Dated:

① I am a retiree of the City of Detroit since November 2008. I am 69 years of age and unable to become employed ~~to~~ not even at ~~any~~ fast-food establishment.

② my objections!

③ ~~B~~ I object to Plan of Adjustment Article 42 as listed on page 18: - GRS Restoration Payment. After 10% cuts ~~over~~ ~~from~~ 1995 over the 10 years prior to my retirement with no restoration or raises as promised, I am now to believe within ~~20~~ ¹⁰ years, my pension might be restored? This is deferred compensation logic with ~~additional disclosure~~ if funds are available. How can I support approval of this plan?

④ ~~A~~ the entire plan is written in jargon meant to confuse and confound any average citizen who is not ^{an} attorney as demonstrated in Article 59 of page 12.

this is reprehensible systematically reduce the elderly population who worked for the City over 30 years ^{and more} to substandard living conditions and poverty? Is this plan meant to support the Emergency Manager's belief that retirees of the City are "fat, lazy and rich"? By what standards. I was classified as the working poor during my active employee status? Now when I most need the pension benefits I worked for and was promised, the city and the state will discuss what level of poverty I am entitled to?

What steps have the Emergency Manager taken to collect substantial debt owed the City as detailed in subscript "n" on page 35?

(D) ~~1~~ I object ^{and to} to the Plan ^{GRS} Settlement as described in Article ~~4~~ ⁵ on page ~~40~~ ⁴⁰. (See attachment D for a and b objections) Unbelievable! Conceivably, I could live longer than 20 years or die within 10 years. Either way, these articles are unacceptable.

(E) While I object to ^{the} entire plan content ^{under} in which to eliminate the financial woes of the City of Detroit on the backs of City retirees after 30 years and more of dedicated ^{employment} service to the City, my final objection to this Plan of adjustment is the unfairness and unequal treatment of which ^{retirees} are treated in (designated) this plan. Not only is the treatment unfair and unequal, its inhumane and cruel.

If this plan is approved,

Retired employees of the City of Detroit is now in a position of begging for pension benefits that was earned by working all of these years for the City; that ~~when~~ hired was promised by the City; and up until bankruptcy was declared as the only alternative to curing Detroit's financial woes, was protected by the State of Michigan's Constitution. Now the City of Detroit Retirees are under attack and being held ~~ransom~~ ^{hostage} for the greed and fiscal mismanagement of corrupt politicians.

Retirees earned pension benefits are being with held as ransom:

- If retirees do not accept plan, a higher percentage cut will be imposed.
- It's implied, if retirees do not accept plan, the whole benefits will be eliminated.
- If you do accept the Plan, no changes can be initiated until after 10 years.
- there will be no appeal process under either circumstances. Due Process DENIED!

Is this Nazi Germany and not the United States of America?

Is this fair?

Is this just?

I strongly urge Judge Steven Rhodes to consider my objections and comments and Do NOT approve this Plan of Adjustment submitted by the City of Detroit.
