MOTION OF APPELLANT TO ACCEPT DOCUMENTS UNDER SEAL INTO THE APPELLATE RECORD

Pursuant to Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 8009(f), Avianca Holdings S.A., and its reorganized debtor affiliates in these proceedings (collectively, the “Reorganized Debtors”), by and through its undersigned counsel, move this Court to accept into the record of this appeal those documents filed under seal with the bankruptcy court or accepted into the record by the bankruptcy court as “Confidential” or “Highly Confidential” materials in accordance with the Standing Order Authorizing and Approving Procedures for Sealing and Redacting Confidential Information [Bankr. Dkt. 1475] and listed on the Appellant’s Statement of Issues and Designation of Record on Appeal (the “Appellant’s Designation”)

<sup>1</sup> A complete list of each of the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors in these chapter 11 cases may be obtained on the website of the claims and noticing agent at <http://www.kcellc.net/avianca>. The Debtors’ and Reorganized Debtors’ principal offices are located at Avenida Calle 26 # 59 – 15 Bogotá, Colombia.

[Bankr. Dkt. 2725], attached hereto as Exhibit A. A list of the Sealed Materials from the Appellant's Designation is attached hereto as Exhibit B (the "Sealed Materials"). In support hereof, Appellant respectfully states as follows:

1. Rule 8009(f) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure provides that the Sealed Material may be transmitted to this Court only upon this Court's order:

A document placed under seal by the bankruptcy court may be designated as part of the record on appeal. In doing so, a party must identify it without revealing confidential or secret information, but the bankruptcy clerk must not transmit it to the clerk of the court where the appeal is pending as part of the record. Instead, a party must file a motion with the court where the appeal is pending to accept the document under seal. If the motion is granted, the movant must notify the bankruptcy court of the ruling, and the bankruptcy clerk must promptly transmit the sealed document to the clerk of the court where the appeal is pending.

Fed. R. Bankr. P. 8009(f).

2. Because the relief Appellant seeks is procedural in nature, this Court may rule on it at any time. See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 8013(b).

WHEREFORE, Appellant respectfully requests that this Court enter an order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C, accepting the Sealed Material into the appellate record, and grant such other relief as it deems just and proper.

Dated: New York, New York

Respectfully submitted,

STATEMENT OF ISSUE ON APPEAL

Whether the bankruptcy court erred in holding that brokerage fees owed by the Reorganized Debtors in connection with pre-petition lease transactions, which fees became unconditional obligations upon execution of the leases, but were scheduled to be paid in installments over the term of the leases—including during the post-petition period—are entitled to priority under section 365(d)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code as obligations “arising . . . after the bankruptcy filing.”

The Reorganized Debtors respectfully designate the following items for the appellate record pursuant to Rule 8009(a) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure. Each designated item shall include all exhibits and/or attachments to such item, as set forth in the following tables<sup>2</sup>:

The Reorganized debtors will promptly file a motion with the District Court to accept all confidential, redacted, and sealed documents noted herein pursuant to Rule 8009(f) of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure.
