/EXIT FACILITY
	Prepayment Premium: Prior to the Maturity Date, any prepayment of New Tranche A DIP Loans/Notes (other than in connection with a Conversion Election) shall be accompanied by (x) a premium equal to 9.00% of the principal amount of New Tranche A DIP Loans/Notes so prepaid plus (y) all accrued interest, payable in cash on the New Tranche A DIP Loans/Notes so prepaid. Exit Fee: If on the earlier of the Maturity Date and the date on which the Borrower or any of its successors exits from its Chapter 11 Case (whether by way of consummation of a plan of reorganization or otherwise), the Borrower has not made a Conversion Election or the Conditions Precedent to Conversion Election are not satisfied on such date, the Borrower shall pay the New Tranche A DIP Lenders, for their ratable benefit, a premium in an amount equal to 9.00% of the New Tranche A DIP Loans/Notes then outstanding. Conversion Premium: If the Borrower exercises the Conversion Election, a conversion premium in an amount equal to [redacted]% (in the case of New Tranche A-1 DIP Loans/Notes) or [redacted]% (in the case of New Tranche A-2 DIP Loans/Notes) of the (x) principal amount of the New Tranche A DIP Loans/Notes and (y) all accrued interest, and shall be paid in the form of Exit Notes to the New Tranche A DIP Lenders.	p. 6 ("Conversion Premium").
Bank Fees Bankruptcy Rule 4001(c)(1)(B); Local Rule 4001-2(a)(3)	Seabury Securities LLC is the Debtors' financial advisor and investment banker. While Seabury will earn $4.25 million in fees for the incremental $170 million of DIP loan financing, the total amount of fees earned by Seabury during the Chapter 11 Cases (inclusive of exit debt success fees) is unlikely to be affected because Seabury's aggregate success fees for the Chapter 11 Cases as a whole will be bounded by the cap set forth in its engagement letter. In addition, payment of Seabury's success fee for the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility will be deferred until final fees are determined. Credit Suisse Securities (USA), LLC advised the Debtors regarding debt capital markets. It will earn a success-based $6.5 million fee upon the funding of the New Tranche A DIP/Notes, as set forth in its engagement letter and retention application. JPMorgan Chase, N.A. ("JPMorgan") will continue to act as administrative agent and collateral agent for the DIP Facility	Seabury retention application and order [Docket Nos. 174, 262]; Credit Suisse retention application [Docket No. 1966]; fee letters attached hereto as Exhibits C-2 (JPMorgan), C-4 (BofA Securities), and C-6 (Goldman Sachs) (together, the "Fee Letters").

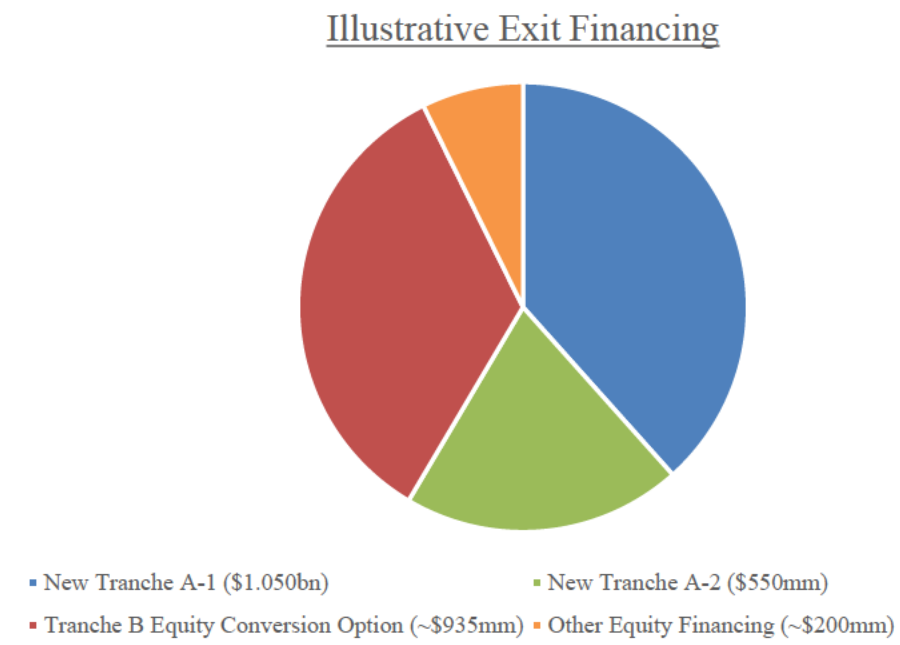
In addition, it will act as a fronting lender for up to $325 million during the first 10 days after the initial funding of the New Tranche A-1 DIP Loans, in exchange for a Fronting Fee of [redacted]% of the principal amount of fronted loans, not to exceed a total of [redacted]. THE NEW TRANCHE A DIP/EXIT FACILITY IS IMPORTANT TO THE DEBTORS' ABILITY TO FORMULATE AND CONSUMMATE A CHAPTER 11 PLAN

20. The New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility is an improvement over the existing Tranche A DIP Facility in two respects. First, the fixed interest rate of 9.00% is lower than the existing interest rate of LIBOR plus 12.00%. Second, and most importantly, unlike the existing Tranche A DIP Facility, the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility locks in $1,600,000,000, plus capitalized fees, of committed exit financing (subject to satisfaction or waiver of all conditions precedent), at a moment when the debt market is favorable to borrowers. Luth Decl. ¶ 25.

21. This newly committed financing will be a key component of the Debtors' contemplated plan of reorganization in their Chapter 11 Cases. Between the Tranche B Lenders' expected agreement to convert the Tranche B Loans into equity, supplemented with $200 million of additional exit equity financing, and these new debt conversion options, the Debtors are expected to have shortly secured commitments for all of the exit financing needed for emergence, as shown in the illustrative chart below. Luth Decl. ¶ 26.



22. In addition, the interest expense under the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility will be lower than under the existing Tranche A and continue to be paid in kind. While some additional customary milestones were added, the dates remain the same for the existing milestones, all of which are realistic. Luth Decl. ¶ 27.

23. For all of these reasons, the Debtors believe that the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility will be highly beneficial to the estates and critical to drive the Chapter 11 Cases toward their successful conclusion.

BASIS FOR RELIEF

A. Amendment of the DIP Agreement Is a Sound Exercise of the Debtors' Business Judgment

24. The Court should authorize the amendment of the DIP Agreement and related documents[7] as a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment. Courts grant considerable

[7] In addition to amending the DIP Agreement, the Debtors will enter into additional indentures and note purchase agreements for each of the new tranches, an amendment to the Collateral Agency Agreement, an affirmation agreement with respect to collateral documents, engagement and fee letters related to the agency and related services provided by certain banks, and may potentially enter into certain foreign collateral documents.

deference to a debtor's business judgment in connection with obtaining postpetition credit, so long as the agreement to obtain such credit does not run afoul of the provisions of, and policies underlying, the Bankruptcy Code. See, e.g., In re Republic Airways Holdings Inc., No. 16-10429 (SHL), 2016 WL 2616717, at *11 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. May 4, 2016) ("In determining whether to authorize post-petition financing, bankruptcy courts will generally defer to the debtor's business judgment."); In re Farmland Indus., Inc., 294 B.R. 855, 881 (Bankr. W.D. Mo. 2003) (noting that approval of postpetition financing requires, inter alia, an exercise of "sound and reasonable business judgment."); In re Trans World Airlines, Inc., 163 B.R. 964, 974 (Bankr. D. Del. 1994) (approving a postpetition loan and receivables facility because such facility "reflect[ed] sound and prudent business judgment"); In re Ames Dep't Stores, Inc., 115 B.R. at 40 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1990) ("[C]ases consistently reflect that the court's discretion under section 364 [of the Bankruptcy Code] is to be utilized on grounds that permit [a debtor's] reasonable business judgment to be exercised so long as the financing agreement does not contain terms that leverage the bankruptcy process and powers or its purpose is not so much to benefit the estate as it is to benefit a party-in-interest.").

25. More fundamentally, the business judgment rule is highly deferential to the decisions of management, and a court will not interfere so long as the decision is rational. See Quadrant Structured Prods. Co., Ltd v. Vertin, 102 A.3d 155, 183 (Del. Ch. 2014); In re AMR Corp., 485 B.R. 279, 288 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2013) (SHL) (stating that the court will not interfere with the debtors' business judgment absent a showing of bad faith, self-interest or gross negligence); see also In re Helm, 335 B.R. 528, 538-39 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2006) (CGM) (the business judgment rule requires the Court to determine whether a reasonable businessperson would make a similar decision under similar circumstances). Bankruptcy courts generally will not "second-guess" a debtor's business decisions when those decisions involve "a business judgment made in good faith, upon a reasonable basis, and within the scope of [its] authority under the [Bankruptcy] Code." In re Curlew Valley Assoc.'s, 14 B.R. 506, 513-514 (Bankr. D. Utah. Oct. 8, 1981) (noting that courts should not second guess a debtor's business decision when that decision involves "a business judgment made in good faith, upon a reasonable basis, and within the scope of [the debtor's] authority under the [Bankruptcy] Code"). To determine whether the business judgment test is met, "the court 'is required to examine whether a reasonable business person would make a similar decision under similar circumstances.'" In re Dura Auto. Sys. Inc., No. 06-11202 (KJC), 2007 WL 7728109, at *97 (Bankr. D. Del. Aug. 15, 2007) (citation omitted).

26. In determining whether the Debtors have exercised sound business judgment in amending the DIP Agreement, the Court should consider the economic terms of the proposed amendments under the totality of circumstances. See Hr'g Tr. at 734-35:24, In re Lyondell Chem. Co., No. 09-10023 (REG) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Feb. 27, 2009) (recognizing that "the terms that are now available for DIP financing in the current economic environment aren't as desirable" as otherwise); In re Elingsen McLean Oil Co., 65 B.R. 358, 365 n.7 (W.D. Mich. 1986) (recognizing debtor may have to enter into "hard" bargains to acquire funds for its reorganization under difficult circumstances). Moreover, the Court may appropriately take into consideration non-economic benefits to the Debtors.

27. In In re ION Media Networks, Inc., for example, the Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York held that:

> Although all parties, including the Debtors and the Committee, are naturally motivated to obtain financing on the best possible terms, a business decision to obtain credit from a particular lender is almost never based purely on economic terms. Relevant features of the financing must be evaluated, including non-economic elements such as the timing and certainty of closing, the impact on creditor constituencies, and the likelihood of a successful reorganization. This is particularly true in a bankruptcy setting where cooperation > and established allegiances with creditor groups can be a vital part of building support for a restructuring that ultimately may lead to a confirmable reorganization plan. That which helps foster consensus may be preferable to a notionally better transaction that carries the risk of promoting unwanted conflict.

No. 09-13125 (JMP), 2009 WL 2902568, at *4 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. July 6, 2009).

28. The Debtors' decision to amend the DIP Agreement is, under the foregoing standard, an exercise of their sound business judgment. As further discussed in the Luth Declaration, the Debtors and their advisors determined that it was in the estates' best interests to replace the existing Tranche A DIP Facility with the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility at this point as the latter offers the Debtors an exit conversion option that paves the way to financing a plan of reorganization, as well as allows for interest expense savings. Luth Decl. ¶ 35.

29. The New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility (and related fees and expenses) were negotiated in good faith, and both the process and its commercial terms are fair and reasonable. Luth Decl. ¶ 35. The Debtors' advisors actively sought out alternative proposals, engaged in an extensive, competitive marketing process, and no other party provided a superior proposal that would both improve on the economics of the existing Tranche A DIP Facility and provide the Debtors with an attractive exit financing option. Id.

30. Accordingly, the Court should authorize the proposed amendment of the DIP Agreement as a reasonable exercise of the Debtors' business judgment.

B. The Terms of the Final DIP Amendment Order Should Largely Mirror the First Final DIP Order Except as Expressly Set Forth in the Final DIP Amendment Order

31. The New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility will simply replace the existing Tranche A DIP Facility, and the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility Secured Parties will simply step into the shoes of the existing Tranche A DIP Facility Secured Parties. Luth Decl. ¶ 22. Accordingly, the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility Loans and the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility Secured Parties should enjoy the same rights and protections that the Tranche A DIP Facility Loans and the Tranche A DIP Facility Secured Parties currently enjoy under the First Final DIP Order. Similarly, the Debtors' obligations under the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility should continue to have a superpriority administrative expense status of the same priority as the DIP Superpriority Claims.

32. Under the First Final DIP Order, the liens of the existing DIP Facility primed, on a consensual basis, the prepetition liens of prepetition creditors that asserted a lien in the "Shared Collateral." Luth Decl. ¶ 29.[8] The basis for the consent was a direction letter made pursuant to a "Collateral Sharing Agreement"—essentially a prepetition intercreditor agreement—that remains in full force and effect. Id.

33. Furthermore, as set forth in the Luth Declaration, the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility is the result of (a) the Debtors' reasonable and informed determination that the New Tranche A DIP Lenders offered the most favorable terms on which to obtain postpetition financing with an exit financing conversion option and (b) extensive arms-length, good faith negotiations between the Debtors and the New Tranche A DIP Lenders. Luth Decl. ¶ 35. The terms and conditions of the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility are reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances, and the proceeds will be used only for purposes that are permissible under the Bankruptcy Code. Id. Further, no consideration is being provided to the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties other than as described herein. Luth Decl. ¶ 27. Accordingly, all of the "good faith" provisions within the meaning of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code contained in the First Final DIP Order should be applicable to the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties, and the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties should be entitled to all of the protections afforded thereby.

C. The Debtors Should Be Authorized to Provide the Indemnifications and Pay the Fees Due under the New Tranche A DIP Documents

34. As already approved pursuant to the Commitment Approval Order, the Debtors have agreed to pay the professional fees and expenses of the New Tranche A DIP Lenders and to indemnify them and their advisors, in each case in exchange for providing the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility and on the same terms as set forth in the First Final DIP Order, and payment of such professional fees and indemnification obligations will become DIP Obligations under the Final DIP Amendment Order. No "success" fees or the like will be due to the New Tranche A DIP Lenders' advisors with respect to the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility. Luth Decl. ¶ 30.

35. The obligations owing to the New Tranche A DIP Lenders are set forth in the summary chart above, and the commitment obligations have already been approved by the Court. If the New Tranche A-1 DIP Loans and the New Tranche A-2 DIP Loans convert (at the Debtors' option) to 7-year exit financing upon emergence, then the Conversion Premiums will be [redacted]% and [redacted]%, respectively, due upon such conversion into exit financing. Luth Decl. ¶ 31. Similar conversion fees have been authorized in this and other jurisdictions. See, e.g., Order, In re GNC Holdings, Inc., Case No. 20-11662 (KBO) (Bankr. D. Del. July 21, 2020) [Docket No. 502] (authorizing exit conversion fee under DIP agreement); Order, In re Chassix Holdings, Case No. 15-10578 (MEW) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Apr. 10, 2015) [Docket No. 252] (same); Order, In re EveryWare Global, Inc., Case No. 15-10743 (LSS) (Bankr. D. Del. Apr. 28, 2015) [Docket No. 130] (same); Order, In re Tronox Inc., Case No. 09-10156 (ALG) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Nov. 9, 2010) [Docket No. 2421] (same); Order, In re Lear Corp., Case No. 09-14326 (ALG) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Aug. 4, 2009) [Docket No. 282] (same).

36. Furthermore, the fees of JPMorgan, Goldman Sachs, and BofA Securities should be approved. The Debtors and all of their economic stakeholders have an interest in reaching a successful resolution of these Chapter 11 Cases that provides the Debtors the flexibility to implement their business plan and continue to access the capital markets once these Chapter 11 Cases are over. The fee provisions contained in these banks' letter agreements (attached at Exhibits C-1 through C-3) are reasonable terms and conditions of their engagements. Luth Decl. ¶ 32.

37. In the case of JPMorgan, it will continue to act as administrative agent and collateral agent for the DIP facility and is assisting the Debtors in implementing the proposed amendments in those capacities. In addition, JPMorgan is being appointed as a joint lead arranger and bookrunner for the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Loans. Under its fee letter, it will continue to earn an annual agency fee of [redacted] and will receive a transaction fee of [redacted]. JPMorgan's agreement to continue to provide administrative and collateral agency services is particularly beneficial to the Debtors because the time and cost of hiring a replacement agent would be extremely burdensome given the extensive foreign collateral securing the DIP Facility. As an example, JPMorgan had to retain at least 14 foreign law firms to assist with perfecting the collateral in over 18 jurisdictions as part of the original DIP Facility, and the Debtors will avoid significant costs by not replicating this process at this time. JPMorgan will also provide "fronting" at the inception of the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility in exchange for a fee of [redacted] of the New Tranche A-1 DIP/Exit Loans being fronted, to be capped at [redacted] if certain of the new lenders are unable to fund the new facility immediately at closing, JPMorgan's fronting services ensure that the facility will nevertheless close and the Debtors will receive the funds necessary to repay the existing Tranche A DIP Facility. Luth Decl. ¶ 33.

38. JPMorgan, Goldman Sachs, and BofA Securities, as joint lead arrangers and bookrunners, each helped advise the Debtors' management team on the structuring and arrangement of the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility. In particular, JPMorgan and Goldman Sachs acted as co-lead arrangers for the existing Tranche A DIP Facility, and their engagement in the new transaction helped provide continuity in bringing existing lenders into the new facility. BofA Securities previously acted as a restructuring advisor for the Debtors' 2023 bond offering and the Debtors' related exchange offer, and it leveraged its familiarity with the Debtors' business to provide advice to the Debtors on this new long-term financing. Each of these fees was negotiated at arm's length, and the Debtors believe that the aggregate fixed fees[9] (Credit Suisse's success-based fee of $6,500,000, JPMorgan's fee of $[redacted], BofA Securities' fee of $[redacted], and Goldman Sachs's fee of $[redacted], totaling $[redacted] million or approximately [redacted]% of the new principal amount) is highly reasonable under the circumstances. Luth Decl. ¶ 34.

39. The Debtors believe that the redaction of the fee letters in the public filing and the redaction of individual banks' fee amounts in this Motion are appropriate under the circumstances, for the same reasons that the Debtors did not publicly file similar fee letters of the arrangers and agents for the original DIP Facility. See Debtors' Mot. for Authorization to File DIP Facility Fee Letter Under Seal [Docket No. 695] (citing other sealing orders); cf. Amended Order Authorizing the Filing of DIP Facility Fee Letter Under Seal [Docket No. 736] (granting motion). From the banks' perspective, the fees set forth in these letters are closely guarded, proprietary data points. Disclosure of the fee letters or their economic terms would cause substantial harm to the banks by creating an unfair advantage to their competitors. These fees are customarily considered by the applicable banks, and the commercial lending industry, in general, to be highly sensitive and confidential, and are not typically disclosed to the public or other competing financing institutions.

40. In addition, the Debtors could be disadvantaged by disclosing these fees, as it would set a floor price for future arrangers and agents to cite when negotiating with the Debtors. In addition, the engagement letter with JPMorgan includes a termination event to the extent the fees are publicly disclosed, and losing JPMorgan's services, including the ongoing agency and fronting bank roles, would, at the very least, impose additional costs and delay to the refinancing process.

41. Finally, maintaining the confidentiality of these fees is wholly consistent with the precedent in this jurisdiction and others. See In re Avianca Holdings S.A., Case No. 20-11133 (MG) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. October 5, 2020) [Docket No. 1028] (authorizing Debtors to file DIP fee letters under seal); In re Fairway Group Holdings Corp., Case No. 20-10161 (JLG) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Feb. 24, 2020) [Docket No. 211] (authorizing redaction of DIP fee letter); In re Residential Capital, LLC, Case No. 12-12020 (MG) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. May 18, 2012) [Docket No. 114] (authorizing debtors to file un-redacted DIP fee letters under seal); In re Nw. Airlines Corp., Case No. 05-17930 (ALG) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. May 2, 2007) [Docket No. 6511] (authorizing debtor to file a fee letter under seal in connection with the debtor's motion for approval of an exit financing facility); In re Calpine Corp., Case No. 05-60200 (BRL) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Jan. 29, June 21, and Dec. 14, 2007) [Docket Nos. 3494, 5028, and 7118] (authorizing debtors to file under seal fee letter with respect to debtors' refinancing effort and exit financing); In re Adelphia Commc'ns Corp., Case No. 0241729 (REG) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Jan. 25, 2007) [Docket No. 13092] (authorizing debtor to file under seal documentation of fee structure for underwriting agreement).

REQUEST FOR WAIVER OF STAY

42. The Debtors request a waiver of the stay of the effectiveness of the Final DIP Amendment Order under Bankruptcy Rules 4001(a)(3) and 6004(h). Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3) provides that "[an] order granting a motion for relief from an automatic stay made in accordance with Rule 4001(a)(1) is stayed until the expiration of fourteen days after entry of the order, unless the court orders otherwise." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 4001(a)(3). Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), in turn, provides that "[a]n order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property other than cash collateral is stayed until the expiration of 14 days after entry of the order, unless the court orders otherwise." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6004(h).

43. As set forth above, the relief requested herein is essential to allow the Debtors to move forward with their exit financing process and other efforts to pursue a resolution of these Chapter 11 Cases. Accordingly, the relief requested herein is appropriate under the circumstances.

NOTICE

44. Notice of this Motion will be given to the Standard Parties (as defined in the Case Management Order) and any party that has requested service pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. In light of the nature of the relief requested, the Debtors submit that no further notice need be given.

NO PRIOR REQUEST

45. No prior request for the relief sought in this Motion has been made to this or any other court.

The Court (as defined below) having considered the DIP Amendment Motion, the DIP-to-Exit Facility Term Sheets and any New Tranche A DIP Documents on file with the Court, the Declaration of Adrian Neuhauser in Support of Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Pleadings [Docket No. 20] (the "First Day Declaration"), the Declaration of John E. Luth in Support of (I) Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Obtain Postpetition Financing, (B) Granting Superpriority Administrative Expense Claims, and (C) Granting Related Relief, and (II) Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order (A) Authorizing Debtors' Entry Into a Securities Purchase Agreement; and (B) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 966] (the "First Luth Declaration"), the Declaration of John E. Luth in Support of the DIP Amendment Motion (the "Second Luth Declaration"), the Commitment Approval Motion, the Commitment Approval

Order, and the other pleadings filed with the Court, and the evidence proffered or adduced at the hearing held in respect of the DIP Amendment Motion (the "Hearing"); and notice of the Hearing having been given in accordance with Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 4001 and 9014, all applicable Bankruptcy Local Rules and Complex Case Procedures, and the Case Management Order; and all objections, if any, to the final relief requested in the DIP Amendment Motion having been withdrawn, resolved or overruled by the Court; and it appearing to the Court that the relief requested in the DIP Amendment Motion is fair and reasonable and in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates and their creditors, represents a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment and is necessary for the continued operation of the Debtors' businesses; and upon the record of these Chapter 11 Cases; and after due deliberation and consideration, and for good and sufficient cause appearing therefor:

IT IS HEREBY FOUND, DETERMINED, ORDERED AND ADJUDGED:[5]

A. Petition Date. On May 10, 2020 (the "Petition Date"), each of the Debtors except AV Loyalty Bermuda, Ltd. and Aviacorp Enterprises, S.A. filed voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in this Court commencing their Chapter 11 Cases. On September 21, 2020, the remaining two Debtors filed voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in this Court commencing their Chapter 11 Cases.

B. Debtors-in-Possession. The Debtors continue to manage and operate their businesses and properties as debtors-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107 and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee or examiner has been appointed in any of the Chapter 11 Cases.

[5] Where appropriate in this Final DIP Amendment Order, findings of fact shall be construed and adopted as conclusions of law and vice versa pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7052, made applicable to this proceeding pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9014.

C. Committee Formation. On May 22, 2020, the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York (the "U.S. Trustee") appointed an official committee of unsecured creditors in these Chapter 11 Cases pursuant to section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Committee").

D. Jurisdiction and Venue. The Court has core jurisdiction in the Chapter 11 Cases over the DIP Amendment Motion and the parties and property affected hereby pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157(a)–(b) and 1334 and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, dated January 31, 2012. Venue for the Chapter 11 Cases and proceedings on the DIP Amendment Motion is proper in the Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

E. Findings Regarding New Postpetition Financing.

(i) Request for Postpetition Financing. The Debtors seek final approval of the New Tranche A DIP Facility and authorization to amend the Original DIP Documents and enter into the New Tranche A DIP Documents (including the New Tranche A Notes Documents) on terms consistent with the DIP-to-Exit Term Sheets, pursuant to this Final DIP Amendment Order.

(ii) Good Cause. Good and sufficient cause has been shown for entry of this Final DIP Amendment Order and for authorization of the Debtors to obtain and enter into the New Tranche A DIP Facility and to Repay (as defined below) the Original Tranche A DIP Loans and Original Tranche A DIP Notes in full in cash on the New Tranche A Closing Date.

(iii) Priming of All Liens on Shared Collateral. The priming of all liens, including the Existing Notes Liens (as defined in the First Final DIP Order), on the Shared Collateral (as defined in the First Final DIP Order) (and the priming of any Replacement Lien granted pursuant to the Adequate Protection Stipulation) under section 364(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, as contemplated by this Final DIP Amendment Order and the DIP Documents (as defined below) (including the New Tranche A DIP Documents), will enable the Debtors to obtain the New Tranche A DIP Facility and to preserve and maximize the value of their estates for the benefit of their stakeholders. Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB ("WSFS"), in its capacity as the Applicable Authorized Representative (as defined in the Collateral Sharing Agreement, as amended by the New Tranche A DIP Documents (the "Amended Collateral Sharing Agreement")), on behalf of all First Lien Secured Parties (as defined in the Amended Collateral Sharing Agreement), and at the direction of Existing Noteholders holding a majority of the Existing Notes Obligations, has consented to the priming of all liens on the Shared Collateral, including the Existing Notes Liens (and to the extent provided for herein, the priming of any Replacement Lien granted pursuant to the Adequate Protection Stipulation) as provided by and subject to the terms of the First Final DIP Order, this Final DIP Amendment Order and the DIP Documents, and no other consent is required. For the avoidance of doubt, to the extent Shared Collateral is Cash Collateral, the Existing Notes Trustee, on behalf of the Existing Notes Secured Parties and the Non-Controlling Secured Parties, has consented to the use of such Cash Collateral.

(iv) Need for Postpetition Financing and Use of Cash Collateral. The Debtors' ability to use Cash Collateral and obtain the full amount of credit available under the New Tranche A DIP Facility as provided for herein is necessary to the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, and other parties-in-interest, and to enable the Debtors to, among other things, refinance the Original Tranche A DIP Facility on terms that are more favorable to the Debtors, secure a source of committed exit financing (subject to satisfaction of certain conditions precedent), fund the costs of these Chapter 11 Cases, make payroll, satisfy other working capital and general corporate purposes, and administer and preserve the value of their estates. The long-term ability of the Debtors to finance their operations, maintain business relationships with their vendors and suppliers, and pay their employees requires the availability of working capital from the New Tranche A DIP Facility (and the exit facility into which it may convert) and the continued use of Cash Collateral. The Debtors' inability to continue to access the financing under the New Tranche A DIP Facility and use Cash Collateral would harm the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, and the Debtors' chances to successfully reorganize. The Debtors do not have sufficient available sources of working capital and financing to operate their businesses or maintain their properties in the ordinary course of business without the New Tranche A DIP Facility and authorized use of Cash Collateral. The terms of the New Tranche A DIP Facility, the New Tranche A DIP Documents, and this Final DIP Amendment Order are fair and reasonable, reflect the Debtors' exercise of sound business judgment, and are supported by reasonably equivalent value.

(v) No Credit Available on More Favorable Terms. The Debtors and their advisors engaged in an extensive, competitive marketing process with respect to additional equity capital and debt financing structures prior to obtaining the commitments under the New Tranche A DIP Facility. The New Tranche A DIP Facility is the best combined source of debtor-in-possession and committed exit financing available to the Debtors. Given their current financial condition, financing arrangements, and capital structure, the Debtors have been unable to obtain financing from sources other than the New Tranche A DIP Lenders and New Tranche A DIP Noteholders on terms more favorable than those provided under the New Tranche A DIP Facility and the New Tranche A DIP Documents. The Debtors have been unable to obtain sufficient unsecured credit allowable as an administrative expense under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors also have been unable to obtain sufficient credit (a) having priority over administrative expenses of the kind specified in sections 503(b), 507(a), and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, (b) secured solely by a lien on property of the Debtors and their estates that is not otherwise subject to a lien, or (c) secured solely by a junior lien on property of the Debtors and their estates that is subject to a lien. Postpetition financing is not otherwise available without granting the DIP Collateral Agent, for the benefit of itself and the DIP Secured Parties (including, without limitation, the New Tranche A DIP Lenders and the New Tranche A DIP Noteholders) the following: (1) the DIP Liens (as defined below) on all DIP Collateral; and (2) the DIP Superpriority Claims (defined below)[6]; in each case as set forth herein, and without the other protections set forth in the First Final DIP Order and this Final DIP Amendment Order. After considering all alternatives, the Debtors have properly concluded, in the exercise of their sound business judgment, that the New Tranche A DIP Facility represents the best financing available to them at this time and is in the best interests of their stakeholders.

(vi) The Use of Cash Collateral and the Proceeds of the New Tranche A DIP Facility. As a condition to obtaining the New Tranche A DIP Facility, the New Tranche A DIP Lenders, the New Tranche A DIP Noteholders, and the Debtors have agreed that Cash Collateral and the proceeds of the New Tranche A DIP Facility shall be used only in a manner consistent with the terms and conditions of the New Tranche A DIP Documents and this Final DIP Amendment Order (including to effectuate the Repayment).

F. Sections 506(c) and Waiver of Marshaling. As a material inducement to the New Tranche A DIP Lenders and the New Tranche A DIP Noteholders to provide the New Tranche A

[6] All references to DIP Superpriority Claims herein and in the First Final DIP Order shall include the superpriority administrative expense claims granted to the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties by this Final DIP Amendment Order and those approved in the Revised Order (I) Approving Terms of, and Debtors' Entry into and Performance Under, the DIP-to-Exit Facility Commitment Letters and (II) Authorizing Incurrence, Payment and Allowance of Obligations Thereunder as Administrative Expenses [Docket No 1938] (the "Commitment Premium Approval Order").

DIP Facility, and in light of those parties' agreement to subordinate their liens and superpriority claims to the Carve-Out to the extent set forth herein, the DIP Secured Parties (including the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties) are each entitled to receive a waiver of (x) the provisions of section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code and (y) application of the equitable doctrine of marshaling and other similar doctrines except as expressly provided herein.

G. Good Faith of the DIP Agents and the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties.

(i) Willingness to Provide Financing. The New Tranche A DIP Lenders and the New Tranche A DIP Noteholders have indicated a willingness to provide postpetition financing to the Debtors subject to, and in express reliance on, among other things: (a) the entry by the Court of the Final DIP Amendment Order; (b) approval by the Court of the terms and conditions of the New Tranche A DIP Facility and the New Tranche A DIP Documents; and (c) entry of findings by the Court that such financing is essential to the Debtors' estates, that the DIP Agents and the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties are extending postpetition credit to the Debtors pursuant to the New Tranche A DIP Documents and this Final DIP Amendment Order in good faith, and that the DIP Agents' and New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties' claims, superpriority claims, security interests and liens, and other protections granted or reaffirmed pursuant to this Final DIP Amendment Order and the New Tranche A DIP Documents will have the protections provided in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and will not be affected by any subsequent reversal, modification, vacatur, amendment, reargument or reconsideration of this Final DIP Refinancing or any other order of the Court, or any provision hereof or thereof that is vacated, reversed, or modified, on appeal or otherwise. For purposes of this Final DIP Amendment Order and the First Final DIP Order, the term "DIP Agents" shall include the DIP Administrative Agent, DIP Collateral Agent, any fronting lender, and the New Tranche A-1 Notes Agent and the New Tranche A-2 Notes Agent (each as defined in and under the New Tranche A DIP Documents), and the term "DIP Documents" shall include the New Tranche A DIP Documents.

(ii) Business Judgment and Good Faith Pursuant to Section 364(e). The terms and conditions of the New Tranche A DIP Facility and the New Tranche A DIP Documents, including the extensions of credit, the fees, and other amounts paid and to be paid to the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties thereunder and in connection therewith, the refinancing and repayments and terms contemplated thereby, and the Cash Collateral arrangements described therein and herein: (a) are fair and reasonable; (b) are the best available to the Debtors under the circumstances; (c) reflect the Debtors' exercise of prudent business judgment consistent with their fiduciary duties; (d) were negotiated in good faith and at arm's length among the Debtors and the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties (including the New Tranche A DIP Lenders and New Tranche A DIP Noteholders); and (e) are supported by reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration. The credit in the form of the New Tranche A Loans and New Tranche A Notes to be extended under the New Tranche A DIP Facility shall be deemed to have been so advanced, made, or extended in good faith, and for valid business purposes and uses, within the meaning of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, in express reliance upon the protections offered by Bankruptcy Code section 364(e), and the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties are therefore entitled to the full protection and benefits of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and this Final DIP Amendment Order, including in the event that this Final DIP Amendment Order or any provision hereof is vacated, reversed, or modified, whether on appeal, reconsideration or otherwise.

H. Notice. Notice of the Hearing and the relief requested in the DIP Amendment Motion has been provided by the Debtors, whether by email, facsimile, overnight courier or hand delivery, to the Standard Parties (as defined in the Case Management Order) and any party that has requested service pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 (collectively, the "Notice Parties"). The Debtors have made reasonable efforts to afford the best notice possible under the circumstances, and such notice is good and sufficient to permit the relief set forth in this Final DIP Amendment Order.

I. Relief Essential; Best Interests of the Debtors' Estates. Absent entry of this Final DIP Amendment Order, the Debtors' businesses, properties, and estates will be irreparably harmed. The Court concludes that entry of this Final DIP Amendment Order is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates and creditors.

NOW THEREFORE, based upon the foregoing findings and conclusions, the DIP Amendment Motion, the First Day Declaration, the Luth Declaration, the Second Luth Declaration, and the record made before the Court with respect to the DIP Amendment Motion at the Hearing and otherwise, and after due consideration, and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, THAT:

1. Motion Approved. (ii) subject only to the Carve-Out, pursuant to section 364(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, the DIP Liens shall be and continue to be valid, enforceable, non-avoidable, and automatically and fully perfected junior liens on and security interests in all DIP Collateral other than Shared Collateral that on or as of the Petition Date is subject to valid, perfected, and unavoidable liens in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date or to valid and unavoidable liens in existence immediately prior to the Petition Date that are perfected (but not granted) after the Petition Date to the extent such postpetition perfection is permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code including, without limitation, Permitted Priority Liens (as defined in the Amended DIP Credit Agreement); and

(iii) subject only to the Carve-Out, pursuant to section 364(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, the DIP Liens shall be and continue to be valid, enforceable, non-avoidable, and automatically and fully perfected first priority senior priming liens on and security interests in all DIP Collateral, including, without limitation, all DIP Collateral that also constitutes Shared Collateral or DIP Collateral on which Replacement Liens are granted pursuant to the Adequate Protection Stipulation, in each case wherever located, which senior priming liens and security interests in favor of the DIP Collateral Agent shall prime and be senior to all liens on the DIP Collateral, including the Shared Collateral including, but not limited to, the Existing Notes Liens.

(iv) The DIP Liens shall be and continue to be immediately junior to (i) any RCF Replacement Liens solely on the RCF Replacement Collateral (each as defined in the Amended DIP Credit Agreement) and (ii) any Replacement Liens (as defined in the certain stipulation between the Debtors and the RCF Security Agent as approved by the Bankruptcy Court on June 26, 2020 [Docket No. 347], the "RCF Stipulation") solely on the assets described in Paragraph C(v) of the RCF Stipulation, with all of the rights (and any defenses that may be raised in connection therewith) of all of the parties to such stipulation being expressly reserved and preserved hereby.

(c) Except as expressly set forth herein, and subject in all respects to the DIP Superpriority Claims Waterfall (as defined in the New Tranche A DIP Documents), the DIP Liens and the DIP Superpriority Claims (defined below): (i) shall not be made subject to or pari passu with (A) any lien, security interest, or claim heretofore or hereinafter granted or otherwise incurred in any of the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases and shall be valid and enforceable against the Debtors, their estates, any trustee, or any other estate representative appointed or elected in the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases or upon the dismissal of any of the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases, (B) any lien that is avoided and preserved for the benefit of the Debtors and their estates under section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, and (C) any intercompany or affiliate lien or claim; and (ii) shall not be subject to sections 506(c), 510, 549, 550, or 551 of the Bankruptcy Code.

(d) Any proceeds or distributions of the DIP Collateral shall be distributed amongst the DIP Secured Parties, including the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties, in accordance with this Final DIP Amendment Order and DIP Documents (including the New Tranche A DIP Documents).

(a) Subject only to the Carve-Out, immediately upon entry of this Final DIP Amendment Order, and effective as of the New Tranche A Closing Date (as defined below), the DIP Collateral Agent, for itself and for the benefit of the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties, is hereby granted, pursuant to section 364(c)(1) and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim in each of the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases

(the "New Tranche A DIP Superpriority Claims"), on account of the New Tranche A DIP Obligations (including the Commitment Obligations), (a) with priority over any and all administrative expense claims, unsecured claims, and all other claims against the Debtors or their estates in any of the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases, at any time existing or arising, of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, without limitation, DIP Superpriority Claims with respect to the Tranche B DIP Facility (each as defined in the First Final DIP Order, and subject to the DIP Superpriority Claims Waterfall in the Amended DIP Credit Agreement), administrative expenses, unsecured claims, or other claims of the kinds specified in or ordered pursuant to sections 105, 326, 327, 328, 330, 331, 361, 364(c)(1), 365, 503(a), 503(b), 506(c), 507(a), 507(b), 546(c), 546(d), 726, 1113, and 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code (including adequate protection payments), and any other provision of the Bankruptcy Code, whether or not such expenses or claims may become secured by a judgment lien or other non-consensual lien, levy, or attachment, and (b) which shall at all times be senior to the rights of the Debtors or their estates, and any trustee appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases to the extent permitted by law, and which New Tranche A DIP Superpriority Claims shall, for purposes of section 1129(a)(9)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, be considered administrative expenses allowed under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and shall be against each Debtor on a joint and several basis (without the need to file any proof of claim). For the avoidance of doubt, the New Tranche A DIP Superpriority Claims shall include any claims of the DIP Agents and the DIP Collateral Agent under the Original DIP Documents, the Amended DIP Credit Agreement, the Amended DIP Collateral Agreement and the other New Tranche A DIP Documents, including for the benefit of the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties, with respect to the Commitment Obligations set forth in the New Tranche A DIP Commitment Letters.

(b) As among the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties and the Tranche B DIP Lenders (as defined in the Amended DIP Credit Agreement), any distributions or payments in respect of the New Tranche A DIP Superpriority Claims and the DIP Superpriority Claims (as defined in the First Final DIP Order) shall be governed by the terms of the New Tranche A DIP Documents, including the DIP Superpriority Claims Waterfall provided in the Amended DIP Credit Agreement.

8. Use of New Tranche A DIP Facility Proceeds. Nothing in this Final DIP Amendment Order shall authorize the disposition of any assets of the Debtors or their estates outside the ordinary course of business, or any of the Debtors' use of any Cash Collateral or other proceeds of the DIP Collateral, except as permitted under this Final DIP Amendment Order and the New Tranche A DIP Documents.

10. DIP Collateral Rights. Except as expressly permitted in this Final DIP Amendment Order and the New Tranche A DIP Documents, in the event that any person or entity holds a lien on or security interest in DIP Collateral that is junior or subordinate to the DIP Liens in such DIP Collateral and such person or entity receives or is paid the proceeds of such DIP Collateral, or receives any other payment with respect thereto from any other source prior to payment in full of all DIP Obligations, including the New Tranche A DIP Obligations, such junior or subordinate lienholder shall be deemed to have received, and shall hold, such proceeds of DIP Collateral or other payment in trust for the applicable DIP Secured Parties, including the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties, and shall immediately turn over such proceeds or payment to such DIP Secured Parties for application in accordance with this Final DIP Amendment Order and the DIP Documents; provided, that payments made under the Adequate Protection Stipulation (in the form existing on the New Tranche A Closing Date) on account of Shared Collateral shall be exempted from this paragraph.

and under the New Tranche A DIP Documents in accordance with the terms thereof, and no further approval of the Court shall be required for non-material amendments, waivers, consents, or other modifications to and under the New Tranche A DIP Documents (and any reasonable fees and expenses paid in connection therewith); provided, however, the Debtors shall provide notice of any material amendment, waiver, consent, or other modification under the New Tranche A DIP Documents to counsel to the Committee and the United States Trustee three (3) calendar days prior to the effective date thereof to the extent practicable. The Debtors are authorized and directed to execute and deliver promptly upon demand to the DIP Collateral Agent or any local collateral agent all such financing statements, notices, and other documents as the DIP Collateral Agent or any local collateral agent may reasonably request. The DIP Collateral Agent or any local collateral agent, in its discretion, may file a photocopy of this Final DIP Amendment Order as a financing statement with any filing or recording office or with any registry of deeds or similar office, in addition to or in lieu of such financing statements, notices of lien, or similar instruments, and in such event, the filing or recording office shall be authorized to file or record such photocopy of this Final DIP Amendment Order. The Debtors shall deliver to the DIP Administrative Agent the Omnibus Reaffirmation Agreement in respect of the Collateral Agency Agreement (as amended by the New Tranche A DIP Documents, the "Amended Collateral Agency Agreement") and the collateral documents under the Original Tranche A DIP Facility, in form and substance satisfactory to the Required A-2 DIP Lenders (as defined in the New Tranche A DIP Documents), as well as any other collateral documentation reasonably required (if any) to affirm the collateral granted under the Original Tranche A DIP Facility.

17. Protection of DIP Lenders'[8] Rights. To the extent any Stakeholder Facility Secured Party or Existing Notes Secured Party (each as defined in the First Final DIP Order) has possession of any DIP Collateral (including any Shared Collateral), has control with respect to any DIP Collateral, or has been noted as a secured party on any certificate of title for a titled good constituting DIP Collateral, then such Stakeholder Facility Secured Party or Existing Notes Secured Party, as applicable, shall be deemed to maintain such possession or notation or exercise such control as a gratuitous bailee or gratuitous agent for perfection for the benefit of the DIP Collateral Agent, and such Stakeholder Facility Secured Party or Existing Notes Secured Party, as applicable, shall comply with the instruction of the DIP Collateral Agent, acting at the direction of the Majority DIP Lenders (as defined in the Amended DIP Credit Agreement), with respect to the exercise of such control. Additionally, the DIP Collateral shall be free and clear of all liens, claims, and encumbrances, except for those liens, claims, and encumbrances expressly permitted and granted under the New Tranche A DIP Documents or this Final DIP Amendment Order.

18. Proceeds of Subsequent Financing. If the Debtors, any trustee, any examiner with enlarged powers, or any responsible officer subsequently appointed in any of the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases shall obtain credit or incur debt pursuant to sections 364(b), (c), or (d) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise in violation of this Final DIP Amendment Order or the New Tranche A DIP Documents or at any time prior to the indefeasible repayment in full in cash of all of the New Tranche A DIP Obligations, the satisfaction of the New Tranche A DIP Superpriority Claims, and the termination of the DIP Agents' and the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties' obligations to extend credit under the New Tranche A DIP Facility and this Final DIP Amendment Order, including subsequent to the confirmation of any plan with respect to any or all of the Debtors and the Debtors' estates, then unless otherwise agreed by the DIP Agents and the New Tranche A DIP Lenders, including subsequent to the confirmation of any plan of reorganization or liquidation with respect to the Debtors and the Debtors' estates, then all of the cash proceeds derived from such credit or debt shall immediately be turned over to the DIP Agents to be applied in accordance with the New Tranche A DIP Documents and this Final DIP Amendment Order until the New Tranche A DIP Obligations are repaid in full.

19. Maintenance of DIP Collateral. Until the indefeasible payment in full of all DIP Obligations, the Debtors shall continue to maintain all property, operational, and other insurance as required and as specified in the New Tranche A DIP Documents. The Debtors shall provide the DIP Collateral Agent with commercially reasonable evidence of such insurance upon a request to counsel for the Debtors. In accordance with the New Tranche A DIP Documents, with respect to DIP Collateral, the New Tranche A DIP Obligors shall (i) ensure that general property insurance and general liability insurance policies are endorsed to the DIP Collateral Agent's reasonable satisfaction for the benefit of the DIP Collateral Agent and (ii) ensure that such endorsements shall state that such insurance policies shall not be cancelled or materially adversely changed without at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice thereof, except in the case of a cancellation or material adverse change resulting from war, which shall require at least seven (7) days' prior written notice thereof, by the respective insurer to the DIP Collateral Agent. With respect to the New Tranche A DIP Facility, upon entry of this Final DIP Amendment Order and to the fullest extent provided by applicable law, the DIP Collateral Agent or, if applicable, any local collateral agent (on behalf of the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties) shall be, and shall be deemed to be, without any further action or notice, named as additional insureds and lender's loss payees on each insurance policy maintained by the Debtors that in any way relates to the DIP Collateral. The Debtors shall also maintain the cash management system in effect as of the Petition Date, as modified by the Amended Final Order pursuant to Sections 105(a), 345, 363, and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code (i) Authorizing Debtors to (a) Maintain and Use Existing Cash Management Systems, Bank Accounts and Business Forms; (b) Continue to Engage in Intercompany Transactions and Afford Administrative Expense Priority to Intercompany Claims; (c) Continue Payment of Service Charges; (ii) Waiving Compliance with Section 345 of the Bankruptcy Code; and (iii) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 38]) (as amended and modified, the "Cash Management Order"). Nothing in this Final DIP Amendment Order shall modify or prejudice the rights of Banks (as defined in the Cash Management Order), in their respective capacities as such, set forth in the Cash Management Order and any documents governing any Bank Accounts (as defined in the Cash Management Order).

20. Disposition of DIP Collateral. The Debtors shall not sell, transfer, lease, encumber, or otherwise dispose of any portion of the DIP Collateral (or enter into any binding agreement to do so) other than in the ordinary course of business or as may otherwise be provided for in the New Tranche A DIP Documents.

21. Termination Date. Each of the following shall constitute a termination event under this Final DIP Amendment Order (each a "Termination Event," and the date upon which such Termination Event occurs, the "Termination Date"), unless waived in writing (delivery by email or other electronic means being sufficient) by the DIP Collateral Agent in accordance with the terms of the Amended DIP Credit Agreement and the Amended Collateral Agency Agreement: (a) the occurrence of the maturity date of the New Tranche A DIP Facility (i.e., the New Tranche A DIP Credit Facility or the New Tranche A DIP Notes Facility); (b) the occurrence of a New Tranche A DIP Credit Facility Event of Default; or (c) the occurrence of a New Tranche A DIP Notes Facility Event of Default.

22. Rights and Remedies Upon Termination Event.

(a) Upon the occurrence and during the continuation of a Termination Event, subject to the terms of the New Tranche A DIP Documents, as applicable, the DIP Collateral Agent may file with the Court and deliver a written notice (a "Termination Notice") to (i) Milbank LLP (as lead restructuring counsel for the Debtors), (ii) Davis Polk (as counsel to the New Tranche A-1 DIP Lenders and the New Tranche A-1 DIP Noteholders) and Skadden (as counsel to the New Tranche A-2 DIP Lenders and the New Tranche A-2 DIP Noteholders), (iii) Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP (as counsel to the DIP Administrative Agent and DIP Collateral Agent), (iv) Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP (as lead restructuring counsel to the Committee), and (v) the U.S. Trustee, in which event (unless the Court determines at a Remedies Hearing (as defined below) that no Termination Event exists or continues to exist) effective as of five (5) business days after the Termination Notice (the "Remedies Notice Period")), the DIP Collateral Agent (in accordance with the terms of the Amended DIP Credit Agreement and Amended Collateral Agency Agreement) shall be deemed to have received relief from the automatic stay imposed by section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and shall be authorized, without further notice to the Debtors or any other interested party but subject to and in accordance with the terms of the New Tranche A

DIP Documents, to immediately terminate or revoke the Debtors' right under this Final DIP Amendment Order and any other New Tranche A DIP Documents, as applicable, to use any Cash Collateral or proceeds of the New Tranche A DIP Facility (except for the Carve-Out or toward satisfaction of the New Tranche A DIP Obligations as provided in this Final DIP Amendment Order and the applicable DIP Documents).

(b) Upon delivery of such Termination Notice by the DIP Collateral Agent, without further notice or order of the Court but subject to and in accordance with the terms of the New Tranche A DIP Documents: (x) the DIP Collateral Agent may terminate the New Tranche A DIP Facilities and the commitments thereunder, including all commitments of the New Tranche A DIP Lenders to provide any extensions of credit in accordance with the New Tranche A DIP Documents, upon which the Debtors' ability to incur additional New Tranche A DIP Obligations will automatically terminate and the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties will have no obligation to provide any New Tranche A DIP Loans, purchase any New Tranche A DIP Notes, or make any other financial accommodations; (y) the DIP Collateral Agent may declare all New Tranche A DIP Credit Facility Obligations and New Tranche A DIP Notes Facility Obligations, as applicable, to be immediately due and payable; and (z) the DIP Agents shall be authorized to charge interest at the default rate(s) under the New Tranche A DIP Documents.

(c) During the Remedies Notice Period, the Debtors or the Committee shall be entitled to seek an emergency hearing within the Remedies Notice Period with the Court (such hearing, a "Remedies Hearing"). In any Remedies Hearing, the only issue that may be raised by a Debtor is whether, in fact, a Termination Event has occurred and is continuing, and each Debtor hereby waives the right to and shall not be entitled to seek relief (including, without limitation, under section 105 of the Bankruptcy Code) to the extent such relief would impair or restrict the rights and remedies of the DIP Agents as set forth in this Final DIP Amendment Order or in any of the New Tranche A DIP Documents.

(d) Following the Remedies Notice Period, upon the effectiveness of any relief from the automatic stay granted or deemed to have been granted pursuant to this paragraph 22, the DIP Agents (subject to the terms of the DIP Documents) may in their respective discretion enforce the DIP Liens (and act under all applicable powers of attorney without further order of the Court), including to (i) freeze monies or balances in the Debtors' accounts; (ii) immediately set-off any and all amounts in accounts maintained by the Debtors with the DIP Agents or any other New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties against the New Tranche A DIP Obligations; (iii) enforce any and all rights against the DIP Collateral, including, without limitation, foreclosure on all or any portion of the DIP Collateral, collection of accounts receivable, occupying the Debtors' premises, and sale or disposition of the DIP Collateral; and (iv) take any other actions or exercise any other rights or remedies permitted under this Final DIP Amendment Order, the New Tranche A DIP Documents, or applicable law. The rights and remedies of the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties specified herein are cumulative and not exclusive of any rights or remedies that the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties have under the New Tranche A DIP Documents or otherwise. If the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties are permitted by the Court to take any enforcement action with respect to the DIP Collateral following a Remedies Hearing, or if no Remedies Hearing takes place within the Remedies Notice Period, the Debtors shall cooperate with the DIP Secured Parties in their efforts to enforce their security interest in the DIP Collateral and shall not take or direct any entity to take any action designed, intended, or likely to hinder, delay, or restrict in any respect such New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties from enforcing their security interests in the DIP Collateral. To the extent the exercise of any rights and remedies permitted in this Final DIP

Amendment Order, including the right to set-off permitted by this paragraph 22(d), would be limited or prohibited by any order of this Court entered prior to the date of this Final DIP Amendment Order, including the terms of the Cash Management Order, including paragraph 5 thereof, the terms of this Final DIP Amendment Order shall control, and such limitation or prohibition shall be deemed inapplicable.

23. Good Faith under Section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code; No Modification or Stay of this Final DIP Amendment Order. The New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties have acted in good faith in connection with the New Tranche A DIP Facility, the New Tranche A DIP Documents, the financing provided by the New Tranche A DIP Facility, and this Final DIP Amendment Order, and their reliance on this Final DIP Amendment Order is in good faith. Based on the findings set forth in this Final DIP Amendment Order and the record made during these Chapter 11 Cases, and in accordance with section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, in the event any or all of the provisions of this Final DIP Amendment Order are hereafter modified, reversed, amended, or vacated by a subsequent order of the Court or any other court, the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties are entitled to the benefits and protections provided in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. Any such modification, reversal, amendment, or vacatur shall not affect the validity and enforceability of any advances previously made or made hereunder or lien, claim, or priority authorized or created hereby. Any security interests, liens, rights, remedies, or claims granted to the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties arising prior to the effective date of any such modification, reversal, amendment, or vacatur of this Final DIP Amendment Order shall be governed in all respects by the original provisions of this Final DIP Amendment Order, including entitlement to all rights, remedies, privileges, and benefits granted herein.

24. DIP and Other Expenses. The Debtors are authorized and directed to pay, in cash and on a current basis, all reasonable and documented fees, costs, disbursements, and expenses of (i) the DIP Agents incurred at any time, to the extent provided by the New Tranche A DIP Documents and this Final DIP Amendment Order, whether or not the transactions contemplated hereby are consummated, including, without limitation, legal, accounting, collateral examination, monitoring, and appraisal fees and expenses, agency fees, financial advisory fees and expenses, fees and expenses of other consultants, and indemnification and reimbursement of fees and expenses (including, without limitation, the reasonable and documented prepetition and postpetition fees, costs, and expenses of (A) Simpson Thacher & Bartlett LLP (whose fees, costs and expenses shall not be subject to any cap set forth in any engagement letter); (B) Clifford Chance US LLP; and (C) any other necessary or appropriate domestic or foreign counsel, advisors, professionals or consultants in connection with advising the DIP Agents), (ii) the Stakeholder Facility Agent, to the extent provided by the DIP Loan Documents and the First Final DIP Order, (including, without limitation, the reasonable and documented prepetition and postpetition fees, costs, and expenses of O'Melveny & Myers LLP in its capacity as counsel to the Stakeholder Facility Agent (including, without limitation, fees, costs, and expenses incurred after the entry of the First Final DIP Order in the preparation and release of pledges and collateral documents under the Citadel Securities Purchase Agreement and the other Existing Stakeholder Financing facilities and any action taken by the Stakeholder Facility Agent in connection therewith)); (iii) WSFS, in its capacities as Existing Notes Trustee and Applicable Authorized Representative under the Collateral Sharing Agreement (including, without limitation, the reasonable and documented prepetition and postpetition fees, costs, and expenses of Pryor Cashman LLP, as counsel to WSFS in such capacities), (iv) each of Paul Hastings and Evercore Group L.L.C. (including, for the avoidance of doubt, its completion fee under its engagement letter), and local counsel and specialty counsel, in each case to the extent provided in the DIP Documents, or that certain Restructuring Support Agreement with the Debtors, dated as of August 28, 2020 (as may be amended or supplemented from time to time, and inclusive of all exhibits thereto, the "RSA"), provided that Paul Hastings's and Evercore's fees and expenses payable under this clause after the New Tranche A Closing Date shall be limited to coordinating and confirm the payoff of the existing Tranche A DIP Loans and Tranche A DIP Notes (each as defined in the First Final DIP Order) held by members of the group represented by them, (v) the Tranche B DIP Lenders to the extent provided by the DIP Loan Documents and the First Final DIP Order (including, without limitation, the reasonable and documented prepetition and postpetition fees, costs, and expenses of Cadwalader, Wickersham & Taft LLP, Ropes & Gray LLP, White & Case LLP, Sidley Austin LLP, Hughes Hubbard and Reed LLP, and Dechert LLP, as the respective counsels to the Tranche B DIP Lenders and the Stakeholder Facility Lenders); (vi) the Seller, to the extent provided by the DIP Loan Documents and the First Final DIP Order (including, without limitation, the reasonable and documented fees, costs, and expenses of Weil, Gotshal & Manges LLP); (vii) Davis Polk as counsel to the New Tranche A-1 DIP Lenders and the New Tranche A-1 DIP Noteholders; (viii) Skadden as counsel to the New Tranche A-2 DIP Lenders and the New Tranche A-2 DIP Noteholders; (ix) Paul Hastings LLP ("Paul Hastings") as counsel to one of the New Tranche A-2 DIP Lenders; provided that Paul Hastings's documented fees and expenses under this clause shall not exceed $200,000; and (x) to the extent not already included in the foregoing subparts (i)-(ix), the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties to the extent provided by the New Tranche A DIP Documents (collectively the "DIP Secured Party Advisors"). The Debtors are further authorized to pay, in cash and on a current basis, all reasonable and documented fees, costs, disbursements, and expenses of any local counsel necessary to effectuate or record any of the New Tranche A DIP Documents. The invoices for such fees and expenses shall not be required to comply with the U.S. Trustee guidelines, may be in summary form only (and may contain redactions of privileged, confidential, or otherwise sensitive information), shall not be required to contain time detail, and shall not be subject to application or allowance by the Court. Such fees and expenses shall not be subject to any offset, defense, claim, counterclaim, or diminution of any type, kind, or nature whatsoever. The invoices for fees and expenses to be paid pursuant to this paragraph 24 shall be provided to the Debtors, counsel to the Committee, and the U.S. Trustee (the "Fee Notice Parties"). Within ten (10) calendar days after delivery of such invoices (the "Fee Objection Period"), without further order of, or application to, the Court or notice to any other party, such fees and expenses shall be promptly paid by the Debtors. If an objection (solely as to reasonableness) is made by any of the Fee Notice Parties within the Fee Objection Period to payment of the requested fees and expenses, then only the disputed portion of such fees and expenses shall not be paid until the objection is resolved by the applicable parties in good faith or by order of the Court, and the undisputed portion shall be promptly paid by the Debtors. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Debtors are authorized and directed to pay on the Closing Date the fees and expenses of the DIP Secured Party Advisors incurred on or prior to such date without the need to provide notice to any other party or otherwise comply with the procedures set forth in this paragraph 24.

25. Indemnification. The Debtors are authorized to jointly and severally indemnify and hold harmless each of the DIP Agents (solely in their capacity as DIP Agents), each New Tranche A DIP Secured Party (solely in its capacity as a New Tranche A DIP Secured Party), the DIP Secured Party Advisors (solely in their capacity as DIP Secured Party Advisors), and each of their respective officers, partners, members, directors, managers, trustees, advisors, employees, agents, sub-agents, affiliates, and each other party entitled to an indemnity in accordance with and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the New Tranche A DIP Documents.

26. Carve-Out.

(a) As used in this Final DIP Amendment Order, "Carve-Out" shall mean the sum of: (i) all fees required to be paid to the Clerk of the Court and to the Office of the U.S. Trustee under 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a) plus interest at the statutory rate pursuant to 31 U.S.C. § 3717 without regard to the notice set forth in (iii) (below); (ii) all reasonable fees and expenses up to $50,000 incurred by a trustee under Bankruptcy Code section 726(b) without regard to the notice set forth in (iii) (below); (iii) to the extent allowed at any time, whether by interim order, final order, procedural order, or otherwise, all unpaid fees and expenses (the "Allowed Professional Fees") incurred by persons or firms retained by the Debtors pursuant to section 327, 328, or 363 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Debtor Professionals") and the Committee, pursuant to section 328 or 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Committee Professionals" and, together with the Debtor Professionals, the "Professional Persons") at any time before or on the first business day following delivery by the DIP Collateral Agent of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice (defined below), whether allowed by the Bankruptcy Court prior to or after delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice (including any restructuring, sale, success, or other transaction fee of any investment bankers or financial advisors that are fully earned, due and payable pursuant to the terms of the applicable engagement letters or retention applications prior to the delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice) (such amounts in this provision (iii), the "Pre-Trigger Notice Professional Fees"); (iv) the reasonable unpaid fees and expenses of WSFS in its capacities as Applicable Authorized Representative under the Amended Collateral Sharing Agreement and the Existing Notes Trustee (including the reasonable unpaid fees and expenses of Pryor Cashman LLP), incurred at any time before or on the first business day following delivery by the DIP Collateral Agent of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice (defined below); and (v) after the date of delivery of the Carve-Out Trigger Notice (the "Trigger Date"), Allowed Professional Fees of Professional Persons in an aggregate amount not to exceed $5,000,000 incurred after the first business day following delivery by the DIP Collateral Agent of the Carve-Out Trigger Notice, to the extent allowed at any time, whether by interim order, final order, procedural order, or otherwise (the amounts set forth in this clause (iv) being the "Post-Carve-Out Trigger Notice Cap"). For purposes of the foregoing, "Carve-Out Trigger Notice" shall mean a written notice delivered by the DIP Collateral Agent by email (or other electronic means) to (A) the Debtors and Milbank LLP, (B) counsel to the DIP Agents, (C) the U.S. Trustee, and (D) Willkie Farr & Gallagher LLP, lead counsel to the Committee, which notice may be delivered following the occurrence and during the continuation of a New Tranche A DIP Credit Facility Event of Default or New Tranche A DIP Notes Facility Event of Default (but subject to any applicable grace periods, waivers, or forbearances) stating that the Post-Carve-Out Trigger Notice Cap is invoked.

(b) No Direct Obligation to Pay Allowed Professional Fees. None of the DIP Agents or other New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties shall be responsible for the payment or reimbursement of any fees or disbursements of any Professional Person incurred in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases under any chapter of the Bankruptcy Code. Nothing in this Final DIP Amendment Order or otherwise shall be construed to obligate the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties, in any way, to pay compensation to, or to reimburse expenses of, any Professional Person or to guarantee that the Debtors have sufficient funds to pay such compensation or reimbursement.

(c) Payment of Carve-Out on or After Delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice. Any payment or reimbursement made on or after the occurrence of the delivery of a Carve-Out Trigger Notice in respect of any Allowed Professional Fees shall permanently reduce the Carve-Out on a dollar-for-dollar basis. Any funding of the Carve-Out shall be added to, and made a part of, the New Tranche A DIP Obligations secured by the DIP Collateral and shall be otherwise entitled to the protections granted under this Final DIP Amendment Order, the New Tranche A DIP Documents, the Bankruptcy Code, and applicable law.

27. Limitations on the New Tranche A DIP Facilities, the DIP Collateral, the Cash Collateral, and the Carve-Out. No DIP Collateral, New Tranche A DIP Loans, New Tranche A DIP Notes, Cash Collateral, proceeds of any of the foregoing, any portion of the Carve-Out, or any other amounts may be used, directly or indirectly, by any of the Debtors, the Committee, any trustee or other estate representative appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases, or any other person or entity (or to pay any professional fees, disbursements, costs, or expenses incurred in connection therewith): (a) to object to, contest, prevent, hinder, or delay the DIP Agents' or the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties' enforcement of any of their respective rights or realization upon any of the DIP Collateral; (b) for any purpose that is prohibited under this Final DIP Amendment Order or the New Tranche A DIP Documents; (c) to use or seek to use Cash Collateral other than as provided pursuant to this Final DIP Amendment Order or the First Final DIP Order, or, except to the extent permitted under the terms of the New Tranche A DIP Documents, selling or otherwise disposing of DIP Collateral, in each case, without the consent of the DIP Agents; (d) to seek authorization to grant or obtain liens or security interests that are senior to, or on a parity with, the DIP Liens or the New Tranche A DIP Superpriority Claims; (e) to request or seek any modification of this Final DIP Amendment Order in any manner not approved by the DIP Agents to the extent such modification would adversely affect the rights of the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties; (f) to seek to subordinate, recharacterize, disallow, or avoid the New Tranche A DIP Obligations; or (g) to investigate (including by way of examinations or formal or informal discovery proceedings), prepare, assert, join, commence, support, or prosecute any challenge (including any litigation or other action) for any Claim, counter-claim, action, proceeding, application, motion, objection, defense, or other contested matter seeking any order, judgment, determination, or similar relief against, or adverse to, any or all of the DIP Agents, New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties, or their respective affiliates, assigns, or successors and the respective officers, directors, employees, agents, attorneys, representatives, and other advisors of the foregoing, with respect to any transaction, occurrence, omission, action, or other matter (including formal or informal discovery proceedings in anticipation thereof) with respect to (A) any Claims or causes of action arising under chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code, section 724(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, or any other avoidance actions under the Bankruptcy Code or applicable state law equivalents, (B) any so-called "lender liability" claims and causes of action, (C) any action with respect to the amount, validity, enforceability, priority, and extent of, or asserting any defense, counterclaim, or offset to, the New Tranche A DIP Obligations, the New Tranche A DIP Superpriority Claims, the DIP Liens, or the New Tranche A DIP Documents, (D) any action seeking to challenge, invalidate, modify, set aside, avoid, marshal, recharacterize, or subordinate, in whole or in part, the New Tranche A DIP Obligations, the DIP Liens, the New Tranche A DIP Superpriority Claims, or the DIP Collateral, (E) any action seeking to modify any of the rights, remedies, priorities, privileges, protections, and benefits granted to the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties hereunder or under any of the New Tranche A DIP Documents (in each case, including, without limitation, claims, proceedings, or actions that might prevent, hinder, or delay any of the DIP Agents' or the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties' assertions, enforcements, realizations, or remedies on or against the DIP Collateral in accordance with the applicable New Tranche A DIP Documents and this Final DIP Amendment Order (as applicable)), or (F) objecting to, contesting, or interfering with, in any way, the DIP Agents' and the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties' enforcement or realization upon any of the DIP Collateral once a New Tranche A DIP Credit Facility Event of Default or New Tranche A DIP Notes Facility Event of Default has occurred.

28. No Third Party Rights. Except as explicitly provided for herein, this Final DIP Amendment Order does not create any rights for the benefit of any third party, creditor, equity holder, or any direct, indirect, or incidental beneficiary.

29. Section 506(c). In partial consideration for, among other things, the Carve-Out, the payments made to administer the Chapter 11 Cases with the use of Cash Collateral, and the priming liens on the Shared Collateral, no costs or expenses of administration which have been or may be incurred in the Chapter 11 Cases or any further proceeding that may result therefrom, including liquidation, bankruptcy or other proceedings under the Bankruptcy Code, at any time, including costs and expenses incurred in connection with the preservation, protection, or enhancement of realization by the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties, shall be charged against the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties, any of the New Tranche A DIP Obligations, or any of the DIP Collateral pursuant to sections 105 or 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, any similar principle of law, or otherwise without the prior express written consent of the DIP Collateral Agent and, with respect to the Shared Collateral, the Existing Notes Trustee in each of their sole discretion (but subject to the New Tranche A DIP Documents where applicable). For the avoidance of doubt, consent to the Carve-Out or the approval of any budget hereunder shall not be deemed as consent under this paragraph. Nothing contained in this Final DIP Amendment Order shall be deemed as consent by the DIP Agents or the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties to any charge, lien, assessment, or claims against any DIP Collateral, under section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise.

30. Waiver of Marshaling for DIP Secured Parties. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the New Tranche A DIP Obligations shall be satisfied first from proceeds of the Shared Collateral and second from proceeds of other DIP Collateral (whether or not an event of default or exercise of remedies has occurred), and otherwise, (a) the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties shall not be subject to the equitable doctrine of "marshaling" or any similar doctrine with respect to any of the DIP Collateral, and (b) the New Tranche A DIP Superpriority Claims shall be payable from and have recourse to all prepetition and post-petition property of the New Tranche A DIP Obligors and all proceeds thereof in accordance with the terms of this Final DIP Amendment Order; provided, that (i) nothing in this paragraph 30 shall (w) limit any mandatory or optional prepayment or scheduled debt service payment (which payments can be made from any available sources) under the New Tranche A DIP Documents, (x) be deemed to limit or prohibit the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties from exercising all rights and remedies against any DIP Collateral, subject to the limitation on application of proceeds set forth in this paragraph, or (y) limit the ability of the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties to acquire any DIP Collateral that is not Shared Collateral through a "credit bid" as provided in paragraph 31 of this Final DIP Amendment Order and (ii) in satisfying the New Tranche A DIP Obligations and New Tranche A DIP Superpriority Claims, the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties agree to use good faith efforts to marshal away from proceeds of Avoidance Actions. For purposes of this paragraph, satisfaction of the New Tranche A DIP Obligations shall include any repayment or refinancing of the New Tranche A DIP Obligations, or treatment of the New Tranche A DIP Obligations under a plan of reorganization, and any such repayment, refinancing, or treatment under a plan of reorganization shall be deemed to have occurred first from the proceeds of the Shared Collateral and second from the proceeds of the other DIP Collateral; provided, however, under any Company Approved Reorganization Plan (as defined in the Amended DIP Credit Agreement), none of the equity securities received pursuant to the Exit Equity Term Sheet in satisfaction of the Tranche B Loans shall be deemed or construed to be "proceeds" for purposes of the Amended Collateral Agency Agreement or any intercreditor agreement.

31. Right to Credit Bid. Pursuant to section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code, the DIP Collateral Agent on behalf of the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties shall have the right to "credit bid" for the benefit of the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties (without the need to submit a deposit) up to the full amount of the New Tranche A DIP Obligations (the exercise of which right shall be subject to the terms of the New Tranche A DIP Documents and any direction that may be required thereunder), in connection with any sale or other disposition of all or any portion of the DIP Collateral, including, without limitation, sales occurring pursuant to section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code or included as part of any restructuring or liquidation plan subject to confirmation under section 1129(b)(2)(A)(iii) of the Bankruptcy Code, or any sale or disposition by a chapter 7 trustee for any Debtor, and shall automatically be deemed a "qualified bidder" with respect to any such sale or disposition of DIP Collateral. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing herein shall be deemed to waive or alter any rights afforded to the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties pursuant to section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code.

32. Section 552 & Equities of the Case. For the avoidance of doubt, the DIP Secured Parties shall each be entitled to all of the rights and benefits of section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and the "equities of the case" exception thereunder shall not apply to any of them.

33. Joint and Several Liability. Nothing in this Final DIP Amendment Order shall be construed to constitute a substantive consolidation of any of the Debtors' estates, it being understood, however, that the Debtors shall be jointly and severally liable for the obligations hereunder and all New Tranche A DIP Obligations in accordance with the terms hereof and of the New Tranche A DIP Documents.

34. Rights Preserved. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary (but except as may be provided in the RSA with respect to any DIP Secured Parties that are parties thereto), the entry of this Final DIP Amendment Order is without prejudice to, and does not constitute a waiver of, expressly or implicitly: (a) the rights of the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties to seek any other or supplemental relief in respect of the Debtors or other New Tranche A DIP Obligors, or in the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases; (b) the rights of the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties under the New Tranche A DIP Documents, the Bankruptcy Code, or applicable non-bankruptcy law, including, without limitation, the right to (i) request modification of the automatic stay of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) request dismissal of any of the Chapter 11 Cases, conversion of any or all of the Chapter 11 Cases to a case under chapter 7, or appointment of a chapter 11 trustee or examiner with expanded powers, or (iii) propose, subject to the provisions of section 1121 of the Bankruptcy Code, a chapter 11 plan or plans; or (c) any other rights, claims, or privileges (whether legal, equitable, or otherwise) of the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the entry of this Final DIP Amendment Order is without prejudice to, and does not constitute a waiver of, expressly or implicitly, the Debtors' or any party-in-interest's right to oppose any of the relief requested in accordance with the immediately preceding sentence, except as expressly set forth in this Final DIP Amendment Order or the New Tranche A DIP Documents.

35. Proofs of Claim. The New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties shall not be required to file proofs of claim or requests for allowance of administrative expenses in any of the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases for any claim against the Debtors on account of the DIP Obligations. The statements of claim in respect of such indebtedness set forth in this Final DIP Amendment Order are deemed sufficient to and do constitute proofs of claim or requests for allowance of administrative expenses, as applicable, in respect of such debt and its secured status. However, in order to facilitate the processing of claims, to ease the burden upon the Court, and to reduce any unnecessary expense to the Debtors' estates, each of the DIP Administrative Agent or New Tranche A-1 Notes Indenture Trustee or New Tranche A-2 Notes Indenture Trustee is authorized, but not required, to file in the Debtors' lead chapter 11 case a master proof of claim or request for allowance of administrative expenses, as applicable, on behalf of its respective New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties, if it so elects, on account of any and all of their respective claims arising under the applicable New Tranche A DIP Documents and hereunder (each, a "DIP Master Proof of Claim") against each of the Debtors. Upon the filing of any such DIP Master Proof of Claim, the DIP Administrative Agent or New Tranche A-1 Notes Indenture Trustee or New Tranche A-2 Notes Indenture Trustee, as applicable, shall be deemed to have filed a proof of claim or request for allowance of administrative expenses, as applicable, in the amount set forth opposite its name therein in respect of its claims and the claims of its respective New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties of any type or nature whatsoever with respect to the applicable New Tranche A DIP Documents, and the claim of each applicable New Tranche A DIP Secured Party (and each of its successors and assigns) named in a DIP Master Proof of Claim shall be treated as if such entity had filed a separate proof of claim or request for allowance of administrative expenses, as applicable, in each of the Chapter 11 Cases. The DIP Master Proofs of Claim shall not be required to identify whether any such party acquired its claim from another party and the identity of any such party or to be amended to reflect a change in the holders of the claims set forth therein or a reallocation among such holders of the claims asserted therein resulting from the transfer of all or any portion of such claims. The DIP Master Proofs of Claim shall not be required to attach any instruments, agreements, or other documents evidencing the obligations owing by each of the Debtors to the applicable New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties. Notwithstanding the foregoing authorization to file, or any filing of, a DIP Master Proof of Claim, nothing herein shall limit, bar, or restrict any New Tranche A DIP Secured Party from separately filing a proof of claim or request for payment of administrative expenses on account of the New Tranche A DIP Obligations or any other claim against the Debtors. Any order entered by the Court in relation to the establishment of a bar date in any of the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases shall not apply to the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties with respect to any of the New Tranche A DIP Obligations.

36. No Waiver by Failure to Seek Relief. The failure, at any time or times hereafter, of the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties to require strict performance by the Debtors of any provision of this Final DIP Amendment Order shall not waive, affect, or diminish any right of such parties thereafter to demand strict compliance and performance therewith. No delay on the part of any party in the exercise of any right or remedy under this Final DIP Amendment Order shall preclude any other or further exercise of any such right or remedy or the exercise of any other right or remedy. No consents by any of the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties shall be implied by any inaction or acquiescence by any of the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties.

37. Binding Effect of this Final DIP Amendment Order. Immediately upon, and effective as of, entry by the Court, the provisions of this Final DIP Amendment Order, including all findings and conclusions herein, shall inure to the benefit of the Debtors and the New Tranche

A DIP Secured Parties and their respective successors and assigns and shall become valid and binding upon the Debtors and the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties and any and all other creditors of the Debtors, the Committee or other committee appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases, any and all other parties in interest and their respective successors and assigns, including any trustee or other fiduciary hereafter appointed as legal representative of any of the Debtors in any of the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases, or upon dismissal of any of the Chapter 11 Cases. Further, upon entry of this Final DIP Amendment Order, the New Tranche A DIP Obligations shall become allowed administrative expenses for all purposes in each of the Chapter 11 Cases.

38. No Modification to Final DIP Amendment Order. Until and unless the New Tranche A DIP Obligations have been indefeasibly paid in full in cash, the Debtors irrevocably waive the right to seek and shall not seek or consent to, directly or indirectly, without the prior written consent of the DIP Agents: (a) a priority claim for any administrative expense or unsecured claim against the Debtor (now existing or hereafter arising of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, without limitation, any administrative expense of the kind specified in sections 503(b), 506(c), 507(a), or 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code) in the Chapter 11 Cases, equal or superior to the DIP Superpriority Claims, other than the Carve-Out; (b) any order authorizing the use of Cash Collateral that is inconsistent with this Final DIP Amendment Order or the New Tranche A DIP Documents; or (c) any lien on any of the DIP Collateral with priority equal or superior to the DIP Liens except as specifically provided in the New Tranche A DIP Documents or this Final DIP Amendment Order. The Debtors irrevocably waive any right to seek any amendment, vacatur, stay, modification, or extension of this Final DIP Amendment Order without the prior written consent of the DIP Agents. No amendment, modification, or extension of this Final DIP Amendment Order, or any other order of the Court, shall have the effect of amending or modifying the Amended DIP Credit Agreement or other New Tranche A DIP Documents without the prior written consent of the parties that would be required to effectuate any such amendment or modification pursuant to Section 11.08 of the Amended DIP Credit Agreement.

39. Order Controls. In the event of any inconsistency between the terms and conditions of the New Tranche A DIP Documents, any other document, or any other order of the Court and the terms of this Final DIP Amendment Order, (a) the provisions of the Final DIP Amendment Order shall prevail over the provisions of the New Tranche A DIP Documents and the First Final DIP Order; (b) the New Tranche A DIP Documents (aside from the First Final DIP Order) shall prevail over the provisions of the First Final DIP Order; and (c) the First Final DIP Order shall prevail over all other documents or orders.

40. Limits on Lender Liability. Nothing in this Final DIP Amendment Order or in any of the New Tranche A DIP Documents or any other documents related to this transaction shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties of any liability for any claims arising from any and all activities by the Debtors in the operation of their businesses in connection with the Debtors' postpetition restructuring efforts. In determining to make any loan or other extension of credit under the DIP Documents, to permit the use of the DIP Collateral (including the Cash Collateral) or in exercising any rights or remedies as and when permitted pursuant to this Final Order or the DIP Documents, none of the DIP Secured Parties shall (a) be deemed to be in "control" of the operations of the Debtors; (b) owe any fiduciary duty to the Debtors, their respective creditors, shareholders or estates; or (c) be deemed to be acting as a "Responsible Person" or "Owner" or "Operator" with respect to the operation or management of the Debtors, so long as the DIP Agents' and the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties' actions do not constitute, within the meaning of 42 U.S.C. § 9601(20)(F), actual participation in the management or operational affairs of a vessel or facility owned or operated by a Debtor, or otherwise cause liability to arise to the federal or state government or the status of "responsible person" or "managing agent" to exist under applicable law (as such terms or similar terms are used in the United States Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9601 et seq., as amended, or any other federal or state statute, including the Internal Revenue Code). So long as the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties comply with their obligations under the DIP Documents and their obligations, if any, under applicable law (including the Bankruptcy Code), (a) the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties shall not, in any way or manner, be liable or responsible for (i) the safekeeping of the DIP Collateral, (ii) any loss or damage thereto occurring or arising in any manner or fashion from any cause, (iii) any diminution in the value thereof or (iv) any act or default of any carrier, servicer, bailee, custodian, forwarding agency or other person and (b) all risk of loss, damage or destruction of the Collateral shall be borne by the Debtors.

41. Release. The Debtors forever and irrevocably (i) release, discharge, and acquit the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties, and each of their respective former and current officers, employees, directors, agents, representatives, arrangers, owners, members, partners, financial advisors, legal advisors, shareholders, members, managers, consultants, accountants, attorneys, affiliates, assigns, or successors, and predecessors in interest, in each case, solely in their respective capacities as such (collectively, the "New Tranche A DIP Secured Party Releasees") of and from any and all claims, demands liabilities, responsibilities, disputes, remedies, causes of action, indebtedness, and obligations of every type that the Debtors at any time had, now have, or may have relating to any aspect of the relationship between the New Tranche A DIP Secured Party Releasees, solely in their capacity as New Tranche A DIP Secured Party Releasees, and the Debtors, including any lender liability, equitable subordination, or recharacterization claims or defenses, with respect to or relating to the New Tranche A DIP Loans, the New Tranche A DIP Notes, the New Tranche A DIP Documents, the New Tranche A DIP Facility, the Debtors' attempts to structure the New Tranche A DIP Loans or the New Tranche A DIP Notes, and the transactions contemplated thereunder and hereunder, consent to the terms of this Final DIP Amendment Order, and any and all claims regarding the amount, enforceability, validity, priority, perfection, or avoidability of the liens or secured claims of the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties; and (ii) waive and release any and all defenses (including, without limitation, offsets and counterclaims of any nature or kind) as to the amount, validity, perfection, priority, enforceability, and non-avoidability of the New Tranche A DIP Obligations; provided that such release shall not apply to (x) any New Tranche A DIP Secured Party Releasee to the extent of any claims, liabilities, remedies, causes of action, indebtedness, and obligations arising from the willful misconduct or gross negligence of such New Tranche A DIP Secured Party Releasees, or (y) any obligations arising out of or relating to this Final DIP Amendment Order, the New Tranche A DIP Documents, or any other postpetition agreements with the Debtors (including the RSA). Nothing in this Final DIP Amendment Order shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon the New Tranche A DIP Secured Party Releasees any liability for any claims arising from any and all activities by the Debtors or any of their subsidiaries or affiliates in the operation of their businesses or in connection with their restructuring efforts.

42. Treatment of DIP Claims.

a. On the maturity date, the Borrower shall pay the then unpaid and outstanding amount of the New Tranche A DIP Obligations pursuant to the provisions of the New Tranche A DIP Documents. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the case of the New Tranche A DIP Facility, the Debtors shall, subject to the conditions set forth in each New Tranche A Exit Commitment Letter (including payment of the "Conversion Premium" set forth therein) and the Amended DIP Credit Agreement, have the option to convert the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility into an exit financing facility upon the Emergence Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement).

b. For the avoidance of doubt, in the case of the Tranche B DIP Loans and the Seller Financing DIP Loans (each as defined in the First Final DIP Order), the repayment of DIP Obligations may be made pursuant to the Exit Event Transactions (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) to the extent provided in Section 2.12 of the DIP Credit Agreement.

43. Application of First Final DIP Order to New Tranche A DIP Facility. From and after the New Tranche A Closing Date, to the extent not inconsistent with this Order, the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties shall be entitled to the rights and protections set forth in the First Final DIP Order, mutatis mutandis, with respect to the New Tranche A DIP Facility.

44. Survival of First Final DIP Order. Except as expressly set forth herein or as inconsistent with this Final DIP Amendment Order, the First Final DIP Order shall survive the entry of this Final DIP Amendment Order and the entry into the New Tranche A DIP Facility. 45. Survival. The provisions of this Final DIP Amendment Order and any actions taken pursuant hereto shall survive, and shall not be modified, impaired or discharged by, entry of any order that may be entered (a) confirming any plan in any of the Chapter 11 Cases, (b) converting any or all of the Chapter 11 Cases to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, (c) dismissing any or all of the Chapter 11 Cases, or (d) pursuant to which the Court abstains from hearing any of the Chapter 11 Cases. The terms and provisions of this Final DIP Amendment Order, including the claims, liens, security interests, and other protections (as applicable) granted to the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties pursuant to this Final DIP Amendment Order, notwithstanding the entry of any such order, shall continue in any of the Chapter 11 Cases, following dismissal of any of the Chapter 11 Cases, or any Successor Cases, and shall maintain their priority as provided by this Final DIP Amendment Order. The DIP Protections (defined below), as well as the terms and provisions concerning the reimbursement and indemnification of the New Tranche A DIP Secured Parties, shall continue in any of the Chapter 11 Cases following dismissal of any of the Chapter 11 Cases, termination of the provisions of this Final DIP Amendment Order, or the indefeasible repayment in full of the New Tranche A DIP Obligations.

46. Dismissal. If any order dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases under section 1112 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise is at any time entered, such order shall provide (in accordance with sections 105 and 349 of the Bankruptcy Code), that (i) the rights, privileges, benefits, and protections afforded herein and in the New Tranche A DIP Documents, including the DIP Liens and the New Tranche A DIP Superpriority Claims (collectively, the "DIP Protections"), shall continue in full force and effect and shall maintain their priorities as provided in this Final DIP Amendment Order until all New Tranche A DIP Obligations have been paid in full (and that all DIP Protections shall, notwithstanding such dismissal, remain binding on all parties in interest), and (ii) this Court shall retain jurisdiction, notwithstanding such dismissal, for the purposes of enforcing such DIP Protections.

47. Entry of this Final DIP Refinancing/Waiver of Applicable Stay. The Clerk of the Court is hereby directed to forthwith enter this Final DIP Amendment Order on the docket of the Court maintained in regard to the Chapter 11 Cases. This Final DIP Amendment Order shall be effective upon its entry and not subject to any stay (all of which are hereby waived), notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in Bankruptcy Rule 4001(a)(3).

48. Effect of This Final DIP Refinancing. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rules 4001(a)(3), 6004(h), 6006(d), 7062, 9024, or any other Bankruptcy Rule, or Rule 62(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, this Final DIP Amendment Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry, and there shall be no stay of execution or effectiveness of this Final DIP Amendment Order.

49. Retention of Jurisdiction. The Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction to hear, determine and, if applicable, enforce the terms of, any and all matters arising from or related to the New Tranche A DIP Facility and/or this Final DIP Amendment Order, and this retention of jurisdiction shall survive the confirmation and consummation of any chapter 11 plan for any of the Debtors notwithstanding any contrary terms or provisions of any such chapter 11 plan or order confirming any such chapter 11 plan; provided that, following the conversion of the New Tranche A DIP/Exit Facility into an exit financing facility under the terms of the New Tranche A Exit Commitment Letters, the Court shall not, by this Order, retain jurisdiction to enforce the terms of such exit financing facility.

The Issuer's ability to incur additional debt (in addition to amounts set forth in the baskets) will be conditioned upon the Issuer's Fixed Charge Coverage Ratio (defined as Consolidated EBITDAR of the Issuer to Fixed Charges) for the most recently ended four full fiscal quarters for which internal financial statements are available immediately preceding the date on which such additional debt is incurred being equal to or greater than (x) from a date to be agreed to December 31, 2022, 1.00:1.00 and (y) thereafter, 1.10:1.00 ("Ratio Debt"). "Debt" or "indebtedness" will be defined in a manner to be agreed, taking into account applicable accounting rules; provided that any portion of lease obligations that are expected to be deemed fully satisfied under the Plan shall not be construed as indebtedness (in a manner consistent with US GAAP fresh start accounting for purposes of such determination, regardless of any IFRS treatment).

- up to $485 million to secure (1) the Citi RCF Facility, (2) the Engine Loan Facility, (3) the USAVflow Facility, (4) the BdB Credit Card Receivables Facility and (5) any successor facilities thereto secured by collateral consisting of spare parts, engines, credit card receivables and any other assets securing the obligations as of the date hereof;

	(ix) Limitations on Sale-Leasebacks; and (x) Certain Assurances Related to Loyalty Programs[13]. Baskets and exceptions to the covenants will be consistent with comparable Latin American issuers' secured high-yield covenants for companies in the industry of the Issuer and its subsidiaries.
Issuance of Notes:	The A-2 Exit Notes will be issued pursuant to Section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code, subject to resale pursuant to Rule 144A for life.
Other
Fees and Expenses:	The Company will reimburse all reasonable fees, costs and expenses incurred by the A-2 DIP Lenders (including counsel) in connection with the A-2 Exit Notes.
Governing Law:	The laws of the State of New York.

[13] This covenant shall permit LifeMiles debt in the amount of $410 million and the refinancing of such LifeMiles debt, subject to customary limitations, but would disallow such indebtedness to increase. All future loyalty programs would have to be structured in a manner that would provide for a collateral position for the benefit of the A-1 Exit Notes and A-2 Exit Notes that is no less favorable than the collateral positions held by lenders/noteholders under the current DIP Obligations and any loyalty programs that would displace LifeMiles would be on terms substantially similar to the LifeMiles program or otherwise acceptable to the holders of a majority of the A-2 Exit Notes.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, in connection with seeking court approval of this Engagement Letter and the Fee Letter you shall only be permitted to (i) provide unredacted copies of this Engagement Letter and the Fee Letter to the Bankruptcy Court and the Office of the United States Trustee in connection with any motion seeking approval of this Engagement Letter and the Fee Letter, (ii) publicly disclose this Engagement Letter and the Fee Letter to the extent necessary to obtain approval of the Bankruptcy Court of the Transactions, provided, that any disclosure of the Fee Letter pursuant to the preceding clause (i) and (ii) shall be made in a redacted manner in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to JPMorgan and, to the extent required, providing an unredacted copy thereof directly to the Bankruptcy Court and the Office of the United States Trustee, (iii) provide unredacted copies of this Engagement Letter and the Fee Letter to advisors to any statutory committee appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases, and in each case so long as such disclosure is on a confidential "professionals' eyes only" basis, and (iv) publicly file this Engagement Letter (but not the Fee Letter) in order to comply with any public disclosure requirements under the applicable rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

8. Miscellaneous

This Engagement Letter shall not be assignable by you without the prior written consent of JPMorgan (and any purported assignment without such consent shall be null and void), is intended to be solely for the benefit of the parties hereto and is not intended to confer any benefits upon, or create any rights in favor of, any person other than the parties hereto. This Engagement Letter may not be amended or waived except by an instrument in writing signed by you and JPMorgan. This Engagement Letter, the Fee Letter and the agreements referenced herein are the only agreements that have been entered into among us with respect to the Transactions and set forth the entire understanding of the parties with respect thereto.

This Engagement Letter may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original, and all of which, when taken together, shall constitute one agreement. The words "execution," "signed," "signature," "delivery," and words of like import in or relating to this Engagement Letter, the Fee Letter and/or any document to be signed in connection with this Engagement Letter and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be deemed to include Electronic Signatures (as defined below), and deliveries or the keeping of records in electronic form, each of which shall be of the same legal effect, validity or enforceability as a manually executed signature, physical delivery thereof or the use of a paper-based recordkeeping system, as the case may be. "Electronic Signatures" means any electronic symbol or process attached to, or associated with, any contract or other record and adopted by a person with the intent to sign, authenticate or accept such contract or record.

This Engagement Letter shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the law of the State of New York. The Borrower consents to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York sitting in the Borough of Manhattan (or if such court lacks subject matter jurisdiction, the Supreme Court of the State of New York sitting in the Borough of Manhattan or the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York sitting in the Borough of Manhattan). Each party hereto irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, (a) any right it may have to a trial by jury in any legal proceeding arising out of or relating to this Engagement Letter, the Credit Documentation, the Fee Letter or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby (whether based on contract, tort or any other theory) and (b) any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any such legal proceeding in the federal or state courts located in the City of New York, Borough of Manhattan.

JPMorgan hereby notifies the Borrower that pursuant to the requirements of the USA Patriot Act, Title III of Pub. L. 107-56 (signed into law October 26, 2001) (the "Patriot Act") and 31 C.F.R. § 1010.230 (the "Beneficial Ownership Regulation"), it and its affiliates are required to obtain, verify and record information that identifies the Debtors, which information includes the name, address, tax identification number and other information regarding the Debtors that will allow JPMorgan to identify the Debtors in accordance with the Patriot Act and the Beneficial Ownership Regulation, as applicable. This notice is given in accordance with the requirements of the Patriot Act and Beneficial Ownership Regulation and is effective for JPMorgan and each of its affiliates.

The compensation, reimbursement, indemnification, confidentiality, affiliate activities and agreement not to assert fiduciary duty claims, jurisdiction, venue, waiver of jury trial and governing law provisions contained herein and in the Fee Letter shall remain in full force and effect regardless of whether definitive documentation relating to the New Tranche A DIP Facility shall be executed and delivered and notwithstanding the termination of this Engagement Letter.

Section headings used herein are for convenience of reference only and are not to affect the construction of, or to be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Engagement Letter.

If the foregoing correctly sets forth our agreement, please indicate your acceptance of the terms of this Engagement Letter and the Fee Letter by returning to us executed counterparts of this Engagement

Letter and of the Fee Letter not later than 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on the business day after entry of the Approval Order (the "Expiration Time"); provided that this Engagement Letter and the Fee Letter shall be of no force and effect unless the Bankruptcy Court shall have approved the payment of all fees, payments, expenses, indemnities and other obligations set forth in this Engagement Letter and in the Fee Letter. JPMorgan's agreements herein will expire at the Expiration Time in the event JPMorgan have not received in readable form, a complete copy of each of this Engagement Letter and the Fee Letter countersigned by you. The parties hereto agree that your acceptance of JPMorgan' offer shall only be effective if each such document has been received in such form by JPMorgan prior to the Expiration Time. JPMorgan's engagements and obligations hereunder will terminate (a) if the Approval Order is not entered on or before the date set forth in Section 4, and on such date the Approval Order shall be in full force and effect, shall be unstayed and shall not have been amended, supplemented or otherwise modified without the consent of JPMorgan, (b) on any date after which an order described in the immediately preceding clause (a) has been entered but ceases to be in full force and effect, is stayed, is vacated, or is amended or modified without the consent of JPMorgan, (c) on September 19, 2021 (the "Termination Date"), in each case unless the closing of the New Tranche A DIP Facility, on the terms and subject to the conditions contained herein and in the applicable Credit Documentation, has been consummated on or before such date, (d) on any date upon which either Commitment Letter shall have terminated, expired or been revoked, modified, supplemented, amended or otherwise changed or waived in a manner adverse to JPMorgan without the prior written consent of JPMorgan, and (e) on any date (x) upon which disclosure of the Fee Letter is made in an unredacted manner in violation of Section 7(ii) hereof, or, (y) upon which the Bankruptcy Court enters an order mandating any such disclosure, other than disclosure expressly permitted pursuant to Section 7 hereof; provided that prior to terminating this letter following any such Bankruptcy Court order, JPMorgan shall consult with the Borrower as to any mutually acceptable means to satisfy such order.

Capitalized terms used but not defined herein are used with the meanings assigned to them in the Engagement Letter. This letter agreement is the Fee Letter referred to in the Engagement Letter.

Facility Fees

Subject to the other terms and conditions herein, as consideration for JPMorgan's agreements under the Engagement Letter, you agree to pay, or cause to be paid, to JPMorgan, for its own account a transaction fee (the "Transaction Fee") in an aggregate amount of $[redacted], which shall be earned on the date hereof and due and payable in its entirety on the Funding Date.

As further consideration for JPMorgan's agreement to continue to act as Administrative Agent for the New Tranche A DIP Facility and the Tranche B Facility, you agree to pay, or cause to be paid, to the Administrative Agent, an annual administration fee in an amount equal to $[redacted] per year (the "Administrative Agent Fee") in accordance with the terms detailed in the DIP Term Loan Credit Facility Amended Fee Letter among the Borrower, JPMorgan and Goldman Sachs Lending Partners LLC dated as of August 19, 2020 (the "Previous Fee Letter"). Fronting Fees

As consideration for JPMorgan's agreement to act as Fronting Lender for the Fronted Lenders with respect to up to $325 million of New Tranche A-1 DIP Loans (the "Fronted Loans"), you agree to pay or cause to be paid to JPMorgan for its own account, a fronting fee (the "Fronting Fee") equal to [redacted]% of the principal amount of the Fronted Loans; provided that the Fronting Fee payable to the Fronting Lender shall in no event exceed $[redacted]. The Fronting Fees shall be earned and due and payable on Funding Date.

If JPMorgan continues to hold any Fronted Loans following the 10th day after the initial funding of the Fronted Loans, any interest, fees or other amount payable to a lender under the Credit Documentation with respect to the Fronted Loans accrued after such 10th day, and until such time that the applicable Fronted Lender purchases the Fronted Loans from JPMorgan, shall be payable to JPMorgan for its own account.

General

You agree that, once paid, the fees or any part thereof payable hereunder and under the Engagement Letter shall not be refundable under any circumstances, regardless of whether the transactions or borrowings contemplated by the Engagement Letter are consummated, except as otherwise agreed in writing by you and us. All fees payable hereunder and under the Engagement Letter shall be paid in immediately available funds in U.S. Dollars and shall not be subject to reduction by way of withholding, setoff or counterclaim or be otherwise affected by any claim or dispute related to any other matter. In addition, all fees payable hereunder shall be paid without deduction for any taxes, levies, imposts, duties, deductions, charges or withholdings imposed by any national, state or local taxing authority, or will be grossed up by you for such amounts so deducted. Further, you agree that the fees paid hereunder shall be in addition to reimbursement of JPMorgan's out-of-pocket expenses as provided for in the Engagement Letter, and any other fees payable to the us or the Lenders pursuant to the Engagement Letter.

You agree that, we may, in our sole discretion, share with or allocate to, our affiliates and/or one or more lenders, all or a portion of any fees payable to us pursuant to this Fee Letter.

You agree that the Transaction Fee, the Administrative Agent Fee and the Fronting Fees are each payable in addition to any fees paid to the DIP Lenders (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) in connection with the DIP Facility.

You understand and agree that this Fee Letter shall not constitute or give rise to any obligation to provide any financing. This Fee Letter may not be amended or waived except by an instrument in writing signed by JPMorgan and you. This Fee Letter may not be assigned by you except as permitted pursuant to the Engagement Letter. This Fee Letter may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original, and all of which, when taken together, shall constitute one agreement. The words "execution," "signed," "signature," "delivery," and words of like import in or relating to this Fee Letter and/or any document to be signed in connection with this Fee Letter and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be deemed to include Electronic Signatures (as defined below), deliveries or the keeping of records in electronic form, each of which shall be of the same legal effect, validity or enforceability as a manually executed signature, physical delivery thereof or the use of a paper-based recordkeeping system, as the case may be. As used herein, "Electronic Signatures" means any electronic symbol or process

Engagement Letter

Ladies and Gentlemen:

1. Retention. The purpose of this letter agreement (the "Engagement Letter") is to confirm the engagement of BofA Securities, Inc. (the "Investment Bank", "we" or "us") by Avianca Holdings S.A. (the "Company"), as structuring advisor to the Company regarding the Restructuring (as defined below) of the existing Obligations (as defined below) of the Company. As used in this Engagement Letter, "Restructuring" shall mean a restructuring, reorganization and/or recapitalization of the Company affecting its and its subsidiaries' existing debt (including, without limitation, senior debt, junior debt, trade claims, general unsecured claims and/or preferred stock) and existing lease obligations (collectively, the "Obligations").

   The Investment Bank is being retained to provide advice to the Company in connection with a Restructuring of the Company's outstanding Obligations (i) in which the existing shareholders maintain voting control of the Company and no Obligations are converted into equity of the Company or any of its subsidiaries and (ii) which is consensual, negotiated out- of-court and implemented through a series of amended financing agreements, amended leases and/or private exchanges, and, if necessary, through a prepackaged or prenegotiated reorganization proceeding (a "Successful Restructuring").

   Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall constitute a commitment to provide any financing by the Investment Bank or its affiliates.

   The Investment Bank shall provide the Company with structuring advice with respect to the Restructuring, which may include the following services, among others:

   (a) Analyze various restructuring scenarios and make recommendations with respect to the same to the Company;

   (b) Provide strategic advice with regard to restructuring initiatives and activities; and

(c) Provide advice with respect to negotiations with the Company's creditors as necessary to effectuate a Successful Restructuring as directed by the Company.

2. Fees and Expenses. For the Investment Bank's services to be provided under Section 1 of this Engagement Letter, the Company agrees to pay to the Investment Bank, upon consummation of a Successful Restructuring, a fee of [redacted]% of the aggregate principal amount of debt or capitalized amount of leases comprising the Obligations that have been restructured, subject to a total cap of $[redacted]. The fee would be payable in cash by the Company upon the consummation of the Successful Restructuring. A Successful Restructuring shall be deemed to have been consummated upon the earlier of (i) the binding execution and the satisfaction (or waiver) of all conditions to effectiveness of all necessary waivers, consents, amendments or applicable agreements by which the Obligations being restructured are restructured or refinanced and (ii) in the case of a court approved Restructuring, the date on which the applicable plan of reorganization becomes effective in accordance with the terms and conditions thereof. For avoidance of doubt, no fee would be earned or payable if the Company files a petition for protection under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code without the binding support, in the form of a restructuring support agreement or otherwise, of the creditors and other stakeholders necessary and sufficient to confirm a plan of reorganization under the Bankruptcy Code in which the existing shareholders maintain voting control of the Company and no Obligations are converted into equity of the Company or any of its subsidiaries (i.e., a prepackaged plan of reorganization or prenegotiated restructuring agreement with the requisite support of creditors for which the fee due to the Investment Bank shall be owed pursuant to this Section 2).

Whether or not a Successful Restructuring is consummated, the Company also agrees to reimburse the Investment Bank for all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses (including reasonable legal fees and expenses) incurred by the Investment Bank in connection with the engagement hereunder up to a maximum of $[redacted] (without the Company's consent, which shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed and provided that the foregoing shall not limit the Company's obligations under Section 5 and Annex A).

3. Term. The Investment Bank's engagement shall commence on the date hereof and shall continue in effect on an exclusive basis unless terminated in writing by the Company or the Investment Bank as provided below. The Investment Bank's engagement hereunder may be terminated by either the Company or the Investment Bank at any time upon written notice to that effect to the other party. If there is any such termination (other than a termination by the Company for Cause (as defined below) or by the Investment Bank without Cause), the Company will pay to the Investment Bank the full fee (without deduction) that it would have earned hereunder, in the event that at any time during the period of 12 months (the "Tail Period") following such termination, the Company or its affiliates consummates a transaction in which the Investment Bank did not receive the compensation it would have been entitled to pursuant to Section 2 hereof if its engagement had not been terminated; provided that if, prior to the earlier of (x) the substantial completion of the Investment Bank's provision of the services referred to above and (y) the Company's or its affiliates' execution of a definitive agreement to effect a Successful Restructuring, Andrew C. Karp is no longer employed by the Investment Bank, then (i) in the event this Engagement Letter has not been terminated at such time, the Company may terminate this Engagement Letter and the Company shall have no further obligation to pay the Investment Bank a fee pursuant to Section 2 hereof and (ii) in the event this Engagement Letter has been terminated at such time and during the Tail Period, the Company shall have no further obligation to pay the Investment Bank a fee pursuant to this sentence (provided that the Company's obligation to pay or reimburse the Investment Bank's expenses hereunder shall not be limited by this proviso). For purposes hereof, the term "Cause" means, with respect to either the Company or the Investment Bank, the other party's bad faith, gross negligence, willful misfeasance or material breach of this Engagement Letter.

This Section 3 and the provisions of this Engagement Letter relating to the payment of fees and expenses, indemnification and contribution, confidentiality and governing law will survive any termination or expiration of this Engagement Letter.

4. Confidentiality. Except as required by applicable law, neither this Engagement Letter nor the contents hereof shall be disclosed by either party to any third party without the prior written consent of the other party, other than (A) (i) to such receiving party's equity holders, affiliates, subsidiaries and creditors (provided that in no event shall the Company disclose the fees payable hereunder to its creditors) and (ii) to such receiving party's attorneys, advisors and accountants, in each of clauses (i) and (ii), on a confidential and "need-to-know" basis in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby and only to the extent necessary in the receiving party's reasonable judgement and (B) as set forth in clauses (i), (ii) and (iv) of the proviso to the following paragraph with respect to the Engagement Letter and its the contents.

The Investment Bank shall not disclose any confidential information regarding the Company and the Restructuring to any third party without the Company's prior written consent; provided, however, that nothing herein shall prevent the Investment Bank from disclosing any such information (i) pursuant to the order of any court or administrative agency or in any pending legal or administrative proceeding, or otherwise as required by applicable law or compulsory legal process, (ii) upon the request or demand of any regulatory authority having jurisdiction over the Investment Bank or any of its affiliates, (iii) to the extent that such information becomes publicly available other than by reason of disclosure in violation of this Engagement Letter by the Investment Bank, (iv) to the Investment Bank's affiliates, and its and such affiliates' respective employees, legal counsel, independent auditors and other experts or agents who need to know such information in connection with the Restructuring and are informed of the confidential nature of such information (provided that the Investment Bank shall be responsible for any act or omission of such affiliates and employees, legal counsel, independent auditors, experts and agents which would constitute a breach of this Agreement if the Investment Bank had performed such act or omission), (v) to the extent necessary for purposes of establishing a "due diligence" defense, (vi) to the extent that such information is or was received by the Investment Bank from a third party that is not to the Investment Bank's knowledge subject to confidentiality obligations to the Company or (vii) to the extent that such information is independently developed by the Investment Bank without reliance on such confidential information. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Investment Bank shall not permit any such confidential information, or the Engagement Letter and the contents thereof, to be used by any member of the Investment Bank Group in the provision of services to or for third parties pursuant to Section 6 (Other Relationships) hereof. This paragraph shall terminate on the second anniversary of the date hereof.

5. Indemnification and Contribution. In consideration of the engagement of the Investment Bank hereunder, the Company agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Indemnified Parties (as defined in Annex A hereto) to the extent set forth in Annex A hereto, which provisions are incorporated by reference herein and constitute a part hereof. The terms and provisions of Annex A shall survive any termination or expiration of this Engagement Letter.

6. Other Relationships. Please be advised that Bank of America Corporation (the parent company of the Investment Bank) and its subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively, the "Investment Bank Group") comprise a full service securities firm and commercial bank engaged in securities, commodities and derivatives trading, foreign exchange and other brokerage activities, and principal investing as well as providing investment, corporate and private banking, asset and investment management, financing and financial advisory services and other commercial services and products to a wide range of corporations and individuals from which conflicting interests or duties, or a perception thereof, may arise (collectively, "Services"). The Company expressly acknowledges that, in the ordinary course of business, the Investment Bank and other parts of the Investment Bank Group at any time (i) may invest on a principal basis or manage funds that invest, make or hold long or short positions, finance positions or trade or otherwise effect transactions, for their own accounts or the accounts of customers, in equity, debt or other securities or financial instruments (including derivatives, bank loans or other obligations) of any prospective investor, any holder of the Obligations, the Company or any other company that may be involved in any proposed Restructuring , (ii) an affiliate of the Investment Bank is currently a lender (the "Lender") to the Company under an existing credit agreement with the Company (the "Existing Credit Agreement"), the Lender's rights and obligations under the Existing Credit Agreement are, and shall be, separate and distinct from the rights and obligations of the parties pursuant to this Engagement Letter and none of such rights and obligations under the Existing Credit Agreement shall be affected by the Investment Bank's performance or lack of performance of services hereunder and (iii) may be providing or arranging financing and other financial services to any prospective investor, any holder of the Obligations, the Company or other companies that may be involved in a competing transaction, in each case whose interests may conflict with the Company's or its affiliates'. Please be informed that the Investment Bank Group generally maintains, in accordance with internal policies and procedures, separate deal teams for its various engagements, information walls between such deal teams and an information wall between investment banking and the "public" side of the Investment Bank Group, including research and sales and trading.

Although information may be acquired in the course of (i) providing Services to parties other than the Company, (ii) engaging in any transaction (on its own account or otherwise) or (iii) otherwise carrying out its business, neither the Investment Bank nor any other part of the Investment Bank Group shall have any obligation to disclose such information, or the fact that it or any other part of the Investment Bank Group is in possession of such information, to the Company or to use such information for the Company's benefit. In addition, parts of the Investment Bank Group may have (x) fiduciary or other relationships whereby such parts may exercise voting power over securities of various persons, which securities may from time to time include securities of the Company, any company that may be involved in a potential Restructuring or others with interests with respect to a Restructuring and (y) commercial relationships (including acting as a vendor or customer) with the Company or any other company that may be involved in any proposed Restructuring. The Company acknowledges that any such parts of the Investment Bank Group may exercise such powers and otherwise perform its functions in connection with such fiduciary, commercial or other relationships without regard to the Investment Bank's relationship to the Company hereunder and that none of the rights and obligations under such other agreements shall be affected by the Investment Bank's performance or lack of performance of services hereunder. In addition, the Company acknowledges that neither this engagement nor the receipt by the Investment Bank of confidential information nor any other matter shall restrict or prevent the Investment Bank Group from undertaking any business activity, acting on behalf of its own account, or acting on behalf of, or providing any Services to, other customers and the Investment Bank Group may undertake any business activity or provide any Services without further notification to the Company.

The Company acknowledges that the rights and obligations that the Company and/or one or more of its affiliates may have in respect of and to the Investment Bank or any of its affiliates under any credit facility or other agreement are separate from the rights and obligations of the Company and its affiliates under this Engagement Letter and will not be affected by the Investment Bank's services hereunder. The Company acknowledges that the Investment Bank and/or one or more of its affiliates may currently or in the future participate in other debt or equity transactions on behalf of or render financial advisory services to the Company or any other companies that may be involved in a competing transaction. The Company hereby agrees that the Investment Bank may render its services under this Engagement Letter notwithstanding any actual or potential conflict of interest presented by the foregoing, and the Company hereby waives any conflict of interest claims relating to the relationship between the Investment Bank and the Company and its affiliates in connection with this Engagement, on the one hand, and the exercise by the Investment Bank or any of its affiliates of any of their rights and duties under any credit or other agreement, on the other hand. The terms of this paragraph shall survive the expiration or termination of the Engagement or this Engagement Letter for any reason whatsoever.

7. Scope of Services. In connection with all aspects of each transaction contemplated by this Engagement Letter, the Company acknowledges and agrees, and acknowledges its affiliates' understanding, that: (i) the services described in this Engagement Letter are an arm's-length commercial transaction between the parties hereto, and the Company is capable of evaluating and understanding and understand and accept the terms, risks and conditions of the transactions contemplated by this Engagement Letter; (ii) in connection with each transaction contemplated hereby and the process leading to such transaction, the Investment Bank is, will be and has been acting solely as a principal and, except as otherwise expressly agreed in writing by the relevant parties, is not, will not and has not been acting as an agent or fiduciary, for the Company or any of its affiliates, stockholders, creditors or employees or any other person or party; (iii) the Investment Bank has not assumed and will not assume an agency or fiduciary responsibility in the Company's or its affiliates' favor with respect to any of the transactions contemplated hereby or the process leading thereto (irrespective of whether the Investment Bank has advised or is currently advising the Company or its affiliates on other matters) and the Investment Bank has no obligations to the Company or its affiliates with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby except those obligations expressly set forth in this Engagement Letter; (iv) the Investment Bank and its affiliates may be engaged in a broad range of transactions that involve interests that differ from the Company's and its affiliates and the Investment Bank has no obligation to disclose any of such interests to the Company or its affiliates; and (v) the Investment Bank has not provided any legal, accounting, regulatory or tax advice with respect to any of the transactions contemplated hereby and the Company and has consulted its own legal, accounting, regulatory and tax advisors to the extent it has deemed appropriate. The Company agrees that the Investment Bank may perform the services contemplated hereby in conjunction with its affiliates, and that any affiliates of the Investment Bank performing services hereunder shall be entitled to the benefits and be subject to the terms of this Engagement Letter. The Company hereby waives and releases, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any claims that it may have against the Investment Bank with respect to any breach or alleged breach of agency or fiduciary duty in respect of the Restructuring.

8. Miscellaneous.

   (a) This Engagement Letter is not assignable by the Company without our prior written consent and is intended to be solely for the benefit of the parties hereto and the Indemnified Parties and, in each case, their respective successors, and no other person or entity shall acquire or have any right under or by virtue hereof.

(b) This Engagement Letter shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York. Each party hereto hereby irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of any New York State court or Federal court sitting in the Borough of Manhattan in New York City in respect of any suit, action or proceeding arising out of or relating to the provisions of this Engagement Letter and irrevocably agrees that all claims in respect of any such suit, action or proceeding may be heard and determined in any such court. Each party hereto waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the laying of the venue of any such suit, action or proceedings brought in any such court, and any claim that any such suit, action or proceeding brought in any such court has been brought in an inconvenient forum.

(c) This Engagement Letter embodies the entire agreement and understanding among the parties hereto and the Company's and its affiliates with respect to the matters set forth herein and supersedes all prior agreements, understandings and negotiations relating to the specific subject matter hereof. This Engagement Letter may be amended or any term or provision hereof waived or modified only by an instrument in writing signed by each of the parties hereto. ANNEX A

In further consideration of the engagement by Avianca Holdings S.A. (the "Company") pursuant to the engagement letter dated the date hereof (the "Engagement Letter"; capitalized terms not otherwise defined in this Annex A being herein used as therein defined) of BofA Securities, Inc. (the "Investment Bank", "we" or "us") to act in the capacity described in the Engagement Letter (the "Engagement") for the benefit of the Company, the Company hereby agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Investment Bank and each of its affiliates and their directors, officers, employees, agents, advisors, controlling persons and other representatives (each, an "Indemnified Party") from and against (and to reimburse each Indemnified Party as the same are incurred for) any and all claims, damages, losses, liabilities (joint or several) and expenses (including, without limitation, the reasonable fees, disbursements and other charges of counsel) that may be incurred by or asserted or awarded against any Indemnified Party, in each case arising out of or in connection with or by reason of (including, without limitation, in connection with any investigation, litigation, action or proceeding or preparation of a defense in connection therewith) (i) any matter contemplated by this Engagement Letter or arising out of such Indemnified Party's performance thereof, (ii) any aspect of the Restructuring or any similar transaction and any of the other transactions contemplated thereby or (iii) the Restructuring and any other amendment or acquisition of the Obligations, except in each case to the extent such claim, damage, loss, liability or expense (x) is found in a final, non-appealable judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted from such Indemnified Party's bad faith, gross negligence or willful misconduct, (y) results from any claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding that does not involve an act or omission of the Company or any of its affiliates and that is brought by an Indemnified Party against another Indemnified Party, or (z) results from a claim brought by the Company or any of its affiliates against such Indemnified Party for material breach of any of such Indemnified Party's obligations under this Engagement Letter (the "Exceptions"). In the case of an investigation, litigation, action or proceeding to which this indemnity applies, such indemnity shall be effective whether or not such investigation, litigation, action or proceeding is brought by the Company, its equity holders, affiliates or creditors or any Indemnified Party, whether or not an Indemnified Party is otherwise a party thereto and whether or not any aspect of the Restructuring is consummated. Each Indemnified Party will promptly notify the Company upon receipt of written notice of any claim or threat to institute a claim, provided that any failure by any Indemnified Party to give such notice shall not relieve the Company from the obligation to indemnify the Indemnified Parties.

If any action, claim, investigation or other proceeding is instituted or threatened against any Indemnified Party in respect of which indemnity may be sought hereunder, the Company shall be entitled to assume the defense thereof with counsel selected by it (which counsel shall be reasonably satisfactory to such Indemnified Party) and after notice from the Company to such Indemnified Party of its election so to assume the defense thereof, the Company will not be liable to such Indemnified Party hereunder for any legal or other expenses subsequently incurred by such Indemnified Party in connection with the defense thereof, other than reasonable costs of investigation and such other expenses as have been approved in advance; provided that (i) if counsel for such Indemnified Party determines in good faith that there is a conflict that requires separate representation for the Company and such Indemnified Party or that there may be legal defenses available to such Indemnified Party which are different from or addition to those available to the Company, or (ii) the Company fails to assume or proceed in a timely and reasonable manner with the defense of such action or fail to employ counsel reasonably satisfactory to such Indemnified Party in any such action, then in either such event, (A) such Indemnified Party shall be entitled to one primary counsel and, if necessary, one local counsel to represent such Indemnified Party and all other Indemnified Parties similarly situated (such counsels selected by the Investment Bank), (B) the Company shall not, or shall not any longer, be entitled to assume the defense thereof on behalf of such Indemnified Party and (C) such Indemnified Party shall be entitled to indemnification for the expenses (including fees and expenses of such counsel) to the extent provided in the preceding paragraph. Such counsel shall, to the fullest extent consistent with its professional responsibilities, cooperate with the Company and any counsel designated by the Company. Nothing contained herein shall preclude any Indemnified Party, at its own expense, from retaining additional counsel to represent such Indemnified Party in any action with respect to which an indemnity may be sought from the Company hereunder. The Company shall not be liable under this Engagement Letter for any settlement made by any Indemnified Party without the Company's prior written consent, and the Company agrees to indemnify and hold harmless each Indemnified Party from and against any loss or liability by reason of the settlement of any claim or action with the Company's consent. The Company shall not settle any such claim or action without the prior written consent of the Indemnified Parties unless such settlement provides for a full and unconditional release of all liabilities arising out of such claim or action against the Indemnified Parties and does not contain any statement as to or any admission of fault, culpability or a failure to act by or on behalf of any Indemnified Party.

If the indemnification provided for herein is unavailable to an Indemnified Party in respect of any claims, damages, losses, liabilities or expenses referred to herein or insufficient, in each case other than by reason of the Exceptions, then, in lieu of indemnifying such Indemnified Party, the Company shall contribute to the amount paid or payable by such Indemnified Party as a result of such claims, damages, losses, liabilities and expenses (i) in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect the relative benefits received by the Company, on the one hand, and the Investment Bank, on the other, from the engagement hereunder as well as the Restructuring and the other transactions contemplated by this Engagement Letter or (ii) if the allocation provided by clause (i) above is not permitted by applicable law, in such proportion as is appropriate to reflect not only the relative benefits referred to in clause (i) above but also the Company's relative fault on the one hand and the relative fault of the Investment Bank on the other hand in connection with the actions that resulted in such claims, damages, losses, liabilities or expenses, as well as any other relevant equitable considerations. The relative benefits received by the Company, on the one hand, and the Investment Bank, on the other hand, in connection with the Restructuring shall be deemed to be in the same respective proportions as the aggregate principal amount of Obligations to be restructured in the Restructuring or otherwise bears to the aggregate fees actually paid to the Investment Bank pursuant to this Engagement Letter. To the extent permitted by applicable law, in no event shall an Indemnified Party be required to contribute an aggregate amount in excess of the aggregate fees actually paid to such Indemnified Party under this Engagement Letter. No investigation or failure to investigate by any Indemnified Party shall impair the foregoing indemnification and contribution agreement or any right of an Indemnified Party.

In the event that an Indemnified Party is requested or required to appear as a witness in any action brought by or against the Company in which such Indemnified Party is not named as a defendant, the Company agrees to reimburse the Investment Bank for all expenses incurred by it in connection with such Indemnified Party's appearing and preparing to appear as a witness, including, without limitation, the reasonable fees and disbursements of legal counsel.

The reimbursement, indemnity, contribution and hold harmless provisions provided for herein shall be in addition to any other liability that the Company may otherwise have at common law or otherwise and shall survive the termination of the Investment Bank's engagement under this Engagement Letter.

The Company also agrees that no Indemnified Party shall have any liability (whether direct or indirect, in contract or tort or otherwise) to the Company or any of its equity holders, subsidiaries, affiliates or creditors or any other Indemnified Party or any other person or entity related to or arising out of this Engagement Letter or the performance by the Investment Bank of the services contemplated by this Engagement Letter or in connection with the Restructuring, except only for direct (as opposed to special, indirect, consequential or punitive) damages determined in a final non- appealable judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted from such Indemnified Party's bad faith, gross negligence or willful misconduct. In addition, and without limitation of the foregoing, the Company and its affiliates, including, without limitation the Company's shareholders, agree that the Investment Bank and its affiliates shall have no liability (whether direct or indirect, in contract or tort or otherwise) to any of the Company's affiliates, including without limitation the Company's shareholders, related to or arising out of this Engagement Letter or the performance by the Investment Bank of the services contemplated by this Engagement Letter or in connection with the Restructuring and the Company's affiliates, including, without limitation the Company's shareholders, waive and agree not to assert any claim, suit, action or proceeding against the Investment Bank and its affiliates related to or arising out of this Engagement Letter or the performance by the Investment Bank of the services contemplated by this Engagement Letter or in connection with the Restructuring.

The Company irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of any court of the State of New York, the City of New York in New York County for the purpose of any suit, action, or other proceeding arising out of this letter, and the parties hereto (i) hereby irrevocably agree that all claims in respect of any such suit, action or proceeding shall be exclusively heard and determined in any such court and (ii) agree not to commence any action, suit or proceeding relating to this letter except in such court. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent required by applicable law, any suit, action, or other proceeding arising out of this letter during the pendency of a case under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code of the Company shall be brought in the bankruptcy court handling such case. The Company hereby waives and agrees not to assert in any such suit, action or proceeding, in each case, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, any claim that the venue for any such suit, action or proceeding is improper or that any such suit, action or proceeding is brought in an inconvenient forum.

You have further informed us that, in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, you intend to incur a debtor-in-possession financing credit facility, composed of both loans and notes and convertible to an exit credit facility, consisting of (i) a superpriority secured tranche in an aggregate principal amount of up to US$1,050,000,000.00 (the "New Tranche A-1 DIP/Exit Loans") and (ii) a superpriority secured tranche in an aggregate principal amount of up to US$550,000,000.00 (the "New Tranche A-2 DIP/Exit Loans", and together with the New Tranche A-1 DIP/Exit Loans, the "New DIP/Exit Loans"), and have requested that GS agree to act as a Joint Lead Arranger and Bookrunner to assist in structuring and arranging the New DIP/Exit Loans in coordination with JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., ("JPMorgan") and BofA Securities, Inc., ("BofA", and together with JPMorgan, the "Additional Arrangers"), the Debtors' other joint lead arrangers and bookrunners with respect to the New DIP/Exit Loans, in order to (i) refinance in full, all principal and interest outstanding under Tranche A of the Debtors' existing debtor-in-possession credit facility, (ii) fund transaction-related fees, expenses and other amounts, and (iii) provide additional working capital.

GS is pleased to advise you that it is willing to act as a Joint Lead Arranger and Bookrunner for the New DIP/Exit Loans.

Furthermore, the Engagement Party is pleased to advise you of its agreement to use commercially reasonable efforts to assemble a syndicate of financial institutions identified by the Engagement Party and the other Additional Arrangers in consultation with you and reasonably acceptable to you to provide the commitments for the New DIP/Exit Loans, upon the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in this engagement letter (this "Engagement Letter").

1. Titles and Roles

It is agreed that JPMorgan will act as the sole and exclusive Administrative Agent (in such capacity, the "Administrative Agent"), and that GS will act as a joint lead arranger and bookunner (in such capacities, the "Arranger") for the New DIP/Exit Loans together with the Additional Arrangers. Other than with respect to the Additional Arrangers, you agree that no other agents, co-agents, lead arrangers, syndication agents, documentation agents, bookrunners, managers or arrangers will be appointed, no other titles will be awarded and no compensation (other than as expressly contemplated by the Fee Letter referred to below and other than with respect to the Additional Arrangers) will be paid in connection with the New DIP/Exit Loans unless you and we shall so agree in writing.

It is understood and agreed that this Engagement Letter shall not constitute (i) either an express or implied commitment or offer by the Engagement Party or any of its affiliates to provide any portion of the New DIP/Exit Loans or to otherwise provide any financing (any such commitment or offer, if it ever exists, will be evidenced by an additional agreement between the Engagement Party or any of its affiliates and the Borrower) or (ii) any guarantee that the New DIP/Exit Loans will be successfully arranged and consummated.

2. Information

You hereby represent and covenant that (a) all information other than financial projections (the "Information") that has been or will be made available to the Arranger by you or any of your representatives is or will be, when furnished, complete and correct in all material respects and does not or will not, when furnished, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements contained therein not materially misleading in light of the circumstances under which such statements are made, and (b) the financial projections that have been or will be made available to the Arranger by you or any of your representatives have been or will be prepared in good faith based upon reasonable assumptions. If, at any time prior to the termination of this Engagement Letter, any of the representations and warranties in the preceding sentence would not be accurate and complete in any material respect if the Information or Projections were being furnished, and such representations and warranties were being made, at such time, then you agree to promptly supplement the Information and/or financial projections so that the representations and warranties contained in this paragraph remain accurate and complete in all material respects under those circumstances. You understand that in arranging and syndicating the New DIP/Exit Loans we may use and rely on the Information and financial projections without independent verification thereof.

3. Fees

As consideration for the Engagement Party's agreement to assist in the structuring and arrangement of the New DIP/Exit Loans, you agree to pay to the Engagement Party the nonrefundable fees set forth in the Fee Letter dated the date hereof and delivered herewith (the "Fee Letter").

You agree that, once paid, the fees or any part thereof payable hereunder and under the Fee Letter shall not be refundable under any circumstances, regardless of whether the transactions or borrowings contemplated by this Engagement Letter are consummated, except as otherwise agreed in writing by you and the Engagement Party. All fees payable hereunder and under the Fee Letter shall be paid in immediately available funds in U.S. Dollars and shall not be subject to reduction by way of withholding, setoff or counterclaim or be otherwise affected by any claim or dispute related to any other matter. In addition, all fees payable hereunder and under the Fee Letter shall be paid without deduction for any taxes, levies, imposts, duties, deductions, charges or withholdings imposed by any national, state or local taxing authority, or will be grossed up by you for such amounts so deducted.

4. Conditions

The Engagement Party's agreements herein are subject to (a) our completion of and satisfaction in all respects with a business, financial and legal due diligence investigation of the Borrower and the transactions contemplated hereby, (b) our not becoming aware after the date hereof of any information or other matter affecting the Borrower or the transactions contemplated hereby which is inconsistent in a material and adverse manner with any such information or other matter disclosed to us prior to the date hereof, (c) our satisfaction that prior to and during the syndication of the New DIP/Exit Loans there shall be no competing offering, placement or arrangement of any debt securities or bank financing by or on behalf of the Borrower or any affiliate thereof, (d) there occurring a syndication period reasonably agreed by the Engagement Party from the date a final confidential information memorandum is available, (e) there not occurring or becoming known to us any material adverse condition or material adverse change in or affecting the business, operations, property, condition (financial or otherwise) or prospects of the Borrower and its subsidiaries, taken as a whole, as of the Closing Date (as defined below), (f) payment of fees under the Fee Letter in accordance with the terms thereof, (g) on or before August 11, 2021, the Borrower shall have filed a motion to approve this Engagement Letter and the Fee Letter in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Bankruptcy Court") in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Arranger, (h) on or before, August 20, 2021, entry of an order of the Bankruptcy Court, in form and substance satisfactory to the Arranger approving this Engagement Letter and the Fee Letter (including payment of the fees hereunder and thereunder), and (i) the other conditions set forth or referred to in this Engagement Letter and in the definitive documentation for the New DIP/Exit Loans (the "Credit Documentation"). For purposes of this Engagement Letter and the Fee Letter, "Closing Date" shall mean the date on which the funding under the New DIP/Exit Loans occurs.

5. Limitation of Liability, Indemnity, Settlement

(a) Limitation of Liability.

You agree that (i) in no event shall the Engagement Party, and its affiliates and its and their officers, directors, employees, advisors, and agents (each, and including, without limitation, the Engagement Party, an "Arranger-Related Person") have any Liabilities (as defined below), on any theory of liability, for any special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages incurred by you, your affiliates or your respective equity holders arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, this Engagement Letter, the Fee Letter, the Chapter 11 Cases or any other agreement or instrument contemplated hereby, and (ii) no Arranger-Related Person shall have any Liabilities arising from, or be responsible for, the use by others of Information or other materials (including, without limitation, any personal data) obtained through electronic, telecommunications or other information transmission systems, including an Electronic Platform or otherwise via the internet; provided that, nothing in this clause (a) shall relieve you of any obligation you may have to indemnify an Indemnified Person (as defined below), as provided in clause (b) below, against any special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages asserted against such Indemnified Person by a third party. You agree, to the extent permitted by applicable law, to not assert any claims against any Arranger-Related Person with respect to any of the foregoing. As used herein, the term "Liabilities" shall mean any losses, claims (including intraparty claims), demands, damages or liabilities of any kind.

(b) Indemnity.

You agree (A) to (i) indemnify and hold harmless the Engagement Party and its affiliates and its and their officers, directors, employees, advisors, and agents (each, and including, without limitation, the Engagement Party, an "Indemnified Person") from and against any and all Liabilities and related expenses to which any such Indemnified Person may become subject arising out of or in connection with this Engagement Letter, the Chapter 11 Cases, the Credit Documentation, the Fee Letter, the New DIP/Exit Loans, the use of the proceeds thereof, any related transaction or the activities performed or services furnished pursuant to this Engagement Letter or the role of the Engagement Party in connection therewith or in connection with any actual or prospective claim, litigation, investigation, arbitration or administrative, judicial or regulatory action or proceeding in any jurisdiction relating to any of the foregoing (including in relation to enforcing the terms of clause (a) above and the terms of this clause (b)) (each, a "Proceeding"), regardless of whether or not any Indemnified Person is a party thereto and whether or not such Proceeding is brought by you, your equity holders, affiliates, creditors or any other person and (ii) reimburse each Indemnified Person upon demand for any legal or other expenses incurred in connection with investigating or defending any of the foregoing, regardless of whether or not in connection with any pending or threatened Proceeding to which any Indemnified Person is a party, in each case as such expenses are incurred or paid; provided that the foregoing indemnity will not, as to any Indemnified Person, apply to any Liabilities or related expenses to the extent they are found by a final, non-appealable judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction to (I) primarily result from the willful misconduct or gross negligence of such Indemnified Person in performing its activities or services under this Engagement Letter, or (II) have not resulted from an act or omission by you or any of your affiliates and have been brought by an Indemnified Person against any other Indemnified Person (other than any claims against the Engagement Party in its capacity or in fulfilling its role as an arranger or agent or any similar role hereunder and (B) to reimburse the Engagement Party and its affiliates on demand for all reasonable out-of-pocket expenses (including due diligence expenses, syndication expenses, consultant's fees and expenses, travel expenses, and reasonable fees, charges and disbursements of counsels) incurred in connection with the New DIP/Exit Loans and any related documentation (including this Engagement Letter, the Chapter 11 Cases, the Credit Documentation and the Fee Letter), or the administration, amendment, modification or waiver thereof. In connection with reimbursement, the Engagement Party's counsel shall only be required to deliver to the Debtors summary invoices without time detail and redacted for privilege and confidentiality.

The expense reimbursements and indemnification provisions of this Engagement Letter shall constitute superpriority administrative expenses under Sections 503(b)(1) and 507(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code in the Chapter 11 Cases without the need to file any motion (other than any motion as may be necessary to obtain the approvals of this Engagement Letter and the Fee Letter), application or proof of claim and notwithstanding any administrative claims bar date, and shall be immediately payable in accordance with the terms hereof without further notice or order of the Bankruptcy Court.

(c) Settlement.

You shall not, without the prior written consent of the Engagement Party (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed), effect any settlement of any pending or threatened Proceedings in respect of which indemnity could have been sought hereunder by the Engagement Party unless (x) such settlement includes an unconditional release of such Indemnified Person in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Engagement Party from all liability on claims that are the subject matter of such Proceedings and (y) does not include any statement as to or any admission of fault, culpability or a failure to act by or on behalf of the Engagement Party or any injunctive relief or other non-monetary remedy. You acknowledge that any failure to comply with your obligations under the preceding sentence may cause irreparable harm to the Engagement Party and the other Indemnified Persons.

6. Affiliate Activities, Sharing of Information, Absence of Fiduciary Relationships

The Engagement Party may employ the services of its affiliates in providing certain services hereunder and, in connection with the provision of such services, may exchange with such affiliates information concerning you and the other companies that may be the subject of the transactions contemplated by this Engagement Letter, and, to the extent so employed, such affiliates shall be entitled to the benefits, and be subject to the obligations, of the Engagement Party hereunder. The Engagement Party shall be responsible for its affiliates' failure to comply with such obligations under this Engagement Letter.

You acknowledge that the Engagement Party, the Lenders and their respective affiliates may be providing debt financing, equity capital or other services (including financial advisory services) to other companies in respect of which you may have conflicting interests regarding the transactions described herein and otherwise. The Engagement Party will not use confidential information obtained from you by virtue of the transactions contemplated by this Engagement Letter or its other relationships with you in connection with the performance by the Engagement Party of services for other companies, and the Engagement Party will not furnish any such information to other companies. You also acknowledge that the Engagement Party has no obligation to use in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Engagement Letter, or to furnish to you, confidential information obtained from other companies.

You agree that the Engagement Party will act under this Engagement Letter as an independent contractor and that nothing in this Engagement Letter will be deemed to create an advisory, fiduciary or agency relationship or fiduciary or other implied duty between the Engagement Party, on the one hand, and you and your respective equity holders or your and their respective affiliates on the other hand. You acknowledge and agree that (i) the transactions contemplated by this Engagement Letter are arm's-length commercial transactions between the Engagement Party and, if applicable, its affiliates, on the one hand, and you, on the other, (ii) in connection therewith and with the process leading to such transaction the Engagement Party and, if applicable, its affiliates, is acting solely as a principal and has not been, is not and will not be acting as an advisor, agent or fiduciary of you, your management, equity holders, creditors, affiliates or any other person and (iii) with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby or the process leading thereto, the Engagement Party and, if applicable, its affiliates, has not assumed (x) an advisory or fiduciary responsibility in favor of you or your affiliates (irrespective of whether the Engagement Party or any of its affiliates has advised or is currently advising you or your affiliates on other matters (which, for the avoidance of doubt, includes acting as a financial advisor to the Borrower or any of its affiliates in respect of any transaction related hereto)) or (y) any other obligation except the obligations expressly set forth in this Engagement Letter. You further acknowledge and agree that (i) you are responsible for making your own independent judgment with respect to such transactions and the process leading thereto, (ii) you are capable of evaluating and understand and accept the terms, risks and conditions of the transactions contemplated hereby, and the Engagement Party shall have no responsibility or liability to you with respect thereto, and (iii) the Engagement Party is not advising the Borrower as to any legal, tax, investment, accounting, regulatory or any other matters in any jurisdiction, and you shall consult with your own advisors concerning such matters and you shall be responsible for making your own independent investigation and appraisal of the transactions contemplated hereby. Any review by the Engagement Party or any of its affiliates of the Borrower, the transactions contemplated hereby or other matters relating to such transactions will be performed solely for the benefit of the Engagement Party and shall not be on behalf of the Borrower. The Borrower agrees that it will not claim that the Engagement Party has rendered any advisory services or assert any claim against the Engagement Party based on an alleged breach of fiduciary duty by the Engagement Party in connection with this Engagement Letter and the transactions contemplated hereby or assert any claim based on any actual or potential conflict of interest that might be asserted to arise or result from the engagement of the Engagement Party or any of its affiliates acting as a financial advisor to the Borrower or any of its affiliates, on the one hand, and the engagement of the Engagement Party hereunder and the transactions contemplated hereby, on the other hand.

You further acknowledge that the Engagement Party, together with its affiliates, is a full service securities or banking firm engaged in securities trading and brokerage activities as well as providing investment banking and other financial services. In the ordinary course of business, the Engagement Party may provide investment banking and other financial services to, and/or acquire, hold or sell, for its own accounts and the accounts of customers, equity, debt and other securities and financial instruments (including bank loans and other obligations) of, you and other companies with which you may have commercial or other relationships. 7. Confidentiality

This Engagement Letter is delivered to you on the understanding that neither this Engagement Letter or the Fee Letter nor any of their terms or substance shall be disclosed by you, directly or indirectly,

8. Miscellaneous

This Engagement Letter shall not be assignable by you without the prior written consent of the Engagement Party (and any purported assignment without such consent shall be null and void), is intended to be solely for the benefit of the parties hereto and is not intended to confer any benefits upon, or create any rights in favor of, any person other than the parties hereto. GS may assign its rights and agreements hereunder to Goldman Sachs Bank USA. This Engagement Letter and the Fee Letter are the only agreements that have been entered into among us with respect to the New DIP/Exit Loans and set forth the entire understanding of the parties with respect thereto.

This Engagement Letter may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which shall be an original, and all of which, when taken together, shall constitute one agreement. The words "execution," "signed," "signature," "delivery," and words of like import in or relating to this Engagement Letter, the Fee Letter and/or any document to be signed in connection with this Engagement Letter and the transactions contemplated hereby shall be deemed to include Electronic Signatures (as defined below), and deliveries or the keeping of records in electronic form, each of which shall be of the same legal effect, validity or enforceability as a manually executed signature, physical delivery thereof or the use of a paper-based recordkeeping system, as the case may be. "Electronic Signatures" means any electronic symbol or process attached to, or associated with, any contract or other record and adopted by a person with the intent to sign, authenticate or accept such contract or record.

This Engagement Letter shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the law of the State of New York. The Borrower consents to the exclusive jurisdiction and venue of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York sitting in the Borough of Manhattan (or if such court lacks subject matter jurisdiction, the Supreme Court of the State of New York sitting in the Borough of Manhattan or the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York sitting in the Borough of Manhattan). Each party hereto irrevocably waives, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, (a) any right it may have to a trial by jury in any legal proceeding arising out of or relating to this Engagement Letter, the Credit Documentation, the Fee Letter or the transactions contemplated hereby or thereby (whether based on contract, tort or any other theory) and (b) any objection that it may now or hereafter have to the laying of venue of any such legal proceeding in the federal or state courts located in the City of New York, Borough of Manhattan.

The Engagement Party, on behalf of itself and the Lenders, hereby notify the Borrower that pursuant to the requirements of the USA Patriot Act, Title III of Pub. L. 107-56 (signed into law October 26, 2001) (the "Patriot Act") and 31 C.F.R. § 1010.230 (the "Beneficial Ownership Regulation"), they, the Lenders and each of their respective affiliates are required to obtain, verify and record information that identifies the Debtors, which information includes the name, address, tax identification number and other information regarding the Debtors that will allow the Engagement Party to identify the Debtors in accordance with the Patriot Act and the Beneficial Ownership Regulation, as applicable. This notice is given in accordance with the requirements of the Patriot Act and Beneficial Ownership Regulation and is effective for the Engagement Party, the Lenders and each of their respective affiliates.

The compensation, reimbursement, indemnification, confidentiality, affiliate activities and agreement not to assert fiduciary duty claims, jurisdiction, venue, waiver of jury trial and governing law provisions contained herein and in the Fee Letter shall remain in full force and effect regardless of whether Credit Documentation shall be executed and delivered and notwithstanding the termination of this Engagement Letter.

Section headings used herein are for convenience of reference only and are not to affect the construction of, or to be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Engagement Letter.

If the foregoing correctly sets forth our agreement, please indicate your acceptance of the terms of this Engagement Letter and the Fee Letter by returning to us executed counterparts of this Engagement Letter and of the Fee Letter not later than 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on the business day after entry of the Approval Order (as defined below) (the "Expiration Time"); provided that this Engagement Letter and the Fee Letter shall be of no force and effect unless the Bankruptcy Court shall have approved the payment of all fees, payments, expenses, indemnities and other obligations set forth in this Engagement Letter and in the Fee Letter. The Engagement Party's agreements herein will expire at the Expiration Time in the event the Engagement Party has not received in readable form, a complete copy of each of this Engagement Letter and the Fee Letter countersigned by you. The parties hereto agree that your acceptance of the Engagement Party's' offer shall only be effective if each such document has been received in such form by the Engagement Party prior to the Expiration Time. The Engagement Party's engagements hereunder will terminate on (a) August 31, 2021 if and to the extent the Bankruptcy Court has not entered an order, in form and substance satisfactory to the Arranger (which order ("Approval Order") is in full force and effect, is unstayed and has not been amended, supplemented or otherwise modified without the consent of the Arranger) approving this Engagement Letter and the Fee Letter (including the fees, payments, expenses and indemnities and other obligations set forth in this Engagement Letter and the Fee Letter), (b) on any date after which an order described in the immediately preceding clause (a) has been entered but ceases to be in full force and effect, is stayed, is vacated, or is amended or modified without the consent of the Arranger, and (c) September 30, 2021 (the "Termination Date"), in each case unless the closing of the New DIP/Exit Loans, on the terms and subject to the conditions contained herein and in the applicable Credit Documentation, has been consummated on or before such date.

(a) the appropriate Ballot in the forms attached hereto as Exhibits 2A through 2D;

(b) the Cover Letter attached hereto as Exhibit 6; and Ballots submitted via the customized online balloting portal shall be deemed to contain an original signature.

C. Approval of the Confirmation Hearing Notice.

13. The Confirmation Hearing Notice, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 7 filed by the Debtors and served upon parties in interest in these chapter 11 cases on or before the Solicitation Deadline constitutes adequate and sufficient notice of the hearings to consider approval of the Plan, the manner in which a copy of the Plan could be obtained, and the time fixed for filing objections thereto, in satisfaction of the requirements of the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules.

16. The Debtors are not required to mail Solicitation Packages or other solicitation materials to: (a) holders of Claims that have already been paid in full during these chapter 11 cases or that are authorized to be paid in full in the ordinary course of business pursuant to an order

G. Approval of Notices to Contract and Lease Counterparties.

19. The Debtors are authorized to mail a notice of assumption or rejection of Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases that will be assumed or rejected (as the case may be) pursuant to the Plan (and of the corresponding cure claims, if any), in the forms attached hereto as Exhibit 9 and Exhibit 10, respectively, to the applicable counterparties within the time periods specified in the Plan.

22. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted pursuant to this Order in accordance with the Motion.

(g) such other materials as the Court may direct to include in the Solicitation Package.

Solicitation packages delivered to holders of General Unsecured Avianca Claims or General Unsecured Convenience Claims whose addresses are in Colombia or other predominantly [3] Service of the Solicitation Package by email to Holders for which email addresses are available, as well as to beneficial holders of 2020 Note Claims and 2023 Note Claims through their brokerages, will not contain a pre-addressed, postage pre-paid return envelope.

Spanish-speaking countries will include Spanish translations of the Cover Letter, the Confirmation Hearing Notice, and the applicable Ballots.

B. Distribution of the Solicitation Package

The Solicitation Package shall include the Plan, the Disclosure Statement, the Disclosure Statement Order (without exhibits, except the Solicitation and Voting Procedures) in electronic format (flash drive or CD-ROM), and all other contents of the Solicitation Package, including Ballots, in paper format. Any party that prefers to receive the materials on paper (at the Debtors' expense) may contact the Solicitation Agent by: (a) calling (866) 967-1780 (toll free) or +1 (310) 751-2680 (international); (b) visiting the Debtors' restructuring website at: http://www.kccllc.net/avianca; (c) writing to Avianca Ballot Processing Center, c/o KCC, 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300, El Segundo, California 90245; and/or (d) emailing AviancaInfo@kccllc.com.

The Debtors will serve, or cause to be served, all of the materials in the Solicitation Package (excluding the Ballots) on the U.S. Trustee and all parties who have requested service of papers in this case pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002 as of the Voting Record Date. In addition, the Debtors shall mail, or cause to be mailed, the Solicitation Package to all holders of Claims in the Voting Classes on or before September 21, 2021 who are entitled to vote, as described in section IV herein.

To avoid duplication and reduce expenses, the Debtors will make every reasonable effort to ensure that any holder of a Claim who has filed duplicative Claims (whether against the same or multiple Debtors) that are classified under the Plan in the same Voting Class will receive no more than one Solicitation Package (and, therefore, one Ballot) on account of such Claim and with respect to that Class.

C. Resolution of Disputed Claims for Voting Purposes

If a claim in the Voting Class is subject to an objection that is pending on the Voting Deadline, the applicable holder will not be entitled to vote to accept or reject the Plan on account of such claim unless either of the following events (each a "Resolution Event") occurs no later than three (3) business days prior to the Voting Deadline: (i) an order of the Court is entered temporarily allowing such claim for voting purposes only pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3018(a), after notice and a hearing; or (ii) a stipulation or other agreement is executed between the holder or such claim and the Debtors temporarily or permanently allowing such claim in an agreed upon amount. No later than two (2) business days following the occurrence of a Resolution Event resolving a Disputed Claim, the Debtors will cause the Solicitation Agent to distribute via email, hand delivery, or overnight courier service a Solicitation Package and a pre-addressed, postage pre-paid envelope to the relevant holder.

D. Distribution of Materials to Holders of Claims and Interests in Non-Voting Classes

Certain holders of Claims that are not classified in accordance with section 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, who are (a) not entitled to vote because they are not Impaired or otherwise presumed to accept the Plan under section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, (b) not entitled to vote because they are Impaired and are not receiving any distribution under the Plan and thus presumed to reject the Plan under section 1126(g), or (c) not entitled to vote because they are the holder of a Claim that is subject to a pending objection by the Debtors will receive a Non-Voting Status Notice, substantially in the forms attached to the Disclosure Statement Order as Exhibit 3, Exhibit 4, and Exhibit 5 respectively. Such notices will instruct these holders as to how they may obtain copies of the documents contained in the Solicitation Package (excluding Ballots). Such notices will instruct these holders as to how they may obtain copies of the documents contained in the Solicitation Package (excluding Ballots). Such notices will include a Spanish translation for recipients whose addresses are located in Colombia or other predominantly Spanish-speaking countries.

E. Notices in Respect of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases

Counterparties to Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases that receive a Notice of Assumption of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases substantially in the form attached as Exhibit 9 to the Disclosure Statement Order may file an objection to the Debtors' proposed assumption and/or cure amount. Objections must be filed, served and actually received by the Debtors no later than seven (7) days prior to the Confirmation Hearing, as set forth in the applicable notice of assumption.

IV. Voting and Tabulation Procedures

A. Holders of Claims Entitled to Vote

Only the following holders of claims in the Voting Class (the "Voting Creditors") will be entitled to vote on the Plan with regard to such claims:

(a) Holders of Claims who, on or before the Voting Record Date, have timely filed a Proof of Claim (or an untimely Proof of Claim that has been deemed timely by the Court on or before the Voting Record Date) that: (i) has not been expunged, disallowed, disqualified, withdrawn, or superseded prior to the Voting Record Date; and (ii) is not the subject of a pending objection;

(b) Beneficial Holders of 2020 Note Claims and Beneficial Holders of 2023 Note Claims (in each case through the "Master Ballot Voting and Tabulation Procedures" set forth below);

(c) Holders of Claims that are listed in the Schedules, provided that Claims that are scheduled as contingent, unliquidated, or disputed (excluding such scheduled disputed, contingent, or unliquidated Claims that have been paid or superseded by a timely Filed Proof of Claim) shall be allowed to vote only in the amounts set forth in section IV.C.d of these Solicitation and Voting Procedures;

(d) Holders whose Claims arise: (i) pursuant to an agreement or settlement with the Debtors, as reflected in a document filed with the Court; (ii) in an order entered by the Court; or (iii) in a document executed by the Debtors pursuant to authority granted by the Court, in each case regardless of whether a Proof of Claim has been filed;

(e) Holders of any Disputed Claim that has been temporarily allowed to vote on the Plan pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3018;

(f) Only one claimant for each aircraft lease will receive Solicitation Packages. Annex 1 to the Solicitation Procedures sets forth, for each such transaction, the facility agent, administrative agent, security trustee, or owner trustee whom the Debtors propose to solicit. Annex 2 to the Solicitation Procedures sets forth the duplicative claims that will be disallowed for voting purposes; and

(g) transferees and assignees of any claims described in clause (a) or clause (e) above, but only to the extent that the relevant transfer or assignment is properly noted on the Court's docket and is effective pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3001(e) as of the close of business on the Voting Record Date.

B. Establishing Claim Amounts for Voting Purposes

The voting amounts for 2020 Notes Claims will be the principal amount of 2020 Notes held by each directly registered holder as of the Voting Record Date as evidenced on the books and records of the 2020 Notes Indenture Trustee or, as the case may be, in the amount of 2020 Notes held by each Beneficial Holder through its Nominee (as defined below) as of the Voting Record Date as evidenced by the securities position report(s) from the Depository Trust Company ("DTC").

The voting amounts for 2023 Notes Claims will be the principal amount of 2023 Notes held by each directly registered holder as of the Voting Record Date as evidenced on the books and records of the 2023 Notes Indenture Trustee or, as the case may be, in the amount of 2023 Notes held by each Beneficial Holder through its Nominee as of the Voting Record Date as evidenced by the securities position report(s) from DTC.

Beneficial Holders of 2023 Notes who participated in the DIP Roll-Up no longer have any General Unsecured Avianca Claims on account of their 2023 Notes. Because those Beneficial Holders have withdrawn their 2023 Notes from registration through the Depository Trust Company (DTC), they will not receive a Beneficial Holder Ballot when the Voting Agent distributes Beneficial Holder Ballots through DTC participants. Furthermore, each Beneficial Holder of 2023 Notes Claims will be required to provide a certification on its Beneficial Holder Ballot that it did not participate in the DIP Roll-Up.

C. Filed and Scheduled Claims

The Claim amount established herein shall control for voting purposes only and shall not constitute the Allowed amount of any Claim. Moreover, any amounts filled in on any Ballot by the Debtors through the Solicitation Agent, as applicable, are not binding for purposes of allowance and distribution. In tabulating votes, the following methodology shall be used to determine the amount of the Claim associated with each claimant's vote:

(a) the Claim amount: (i) settled and/or agreed upon by the Debtors, as reflected in a document filed with the Court; (ii) set forth in an order of the Court; or (iii) set forth in a document executed by the Debtors pursuant to authority granted by the Court;

(b) the Claim amount Allowed (temporarily or otherwise) pursuant to a Resolution Event under the procedures set forth in the Solicitation and Voting Procedures;

(c) the Claim amount contained in a Proof of Claim that has been timely filed (or deemed timely filed by the Court under applicable law), except for any amounts asserted on account of any interest accrued after the Petition Date; provided that Ballots cast by holders of Claims who timely file a Proof of Claim in respect of a contingent Claim (for example, a claim based on pending litigation) or in a wholly-unliquidated or unknown amount based on a reasonable review of the Proof of Claim and supporting documentation by the Debtors or its advisors that is not the subject of an objection will count for satisfying the numerosity requirement of section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code and will count in the amount of $1.00 for the purposes of satisfying the dollar amount requirement of section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, and, if a Proof of Claim is filed as partially liquidated and partially unliquidated, such Claim will be counted for voting purposes only in the liquidated amount; provided further, that to the extent the Claim amount contained in the Proof of Claim is different from the Claim amount set forth in a document filed with the Court as referenced in subparagraph (a) above, the Claim amount in the document filed with the Court shall supersede the Claim amount set forth on the Proof of Claim;

(d) the Claim amount listed in the Schedules, provided that such Claim (i) is not scheduled as contingent, disputed, or unliquidated and/or has not been paid (in which case, such contingent, disputed, or unliquidated scheduled Claim shall be disallowed for voting purposes) and (ii) has not been superseded by a timely filed proof of claim; and

(e) in the absence of any of the foregoing, such Claim shall be disallowed for voting purposes.

If a Proof of Claim is amended, the last timely-filed Claim shall be subject to these rules and will supersede any earlier filed claim, and any earlier filed Claim will be disallowed for voting purposes.

D. Tabulation Procedures

The following voting procedures and standard assumptions shall be used in tabulating Ballots, subject to the Debtors' right to waive any of the below specified requirements for completion and submission of Ballots, so long as such requirement is not otherwise required by the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules, or Local Rules:

(a) except as otherwise provided in the Solicitation and Voting Procedures, unless the Ballot being furnished is timely submitted on or prior to the Voting Deadline (as the same may be extended by the Debtors), the Debtors shall reject such Ballot as invalid and, therefore, shall not count it in connection with Confirmation of the Plan;

(b) the Solicitation Agent will date-stamp all Ballots when received. The Solicitation Agent shall retain the original Ballots and an electronic copy of the same for a period of one year after the Effective Date of the Plan, unless otherwise ordered by the Court;

(c) consistent with the requirements of Local Rule 3018-1, the Debtors will file with the Court, at least seven (7) days prior to the Confirmation Hearing, a certification of votes

(the "Voting Report"). The Voting Report shall, among other things, certify to the Court in writing the amount and number of Claims of each Class accepting or rejecting the Plan, and delineate every Ballot that does not conform to the voting instructions or that contains any form of irregularity including, but not limited to, those Ballots that are late or (in whole or in material part) illegible, unidentifiable, lacking signatures or lacking necessary information, received via facsimile or electronic mail, or damaged ("Irregular Ballots"). The Voting Report shall indicate the Debtors' intentions with regard to each such Irregular Ballot. The Voting Report shall be served upon the Committee and the U.S. Trustee;

(d) the method of delivery of Ballots to be sent to the Solicitation Agent is at the election and risk of each holder, and except as otherwise provided, a Ballot will be deemed delivered only when the Solicitation Agent actually receives the properly executed Ballot;

(e) delivery of a Ballot to the Solicitation Agent by facsimile, or any electronic means other than expressly provided in these Solicitation and Voting Procedures will not be valid;

(f) no Ballot should be sent to the Debtors, the Debtors' agents (other than the Solicitation Agent), the Debtors' financial or legal advisors, and if so sent will not be counted;

(g) if multiple Ballots are received from the same holder with respect to the same Claim prior to the Voting Deadline, the last properly executed Ballot timely received will be deemed to reflect that voter's intent and will supersede and revoke any prior Ballot;

(h) holders must vote all of their Claims within a particular Class either to accept or reject the Plan and may not split their votes. Accordingly, a Ballot (except for a Master Ballot) that partially rejects and partially accepts the Plan will not be counted. Further, to the extent a holder has multiple Claims within the same Class, the Debtors may, in their discretion, aggregate such Claims for the purpose of counting votes;

(i) a person signing a Ballot in its capacity as a trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, attorney in fact, officer of a corporation, or otherwise acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity of a holder of a Claim must indicate such capacity when signing;

(j) the Debtors, subject to a contrary order of the Court, may waive any defects or irregularities as to any particular irregular Ballot at any time, either before or after the close of voting, and any such waivers will be documented in the Voting Report;

(k) neither the Debtors, the Solicitation Agent, nor any other Entity, will be under any duty to provide notification of defects or irregularities with respect to delivered Ballots other than as provided in the Voting Report, nor will any of them incur any liability for failure to provide such notification;

(l) unless waived or as ordered by the Court, any defects or irregularities in connection with deliveries of Ballots must be cured prior to the Voting Deadline or such Ballots will not be counted;

(m) in the event a designation for lack of good faith is requested by a party in interest under section 1126(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court will determine whether any vote

to accept and/or reject the Plan cast with respect to that Claim will be counted for purposes of determining whether the Plan has been accepted or rejected;

(n) subject to any order of the Court, the Debtors reserve the right to reject any and all Ballots not in proper form, the acceptance of which, in the opinion of the Debtors, would not be in accordance with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code or the Bankruptcy Rules; provided that (i) any such rejections will be documented in the Voting Report and (ii) the Debtors shall consult with the Committee prior to rejecting any Ballot submitted by a holder of a Claim in Class 11;

(o) if a Claim has been estimated or otherwise Allowed for voting purposes only by order of the Court, such Claim shall be temporarily Allowed in the amount so estimated or Allowed by the Court for voting purposes only, and not for purposes of allowance or distribution;

(p) if an objection to a Claim is pending on the Voting Deadline, such Claim shall be treated in accordance with the procedures set forth herein;

(q) the following Ballots shall not be counted in determining the acceptance or rejection of the Plan: (i) any Ballot that is illegible or contains insufficient information to permit the identification of the holder of the relevant Claim; (ii) any Ballot cast by any Entity that does not hold a Claim in a Voting Class; (iii) any Ballot cast for a Claim scheduled as unliquidated, contingent, or disputed for which no Proof of Claim was timely filed; (iv) any unsigned Ballot or Ballot lacking an original signature (for the avoidance of doubt, a Ballot cast via the online balloting portal or a Master Ballot received from a Nominee will be deemed to be an original signature); (v) any Ballot not marked to accept or reject the Plan or marked both to accept and reject the Plan; and (vi) any Ballot submitted by any Entity not entitled to vote pursuant to the procedures described herein;

(r) after the Voting Deadline, no Ballot may be withdrawn or modified without the prior written consent of the Debtors;

(s) the Debtors are authorized to enter into stipulations with the holder of any Claim agreeing to the amount of a Claim for voting purposes; and

(t) where any portion of any Claim has been transferred to a transferee, all holders of any portion of such Claim will be: (i) treated as a single creditor for purposes of the numerosity requirements in section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code (and for the other voting and solicitation procedures set forth herein), and (ii) required to vote every portion of such Claim collectively to accept or reject the Plan. In the event that: (x) a Ballot, (y) a group of Ballots within a Voting Class received from a single creditor, or (z) a group of Ballots received from the holders of multiple portions of a single Claim partially reject and partially accept the Plan, such Ballots shall not be counted.

E. Master Ballot Voting and Tabulation Procedures

In addition to the foregoing generally applicable voting and ballot tabulation procedures, the following procedures shall apply to Beneficial Holders of Claims in Class 11 who hold their position through a broker, bank, or other nominee or an agent of a broker, bank, or other nominee (each of the foregoing, a "Nominee"):

(a) the Solicitation Agent shall distribute or cause to be distributed to each such Nominee (i) the number of Solicitation Packages sufficient to be distributed to each Beneficial Holder represented by such Nominee as of the Voting Record Date, which will contain Ballots for each such Beneficial Holder (each, a "Beneficial Holder Ballot"), and (ii) a master ballot (the "Master Ballot");

(b) each Nominee shall immediately, and in any event within five (5) business days after its receipt of the Solicitation Packages commence the solicitation of votes from its Beneficial Holder clients through one of the following two methods[4]:

(i) distribute to each Beneficial Holder the Solicitation Package along with a Beneficial Holder Ballot, voting information form ("VIF"), and/or other customary communication used by such Nominee to collect voting information from its Beneficial Holder clients along with instructions to the Beneficial Holder to return its vote to the Nominee in a timely fashion; or

(ii) distribute to each Beneficial Holder the Solicitation Package along with a "pre-validated" Beneficial Holder Ballot signed by the Nominee and including the Nominee's DTC participant number, the Beneficial Holder's account number, and the amount of Class 11 Claims held by the Nominee for such Beneficial Holder with instructions to the Beneficial Holder to return its pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballot to the Solicitation Agent in a timely fashion;

(c) each Nominee shall compile and validate the votes and other relevant information of all its Beneficial Holders on the Master Ballot; and transmit the Master Ballot to the Solicitation Agent in time for the Solicitation Agent to receive it on or before the Voting Deadline;

(d) Nominees that submit Master Ballots must keep the original Beneficial Holder Ballots, VIFs, or other communication used by their Beneficial Holders to transmit their votes for a period of one year after the Effective Date of the Plan;

(e) Nominees that pre-validate Beneficial Holder Ballots must keep a list of Beneficial Holders for whom they pre-validated a Beneficial Holder Ballot along with copies of the pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballots for a period of one (1) year after the Effective Date of the Plan;

[4] For the avoidance of doubt, if a Beneficial Holder has previously consented to receive such materials through its Nominee by email, the Debtors propose to honor that request and transmit (or cause to be transmitted) the Solicitation Package to the Beneficial Holder by email.

(f) the Solicitation Agent will not count votes of Beneficial Holders unless and until they are included on a valid and timely submitted Master Ballot or a valid and timely "pre-validated" Beneficial Holder Ballot;

(g) if a Beneficial Holder holds notes through more than one Nominee or through multiple accounts, such beneficial holder may receive more than one Beneficial Holder Ballot and each such Beneficial Holder must vote consistently and execute a separate Beneficial Holder Ballot for each block of Notes that it holds through any Nominee and must return each such Beneficial Holder Ballot to the appropriate Nominee;

(h) votes cast by Beneficial Holders through Nominees will be applied to the applicable positions held by such Nominees in the applicable Voting Class, as of the Voting Record Date, as evidenced by the record and depository listings. Votes submitted by a Nominee pursuant to a Master Ballot will not be counted in excess of the amount of the securities held by such Nominee as of the Voting Record Date;

(i) if conflicting votes or "over-votes" are submitted by a Nominee pursuant to a Master Ballot, the Solicitation Agent will use reasonable efforts to reconcile discrepancies with the Nominees. If over-votes on a Master Ballot are not reconciled prior to the preparation of the Voting Report, the Debtors shall apply the votes to accept and to reject the Plan in the same proportion as the votes to accept and to reject the Plan submitted on the Master Ballot that contained the over-vote, but only to the extent of the Nominee's position in the applicable Voting Class;

(j) a single Nominee may complete and deliver to the Solicitation Agent multiple Master Ballots. Votes reflected on multiple Master Ballots will be counted, except to the extent that they are duplicative of other Master Ballots. If two or more Master Ballots submitted by a single Nominee are inconsistent, the latest valid Master Ballot received prior to the Voting Deadline will, to the extent of such inconsistency, supersede and revoke any prior received Master Ballot. Likewise, if a Beneficial Holder submits more than one Beneficial Holder Ballot to its Nominee, (i) the latest Beneficial Holder Ballot received before the submission deadline imposed by the nominee shall be deemed to supersede any prior Beneficial Holder Ballot submitted by the Beneficial Holder, and (ii) the Nominee shall complete the Master Ballot accordingly; and

(k) the Debtors will, upon written request, reimburse nominees for customary mailing and handling expenses incurred by them in forwarding the Beneficial Holder Ballot and other enclosed materials to the Beneficial Holders for which they are the Nominee. No fees or commissions or other remuneration will be payable to any broker, dealer, or other person for soliciting the Beneficial Holder Ballot with respect to the Plan.

F. Amendments to the Plan and Solicitation and Voting Procedures

The Debtors reserve the right to make non-substantive or immaterial changes to the Disclosure Statement, Disclosure Statement Hearing Notice, Plan, Confirmation Hearing Notice, Solicitation Packages, Non-Voting Status Notices, Ballots, Cover Letter, Solicitation and Voting Procedures, Plan Supplement Notice, Assumption Notice, Tabulation Procedures, and related documents without further order of the Court, including changes to correct typographical and grammatical errors, if any, and to make conforming changes to the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, and any other materials in the Solicitation Packages before distribution. The Debtors shall include information regarding remote attendance at the Confirmation Hearing if the Confirmation Hearing is to be held remotely.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, (i) the releases set forth above do not release any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any assumed Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, or agreement or document that is created, amended, ratified, entered into, or Reinstated pursuant to the Plan (including the Exit Facility Documents, the Grupo Aval Exit Facility Agreement, the USAV Receivable Facility Agreement, the Engine Loan Agreement, and the Secured RCF Documents) and (ii) the releases set forth above do not release any post-Effective Date obligations of the Debtors under the Tranche B Equity Conversion Agreement, the United Asset Contribution Agreement, the United Agreements or the JBA Letter Agreement, or any Claims or Causes of Action for breach that any party to the Tranche B Equity Conversion Agreement, the United Asset Contribution Agreement, the United Agreements or the JBA Letter Agreement may have against any other party to those agreements.

Entry of the Confirmation Order shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's approval, pursuant to applicable bankruptcy law, of the releases described in this Article IX.E and shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's finding that such releases (a) are an essential means of implementing the Plan; (b) are an integral and non-severable element of the Plan and the transactions incorporated therein; (c) confer substantial benefits on the Debtors' Estates; (d) are in exchange for the good and valuable consideration provided by the Released Parties; (e) are a good-faith settlement and compromise of the Claims and Causes of Action released by this Article IX.E of the Plan; (f) are in the best interests of the Debtors, their Estates, and all holders of Claims and Interests; (g) are fair, equitable, and reasonable; (h) are given and made after due notice and opportunity for hearing; and (i) are a bar to any of the parties deemed to grant the releases contained in this Article IX.E of the Plan asserting any Claim or Cause of Action released by the releases contained in this Article IX.E of the Plan against any of the Released Parties.

The releases described in this Article IX.E shall, on the Effective Date, have the effect of res judicata (a matter adjudged), to the fullest extent permissible under applicable laws of the Republic of Colombia and any other jurisdiction in which the Debtors operate.

Article IX of the Plan provides for an exculpation (the "Exculpation"):

Without affecting or limiting the releases set forth in Article IX.D and Article IX.E of the Plan, and notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, no Exculpated Party shall have or incur, and each Exculpated Party shall be released and exculpated from, any claim or Cause of Action in connection with or arising out of the administration of the Chapter 11 Cases; the negotiation and pursuit of the DIP Facility, the Exit Facility, the Disclosure Statement, any settlement or other acts approved by the Bankruptcy Court, the Tranche B Equity Conversion Agreement, the United Asset Contribution Agreement, the Restructuring Transactions, the Secured RCF Documents, and the Plan, or the solicitation of votes for, or confirmation of, the Plan; the funding of the Plan;

the occurrence of the Effective Date; the administration and implementation of the Plan or the property to be distributed under the Plan; the issuance or distribution of securities under or in connection with the Plan; the issuance, distribution, purchase, sale, or rescission of the purchase or sale of any security of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors under or in connection with the Plan; or the transactions in furtherance of any of the foregoing; other than claims or liabilities arising out of or relating to any act or omission of an Exculpated Party that is determined by a Final Order of a court of competent jurisdiction to have constituted willful misconduct, intentional fraud, or gross negligence, but in all respects such Exculpated Parties shall be entitled to reasonably rely upon the advice of counsel with respect to their duties and responsibilities. The Exculpated Parties have, and upon implementation of the Plan, shall be deemed to have, participated in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws with regard to the solicitation of, and distribution of, consideration pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such distributions made pursuant to the Plan. This exculpation shall be in addition to, and not in limitation of, all other releases, indemnities, exculpations, and any other applicable laws, rules, or regulations protecting such Exculpated Parties from liability. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the exculpation set forth above does not exculpate any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, the Exit Facility, the Secured RCF Documents, or any assumed Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease.

6. The Master Ballot must be returned to the Solicitation Agent so as to be actually received by the Solicitation Agent on or before the Voting Deadline. The Voting Deadline is October 15, 2021, prevailing Eastern Time.

   b. any Master Ballot sent by facsimile or any electronic means other than electronic mail;

   c. any unsigned Master Ballot;

   d. any Master Ballot that does not contain an original signature provided however, that any Master Ballot submitted via electronic mail shall be deemed to contain an original signature; and

   e. any Master Ballot submitted by any party not entitled to cast a vote with respect to the Plan.[1]

8. The method of delivery of Master Ballots to the Solicitation Agent is at the election and risk of each Nominee. Except as otherwise provided herein, such delivery will be deemed made only when the Solicitation Agent actually receives the executed Master Ballot. In all cases, the Nominees should allow sufficient time to assure timely delivery.

9. If a Beneficial Holder holds a Claim in a Voting Class against multiple Debtors, its vote will apply to all applicable Classes and Debtors against whom such Beneficial Holder holds Claims.

[1] Any holder of 2023 Notes who participated in the DIP Roll-Up is not entitled to vote on the Plan.

14. The following additional rules shall apply to Master Ballots:

    a. Votes cast by Beneficial Holders through a Nominee will be applied against the positions held by such Nominee as of the Voting Record Date, as evidenced by the record and depository listings.

    b. Votes submitted by a Nominee, whether pursuant to a Master Ballot or pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballots, will not be counted in excess of the record amount of the Claims held by such Nominee;

    c. To the extent that conflicting votes or "over-votes" are submitted by a Nominee, whether pursuant to a Master Ballot or pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballots, the Solicitation Agent will attempt to reconcile discrepancies with the Nominee;

    d. To the extent that over-votes on a Master Ballot or pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballots are not reconcilable prior to the preparation of the vote certification, the Solicitation Agent will apply the votes to accept and reject the Plan in the same proportion as the votes to accept and reject the Plan submitted on the Master Ballot or pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballots that contained the over-vote, but only to the extent of the Nominee's position in the Claims; and

    e. For purposes of tabulating votes, each holder holding through a particular account will be deemed to have voted the principal amount relating its holding in that particular account, although the Solicitation Agent may be asked to adjust such principal amount to reflect the claim amount.

Please return your Master Ballot promptly.

purchase or sale of any security of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors; the assumption, rejection or amendment of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease; the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that received treatment pursuant to the Plan; the business or contractual arrangements between any Debtor and any Released Party; the restructuring of Claims and Interests before or during the Chapter 11 Cases; and the negotiation, formulation, preparation, consummation, or dissemination of (i) the Plan (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Plan Supplement), (ii) the Exit Facility Documents, (iii) the Disclosure Statement, (iv) the Noteholder RSA, (v) the Tranche B Equity Conversion Agreement, (vi) the United Asset Contribution Agreement, (vii) the DIP Facility Documents, or (viii) related agreements, instruments, or other documents, upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date, other than claims or liabilities arising out of or relating to any act or omission of a Released Party that is determined by a Final Order of a court of competent jurisdiction to have constituted willful misconduct, intentional fraud, or gross negligence (collectively, the "Released Claims"). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, (i) the releases set forth above do not release any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any assumed Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, or agreement or document that is created, amended, ratified, entered into, or Reinstated pursuant to the Plan (including the Exit Facility Documents, the Grupo Aval Exit Facility Agreement, the USAV Receivable Facility Agreement, the Engine Loan Agreement, and the Secured RCF Documents) and (ii) the releases set forth above do not release any post-Effective Date obligations of the Debtors under the Tranche B Equity Conversion Agreement, the United Asset Contribution Agreement, the United Agreements or the JBA Letter Agreement, or any Claims or Causes of Action for breach that any party to the Tranche B Equity Conversion Agreement, the United Asset Contribution Agreement, the United Agreements or the JBA Letter Agreement may have against any other party to those agreements.

Entry of the Confirmation Order shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's approval, pursuant to applicable bankruptcy law, of the releases described in this Article IX.E and shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's finding that such releases (a) are an essential means of implementing the Plan; (b) are an integral and non-severable element of the Plan and the transactions incorporated therein; (c) confer substantial benefits on the Debtors' Estates; (d) are in exchange for the good and valuable consideration provided by the Released Parties; (e) are a good-faith settlement and compromise of the Claims and Causes of Action released by this Article IX.E of the Plan; (f) are in the best interests of the Debtors, their Estates, and all holders of Claims and Interests; (g) are fair, equitable, and reasonable; (h) are given and made after due notice and opportunity for hearing; and (i) are a bar to any of the parties deemed to grant the releases contained in this Article IX.E of the Plan asserting any Claim or Cause of Action released by the releases contained in this Article IX.E of the Plan against any of the Released Parties.

The releases described in this Article IX.E shall, on the Effective Date, have the effect of res judicata (a matter adjudged), to the fullest extent permissible under applicable laws of the Republic of Colombia and any other jurisdiction in which the Debtors operate.

Article IX of the Plan provides for an exculpation (the "Exculpation"):

Without affecting or limiting the releases set forth in Article IX.D and Article IX.E of the Plan, and notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, no Exculpated Party shall have or incur, and each Exculpated Party shall be released and exculpated from, any claim or Cause of Action in connection with or arising out of the administration of the Chapter 11 Cases; the negotiation and pursuit of the DIP Facility, the Exit Facility, the Disclosure Statement, any settlement or other acts approved by the Bankruptcy Court, the Tranche B Equity Conversion Agreement, the United Asset Contribution Agreement, the Restructuring Transactions, the Secured RCF Documents, and the Plan, or the solicitation of votes for, or confirmation of, the Plan; the funding of the Plan; the occurrence of the Effective Date; the administration and implementation of the Plan or the property to be distributed under the Plan; the issuance or distribution of securities under or in connection with the Plan; the issuance, distribution, purchase, sale, or rescission of the purchase or sale of any security of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors under or in connection with the Plan; or the transactions in furtherance of any of the foregoing; other than claims or liabilities arising out of or relating to any act or omission of an Exculpated Party that is determined by a Final Order of a court of competent jurisdiction to have constituted willful misconduct, intentional fraud, or gross negligence, but in all respects such Exculpated Parties shall be entitled to reasonably rely upon the advice of counsel with respect to their duties and responsibilities. The Exculpated Parties have, and upon implementation of the Plan, shall be deemed to have, participated in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws with regard to the solicitation of, and distribution of, consideration pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such distributions made pursuant to the Plan. This exculpation shall be in addition to, and not in limitation of, all other releases, indemnities, exculpations, and any other applicable laws, rules, or regulations protecting such Exculpated Parties from liability. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the exculpation set forth above does not exculpate any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, the Exit Facility, the Secured RCF Documents, or any assumed Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, (i) any Entity or Person that opts out of the releases set forth in Article IX.E of the Plan on its Ballot shall not be deemed a Released Party; (ii) any director or officer of the Debtors whose term of service lapsed prior to July 1, 2019 and who did not subsequently hold a director or officer position with any of the Debtors after such date shall not be deemed a Released Party; and (iii) any Entity or Person that would otherwise be a Released Party hereunder but is party to one or more Retained Causes of Action shall not be deemed a Released Party with respect to such Retained Causes of Action.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, (1) the releases set forth above do not release any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, the Exit Facility, or any assumed Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease; and (2) the releases set forth above do not release any claims or Causes of Action of the Debtors against parties to the Tranche B Equity Conversion Agreement and the United Asset Contribution Agreement for any breach of the provisions thereof; and (3) the releases set forth above shall be effective with respect to a Released Party if and only if the releases granted by such Released Party pursuant to Article IX.E of the Plan are enforceable in the jurisdiction(s) in which the Released Claims may be asserted under applicable law.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, (i) the releases set forth above do not release any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any assumed Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, or agreement or document that is created, amended, ratified, entered into, or Reinstated pursuant to the Plan (including the Exit Facility Documents, the Grupo Aval Exit Facility Agreement, the USAV Receivable Facility Agreement, the Engine Loan Agreement, and the Secured RCF Documents) and (ii) the releases set forth above do not release any post-Effective Date obligations of the Debtors under the Tranche B Equity Conversion Agreement, the United Asset Contribution Agreement, the United Agreements or the JBA Letter Agreement, or any Claims or Causes of Action for breach that any party to the Tranche B Equity Conversion Agreement, the United Asset Contribution Agreement, the United Agreements or the JBA Letter Agreement may have against any other party to those agreements.

Entry of the Confirmation Order shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's approval, pursuant to applicable bankruptcy law, of the releases described in this Article IX.E and shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's finding that such releases (a) are an essential means of implementing the Plan; (b) are an integral and non-severable element of the Plan and the transactions incorporated therein; (c) confer substantial benefits on the Debtors' Estates; (d) are in exchange for the good and valuable consideration provided by the Released Parties; (e) are a good-faith settlement and compromise of the Claims and Causes of Action released by this Article IX.E of the Plan; (f) are in the best interests of the Debtors, their Estates, and all holders of Claims and Interests; (g) are fair, equitable, and reasonable; (h) are given and made after due notice and opportunity for hearing; and (i) are a bar to any of the parties deemed to grant the releases contained in this Article IX.E of the Plan asserting any Claim or Cause of Action released by the releases contained in this Article IX.E of the Plan against any of the Released Parties.

The releases described in this Article IX.E shall, on the Effective Date, have the effect of res judicata (a matter adjudged), to the fullest extent permissible under applicable laws of the Republic of Colombia and any other jurisdiction in which the Debtors operate.

Article IX of the Plan provides for an exculpation (the "Exculpation"):

Without affecting or limiting the releases set forth in Article IX.D and Article IX.E of the Plan, and notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, no Exculpated Party shall have or incur, and each Exculpated Party shall be released and exculpated from, any claim or Cause of Action in connection with or arising out of the administration of the Chapter 11 Cases; the negotiation and pursuit of the DIP Facility, the Exit Facility, the Disclosure Statement, any settlement or other acts approved by the Bankruptcy Court, the Tranche B Equity Conversion Agreement, the United Asset Contribution Agreement, the Restructuring Transactions, the Secured RCF Documents, and the Plan, or the solicitation of votes for, or confirmation of, the Plan; the funding of the Plan; the occurrence of the Effective Date; the administration and implementation of the Plan or the property to be distributed under the Plan; the issuance or distribution of securities under or in connection with the Plan; the issuance, distribution, purchase, sale, or rescission of the purchase or sale of any security of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors under or in connection with the Plan; or the transactions in furtherance of any of the foregoing; other than claims or liabilities arising out of or relating to any act or omission of an Exculpated Party that is determined by a Final Order of a court of competent jurisdiction to have constituted willful misconduct, intentional fraud, or gross negligence, but in all respects such Exculpated Parties shall be entitled to reasonably rely upon the advice of counsel with respect to their duties and responsibilities. The Exculpated Parties have, and upon implementation of the Plan, shall be deemed to have, participated in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws with regard to the solicitation of, and distribution of, consideration pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such distributions made pursuant to the Plan. This exculpation shall be in addition to, and not in limitation of, all other releases, indemnities, exculpations, and any other applicable laws, rules, or regulations protecting such Exculpated Parties from liability. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the exculpation set forth above does not exculpate any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, the Exit Facility, the Secured RCF Documents, or any assumed Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease.

Article IX of the Plan provides for an injunction (the "Injunction"):

Re: In re Avianca Holdings S.A., et al., Chapter 11 Case No. 20-11133 (MG) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y.)

TO ALL HOLDERS OF CLAIMS ENTITLED TO VOTE ON THE PLAN:

Avianca Holdings S.A. and the other above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors")[1] each filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Court") on May 10, 2020.

You have received this letter and the enclosed materials because you are entitled to vote on the Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Avianca Holdings S.A. and Its Affiliated Debtors (as modified, amended, or supplemented from time to time, the "Plan"). You should read this letter carefully and discuss it with your attorney. If you do not have an attorney, you may wish to consult one.

The Plan contains release, exculpation, and injunction provisions. If you do not vote to accept the Plan, you may opt out of the Third-Party Release provisions by checking the box in Item 3 of your Ballot.

[1] The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases (the "Chapter 11 Cases"), and each Debtor's federal tax identification number (to the extent applicable), are as follows: Avianca Holdings S.A. [2] Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the same meanings set forth in the Plan or Disclosure Statement, as applicable.

In addition to this cover letter, the enclosed materials comprise your Solicitation Package, and were approved by the Court for distribution to holders of Claims in connection with the solicitation of votes to accept the Plan. The Solicitation Package consists of the following:

a. a copy of the Solicitation and Voting Procedures;

b. a Ballot, together with detailed voting instructions and a return envelope;

c. this letter;

d. the Disclosure Statement, as approved by the Court (and exhibits thereto, including the Plan);

e. the Disclosure Statement Order (excluding the exhibits thereto except the Solicitation and Voting Procedures);

f. the Confirmation Hearing Notice; and

g. such other materials as the Court may direct.

The Debtors have approved the filing of the Plan and the solicitation of votes to accept the Plan. The Debtors believe that the acceptance of the Plan is in the best interests of their estates, holders of Claims and Interests, and all other parties in interest. Moreover, the Debtors believe that any alternative to the Confirmation of the Plan could result in extensive delays, increase administrative expenses, and a greater number of unsecured creditors, which, in turn, likely would result in smaller distributions (or no distributions) on account of Claims asserted in these chapter 11 cases.

The Debtors strongly urge you to timely submit your properly executed Ballot casting a vote to accept the Plan in accordance with the instructions in your Ballot. The Voting Deadline is October 15, 2021, at 4:00 p.m., prevailing Eastern Time.

The materials in the Solicitation Package are intended to be self-explanatory. If you have any questions, however, please feel free to contact Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC, the Solicitation Agent retained by the Debtors in these chapter 11 cases (the "Solicitation Agent"), by: (a) calling the Debtors' restructuring hotline at (866) 967-1780 or, for international callers, +1 (310) 751-2680; (b) visiting the Debtors' restructuring website at: http://www.kccllc.net/avianca; and/or (c) writing to Avianca Ballot Processing Center, c/o KCC, 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300, El Segundo, CA 90245. You may also obtain copies of any pleadings filed in these chapter 11 cases for a fee via PACER at: http://www.nysb.uscourts.gov. Please be advised that the Solicitation Agent is authorized to answer questions about, and provide additional copies of solicitation materials, but may not advise you as to whether you should vote to accept or reject the Plan.

Sincerely,

Avianca Holdings S.A. on its own behalf and for each of the other Debtors

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT the deadline for voting on the Plan is on October 15, 2021, at 4:00 p.m., prevailing Eastern Time (the "Voting Deadline"). Supplement on [●], 2021, as contemplated under the Plan. The determination to assume the agreements identified on the Assumption Schedule was made as of [●], 2021 and is subject to revision.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT you are receiving this Notice because the Debtors' records reflect that you are a party to an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that will be assumed pursuant to the Plan. Therefore, you are advised to review carefully the information contained in this Notice, the Assumption Schedule, and the related provisions of the Plan.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT the hearing at which the Court will consider confirmation of the Plan (the "Confirmation Hearing") will commence on October 26, 2021, at 10:00 a.m., prevailing Eastern Time, before the Honorable Martin Glenn, in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, located at One Bowling Green, New York, NY 10004.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that the Debtors are proposing to assume the Executory Contract(s) and Unexpired Lease(s) listed on Exhibit A, attached hereto, to which you are a party.[3]

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires a chapter 11 debtor to cure, or provide adequate assurance that it will promptly cure, any defaults under executory contracts and unexpired leases at the time of assumption. Accordingly, the Debtors have conducted a thorough review of their books and records and have determined the amounts required to cure defaults, if any, under the Executory Contract(s) and Unexpired Lease(s) listed on Exhibit A, which amounts are listed therein. Please note that if no amount is stated for a particular Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, the Debtors believe that there is no cure amount owing for such contract or lease.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT any Cure Claims shall be satisfied for the purposes of section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, by payment in Cash, on the Effective Date or as soon as reasonably practicable thereafter, of the cure amount set forth on the Schedule of Assumed Contracts for the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, or on such other terms as the parties to such Executory Contracts or Unexpired Leases and the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, may otherwise agree. Any Cure Claim shall be deemed fully satisfied, released, and discharged upon the payment of the Cure Claim. The Debtors may settle any Cure Claim without any further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

[3] Neither the exclusion nor inclusion of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease on the Assumption Schedule, nor anything contained in the Plan or each Debtor's schedule of assets and liabilities, constitutes an admission by the Debtors that any such contract or lease is in fact an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease capable of assumption, that any Debtor(s) has any liability thereunder, or that such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease is necessarily a binding and enforceable agreement. Further, the Debtors expressly reserve the right to (a) remove any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease from the Assumption Schedule and reject such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the terms of the Plan, up until the Effective Date and (b) contest any Claim (or cure amount) asserted in connection with assumption of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT the deadline for filing objections to the Plan is October 19, 2021, at 4:00 p.m., prevailing Eastern Time. Any objection to the Plan must: (a) be in writing; (b) conform to the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and any orders of the Court; (c) state, with particularity, the basis and nature of any objection to the Plan and, if practicable, a proposed modification to the Plan that would resolve such objection; and (d) be filed with the Court (contemporaneously with a proof of service) and served upon the following parties so as to be actually received on or before October 19, 2021, at 4:00 p.m., prevailing Eastern Time:

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT any objection to the assumption of an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease under the Plan (other than those Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases that were previously assumed by the Debtors or are the subject of a motion or notice to assume or assume and assign filed on or before the Confirmation Date) must be filed, served and actually received by the Debtors no later than seven (7) days prior to the Confirmation Hearing; provided, that, if the Debtors file an amended Schedule of Assumed Contracts (the "Amended Schedule of Assumed Contracts") prior to the Confirmation Hearing, then, with respect to any lessor or counterparty affected by such Amended Schedule of Assumed Contracts, objections to the assumption of the relevant Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease must be filed by the earlier of (i) seven (7) days from the date the Amended Schedule of Assumed Contracts is filed and (ii) the Confirmation Hearing; provided, further, that if the Debtors file an Amended Schedule of Assumed Contracts after the Confirmation Hearing, but prior to the Effective Date, then, with respect to any lessor or counterparty affected by such Amended Schedule of Assumed Contracts, objections to the assumption of the relevant Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease must be filed by seven (7) days from the date the Amended Schedule of Assumed Contracts is filed; provided, further, that the Debtors may file an Amended Schedule of Assumed Contracts after the Effective Date with the consent of the lessors or counterparties affected by such Amended Schedule of Assumed Contracts. Any counterparty to an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that fails to timely object to the proposed assumption of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease will be deemed to have consented to such assumption.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT in the event of a timely filed objection regarding (i) the amount of any Cure Claim; (ii) the ability of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors to provide "adequate assurance of future performance" (within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code) under an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease to be assumed; or (iii) any other matter pertaining to assumption or the cure of defaults required by section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code (each, an "Assumption Dispute"), such dispute shall be resolved by a Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court (which may be the Confirmation Order) or as may be agreed upon by the Debtors and the counterparty to the Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. During the pendency of an Assumption Dispute, the applicable counterparty shall continue to perform under the applicable Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT assumption of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the Plan shall result in the full release and satisfaction of any Claims or defaults, whether monetary or nonmonetary, including defaults of provisions restricting the change in control or ownership interest composition or other bankruptcy-related defaults, arising under any such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease at any time before the date that the Debtors assume or assume and assign such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease. Subject to the resolution of any timely objections in accordance with Article VI.C of the Plan, any Proofs of Claim filed with respect to an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that has been assumed or assumed and assigned shall be deemed Disallowed and expunged, without further notice to or action, order, or approval of the Bankruptcy Court.

B. Establishing Claim Amounts for Voting Purposes

The voting amounts for 2020 Notes Claims will be the principal amount of 2020 Notes held by each directly registered holder as of the Voting Record Date as evidenced on the books and records of the 2020 Notes Indenture Trustee or, as the case may be, in the amount of 2020 Notes held by each Beneficial Holder through its Nominee (as defined below) as of the Voting Record Date as evidenced by the securities position report(s) from the Depository Trust Company ("DTC").

The voting amounts for 2023 Notes Claims will be the principal amount of 2023 Notes held by each directly registered holder as of the Voting Record Date as evidenced on the books and records of the 2023 Notes Indenture Trustee or, as the case may be, in the amount of 2023 Notes held by each Beneficial Holder through its Nominee as of the Voting Record Date as evidenced by the securities position report(s) from DTC.

Beneficial Holders of 2023 Notes who participated in the DIP Roll-Up no longer have any General Unsecured Avianca Claims on account of their 2023 Notes. Because those Beneficial Holders have withdrawn their 2023 Notes from registration through the Depository Trust Company (DTC), they will not receive a Beneficial Holder Ballot when the Voting Agent distributes Beneficial Holder Ballots through DTC participants. Furthermore, each Beneficial Holder of 2023 Notes Claims will be required to provide a certification on its Beneficial Holder Ballot that it did not participate in the DIP Roll-Up.

C. Filed and Scheduled Claims

The Claim amount established herein shall control for voting purposes only and shall not constitute the Allowed amount of any Claim. Moreover, any amounts filled in on any Ballot by the Debtors through the Solicitation Agent, as applicable, are not binding for purposes of allowance and distribution. In tabulating votes, the following methodology shall be used to determine the amount of the Claim associated with each claimant's vote:

(a) the Claim amount: (i) settled and/or agreed upon by the Debtors, as reflected in a document filed with the Court; (ii) set forth in an order of the Court; or (iii) set forth in a document executed by the Debtors pursuant to authority granted by the Court;

(b) the Claim amount Allowed (temporarily or otherwise) pursuant to a Resolution Event under the procedures set forth in the Solicitation and Voting Procedures;

(c) the Claim amount contained in a Proof of Claim that has been timely filed (or deemed timely filed by the Court under applicable law), except for any amounts asserted on account of any interest accrued after the Petition Date; provided that Ballots cast by holders of Claims who timely file a Proof of Claim in respect of a contingent Claim (for example, a claim based on pending litigation) or in a wholly-unliquidated or unknown amount based on a reasonable review of the Proof of Claim and supporting documentation by the Debtors or its advisors that is not the subject of an objection will count for satisfying the numerosity requirement of section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code and will count in the amount of $1.00 for the purposes of satisfying the dollar amount requirement of section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, and, if a Proof of Claim is filed as partially liquidated and partially unliquidated, such Claim will be counted for voting purposes only in the liquidated amount; provided further, that to the extent the Claim amount contained in the Proof of Claim is different from the Claim amount set forth in a document filed with the Court as referenced in subparagraph (a) above, the Claim amount in the document filed with the Court shall supersede the Claim amount set forth on the Proof of Claim;

(d) the Claim amount listed in the Schedules, provided that such Claim (i) is not scheduled as contingent, disputed, or unliquidated and/or has not been paid (in which case, such contingent, disputed, or unliquidated scheduled Claim shall be disallowed for voting purposes) and (ii) has not been superseded by a timely filed proof of claim; and

(e) in the absence of any of the foregoing, such Claim shall be disallowed for voting purposes.

If a Proof of Claim is amended, the last timely-filed Claim shall be subject to these rules and will supersede any earlier filed claim, and any earlier filed Claim will be disallowed for voting purposes.

D. Tabulation Procedures

The following voting procedures and standard assumptions shall be used in tabulating Ballots, subject to the Debtors' right to waive any of the below specified requirements for completion and submission of Ballots, so long as such requirement is not otherwise required by the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rules, or Local Rules:

(a) except as otherwise provided in the Solicitation and Voting Procedures, unless the Ballot being furnished is timely submitted on or prior to the Voting Deadline (as the same may be extended by the Debtors), the Debtors shall reject such Ballot as invalid and, therefore, shall not count it in connection with Confirmation of the Plan;

(b) the Solicitation Agent will date-stamp all Ballots when received. The Solicitation Agent shall retain the original Ballots and an electronic copy of the same for a period of one year after the Effective Date of the Plan, unless otherwise ordered by the Court;

(c) consistent with the requirements of Local Rule 3018-1, the Debtors will file with the Court, at least seven (7) days prior to the Confirmation Hearing, a certification of votes

(the "Voting Report"). The Voting Report shall, among other things, certify to the Court in writing the amount and number of Claims of each Class accepting or rejecting the Plan, and delineate every Ballot that does not conform to the voting instructions or that contains any form of irregularity including, but not limited to, those Ballots that are late or (in whole or in material part) illegible, unidentifiable, lacking signatures or lacking necessary information, received via facsimile or electronic mail, or damaged ("Irregular Ballots"). The Voting Report shall indicate the Debtors' intentions with regard to each such Irregular Ballot. The Voting Report shall be served upon the Committee and the U.S. Trustee;

(d) the method of delivery of Ballots to be sent to the Solicitation Agent is at the election and risk of each holder, and except as otherwise provided, a Ballot will be deemed delivered only when the Solicitation Agent actually receives the properly executed Ballot;

(e) delivery of a Ballot to the Solicitation Agent by facsimile, or any electronic means other than expressly provided in these Solicitation and Voting Procedures will not be valid;

(f) no Ballot should be sent to the Debtors, the Debtors' agents (other than the Solicitation Agent), the Debtors' financial or legal advisors, and if so sent will not be counted;

(g) if multiple Ballots are received from the same holder with respect to the same Claim prior to the Voting Deadline, the last properly executed Ballot timely received will be deemed to reflect that voter's intent and will supersede and revoke any prior Ballot;

(h) holders must vote all of their Claims within a particular Class either to accept or reject the Plan and may not split their votes. Accordingly, a Ballot (except for a Master Ballot) that partially rejects and partially accepts the Plan will not be counted. Further, to the extent a holder has multiple Claims within the same Class, the Debtors may, in their discretion, aggregate such Claims for the purpose of counting votes;

(i) a person signing a Ballot in its capacity as a trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, attorney in fact, officer of a corporation, or otherwise acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity of a holder of a Claim must indicate such capacity when signing;

(j) the Debtors, subject to a contrary order of the Court, may waive any defects or irregularities as to any particular irregular Ballot at any time, either before or after the close of voting, and any such waivers will be documented in the Voting Report;

(k) neither the Debtors, the Solicitation Agent, nor any other Entity, will be under any duty to provide notification of defects or irregularities with respect to delivered Ballots other than as provided in the Voting Report, nor will any of them incur any liability for failure to provide such notification;

(l) unless waived or as ordered by the Court, any defects or irregularities in connection with deliveries of Ballots must be cured prior to the Voting Deadline or such Ballots will not be counted;

(m) in the event a designation for lack of good faith is requested by a party in interest under section 1126(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court will determine whether any vote

to accept and/or reject the Plan cast with respect to that Claim will be counted for purposes of determining whether the Plan has been accepted or rejected;

(n) subject to any order of the Court, the Debtors reserve the right to reject any and all Ballots not in proper form, the acceptance of which, in the opinion of the Debtors, would not be in accordance with the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code or the Bankruptcy Rules; provided that (i) any such rejections will be documented in the Voting Report and (ii) the Debtors shall consult with the Committee prior to rejecting any Ballot submitted by a holder of a Claim in Class 11;

(o) if a Claim has been estimated or otherwise Allowed for voting purposes only by order of the Court, such Claim shall be temporarily Allowed in the amount so estimated or Allowed by the Court for voting purposes only, and not for purposes of allowance or distribution;

(p) if an objection to a Claim is pending on the Voting Deadline, such Claim shall be treated in accordance with the procedures set forth herein;

(q) the following Ballots shall not be counted in determining the acceptance or rejection of the Plan: (i) any Ballot that is illegible or contains insufficient information to permit the identification of the holder of the relevant Claim; (ii) any Ballot cast by any Entity that does not hold a Claim in a Voting Class; (iii) any Ballot cast for a Claim scheduled as unliquidated, contingent, or disputed for which no Proof of Claim was timely filed; (iv) any unsigned Ballot or Ballot lacking an original signature (for the avoidance of doubt, a Ballot cast via the online balloting portal or a Master Ballot received from a Nominee will be deemed to be an original signature); (v) any Ballot not marked to accept or reject the Plan or marked both to accept and reject the Plan; and (vi) any Ballot submitted by any Entity not entitled to vote pursuant to the procedures described herein;

(r) after the Voting Deadline, no Ballot may be withdrawn or modified without the prior written consent of the Debtors;

(s) the Debtors are authorized to enter into stipulations with the holder of any Claim agreeing to the amount of a Claim for voting purposes; and

(t) where any portion of any Claim has been transferred to a transferee, all holders of any portion of such Claim will be: (i) treated as a single creditor for purposes of the numerosity requirements in section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code (and for the other voting and solicitation procedures set forth herein), and (ii) required to vote every portion of such Claim collectively to accept or reject the Plan. In the event that: (x) a Ballot, (y) a group of Ballots within a Voting Class received from a single creditor, or (z) a group of Ballots received from the holders of multiple portions of a single Claim partially reject and partially accept the Plan, such Ballots shall not be counted.

E. Master Ballot Voting and Tabulation Procedures

In addition to the foregoing generally applicable voting and ballot tabulation procedures, the following procedures shall apply to Beneficial Holders of Claims in Class 11 who hold their position through a broker, bank, or other nominee or an agent of a broker, bank, or other nominee (each of the foregoing, a "Nominee"):

(a) the Solicitation Agent shall distribute or cause to be distributed to each such Nominee (i) the number of Solicitation Packages sufficient to be distributed to each Beneficial Holder represented by such Nominee as of the Voting Record Date, which will contain Ballots for each such Beneficial Holder (each, a "Beneficial Holder Ballot"), and (ii) a master ballot (the "Master Ballot");

(b) each Nominee shall immediately, and in any event within five (5) business days after its receipt of the Solicitation Packages commence the solicitation of votes from its Beneficial Holder clients through one of the following two methods[4]:

(i) distribute to each Beneficial Holder the Solicitation Package along with a Beneficial Holder Ballot, voting information form ("VIF"), and/or other customary communication used by such Nominee to collect voting information from its Beneficial Holder clients along with instructions to the Beneficial Holder to return its vote to the Nominee in a timely fashion; or

(ii) distribute to each Beneficial Holder the Solicitation Package along with a "pre-validated" Beneficial Holder Ballot signed by the Nominee and including the Nominee's DTC participant number, the Beneficial Holder's account number, and the amount of Class 11 Claims held by the Nominee for such Beneficial Holder with instructions to the Beneficial Holder to return its pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballot to the Solicitation Agent in a timely fashion;

(c) each Nominee shall compile and validate the votes and other relevant information of all its Beneficial Holders on the Master Ballot; and transmit the Master Ballot to the Solicitation Agent in time for the Solicitation Agent to receive it on or before the Voting Deadline;

(d) Nominees that submit Master Ballots must keep the original Beneficial Holder Ballots, VIFs, or other communication used by their Beneficial Holders to transmit their votes for a period of one year after the Effective Date of the Plan;

(e) Nominees that pre-validate Beneficial Holder Ballots must keep a list of Beneficial Holders for whom they pre-validated a Beneficial Holder Ballot along with copies of the pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballots for a period of one (1) year after the Effective Date of the Plan;

4 For the avoidance of doubt, if a Beneficial Holder has previously consented to receive such materials through its Nominee by email, the Debtors propose to honor that request and transmit (or cause to be transmitted) the Solicitation Package to the Beneficial Holder by email.

(f) the Solicitation Agent will not count votes of Beneficial Holders unless and until they are included on a valid and timely submitted Master Ballot or a valid and timely "pre-validated" Beneficial Holder Ballot;

(g) if a Beneficial Holder holds notes through more than one Nominee or through multiple accounts, such beneficial holder may receive more than one Beneficial Holder Ballot and each such Beneficial Holder must vote consistently and execute a separate Beneficial Holder Ballot for each block of Notes that it holds through any Nominee and must return each such Beneficial Holder Ballot to the appropriate Nominee;

(h) votes cast by Beneficial Holders through Nominees will be applied to the applicable positions held by such Nominees in the applicable Voting Class, as of the Voting Record Date, as evidenced by the record and depository listings. Votes submitted by a Nominee pursuant to a Master Ballot will not be counted in excess of the amount of the securities held by such Nominee as of the Voting Record Date;

(i) if conflicting votes or "over-votes" are submitted by a Nominee pursuant to a Master Ballot, the Solicitation Agent will use reasonable efforts to reconcile discrepancies with the Nominees. If over-votes on a Master Ballot are not reconciled prior to the preparation of the Voting Report, the Debtors shall apply the votes to accept and to reject the Plan in the same proportion as the votes to accept and to reject the Plan submitted on the Master Ballot that contained the over-vote, but only to the extent of the Nominee's position in the applicable Voting Class;

(j) a single Nominee may complete and deliver to the Solicitation Agent multiple Master Ballots. Votes reflected on multiple Master Ballots will be counted, except to the extent that they are duplicative of other Master Ballots. If two or more Master Ballots submitted by a single Nominee are inconsistent, the latest valid Master Ballot received prior to the Voting Deadline will, to the extent of such inconsistency, supersede and revoke any prior received Master Ballot. Likewise, if a Beneficial Holder submits more than one Beneficial Holder Ballot to its Nominee, (i) the latest Beneficial Holder Ballot received before the submission deadline imposed by the nominee shall be deemed to supersede any prior Beneficial Holder Ballot submitted by the Beneficial Holder, and (ii) the Nominee shall complete the Master Ballot accordingly; and

(k) the Debtors will, upon written request, reimburse nominees for customary mailing and handling expenses incurred by them in forwarding the Beneficial Holder Ballot and other enclosed materials to the Beneficial Holders for which they are the Nominee. No fees or commissions or other remuneration will be payable to any broker, dealer, or other person for soliciting the Beneficial Holder Ballot with respect to the Plan.

F. Amendments to the Plan and Solicitation and Voting Procedures

The Debtors reserve the right to make non-substantive or immaterial changes to the Disclosure Statement, Disclosure Statement Hearing Notice, Plan, Confirmation Hearing Notice, Solicitation Packages, Non-Voting Status Notices, Ballots, Cover Letter, Solicitation and Voting Procedures, Plan Supplement Notice, Assumption Notice, Tabulation Procedures, and related documents without further order of the Court, including changes to correct typographical and grammatical errors, if any, and to make conforming changes to the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, and any other materials in the Solicitation Packages before distribution. The Debtors shall include information regarding remote attendance at the Confirmation Hearing if the Confirmation Hearing is to be held remotely.

This Master Ballot is to be used by you as a Nominee to transmit to the Solicitation Agent (defined below) the votes of the Beneficial Holders to accept or reject the Plan. To have the votes of your Beneficial Holders count as either an acceptance or rejection of the Plan, you must complete and return this Master Ballot so that the Solicitation Agent actually receives it on or before the Voting Deadline.

The Voting Deadline is on October 15, 2021, prevailing Eastern Time.

    b. Votes submitted by a Nominee, whether pursuant to a Master Ballot or pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballots, will not be counted in excess of the record amount of the Claims held by such Nominee;

    c. To the extent that conflicting votes or "over-votes" are submitted by a Nominee, whether pursuant to a Master Ballot or pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballots, the Solicitation Agent will attempt to reconcile discrepancies with the Nominee;

    d. To the extent that over-votes on a Master Ballot or pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballots are not reconcilable prior to the preparation of the vote certification, the Solicitation Agent will apply the votes to accept and reject the Plan in the same proportion as the votes to accept and reject the Plan submitted on the Master Ballot or pre-validated Beneficial Holder Ballots that contained the over-vote, but only to the extent of the Nominee's position in the Claims; and

    e. For purposes of tabulating votes, each holder holding through a particular account will be deemed to have voted the principal amount relating its holding in that particular account, although the Solicitation Agent may be asked to adjust such principal amount to reflect the claim amount.

purchase or sale of any security of the Debtors or Reorganized Debtors; the assumption, rejection or amendment of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease; the subject matter of, or the transactions or events giving rise to, any Claim or Interest that received treatment pursuant to the Plan; the business or contractual arrangements between any Debtor and any Released Party; the restructuring of Claims and Interests before or during the Chapter 11 Cases; and the negotiation, formulation, preparation, consummation, or dissemination of (i) the Plan (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Plan Supplement), (ii) the Exit Facility Documents, (iii) the Disclosure Statement, (iv) the Noteholder RSA, (v) the Tranche B Equity Conversion Agreement, (vi) the United Asset Contribution Agreement, (vii) the DIP Facility Documents, or (viii) related agreements, instruments, or other documents, upon any other act or omission, transaction, agreement, event, or other occurrence taking place on or before the Effective Date, other than claims or liabilities arising out of or relating to any act or omission of a Released Party that is determined by a Final Order of a court of competent jurisdiction to have constituted willful misconduct, intentional fraud, or gross negligence (collectively, the "Released Claims"). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, (i) the releases set forth above do not release any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any assumed Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, or agreement or document that is created, amended, ratified, entered into, or Reinstated pursuant to the Plan (including the Exit Facility Documents, the Grupo Aval Exit Facility Agreement, the USAV Receivable Facility Agreement, the Engine Loan Agreement, and the Secured RCF Documents) and (ii) the releases set forth above do not release any post-Effective Date obligations of the Debtors under the Tranche B Equity Conversion Agreement, the United Asset Contribution Agreement, the United Agreements or the JBA Letter Agreement, or any Claims or Causes of Action for breach that any party to the Tranche B Equity Conversion Agreement, the United Asset Contribution Agreement, the United Agreements or the JBA Letter Agreement may have against any other party to those agreements.

Entry of the Confirmation Order shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's approval, pursuant to applicable bankruptcy law, of the releases described in this Article IX.E and shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's finding that such releases (a) are an essential means of implementing the Plan; (b) are an integral and non-severable element of the Plan and the transactions incorporated therein; (c) confer substantial benefits on the Debtors' Estates; (d) are in exchange for the good and valuable consideration provided by the Released Parties; (e) are a good-faith settlement and compromise of the Claims and Causes of Action released by this Article IX.E of the Plan; (f) are in the best interests of the Debtors, their Estates, and all holders of Claims and Interests; (g) are fair, equitable, and reasonable; (h) are given and made after due notice and opportunity for hearing; and (i) are a bar to any of the parties deemed to grant the releases contained in this Article IX.E of the Plan asserting any Claim or Cause of Action released by the releases contained in this Article IX.E of the Plan against any of the Released Parties.

The releases described in this Article IX.E shall, on the Effective Date, have the effect of res judicata (a matter adjudged), to the fullest extent permissible under applicable laws of the Republic of Colombia and any other jurisdiction in which the Debtors operate.

Article IX of the Plan provides for an exculpation (the "Exculpation"):

The Exculpated Parties have, and upon implementation of the Plan, shall be deemed to have, participated in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws with regard to the solicitation of, and distribution of, consideration pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such distributions made pursuant to the Plan. This exculpation shall be in addition to, and not in limitation of, all other releases, indemnities, exculpations, and any other applicable laws, rules, or regulations protecting such Exculpated Parties from liability. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the exculpation set forth above does not exculpate any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, the Exit Facility, the Secured RCF Documents, or any assumed Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, (i) the releases set forth above do not release any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, any assumed Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, or agreement or document that is created, amended, ratified, entered into, or Reinstated pursuant to the Plan (including the Exit Facility Documents, the Grupo Aval Exit Facility Agreement, the USAV Receivable Facility Agreement, the Engine Loan Agreement, and the Secured RCF Documents) and (ii) the releases set forth above do not release any post-Effective Date obligations of the Debtors under the Tranche B Equity Conversion Agreement, the United Asset Contribution Agreement, the United Agreements or the JBA Letter Agreement, or any Claims or Causes of Action for breach that any party to the Tranche B Equity Conversion Agreement, the United Asset Contribution Agreement, the United Agreements or the JBA Letter Agreement may have against any other party to those agreements.

Entry of the Confirmation Order shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's approval, pursuant to applicable bankruptcy law, of the releases described in this Article IX.E and shall constitute the Bankruptcy Court's finding that such releases (a) are an essential means of implementing the Plan; (b) are an integral and non-severable element of the Plan and the transactions incorporated therein; (c) confer substantial benefits on the Debtors' Estates; (d) are in exchange for the good and valuable consideration provided by the Released Parties; (e) are a good-faith settlement and compromise of the Claims and Causes of Action released by this Article IX.E of the Plan; (f) are in the best interests of the Debtors, their Estates, and all holders of Claims and Interests; (g) are fair, equitable, and reasonable; (h) are given and made after due notice and opportunity for hearing; and (i) are a bar to any of the parties deemed to grant the releases contained in this Article IX.E of the Plan asserting any Claim or Cause of Action released by the releases contained in this Article IX.E of the Plan against any of the Released Parties.

The releases described in this Article IX.E shall, on the Effective Date, have the effect of res judicata (a matter adjudged), to the fullest extent permissible under applicable laws of the Republic of Colombia and any other jurisdiction in which the Debtors operate.

Article IX of the Plan provides for an exculpation (the "Exculpation"):

Without affecting or limiting the releases set forth in Article IX.D and Article IX.E of the Plan, and notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, no Exculpated Party shall have or incur, and each Exculpated Party shall be released and exculpated from, any claim or Cause of Action in connection with or arising out of the administration of the Chapter 11 Cases; the negotiation and pursuit of the DIP Facility, the Exit Facility, the Disclosure Statement, any settlement or other acts approved by the Bankruptcy Court, the Tranche B Equity Conversion Agreement, the United Asset Contribution Agreement, the Restructuring Transactions, the Secured RCF Documents, and the Plan, or the solicitation of votes for, or confirmation of, the Plan; the funding of the Plan; the occurrence of the Effective Date; the administration and implementation of the Plan or the property to be distributed under the Plan; the issuance or distribution of securities under or in connection with the Plan; the issuance, distribution, purchase, sale, or rescission of the purchase or sale of any security of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors under or in connection with the Plan; or the transactions in furtherance of any of the foregoing; other than claims or liabilities arising out of or relating to any act or omission of an Exculpated Party that is determined by a Final Order of a court of competent jurisdiction to have constituted willful misconduct, intentional fraud, or gross negligence, but in all respects such Exculpated Parties shall be entitled to reasonably rely upon the advice of counsel with respect to their duties and responsibilities. The Exculpated Parties have, and upon implementation of the Plan, shall be deemed to have, participated in good faith and in compliance with the applicable laws with regard to the solicitation of, and distribution of, consideration pursuant to the Plan and, therefore, are not, and on account of such distributions shall not be, liable at any time for the violation of any applicable law, rule, or regulation governing the solicitation of acceptances or rejections of the Plan or such distributions made pursuant to the Plan. This exculpation shall be in addition to, and not in limitation of, all other releases, indemnities, exculpations, and any other applicable laws, rules, or regulations protecting such Exculpated Parties from liability. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the foregoing, the exculpation set forth above does not exculpate any post-Effective Date obligations of any party or Entity under the Plan, the Exit Facility, the Secured RCF Documents, or any assumed Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease.

Article IX of the Plan provides for an injunction (the "Injunction"):

Moreover, the Debtors believe that any alternative to the Confirmation of the Plan could result in extensive delays, increase administrative expenses, and a greater number of unsecured creditors, which, in turn, likely would result in smaller distributions (or no distributions) on account of Claims asserted in these chapter 11 cases.

The Debtors strongly urge you to timely submit your properly executed Ballot casting a vote to accept the Plan in accordance with the instructions in your Ballot. The Voting Deadline is October 15, 2021, at 4:00 p.m., prevailing Eastern Time.

The materials in the Solicitation Package are intended to be self-explanatory. Please be advised that the Solicitation Agent is authorized to answer questions about, and provide additional copies of solicitation materials, but may not advise you as to whether you should vote to accept or reject the Plan.

Sincerely,

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT the deadline for filing objections to the Plan is October 19, 2021, at 4:00 p.m., prevailing Eastern Time. All objections to the relief sought at the Confirmation Hearing must be in writing, must conform to the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and the Local Rules of the Bankruptcy Court and shall be filed with the Bankruptcy Court electronically in accordance with the Bankruptcy Court's Order Implementing Certain Notice and Case Management Procedures entered on May 12, 2020 [Docket No. 47] (the "Case Management Order") and served upon the following parties so as to be actually received on or before the Plan Objection Deadline:

(d) all other parties entitled to notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT holders of Claims entitled to vote on the Plan will receive (i) copies of the Disclosure Statement Order, the Disclosure Statement, the Plan, and certain exhibits thereto, (ii) this notice, and (iii) a Ballot, together with a pre-addressed postage pre-paid envelope to be used by them in voting to accept or to reject the Plan. Failure to follow the instructions set forth on the Ballot may disqualify that Ballot and the vote cast thereby.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT the date for determining which holders of Claims are entitled to vote on the Plan is September 9, 2021 (the "Voting Record Date").

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT the deadline for voting on the Plan is on October 15, 2021, at 4:00 p.m., prevailing Eastern Time (the "Voting Deadline"). If you received a Solicitation Package, including a Ballot and intend to vote on the Plan you must: (a) follow the instructions carefully; (b) complete all of the required information on the Ballot; and (c) execute and return your completed Ballot according to and as set forth in detail in the voting instructions so that it is actually received by the Debtors' solicitation agent, Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC (the "Solicitation Agent") on or before the Voting Deadline.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT additional copies of the Plan, Disclosure Statement, or any other solicitation materials (except for Ballots) are available free of charge on the Debtors' case information website (http://www.kccllc.net/avianca) or by contacting the Debtors' Solicitation Agent at (866) 967-1780 or, for international callers, +1 (310) 751-2680 or by writing the Solicitation Agent, Attn: Avianca Ballot Processing Center, c/o KCC, 222 N. You may also obtain copies of any pleadings filed in these chapter 11 cases for a fee via PACER at: http://www.nysb.uscourts.gov.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT holders of (i) Unimpaired Claims and Interests and (ii) Claims and Interests that will receive no distribution under the Plan are not entitled to vote on the Plan and, therefore, will receive a notice of non-voting status rather than a Ballot. If you have not received a Ballot (or you have received a Ballot listing an amount you believe to be incorrect) or if the Solicitation and Voting Procedures otherwise state that you are not entitled to vote on the Plan, but you believe that you should be entitled to vote on the Plan (or vote an amount different than the amount listed on your Ballot), then you must serve on the Debtors and file with the Bankruptcy Court a motion pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3018(a) (a "Rule 3018(a) Motion") for an order temporarily allowing your Claim for purposes of voting to accept or reject the Plan on or before the later of (i) October 15, 2021, at 4:00 p.m., 2021, and (ii) the fourteenth (14th) day after the date of service of an objection, if any, to your Claim in accordance with the solicitation procedures, but in no event later than the Voting Deadline. In accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 3018, as to any creditor filing a Rule 3018(a) Motion, such creditor's Ballot will not be counted unless temporarily allowed by the Bankruptcy Court for voting purposes after notice and a hearing. Rule 3018(a) Motions that are not timely filed and served in the manner as set forth above may not be considered.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT the following parties will receive a copy of this Confirmation Hearing Notice but will not receive a Solicitation Package, Ballot, or copy of the Disclosure Statement or Plan or any other similar materials or notices: (i) parties to executory contracts and unexpired leases that have not been assumed or rejected as of the Voting Record Date and who have not timely filed a proof of Claim and (ii) holders of Claims that have not been classified in the Plan pursuant to section 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT Article IX of the Plan contains Debtor Release, Third-Party Release, Exculpation, and Injunction provisions. Thus, you are advised and encouraged to carefully review and consider the Plan because your rights might be affected.

Supplement on [●], 2021, as contemplated under the Plan. The determination to assume the agreements identified on the Assumption Schedule was made as of [●], 2021 and is subject to revision.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT you are receiving this Notice because the Debtors' records reflect that you are a party to an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that will be assumed pursuant to the Plan. Therefore, you are advised to review carefully the information contained in this Notice, the Assumption Schedule, and the related provisions of the Plan.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT the hearing at which the Court will consider confirmation of the Plan (the "Confirmation Hearing") will commence on October 26, 2021, at 10:00 a.m., prevailing Eastern Time, before the Honorable Martin Glenn, in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, located at One Bowling Green, New York, NY 10004.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires a chapter 11 debtor to cure, or provide adequate assurance that it will promptly cure, any defaults under executory contracts and unexpired leases at the time of assumption. [3] Neither the exclusion nor inclusion of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease on the Assumption Schedule, nor anything contained in the Plan or each Debtor's schedule of assets and liabilities, constitutes an admission by the Debtors that any such contract or lease is in fact an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease capable of assumption, that any Debtor(s) has any liability thereunder, or that such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease is necessarily a binding and enforceable agreement. Further, the Debtors expressly reserve the right to (a) remove any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease from the Assumption Schedule and reject such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the terms of the Plan, up until the Effective Date and (b) contest any Claim (or cure amount) asserted in connection with assumption of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease.

Please read the Plan and Disclosure Statement carefully before completing this Beneficial Holder Ballot.

2. Unless otherwise instructed by your Nominee, to ensure that your vote is counted, you must submit your Beneficial Holder Ballot (or otherwise convey your vote) to your Nominee in sufficient time to allow your Nominee to process your vote and submit a Master Ballot so that the Master Ballot is actually received by the Solicitation Agent by the Voting Deadline. You may instruct your Nominee to vote on your behalf in the Master Ballot as follows: (a) complete the Beneficial Holder Ballot; (b) check the box in Item 3 of the Ballot if you wish to opt out of the Third-Party Releases and are not voting to accept the Plan; (c) indicate your decision either to accept or reject the Plan in the boxes provided in Item 4 of the Beneficial Holder Ballot; and (d) sign and return the Beneficial Holder Ballot to your Nominee in accordance with the instructions provided by your Nominee. The Voting Deadline for the receipt of Master Ballots by the Solicitation Agent is ~~[~~October 15, 2021~~]~~, prevailing Eastern Time. Your completed Beneficial Holder Ballot must be received by your Nominee in sufficient time to permit your Nominee to deliver your votes to the Solicitation Agent on or before the Voting Deadline.

3. You may opt out of the Third-Party Release provisions and set forth above by checking the "OPT OUT" box in Item 3 and not voting to accept the Plan. If you vote to accept the Plan, you will be deemed to have consented to the Plan's Third-Party Release described above and any election you make to not grant the releases will be invalidated. If (i) you do not vote either to accept or reject the Plan or (ii) you vote to reject the Plan, and you do not check the box in Item 3, you will be deemed to have consented to the Plan's release provision described above and you will be deemed to have unconditionally, irrevocably, and forever released and discharged the Released Parties (as defined in the Plan) from, among other things, any and all claims that relate to the debtors. If you would otherwise be entitled to be a Released Party under the Plan, but you opt not to grant the Third-Party Release, then you will not be a Released Party.

4. The following Beneficial Holder Ballots will not be counted:

   a. any Beneficial Holder Ballot that partially rejects and partially accepts the Plan;
   b. any Beneficial Holder Ballot that neither accepts nor rejects the Plan;

Claim prior to the Voting Deadline, the last received valid Beneficial Holder Ballot timely received will supersede and revoke any earlier received Beneficial Holder Ballots.

7. You must vote all of your Claims within the same Class either to accept or reject the Plan and may not split your vote. Further, if a holder has multiple Claims within the same, the Debtors may, in their discretion, aggregate the Claims of any particular holder with multiple Claims within the same Class for the purpose of counting votes.

8. This Beneficial Holder Ballot does not constitute, and shall not be deemed to be, (a) a Proof of Claim or (b) an assertion or admission of a Claim.

9. Please be sure to sign and date your Beneficial Holder Ballot. If you are signing a Beneficial Holder Ballot in your capacity as a trustee, executor, administrator, guardian, attorney in fact, officer of a corporation, or otherwise acting in a fiduciary or representative capacity, you must indicate such capacity when signing and, if required or requested by the Solicitation Agent, the Debtors, or the Court, must submit proper evidence to the requesting party to so act on behalf of such holder.

10. If you hold Claims in more than one Class under the Plan you may receive more than one ballot coded for each different Class. Each ballot votes only your Claims indicated on that ballot, so please complete and return each ballot that you receive.

11. The Beneficial Holder Ballot is not a letter of transmittal and may not be used for any purpose other than to vote to accept or reject the Plan. Accordingly, at this time, holders of Claims should not surrender certificates or instruments representing or evidencing their Claims, and neither the Debtors nor the Claims and Noticing Agent will accept delivery of any such certificates or instruments surrendered together with a ballot.

Please return your Beneficial Holder Ballot promptly.

If you have any questions regarding this Beneficial Holder Ballot, these Voting Instructions or the Procedures for Voting, please call the restructuring hotline at (866) 967-1780 (toll free) or +1 (310) 751-2680 (international callers) or email AviancaInfo@kccllc.com.

If the Solicitation Agent does not actually receive your Ballot reflecting the vote cast on this Beneficial Holder Ballot on or [October 15, 2021], at 4:00 p.m.], prevailing Eastern Time (and if the Voting Deadline is not extended), your vote transmitted by this Beneficial Holder Ballot may be counted toward Confirmation of the Plan only in the sole and absolute discretion of the Debtors.

Item 3. Election to Receive Unsecured Claimholder Cash Pool or Unsecured Claimholder Equity Package under the Plan.

To the extent that your claim is ultimately allowed as a General Unsecured Avianca Claim, you have the option to elect to receive your Pro Rata share of either (i) the Unsecured Claimholder Cash Pool or (ii) the Unsecured Claimholder Equity Package by checking one of the boxes below. If you do not make an election, ~~you will~~or if you check both the box for the Unsecured Claimholder Cash Pool and the Unsecured Claimholder Equity Package, you will be deemed to have elected to receive your distribution (if any) as a Pro Rata share of the Unsecured Claimholder Cash Pool. If you elect to receive a Pro Rata share of the Unsecured Claimholder Equity Package, you will be bound to the terms of the Shareholders Agreement, the form of which will be included in the Plan Supplement.

I hereby elect to receive a Pro Rata share of the Unsecured Claimholder Cash Pool, as described in the Plan, and understand that I will thereby not receive a Pro Rata share of the Unsecured Claimholder Equity Package, as described in the Plan.

I hereby elect to receive a Pro Rata share of Unsecured Claimholder Equity Package, as described in the Plan, and understand that I will thereby not receive a Pro Rata share of the Unsecured Claimholder Cash Pool, as described in the Plan.

Release provisions by checking the box in Item 3 of your Ballot.

In addition to this cover letter, the enclosed materials comprise your Solicitation Package, and were approved by the Court for distribution to holders of Claims in connection with the solicitation of votes to accept the Plan. The Solicitation Package consists of the following:

a. a copy of the Solicitation and Voting Procedures;

b. a Ballot, together with detailed voting instructions and a return envelope;

c. this letter;

d. the Disclosure Statement, as approved by the Court (and exhibits thereto, including the Plan);

e. the Disclosure Statement Order (excluding the exhibits thereto except the Solicitation and Voting Procedures);

f. the Confirmation Hearing Notice; and

g. such other materials as the Court may direct.

The Debtors have approved the filing of the Plan and the solicitation of votes to accept the Plan. The Debtors believe that the acceptance of the Plan is in the best interests of their estates, holders of Claims and Interests, and all other parties in interest. Moreover, the Debtors believe that any alternative to the Confirmation of the Plan could result in extensive delays, increase administrative expenses, and a greater number of unsecured creditors, which, in turn, likely would result in smaller distributions (or no distributions) on account of Claims asserted in these chapter 11 cases.

The Debtors strongly urge you to timely submit your properly executed Ballot casting a vote to accept the Plan in accordance with the instructions in your Ballot. The Voting Deadline is [October 15, 2021], at 4:00 p.m., prevailing Eastern Time.

The materials in the Solicitation Package are intended to be self-explanatory. If you have any questions, however, please feel free to contact Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC, the Solicitation Agent retained by the Debtors in these chapter 11 cases (the "Solicitation Agent"), by: (a) calling the Debtors' restructuring hotline at (866) 967-1780 or, for international callers, +1 (310) 751-2680; (b) visiting the Debtors' restructuring website at: http://www.kccllc.net/avianca; and/or (c) writing to Avianca Ballot Processing Center, c/o KCC, 222 N. PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT the deadline for voting on the Plan is on [October 15, 2021, at 4:00 p.m.], prevailing Eastern Time (the "Voting Deadline"). If you received a Solicitation Package, including a Ballot and intend to vote on the Plan you must: (a) follow the instructions carefully; (b) complete all of the required information on the Ballot; and (c) execute and return your completed Ballot according to and as set forth in detail in the voting instructions so that it is actually received by the Debtors' solicitation agent, Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC (the "Solicitation Agent") on or before the Voting Deadline.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT additional copies of the Plan, Disclosure Statement, or any other solicitation materials (except for Ballots) are available free of charge on the Debtors' case information website (http://www.kccllc.net/avianca) or by contacting the Debtors' Solicitation Agent at (866) 967-1780 or, for international callers, +1 (310) 751-2680 or by writing the Solicitation Agent, Attn: Avianca Ballot Processing Center, c/o KCC, 222 N. Pacific Coast Highway, Suite 300, El Segundo, CA 90245. Please be advised that the Solicitation Agent is authorized to answer questions about, and provide additional copies of, solicitation materials, but may not advise you as to whether you should vote to accept or reject the Plan. You may also obtain copies of any pleadings filed in these chapter 11 cases for a fee via PACER at: http://www.nysb.uscourts.gov.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT holders of (i) Unimpaired Claims and Interests and (ii) Claims and Interests that will receive no distribution under the Plan are not entitled to vote on the Plan and, therefore, will receive a notice of non-voting status rather than a Ballot. If you have not received a Ballot (or you have received a Ballot listing an amount you believe to be incorrect) or if the Solicitation and Voting Procedures otherwise state that you are not entitled to vote on the Plan, but you believe that you should be entitled to vote on the Plan (or vote an amount different than the amount listed on your Ballot), then you must serve on the Debtors and file with the Bankruptcy Court a motion pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3018(a) (a "Rule 3018(a) Motion") for an order temporarily allowing your Claim for purposes of voting to accept or reject the Plan on or before the later of (i) [October 15, 2021, at 4:00 p.m.], 2021, and (ii) the fourteenth (14th) day after the date of service of an objection, if any, to your Claim in accordance with the solicitation procedures, but in no event later than the Voting Deadline. In accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 3018, as to any creditor filing a Rule 3018(a) Motion, such creditor's Ballot will not be counted unless temporarily allowed by the Bankruptcy Court for voting purposes after notice and a hearing. Rule 3018(a) Motions that are not timely filed and served in the manner as set forth above may not be considered.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT the following parties will receive a copy of this Confirmation Hearing Notice but will not receive a Solicitation Package, Ballot, or copy of the Disclosure Statement or Plan or any other similar materials or notices: (i) parties to executory contracts and unexpired leases that have not been assumed or rejected as of the Voting

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT the Debtors filed the Assumed Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease List (the "Assumption Schedule") with the Court as part of the Plan Supplement on [●], 2021, as contemplated under the Plan. The determination to assume the agreements identified on the Assumption Schedule was made as of [●], 2021 and is subject to revision.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT you are receiving this Notice because the Debtors' records reflect that you are a party to an Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease that will be assumed pursuant to the Plan. Therefore, you are advised to review carefully the information contained in this Notice, the Assumption Schedule, and the related provisions of the Plan.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT the hearing at which the Court will consider confirmation of the Plan (the "Confirmation Hearing") will commence on [October 26, 2021, at 10:00 a.m.], prevailing Eastern Time, before the Honorable Martin Glenn, in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, located at One Bowling Green, New York, NY 10004.

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE that the Debtors are proposing to assume the Executory Contract(s) and Unexpired Lease(s) listed on Exhibit A, attached hereto, to which you are a party.[3]

PLEASE TAKE FURTHER NOTICE THAT section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires a chapter 11 debtor to cure, or provide adequate assurance that it will promptly cure, any defaults under executory contracts and unexpired leases at the time of assumption. Please note that if no amount is stated for a particular Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease, the Debtors believe that there is no cure amount owing for such contract or lease.

Further, the Debtors expressly reserve the right to (a) remove any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease from the Assumption Schedule and reject such Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease pursuant to the terms of the Plan, up until the Effective Date and (b) contest any Claim (or cure amount) asserted in connection with assumption of any Executory Contract or Unexpired Lease.

Burlingame Investment Partners LP, et al., ("Burlingame") solely in their capacity as holders of 9.00% Senior Secured Notes due 2023 issued by Avianca Holdings S.A. (the "2023 Notes"), by and through their undersigned counsel, respectfully submit this preliminary objection to confirmation of the proposed Joint Plan of Reorganization of Avianca under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code [Doc 1981] (as it may be modified, amended, or supplemented from time to time, the "Plan").

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

Although the Plan suffers from many critical flaws in its treatment of the holders of the 2023 Notes that render it unconfirmable as a matter of law, Burlingame raises in this preliminary Limited Objection six significant defects, with the hope that these and other issues can be resolved with the Debtors consensually prior to the confirmation hearing[2]. Burlingame has repeatedly attempted to engage with the Debtors to resolve these matters consensually, but the Debtors have so far been unwilling to entertain those discussions.

[2] Burlingame reserves all of its rights to object to confirmation of the Plan on these and additional grounds in a supplemental objection, in the event that Burlingame and the Debtors are unable to resolve Burlingame's objections to the Plan consensually.

I. THE CHAPTER 11 CASES

On May 10, 2020 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors commenced these Chapter 11 Cases to obtain relief as their revenues and cash flows were "severely impacted by the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic, the resulting measures taken by governments with respect to the closures of borders and movement of people, the orders to ground the Company's passenger fleet and the uncertainty caused by the limited visibility that the industry has with respect to the demand recovery."[3]

Each of the Debtors, except AV Loyalty Bermuda, Ltd. and Aviacorp Enterprises, S.A., filed voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") in this Court. On September 21, 2020, the remaining two Debtors filed voluntary petitions for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code in this Court commencing their Chapter 11 Cases. The Debtors continue to operate their businesses as debtors-in-possession in accordance with section 1107 and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No trustee or examiner has been appointed in any of the Chapter 11 Cases.

On May 22, 2020, the United States Trustee for the Southern District of New York (the "U.S. Trustee") appointed an official committee of unsecured creditors in these Chapter 11 Cases pursuant to section 1102 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Committee"). The Committee is comprised of seven members: (i) Caja de Auxilios y Prestaciones de la Asociacion Colombiana de Aviadores Civiles Acdac ("CAXDAC"), (ii) The Boeing Company, (iii) Puma Energy, (iv) SMBC Aviation Capital, Ltd., (v) KGAL Investment Management GmbH & Co KG, (vi) Delaware Trust Company, (vii) Colombian Pilots Union ("ACDAC").

II. PREPETION SECURED NOTES DUE 2023

Prior to the Debtor's filing of chapter 11, in August 2019, the Debtors reprofiled their financial debt by exchanging 8.375% Senior Notes due 2020 (the "2020 Unsecured Notes") for a new issuance of Senior Secured Notes (the "2020 Secured Notes"). Moreover, the aggregate principal amount of the Debtors' 2020 Secured Notes was further subject to an automatic mandatory exchange for an equivalent principal amount of the 2023 Notes. As of the Petition Date, the aggregate principal amount of the 2023 Notes was approximately $484,419,000, secured by liens on, inter alia, the Debtors' intellectual property registered in the United States, Colombia, Ecuador, Brazil, Chile, Mexico, Guatemala, Costa Rica, the United Kingdom and European Union, Honduras, Uruguay, Canada, Puerto Rico, and Panama, and approximately five Debtor-owned aircraft and the residual interest of the debtors in other aircraft (the "Shared Collateral"). [Docket 964]

III. DIP ROLL-UP and RSA

The offer for the DIP roll-up was announced via a letter dated August 20, 2020 from the Ad Hoc Group of holders of the 2023 Notes. The letter provided two options: 1) Consenting Noteholders – noteholders who execute the RSA without contributing New Money will receive US$200 of Tranche A in exchange for each US$1,000 of the 2023 Notes; or, 2) New Money Contributing Noteholders – noteholders who execute the RSA and also commit to fund their pro rata share of the 2023 Notes New Money will receive US$340 of Tranche A in exchange for each US$1,000 of the 2023 Notes. (The Debtors did not file the executed RSA at the bankruptcy court.)

Besides the above statement, the letter stated that "Eligible Noteholders[4] who decide not to participate in Tranche A will retain their existing Notes, and the Notes will continue to enjoy a lien on the 2023 Notes Collateral, with such lien being junior in priority to the liens granted to secure Tranche A and Tranche B." See Notice to Holders Of 9.000% Senior Secured Notes due 2023 (Excerpt attached as Exhibit A).

According to the Debtors, a majority of the holders of the 2023 Notes and the Debtors executed the RSA on August 28, 2020. The Debtors further stated the RSA provided a framework "whereby, subject to the terms and conditions set for the therein, the Consenting Noteholders (as defined in the RSA, but in no event less than a majority in amount) have agreed to (a) backstop the new money commitments under the DIP Facility in the amount of $200 million, and (b) support the Debtors' eventual chapter 11 plan. The Consenting Noteholders also agreed to direct Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB, as trustee and collateral trustee for the Existing Notes[5] ('WSFS'), to consent and not otherwise object to (i) the Debtors' use of the Shared Collateral (and all other 'Collateral' under the Existing Notes Indenture) as collateral to secure the DIP Facility, and (ii) the Debtors' granting of liens on the Collateral and Shared Collateral that are senior to and which prime the liens granted in connection with the Existing Notes and all such other instruments that are covered by the Collateral Sharing Agreement.[6]

[4] All holders of the 2023 Notes who were holders of record as of August 19, 2020.

In exchange for these agreements and concessions, the Debtors agreed to (i) stipulate to the validity and the priority of the Existing Notes, and (ii) roll up approximately $220 million of the Existing Notes for the benefit of all holders of Existing Notes (regardless of whether each such holder provides new money commitments under the DIP Facility)."

[5] Existing Notes are defined as 9.00% Senior Secured Notes due 2023 on Docket 964, p. 46.

[6] Footnote as stated by Doc No. 964 "In addition to the Existing Notes, there are two other debt facilities that are collateralized by the Shared Collateral. The Collateral Sharing Agreement provides that WSFS, as the 'Applicable Authorized Representative' thereunder, may affirmatively consent on behalf of all secured parties to the Shared Collateral being primed and pledged under the DIP Facility. The Collateral Sharing Agreement also explicitly waives any duty of WSFS to marshal or realize upon any type of Shared Collateral, or to sell, dispose of or otherwise liquidate all or any portion of such Shared Collateral, in any manner that would maximize the return to the non-controlling secured parties." The Debtors did not file nor publish the detailed contents of the RSA.

IV. THE DIP AGREEMENT

On October 5, 2020 the Debtors received the final order authorizing the debtors to obtain Debtor-in-Possession (DIP) financing. The DIP Agreement primed the DIP loans by "priming of all liens, including the Existing Notes Liens, on the Shared Collateral (and the priming of any Replacement Lien granted pursuant to the Adequate Protection Stipulation) under section 364(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, as contemplated this Final Order…." Furthermore, the DIP Agreement stated that "The DIP Secured Parties shall first satisfy the DIP Obligations from proceeds of the Shared Collateral prior to seeking payment of the any DIP Obligations from proceeds of other DIP Collateral (whether or not an event of default or exercise of remedies has occurred), and otherwise, (a) the DIP Secured Parties shall not be subject to the equitable doctrine of 'marshaling' or any similar doctrine with respect to any of the DIP Collateral,…."[Docket 964].

V. THE PLAN AND DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

On August 10, 2021, the Debtors filed the Disclosure Statement and Plan. On August 31, 2021, the Debtors filed certain exhibits to the Disclosure Statement, including the Financial Projections, Liquidation Analysis, and Additional Financial Materials. The analyses and projections of these Exhibits were mostly as of March 2021, 7 months prior to the Confirmation Hearing.

LIMITED OBJECTION

A. BREACH OF AGREEMENTS

The Debtors have breached their agreements and/or have submitted contracts in bad faith. Prior to the DIP Agreement execution, the Debtors announced that the RSA was executed whereby they would stipulate to the priority and validity of the Existing Notes. Moreover, the Debtors announced on the Notice of Filing of Revised DIP Credit Agreement, Doc No. 1017 p. 219 under Section 2.06. Use of Proceeds:

> "(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, no DIP Loan Proceeds, Cash Collateral or Carve-Out Expenses may be used in any manner to:
> (i) object, contest or raise any defense to the validity, perfection, priority, extent or enforceability of any amount due under, or the Liens or security interest granted under, the DIP Loan Documents, the Existing Notes or the Tranche A Notes Documents;
>
> (ii) investigate, initiate, assert or prosecute any claims or defenses or commence any cause of action against, under or relating to this Agreement or any other DIP Loan Document, the Existing Notes or the Tranche A Notes Documents; or
> (iii) prevent, hinder or delay, whether directly or indirectly, the Collateral Agent's assertion or enforcement of its Liens on the DIP Collateral, or its efforts to realize upon any DIP Collateral under the DIP Loan Documents or exercise any other rights and remedies under the DIP Loan Documents or applicable law.

Despite these agreements, the Debtors are now intent on breaching them by using their "DIP Loan Proceeds, Cash Collateral or Carve-Out Expenses" to "object, contest or raise" defense to "the validity, perfection, priority" of the Existing Notes (the 2023 Notes).

B. VIOLATION OF SECTION 506(A)(1) and (B)

The Code 506(a)(1) states:

> An allowed claim of a creditor secured by a lien on property in which the estate has an interest, or that is subject to setoff under section 553 of this title, is a secured claim to the extent of the value of such creditor's interest in the estate's interest in such property, or to the extent of the amount subject to setoff, as the case may be, and is an unsecured claim to the extent that the value of such creditor's interest or the amount so subject to setoff is less than the amount of such allowed claim. Such value shall be determined in light of the purpose of the valuation and of the proposed disposition or use of such property, and in conjunction with any hearing on such disposition or use or on a plan affecting such creditor's interest.

The Debtors did not perform any fair valuation such as waterfall analysis with a reasonable forecast to determine the value of the Debtors estate and of the 2023 Notes. Instead, the Debtors violated Section 506 by exploiting the DIP Agreement to justify the 2023 Noteholders becoming a General Unsecured Creditor class when they are, in fact, a secured creditor class only junior to DIP lenders until proven indubitably. The Debtors reasoning is on the footnote 9 of the Disclosure Statement on Doc. 1982, p. 52:

> "The DIP Facility is secured, in part, by the same collateral securing the 2023 Notes (the 'Shared Collateral'); however, pursuant to the Final DIP Order, DIP Facility Claims shall be satisfied first from proceeds of the Shared Collateral (the 'DIP Marshaling Provision'). As a result of the DIP Roll-up and the DIP Marshaling Provision, no value with respect to the Shared Collateral will be available to satisfy 2023 Notes Claims after DIP Facility Claims are satisfied, thereby rendering the 2023 Notes, as well as any other indebtedness secured by the Shared Collateral on equal footing with the 2023 Notes, effectively unsecured pursuant to section 506(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Further, pursuant to the Final DIP Order, holders of 2023 Notes Claims (and holders of other indebtedness secured by the Shared Collateral) have no claims against any Debtor for, arising out of, or related to adequate protection (including on account of the priming liens in respect of the Shared Collateral). For the avoidance of doubt, 2023 Notes Claims will not include any unsecured deficiency claim held by a Consenting Noteholder on account of, arising out of, or relating to the 2023 Notes.

The Debtors believe with just a stroke of pen, they can smudge out the holders of 2023 Notes. When the DIP Priming occurred, the 2023 Notes effectively became secured notes only junior to the DIP Loans. The holders of 2023 Notes are a secured class until indubitably proven otherwise. Trading debt for dirt in these circumstances does not satisfy the indubitably equivalent test. See In re Jim Beck, Inc., 207 B.R. 1010, 1012 (Bankr. W.D. Va. 1997); In re Coral Petro. Inc., 60 B.R. 377, 381 (Bankr. S.D. Tex 1986); In re Pennave Properties Associs., 165 B.R. 793, 795 (E.D. Pa. 1994).

C. VIOLATION OF SECTION 1129(B)(2)

The Debtors did not exercise "fair and equitable" judgement to the holders of the 2023 Notes. Despite the 2023 Notes having senior secured status only junior to the DIP lenders, the Debtors claim that the 2023 Notes have lost all their collateral when the Debtors and the DIP lenders executed the DIP Agreement to waive equitable marshalling. To add insult to injury, the Debtors are proposing 100% recovery to many classes of prepetition Secured and Unsecured Creditors while the holders of the 2023 Notes would receive 1% to 1.4% recovery. Amongst Unsecured Creditors receiving 100% recovery are as follows:

1) Class 5 – USAV Receivable Facility Claims
2) Class 6 – Grupo Aval Receivable Facility Claims
3) Class 7 – Grupo Aval Lines of Credit Claims
4) Class 8 – Grupo Aval Promissory Note Claims
5) Class 9 – Cargo Receivable Facility Claims
6) Class 10 – Pension Claims
7) Class 12 – General Unsecured Avifreight Claims
8) Class 13 – General Unsecured Aerounion Claims
9) Class 14 – General Unsecured SAI Claims
10) Class 20 – Existing Avifreight Equity Interests
11) Class 21 – Existing SAI Equity Interests
12) Class 23 – Intercompany Interests ("(i) Reinstated sorely to the extent necessary to maintain the Reorganized Debtors' corporate structure or (ii) transferred to a newly formed holding entity in conformance with the Transaction Steps.")

The Debtors state on the Plan under Article V Means for Implementation of Plan, Section B-Substantive Consolidation:

Except as otherwise provided herein, solely for voting, Confirmation, and distribution purpose hereunder, and subject to the following sentence, (i) all assets and all liabilities of the Avianca Debtors shall be treated as though they were merged; (ii) all guarantees of any Avianca Debtor of the payment, performance, or collection of obligations of another Avianca Debtor shall be eliminated an cancelled; (iii) all joint obligation of two or more Avianca Debtors and multiple Claims against such Entities on account of such joint obligations shall be treated an allowed as a single Claim against the consolidated

Avianca Debtors; (iv) all Claims between any Avianca Debtors shall be deemed cancelled; and (v) each Claim filed in the Chapter 11 Case of any Avianca Debtor shall be deemed filed against the consolidated Avianca Debtors and a single obligation of the consolidated Avianca Debtors' Estate."

If the above statement is true, then the 2023 Notes whether they are Secured or Unsecured class should have equal (in case 100% is allotted for recovery) or higher recovery value than Classes 20 and 21. Moreover, if the 2023 Notes are categorized under the General Unsecured Claims, then their recovery value should be equal to Classes 12, 13, and 14.

The Debtors' disregard to their own Plan and usage of the DIP Agreement to circumvent the Absolute Priority Rule, which is one of the tenets of Bankruptcy Code, makes the Plan fundamentally flawed. In Motorola, Inc. V. Official Comm. Of Unsecured Creditors (In re Iridium Operating LLC), the Second Circuit ruled that the most important consideration in determining whether a pre-plan settlement of disputed claims should be approved as being "fair and equitable" is whether the terms of the settlement comply with the Bankruptcy Code's distribution scheme.

In re SPM Manufacturing Corp., a secured lender holding a first priority security interest in substantially all of a chapter 11 debtor's assets entered into a "sharing agreement" with general unsecured creditors to divide the proceeds that would result from the reorganization, presumably as a way to obtain their cooperation in the case. After the case was converted to a chapter 7 liquidation, the secured lender and the unsecured creditors tried to force the chapter 7 trustee to distribute the proceeds from the sale of the debtor's assets in accordance with the sharing agreement. The agreement, however, contravened the Bankruptcy Code's distribution scheme because it provided for distributions to general unsecured creditors before payment of priority tax claims. The bankruptcy court ordered the trustee to ignore the sharing agreement, and to distribute the proceeds of the sale otherwise payable to the unsecured creditors in accordance with the statutory distribution scheme. The district court upheld that determination on appeal.

D. VIOLATION OF SECTION 548

The Debtor of the 2023 Notes made certain payments and transfers to affiliates less than one year prior to filing of its chapter 11, reducing the recovery value of its creditors. Approximately, $25 million in insurance payments were made on behalf of all the Debtors, and $22 million were transferred to its affiliates. See Doc. 1668.

E. PARTIAL SUBSTANTIVE CONSOLIDATION

On Page 55 of the Plan, the Debtors state:

> In chapter 11 cases with multiple affiliated debtors, bankruptcy courts may exercise their equitable powers to "substantively consolidate" the assets and liabilities of two or more of the debtors' estates to create a single common pool of assets to which the creditors of the consolidated debtors can look for recovery on their claims. The Plan is premised upon the substantive consolidation of the Estates of the Avianca Debtors with one another, solely for purposes of the Plan, including voting, Confirmation, the occurrence of the Effective Date, and distribution. Consequently, a creditor of one of the substantively consolidated Avianca Debtors will be treated as a creditor of the substantively consolidated group of Avianca Debtors. The Avianca Debtors are all of the Debtors except Aerounion, Avifreight, and SAI.

Although the Debtors advocate for substantive consolidation, they do so only to certain creditors. Moreover, the Debtors' proposal to treat the disparate, cross-debtor claims of the Combined Creditors on a pro rata basis in the Unsecured Claimholder Cash Pool or the Unsecured Claimholder Equity Package as though they were in a single class, against a single debtor, participating in a fixed amount of Shared Funds, renders the Plan unconfirmable because, among other violations of the Bankruptcy Code, (i) the Plan provides for what is, in effect, a partial substantive consolidation of the Debtors; and (ii) the Plan's classification of the 2023 Notes violates Section 1122 by treating disparate creditors of different Debtors as though they were in the same class, receiving distributions on a pro rata bases from the same Shared Funds.

Selectively imposing substantive consolidation on some creditors and not others of the same Debtor is an egregious measure that is fundamentally incompatible with the concept of substantive consolidation. Moreover, the treatment of the Combined Class is not merely impermissible, it is highly prejudicial to the 2023 Notes, wreaking havoc on both the amount and the timing of their recovery. The 2023 Notes and approx. $66 million of 2020 unsecured notes are the only undisputed and liquidated claims while the rest are highly disputed and unliquidated claims in amounts totaling approximately $3 billion, virtually none of which are asserted against the issuer of the 2023 Notes.

To make matters worse, the 2023 Noteholders cannot expect to receive their recovery until all other claims in the Combined Class – including highly-disputed claims asserted against entirely separate Debtors have been resolved.

There are many debtors that had little or no assets while the debtor of the 2023 Notes had significant assets for unsecured creditors.

In a recent chapter 11 case that is still ongoing, the Debtors of Mallinckrodt plc submitted a Plan proposal that is highly prejudicial against select unsecured noteholders whom were consolidated with the other general unsecured claims from the Debtors' affiliates. The Debtors cited separate legal entities that had separate management and books and records, thus no requirement for substantive consolidation of the Debtors affiliates. However, the Debtors' treatment of the noteholders was highly prejudicial since the assets of certain affiliates were very small to non-existent while their liabilities were very large. Thus, the general unsecured claims for these affiliates should have no recovery value while the Debtors that guaranteed the notes had valuable assets for the Notes.

The Debtors' initial proposal on the GUC class were amended to provide several subsets of the GUC class and separate recovery pool for each subset of the GUC class. See In re Mallinckrodt plc, et al, Case No. 20-12522 (Bankr. D. Del.)

F. VIOLATION OF SECTION 1122(A) OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE

Section 1122(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that "… a plan may place a claim or an interest in a particular class only if such claim or interest is substantially similar to the other claims or interests of such class." 11 U.S.C. § 1122(a). Pursuant to Section 1122(a), claims asserted against different individual Debtors, like dissimilar claims asserted against the same Debtor, must be treated separately, rather than as de facto members of the same class for distribution purposes.

Moreover, the Plan places the 2023 Notes in the same voting class as claims held by creditors against an entirely different Debtors. See Plan, at p. 38 (placing all General Unsecured Avianca Claims). The Plan thereby impairs the voting rights of holders of the 2023 Notes, who hold valid claims against Debtor with valuable assets. If the holders of the 2023 Notes choose to reject the Plan because it artificially and improperly provides those holders with a reduced recovery, their valid votes should not be diluted by the votes of creditors of a distinct Debtor with a different profile of assets and liabilities. Such a voting scheme is transparently illegal.

Besides the Debtors' breach of agreements, the Debtors' Plan fails to comply with Sections 506, 548, 1129, and 1122, and thus, severely prejudices the holders of the 2023 Notes.

The Plan is, therefore, not confirmable as proposed. Burlingame remains prepared to find a consensual resolution and would welcome the opportunity to participate in any mediation.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

Burlingame reserve all rights to supplement this Limited Objection and to object to confirmation of the Plan on any and all grounds in a separate filing.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, for the Limited Objection, Burlingame respectfully requests that the Court enter an order denying confirmation of the Plan, and granting such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

NOTICE REGARDING PARTICIPATION IN DEBTOR IN POSSESSION FINANCING IN THE COMPANY'S CHAPTER 11 CASES

To the Holders of 9.000% Senior Secured Notes due 2023 (the "Notes") Issued by Avianca Holdings S.A. ("Avianca" or the "Company")

CUSIP No.*: 05367GAB6 and P06048AB1

This notice is being provided by an ad hoc group of holders of the Notes (the "Ad Hoc Group") under the indenture, dated as of December 31, 2019 (as amended, modified and supplemented from time to time, the "Indenture"), by and between the Company, the guarantors party thereto, Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB, as Trustee and Collateral Trustee (the "Trustee"), and Citibank, N.A., as Registrar, Transfer Agent and Principal Paying Agent (the "Indenture").

On May 10, 2020, the Company and certain of its subsidiaries and affiliates (together, the "Debtors") filed voluntary petitions in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York seeking relief under chapter 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (the "Chapter 11 Cases"). The Chapter 11 Cases are being jointly administered with all pleadings maintained on the case docket for Avianca Holdings S.A., Case No. 20-11133 (MG).

Communication with Prospective Participating Holders

As disclosed by the Company's Form 6-K filed on August 13, 2020 (the "DIP 6-K"), the Company and the Ad Hoc Group have been negotiating the terms of a restructuring support agreement ("RSA") to be entered into between the Company and holders of a majority of the Notes, as part of Avianca's debtor in possession ("DIP") financing facilities (the "DIP Facility"), which will permit the Company to finance its continued operations and pursue a restructuring by confirming a chapter 11 plan as part of their court-supervised reorganization process in the Chapter 11 Cases.

The DIP 6-K provides additional information with respect to the Chapter 11 Cases and proposed DIP Facility and is attached hereto. The Form 6-K can also be accessed at: https://www.sec.gov/Archives/edgar/data/1575969/000119312520218738/d162195d6k.htm

As previously disclosed by the Company, since Avianca's chapter 11 filing on May 10, 2020 the Company has been working with its advisors to put in place a financing structure under the DIP Facility consisting of a Tranche A senior loan and a Tranche B subordinated loan, under which the Company seeks to obtain a total of approximately US$1.2 billion of new funds (US$900 million of Tranche A and US$316 million of Tranche B) excluding any rollups of existing debt and purchase consideration. The total amount of the Tranche A and Tranche B DIP facilities (inclusive of amounts rolled up) will be approximately US$2.0 billion, consisting of an approximately US$1.3 billion Tranche A facility ("Tranche A") and a US$700 million Tranche B facility ("Tranche B"). Both tranches will be secured ratably by a lien on all available collateral, with Tranche B subordinated in right of repayment to Tranche A.

Also, as previously disclosed by the Company, Avianca has reached an agreement in principle with the Ad Hoc Group, which agreement in principle will be memorialized by means of the RSA. Pursuant to the RSA, all holders of the Notes who were holders of record as of August 19, 2020 (the "Eligible Noteholders") will have an opportunity to elect to participate in up to US$250 million of Tranche A (the "2023 Notes New Money"), with certain holders of the Notes agreeing to backstop US$200 million, as discussed further below. Holders of Notes wishing to participate in the DIP Financing have until 5:00 p.m. EST on September 8, 2020 to complete and return to Evercore Partners their signature page to the RSA and such other documents as set forth in the RSA. In addition, holders of Notes who complete and return to Evercore their signature page to the RSA and such other documents as set forth in the RSA on or before 5:00 p.m. EST on August 26, 2020, shall also be entitled to receive a pro rata portion of early participation consideration, with such amount to be determined based upon the total participation by holders of Notes in the DIP Financing. The RSA provides that Eligible Noteholders who become party to the RSA will have the opportunity to roll up a portion of their Notes into Tranche A, with the aggregate amount of roll up equal to US$220 million of Tranche A. The RSA also provides for the collateral presently pledged to secure the Notes, including Avianca's trademarks, certain freighter aircraft and Avianca's residual equity interest in certain pools of aircraft (collectively, the "2023 Notes Collateral"), to be pledged on a senior secured priming basis as additional collateral to secure Tranche A and Tranche B under the DIP facilities. Eligible Noteholders who decide not to participate in Tranche A will retain their existing Notes, and the Notes will continue to enjoy a lien on the 2023 Notes Collateral, with such lien being junior in priority to the liens granted to secure Tranche A and Tranche B.

* No representation is made as to the correctness of the CUSIP number either as provided on the Notes or as contained herein.

Eligible Noteholder Participation in Tranche A

Eligible Noteholders who participate in Tranche A will be entitled to receive:

- Consenting Noteholders: Eligible Noteholders who execute the RSA and that do not commit to fund their pro rata share of the 2023 Notes New Money will receive total consideration of US$200 of Tranche A in exchange for each US$1,000 of existing Notes.

- New Money Contributing Noteholders: Eligible Noteholders who execute the RSA and also commit to fund their pro rata share of the 2023 Notes New Money will receive total consideration of US$340 of Tranche A (which is inclusive of the US$200 above) in exchange for each US$1,000 of existing Notes.

Backstop Parties Participation in Tranche A

- New Money Total Contribution: As discussed in more detail herein, Eligible Noteholders are eligible to contribute up to an aggregate of US$250 million of the 2023 Notes New Money.

- Backstop: An aggregate minimum of US$100 million of the US$250 million of 2023 Notes New Money is reserved for those holders who have agreed to backstop up to US$200 million of the 2023 Notes New Money (the "Backstop Parties"). As consideration for the backstop, the Backstop Parties will receive a 5.0% Backstop Fee (paid in Tranche A). The remaining US$150 million of the 2023 Notes New Money will be available to all Eligible Noteholders on a pro rata basis (approximately US$310 per US$1,000 of existing Notes).

Priming of 2023 Notes Collateral

As described above, the RSA provides that as a condition to participating in Tranche A, those Eligible Noteholders who decide to participate will direct the indenture trustee for the Notes to allow security interests in the 2023 Notes Collateral to be granted to secure Tranche A and Tranche B and to prime all security interests in the 2023 Notes Collateral, including the security interests of the Notes. The priming of the existing liens on the 2023 Notes Collateral will entitle Tranche A and Tranche B to be repaid from proceeds of the 2023 Notes Collateral in full prior to any distribution from the proceeds of the 2023 Notes Collateral on account of any other claims that are secured by the 2023 Notes Collateral, including the Notes.

Foreign Investors and Accredited Investors

In order to obtain further information regarding participation in Tranche A, an Eligible Noteholder will be required to execute and return an investor representation letter certifying, among other things, that such noteholder is an "accredited investor" as defined in Regulation D under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") or a non-"U.S. person" as defined in Regulation S under the Securities Act. Evercore Partners will provide the investor representation letter to those Eligible Noteholders who contact them with respect to the participation.

Contact

In accordance with this notice, all Eligible Noteholders who are interested in participating in Tranche A in accordance with the terms described above should contact Evercore Partners, financial advisors to the Ad Hoc Group, attention to any of the following persons:

Jeremy Matican (Telephone: (917) 846-0248 or Email: Matican@Evercore.com)

JOINDER AND STATEMENT OF THE OFFICIAL COMMITTEE OF UNSECURED CREDITORS IN SUPPORT OF THE JOINT CHAPTER 11 PLAN OF AVIANCA HOLDINGS S.A. AND ITS AFFILIATED DEBTORS

The Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (the "Committee") of Avianca Holdings S.A., et al. (collectively, the "Debtors"), by and through its undersigned counsel, hereby submits this statement in support of the confirmation of the Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Avianca Holdings S.A. and Its Affiliated Debtors, filed on September 15, 2021 [Docket No. 2137] (together with all schedules and exhibits thereto, and as has been and may be modified, amended or supplemented from time to time, the "Plan")[2] and joins in and adopts the Debtors' arguments set forth in the Debtors' (I) Memorandum in Support of Confirmation of Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Avianca Holdings S.A. and its Affiliated Debtors and (II) Response to Objections Thereto [Docket No. 2261] (the "Confirmation Brief"). The Committee respectfully states as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. The Committee believes that the settlement embodied in the Plan maximizes recoveries to holders of General Unsecured Avianca Claims. The Plan represents the culmination of more than a year of negotiations among the Debtors, the Committee, and the Debtors' pre- and postpetition lenders. As a result of these efforts, holders of General Unsecured Avianca Claims—who would receive no recovery in a hypothetical liquidation scenario—will share in a distribution valued at approximately $36,000,000.

2. The Plan is overwhelmingly supported by the class of General Unsecured Avianca Claims, which includes the 2020 Notes and the 2023 Notes. As evidenced in the Certification of P. Joseph Morrow IV With Respect to the Tabulation of Votes on the Joint Chapter 11 Plan of

[2] Capitalized terms used but not defined herein shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Plan.

Avianca Holdings S.A. and its Affiliated Debtors [Docket No. 2239], 92% of the holders of General Unsecured Avianca Claims—representing 98% of the total amount of claims held by the class—voted to accept the Plan. That support was echoed by all other classes entitled to vote on the Plan, each of which voted in favor.

3. The Committee has reviewed the substantive objections to the Plan, which were filed by a small number of individual holders of 2023 Notes Claims and include (a) the Preliminary Objection of Burlingame Investment Partners LP, William B Meier IRA, David M Kang SEP IRA, Blake W Kim Rollover IRA, and Im Jo Degerman Rollover IRA to Confirmation of the Proposed Joint Plan of Reorganization of Avianca Holdings S.A. and its Debtor Affiliates ("Avianca") Under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code [Docket No. 2218] and the substantively identical objections filed by William B. Meier [Docket No. 2214], Im Jo Degerman [Docket No. 2222], and David M. Kang [Docket No. 2227] (collectively referred to herein as the "Burlingame Objections"),[3] and (b) the Objection to Debtors' Third Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan [Docket No. 2231] (together with the Burlingame Objections, the "2023 Notes Objections"). The arguments set forth in the 2023 Notes Objections, which (at a high level) allege that the 2023 Notes are improperly treated under the Plan, are misplaced. Moreover, in many instances, they attempt to apply legal principles that are inapplicable under the circumstances of these Chapter 11 Cases.

4. The Committee supports the Plan and believes that the Plan complies with all requirements for confirmation pursuant to section 1129 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"). For the reasons set forth herein and in the Confirmation Brief, the Court should overrule the 2023 Notes Objections and confirm the Plan.

[3] The Committee notes that all but one of the Burlingame Objections was filed by a party acting in a pro se capacity, and agrees with the Debtors' argument in footnote 20 of the Confirmation Brief that the pro se objections should be stricken.

RESPONSE TO 2023 NOTES OBJECTIONS

a. The Plan does not violate section 506 of the Bankruptcy Code.

5. The Burlingame Objections incorrectly argue that the Plan violates section 506 of the Bankruptcy Code by treating the 2023 Notes Claims as unsecured, in part because the Debtors did not perform a "fair valuation." Burlingame Objections at ¶ B. To the contrary, the Debtors conducted an extensive, competitive marketing process to determine the value of their estates. See Bank of Am. Nat. Tr. and Sav. Ass'n v. 203 N. LaSalle St. Partn., 526 U.S. 434, 457 (1999) ("[T]he best way to determine value is exposure to a market."). The Debtors contacted over 125 parties to identify the best terms on which they could secure exit financing, which resulted in the Debtors' equity being valued at $800 million and the transaction that is now embodied in the Plan. See Debtors' Motion for an Order (I) Authorizing Entry into the Equity Conversion and Commitment Agreement and (II) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 2070], ¶ 15–17; see also Confirmation Brief at ¶ 103.

6. The 2023 Notes Objections also appear to argue that the 2023 Notes remain secured, which is not true. On August 28, 2020, the Debtors and a majority of the holders of the 2023 Notes (the "Consenting Noteholders") executed a restructuring support agreement (the "RSA"),[4] pursuant to which the Consenting Noteholders agreed to direct Wilmington Savings Fund Society, FSB, as trustee and collateral trustee for the 2023 Notes, to, among other things, consent to the Debtors' grant of liens securing their debtor-in-possession financing facility (the "DIP Facility"). Those liens primed the existing liens granted on all of the collateral securing the 2023 Notes, which now partially secures the DIP Facility (such collateral, the "Shared Collateral").

[4] Contrary to the assertions in the Burlingame Objections, the RSA was publicly filed by the Debtors on August 31, 2020, as Exhibit B to the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order Authorizing Incurrence and Payment of Break-Up Fee, Transaction Expenses, and Indemnification Obligations in Connection with Postpetition Financing [Docket No. 791].

See Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order (I) Authorizing the Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Financing and (B) Grant Liens and Superpriority Administrative Expense Claims, (II) Modifying the Automatic Stay, and (III) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 964] (the "DIP Motion"), ¶ 19. As set forth in the Final DIP Order, the DIP Facility Claims "shall be satisfied first from proceeds of the Shared Collateral." Final DIP Order at ¶ 28.

7. The Shared Collateral only constitutes a portion of the Debtors' assets.[5] Seeing as the fair market value of all of the Debtors' assets is insufficient to pay off the DIP Facility in full, the 2023 Notes necessarily are unsecured under section 506 of the Bankruptcy Code, pursuant to which a creditor's claim is secured only to the extent of the value of the collateral securing the claim. 11 U.S.C. § 506(a); see Declaration of Adrian Neuhauser in Support of Confirmation of Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Avianca Holdings S.A. and Its Affiliated Debtors [Docket No. 2263], ¶ 10–12. Accordingly, because they are unsecured, the 2023 Notes are "substantially similar" to the other General Unsecured Avianca Claims in Class 11 and properly classified with such claims under the Plan pursuant to section 1122(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. 11 U.S.C. § 1122(a).

b. Substantive consolidation is merited.

8. The 2023 Notes Objections argue that the Avianca Plan Consolidation is improper. The Second Circuit has determined that the critical inquiries for determining whether substantive consolidation is appropriate are whether (a) "creditors dealt with the entities as a single economic unit and did not rely on their separate identity in extending credit" or (b) "the affairs of the debtors are so entangled that consolidation will benefit all creditors." In re Augie/Restivo Baking Co., Ltd.,

[5] As set forth in the DIP Motion, the 2023 Notes are secured by liens on, inter alia, the Debtors' intellectual property registered in the United States, Colombia, Ecuador, Brazil, Chile, Mexico, Guatemala, Costa Rica, the United Kingdom and European Union, Honduras, Uruguay, Canada, Puerto Rico, and Panama, as well as approximately five Debtor-owned aircraft and the residual interest of the Debtors in other aircraft. DIP Motion at ¶ 18.

860 F.2d 515, 518 (2d Cir. 1988); see In re Republic Airways Holdings Inc., 565 B.R. 710, 717 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2017), aff'd, 582 B.R. 278 (S.D.N.Y. 2018).

9. As set forth in further detail in paragraphs 85–92 of the Confirmation Brief and the Declaration of Ginger Hughes in Support of Confirmation of Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Avianca Holdings S.A. and Its Affiliated Debtors [Docket No. 2262] (the "Hughes Declaration"), the Avianca Debtors have operated in a manner that justifies substantive consolidation: in particular, many of the most significant General Unsecured Avianca Claims are subject to cross-entity guarantees, and the separate corporate existence of many of the Avianca Debtors was driven principally by local regulatory requirements. The Avianca Debtors also act under one umbrella brand of "Avianca" and it is common for the Avianca Debtors to routinely transfer assets and incur intercompany liabilities based on the Avianca Debtors' needs as a whole. See Confirmation Brief at ¶ 89; see also Hughes Dec. at ¶ 22. Moreover, the Committee—which was closely involved in the negotiation of the Plan—agrees with the Debtors' assertion that untangling the Debtors' separate operations would be difficult, time-consuming, and expensive, with little benefit to any stakeholder, including holders of General Unsecured Avianca Claims, given the value available for distribution in these Chapter 11 Cases. See Confirmation Brief at ¶ 89.

10. Relatedly, if the Avianca Plan Consolidation is approved, then the Plan will constitute a single chapter 11 plan for all 37 consolidated Avianca Debtors. The assets and liabilities of those entities—including all general unsecured claims against them—will be treated as if they belong to a single debtor. See In re Republic Airways, 565 B.R. at 716 ("Substantive consolidation has the effect of consolidating assets and liabilities of multiple debtors and treating them as if the liabilities were owed by, and the assets held by, a single legal entity."). On the other hand, claims against Aerounión, Avifreight, and SAI ("the Unconsolidated Debtors")—each of which has completely different assets and liabilities than the Avianca Debtors (and each other)—exist only against the applicable Debtor. The general unsecured claims against those entities are unimpaired simply because these Debtors are solvent and unconsolidated, not because of improper claims classification or a violation of the absolute priority rule (as the 2023 Notes Objections suggest).

11. Moreover, contrary to the argument made in the 2023 Notes Objections, the exclusion of the Unconsolidated Debtors from the Avianca Plan Consolidation is appropriate because these entities are not hopelessly entangled with the other Avianca Debtors. As described in the Hughes Declaration, these three unconsolidated entities maintain separate operations, as well as separate accounting and treasury systems. See Hughes Dec. at ¶ 27. Further, the Unconsolidated Debtors are not marketed by the Debtors as part of the "Avianca" brand. Thus, the Committee agrees with the Debtors' conclusion that the exclusion of the Unconsolidated Debtors from the Avianca Plan Consolidation is appropriate and warranted. See Confirmation Brief at ¶ 111.

c. The Plan does not otherwise violate the Bankruptcy Code or any contract.

12. The Burlingame Objections contain several arguments that are wholly unsupported by law or facts. Among other allegations, they make a conclusory statement that the Debtors have breached the DIP Credit Agreement, specifically by "using the 'DIP Loan Proceeds, Cash Collateral or Carve-Out Expenses'" to object, contest, or raise defenses to the validity, perfection, or priority of the 2023 Notes. As an initial matter, and as the Debtors note, none of the objecting parties have standing to raise such an argument because they are not parties to the DIP Credit Agreement. Nevertheless, the Debtors have not taken any such action, and the Burlingame Objections do not cite evidence in support of that argument. Similarly, the Burlingame Objections provide no factual or legal support for their assertion that certain prepetition payments disclosed on Avianca Holdings, S.A.'s Statement of Financial Affairs violated section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code, nor is the Committee aware of any such violation.

13. Finally, the 2023 Notes Objections include arguments that holders of the 2023 Notes are not receiving the "indubitable equivalent" of their claims, that the Plan is not fair and equitable, and that the Plan unfairly discriminates against certain holders of General Unsecured Avianca Claims. These assertions should be disregarded because they are not legally relevant—the General Unsecured Avianca Claims are neither secured nor being crammed down under section 1129(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

CONCLUSION

14. For the reasons set forth herein and in the Confirmation Brief, the Committee respectfully requests that the Court confirm the Plan and overrule the objections thereto.

I. BACKGROUND—FINDINGS OF FACT[2]

1. Avianca is the second-largest airline group in Latin America and the most important carrier in the Republic of Colombia and the Republic of El Salvador. Decl. of Adrian Neuhauser in Supp. of Chap. 11 Pets. and First Day Pleadings ("First-Day Decl.") ¶ 3.[3] Despite an effective debt re-profiling executed in the second half of 2019, a significant improvement in Avianca's liquidity position in early 2020, and the successful 2019 launch of the "Avianca 2021" transformation plan, the Debtors were compelled to file these Chapter 11 Cases on May 10, 2020,[4] for one principal reason: the COVID-19 pandemic. First-Day Decl. ¶ 6. At the time, the Debtors had suspended all passenger flights for over six weeks, with no known date for resumption. First-Day Decl. ¶ 7.

2. During the early stages of these cases, the Debtors' greatest challenge was to raise the postpetition financing they needed to survive their restructuring process. That challenge was intensified by the absence of material unencumbered assets following the 2019 out-of-court restructuring. In order to partially address this challenge, the creditors negotiated with an ad hoc group of 2023 holders, who offered to allow a DIP facility to prime their prepetition collateral and to backstop at least $200 million of Tranche A DIP loans. See Decl. of John E. Luth [ECF No. 966] ¶ 19.

3. Despite the many serious hurdles, the Debtors succeeded in obtaining postpetition financing. See generally 10/26/21 Hr'g Tr. (hereinafter, "Tr.") at 118:21-120:18 (testimony of Mr. Neuhauser).

[2] Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein bear the meanings ascribed to them in the Further Modified Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Avianca Holdings S.A. and its Affiliated Debtors [ECF No. 2259] (the "Plan").

[3] The First-Day Declaration was incorporated into the Declaration of Adrian Neuhauser in Support of Confirmation of Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Avianca Holdings S.A. and its Affiliated Debtors [ECF No. 2263] (the "Neuhauser Decl.") ¶ 4.

[4] Two Debtors (Aviacorp Enterprises S.A. and AV Loyalty Bermuda Ltd.) subsequently filed petitions on September 21, 2020.

4. The Debtors filed a motion to approve their postpetition financing on September 21, 2020. See Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order (I) Authorizing the Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Financing and (B) Grant Liens and Superpriority Administrative Expense Claims, (II) Modifying the Automatic Stay, and (III) Granting Related Relief [ECF No. 964] (the "DIP Motion"). The motion was heard on regular notice, on October 5, 2020. See id. One formal objection was filed, on behalf of certain sureties, see ECF No. 987, and it was resolved prior to the hearing. See ECF Nos. 995, 996 (withdrawing objection); ECF No. 1001 (revised form of order). On October 5, 2020, the Court entered the Final Order (I) Authorizing the Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Financing, and (B) Grant Liens and Superpriority Administrative Expense Claims, (II) Modifying the Automatic Stay, and (III) Granting Related Relief [ECF No. 1031] (the "Final DIP Order"), which became effective immediately. See Final DIP Order ¶ 54. No appeals of the Final DIP Order or motions for relief from the Final DIP Order have been filed. See ECF Docket. Following entry of the Final DIP Order, all holders (the "2023 Noteholders") of 9.00% Senior Secured Notes due 2023 (the "2023 Notes") were given an opportunity to participate in the roll-up that had been approved pursuant to the Final DIP Order, through a notice disseminated by the ad hoc group. See Burlingame Objection (as defined herein) at Ex. A (the "Bondholder Roll-Up Notice"). Ultimately, holders of approximately 75% of the 2023 Notes participated in the roll-up on the terms set forth by the ad hoc group's Bondholder Roll-Up Notice. See Disc. Stmt. § II.D.1.d.

5. The Debtors subsequently filed a motion to approve their refinanced and expanded postpetition financing on August 5, 2021. See ECF No. 1972. The motion was heard on regular notice, on August 18, 2021. See id. (noting date and time of hearing). No formal objections were filed, and all informal comments were resolved prior to the hearing. See ECF Nos. 1998, 2024 (revised forms of order). Among other things, the refinanced and expanded postpetition financing increased the Tranche A DIP Obligations by approximately $170 million. See Debtors' Motion for Entry of a Final Order (I) Authorizing the Debtors to Enter into Amendments to their Postpetition DIP Credit Documents and Enter Into Additional Documents in Furtherance Thereof, (II) Granting and Reaffirming Liens, (III) Granting Superpriority Administrative Expense Claims, (IV) Modifying the Automatic Stay, and (V) Granting Related Relief [ECF No. 1972] at 10; Declaration of John E. Luth in Support of Debtors' Motion for Entry of a Final Order (I) Authorizing the Debtors to Enter into Amendments to their Postpetition DIP Credit Documents and Enter Into Additional Documents in Furtherance Thereof, (II) Granting and Reaffirming Liens, (III) Granting Superpriority Administrative Expense Claims, (IV) Modifying the Automatic Stay, and (V) Granting Related Relief [ECF No. 1971] at 11. Tranche B was not modified pursuant to Final DIP Amendment Order. See Final Order (I) Authorizing the Debtors to Enter into Amendments to Their Postpetition DIP Credit Documents and Enter into Additional Documents in Furtherance Thereof, (II) Granting and Reaffirming Liens, (III) Granting Superpriority Administrative Expense Claims, (IV) Modifying the Automatic Stay, and (V) Granting Related Relief [ECF No. 2032] (the "Final DIP Amendment Order") ¶ 44 (providing that the Final DIP Order survives except as expressly set forth in or as inconsistent with the Final DIP Amendment Order). On August 18, 2021, the Court entered the Final DIP Amendment Order, which became effective immediately. See Final DIP Amendment Order ¶ 48. No appeals of the Final DIP Amendment Order or motions for relief from the Final DIP Amendment Order have been filed. See ECF Docket.

6. The Debtors filed the initial version of the Plan on August 10, 2021. See ECF No. 1981. The Plan included, inter alia, the following terms, which have not been modified in subsequent versions of the proposed Plan:

a. The Plan proposes to substantively consolidate (the "Avianca Debtors") all of the Debtors other than Aero Transporte de Carga Unión, S.A. de C.V. ("Aerounión"), Avifreight Holding México, S.A.P.I. de C.V. ("Avifreight"), and Servicios Aeroportuarios Integrados SAI S.A.S. ("SAI").[5]

b. The 2023 Notes were issued by Avianca Holdings S.A. and guaranteed by eleven of the Avianca Debtors. See Declaration of Ginger Hughes in Support of Confirmation of Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Avianca Holdings S.A. and its Affiliated Debtors [ECF No. 2262] (the "Hughes Decl.") ¶ 19. No holder of a 2023 Notes Claim has asserted that the 2023 Notes Claims are guaranteed by, or have recourse to the assets of, any Debtor other than the Avianca Debtors. In particular, no 2023 Notes Claim is guaranteed by, or has recourse to the assets of, Aerounión, Avifreight, or SAI. (As a general matter, the holders of 2023 Notes Claims benefit—along with all other holders of General Unsecured Avianca Claims—from the Avianca Debtors' equity interests in those entities.).

c. The Class of General Unsecured Avianca Claims includes all General Unsecured Claims against the Avianca Debtors, except for those claims that are instead classified as General Unsecured Convenience Claims. The General Unsecured

[5] Specifically, the Plan proposes to substantively consolidate: Avianca Holdings S.A.; Aeroinversiones de Honduras, S.A.; Aerovías del Continente Americano S.A. Avianca; Airlease Holdings One Ltd.; America Central (Canada) Corp.; America Central Corp.; AV International Holdco S.A.; AV International Holdings S.A.; AV International Investments S.A.; AV International Ventures S.A.; AV Investments One Colombia S.A.S.; AV Investments Two Colombia S.A.S.; AV Loyalty Bermuda Ltd.; AV Taca International Holdco S.A.; Aviacorp Enterprises S.A.; Avianca Costa Rica S.A.; Avianca Leasing, LLC; Avianca, Inc.; Avianca-Ecuador S.A.; Aviaservicios, S.A.; Aviateca, S.A.; C.R. Int'l Enterprises, Inc.; Grupo Taca Holdings Limited; International Trade Marks Agency Inc.; Inversiones del Caribe, S.A.; Isleña de Inversiones, S.A. de C.V.; Latin Airways Corp.; Latin Logistics, LLC; Nicaragüense de Aviación, Sociedad Anónima; Regional Express Américas S.A.S.; Ronair N.V.; Servicio Terrestre, Aéreo y Rampa S.A.; Taca de Honduras, S.A. de C.V.; Taca de México, S.A.; Taca International Airlines S.A.; Taca S.A.; Tampa Cargo S.A.S.; and Technical and Training Services, S.A. de C.V.

Avianca Claims include all 2023 Notes Claims and all 2020 Notes Claims. See Plan § I.A.118.

d. Holders of General Unsecured Avianca Claims (including holders of 2023 Notes Claims) will receive Pro Rata Shares of either (a) the Unsecured Claimholder Cash Pool or (b) if such holder is an Eligible Holder and makes a valid election, the Unsecured Claimholder Equity Pool and the Warrants. See Plan §§ I.A.230–234, III.B.11; Disc. Stmt. at 32.

e. Holders of Tranche B DIP Facility Claims will receive Pro Rata Shares of 97.5% of pre-new-money equity in Reorganized AVH. See Plan § II.B; Disc. Stmt. at 32. As part of the Global Plan Settlement, the holders of Tranche B DIP Facility Claims also consented to a carve-out of the value of their collateral in order to provide the foregoing recoveries to holders of General Unsecured Avianca Claims. See Disc. Stmt. at 32.

7. The Court entered an order approving the Disclosure Statement[6] and solicitation procedures on September 15, 2021. See ECF No. 2136. The Debtors commenced solicitation of the Plan on September 22, 2021, and the voting deadline was October 15, 2021. See Certification of P. Joseph Morrow IV with Respect to the Tabulation of Votes [ECF No. 2239] (the "Voting Certification") ¶¶ 5, 13.

8. The following objections to confirmation of the Plan, among others, were filed:

a. Substantially identical objections (collectively, the "Burlingame Objection"), variously filed on a counseled or pro se basis, by Burlingame Investment Partners

[6] See Third Amended Disclosure Statement for Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Avianca Holdings S.A. and its Affiliated Debtors [Solicitation Version] [ECF No. 2131] (the "Disclosure Statement").

LP, William B Meier IRA, David M Kang SEP IRA, Blake W Kim Rollover IRA,[7] and Im Jo Degerman Rollover IRA (collectively, the "Burlingame Objectors"). See ECF Nos. 2214, 2215, 2218, 2222, 2227.

b. One objection (the "Baruch Objection") filed by Udi Baruch Guindi, David Baruch, Soshana Baruch, Habib Mann, Golan LP, and Isaak Baruch (collectively, the "Baruch Objectors" and, together with the Burlingame Objectors, the "Objectors"). See ECF No. 2231.

9. The U.S. Trustee did not interpose an objection to Confirmation but instead filed a Statement. See Stmt. of U.S. Trustee, ECF No. 2240. The U.S. Trustee's Statement reserved his right to object to non-consensual third-party releases, which are not a component of the Plan. See Stmt. of U.S. Trustee at 5-6 ("Although it does not appear that there will be any holders of claims who have not been afforded the opportunity to opt-out of the Third-Party Releases, to the extent that there are any such non-consensual releases, the United States Trustee reserves his right to object.").

10. The hearing on Confirmation was held on October 26, 2021. Except for the objections of the Objectors, all objections were either resolved prior to the conclusion of the hearing or, with respect to certain objections related to the assumption and cure of particular executory contracts, deferred to a future date. The U.S. Trustee was present but did not speak at the Confirmation hearing. At the conclusion of the hearing, the Court directed the Debtors and the [7] Mr. Kim previously objected to the Debtors' Disclosure Statement. The Court overruled those objections because Mr. Kim "failed to file a timely objection to the Disclosure Statement" and noted that some of "Mr. Kim's objections actually deal with prior orders entered by the Court, particularly with respect to the approval of debtor-in-possession financing, and adequate protection and security provided to the DIP lenders." See Memorandum Opinion Approving Third Amended Disclosure Statement, Solicitation Procedures and other Relief [ECF No. 2135] at 16.

Objectors to file their respective proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law related to the issues raised by the Objectors.[8]

II. THE 2023 NOTEHOLDERS ARE WHOLLY UNSECURED AND MAY NOT RECEIVE VALUE ON ACCOUNT OF SHARED COLLATERAL

a. Findings of Fact

i The 2023 Noteholders Have Junior Interests in the Shared Collateral.

11. In connection with the original issuance of the 2023 Notes, and to secure the 2023 Notes Claims, certain of the Debtors granted to the 2023 Notes Indenture Trustee (in its capacity as a collateral trustee) liens, mortgages and security interests in the Collateral (as defined in the 2023 Notes Indenture), including in certain intellectual property, equity interests in specific subsidiaries, aircraft residual value and certain aircraft (collectively, the "Shared Collateral"). See Final DIP Order ¶ E(iii); DIP Motion ¶ 18.

12. All parties with prepetition security interests in the Shared Collateral are party to the Collateral Sharing Agreement, dated as of November 1, 2019 (as amended, supplemented, or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Collateral Sharing Agreement"), which governs the relative rights and remedies of the holders of 2023 Notes Claims, on the one hand, and the other parties with prepetition security interests in the Shared Collateral, on the other hand, as they relate to the Shared Collateral. See Final DIP Order ¶ E(iv). Pursuant to the Collateral Sharing Agreement, the 2023 Notes Indenture Trustee is the Applicable Authorized Representative (as defined therein) and has sole authority to act or refrain from acting with respect to the Shared Collateral, including sole authority to consent to the incurrence of priming liens on the Shared Collateral. See id.

[8] A compendium of unreported decisions and filings entered in other proceedings cited herein is attached hereto as an exhibit.

13. The 2023 Notes Indenture Trustee, in its capacity as Applicable Authorized Representative, on behalf of all First Lien Secured Parties (as defined in the Collateral Sharing Agreement), and at the direction of holders of more than the requisite majority of the then-existing obligations under the 2023 Notes,[9] consented to the priming of all liens on the Shared Collateral, as provided by and subject to the terms of the Final DIP Order and the DIP credit documents. No other consent was required. See Final DIP Order ¶ F(iii).

14. The Final DIP Order granted liens to the DIP Credit Parties on all of the "DIP Collateral" (as defined therein), which includes but is not limited to all of the Shared Collateral. See Final DIP Order ¶ 5(b). Those liens ranked senior in priority to the liens held by the 2023 Notes Indenture Trustee in favor of the holders of 2023 Notes Claims. See Final DIP Order ¶ 6(a)(iii).

15. The Final DIP Order requires DIP Facility Claims to "be satisfied first from proceeds of the Shared Collateral and second from proceeds of other DIP Collateral (whether or not an event of default or exercise of remedies has occurred)." Final DIP Order ¶ 28.

16. The Final DIP Order also extinguishes any claim or right of the holders of the 2023 Notes Claims "against any Debtor for, arising out of, or related to adequate protection (including for the avoidance of doubt, on account of the priming of any liens in respect of the Shared Collateral"). Final DIP Order ¶ 34.

17. Consistent with the foregoing, all holders of 2023 Notes received the Bondholder Roll-Up Notice that informed them that "[t]he priming of the existing liens on the 2023 Notes Collateral [i.e., the Shared Collateral] will entitle Tranche A and Tranche B [i.e., the DIP Facility Claims] to be repaid from proceeds of the 2023 Notes Collateral in full prior to any distribution from the proceeds of the 2023 Notes Collateral on account of any other claims that are secured by the 2023 Notes Collateral, including the [2023] Notes." See Bondholder Roll-Up Notice at 3.

18. The Debtors subsequently obtained a refinancing of Tranche A of the DIP Facility, which expanded the size of Tranche A to $1,600,000,000 in principal without modifying the amount or structure of Tranche B DIP Obligations. See Final DIP Amendment Order at Preamble(a), ¶ 44. The Final DIP Amendment Order re-affirmed the grant of priming liens and the marshalling of the DIP Liens toward the Shared Collateral. See Final DIP Amendment Order ¶¶ E(iii), 6(a)(iii), 30. No holders of 2023 Notes objected to entry of the Final DIP Amendment Order. See ECF Docket.

19. As a result of the Final DIP Order and the Final DIP Amendment Order, the interests of holders of 2023 Notes in the Shared Collateral are junior to over $2,510,000,000 of DIP Facility Claims, consisting of over $1,600,000,000 of Tranche A-1 DIP Obligations and Tranche A-2 DIP Obligations[10] and Tranche B DIP Obligations that will exceed $910,000,000 upon any conversion or refinancing.[11] Cf. Disc. Stmt., Ex. C, at C-4 (scheduling $2,455,300,000 of DIP Facility Claims as of March 31, 2021). As noted above, those DIP Facility Claims must be satisfied from the Shared Collateral before the DIP Facility Claims may look to any other collateral.

[10] See Final DIP Amendment Order at Preamble(a), (c), ¶ 2(a) (authorizing borrowing of an aggregate of $1,600,000,000 in principal of Tranche A-1 DIP Obligations and Tranche A-2 DIP Obligations). Some interest and fees have accrued since closing.

[11] The Tranche B DIP Facility was originally a $722,691,000 facility. See Final DIP Order at Preamble(c). Because the Debtors have not paid cash interest during the Chapter 11 Cases, interest has accrued at a rate of 14.50% per annum. See Mot. for Final DIP Order [ECF No. 1972] at 19 (summarizing terms of facility). Additionally, a 10% exit fee would be payable upon any refinancing or conversion into equity of the Tranche B DIP Claims. See id. at 21. It follows that, more than one year after the facility was approved, over $910,000,000 of Tranche B DIP Obligations would require repayment if the Debtors were to refinance those obligations with alternative capital. Cf. Decl. of John Luth ¶ 20 [ECF No. 1971] (estimating Tranche B DIP Claims to be at least $935,000,000 upon emergence).

20. The Bondholder Roll-Up Notice provided all 2023 Noteholders the opportunity to convert their 2023 Notes into Tranche A DIP Loans (as defined in the Final DIP Order) at a ratio of $100:$20 without investing any new money or at a ratio of $100:$32 if they elected to invest new money. See Bondholder Roll-Up Notice at 3. The Bondholder Roll-Up Notice provided a deadline of September 8, 2020 to elect to participate in the DIP. Id at 2. The notes held by the Objectors did not participate in the DIP, and therefore the Objectors remain holders of 2023 Notes. The Objectors do not dispute any fact set forth in paragraphs 10-18 supra.

21. The Plan does not challenge the validity or perfection of the liens securing the 2023 Notes Claims. The Plan treats the 2023 Notes Claims consistent with the priority of the liens securing those claims, as primed by the DIP Facility Claims pursuant to the Final DIP Order and the Final DIP Amendment Order.

ii The Debtors Conducted a Comprehensive Marketing Process.

22. Under the DIP Credit Agreement (as defined herein), the Debtors enjoyed an option, subject to certain conditions, to convert the Tranche B DIP Obligations into equity in Reorganized AVH. See DIP Credit Agreement (filed at Ex. G to DIP Motion), Ex. B at B-3; cf. DIP Order ¶ 36; Disc. Stmt. at 31. The Tranche B lenders were not obligated to provide any additional new capital to the Debtors in connection with emergence from chapter 11.

23. The Debtors conducted a process in April through June of 2021 (the "Solicitation Process") to solicit debt or equity investments to refinance either or both tranches of the DIP Facility and to provide additional capital for emergence. See Neuhauser Decl. ¶ 11; Tr. at 120:7-18 (testimony of Mr. Neuhauser); cf. Final DIP Amendment Order (approving result of debt solicitation process).

24. The Solicitation Process was rigorous and comprehensive. It was led by the Debtors' management and the Debtors' investment banker and financial advisor, Seabury Securities ("Seabury"), under the supervision of the Independent Equity Committee of the board of directors of Avianca Holdings S.A. and in consultation with Jefferies LLC, the investment banker retained by the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors in these cases. See Neuhauser Decl. ¶ 11; see also Tr. at 179:16-25. Seabury initially contacted over 125 potentially interested parties on behalf of the Debtors. See Neuhauser Decl. ¶ 11. Many were already familiar with the Debtors' business, and over 35 accessed a virtual data room containing comprehensive information on the Debtors' business plan, cash flow projections, and other pertinent materials. See Neuhauser Decl. ¶ 11. Many of these potential investors also participated in focused diligence sessions with the Debtors' management team and professional advisors. See Neuhauser Decl. ¶ 11.

25. The Solicitation Process did not result in a workable alternative to conversion of the Tranche B DIP Facility Claims into equity in Reorganized AVH on terms negotiated with the holders of the Tranche B DIP Facility Claims. See Neuhauser Decl. ¶ 11. In particular, the Solicitation Process did not result in an offer to fund debt and/or equity investments in amounts sufficient to repay the Tranche A and Tranche B DIP Facility Claims. See Neuhauser Decl. ¶ 11; Tr. at 111:16-25; 119:10-17; 121:8-24 (testimony of Mr. Neuhauser).

iii The Results of the Solicitation Process Demonstrate That the DIP Facility Claims are Underwater and There Is No Residual Value in the Shared Collateral.

26. To emerge from chapter 11, the Debtors must either (i) pay the Tranche B DIP Facility Claims in full in cash on the Plan's Effective Date, or (ii) equitize the Tranche B DIP Facility Claims pursuant to the terms set forth in the Final DIP Order. Here, the Tranche B DIP Facility Claims must be equitized; although the Solicitation Process succeeded in refinancing Tranche A and raising $170 million of incremental liquidity, it did not result in an alternative that would give the Debtors the ability to repay the Tranche B DIP Facility Claims in cash on the Plan's Effective Date. Each of the holders of Tranche B DIP Facility Claims consented to that equitization by executing the Tranche B Equity Conversion Agreement. See Plan § II.D.; Equity Conversion & Commitment Agr., Ex. B to ECF No. 2070. Certain holders of the Tranche B DIP Facility Claims also agreed to dilute themselves (and the other holders of the Tranche B DIP Facility Claims) by providing an additional $200 million equity financing to the Debtors upon emergence because the Debtors were unable to source that financing elsewhere, including in the debt markets. See Tr. at 124:15-17 ("We were able to raise a little bit more senior debt, and we were unable to raise equity or an alternative to equity on better terms than what we had.").

27. The results of the Solicitation Process demonstrate that the aggregate value of all of the Debtors' assets (as encumbered by interests that are senior to both the DIP Facility Claims and the 2023 Notes Claims) is less than the amount of outstanding DIP Facility Claims. See Neuhauser Decl. ¶ 11; Tr. at 111:16-25; 119:10-17; 121:8-24 (testimony of Mr. Neuhauser); see also supra note 10 (explaining calculation of over $910,000,000 in Tranche B DIP Facility Claims). In fact, the Plan's valuation of $800 million[12] for pre-new-money equity that is encumbered by at least $1,600,000,000 in Tranche A DIP Facility Claims reflects that the value of equitizing Tranche B DIP Facility Claims (at least $910,000,000) substantially exceeds the value of all of the Debtors' assets.

28. The Shared Collateral represents only a limited portion of the Debtors' overall asset base. In other words, the value of the Shared Collateral is less than the value of all of the Debtors' assets. Since the value of all of the Debtors' assets is, in turn, less than the value of the DIP Facility Claims, it necessarily follows that the value of the Shared Collateral, measured in light of its use

[12] This valuation is implied by the Tranche B DIP Lenders' new-money investment, as they have committed to invest $200 million in exchange for approximately 20% of post-new money Reorganized AVH Equity. See Plan § I.A.222; Notice of Filing of Plan Supplement [ECF No. 2276] (the "Plan Supplement"), at Ex. N, Sch. I. It is also implied by the terms of the cash/equity election that was available to holders of General Unsecured Avianca Claims. See Plan § I.A.135(a) (definition of "Implied Equity/Warrant Value").

pursuant to the Plan within the Reorganized Debtors' business, is also worth less than the amount of outstanding DIP Facility Claims. Tr. at 116:8-12; 118:2 (testimony of Mr. Neuhauser); Neuhauser Decl. ¶ 11. Accordingly, no residual value of the Shared Collateral remains for the 2023 Notes Claims.

29. Thus, the value of the interest of the holders of 2023 Notes Claims in the Shared Collateral is zero.

b. Conclusions of Law

i The Objectors Cannot Collaterally Attack the Final DIP Order.

30. The Final DIP Order provides that the DIP Facility Claims are senior to the 2023 Notes Claims, and that the DIP Facility Claims must be satisfied first from the Shared Collateral.

31. The Objectors cannot collaterally attack the Final DIP Order[13] (or the more recent Final DIP Amendment Order) through a confirmation objection because final orders constitute res judicata and the law of the case. The Objectors did not file motions for reconsideration pursuant to Rule 9023 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure and did not appeal from the Final DIP Order or the Final DIP Amendment Order. Nor have the Objectors filed separate motions for relief from the Final DIP Order or the Final DIP Amendment Order under Rule 9024 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, and in any event do not come remotely close to showing cause for relief. Cf. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9024 (incorporating Rule 60 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure); Fed. R. Civ. P. 60 (permitting relief "within a reasonable time" for, among other things, "mistake, inadvertence, surprise, [] excusable neglect," "newly discovered evidence," "fraud . . ., misrepresentation, [] misconduct," or a "void" "judgment"). Accordingly, the Final [13] As noted supra, the Court earlier in these cases overruled the objections of Mr. Kim, one of the Burlingame Objectors, to the Debtors' Disclosure Statement in part because "Mr. Kim's objections actually deal with prior orders entered by the Court, particularly with respect to the approval of debtor-in-possession financing . . . and security provided to the DIP lenders." See Memorandum Opinion Approving Third Amended Disclosure Statement, Solicitation Procedures and other Relief [ECF No. 2135] at 16.

DIP Order and the Final DIP Amendment Order are binding as to all factual and legal matters decided therein. See Final DIP Order ¶ 39 ("Immediately upon, and effective as of, entry by the Court, the provisions of this Final Order . . . shall become valid and binding upon the Debtors and the DIP Secured Parties and any and all other creditors of the Debtors, . . . any and all other parties in interest and their respective successors and assigns . . . ."). Moreover, pursuant to the Collateral Sharing Agreement, "the Existing Notes Trustee has sole authority to act or refrain from acting with respect to the Shared Collateral, including sole authority to consent to the incurrence of priming liens on the Shared Collateral, and the Non-Applicable Authorized Representatives and the Non-Controlling Secured Parties may not contest or object to such actions." See Final DIP Order ¶ E(iv).

ii The 2023 Notes Claims Are Wholly Unsecured.

32. An allowed claim of a creditor secured by a lien on estate property is a secured claim only to the extent of the value of the creditor's interest in the estate's interest in the property. The allowed claim is an unsecured claim to the extent that the value of the creditor's interest is less than the amount of its allowed claim. 11 U.S.C. § 506(a)(1).

33. The value of a creditor's interest in property is determined in light of the purpose of the valuation and of the proposed disposition or use of such property. 11 U.S.C. § 506(a)(1).

34. A creditor bears the burden of proof to show the existence and value of its interest, if any, in collateral. See In re Sneijder, 407 B.R. 46, 55 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2009) (Glenn, J.) (collecting cases); cf. In re Heritage Highgate, Inc., 679 F.3d 132, 139-140 (3d Cir. 2012) (adopting a burden-shifting approach, under which the secured creditor bears the ultimate burden of persuasion once the debtor has produced "sufficient evidence" that "the collateral is of insufficient value"). Even under the framework of In re Heritage Highgate, the Debtors have produced sufficient evidence—namely the declaration and testimony of Mr. Neuhauser regarding the Solicitation Process—that the burden of proof has shifted to the Objectors to prove that the value of the Shared Collateral exceeds the value of the DIP Facility Claims.

35. A robust market test is normally the best indicator of the value of a business or its assets. See, e.g., In re Boston Generating, LLC, 440 B.R. 302, 324 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2010) ("Because the Debtors' sale process was heavily marketed and potential buyers were presented with abundant information, the sale process reflects a true test of value."); In re Chemtura Corp., 439 B.R. 561, 586–87 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2010).

36. As set forth in the findings of fact above, the Solicitation Process demonstrated that the Tranche B DIP Facility Claims are underwater. The value of the Tranche B DIP Lenders' interest in the DIP Collateral is less than the value of their claims, and the Tranche B DIP Lenders must recover first from the Shared Collateral, which is a subset of the DIP Collateral. Since the 2023 Notes Claims are junior to those Tranche B DIP Facility Claims, it follows that the interest of the 2023 Notes Claims in the Shared Collateral is zero. In other words, the 2023 Notes Claims are wholly unsecured.

37. The Objectors have failed to meet their burden of proof that their interest in the Shared Collateral has any value. In fact, they have not adduced any evidence to suggest that the value of the Shared Collateral exceeds the amount of the Tranche A DIP Facility Claims, much less the Tranche A DIP Facility Claims and the Tranche B DIP Facility Claims combined. Furthermore, even if it were the case that the Debtors bore the burden of proof on this question, the Debtors have proven by a preponderance of the evidence that the interest of the holders of 2023 Notes Claims in the Shared Collateral has no value.

iii The 2023 Notes Claims Cannot Receive a Recovery Except on Terms Consistent with the Tranche B Equity Conversion Agreement.

38. The Objectors would like to receive a recovery on account of their junior interests in the Shared Collateral, even while the senior Tranche B DIP Facility Claims are economically impaired and being equitized completely. The Bankruptcy Code does not permit such a result, except with the consent of each Tranche B DIP Lender.

39. The Tranche B DIP Facility Claims are superpriority administrative claims. See Final DIP Order ¶ 7; cf. 11 U.S.C. §§ 364(d), 503(a), 507(a)(2). The holders of Tranche B DIP Facility Claims are thus entitled to payment in full in cash on the Effective Date, unless they consent to different treatment. See 11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(9)(A).[14]

40. Because the equitization of the Tranche B DIP Facility Claims depends entirely on the consent of the holders of those claims, no recovery can be provided to any creditor with a junior interest in the DIP Facility's collateral except on terms that are consistent with that consent. Those terms are exactly the terms set forth in the Tranche B Equity Conversion Agreement and the Plan. Cf. Plan § X.A.1. (requiring "all transactions and other documents to effectuate the Restructuring [to] contain terms and conditions consistent in all material respects with the Tranche B Equity Conversion Agreement"). In short, the Plan's treatment of the 2023 Notes Claims is the only permissible treatment of those claims, so long as the Tranche B DIP Facility Claims are not paid in full in cash. Since the Solicitation Process did not provide a viable path to refinance the Tranche

[14] The Tranche B DIP Facility Claims were technically "Unimpaired" for purposes of classification. Those Claims were Unimpaired only because each holder had already consented to its treatment by executing the Tranche B Equity Conversion Agreement, which permits a recovery to unsecured creditors. Economically, however, the Plan's treatment—a complete equitization at a valuation below the amount that the Debtors would be required to pay to settle the Tranche B DIP Facility Claims in cash—severely impairs the Tranche B DIP Facility Claims. Therefore, without the Tranche B DIP Lenders' consent, the Plan's treatment of their claims would flout the mandate of section 1129(a)(9)(A) and would make the Plan patently unconfirmable.

A DIP Facility Claims and pay the Tranche B DIP Facility Claims in full in cash, the 2023 Notes Claims must be treated as entirely unsecured.

iv The 2023 Notes Claims Are Properly Classified as General Unsecured Avianca Claims.

41. Except as provided in section 1122(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, a chapter 11 plan may place a claim in a particular class only if the claim is substantially similar to the other claims that are placed in the same class. See 11 U.S.C. § 1122(a).

42. Because the 2023 Notes Claims are wholly unsecured claims, they are classified appropriately with other such claims as General Unsecured Avianca Claims.

III. SECTION 1129(B) DOES NOT APPLY, AND, IN ANY EVENT, THE PLAN IS "FAIR AND EQUITABLE"

a. Findings of Fact: Class 11 (General Unsecured Avianca Claims) Voted to Accept the Plan.

43. The Burlingame Objectors claim that "[t]he Debtors did not exercise 'fair and equitable' judgement [sic] to the holders of the 2023 Notes." See Burlingame Objection at 10-11.

44. The Baruch Objectors claim that the Plan: (i) "violates the absolute priority rule and is unfair and inequitable" and (ii) "unfairly discriminates against the Creditors and other 2023 Noteholders." See Baruch Objection ¶¶ 35,43.

45. Under the Plan, 2023 Notes Claims are classified in Class 11 (General Unsecured Avianca Claims). See Plan, Art. I.A.112.

46. As set forth in the Voting Certification, holders of Claims in Class 11 (General Unsecured Avianca Claims) holding approximately 98.96% in amount and approximately 92.09% in number of General Unsecured Avianca Claims that cast votes on the Plan, voted to accept the Plan. See Voting Certification, Ex. A.

47. As further set forth in the Voting Certification, holders of 2023 Notes Claims holding approximately 77.49% in amount and approximately 83.73% in number of 2023 Notes Claims that cast votes on the Plan, voted to accept the Plan.

b. Conclusions of Law: The "Fair and Equitable" and "Unfair Discrimination" Tests Under Section 1129(b) Do Not Apply.

48. Class 11 (General Unsecured Avianca Claims) voted to accept the Plan pursuant to section 1126(c) of the Bankruptcy Code because the Plan was accepted by holders of at least two-thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of the Claims in Class 11 that cast votes on the Plan. See 11 U.S.C. § 1126(c).

49. The "fair and equitable" and "unfair discrimination" tests under section 1129(b) must only be satisfied "with respect to each class of claims or interests that is impaired under, and has not accepted, the plan." Id. § 1129(b)(1) (emphasis added).

50. Because Class 11 (General Unsecured Avianca Claims) voted to accept the Plan, the Debtors are not required to satisfy the requirements of section 1129(b), including the "fair and equitable" and "unfair discrimination" tests, with respect to Class 11, which includes 2023 Notes Claims. See In re Aegerion Pharm., Inc., 605 B.R. 22, 33 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2019) (Glenn, J.) (finding that an "impaired class . . . has accepted the plan, so section 1129(b)(1) does not apply" with respect to such class); In re Breitburn Energy Partners LP, 582 B.R. 321, 357 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2018) (finding that a creditor cannot raise an objection to a plan under the "fair and equitable" and "unfair discrimination" tests under section 1129(b) if such creditor's class "accepted the [p]lan" because "the cram down provisions under 11 U.S.C. § 1129(b) do not apply to his class"); see also In re Tribune Co., 972 F.3d 228, 242 (3d Cir. 2020) (holding that "a disapproving creditor within a class that approves a plan cannot claim unfair discrimination"); In re W.R. Grace & Co., 475 B.R. 34, 175 (Bankr. D. Del. 2012) ("[T]he fair and equitable requirements of § 1129(b) do not apply here because the impaired classes and interests in this case all voted to accept the Plan.").

51. Because the Debtors are not required to satisfy the "fair and equitable" test under section 1129(b) with respect to Class 11, holders of Claims in Class 11 (including 2023 Notes Claims) may not raise arguments with respect to the "absolute priority rule." See Motorola Inc. v. Official Comm. of Unsecured Creditors (In re Iridium Operating LLC), 478 F.3d 452, 462–63 (2d Cir. 2007) (holding that the "fair and equitable" test under section 1129(b) "codifies the judge-made 'absolute priority rule'); In re Armstrong World Indus., Inc., 432 F.3d 507, 512 (3d Cir. 2005) ("[T]he "fair and equitable" requirement for a cram down . . . invokes the absolute priority rule. . . . The absolute priority rule was later codified as part of the 'fair and equitable' requirement of 11 U.S.C. § 1129(b)."); see also Official Comm. of Equity Sec. Holders v. Official Comm. of Unsecured Creditors (In re Adelphia Commc'ns Corp.), 544 F.3d 420, 426 (2d Cir. 2008) (Sotomayor, J.) ("[A] plan need not satisfy the Absolute Priority Rule so long as any class adversely affected by the variation accepts the plan.").

52. Even if 2023 Notes Claims had been separately classified under the Plan, holders of 2023 Notes Claims nevertheless are prohibited from objecting on the basis that the Plan does not satisfy the "fair and equitable" and "unfair discrimination" tests under section 1129(b) because the Plan was accepted by holders of at least two-thirds in amount and more than one-half in number of 2023 Notes Claims that cast votes on the Plan pursuant to section 1126(c), see 11 U.S.C. § 1126(c). Thus, the Debtors would not be required to satisfy the requirements of section 1129(b) with respect to such accepting class of 2023 Notes Claims, see Aegerion, 605 B.R. at 33; Breitburn, 582 B.R. at 357.

c. Findings of Fact: The Plan Does Not Allow Classes Junior to the 2023 Notes Claims to Receive or Retain Value.

53. The Plan does not allow any holders of Subordinated Claims, Existing AVH Non-Voting Equity Interests, Existing AVH Common Equity Interests, or Other Existing Equity Interests to receive or retain any property of value. See Plan §§ III.B.16, .18, .19, .22.[15]

d. Conclusions of Law: The Plan is Fair and Equitable as to the 2023 Notes Claims.

54. A chapter 11 plan is "fair and equitable" as to an impaired rejecting class of unsecured claims when, among other things, the plan does not allow any holder of a junior claim or interest to receive or retain any property. See 11 U.S.C. § 1129(b)(1), (2)(B)(ii).

55. As set forth above, the Plan does not impermissibly allow any holders of Subordinated Claims, Existing AVH Non-Voting Equity Interests, Existing AVH Common Equity Interests, or Other Existing Equity Interests to receive or retain any property of more than de minimis value. Accordingly, the treatment of those Classes is fair and equitable as to the holders of 2023 Notes Claims.

56. The Plan does allow holders of Existing Avifreight Equity Interests or Existing SAI Equity Interests to retain their Interests, and Aerounión has no direct third-party equity holders. 2023 Noteholders have no claims against Avifreight, SAI, or Aerounión, however, aside from the indirect interest that every other unsecured creditor holds through the Avianca Debtors' equity stakes in those entities. Accordingly, the "fair and equitable" standard is not applicable as to those Classes relative to the holders of 2023 Notes Claims.

[15] Pursuant to the transaction steps set forth in the Plan Supplement, holders of interests in Classes 18 and 19 will retain their formal interests in Avianca Holdings S.A. See Exhibit A to Plan Supplement (ECF Nos. 2185, 2276). However, these interests will no longer have any value whatsoever because all of the Avianca operating subsidiaries and the separate property of Avianca Holdings S.A. (such as separate contract rights and intellectual property) will be transferred to Reorganized AVH. Furthermore, no Objector has asserted that the treatment of these Classes, which is economically equivalent to complete extinguishment, is contrary to the absolute priority rule.

IV. THE PLAN IS IN THE BEST INTERESTS OF HOLDERS OF THE 2023 NOTES CLAIMS

a. Findings of Fact: Each Holder of 2023 Notes Claims Will Receive Greater Value under the Plan than in a Hypothetical Liquidation.

57. In a hypothetical liquidation under chapter 7, the DIP Facility Claims would receive approximately 71% recovery while the 2023 Notes Claims would receive zero recovery. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 15; Disc. Stmt., Ex. C, at C-4 (note 17 and chart).

58. The 2023 Notes Claims will receive greater than zero recovery under the Plan. See Plan ¶ III.B.11.

b. Conclusions of Law: The Plan Is In the Best Interests of Holders of the 2023 Notes Claims.

59. Section 1129(a)(7) sets forth the "best interests" test: with respect to each impaired class of claims, each non-accepting holder of a claim in that class must receive or retain under the plan on account of such claim property of a value, as of the effective date of the plan, that is not less than the amount that such holder would receive or retain if the debtor were liquidated under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code on the effective date. 11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(7).

60. Holders of 2023 Notes Claims would receive zero recovery in a hypothetical liquidation under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, but receive some recovery under the Plan. Accordingly, the Plan satisfies the "best interests" test of section 1129(a)(7).

V. THE PLAN PROVIDES FOR APPROPRIATE SUBSTANTIVE CONSOLIDATION OF THE AVIANCA DEBTORS

a. Findings of Fact

61. The Plan proposes to substantively consolidate all of the Debtor entities except for Aerounión, Avifreight, and SAI.

62. The Baruch Objectors argue that substantive consolidation is not appropriate. See Baruch Objection ¶ 28.

63. Both the Burlingame Objectors and the Baruch Objectors assert that partial substantive consolidation of the Debtors is unfair to certain creditors. See Burlingame Objection at 13-16; Baruch Objection ¶¶ 32-33.

64. Substantive consolidation of the Debtors with one another—except for Aerounión, Avifreight, and SAI—for the purposes of the Plan is appropriate because (a) the Avianca Debtors operate in a consolidated manner such that the operations of the Avianca Debtors are hopelessly entangled and (b) creditors deal with the Avianca Debtors as one network. See Hughes Decl. ¶¶ 17-18.

i The Avianca Debtors are Hopelessly Entangled.

65. The Avianca Debtors' operations are tightly integrated, such that untangling each Avianca Debtor's separate operations would be difficult, time-consuming, and expensive. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 18; see also Tr. at 140:12-141:3; 148:1-3; 153:11-154:8; 155:6-10; 157:10-158:2; 158:18-25; 160:17-20; 161:9-21; 161:21-162:7 (testimony of Ms. Hughes).

66. The Avianca Debtors utilize a centralized cash management system, whereby Avianca Holdings S.A. (an Avianca Debtor) manages cash for the other Avianca Debtors. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 18.

67. Avianca Holdings S.A. and other Avianca Debtors provide intercompany loans and other advanced capitalization to the other Avianca Debtors as necessary. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 18.

68. Employees across the Avianca Debtors perform work for all of the Avianca Debtors, regardless of which country or Debtor in which the employees sit. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 18.

69. In many cases and except as limited by local regulation, the Avianca Debtors share many of the same officers, directors, and shareholders, including Chief Executive Officer, Chief Operating Officer, Chief People Officer, Chief Planning Officer, General Counsel, Chief Information Officer, and Chief Commercial Officer. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 18.

70. The Avianca Debtors share the same legal, marketing, and HR resources, all of which are provided by Avianca Holdings S.A. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 18.

71. All Avianca Debtors share a headquarters. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 18.

72. It is common for the Avianca Debtors to give cross-entity guarantees when requested by another Avianca Debtor, further linking the Avianca Debtors. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 19.

73. Untangling the operations of the Avianca Debtors would be an extremely time-consuming process. See Tr. at 158:18-25 (testimony of Ms. Hughes) (". . . I mean, I can't even fathom how long it would take, with my -- you know, based on my experience and knowing the way the -- the airlines operate."). Separating out the books and records of the different entities would take years and would cost millions of dollars. See Tr. at 160:17-20 (testimony of Ms. Hughes) (". . . I've been doing this for a very long time, and I can't imagine how [untangling the Avianca Debtors] would be done, and it would take millions of dollars and 20 years to accomplish. . . .").

74. Ms. Hughes, the Debtors' financial advisor, testified that the accounting processes and entanglement thereof at the Avianca Debtors are the most complex she has seen in her 30-year career. Tr. at 143:13-24 (testimony of Ms. Hughes) (". . . I'll tell you I've never seen [financial statements and general ledgers of airlines] this complex as Avianca Holdings by a longshot. . . .").

75. Even assuming the operations of the Avianca Debtors could be untangled, any such process would provide little, if any, benefit to any stakeholder. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 20. No holder of a general unsecured claim against the Debtors would receive materially superior recoveries if the Avianca Debtors were each required to propose separate plans of reorganization or liquidation.

See Hughes Decl. ¶ 20. This is because the value of the Avianca Debtors is maximized by the sum of the parts of the Avianca Debtors; as separate entities, the Avianca Debtors have materially less value. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 20.

76. The Avianca Debtors run a single network across all of their airline operations. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 20. Airline values are heavily correlated to the breadth of the network, as the customer proposition that drives loyalty and higher yield traffic is increased with the breadth and quality of the network offering. Id.

77. The Supporting Tranche B DIP Lenders may be unwilling to convert their existing loans to equity or contribute additional capital as set forth in the Plan if the Plan does not incorporate the Global Plan Settlement, including the substantive consolidation of the Avianca Debtors. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 20. Indeed, the Global Plan Settlement is predicated on substantive consolidation of the Avianca Debtors. Id. ¶ 17. Without the conversion and those additional capital contributions, the value of distributions (if any) to holders of general unsecured claims against the Debtors would likely be significantly less than the value of the distributions set forth in the Plan. Id. Liquidation would also be a genuine risk. The DIP Facility's maturity date is approaching on March 31, 2022, see Mot. for Entry of Final DIP Amendment Order [ECF No. 1972] at 12, and there is no reason to believe that the Debtors could negotiate, propose, solicit, obtain confirmation of, and implement a superior plan of reorganization by that date.

78. The Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors in these cases also supports the proposed substantive consolidation of the Avianca Debtors. See Joinder and Statement of the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors in Support of the Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Avianca Holdings S.A. and its Affiliated Debtors [ECF No. 2265] ¶¶ 3, 8-11; Tr. at 82:4-20.

ii Creditors View the Avianca Debtors as One-Integrated Entity.

79. The Avianca Debtors hold themselves out to customers and creditors as one "Avianca." See Hughes Decl. ¶ 18. And the creditors of the Avianca Debtors dealt and continue to deal with the Avianca Debtors on a single, consolidated basis. See generally Tr. at 144:5-19, 153:16-154:8, 155:6-10, 157:18-158:2, 158:3-6 (testimony of Ms. Hughes) (verifying that the Avianca Debtors hold themselves out as all part of the Avianca network).

80. Creditors generally view the Avianca Debtors as one "Avianca" brand. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 18.

81. Most of the Avianca Debtors' funded debt is subject to guarantees by many of the Avianca Debtors, such that many of the Avianca Debtors are jointly and severally liable for the debt of other Avianca Debtors. See generally Tr. at 158:7-159:23 (testimony of Ms. Hughes).

82. The 2023 Notes, which were issued by Avianca Holdings S.A., are guaranteed by major operating subsidiaries of Avianca Holdings S.A., including, among others, Aerovías del Continente Americano S.A. Avianca, Avianca Costa Rica S.A., Taca International Airlines S.A., Avianca Ecuador S.A., Tampa Cargo S.A.S., and Aviateca S.A. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 19.

83. Substantive consolidation of the Avianca Debtors will also therefore eliminate a significant number of general unsecured claims against the Debtors based on guarantees provided by an Avianca Debtor.

iii Aerounión, SAI, and Avifreight Do Not Meet the Standard for Substantive Consolidation with the Avianca Debtors.

84. The Objectors claim that, to the extent substantive consolidation is appropriate at all, it should include the three entities currently excluded from the substantive consolidation that is part of the Global Plan Settlement. See Baruch Objection ¶ 32; Burlingame Objection at 13-16.

85. SAI, Aerounión, and Avifreight are not hopelessly entangled with the Avianca Debtors, and instead maintain operations separate from the Avianca Debtors. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 23.

86. Unlike the Avianca Debtors, SAI, Aerounión, and Avifreight are not marketed by the Debtors as falling under the "Avianca" brand. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 23.

87. SAI is a ground-handling services provider in Colombian airports for Avianca, as well as for other airline customers. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 24.

88. SAI maintains separate accounting and treasury systems from the Avianca Debtors, and the Avianca Debtors cannot access those systems. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 24; Tr. at 138:3-10 (testimony of Ms. Hughes) (explaining that the centralized cash management system "excludes" SAI, Aerounión, and Avifreight).

89. SAI has a distinct management team and maintains separate operational and financial systems from those of the Avianca Debtors. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 24.

90. Because the Avianca Debtors are SAI's largest customer, it is "not marketing [itself] to Avianca as Avianca-controlled because Avianca [i]s [its] customer" and thus "from a customer proposition perspective, [SAI is] quite separate." Tr. at 155:11-25 (testimony of Ms. Hughes).

91. SAI also has a separate headquarters than that of the Avianca Debtors. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 24.

92. Because SAI is distinct and operationally separate from the Avianca Debtors, it is not entangled with the Avianca Debtors. Tr. at 155:1-5 (testimony of Ms. Hughes) ("And in SAI, again, you know, it was an acquired entity. It is run and maintained completely separate and has a management team that's separate and books and records that are separate. It's actually quite easy -- I mean, it's already separate. It's not hard to separate. It already is separate.").

93. Aerounión is an airline in Mexico and runs independently from the Avianca Debtors under Mexican foreign investment regulations. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 25; Tr. at 144:7-8 (testimony of Ms. Hughes) ("Aerounión, its business is run completely separate.").

94. Aerounión maintains separate accounting and treasury systems from the Avianca Debtors, which the Avianca Debtors cannot access. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 25.

95. Aerounión has a distinct management team and maintains separate operational and financial systems from those of the Avianca Debtors. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 25; Tr. at 154:18-20 (testimony of Ms. Hughes) ("Aerounión runs its own business, has its own set of books and records, has its own set of customers. They -- they -- they run an independent business.").

96. Aerounión has a headquarters separate from that of the Avianca Debtors. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 25. Indeed, Aerounión does not use or fall under the "Avianca" brand. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 23.

97. These separate operations also manifest in creditors a perception that that Aerounión is not part of the Avianca brand. For example, at one point during these Chapter 11 Cases, the financial advisor to the Debtors contacted a creditor of Aerounión to discuss Aerounión issues. The creditor initially refused to speak with Avianca's financial advisor, citing a belief that Avianca and Aerounión were not related entities. Tr. at 156:7-18 (testimony of Ms. Hughes).

98. Because Aerounión is distinct and operationally separate from the Avianca Debtors, its books and records are not entangled with the Avianca Debtors. Tr. at 154:12-13 (testimony of Ms. Hughes).

99. Avifreight was established with the sole purpose of complying with Mexican foreign investment regulations for foreign ownership of Aerounión. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 26; Tr. at 133:19-23; 136:13-18 (testimony of Ms. Hughes).

100. Avifreight is a holding company separately controlled and operated from the Avianca Debtors. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 26; Tr. at 133:15-18 (testimony of Ms. Hughes).

101. Avifreight maintains separate books and records. See Tr. at 142:14-17 (testimony of Ms. Hughes).

102. Because Avifreight is only a holding company for Aerounión, and has no creditors and no operations, it is not entangled with the Avianca Debtors. Tr. at 154:12-13, 154:21-25, 156:19-23 (testimony of Ms. Hughes).

iv The 2023 Noteholders are Not Impacted by the Exclusion of SAI, Aerounión, and/or Avifreight from Substantive Consolidation.

103. Creditors of the Avianca Debtors, including the 2023 Noteholders, are not materially impacted by the exclusion of SAI, Aerounión, and/or Avifreight from the Avianca Debtors. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 27.

104. None of SAI, Aerounión, or Avifreight are guarantors of the 2023 Notes. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 27.

105. Nor have the Burlingame Objectors or the Baruch Objectors asserted that the 2023 Notes have a lien on the assets or equity of SAI, Aerounión, or Avifreight.

106. Indeed, the Shared Collateral does not have liens on the equity of SAI, Aerounión, or Avifreight.

107. Nevertheless, the residual equity value of SAI, Aerounión, and Avifreight are augmenting the recoveries of the Avianca Debtors' creditors, including the holders of the 2023 Notes. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 27.

108. This is because one of the Avianca Debtors is a 90% shareholder in SAI, and thus the residual equity value of SAI flows to the Avianca Debtors as a benefit to the Debtors' estate and its creditors. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 27.

109. Similarly, 92% of the economic benefit in Aerounión flows to the Avianca Debtors for a benefit to the Debtors' estates and creditors, through the Avianca Debtors' interest in Avifreight. See Hughes Decl. ¶ 27; Tr. at 136:19-25, 137:1-3 (testimony of Ms. Hughes).

b. Conclusions of Law

i Substantive Consolidation of the Avianca Debtors is Appropriate.

110. Courts may exercise their equitable powers to substantively consolidate the assets and liabilities of two or more debtors for the purpose of creating a single common pool of assets from which creditors may seek recovery on their claims. See Union Sav. Bank v. Augie/Restivo Baking Co. (In re Augie/Restivo Baking Co.), 860 F.2d 515, 518 (2d Cir. 1988) ("Augie/Restivo") ("Substantive consolidation has no express statutory basis but is a product of judicial gloss."); In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Grp., Inc., 138 B.R. 723, 764 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1992); see also In re Donut Queen, Ltd., 41 B.R. 706, 708–09 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1984) (holding that the power of the court to substantively consolidate separate corporate debtors arises from section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code).

111. In the Second Circuit, courts apply the so-called Augie/Restivo test when assessing the propriety of substantive consolidation. Under this test, a court may order substantive

>
> (ii) creditors dealt with the debtor entities proposed to be substantively consolidated as a single economic unit and did not rely on their separate identities in extending credit ("Creditor Reliance").

Augie/Restivo, 860 F.2d at 518.

112. Courts have significant discretion to consider various factors, which can be used for both the Creditor Reliance and Hopeless Entanglement prongs of the test,[17] when determining whether substantive consolidation is appropriate. Those factors include (but are not limited to):

- the existence of operational entanglement;[18]
- the existence of guarantees and intercompany loans;[19]
- public perception of the debtors;[20]

[19] See, e.g., In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Grp., Inc., 138 B.R. at 741-45, 761-767 (approving substantive consolidation and noting it was "customary for customers, creditors, and counterparties to seek guarantees of DBL Group."); In re Republic Airways Holdings, Inc., 565 B.R. at 719 (finding significant overlap in creditor pools due to intercompany guarantees to be a factor in favor of consolidation).

[20] See, e.g., In re Drexel Burnham Lambert Grp., Inc., 138 B.R at 744 (noting that debtor entities to be consolidated "did not advertise in their own names and did not hold themselves out to the public as independent entities"); In re Republic Airways Holdings Inc., 565 B.R. 710, 720 (approving substantive consolidation and pointing to testimony of debtor's CEO stating: "We don't hold ourselves out as Shuttle America or Chautauqua or Republic, the airline, or Republic Holdings on our website. We just hold ourselves out as Republic.").

- shared decision-making and control processes;[22] and
- whether substantive consolidation would facilitate a timely confirmation of the debtors' plan and aid the debtors' rehabilitation.[23]

113. In airline-bankruptcy cases, requests for substantive consolidation have been granted when sought. Indeed, in the six airline bankruptcy cases in the Second Circuit where debtors sought substantive consolidation, the relevant court awarded the remedy each time. See e.g., In re Republic Airways Holdings Inc, 565 B.R. at 732 (Bankr. creditors. See In re Republic Airways Holdings, Inc., 565 B.R. at 732 ("For the reasons stated above, the Court finds that the Debtors have satisfied the standard for substantive consolidation and overrules the Residco Objection."); Northwest Airlines Hearing Transcript at 95:4-7; 100:15-20 ("Only one creditor has objected, the same creditor that is a leader of a group of shareholders who are trying to derail the plan on the ground that it fails to provide any value to shareholders. . . . As the debtors argue, it is not sufficient to deny substantive consolidation in light of the debtors' adequate showing that consolidation is appropriate within the meaning of Augie/Restivo, in that the affairs of the debtors are entangled and consolidation will benefit all creditors.").

115. In Republic Airways, the debtor requested that the Court substantively consolidate three companies—Republic Airways Holdings Inc., Republic Airline, and Republic Airways Services, Inc.—out of a total of six debtor entities. See Debtors' Memorandum of Law in Support of Confirmation of Debtors' Second Amended Joint Plan of Reorganization Under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code and in Reply to Reponses to the Plan at 16, In re: Republic Airways Holdings Inc., No. 16-10429 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Mar. 1, 2017), ECF No. 1557. The debtors' plan of reorganization sought to consolidate these three entities for all purposes and actions associated with consummation of the plan, voting, and confirmation. Id. at 17; In re Republic Airways Holdings, Inc., 565 B.R. at 715.

116. The objectors to the proposed substantive consolidation were the owner-trustee and owner-participant (together, "Residco") for seven aircraft leases with the Debtors. See In re Republic Airways Holdings, Inc., 565 B.R. at 712. Residco objected to many aspects of substantive consolidation under the Republic-debtors' plan, including that Residco relied on the corporate separateness of the debtor entities when entering its transactions, and that the debtor entities were able to separate their assets and liabilities. Id. at 713, 715, 723.

117. Judge Sean H. Lane issued a written decision, ultimately overruling Residco's objections and approving the debtors' proposed substantive consolidation. Id. at 732. In analyzing myriad factors, the Court found that both Augie/Restivo prongs were satisfied by the Republic-debtors. Id. at 718-19. The court highlighted the following facts as supporting the proposed consolidation: the consolidated debtors operate as a single economic unit; the consolidated debtors operate under a single business plan; none of the consolidated debtors ever received a credit rating independently from another consolidated debtor; analyst reports routinely discussed the debtors as a unified enterprise; the consolidated debtors share the same overhead, management, accounting, and other back-office functions; there were significant intercompany obligations, there were significant overlaps in the creditor pools due to guarantees; the consolidated debtors issue consolidated financial statements; the consolidated debtors were jointly controlled from a shared headquarters; the consolidated debtors did not have separate budgets and use the same cash management system; the consolidated debtors filed a consolidated tax return; the debtors were concerned about the cost of conducting an intercompany reconciliation and audit; significant additional time and expense would be necessary to untangle the assets of the consolidated debtors; and there were potential business risks arising out of a longer stay in Chapter 11. Id. Further, the court rejected Residco's argument that it would be harmed by substantive consolidation because the debtors proposed a "carve-out," under which Residco could be treated under the plan as if substantive consolidation had not occurred. Id. at 726-29.

118. In Northwest Airlines, the debtors requested that the Court substantively consolidate three passive holding companies with the operating airline, separately from 10 other Northwest-debtor entities. See Debtors' Motion for Substantive Consolidation of Consolidated Debtors at 2, In re Nw. Airlines Corp., No. 05-17930 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. April 27, 2007), ECF No. 6477. In support of the Augie/Restivo factors, the Northwest-debtors explained that the proposed consolidation would not cause substantial injury to any creditor. Id. Particularly, holders of guaranty claims against a consolidated entity would receive an additional distribution that equaled the distribution it would have received under separate plans, and if there would be any dilution for holders of general unsecured claims, that dilution would be both de minimis and offset by the benefits of consolidation. Id. at 2-3.

119. The sole objector to the proposed substantive consolidation, Owl Creek Asset Management, L.P. ("Owl Creek"), was a shareholder and a creditor of the debtors, holding $54,200,000 in face amount of senior notes issued by Northwest Airlines Inc. and guaranteed by Northwest Airlines Corporation, and in some instances also by Northwest Holdings Corporation (all of which were proposed to be consolidated). See Objection of Owl Creek Asset Management, L.P. to Debtors' Motion for Substantive Consolidation of Consolidated Debtors at 2, In re Nw. Airlines Corp., No. 05-17930 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. May 5, 2007), ECF No. 6596. Owl Creek objected to many aspects of the debtors' proposed substantive consolidation, including noting that the debtors were able to file separate statements of financial affairs for each debtor entity (id. at 18), that the debtors were able to trace their assets and track the amounts paid to and from each affiliated participant in the centralized cash management system (id.), and that the issuer of the notes and guarantors were separate entities (id. at 15).

120. At an evidentiary hearing, Judge Gropper overruled Owl Creeks' objections and approved the debtors' proposed substantive consolidation.[25] See Northwest Airlines Hearing Transcript at 101:17-21. In his oral decision, Judge Gropper stated:

> There is no dispute that substantive consolidation would benefit shareholders because it would admittedly eliminate the need to deal with thousands of duplicate claims, to disentangle records and accounts of the debtors; that it would reduce administrative expenses, provide material tax benefits to the group, and other produce more value for the entire creditor body and, if there is anything left, for the shareholders.

Id. at 95:8-15. Judge Gropper further ruled that, contrary to Owl Creek's suggestion, the existence of cross-entity guarantees pointed to the existence of one single economic unit. Id. at 96:15-23. Judge Gropper recognized that "[t]he great majority of creditors and shareholders relied on the four debtors as a group, and the affairs of the holdings companies and the airline are inextricably intertwined. It would do no party any good to require that they be untangled." Id. at 100:21-25.

121. The Avianca Debtors easily satisfy the standards of substantive consolidation. The Avianca Debtors have established that they are hopelessly entangled, among other reasons, because the Avianca Debtors: operate as a single economic unit; share the same back-office functions (such as legal, marketing, and HR resources); share numerous employees, officers, directors, and shareholders; share significant overlaps in the creditors pools due to various cross-entity guarantees; share a headquarters; and utilize a centralized cash management system. Compare In re Republic Airways Holdings, Inc., 565 B.R. at 18-19. Further, the Avianca Debtors have tightly integrated operations such that untangling them would be extremely difficult, expensive, and time-consuming. Compare In re Worldcom, Inc., 2003 WL 23861928 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Oct. 31, 2003) ("To prevail on substantive consolidation, the Debtors are not required to prove that an allocation of assets and liabilities to the various legal entities cannot be achieved under any circumstances. Rather, it is sufficient to demonstrate that it would be so costly and difficult to untangle the Debtors' financial affairs, such that doing so is a 'practical impossibility,' making substantive consolidation appropriate."); Chem. Bank New York Trust Co. v. Kheel (In re Seatrade Corp.), 369 F.2d 845, 848 (2d Cir.1966) (ordering substantive consolidation because of "expense and difficulty amounting to practical impossibility of reconstructing the financial records of the debtors to determine intercorporate claims, liabilities and ownership of assets") (emphasis added).

122. Further, the Debtors have established that creditors relied on the Avianca Debtors as one corporate enterprise because they hold themselves out to customers and creditors as one "Avianca," most of the Avianca Debtors' funded debt is subject to guarantees by many of the Avianca Debtors, and creditors of the Avianca Debtors dealt and continue to deal with the Avianca Debtors on a single, consolidated basis. Like the majority creditors of the consolidated debtors in Northwest Airways, the majority of creditors of the Avianca Debtors rely on the fact that the Avianca Debtors are "inextricably intertwined" such that "[i]t would do no party any good to require that they be untangled." See, e.g., Northwest Airlines Hearing Transcript at 101:21-25.

123. Further, the Debtors have established that Avifreight, Aerounión, and SAI are not properly subject to substantive consolidation. Unlike the Avianca Debtors, Aerounión and SAI are not hopelessly entangled. Indeed, they maintain their own operations and their own treasury systems and management teams. Because their operations are already separate, there is no difficulty in disentangling them from the Avianca Debtors. Further, Avifreight is not difficult to disentangle because it has no creditors and exists only as a holding company for Aerounión. Thus, Avifreight, Aerounión, and SAI do not meet either justification of Hopeless Entanglement or Creditor Reliance for purposes of substantive consolidation.

VI. THE ALLEGED VIOLATION OF SECTION 548 IS IRRELEVANT AND MERITLESS

a. Findings of Fact

124. The Burlingame Objectors argue that the Debtors violated section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code by making "certain payments and transfers to affiliates less than one year prior to filing of its chapter 11." Burlingame Objection at 13. The allegation cites, without detail, the Amended Statement of Financial Affairs of Avianca Holdings S.A. [ECF No. 1668], filed by the Debtors on May 11, 2021.

125. The Burlingame Objectors refer to certain prepetition "insurance payments" but otherwise do not identify each of the transfers (including the individual recipients, dates, and/or amounts involved) that form the basis of their claim.

126. No evidence has been presented that any Debtor received less than reasonably equivalent value for any transfers made, to affiliates or otherwise, during the prepetition period.

127. No evidence has been presented that any Debtor intended to hinder, delay, or defraud any creditors with respect to any transfers made to affiliates or otherwise, during the prepetition period.

128. No evidence has been offered to suggest that at any time during these Chapter 11 Cases, either the Burlingame Objectors or any other party-in-interest requested that the Debtors pursue an action under section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code. Indeed, the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors in these cases reviewed the prepetition insurance payments and other prepetition transactions, see 10/14/20 Hr'g Tr. at 40, and has taken no action regarding the prepetition transactions.

129. Moreover, as disclosed to the Court earlier in these Chapter 11 Cases, the referenced prepetition insurance payments were made to a captive insurance entity as a means of self-insurance, to secure insurance coverage that was not available in the market. See generally 10/14/2020 Hr'g Tr. at 32-34. As such, it is manifest that there was reasonably equivalent value for constructive fraudulent transfer purposes.

130. At no time during these Chapter 11 Cases did the Burlingame Objectors file a motion with the Court seeking derivative standing, presenting a colorable claim for relief, and demonstrating that the Debtors unjustifiably failed to assert such a claim for relief.

131. At no time during these Chapter 11 Cases did the Burlingame Objectors initiate an adversary proceeding alleging a violation of section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code.

b. Conclusions of Law

132. Section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that a trustee or debtor-in-possession "may avoid any transfer . . . of an interest of the debtor in property, or any obligation . . . incurred by the debtor" within two years before a bankruptcy filing if the transaction was actually or constructively fraudulent. 11 U.S.C. § 548.

133. Under section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code, a transfer is actually fraudulent where it was made "with actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud" any entity to which the debtor was or became indebted. 11 U.S.C. § 548(a)(1)(A).

134. Under section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code, a transfer is constructively fraudulent where the debtor "received less than a reasonably equivalent value in exchange" and was insolvent on the date of such transfer or became insolvent soon thereafter. 11 U.S.C. § 548(a)(1)(B).

135. Upon commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases, standing to assert claims pursuant to section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code vested in the Debtors' estates.

136. Creditors in Chapter 11 Cases may only assert claims pursuant to section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code on behalf of the Debtors' estates if they have derivative standing to do so. Derivative standing must be sought and granted by the Court, and may only be granted upon the creditors' satisfaction of a two-part test: first, creditors must present colorable claims for relief that on appropriate proof would support a recovery; and second, creditors must demonstrate that the debtor-in-possession "unjustifiably failed to bring suit." See In re Sabine Oil & Gas Corp., 547 B.R. 503, 515 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2016).

137. An action under section 548 is "a proceeding to recover money or property" and, as such, is an adversary proceeding. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7001(a). Adversary proceedings must be commenced by the filing of a complaint, Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7003, and plaintiffs must comply with the rules and requirements governing adversary proceedings in Part VII of the Bankruptcy Rules, including the service and process requirements of Rule 7004.

138. The Burlingame Objectors have not suggested that there are colorable claims under section 548. The Burlingame Objectors make no suggestion and offer no evidence that any transfers were made by the Debtors with actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud entities to which the Debtors became indebted. The Burlingame Objectors also make no suggestion and offer no evidence that any transfers were made by the Debtors in exchange for less than reasonably equivalent value.

139. The Burlingame Objectors have not demonstrated, or even alleged, that the Debtors unjustifiably failed to bring claims pursuant to section 548 of the Bankruptcy Code.

140. The Burlingame Objectors have not initiated an adversary proceeding in these Chapter 11 Cases nor have they complied with the requirements of Part VII of the Bankruptcy Rules.

141. Accordingly, the Burlingame Objectors have no standing to assert a claim under section 548 and have put forward no facts suggesting that the Debtors have a claim under section 548.

VII. THE ALLEGATIONS THAT THE DEBTORS HAVE BREACHED AGREEMENTS OR FIDUCIARY DUTIES ARE MERITLESS

a. Findings of Fact

i The RSA.

142. On August 28, 2020, the Debtors entered into a Restructuring Support Agreement (the "RSA") with an ad hoc group of noteholders representing a majority of Avianca's 9.00% Senior Secured Notes due 2023.

143. The Burlingame Objectors assert that "[t]he Debtors have breached their agreements and/or have submitted contracts in bad faith." See Burlingame Objection at 8.

144. All 2023 Noteholders were given an opportunity to execute the RSA on terms that the Debtors and the ad hoc group negotiated and supported. See Bondholder Roll-Up Notice. The many 2023 Noteholders who chose to do so were deemed "Consenting Noteholders," and became parties to the RSA with a right to enforce its terms and seek remedies for breach thereof.[26]

145. As 2023 Noteholders, the Burlingame Objectors or their predecessors were given the opportunity to join and execute the RSA. See Bondholder Roll-Up Notice. They chose not to do so. Accordingly, the Burlingame Objectors are not parties to the RSA.

[26] Notwithstanding the allegations made in the Burlingame Objection, the Burlingame Objectors have not submitted nor entered the RSA into evidence in these cases.

147. The Burlingame Objectors specifically argue that the Debtors have breached contracts by "using their 'DIP Loan Proceeds . . . to 'object, contest or raise' defense to 'the validity, perfection, priority' of the . . . (2023 Notes)." See Burlingame Objection at 9.

148. The Debtors, however, have not objected, contested, or raised a defense to the validity, perfection or priority of the 2023 Notes. Indeed, the Plan treats the 2023 Notes as valid and proposes to pay distributions to holders of 2023 Notes. Although the 2023 Notes are treated as general unsecured claims, as discussed further herein, that is on account of there being no residual value in the Shared Collateral after satisfaction of the DIP Facility Claims.

149. The Burlingame Objectors also assert that "[t]he Debtors breached their fiduciary duty to the 2023 Noteholders by executing the RSA that exploited one set of similarly situated creditors over another." See Burlingame Objection, Ex. B [ECF No. 2281]. This is so, the Burlingame Objectors argue, because the Ad Hoc Group was permitted to contribute new money to the Debtors as part of the RSA (the "2023 Notes New Money") and to backstop a portion of the 2023 Notes New Money. Id.

150. However, all 2023 Noteholders—and not just the Ad Hoc Group—were invited to participate in the 2023 Notes New Money, so there was no disparate treatment of 2023 Noteholders with respect to this issue. See Bondholder Roll-Up Notice.

151. Further, the compensation provided to the Ad Hoc Group for backstopping the 2023 Notes New Money was approved by the Court pursuant to the Final DIP Order. See Final DIP Order, Preamble(a), (b) (defining "DIP Documents" to include backstop commitment letters), § 2(a) (authorizing entry into DIP Documents); see also Mot. for Entry of Final DIP Order at 17 (describing Ad Hoc Group's backstop commitment letter), Ex. F (backstop commitment letter).

152. In any event, the Burlingame Objectors have not sought standing to initiate a derivative breach of fiduciary duty claim related to the RSA.

ii The DIP Credit Agreement.

153. In October 2020, the Debtors entered into that certain Super-Priority Debtor-in-Possession Term Loan Agreement among the Debtors, DIP Lenders, and JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., as administrative agent and collateral agent (the "DIP Credit Agreement").

154. As noted, the Burlingame Objectors assert that "[t]he Debtors have breached their agreements and/or have submitted contracts in bad faith." See Burlingame Objection at 8.

155. Under the DIP Credit Agreement, DIP Lenders are granted rights to enforce remedies under the DIP Credit Agreement. See DIP Credit Agreement § 4.18(b).

156. The Burlingame Objectors are not parties to the DIP Credit Agreement.

157. No party to the DIP Credit Agreement has raised a claim for breach of contract thereunder.

158. The Burlingame Objectors have submitted no evidence that they are parties to the DIP Credit Agreement and/or that they have any rights to bring claims for breach thereof.

159. The DIP Credit Agreement does not evidence any intent to grant the Burlingame Objectors or any other non-signatory thereto any enforcement rights.

160. Additionally, the Burlingame Objectors have submitted no evidence to support a claim that the DIP Credit Agreement has been breached.

b. Conclusions of Law

i The Burlingame Objectors Cannot Allege, and Have Not Alleged, Breach of Contract Claims.

161. According to New York law, a person or entity not party to a contract cannot sue for breach unless, pursuant to the contract, the plaintiff is an intended beneficiary. Dormitory

Auth. of the State of N.Y. v. Samson Constr. Co., 94 N.E.3d 456, 459 (N.Y. 2018) (an intent to benefit the third party must be shown, and, absent such intent, the third party is merely an incidental beneficiary with no right to enforce the particular contracts) (internal citations omitted); CWCapital Invs. LLC v. CWCapital Cobalt VR Ltd., 122 N.Y.S.3d 595, 600 (App. Div. 2020) ("A nonparty can assert a breach of contract claim only if it is an intended, and not a mere incidental, beneficiary, and even then . . . the parties' intent to benefit the third party must be apparent from the face of the contract.") (internal citations omitted).

162. New York courts have sanctioned a third party's right to enforce a contract in two situations: when the third party is the only one who could recover for the breach of contract, or when it is otherwise clear from the language of the contract that there was an "intent to permit enforcement by the third party." Dormitory Auth. of the State of N.Y., 94 N.E.3d at 459 (finding plaintiff did not qualify as a third-party beneficiary under either ground, thus plaintiff had no right to enforce the contract); Levy v. Zimmerman, 150 N.Y.S.3d 233, at *23-24 (N.Y. 2021) (dismissing action for breach of contract for lack of standing because plaintiffs did not qualify as third-party beneficiaries under either ground); CWCapital Invs. LLC, 122 N.Y.S.3d at 600 (dismissing plaintiff's cause of action for breach of contract because plaintiff was not a third-party beneficiary of the sued-upon contract section, even where plaintiff was a third-party beneficiary of a different section of the contract).

163. The RSA is governed by New York law.

164. The Burlingame Objectors are not intended beneficiaries of the RSA.

165. Because the Burlingame Objectors are not party to nor intended beneficiaries of the RSA, the Burlingame Objectors lack standing to bring a breach of contract claim under the RSA.

166. The DIP Credit Agreement is governed by New York law. See DIP Credit Agreement § 11.05(a).

167. The Burlingame Objectors are not intended beneficiaries of the DIP Credit Agreement because the DIP Credit Agreement makes no mention of the Burlingame Objectors, nor does it indicate that the Burlingame Objectors are an intended beneficiary permitted to enforce the DIP Credit Agreement.

168. Because the Burlingame Objectors are not party to nor intended beneficiaries of the DIP Credit Agreement, the Burlingame Objectors lack standing to bring a breach of contract claim under the DIP Credit Agreement.

169. Further, to state a claim for breach of contract, a plaintiff must allege: 1) the parties entered into a valid agreement; 2) plaintiff performed; 3) defendant failed to perform under the agreement; and 4) this breach resulted in damages to the plaintiff. See Dee v. Rakower, 976 N.Y.S.2d 470, 474 (App. Div. 2013).

170. Even if the Burlingame Objectors had standing to bring a breach of contract claim under the RSA or the DIP Credit Agreement, the Burlingame Objectors have not sufficiently alleged a breach. Specifically, the Burlingame Objectors have not alleged how the Debtors have failed to perform under the RSA or the DIP Credit Agreement.

ii The Burlingame Objectors Have Not Alleged Cognizable Breach of Fiduciary Duty Claims.

171. Under New York law, claims based upon breach of fiduciary duty belong to the corporation; upon commencement of these Chapter 11 Cases, standing to assert a claim of breach of fiduciary duty resided with the Debtors' estates. See In re Ampal-Am. Isr. Corp., 502 B.R. 361, 374 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2013) ("Under New York law, claims for waste, mismanagement and breach of fiduciary duty belong to the corporation . . . and once bankruptcy ensues, become property of the estate that the trustee alone has standing to assert.") (internal citations omitted); Keene Corp. v. Coleman (In re Keene Corp.), 164 B.R. 844, 853 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1994) ("Claims based upon breach of a fiduciary duty belong to a corporation, but once bankruptcy ensues, they are enforceable by the trustee."); see also In re Gen. Growth Props., Inc., 426 B.R. 71, 75 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2010) (finding that "[t]he [Barton] doctrine protects any fiduciary of the estate, including a debtor-in-possession, as '[i]t is well settled that such fiduciary cannot be sued in state court without leave of the bankruptcy court for acts done in his official capacity and within his authority as an officer of the court.'") (citation omitted).

172. While creditors of an insolvent corporate debtor may seek derivative standing to assert that the debtors were injured as a result of a breach of fiduciary duty, creditors do not have standing to bring a direct claim for breach of fiduciary duty. See Goldin v. Primavera Familienstiftung Tag Assocs. (In re Granite Partners, L.P.), 194 B.R. 318, 327 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1996) ("Such [breach of fiduciary duty] claims ordinarily belong to and can only be enforced by the corporation or through a shareholder's derivative action."); Associated Hardwoods, Inc. v. Lail, No. 18 CVS 329, 2018 WL 3747439, at *7 (N.C. Super. Aug. 6, 2018) ("Accordingly, the Court concludes that Plaintiff's breach of fiduciary duty and constructive fraud claims are property of the bankruptcy estate and Plaintiff, therefore, lacks standing.").

173. The Burlingame Objectors never sought standing to bring a claim for breach of fiduciary duty and thus lack standing to bring a claim for breach of fiduciary duty.

174. Even assuming arguendo that the Burlingame Objectors did have standing to bring a breach of fiduciary duty claim, the Burlingame Objectors have not demonstrated, let alone alleged, a legally cognizable breach of fiduciary duty claim.

175. Under New York law, a claim for breach of fiduciary duty has three elements: "(1) the existence of a duty on defendant's part as to plaintiff; (2) a breach of this duty; and (3) injury to the plaintiff as a result thereof." Welch v. TD Ameritrade Holding Corp., No. 07 CIV. 6904 (RJS), 2009 WL 2356131, at *40 (S.D.N.Y. July 27, 2009) (quoting Alfaro v. Wal-Mart Stores, Inc., 210 F.3d 111, 114 (2d Cir. 2000)).

176. The Burlingame Objectors have the burden of "pleading and proving the existence of a fiduciary relationship." Official Comm. of Unsecured Creditors of Lois/USA, Inc. v. Conseco Fin. Servicing Corp. (In re Lois/USA, Inc.), 264 B.R. 69, 130 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2001). The existence of such a fiduciary relationship must be shown with particularity, as "mere assertions of 'trust and confidence' are insufficient to support a claim of a fiduciary relationship." DeBlasio v. Merrill Lynch & Co., No. 07CIV318RJS, 2009 WL 2242605, at *28 (S.D.N.Y. July 27, 2009) (quoting Abercrombie v. Andrew Coll., 438 F. Supp. 2d 243, 274 (S.D.N.Y. 2006); see also In re Lois/USA, Inc., 264 B.R. at 130 (citing Carey Elec. Contracting, Inc. v. First Nat'l Bank, 74 Ill. App. 3d 233, 237-38 (1979)) ("The existence of such a fiduciary relationship must be shown by proof "so clear and convincing, so strong, unequivocal and unmistaken that it leads to only one conclusion.").

177. The Burlingame Objectors have not demonstrated the existence of a duty, nor a breach of such duty, nor any injury as a result thereof. Even if, arguendo, the Debtors did owe fiduciary duties to the 2023 Noteholders, any allegation by the Burlingame Objectors that they breached such duties would border on frivolous. The Burlingame Objectors, or their predecessors in interest, simply chose not to participate in the conversion of their 2023 Notes into the former Tranche A of the DIP Facility and cannot hold the Debtors responsible for that investment decision.

In short, the Burlingame Objectors have no legal standing to assert, and no factual basis to allege, that any Debtor breached a fiduciary duty.

FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

IT IS HEREBY FOUND AND DETERMINED THAT:

A. Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law. The findings and conclusions set forth herein and in the Decision constitute the Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7052, made applicable to this proceeding pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9014. To the extent any of the following findings of fact constitute conclusions of law, they are adopted as such. To the extent any of the following conclusions of law constitute findings of fact, they are adopted as such.

B. Exclusive Jurisdiction; Venue; Core Proceeding (28 U.S.C. §§ 157(b)(2), 1334(a)). The Court has jurisdiction over the Chapter 11 Cases pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334. Venue is proper under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409. Confirmation of the Plan is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(L), and the Court has exclusive jurisdiction to determine whether the Plan complies with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and should be confirmed.

C. Judicial Notice. The Court takes judicial notice of the docket of the Chapter 11 Cases maintained by the Clerk of the Court and/or its duly-appointed agent, including, without limitation, all pleadings and other documents filed, all orders entered, and the evidence and arguments made, proffered, or adduced at the hearings held before the Court during the pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases, including, but not limited to, the hearing to consider the adequacy of the Disclosure Statement and the hearing to consider approval of, among other things, the Merger Agreement and the Order entered in connection therewith.

D. Burden of Proof. The Debtors have the burden of proving the elements of section 1129(a) and (b) of the Bankruptcy Code by a preponderance of the evidence.

E. Transmittal and Mailing of Materials; Notice. The Disclosure Statement, the Second Amended Plan, the Ballots, the Solicitation Order, and the Confirmation Hearing Notice, which were transmitted and served as set forth in the Affidavit of Service, have been transmitted and served in compliance with the Solicitation Order, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the Southern District of New York (the "Local Rules"), such transmittal and service were adequate and sufficient, and no other or further notice is or shall be required. The Debtors' publication of the Confirmation Hearing Notice as set forth in the Certificate of Publication complied with the Solicitation Order.

F. Voting. Votes to accept or reject the Plan have been solicited and tabulated fairly, in good faith, and in a manner consistent with the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Solicitation Order, and industry practice.

G. Plan Compliance with Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(1)). The Plan complies with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, thereby satisfying section 1129(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

1. Proper Classification (11 U.S.C. §§ 1122, 1123(a)(1)). In addition to Administrative Expenses and Priority Tax Claims, which need not be designated, the Plan designates nineteen Classes of Claims and Equity Interests. Each AMR Secured Claim, American Secured Aircraft Claim, American Other Secured Claim, and Eagle Secured Claim shall be deemed to be separately classified in a subclass of AMR Class 1, American Class 1, American Class 2, and Eagle Class 1, respectively, and shall have all rights associated with separate classification under the Bankruptcy Code. The Claims or Equity Interests placed in each Class are substantially similar to other Claims or Equity Interests, as the case may be, in each such Class. Valid business, factual, and legal reasons exist for separately classifying the various Classes of Claims or Equity Interests created under the Plan, and such Classes do not unfairly discriminate between holders of Claims and Equity Interests. The Plan satisfies sections 1122 and 1123(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code.

2. Specified Unimpaired Classes (11 U.S.C. § 1123(a)(2)). Article III of the Plan specifies that AMR Class 1 (AMR Secured Claims), AMR Class 2 (AMR Priority Non-Tax Claims), AMR Class 6 (AMR Other Equity Interests), American Class 1 (American Secured Aircraft Claims), American Class 2 (American Other Secured Claims), American Class 3 (American Priority Non-Tax Claims), American Class 8 (American Equity Interests), Eagle

Class 1 (Eagle Secured Claims), Eagle Class 2 (Eagle Priority Non-Tax Claims), and Eagle Class 5 (Eagle Equity Interests) are unimpaired under the Plan, thereby satisfying section 1123(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

3. Specified Treatment of Impaired Classes (11 U.S.C. § 1123(a)(3)). Article III of the Plan designates AMR Class 3 (AMR General Unsecured Guaranteed Claims), AMR Class 4 (AMR Other General Unsecured Claims), AMR Class 5 (AMR Equity Interests), American Class 4 (American General Unsecured Guaranteed Claims), American Class 5 (American Other General Unsecured Claims), American Class 6 (American Union Claims), American Class 7 (American Convenience Class Claims), Eagle Class 3 (Eagle General Unsecured Claims), and Eagle Class 4 (Eagle Convenience Class Claims) as impaired, and Article IV of the Plan specifies the treatment of Claims and Equity Interests in such Classes, thereby satisfying section 1123(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code.

4. No Discrimination (11 U.S.C. § 1123(a)(4)). The Plan provides for the same treatment by the Debtors for each Claim or Equity Interest in each respective Class unless the holder of a particular Claim or Equity Interest has agreed to a less favorable treatment of such Claim or Equity Interest, thereby satisfying section 1123(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code.

5. Implementation of Plan (11 U.S.C. § 1123(a)(5)). The Plan and the various documents and agreements set forth in the Plan Supplement as well as the Exhibits and the Schedules to the Plan provide adequate and proper means for the Plan's implementation, including (i) the Merger in accordance with the Merger Agreement, (ii) the 9019 Settlement, and (iii) the deemed consolidation of the AMR Debtors, the deemed consolidation of the American Debtors, and the deemed consolidation of the Eagle Debtors, thereby satisfying section 1123(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code.

6. Nonvoting Equity Securities (11 U.S.C. § 1123(a)(6)). The New AAG Certificate of Incorporation shall prohibit the issuance of nonvoting equity securities prohibited by section 1123(a)(6), subject to further amendment of such New AAG Certificate of Incorporation as permitted by applicable law, thereby satisfying section 1123(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Amended Certificates of Incorporation for each of the Reorganized Debtors (other than New AAG) that are corporations shall similarly prohibit the issuance of nonvoting equity securities prohibited by section 1123(a)(6), subject to further amendment of such Amended Certificates of Incorporation as permitted by applicable law. With respect to any Debtor that is a limited liability company or partnership, the respective limited liability company agreement or partnership agreement by which such Debtor is governed shall be similarly amended to prohibit the issuance of nonvoting equity securities prohibited by section 1123(a)(6).

7. Selection of Officers, Directors, or Trustees (11 U.S.C. § 1123(a)(7)). The initial Board of Directors of New AAG shall consist of twelve (12) members and shall be composed of (i) five (5) directors designated by the Search Committee, (A) each of whom shall be an independent director and (B) one of whom shall serve as the initial Lead Independent Director of New AAG in accordance with the New AAG Bylaws and shall be designated to serve in such role by the Search Committee, (ii) two (2) directors designated by AMR, each of whom shall be independent directors reasonably acceptable to the Search Committee, (iii) three (3) directors designated by US Airways, each of whom shall be independent directors, (iv) one (1) director who shall be Mr. Thomas W. Horton, the current Chairman of the Board, President, and Chief Executive Officer of AMR, who shall serve as the initial Chairman of the Board of Directors of New AAG in accordance with the New AAG Bylaws, and (v) one (1) director who shall be Mr. W. Douglas Parker, the current Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of US Airways, thereby satisfying section 1123(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code. The identity of the persons proposed to serve as members of the initial Board of Directors of New AAG and of the members of the initial Boards of Directors of the other Reorganized Debtors were disclosed in the Plan Supplement or at the Confirmation Hearing. After selection of the initial Board of Directors of New AAG, the holders of the New Mandatorily Convertible Preferred Stock and the New Common Stock shall elect members of the Board of Directors of New AAG in accordance with the New AAG Certificate of Incorporation, the New AAG Bylaws, the Certificate Designations, and applicable nonbankruptcy law, thereby satisfying section 1123(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code.

8. Additional Plan Provisions (11 U.S.C. § 1123(b)). The provisions of the Plan are appropriate and not inconsistent with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, thereby satisfying section 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. The failure to specifically address a provision of the Bankruptcy Code in this Confirmation Order shall not diminish or impair the effectiveness of this Confirmation Order.

9. Bankruptcy Rule 3016(a). The Plan is dated and identifies the entities submitting the Plan as proponents, thereby satisfying Bankruptcy Rule 3016(a).

H. Debtors' Compliance with Bankruptcy Code (11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(2)). The Debtors have complied with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, thereby satisfying section 1129(a)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code. Specifically:

(i) The Debtors are proper debtors under section 109 of the Bankruptcy Code.

(ii) The Debtors have complied with applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, except as otherwise provided or permitted by orders of the Court.

(iii) The Debtors have complied with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Solicitation Order in transmitting the Disclosure Statement, the Second Amended Plan, the Ballots, and related documents and notices and in soliciting and tabulating votes on the Second Amended Plan.

I. Plan Proposed in Good Faith (11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(3)). The Debtors have proposed the Plan in good faith and not by any means forbidden by law, thereby satisfying section 1129(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors' good faith is evident from the facts and record of these Chapter 11 Cases, the Disclosure Statement and the hearings thereon, and the record of the Confirmation Hearing and other proceedings held in these Chapter 11 Cases. The Plan was proposed with the legitimate and honest purpose of maximizing the value of the Debtors' estates and effectuating a successful reorganization of the Debtors.

J. Payments for Services or Costs and Expenses (11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(4)). Any payment made or to be made by any of the Debtors for services or for costs and expenses in or in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, or in connection with the Plan and incident to the Chapter 11 Cases has been approved by, or is subject to the approval of, the Court as reasonable, thereby satisfying section 1129(a)(4) of the Bankruptcy Code.

K. Directors, Officers, and Insiders (11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(5)). The Debtors have complied with section 1129(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code. The identity and affiliations of the persons proposed to serve as members of the initial Board of Directors of New AAG and as members of the initial Boards of Directors of the other Reorganized Debtors were disclosed in the Plan Supplement, and the appointment to, or continuance in, such positions of such persons is consistent with the interests of holders of Claims against, and Equity Interests in, the Debtors and with public policy. The identity of any insider that will be employed or retained by the Reorganized Debtors and the nature of such insider's compensation have also been fully disclosed. The nature of the compensation payable to Thomas W. Horton, who shall serve as the initial Chairman of the Board of Directors of New AAG, was disclosed in connection with the Debtors' motion to approve the Merger Agreement, which was filed with the Court on February 22, 2013 (ECF No. 6800), and in the Disclosure Statement.

L. No Rate Changes (11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(6)). The Plan does not provide for any changes in any regulated rates, and therefore, section 1129(a)(6) of the Bankruptcy Code is inapplicable in these Chapter 11 Cases.

M. Best Interests of Creditors (11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(7)). The Plan satisfies section 1129(a)(7) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Disclosure Statement, the Plan Supplement, the Carmody Declaration, and the other evidence proffered or adduced at the Confirmation Hearing (i) are persuasive and credible, (ii) have not been controverted by other evidence, and (iii) establish that each holder of an impaired Claim or Equity Interest either has accepted the Plan or will receive or retain under the Plan, on account of such Claim or Equity Interest, property of a value, as of the Effective Date, that is not less than the amount such holder would receive or retain if the Debtors were liquidated under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code on such date.

N. Acceptance by Certain Classes (11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(8)). AMR Class 1 (AMR Secured Claims), AMR Class 2 (AMR Priority Non-Tax Claims), AMR Class 6 (AMR Other Equity Interests), American Class 1 (American Secured Aircraft Claims), American Class 2 (American Other Secured Claims), American Class 3 (American Priority Non-Tax Claims), American Class 8 (American Equity Interests), Eagle Class 1 (Eagle Secured Claims), Eagle Class 2 (Eagle Priority Non-Tax Claims), and Eagle Class 5 (Eagle Equity Interests) are unimpaired under the Plan and are deemed to have accepted the Plan pursuant to section 1126(f) of the Bankruptcy Code. AMR Class 3 (AMR General Unsecured Guaranteed Claims), AMR Class 4 (AMR Other General Unsecured Claims), AMR Class 5 (AMR Equity Interests), American Class 4 (American General Unsecured Guaranteed Claims), American Class 5

(American Other General Unsecured Claims), American Class 6 (American Union Claims), American Class 7 (American Convenience Class Claims), Eagle Class 3 (Eagle General Unsecured Claims), and Eagle Class 4 (Eagle Convenience Class Claims) have voted to accept the Plan in accordance with sections 1126(c) and (d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

O. Treatment of Administrative Expenses, Priority Non-Tax Claims, and Priority Tax Claims (11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(9)). The treatment of Administrative Expenses and Priority Non-Tax Claims pursuant to Sections 2.1, 4.2, 4.9, and 4.16 of the Plan, respectively, satisfies the requirements of sections 1129(a)(9)(A) and (B) of the Bankruptcy Code, and the treatment of Priority Tax Claims pursuant to Section 2.3 of the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1129(a)(9)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors have sufficient Cash to pay Allowed Administrative Expenses, Allowed Priority Non-Tax Claims, and Allowed Priority Tax Claims.

P. Acceptance by Impaired Classes (11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(10)). At least one Class of Claims against the Debtors that is impaired under the Plan has accepted the Plan, determined without including any acceptance of the Plan by any insider, thus satisfying the requirements of section 1129(a)(10) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Q. Feasibility (11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(11)). The evidence proffered or adduced at the Confirmation Hearing (i) is persuasive and credible, (ii) has not been controverted by other evidence, and (iii) establishes that the Plan, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date and consummation of the Merger, is feasible and that confirmation of the Plan is not likely to be followed by the liquidation, or the need for further financial reorganization, of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, thus satisfying the requirements of section 1129(a)(11) of the Bankruptcy Code.

R. Payment of Fees (11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(12)). All fees payable under section 1930 of title 28, United States Code, as determined by the Court, have been paid or will be paid pursuant to Section 12.7 of the Plan. Pursuant to Section 12.7 of the Plan, on the Effective Date, and thereafter as may be required, such fees, together with interest, if any, pursuant to section 3717 of title 31 of the United States Code, shall be paid by each of the Debtors. Thus, Section 12.7 of the Plan satisfies the requirements of section 1129(a)(12) of the Bankruptcy Code.

S. Benefit Plans (11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(13)). The Plan complies with section 1129(a)(13) of the Bankruptcy Code by reason of the provisions of Section 8.4 of the Plan:

T. Domestic Support Obligations (11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(14)). The Debtors are not required by a judicial or administrative order, or by statute, to pay any domestic support obligations, and therefore, section 1129(a)(14) of the Bankruptcy Code is inapplicable in these Chapter 11 Cases.

U. The Debtors Are Not Individuals (11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(15)). The Debtors are not individuals, and therefore, section 1129(a)(15) of the Bankruptcy Code is inapplicable in these Chapter 11 Cases.

V. No Applicable Nonbankruptcy Law Regarding Transfers (11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(16)). Each of the Debtors is a moneyed, business, or commercial corporation or trust, and therefore, section 1129(a)(16) of the Bankruptcy Code is inapplicable in these Chapter 11 Cases.

W. Only One Plan (11 U.S.C. § 1129(c)). The Plan is the only plan filed in these Chapter 11 Cases, and therefore, section 1129(c) of the Bankruptcy Code is inapplicable in these Chapter 11 Cases.

X. Principal Purpose of the Plan (11 U.S.C. § 1129(d)). The principal purpose of the Plan is not the avoidance of taxes or the avoidance of the application of Section 5 of the Securities Act of 1933, thereby satisfying section 1129(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Y. Modifications to the Plan. The Technical Amendments constitute technical changes and do not materially adversely affect or change the treatment of any Claims or Equity Interests. Accordingly, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3019, the Technical Amendments do not require additional disclosure under section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code or re-solicitation of votes under section 1126 of the Bankruptcy Code, nor do they require that holders of Claims or Equity Interests be afforded an opportunity to change previously cast acceptances or rejections of the Plan, thereby satisfying section 1127 of the Bankruptcy Code.

Z. Good Faith Solicitation (11 U.S.C. § 1125(e)). Based on the record before the Court in these Chapter 11 Cases, the Debtors and their directors, officers, employees, members, agents, advisors, and professionals have acted in "good faith" within the meaning of section 1125(e) of the Bankruptcy Code in compliance with the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules in connection with all their respective activities relating to the solicitation of acceptance or rejection of the Plan and their participation in the activities described in section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code, and are entitled to the protections afforded by section 1125(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and the exculpation provisions set forth in Section 10.7 of the Plan.

AA. Assumption and Rejection. Article VIII of the Plan governing the assumption and rejection of executory contracts and unexpired leases satisfies the requirements of section 365(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

BB. Substantive Consolidation. No creditor of any of the Debtors will be prejudiced by the substantive consolidation of the AMR Debtors, the substantive consolidation of the American Debtors, and the substantive consolidation of the Eagle Debtors, which will benefit all creditors of the Debtors. No objections have been filed raising any objection to substantive consolidation as provided in the Plan.

CC. 9019 Settlement. The 9019 Settlement was negotiated in good faith and at arm's length and is an essential element of the Plan. It is fair, equitable, and in the best interests of the Debtors, the Debtors' estates, the Debtors' creditors, and all parties in interest, and satisfies the standards for approval under Bankruptcy Rule 9019.

DD. Merger Agreement Order. By order dated May 10, 2013 (ECF No. 8096) (the "Merger Order"), the Court, among other things, approved (i) the Merger Agreement and (ii) the Employee Arrangements (as defined in the Merger Order), including all matters set forth in Section 4.10 of the Merger Agreement and Section 4.1(o) of the American Disclosure Letter (excluding Paragraph 1 of such Section 4.1(o)).

EE. Disputed Claims Reserve. By order dated August 9, 2013 (ECF No. 9560), the Court found that the aggregate amount of estimated Allowed Single-Dip General Unsecured Claims plus the amount of Disputed Single-Dip General Unsecured Claims utilized for determining the Disputed Claims Reserve to be established pursuant to Section 7.3 of the Plan does not exceed $3.2 billion, thereby satisfying the condition set forth in Section 9.2(h) of the Plan.

FF. Satisfaction of Confirmation Requirements. The Plan satisfies the requirements for confirmation set forth in section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code.

GG. Objections. All parties have had a full and fair opportunity to litigate all issues raised in the Objections, or which might have been raised, and the Objections have been fully considered by the Court.

HH. Retention of Jurisdiction. The Court may properly retain jurisdiction over the matters set forth in Article XI of the Plan and section 1142 of the Bankruptcy Code.

DECREES

NOW THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED THAT:

1. Confirmation. The Plan is approved and confirmed under section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code. The terms of the Plan, all Exhibits thereto, and the Plan Supplement are incorporated by reference into and are an integral part of the Plan and this Confirmation Order.

2. Modifications to the Plan. The Technical Amendments, which are incorporated in the Plan, meet the requirements of sections 1127(a) and (c) of the Bankruptcy Code and do not adversely change the treatment of the Claim of any creditor or the Equity Interest of any equity security holder within the meaning of Bankruptcy Rule 3019, and therefore, no further solicitation or voting is required.

3. Objections. All Objections that have not been withdrawn, waived, or settled, and all reservations of rights pertaining to confirmation of the Plan, are overruled on the merits for the reasons stated on the record of the Confirmation Hearing.

4. Plan Classification Controlling. The classification of Claims and Equity Interests for purposes of the distributions to be made under the Plan shall be governed solely by the terms of the Plan. The classifications set forth on the Ballots tendered to or returned by the Debtors' creditors and equity security holders in connection with voting on the Plan (a) were set forth on the Ballots for purposes of voting to accept or reject the Plan, (b) do not necessarily represent, and in no event shall be deemed to modify or otherwise affect, the actual classification of such Claims and Equity Interests under the Plan for distribution purposes, and (c) shall not be binding on the Debtors.

5. Binding Effect. The Plan and its provisions shall be binding on the Debtors, any entity acquiring or receiving property or a distribution under the Plan, and any holder of a Claim against or Equity Interest in the Debtors, including all governmental entities, whether or not the Claim or Equity Interest of such holder (a) is impaired under the Plan or (b) has accepted the Plan.

6. Vesting of Assets. Pursuant to Section 10.1 of the Plan, upon the Effective Date, pursuant to sections 1141(b) and (c) of the Bankruptcy Code, all property of the Debtors shall vest in the Reorganized Debtors free and clear of all Claims, liens, encumbrances, charges, and other interests, except as otherwise provided in the Plan. The Reorganized Debtors may operate their businesses and use, acquire, and dispose of property free of any restrictions of the Bankruptcy Code or the Bankruptcy Rules and in all respects as if there were no pending cases under any chapter or provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, except as otherwise provided in the Plan or this Confirmation Order.

7. Continued Corporate Existence. Pursuant to Section 6.1 of the Plan, subject to the Merger and the terms of the Merger Agreement, each Debtor shall, as a Reorganized Debtor, continue to exist after the Effective Date as a separate corporate Entity, with all the powers of a corporation, partnership, or limited liability company, as applicable, under applicable law and without prejudice to any right to alter or terminate such existence (whether by merger or otherwise) under applicable state law. Immediately following the Merger Effective Time, the New AAG Certificate of Incorporation shall be amended to change the name of AMR to American Airlines Group Inc.

8. Merger. Pursuant to Section 6.2(a) of the Plan, subject to and in connection with the occurrence of the Effective Date, AMR and US Airways shall take all such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effect the Merger on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, including but not limited to the actions set forth below in this paragraph. ~~Without limiting the generality of the immediately preceding sentence,~~ Upon the satisfaction or waiver of each of the conditions set forth in Section 9.2 of the Plan and the applicable conditions of the Merger Agreement, on the Effective Date AMR and US Airways shall cause the Certificate of Merger to be filed with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware in accordance with the Delaware General Corporation Law and take or cause to be taken all other actions, including making appropriate filings or recordings, that may be required by the Delaware General Corporation Law or other applicable law in connection with the Merger. Pursuant to Section 6.2(b) of the Plan, New AAG shall issue the shares of New Common Stock in accordance with the Merger Agreement to be distributed under the Plan and the other transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement shall occur. Upon and after the occurrence of the Effective Date, New AAG shall perform all of its obligations under the Merger Agreement. Pursuant to Section 6.2(c) of the Plan, in the event of any conflict whatsoever between the terms of the Plan and the Merger Agreement, the terms of the Merger Agreement shall control, and the Plan shall be deemed to incorporate in their entirety the terms, provisions, and conditions of the Merger Agreement.

9. Approval of 9019 Settlement. The 9019 Settlement is authorized and approved as fair and reasonable and shall become effective on the Effective Date, and the Debtors' obligations thereunder are legal, valid, binding, and enforceable. Pursuant to Section 6.3(b) of the Plan, if the Effective Date does not occur, the 9019 Settlement shall be deemed to have been withdrawn without prejudice to the respective positions of the parties.

10. Assumption or Rejection of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases (11 U.S.C. § 1123(b)(2)). Pursuant to Section 8.1 of the Plan, all executory contracts and unexpired leases to which any of the Debtors are parties automatically shall be deemed rejected as of the Effective Date, except for executory contracts or unexpired leases (a) that have been assumed or rejected pursuant to an order of the Court entered prior to the Effective Date, (b) that are the subject of a separate motion to assume or reject pending on the Confirmation Date, (c) that are assumed, rejected, or otherwise treated pursuant to Sections 8.3, 8.4, or 8.5 of the Plan, (d) that are listed on Schedule 8.1 of the Plan Supplement, or (e) as to which a Treatment Objection has been filed and served by the Treatment Objection Deadline. If an executory contract or unexpired lease (i) has been assumed or rejected pursuant to an order of the Court entered prior to the Effective Date or (ii) is the subject of a separate motion to assume or reject pending on the Confirmation Date, then the listing of any such executory contract or unexpired lease on Schedule 8.1 of the Plan Supplement shall be of no effect.

11. Schedules of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases. Pursuant to Section 8.2(b) of the Plan and sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, and except with respect to executory contracts and unexpired leases as to which a Treatment Objection is filed and served by the Treatment Objection Deadline, (a) each executory contract and unexpired lease listed on Schedule 8.1 of the Plan Supplement as an executory contract or unexpired lease to be assumed (and assigned, if applicable) shall be deemed assumed (and assigned, if applicable) effective as of the Assumption Effective Date specified thereon, the Proposed Cure specified in the Notice of Intent to Assume mailed to each Assumption Counterparty shall be the Cure Amount and shall be deemed to satisfy fully any obligations the Debtors might have with respect to such executory contract or unexpired lease under section 365(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, and all proofs of Claim on account of or in respect of any such assumed executory contract and unexpired lease shall be deemed withdrawn on the Effective Date without any further notice to or action by any party or order of the Court; (b) each executory contract and unexpired lease listed on Schedule 8.1 of the Plan Supplement as an executory contract or unexpired lease to be rejected shall be deemed rejected effective as of the Rejection Effective Date specified thereon; and (c) the Reorganized Debtors may assume, assume and assign, or reject any executory contract or unexpired lease relating to Aircraft Equipment that is listed on Schedule 8.1(c)(3) of the Plan Supplement by filing with the Court and serving upon the applicable Deferred Counterparty a Notice of Intent to Assume or a Notice of Intent to Reject at any time before the Deferred Agreement Deadline; provided, however, that if the Reorganized Debtors do not file a Notice of Intent to Assume or a Notice of Intent to Reject by the Deferred Agreement Deadline with respect to any executory contract or unexpired lease relating to Aircraft Equipment listed on Schedule 8.1(c)(3) of the Plan Supplement, such executory contract or unexpired lease shall be deemed rejected effective as of the one hundred eighty-first (181st) calendar day after the Effective Date; provided, further, that each agreement listed on Schedule 8.1(c)(1) of the Plan Supplement shall be deemed, as appropriate, reinstated or assumed as of the Effective Date.

12. Pursuant to Section 8.2(d) of the Plan, the listing of any contract or lease on Schedule 8.1 of the Plan Supplement is not an admission that such contract or lease is an executory contract or unexpired lease. The Debtors and the Assumption Counterparties, the Rejection Counterparties, or the Deferred Counterparties, as applicable (together with the Debtors, the "Recharacterization Parties") reserve the right to assert that any contract or lease listed on Schedule 8.1 of the Plan Supplement is not an executory contract or unexpired lease; provided, however, that except with respect to any contract or lease for which a Recharacterization Party (a) expressly reserves such right in a notice filed with the Court and served on any parties listed thereon no later than ten (10) calendar days prior to the Voting Deadline and (b) files an action based on such right prior to the date that is sixty (60) calendar days after the Effective Date (unless required under the Plan to file such action at an earlier date), each Recharacterization Party shall be deemed to have waived, as of the Effective Date, any rights it may have to seek to recharacterize any contract or lease as a financing agreement.

13. Categories of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases to Be Assumed. Pursuant to Section 8.3 of the Plan and sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, each executory contract and unexpired lease in the following categories shall be deemed assumed as of the Effective Date (and the Proposed Cure with respect to each shall be zero dollars ($0)), except for any executory contract or unexpired lease (a) that has been assumed or rejected pursuant to an order of the Court entered prior to the Effective Date, (b) that is the subject of a separate motion to assume or reject pending on the Confirmation Date, (c) that is listed on Schedule 8.1 of the Plan Supplement, (d) that is otherwise expressly assumed or rejected under the Plan, or (e) as to which a Treatment Objection has been filed and served by the Treatment Objection Deadline:

(a) Cash Management Agreements, Confidentiality and Non-Disclosure Agreements, Customer Programs, Debtor Ownership Agreements, Foreign Agreements, Fuel Consortia Agreements, Insurance Plans, Intercompany Contracts, Interline Agreements, Letters of Credit, Revenue Generating Agreements, Surety Bonds, and Workers' Compensation Plans.

Subject to the terms of the first paragraph of Section 8.3 of the Plan, each Cash Management Agreement, Confidentiality and Non-Disclosure Agreement, Customer Program, Debtor Ownership Agreement, Foreign Agreement, Fuel Consortia Agreement, Insurance Plan, Intercompany Contract, Interline Agreement, Letter of Credit, Revenue Generating Agreement, Surety Bond, and Workers' Compensation Plan shall be deemed assumed as of the Effective Date. Nothing in Section 8.3 of the Plan shall constitute or be deemed a waiver of any Cause of Action that the Debtors may hold against any Entity, including, without limitation, the insurer under any of the Debtors' Insurance Plans. Except as otherwise provided in the immediately preceding sentence, all proofs of Claim on account of or in respect of any Cash Management Agreement, Confidentiality and Non-Disclosure Agreement, Customer Program, Debtor Ownership Agreement, Foreign Agreement, Fuel Consortia Agreement, Insurance Plan, Intercompany Contract, Interline Agreement, Letter of Credit, Revenue Generating Agreement, Surety Bond, or Workers' Compensation Plan automatically shall be deemed withdrawn on the Effective Date without any further notice to or action by any party or order of the Court. Unless otherwise agreed to by the applicable Debtor or Reorganized Debtor and the applicable Assumption Counterparty, an Assumption Counterparty to an executory contract or unexpired lease assumed pursuant to Section 8.3(a) of the Plan shall, on or before ten (10) Business Days after the Effective Date, return to the applicable Reorganized Debtor any deposit of Cash or other credit enhancement made by a Debtor to such Assumption Counterparty on or after the Commencement Date, including, without limitation, that certain Cash deposit held by Airlines Reporting Corporation pursuant to the Addendum to Carrier Services Agreement between Airlines Reporting Corporation and American, dated November 29, 2011, and that certain Cash deposit held by the International Air Transport Association pursuant to the Agreement in

Each Insurance Plan issued by the insurance or insurance service company affiliates of American International Group, Inc. ("AIG") to the Debtors shall be deemed to be an executory contract assumed by the Debtors pursuant to Section 8.3 of the Plan or in accordance with the Order Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a) and 365(a) Approving Assumption of Chartis Insurance Program Agreements, dated March 5, 2012 (ECF No. 1595) and as provided in the Order Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a), 363(b), and 364(c) Authorizing, But Not Directing, and (Where Applicable) Ratifying (i) Renewal of Insurance Program with Chartis and (ii) Grant of Security Interest in Connection Therewith, dated September 21, 2012 (ECF No. 4655), and AIG shall not be required to return to the applicable Reorganized Debtor any deposit of Cash or other credit enhancement made by a Debtor to AIG on or after the Commencement Date in connection with an Insurance Plan and any insurance policies and related agreements, documents, or instruments entered into between one or more of the Debtors and AIG on or after the Commencement Date. Nothing in the Plan shall prejudice AIG's rights to setoff, recoupment, and subrogation with respect to an Insurance Plan between one or more of the Debtors and AIG and any insurance policies and related agreements, documents, or instruments entered into between one or more of the Debtors and AIG after the Commencement Date. Each and every insurance policy issued by ACE American Insurance Company or any of its affiliates to the Debtors or any of their affiliates or predecessors and each and every agreement (including, but not limited to, claims servicing agreements), document, and instrument related thereto shall be deemed assumed by the Debtors pursuant to Section 8.3 of the Plan as more particularly set forth in the Stipulation and Agreed Order Between the Debtors, AMR Corporation, and ACE American Insurance Company Providing the Terms of Assumption of Certain Insurance Policies and Agreements Pursuant to a Plan of Reorganization, entered on August 9, 2013 (ECF No. 9562).

(b) Certain Indemnification Obligations. Each Indemnification Obligation shall be deemed assumed by New AAG as of the Merger Effective Time in accordance with the Merger Agreement. Each Indemnification Obligation that is deemed assumed under the Plan shall continue in full force and effect in accordance with its terms. From and after the Merger Effective Time, New AAG shall honor and perform the Indemnification Obligations, including under all indemnification Contracts (as defined in the Merger Agreement) and organizational documents of the Debtors. New AAG shall not, directly or indirectly, amend, modify, limit, or terminate, in any manner adverse to the Debtors' current or former directors or officers, with respect to the Indemnification Obligations for acts or omissions occurring prior to the Merger Effective Time, any indemnification Contracts with the Debtors or any provisions regarding the Indemnification Obligations contained in any organizational documents of the Debtors. Each Indemnification Obligation that is deemed assumed under the Plan shall be deemed and treated as an executory contract pursuant to sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code regardless of whether or not a proof of Claim has been filed with respect to such Indemnification Obligation. With respect to current or former employees of any of the Debtors not covered by Section 8.3(b)(i) of the Plan and who were employed by any of the Debtors prior to, on, or after the Commencement Date, each obligation of any Debtor to indemnify such employees with respect to or based upon any act or omission taken or omitted in any such capacity, or for or on behalf of any Debtor, whether pursuant to agreement, the Debtors' respective articles or certificates of incorporation, corporate charters, bylaws, operating agreements or similar corporate documents, or applicable law in effect as of the Effective Date, shall be deemed assumed by New AAG as of the Effective Date. Each such indemnification obligation that is deemed assumed hereunder and/or under the Plan shall continue in full force and effect in accordance with its terms. From and after the Merger Effective Time, New AAG shall honor and perform all such indemnification obligations. New AAG shall not, directly or indirectly, amend, modify, limit, or terminate, in any manner adverse to such employees, with respect to such indemnification obligations for acts or omissions occurring prior to the Merger Effective Time, any indemnification contracts with the Debtors or any provisions regarding the indemnification obligations contained in any organizational documents of the Debtors. Each such indemnification obligation that is deemed assumed hereunder and/or under the Plan shall be deemed and treated as an executory contract pursuant to sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code regardless of whether or not a proof of Claim has been filed with respect to such indemnification obligation. Additionally, New AAG shall honor all of its indemnification obligations pursuant to Section 4.12 of the Merger Agreement.

(c) Collective Bargaining Agreements. Each of the Collective Bargaining Agreements with the respective Unions shall remain in full force and effect on and after the Effective Date, subject to the respective terms thereof. The consideration provided for in each of the Section 1113 Agreements shall be in complete settlement and satisfaction of all Claims as provided therein, and each Union shall promptly take all action necessary to withdraw all proofs of Claim with respect to the Claims resolved pursuant to the respective Section 1113 Agreements. Notwithstanding the foregoing, New AAG and the Reorganized Debtors reserve the right to seek adjudication of any Collective Bargaining Agreement-related disputes between the Debtors and any Union that concerns distributions, claims, restructuring transactions, or other aspects of the Plan in the Court.

(d) Covered Special Facility Revenue Bonds. Unless otherwise provided in the Plan, in a Special Facility Revenue Bond Agreement, or in an order of the Court, the Special Facility Revenue Bond Agreements, the respective Special Facility Revenue Bond Indentures, and the respective Special Facility Revenue Bond Documents, in each case relating solely to Covered Special Facility Revenue Bonds, shall remain in full force and effect in accordance with their original terms and conditions (or as amended by an order of the Court) and shall not otherwise be altered, amended, modified, surrendered, or cancelled under the Plan, and holders of such Covered Special Facility Revenue Bonds shall continue to receive payments in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Special Facility Revenue Bond Documents relating to the respective Covered Special Facility Revenue Bonds (as such Special Facility Revenue Bond Documents may have been amended by an order of the Court). As a result of the assumption of executory contracts and/or leases relating to the Covered Special Facility Revenue Bonds and the prior payment of the related cure amounts by the Debtors, all proofs of Claim on account of or in respect of any Covered Special Facility Revenue Bonds shall be deemed Disallowed and expunged without any further notice to or action by any party or order of the Court. To the extent any of the foregoing conflicts with the terms of a separate order of the Court relating to a Covered Special Facility Revenue Bond, the separate order of the Court shall govern.

14. Other Categories of Agreements and Policies

(a) Employee Benefits. Pursuant to Section 8.4(a) of the Plan, as of the Effective Date, unless specifically rejected by order of the Court or otherwise specifically provided for in the Plan, each American Compensation and Benefit Plan (as defined in the Merger Agreement) (including all matters set forth in Section 4.10 of the Merger Agreement and Section 4.1(o) of the American Disclosure Letter, but excluding (i) the matter set forth as item 1 in Section 4.1(o) of the American Disclosure Letter and (ii) any prepetition equity or equity-equivalent plan or agreement of the Debtors) shall be deemed assumed and shall be fully effective, and New AAG and the Reorganized Debtors shall maintain and perform under such plans and agreements. To the extent that the American Compensation and Benefit Plans are executory contracts, pursuant to sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, they shall be deemed assumed; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not constitute the assumption of any benefits that are the subject of the Retiree Adversary Proceeding. To the extent the Retiree Adversary Proceeding has not been finally resolved by the Effective Date, New AAG shall continue to prosecute the Retiree Adversary Proceeding subsequent to the Effective Date. To the extent that the Debtors or New AAG, as applicable, are unsuccessful in whole or in part in obtaining the relief requested in the Retiree Adversary Proceeding, any remaining vested benefits shall be treated in accordance with the provisions of section 1129(a)(13) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(b) Employee Protection Arrangements. Pursuant to Section 8.4(b) of the Plan, as of the Effective Date, the Employee Protection Arrangements (as defined in and set forth in Section 4.1(o) of the American Disclosure Letter) shall be fully effective.

(c) Postpetition Aircraft Agreements. Pursuant to Section 8.4(c) of the Plan, subject to the Debtors' right to terminate or reject any Postpetition Aircraft Agreement prior to the Effective Date pursuant to the terms of such Postpetition Aircraft Agreement, (i) each Postpetition Aircraft Agreement shall remain in place after the Effective Date, (ii) the Reorganized Debtors shall continue to honor each Postpetition Aircraft Agreement according to its terms, and (iii) to the extent any Postpetition Aircraft Agreement requires the assumption by the Debtors of such Postpetition Aircraft Agreement and the Postpetition Aircraft Obligations arising thereunder, such Postpetition Aircraft Agreement and Postpetition Aircraft Obligations shall be deemed assumed as of the Effective Date; provided, however, that this clause (iii) shall not be deemed or otherwise interpreted as an assumption by the Debtors of any agreement or obligation that is not a Postpetition Aircraft Agreement or Postpetition Aircraft Obligation; and provided further, that nothing in the Plan shall limit the Debtors' right to terminate such Postpetition Aircraft Agreement or Postpetition Aircraft Obligations in accordance with the terms thereof. To the extent that, subsequent to the date of the Second Amended Plan and on or prior to the Effective Date, the Debtors, with the approval of the Court, enter into new Postpetition Aircraft Agreements for Aircraft Equipment not currently subject to a Postpetition Aircraft Agreement, any Claims or obligations arising thereunder shall be treated as Postpetition Aircraft Obligations under the Plan and such Postpetition Aircraft Agreements shall be deemed assumed as of the Effective Date.

15. Retiree Claims. Notwithstanding anything in this Confirmation Order to the contrary, if the Court determines that all or any portion of any benefit claimed in the proofs of claim filed by the Retiree Committee against AMR (Proof of Claim No. 12239) and against American (Proof of Claim No. 12893) (together, the "Retiree Claims"), if modified, would give rise to an Allowed Claim (the "Allowed Retiree Claim"), then the Debtors shall continue such retiree benefits (as such term is defined in section 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code) under the Plan for the group of affected retired employees covered by the Allowed Retiree Claim in accordance with the provisions of section 1129(a)(13) of the Bankruptcy Code except as may be otherwise agreed to in writing by the Debtors, the Creditors' Committee, and the Retiree Committee; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not give rise to any implication that any Retiree Claim is allowable, and all of the rights of the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, and the Creditors' Committee to object to or otherwise oppose the Retiree Claims and the Retiree Committee's rights to oppose any such objection or opposition or to assert such Retiree Claims are reserved, including all appeals. Additionally, no reserve shall be required to be maintained in the Disputed Claims Reserve or otherwise with respect to the Retiree Claims.

16. Pension Plans

(a) Pension Plan Required Contributions. Pursuant to Section 8.5(a) of the Plan, on the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors shall assume and continue the Pension Plans and shall pay in Cash any aggregate unpaid (i) minimum required funding contributions under 26 U.S.C. §§ 412 and 430 and 29 U.S.C. §§ 1082 and 1083 and (ii) all delinquent PBGC premiums under 29 U.S.C. §§ 1306 and 1307, in each case with interest, for the Pension Plans under ERISA or the Internal Revenue Code. Upon such payment, the lien notices perfecting all liens and security interests held by, or in favor of, the PBGC on any assets of the Debtors or their affiliates shall be, and shall be deemed to be, withdrawn.

(b) Pension Plan Continuation. Pursuant to Section 8.5(b) of the Plan, after the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors shall (i) satisfy the minimum funding requirements under 26 U.S.C. §§ 412 and 430 and 29 U.S.C. §§ 1082 and 1083, (ii) pay all required PBGC premiums in accordance with 29 U.S.C. §§ 1306 and 1307, and (iii) administer the Pension Plans in accordance with the applicable provisions of ERISA and the Internal Revenue Code.

(c) Liabilities Preserved. Pursuant to Section 8.5(c) of the Plan, no provision of the Plan, this Confirmation Order, or section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code shall be construed to discharge, release, or relieve the Debtors, or their successors, including the Reorganized Debtors, or any other party, in any capacity, from liabilities or requirements imposed under any law or regulatory provision with respect to the Pension Plans or the PBGC. The PBGC and the Pension Plans shall not be enjoined or precluded from enforcing such liability as a result of any provision of the Plan, this Confirmation Order, or section 1141 of the Bankruptcy Code.

17. Assumption and Rejection Procedures and Resolution of Treatment Objections.

(a) Proposed Assumptions. Pursuant to Section 8.6(a) of the Plan, with respect to any executory contract or unexpired lease to be assumed under the Plan or pursuant to a Notice of Intent to Assume, unless an Assumption Counterparty files and properly serves a Treatment Objection by the Treatment Objection Deadline, such executory contract or unexpired lease shall be deemed assumed and, if applicable, assigned as of the Assumption Effective Date proposed by the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, without any further notice to or action by any party or order of the Court, and any obligation the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, may have to such Assumption Counterparty with respect to such executory contract or unexpired lease under section 365(b) of the Bankruptcy Code shall be deemed to be fully satisfied by the Proposed Cure, if any, which shall be the Cure Amount. Any Treatment Objection that is not timely filed and properly served shall be denied automatically and with prejudice (without the need for any objection by the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, and without any further notice to, or action by, any party or order of the Court). Any Claim relating to such assumption or assignment shall be forever barred from assertion and shall not be enforceable against any Debtor or Reorganized Debtor or their respective estates or property, without the need for any objection by the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, and without any further notice to or action by any party or order of the Court, and any obligation the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors may have under section 365(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (over and above any Proposed Cure) shall be deemed fully satisfied, released, and discharged, notwithstanding any amount or information included in the Schedules or any proof of Claim.

(b) Proposed Rejections. Pursuant to Section 8.6(b) of the Plan, with respect to any executory contract or unexpired lease to be rejected under the Plan or pursuant to a Notice of Intent to Reject, unless a Rejection Counterparty files and serves a Treatment Objection by the Treatment Objection Deadline, such executory contract or unexpired lease shall be deemed rejected as of the Rejection Effective Date proposed by the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, without any further notice to or action by any party or order of the Court. Any objection to the rejection of an executory contract or unexpired lease that is not timely filed and served shall be deemed denied automatically and with prejudice (without the need for any objection by the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, and without any further notice to or action by any party or order of the Court).

(c) Resolution of Treatment Objections. Pursuant to Section 8.6(c) of the Plan, on and after the Effective Date, the Reorganized Debtors may, in their sole discretion, settle Treatment Objections without any further notice to or action by any party or order of the Court (including by paying any agreed Cure Amount). With respect to each executory contract or unexpired lease as to which a Treatment Objection is timely filed and served and is not otherwise resolved by the parties after a reasonable period of time, the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall schedule a hearing with the Court with respect to such Treatment Objection and provide at least fourteen (14) calendar days' notice of such hearing to the Assumption Counterparty, the Rejection Counterparty, or the Deferred Counterparty, as applicable; provided, however, that if such Treatment Objection is not resolved by the parties after a reasonable period of time, the respective Assumption Counterparty, Rejection Counterparty, or Deferred Counterparty may, with prior notice to the Debtors, request that the Court schedule such a hearing. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court or agreed to by the parties, any assumption or rejection approved by the Court notwithstanding a Treatment Objection shall be effective as of the Assumption Effective Date or Rejection Effective Date, as applicable, that was originally proposed by the Debtors or specified in the Plan. Any Cure Amount shall be paid as soon as reasonably practicable following entry of a Final Order resolving an assumption dispute and/or approving an assumption (and assignment, if applicable), unless the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, seek to reject such executory contract or unexpired lease and file a Notice of Intent to Reject under Section 8.2(b) of the Plan (which, with respect to a Special Facility Revenue Bond Agreement, must be served upon the Indenture Trustee of the applicable Special Facility Revenue Bond Indenture). No Cure Amount shall be allowed for a penalty rate or default rate of interest to the extent not proper under the Bankruptcy Code or applicable law.

(d) Reservation of Rights. Pursuant to Section 8.6(d) of the Plan, if a Treatment Objection is filed with respect to any executory contract or unexpired lease sought to be assumed or rejected by any of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors reserve the right (i) to seek to assume or reject such executory contract or unexpired lease at any time before the assumption, rejection, assignment, or Cure Amount with respect to such executory contract or unexpired lease is determined by a Final Order and (ii) to the extent a Final Order is entered resolving a Treatment Objection as to a Cure Amount in an amount different from the Proposed Cure, to seek to reject such executory contract or unexpired lease within fourteen (14) calendar days after the date of entry of such Final Order by filing with the Court and serving upon the Assumption Counterparty or Rejection Counterparty, as applicable, a Notice of Intent to Assume or a Notice of Intent to Reject, as applicable (which, with respect to a Special Facility Revenue Bond Agreement, must be served upon the Indenture Trustee of the applicable Special Facility Revenue Bond Indenture).

18. Rejection Claims. Pursuant to Section 8.7 of the Plan, any Rejection Claim must be filed with the Court by the Rejection Bar Date, i.e., thirty (30) calendar days after entry of an order of the Court approving the rejection of an executory contract or unexpired lease. Any Rejection Claim for which a proof of Claim is not properly filed and served by the Rejection Bar Date shall be forever barred and shall not be enforceable against the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, or their respective estates or property. The Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, may contest Rejection Claims in accordance with Section 7.1 of the Plan.

19. Assignment. Pursuant to Section 8.8 of the Plan, to the extent provided under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable law, any executory contract or unexpired lease transferred and assigned under the Plan shall remain in full force and effect for the benefit of the transferee or assignee in accordance with its terms, notwithstanding any provision in such executory contract or unexpired lease (including those of the type set forth in section 365(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code) that prohibits, restricts, or conditions such transfer or assignment. To the extent provided under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable law, any provision that prohibits, restricts, or conditions the assignment or transfer of any such executory contract or unexpired lease or that terminates or modifies such executory contract or unexpired lease or allows the counterparty to such executory contract or unexpired lease to terminate, modify, recapture, impose any penalty, condition renewal or extension, or modify any term or condition upon any such transfer and assignment, constitutes an unenforceable antiassignment provision and is void and of no force or effect. The rights of the Alliance Parties (as defined in the Limited Objection and/or Reservation of Rights of City of Fort Worth and AllianceAirport Authority, Inc. to Debtors' Second Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan (ECF No. 9353) (the "Alliance Parties Objection") to object to and/or contest any (i) assumption and/or assignment of one or both of the Leases (as defined in the Alliance Parties Objection) or any related agreements; (ii) purchase of related equipment by the Debtors; or (iii) any other term of any proposed assumption, including proposed cure amounts, shall be reserved pursuant to any applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code. Furthermore, the Debtors' obligations, if any, under the Consent Order (as defined in the Alliance Parties' Objection) shall constitute an Allowed Administrative Expense pursuant to Section 2.1 of the Plan and shall not be discharged by the Plan or this Confirmation Order.

20. Approval of Assumption, Rejection, Retention, or Assignment of Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases. Pursuant to Section 8.9 of the Plan, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date, entry of this Confirmation Order shall constitute approval of the rejections, retentions, assumptions, and/or assignments contemplated under the Plan pursuant to sections 365 and 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code. Each executory contract and unexpired lease that is assumed under the Plan shall vest in and be fully enforceable by the applicable Reorganized Debtor in accordance with its terms as of the applicable Assumption Effective Date, except as modified by the provisions of the Plan or any order of the Court authorizing or providing for its assumption. The provisions of each executory contract or unexpired lease assumed and/or assigned under the Plan that are or may be in default shall be deemed satisfied in full by the Cure Amount or by an agreed-upon waiver of the Cure Amount. Upon payment in full of the Cure Amount, any and all proofs of Claim based upon an executory contract or unexpired lease that has been assumed in the Chapter 11 Cases or under the Plan shall be deemed Disallowed and expunged without any further notice to or action by any party or order of the Court.

21. Modifications, Amendments, Supplements, Restatements, or Other Agreements. Pursuant to Section 8.10 of the Plan, unless otherwise provided in the Plan or by separate order of the Court, each executory contract and unexpired lease that is assumed, whether or not such executory contract or unexpired lease relates to the use, acquisition, or occupancy of real property, shall include (i) all modifications, amendments, supplements, restatements, or other agreements made directly or indirectly by any agreement, instrument, or other document that in any manner affects such executory contract or unexpired lease and (ii) all executory contracts or unexpired leases appurtenant to the premises, if any, including all easements, licenses, permits, rights, privileges, immunities, options, rights of first refusal, powers, uses, reciprocal easement agreements, and any other interests in real estate or rights in remedy related to such premises, unless any of the foregoing agreements are rejected under the Plan or pursuant to an order of the Court.

22. General Authorizations. Each of the officers of each of the Debtors is (and each of the officers of each of the Reorganized Debtors shall be) authorized and directed to execute, deliver, file, or record such contracts, instruments, releases, indentures, and other agreements or documents and take such actions as may be necessary or appropriate to effectuate and further evidence the terms and provisions of the Plan and the Merger Agreement. The Debtors and their directors, officers, members, agents, and attorneys are authorized and empowered to issue, execute, deliver, file, or record any agreement, document, or security, including, without limitation, the documents contained in the Plan Supplement and the Exhibits and Schedules to the Plan, as modified, amended, and supplemented, in substantially the form included therein, and to take any action necessary or appropriate to implement, effectuate, and consummate the Plan and the Merger Agreement in accordance with their terms, or take any or all corporate actions authorized to be taken pursuant to the Plan and the Merger Agreement, including merger of any of the Debtors and the dissolution of each of the Debtors, and any release, amendment, or restatement of any bylaws, certificates of incorporation, or other organizational documents of the Debtors, whether or not specifically referred to in the Plan, the Merger Agreement, or the Plan Supplement, without further order of the Court, and any or all such documents shall be accepted by each of the respective state filing offices and recorded in accordance with applicable state law and shall become effective in accordance with their terms and the provisions of state law.

New AAG and the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, shall execute and deliver such other agreements, documents, and instruments in accordance with the Plan, the Merger Agreement, and any such Postpetition Aircraft Agreement, as applicable.

New AAG shall file the New AAG Certificate of Incorporation and the Certificate of Designations with the Secretary of State of the State of Delaware on the Effective Date immediately prior to the Merger Effective Time. The New AAG Certificate of Incorporation shall prohibit the issuance of nonvoting equity securities, subject to further amendment of such New AAG Certificate of Incorporation as permitted by applicable law. deemed authorized and approved by each of the Reorganized Debtors, its board of directors, managers, stockholders, members, or partners, as applicable, in all respects, in each case to the extent required by applicable nonbankruptcy law. Without limiting the foregoing, such actions include (i) the adoption and filing of the New AAG Certificate of Incorporation, the Certificate of Designations, and the Amended Certificates of Incorporation for each of the other Reorganized Debtors, (ii) the approval of the New AAG Bylaws and the Amended Bylaws for each of the other Reorganized Debtors, (iii) the election or appointment, as applicable, of directors and officers for the Reorganized Debtors, (iv) the issuance of the Plan Shares, (v) the Merger to be effectuated pursuant to the Plan, (vi) the adoption and implementation of the employee matters set forth in Section 4.10 of the Merger Agreement and Section 4.1(o) of the American Disclosure Letter, including, but not limited to, the New AAG 2013 Incentive Award Plan, the Alignment Awards, and the LTIP 2013 Awards, (vii) the qualification of any of the Reorganized Debtors as foreign corporations, partnerships, or limited liability companies wherever the conduct of business by such Entities requires such qualification, and (viii) the execution, delivery, and performance of each Postpetition Aircraft Agreement and any agreement or instrument provided for in a Postpetition Aircraft Agreement and the issuance of any security to be issued by a Reorganized Debtor pursuant to or in connection with a Postpetition Aircraft Agreement. Pursuant to Section 6.19(d) of the Plan, all matters provided for in the Plan involving the corporate structure of any Debtor or Reorganized Debtor, or any corporate or related action required by any Debtor or Reorganized Debtor in connection with the Plan, shall be deemed to have occurred and shall be in effect, without any requirement of further action by the security holders or directors of such Debtor or Reorganized Debtor or by any other stakeholder, and with like effect as though such action had been taken unanimously by the security holders and directors, managers, members, or partners, as applicable, of the applicable Debtor or Reorganized Debtor.

27. Anti-Dilution Adjustments. Pursuant to Section 6.21 of the Plan, in the event that that any transaction or event of the type contemplated by Sections 6.1, 6.2, or 6.3 of the Certificate of Designations occurs with respect to the New Common Stock, in addition to the actions required under the Certificate of Designations, the Board of Directors of New AAG shall take appropriate action as may be necessary or appropriate, as determined in its reasonable good faith judgment, to protect the rights of holders of New Common Stock consistent with the Plan.

28. Securities Laws Exemption. The offer, issuance, and distribution of all of the shares of New Mandatorily Convertible Preferred Stock and New Common Stock under the Plan to holders of Allowed Claims against and Allowed AMR Equity Interests in the Debtors, as applicable, and the issuance of all shares of New Common Stock issued pursuant to the conversion of the New Mandatorily Convertible Preferred Stock, and any securities issued or to be issued pursuant to or in connection with a Postpetition Aircraft Agreement, shall be exempt, pursuant to section 1145 of the Bankruptcy Code, from registration under (i) the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and all rules and regulations promulgated thereunder and (ii) any state or local law requiring registration for the offer, issuance, or distribution of securities.

29. Listing. Pursuant to Section 6.12 of the Plan, in accordance with the Merger Agreement, the shares of New Common Stock shall be authorized for listing on the New York Stock Exchange or the NASDAQ Stock Market, upon official notice of issuance, on or prior to the Closing Date.

In addition, Section 6.13 of the Plan does not apply with respect to any New Common Stock, New Mandatorily Convertible Preferred Stock, or any other equity securities or rights to acquire or receive equity securities or any other awards of any kind relating to New AAG that are issued in accordance with or pursuant to the Plan or the Merger Agreement.

be fully terminated, satisfied, released, and discharged in exchange for the treatment provided in the Plan for Allowed Claims and any other treatment provided for by Final Order, if any, (ii) the cancellations set forth in Section 6.14 of the Plan and the termination, satisfaction, release, and discharge of the Debtors' obligations with respect to the Special Facility Revenue Bonds (excluding the Covered Special Facility Revenue Bonds) and the Aircraft Securities shall not alter the obligations or rights of any non-Debtor third parties applicable after the Effective Date vis-à-vis one another with respect to such notes, instruments, certificates, or other documents, (iii) the cancellations set forth in Section 6.14 of the Plan and the termination, satisfaction, release, and discharge of the Debtors' obligations with respect to the Special Facility Revenue Bonds (excluding the Covered Special Facility Revenue Bonds) shall not be deemed to cause a default, termination, waiver, or other forfeiture of the Debtors in any document, instrument, lease, or other agreement (including, but not limited to, that certain Amended and Restated Airport Use Agreement – Terminal Facilities Lease, dated as of January 1, 1985, by and between the City of Chicago and American, as amended from time to time (the "Chicago Lease")) pursuant to which the Debtors lease or use land, facilities, improvements, or equipment financed, in whole or in part, with the proceeds of any Special Facility Revenue Bonds that have been deemed to be satisfied or cancelled under the Plan or otherwise, and (iv) any provision in any document, instrument, lease, or other agreement (including, but not limited to, the Chicago Lease) that causes or effectuates, or purports to cause or effectuate, a default, termination, waiver, or other forfeiture of, or by, the Debtors or their interests, as a result of the cancellations, terminations, satisfaction, releases, or discharges provided for in Section 6.14 of the Plan shall be deemed null and void and shall be of no force and effect, and the Debtors shall be entitled to continue to use (in accordance with the remaining provisions of such document, instrument, lease, or other agreement) any land, facilities, improvements, or equipment financed with the proceeds of Special Facility Revenue Bonds (including, but not limited to, the premises leased pursuant to the Chicago Lease), notwithstanding such cancellations, terminations, satisfactions, releases, or discharges provided in Section 6.14 of the Plan. Except as otherwise provided in the Plan, on the Effective Date, any indentures or similar agreements relating to any of the foregoing, including, without limitation, the Indentures, the Special Facility Revenue Bond Indentures, and any related notes, guarantees, or similar instruments of the Debtors or otherwise (excluding the Special Facility Revenue Bond Indentures, and any related notes, guarantees, or similar instruments of the Debtors or otherwise, associated with the Covered Special Facility Revenue Bonds) shall be deemed cancelled, as permitted by section 1123(a)(5)(F) of the Bankruptcy Code, and discharged (a) with respect to all rights of and obligations owed by any Debtor under any such indentures or similar agreements and (b) except as provided below, with respect to the rights and obligations of the Indenture Trustees under any such indentures or similar agreements against (or to) the holders of Note Claims, the holders of Special Facility Revenue Bond Claims, or any other Person. Solely for the purpose of clause (b) in the immediately preceding sentence, only the following rights of each such Indenture Trustee shall remain in effect after the Effective Date: (1) rights as trustee, co-trustee, agent, paying agent, distribution agent, authentication agent, guarantee trustee, remarketing agent, bond registrar, and registrar, including, but not limited to, any rights to payment of fees, expenses, and indemnification obligations, including, but not limited to, from property distributed under the Plan to such Indenture Trustee (but excluding any other property of the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, or their respective estates), whether pursuant to the exercise of a charging lien or otherwise, (2) rights relating to distributions to be made to holders of Allowed Note Claims or

Allowed Special Facility Revenue Bond Claims by such Indenture Trustee from any source, including, but not limited to, distributions under the Plan (but excluding any other property of the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, or their respective estates), (3) rights relating to representation of the interests of the holders of Note Claims or Special Facility Revenue Bond Claims by such Indenture Trustee in the Chapter 11 Cases to the extent not discharged or released under the Plan or under any order of the Court, and (4) rights relating to participation by such Indenture Trustee in any proceedings or appeals related to the Plan. Notwithstanding the continued effectiveness of such rights after the Effective Date, such Indenture Trustees shall have no obligation to object to Claims against the Debtors or to locate certificated holders of Notes, Special Facility Revenue Bonds, or Aircraft Securities who fail to surrender their respective Notes, Special Facility Revenue Bonds, or Aircraft Securities in accordance with Section 5.13 of the Plan. Nothing contained in the Plan shall be deemed to cancel, terminate, release, or discharge the obligation of the Debtors or any of their counterparties under any executory contract or lease (including, but not limited to, executory contracts or leases pursuant to which a Debtor leases any land, facilities, improvements, and/or equipment financed, in whole or in part, with proceeds of Special Facility Revenue Bonds) to the extent such executory contract or lease has been assumed by the Debtors pursuant to a Final Order of the Court or under the Plan. Notwithstanding any other provisions set forth in Section 6.14 of the Plan, with respect to any aircraft identified in the Plan Supplement, and any Aircraft Securities issued in respect of such aircraft, until (I) the execution of Postpetition Aircraft Agreements with respect to such aircraft, (II) the payment in full of distributions as provided in the Plan in respect of the Claims addressed by such Postpetition Aircraft Agreements with respect to such aircraft, (III) any monies, other consideration, or other value to be passed through such Aircraft Securities at

For the avoidance of doubt, the release, satisfaction, or discharge of any of the Debtors' obligations under the Aircraft Securities shall not affect the rights and obligations of any non-Debtor third parties after the Effective Date or the applicable Rejection Effective Date, as applicable, vis-à-vis one another with respect to such Aircraft Securities.

32. Equity Interests in Subsidiaries Held by the Debtors. Pursuant to Section 6.17 of the Plan, subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the Merger Agreement, on the Effective Date, each respective Equity Interest in a direct or indirect subsidiary of AMR that is not a Debtor shall be unaffected by the Plan, and the Reorganized Debtor holding such Equity Interest shall continue to hold such Equity Interest; provided, however, that on or after the Effective Date, New AAG may cause US Airways to merge with and into New AAG or a business entity disregarded as an entity separate from New AAG for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

the APA, the APFA, and the TWU, as applicable, and distributions on account of such American Union Claims shall be deemed complete upon delivery to the APA, the APFA, and the TWU, as applicable.

40. Distributions of New Mandatorily Convertible Preferred Stock. Except with respect to owners of securities that are held directly or indirectly through The Depository Trust Company ("DTC") or its nominee, distributions of New Mandatorily Convertible Preferred Stock shall be made as follows: The Debtors or the Disbursing Agent shall arrange for the establishment of accounts at a broker (the "Holding Broker") that, directly or indirectly, may temporarily hold securities as or through an entity that is a bank, broker or other nominee that holds securities through DTC in "street name" on behalf of underlying beneficial owners of the securities (a "DTC Participant"). Such accounts shall be established for the benefit of each creditor entitled to receive such a distribution of New Mandatorily Convertible Preferred Stock and shall be established in the name of and for the benefit of the creditor as reflected on the claims register maintained in the Chapter 11 Cases, but creditors shall not be permitted to access their New Mandatorily Convertible Preferred Stock until they retain a broker of their own choice (the "Creditor's Broker") and initiate a transfer of the New Mandatorily Convertible Preferred Stock from the Holding Broker's account to the Creditor's Broker account. The Holding Broker is authorized to make a "free delivery" of shares from such accounts in accordance with delivery instructions received from the creditor. The Debtors, the Disbursing Agent, and the Holding Broker are authorized to establish such accounts for the benefit of such creditors and to take such other acts that are necessary or appropriate in connection with such distributions, notwithstanding the absence of an agreement by the creditor. The Disbursing Agent is authorized to establish one or more accounts (including securities accounts or brokerage accounts) with respect to the Disputed Claims Reserve.

41. Pursuant to Section 5.2(b) of the Plan, the Debtors shall be authorized, without further Court approval, to reimburse any Servicer for its reasonable and customary servicing fees and expenses incurred in providing postpetition services directly related to distributions under the Plan. Such reimbursement shall be made on terms agreed to with the Debtors and shall not be deducted from distributions to be made under the Plan to holders of Allowed Claims receiving distributions from such Servicer.

42. Timing of Distributions. Pursuant to Section 5.3 of the Plan, subject to any reserves or holdbacks established under the Plan, on the appropriate Distribution Date, or as soon thereafter as is practicable, holders of Allowed Claims and Allowed AMR Equity Interests shall receive the distributions provided for in the Plan. Distributions on account of General Unsecured Claims that are Allowed as of the Effective Date, including delivery to The Depository Trust Company of the global certificate(s) representing the shares of Mandatorily Convertible Preferred Stock to be issued under the Plan, shall be made on the Initial Distribution Date or, other than with respect to distribution of Plan Shares, as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable (and shall receive the additional true-up distributions provided for in Section 7.4 of the Plan at the times provided for therein). Distributions on account of any Disputed Claim as of the Effective Date that subsequently becomes Allowed shall be made on the next Distribution Date that is at least twenty (20) calendar days after the date such Claim becomes Allowed, or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable; provided, however, that distributions on account of Administrative Expenses and Priority Tax Claims shall be made as set forth in Article II of the Plan. Upon making distributions under the Plan, in no event shall any of the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, or the Disbursing Agent be liable for the subsequent acts of third parties regarding such distributions.

43. Transferees of Claims. Except as otherwise provided in a Final Order of the Court, the transferees of Claims that are transferred pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 3001 on or prior to the Distribution Record Date (provided that an evidence of such transfer has been filed with the Court on or prior to the Distribution Record Date) shall be treated as the respective holders of such Claims for all Plan purposes, notwithstanding that any period provided by Bankruptcy Rule 3001 for objecting to such transfer has not expired by the Distribution Record Date.

44. Setoff and Recoupment. Pursuant to Section 5.11 of the Plan, the Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, may, but shall not be required to, set off or recoup against any Claim, and any distribution to be made on account of such Claim, any and all claims, rights, and Causes of Action of any nature that the Debtors may have against the holder of such Claim pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code or applicable nonbankruptcy law; provided, however, that neither the failure to do so nor the allowance of any Claim under the Plan shall constitute a waiver, abandonment, or release by the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, of any such claims, rights, and Causes of Action that the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, may have against the holder of such Claim.

45. No Reserve for Disallowed or Expunged Claims. No reserves shall be required to be established for Claims (or any portion thereof) that have been disallowed or expunged by order of the Court notwithstanding any appeal, motion for reconsideration, or similar motion or request for relief that may be filed, absent an order of the Court expressly directing the establishment of such a reserve.

46. Final Fee Applications. Pursuant to Section 2.2 of the Plan, all Entities seeking an award by the Court of compensation for services rendered or reimbursement of expenses incurred through and including the Confirmation Date under sections 327, 328, 330, 331, 503(b)(2), 503(b)(3), 503(b)(4), or 503(b)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code shall (i) file their respective final applications for allowance of compensation for services rendered and reimbursement of expenses incurred by the date that is sixty (60) days after the Effective Date and (ii) be paid in full in such amounts as are allowed by the Court (A) on the date on which the order of the Court relating to any such Administrative Expense is entered, or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable, or (B) upon such other terms as may be mutually agreed upon between the holder of such an Administrative Expense and the Debtors, or, if on or after the Effective Date, New AAG. The Debtors and the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable, are authorized to pay compensation for services rendered or reimbursement of expenses incurred after the Confirmation Date in the ordinary course and without the need for Court approval.

47. The Debtors are authorized to pay, in the ordinary course of business and without the need for Court approval, the reasonable fees and expenses, incurred after the Confirmation Date, of the professional persons employed by the Debtors, the Creditors' Committee, and the Retiree Committee in connection with the implementation and consummation of the Plan, the claims reconciliation process, and any other matters as to which such professionals may be engaged.

48. Creditors' Committee Member Fees. Pursuant to Section 6.23 of the Plan, subject to the occurrence of the Effective Date and notwithstanding Section 2.2 of the Plan, the reasonable fees and out-of-pocket expenses (including professionals fees in an amount to be agreed upon by the Debtors and the Creditors' Committee) of the individual members of the Creditors' Committee, in each case, incurred in their capacities as members of the Creditors' Committee, shall, to the extent incurred and unpaid by the Debtors prior to the Effective Date, be Allowed as Administrative Expenses and paid by the Reorganized Debtors without further Court approval upon the submission of invoices to the Reorganized Debtors. The foregoing shall not include any such fees and out-of-pocket expenses paid pursuant to Section 2.4 of the Plan.

49. Dissolution of Committees. Pursuant to Section 12.1 of the Plan, following the Effective Date, the Retiree Committee shall continue to have standing and a right to be heard solely with respect to (i) applications for compensation by professionals and requests for allowance of Administrative Expenses for substantial contribution pursuant to section 503(b)(3)(D) of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) any adversary proceedings and any appeals (including appeals of this Confirmation Order, if any, that remain pending as of the Effective Date) to which the Retiree Committee is a party, (iii) any proofs of Claim filed by the Retiree Committee until such time as the allowance or disallowance of such proofs of Claim have been finally determined, including any appeals from an order allowing or disallowing such proofs of Claim, and (iv) any other matter related to the foregoing or involving the Retiree Committee's rights or duties under section 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Retiree Committee shall remain in existence after the Effective Date and shall not dissolve until the completion of the foregoing post-Effective Date activities. The Reorganized Debtors shall continue to compensate the Retiree Committee's professional advisors for reasonable services and expenses provided in connection with any of the foregoing post-Effective Date activities and reimburse the Retiree Committee members for their reasonable expenses incurred in connection therewith. On the date that is one hundred eighty (180) days following the Effective Date, the Creditors' Committee shall dissolve (unless such date is extended with the written consent of the Reorganized Debtors or by the Court for good cause shown); provided, however, that, following the Effective Date, the Creditors' Committee's standing and right to be heard shall be limited to (a) applications for compensation by professionals and requests for allowance of Administrative Expenses for substantial contribution pursuant to section 503(b)(3)(D) of the Bankruptcy Code, (b) participating in court hearings with respect to motions, adversary proceedings, or other actions (I) seeking enforcement or implementation of the provisions of the Plan or of this Confirmation Order, (II) relating to objections to Claims as set forth in Section 7.1 of the Plan, and (III) as otherwise consented to by the Reorganized Debtors or so ordered by the Court for good cause shown; and (c) any litigation or contested matter to which the Creditors' Committee is a party as of the Effective Date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, following the Effective Date, the Creditors' Committee's membership shall consist of the Allied Pilots Association, the Association of Professional Flight Attendants, Hewlett-Packard Enterprise Services, LLC, Manufacturers and Traders Trust Company, and the Transportation Workers Union of America, and its duties shall be limited to (u) participating in court hearings as provided in Section 12.1 of the Plan; (v) consulting with the Reorganized Debtors with respect to the General Unsecured Claims reconciliation and settlement process conducted by or on behalf of the Reorganized Debtors; (w) consulting with the Reorganized Debtors with respect to appropriate procedures for the settlement of Claims; (x) consulting with the Reorganized Debtors with respect to the maintenance of the Disputed Claims Reserve; (y) monitoring the distributions to the holders of Allowed Claims by the Disbursing Agent under the Plan; and (z) the matters set forth in Section 7.1 of the Plan. For so long as the General Unsecured Claims reconciliation process shall continue and the Creditors' Committee has not been dissolved, the Reorganized Debtors shall make regular reports to the Creditors' Committee as and when the Reorganized Debtors and the Creditors' Committee may reasonably agree upon. Following the Effective Date, the Creditors' Committee may retain professionals to assist it in carrying out its duties as limited above on terms that are reasonably acceptable to the Reorganized Debtors or authorized to be retained by further order of the Court; provided further, that the Creditors' Committee's professional advisors and experts that have been retained by an order of the Court prior to the Effective Date shall be deemed reasonably acceptable to the Reorganized Debtors. The Reorganized Debtors shall continue to compensate the Creditors' Committee's professional advisors for reasonable services provided in connection with any of the foregoing post-Effective Date activities. In addition, with respect to each member of the Post-Effective Date Creditors' Committee, the Reorganized Debtors shall (a) reimburse one (1) representative of each such member for its respective reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in connection with attending meetings of the Post-Effective Date Creditors' Committee and (b) compensate its respective professional advisors for fees not to exceed $100,000 for reasonable services provided in connection with any of the foregoing post-Effective Date activities that were incurred during the six (6) month period after the Effective Date, which shall be the sole source of payment from the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors for such fees. On the Effective Date, the current and former members of the Creditors' Committee and the Retiree Committee, and their respective officers, employees, counsel, advisors, and agents, shall be released and discharged of and from all further authority, duties, responsibilities, and obligations related to and arising from and in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases, and the retention or employment of the Creditors' Committee's and the Retiree Committee's respective attorneys, accountants, and other agents shall terminate, except to the extent provided above in Section 12.1 of the Plan.

50. Fees and Expenses of Indenture Trustees. The reasonable fees and expenses of the Indenture Trustees shall be paid in accordance with the procedures established in Section 2.4 of the Plan, which, pursuant to the arguments and statements made by the parties and the Court at the Confirmation Hearing and the subsequent agreement of the parties, is hereby amended to provide: "Except as may be otherwise provided in a Final Order of the Court previously entered in the Chapter 11 Cases or as set forth in Schedule "2" hereto, the reasonable prepetition and postpetition fees and expenses of each of the Indenture Trustees, to the extent payable by any of the Debtors pursuant to the terms of the applicable Bond Documents (which includes the reasonable fees and expenses of any counsel and/or other professionals retained by the Indenture Trustees in connection with such duties) shall be paid in Cash on the Effective Date, or as soon thereafter as reasonably practicable, upon submission of documented invoices (in customary form) to the Debtors, the Creditors' Committee, and the U.S. Trustee, subject to a review for reasonableness by the Debtors, the Creditors' Committee, and the U.S. Trustee, without the necessity of making application to the Court. The Indenture Trustees shall provide the Debtors and the Creditors' Committee with an estimate of such fees and expenses no later than thirty (30) days prior to the Confirmation Hearing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, under no circumstances shall any such fees and expenses (including counsel and/or other professionals) include fees and expenses associated with Avoidance Actions. Subject to Section 6.14 hereof, each Indenture Trustee's charging lien, if any, shall be discharged solely upon payment in full of the respective fees and expenses of the Indenture Trustees and termination of the respective Indenture Trustee's duties. Nothing herein shall be deemed to impair, waive, or discharge the Indenture Trustees' respective charging liens, if any, for any fees and expenses not paid by the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors, as applicable. In addition, upon submission of documented invoices (in customary form) to New AAG and without the necessity of making application to the Court, New AAG shall pay the reasonable fees and expenses of the Indenture Trustees in connection with making distributions hereunder. Any fees and expenses owing under the Support and Settlement Agreement shall be deemed Allowed Administrative Expenses and shall be paid in Cash on the Effective Date or as otherwise provided in the Support and Settlement Agreement to the extent provided in any order of the Bankruptcy Court."

51. Special Provision for Governmental Units. Pursuant to Section 10.11 of the Plan, solely with respect to "governmental units" (as defined in the Bankruptcy Code), nothing in the Plan or in this Confirmation Order shall limit or expand the scope of discharge, release, or injunction to which the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors are entitled under the Bankruptcy Code. Further, nothing in the Plan or in this Confirmation Order, including Sections 10.7 and 10.8 of the Plan, shall discharge, release, enjoin, or otherwise bar (i) any liability of the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors to a "governmental unit" arising on or after the Confirmation Date with respect to events occurring on or after the Confirmation Date, (ii) any liability to a "governmental unit" that is not a Claim, (iii) any valid right of setoff or recoupment of a "governmental unit," (iv) any police or regulatory action by a "governmental unit," (v) any environmental liability to a "governmental unit" that the Debtors, the Reorganized Debtors, any successors thereto, or any other Person or Entity may have as an owner or operator of real property after the Effective Date, and (vi) any liability to a "governmental unit" on the part of any Persons or Entities other than the Debtors or the Reorganized Debtors; provided, however, that nothing in Section 10.11 of the Plan shall affect the Debtors' releases in Section 10.8 of the Plan, nor shall anything in the Plan or in this Confirmation Order enjoin or otherwise bar any "governmental unit" from asserting or enforcing, outside the Court, any of the matters described in clauses (i) through (vi) in this Paragraph. Neither Agencia Especial de Financiamento Industrial – FINAME, nor Banco Nacional de Desenvolvimento Economico e Social shall be considered 'governmental units' for purposes of this paragraph or Section 10.11 of the Plan.

52. Releases, Exculpations, and Injunctions. The release, exculpation, and injunction provisions contained in the Plan are fair and equitable, are given for valuable consideration, and are in the best interests of the Debtors and their chapter 11 estates, and such provisions shall be effective and binding on all persons and entities.

53. Releases. As of the Effective Date and subject to the occurrence of the Merger Effective Time, the Debtors release (a) all present and former directors and officers of the Debtors and any other Persons who serve or served as members of management of the Debtors, (b) all post-Commencement Date advisors, consultants, agents, counsel, or other professionals of or to the Debtors, US Airways, the Creditors' Committee, the Retiree Committee, the Indenture Trustees, the Unions, the Search Committee, and the Ad Hoc Committee, and (c) US Airways, the Indenture Trustees, the Unions, all current and former members (in their capacity as members of such committees) of the Creditors' Committee, the Retiree Committee, the Ad Hoc Committee, the Search Committee, Nuveen Asset Management, LLC (and each of its managed funds and accounts on behalf of which it executed the Support and Settlement Agreement) (in its capacity in negotiating the Support and Settlement Agreement and the Plan), and OppenheimerFunds, Inc. (and each of its managed funds and accounts that executed the Support and Settlement Agreement) (in its capacity in negotiating the Support and Settlement Agreement and the Plan), and their respective officers, directors, agents, and employees (including attorneys and other professionals retained by individual members of such committees) (collectively, the "Released Parties"), from any and all Causes of Action held by, assertable on behalf of, or derivative from the Debtors, in any way relating to the Debtors, the Chapter 11 Cases, the Plan, negotiations regarding or concerning the Plan, the purchase, sale, or rescission of the purchase or sale of any security of the Debtors, and the ownership, management, and operation of the Debtors, except for actions found by Final Order to be willful misconduct (including, but not limited to, conduct that results in a personal profit at the expense of the Debtors' estates), gross negligence, fraud, malpractice, criminal conduct, unauthorized use of confidential information that causes damages, breach of fiduciary duty (to the extent applicable), and ultra vires acts, which Causes of Action are based on any act, event, or omission taking place before the Effective Date; provided, however, that the foregoing (i) shall not operate as a waiver of or release from any Causes of Action arising out of any express contractual obligation owing by any former director, officer, or employee of the Debtors or any reimbursement obligation of any former director, officer, or employee with respect to a loan or advance made by the Debtors to such former director, officer, or employee, and (ii) shall not limit the liability of any counsel to their respective clients contrary to Rule 1.8(h)(1) of the New York Rules of Professional Conduct. The Reorganized Debtors and any newly-formed Entities that will be continuing the Debtors' business after the Effective Date shall be bound by all the releases set forth above to the same extent that the Debtors are bound.

54. Exculpation. Notwithstanding anything in the Plan to the contrary, and to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, neither the Debtors, US Airways, the Creditors' Committee, the Retiree Committee, the Indenture Trustees, Servicers, the Unions, the Search Committee, the Ad Hoc Committee, The Garden City Group, Inc. (including as claims and noticing agent, administrative agent, and as a Disbursing Agent), Nuveen Asset Management, LLC (and each of its managed funds and accounts on behalf of which it executed the Support and Settlement Agreement), and OppenheimerFunds, Inc. (and each of its managed funds and accounts that executed the Support and Settlement Agreement), nor any of their respective members (current and former, including counsel and other professionals employed by such members in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases), officers, directors, employees, counsel, advisors, professionals, or agents (collectively, the "Exculpated Parties"), shall have or incur any liability to any holder of a Claim or Equity Interest for any act or omission in connection with, related to, or arising out of the Chapter 11 Cases; negotiations regarding or concerning the Plan, the Merger Agreement, the Merger, and any settlement or agreement in the Chapter 11 Cases; the pursuit of confirmation of the Plan and consummation of the Merger; the consummation of the Plan and of the Merger; the offer, issuance, and distribution of any securities issued or to be issued pursuant to the Plan (including pursuant to or in connection with any Postpetition Aircraft Agreement), whether or not such distribution occurs following the Effective Date; or the administration of the Plan or property to be distributed under the Plan, except for actions found by Final Order to be willful misconduct, gross negligence, fraud, malpractice, criminal conduct, unauthorized use of confidential information that causes damages, breach of fiduciary duty (to the extent applicable), and ultra vires acts, and, in all respects, the Exculpated Parties shall be entitled to rely upon the advice of counsel with respect to their duties and responsibilities under the Plan. Following entry of this Confirmation Order, the Bankruptcy Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction to consider any and all claims against any of the Exculpated Parties involving or relating to the administration of the Chapter 11 Cases, any rulings, orders, or decisions in the Chapter 11 Cases or any aspects of the Debtors' Chapter 11 Cases, including the decision to commence the Chapter 11 Cases, the development and implementation of the Plan and the Merger Agreement, the decisions and actions taken during the Chapter 11 Cases, and any asserted claims based upon or related to prepetition obligations or equity interests administered in the Chapter 11 Cases, for the purpose of determining whether such claims belong to the Debtors' estates or third parties. In the event it is determined that any such claims belong to third parties, then, subject to any applicable subject matter jurisdiction limitations, the Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction with respect to any such litigation, subject to any determination by the Court to abstain and consider whether such litigation should more appropriately proceed in another forum.

55. Term of Injunctions or Stays. Pursuant to Section 10.4 of the Plan, unless otherwise expressly provided in the Plan or in a Final Order of the Court, all injunctions or stays arising under or entered during the Chapter 11 Cases under sections 105 or 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise, and in existence on the Confirmation Date, shall remain in full force and effect until the later of the Effective Date and the date indicated in the order providing for such injunction or stay. For the avoidance of doubt, the Revised Final Order Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §§ 105(a) and 362 Establishing Notification Procedures for Substantial Claimholders and Equity Security Holders and Approving Restrictions on Certain Transfers of Interests in the Debtors' Estates, entered by the Court on April 11, 2013 (ECF No. 7591), shall remain in full force and effect beyond the Effective Date.

The Debtors, the Creditors' Committee, the other defendants in the Clayton Adversary Proceeding, and all other parties in interest reserve all of their rights to oppose the Clayton Adversary Proceeding, including all of the claims asserted and relief sought therein. The exemption and immunity in favor of the Clayton Plaintiffs from the discharge, injunction, and release provisions (carve-out) as cited in this paragraph pertains to all proceedings in the Clayton Adversary Proceeding, wherever they might occur, including, but not limited to, any proceeding in the district court by virtue of a motion filed in that court that relates to the Clayton Adversary Proceeding, including any appeals therefrom. This Court retains jurisdiction to interpret the scope of this paragraph.

58. Automatic Stay Stipulations Still in Effect. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Plan or this Confirmation Order, (a)(i) the Stipulation and Agreed Order Resolving Motion of Cantor Fitzgerald & Co., et al., for Order Granting Relief from the Automatic Stay Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 362(d)(1), entered on January 30, 2012 (ECF No. 920) (the "Cantor Fitzgerald Stipulation and Order"), (ii) the Agreement Between the Debtors and Cedar & Washington Associates, LLC to Modify the Automatic Stay for a Limited Purpose, entered into February 1, 2012 (ECF No. 990) (the "Cedar & Washington Agreement"), and (iii) the Agreement between the Debtors and WTCP Plaintiffs to Modify the Automatic Stay for a Limited Purpose, entered into February 2, 2012 (ECF No. 991) (the "WTCP Plaintiffs Agreement"), shall remain in full force and effect notwithstanding confirmation of the Plan
