City of Detroit, Michigan, Detroit Chapter 9 Task Descriptions for Dentons

Overview. The Official Committee of Retirees ("Committee") was appointed by the Office of the United States Trustee on August 23, 2013. The Committee represents the general interests of approximately 22,500 retirees with vested pension benefits and OPEB (other post employment benefits) that the City estimated to be a total $3.5 billion and $5.6 billion, respectively with bankruptcy case filings. As a result, claims related to retirees account for more than half of the City's asserted $18 billion of debt, and more than 66% of claims if the alleged $6.5 billion if secured bonds are excluded.

After being retained, the Committee interviewed several law firms to serve as its principal legal counsel. On August 28, 2013, the Committee retained Dentons US LLP ("Dentons"). There are three key engagement partners Sam J. Alberts, Claude Montgomery and Carole Neville, the second of whom was still technically with Dentons' affiliate Salans FMC SNR Denton Europe LLP ("Salans"). On October 1, 2013, the New York offices of Dentons and Salans combined. As such, separate fee applications for Dentons and Salans were submitted for the months of August and September 2013, and any single fee application for Dentons have been and continue to be submitted for the period beginning October 2013.

As a general matter, the representation of the Committee is being conducted by three key engagement Dentons partners identified above. These partners, often oversee specific issues and tasks, and often oversee other attorneys on tasks.

We have read and understand the terms of the Court's Fee Review Order dated September 11, 2013 ("the Order"). We have complied with the Order except as expressly noted in this transmittal.

Matter: Eligibility

Eligibility of the City to be a debtor under chapter 9 is the central gating issue in this and almost all other chapter 9 cases. In this case, the issue of eligibility, and the Committee objection to it, was one of, if not the most significant tasks for the first several months of this case. The Committee's efforts were rendered both more complicated in some respects, and easier in others, by the fact that more than 100 different parties filed objection to the City's eligibility. In addition to complex factual discovery, the Committee raised several procedural, legal and constitutional challenges to eligibility, as well as seeking withdrawal of the reference to the District Court on certain legal issues. The Eligibility task was lead by Claude Montgomery, with assistance from several attorneys, including partners Carole Neville, Arthur Rugger and Anthony Ullman on trial and appellate matters, Leah Bruno on general discovery matters and Robert Millner on pension discovery matters. Also providing significant assistance were counsel Paul Gunther and associates Joseph Selby and Christopher Soper on brief writing and research. Services during this period include preparation coordination and filing appellate papers, including drafting and revising the Committee's appellate brief in reply to the opposition briefs of the City, State, Michigan Attorney General and the United States Attorney General to the Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals, which in total resulted in 96.80 hours of work at a value of $56,853.00.

Matter: Mediation

Soon after the Chapter 9 filing by the City, Bankruptcy Judge Rhodes ordered various parties, including the Committee, to participate in intense and extensive mediation efforts. Such mediation was referred to the Honorable Gerald E. Rosen, Chief United States District Court Judge for the Eastern District of Michigan, who in turn has availed himself of the several other mediators, including the Honorable Judge Wiley Y. Daniel, Senior United State District Judge for the District of Colorado, the Honorable Victoria A. Roberts, United States District Court Judge for the Eastern District of Michigan, the Honorable Elizabeth Perris, United States Bankruptcy Judge for the District of Oregon, and Eugene Driker, a well known Detroit mediator and lawyer. The committee was only involved in two sets of mediations. One involving pension issues and the other involving healthcare. Because the connected nature of these matters, these mediations are contained under the same task code similar to the tasking by the City. Carole Neville and Claude Montgomery are principally, but not exclusively responsible for pension related mediation and Sam J. Alberts is principally but not exclusively responsible for mediation related to OPEB (other post employment benefits). Carole Neville is also principally responsible for mediation relating to the assumption motion and forbearance agreement with assistance from Claude Montgomery. Matter: Assumption Motion

This task involves a motion by the City filed within the first days of the bankruptcy case to assume a contract that ostensibly resolves $220 million in allegedly secured SWAP obligations. A number of objections were filed before the Committee was appointed. The Committee was expressly authorized by Judge Rhodes to participate in the mediation involving the swap assumption motion and to file its objection. Given the pending nature of the motion, Dentons was required to attend to the Swap Matters. This task was principally overseen by Carole Neville, with assistance from Anthony Ullman, Sam J. Alberts and Joseph Selby. The City has entered into a series of settlement motions with the SWAP parties (UBS and Merrill Lynch)-none of which have been approved by the Bankruptcy Court. Dentons has been monitoring widespread creditor dissent and has taken an active role in opposition to the City's third settlement effort. Services during this period include the preparation of motions in opposition to the swap settlement and to compel discovery, and conducting discovery and making court appearances with respect to same. The time spent on this task in this period was 0.10 hours, at a value of $79.00.

Matter: Pension

According to the City, unfunded pension liability to retirees approximates $3.5 million, which the City asserts will necessarily result reductions in pension benefit payments to current and future retirees. This threat has been made notwithstanding that pensions are specifically protected under the Michigan Constitution. As such, the protection and preservation of pension is a critical issue for the Committee. Claude Montgomery and Carole Neville have the analysis lead for this project and partner Michael Maryn provided substantial assistance. The calculation of pension liability for purposes of voting and retiree recovery under the plan of adjustment is an ongoing effort. For this month, time on this matter totaled 10.60 hours at a value of $7,928.00.

Matter: OPEB

The City asserts that unfunded OPEB obligations to retirees totals $5.6 billion, making it the largest claim in the case. OPEB largely (although not exclusively) consists of health care benefits. The issue of threatened reductions to OPEB are of critical importance to retirees. From the outset the case, the City has stated its intention to substantially reduce OPEB health care, and to eliminate dental, eye care and life insurance benefits to retirees. In fact, under the City's original plan (still in affect), the City seeks to reduce annual OPEB spending from approximately $180 million to retirees to $30 million. Sam J. Alberts is the lead partner on these efforts. On OPEB litigation matters, assistance was provided by Dan Barnowski, Daniel Morris and Chris Soper (among others). On OPEB health care issue, assistance was provided by John Feore, and on trust structures, Michael Maryn. The calculation of OPEB liability and the treatment of OPEB under the Plan are ongoing efforts, involving all Committee professionals. Matter: Media

This matter includes review of media reports, as well as Committee contact and responses to media inquiries. Because of the City's efforts to position the case using media, the Committee was compelled to respond in kind to both inform its constituents of its efforts and to influence certain case events. The case is very closely watched by the local and national media, which influences the retirees and other parties in interest including the legislators. The partner in charge of media is Sam Alberts, with assistance originally from Tom Ochs, a media specialist, and later Amy Maslin, with further help from Daniel Pina, a paralegal. For this month, total time was 61.20 hours at a value of $18,492.50.

Matter: Government Affairs

Given the fundamentally political nature of the case, the Committee was called upon to understand the state, local and federal political dynamics of the bankruptcy, as to in turn formulate and implement a governmental affairs strategy. In addition, because the state contribution is a major component of retiree recovery under the plan, the Committee's efforts have included meeting with state representatives regarding the contribution. This tasks was principally overseen by Claude Montgomery, Sam Alberts and Carole Neville, with assistance from Seth Harris in Dentons governmental affairs practice group. For this period, total time was 16.20 hours at a value of $14,192.00.

Category 0016: Due Diligence.

This task category includes time relating to the due diligence review of various assets and potential assets of the City. It largely includes diligence work in connection with valuing the City-owned assets of the Detroit Institute of Arts (“DIA”) and in reviewing the DWSD and alternatives to monetize that asset. Aside from general cash flow, the DIA and the DWSD are the City’s two most valuable assets, and maximizing their values is essential to minimizing the City’s proposed cut to retiree pensions and healthcare. Services in this category were rendered by BWST Matthew E. Wilkins. [2.2 hours of work with a value of $968.00].

REGARDING JUNE 2014 MONTHLY INVOICES

Robert M. Fishman, the duly appointed fee examiner (the “Fee Examiner”), presents this Final Monthly Report regarding the June 2014 Monthly Invoices (each a “June Invoice”) pursuant to paragraph 7 of the Court’s Fee Review Order dated September 11, 2013 [Docket No. 810] (the “Fee Review Order”):¹

Background

1. Pursuant to the Order Appointing Fee Examiner dated August 19, 2013 [Docket No. 383] (the “Appointment Order”), the Court appointed Robert M. Fishman as the Fee Examiner in connection with the above-captioned bankruptcy case. According to the Appointment Order, it is the Fee Examiner’s responsibility to assure the Court, the City, the creditors, and the public that the City’s Professional Fee Expenses (as defined in the Appointment Order) are fully disclosed and are reasonable, as required by 11 U.S.C. § 943(b)(3).

2. Pursuant to paragraph 1 of the Fee Review Order, the City and the Committee have identified the following City Professionals and Committee Professionals, whose Professional Fee Expenses are subject to review by the Fee Examiner:

3. Pursuant to paragraph 4 of the Fee Review Order, the Professionals are required to submit monthly invoices to the Fee Examiner within 49 days after the end of each calendar month. Therefore, the June Invoices were due on or before August 18, 2014.

4. The Fee Examiner received timely June Invoices from each of the Professionals except Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC and Miller Buckfire & Co. LLC. Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC submitted its June Invoice on September 30, 2014, and Miller Buckfire & Co. LLC submitted its June Invoice on September 5, 2014. Additionally, counsel for Christie’s Inc, Debevoise & Plimpton LLP (“Debevoise”), has also agreed to be designated as a City Professional and have its invoices reviewed by the Fee Examiner. The Fee Examiner has just received the applicable Debevoise invoices and has just begun the process of reviewing and commenting on these invoices.

5. Pursuant to paragraph 5 of the Fee Review Order, the Fee Examiner is to issue Preliminary Reports to each of the Professionals with respect to each month's Invoices. The June Preliminary Reports (each a "Preliminary Report") were issued by the Fee Examiner on or about October 3, 2014 (and transmitted to each Professional) with respect to each of the June Invoices. Thereafter, the Fee Examiner engaged in Resolution Discussions with each of the Professionals in an effort to resolve the Fee Examiner's comments and questions regarding the June Invoices.

6. Pursuant to paragraph 7 of the Fee Review Order, the Fee Examiner submits this June Final Monthly Report regarding the June Invoices.

Summary of June Invoices by Professional

7. The following are summaries of the submitted June Invoices organized by Professional, indicating total requested fees and expenses, as well as voluntary write-offs and other reductions made by each of the Professionals with respect to its June Invoice, both before the submission of the June Invoice and as a result of the Resolution Discussions between the Fee Examiner and each Professional. 8. Conway MacKenzie, Inc. (“Conway”) (Exhibit A)

Initial Voluntary Fee Reduction ²	$1,980.00
Original Fee Request	$1,077,309.00
Subsequent Voluntary Fee Reduction	$4,008.89
Final Fee Request	$1,073,300.11
Expenses Incurred	$6,974.42
Voluntary Expense Reduction	$5,677.33
Final Expense Request	$1,297.09
Total Final Fee and Expense Request	$1,074,597.20

Conway’s June Invoice initially included a voluntary fee reduction of $1,980.00 and an expense reduction of $5,677.33, and provided for a fee request of $1,077,309.00 and an expense request of $1,297.09, for a total request of $1,078,606.09. In the Preliminary Report regarding Conway’s June Invoice, the Fee Examiner identified several issues and made certain requests of Conway relating to, among other things: (i) the sufficiency of certain service descriptions; (ii) clarification as to the nature of certain services relating to preparation of invoices; and (iii) the improper categorization of certain time entries.

Based on the Preliminary Report, Conway made substantial revisions to the June Invoice to supplement, re-categorize, and clarify certain service descriptions. Conway made additional voluntary reductions totaling $4,008.89 relating to certain inconsistent meeting times and other issues identified by the Fee Examiner. Conway has provided an affirmative statement that the fees requested in the June Invoice comply with the terms and conditions of Conway’s fee agreement with the City and has further demonstrated that the fees are being monitored to comply with the amount restrictions set forth therein. In sum, based on Conway’s revised June Invoice, which includes a modified fee and expense request of $1,074,597.20, there are no open issues with respect to the June Invoice.

² Pursuant to the service contract between Conway and the City, Conway is charging discounted rates that reflect, on average, a 25% discount from its standard hourly rates. In addition, Conway has agreed to cap its fees for each bi-weekly period at $400,000 for Conway employees and $208,000 for subcontractors, and to cap its overall advisory fees for the period from June 1, 2013 through September 30, 2014 at $19,300,000.

9. Jones Day (Exhibit B)

Initial Voluntary Fee Reduction ³	$414,947.12
Original Fee Request	$3,835,949.62
Additional Voluntary Fee Reduction	$16,224.75
Final Fee Request	$3,819,724.87
Original Expense Request	$174,537.38
Additional Voluntary Expense Reduction	$1,195.68
Final Expense Request	$173,341.70
Total Fee and Expense Request	$3,993,066.57

In the Preliminary Report regarding Jones Day’s June Invoice, the Fee Examiner identified several issues and made certain requests, including, but not limited to: (i) the high amount of time billed by partners relative to associates in the Automatic Stay Matters category; (ii) what appears to be an increasing tendency of various Jones Day professionals to improperly “lump” multiple communications in a single time entry and overuse the term “communicate” to mean, variously, telephone call, meeting or email; (iii) the inconsistent placement of certain tasks and matters in the COP/Swap Matters and Plan of Adjustment categories rather than the Postpetition/Exit Financing category; and (iv) issues with respect to individual time entries and expenses (including, e.g., insufficient detail about the tasks performed, potential internal inconsistencies, improper allocation of resources, incorrect categorization and lumping).

Jones Day responded that the staffing of professionals in the Automatic Stay Matters category was appropriate given that the category “mostly involved appellate work relating to the highly complex certificate of participation and swap transaction and a related settlement,” which was “of critical importance to the City.” The complexity of the issues and the “sophistication required to present them on appeal,” as well as an expedited briefing schedule, required the use of more senior lawyers familiar with bankruptcy, the underlying transactions and appellate practice.

With respect to the Fee Examiner’s comments on “lumping” and overuse of the word “communicate,” Jones Day explained that it was aware that recording multiple tasks in the same time entry is improper and that it generally writes off lumped time entries each month. Jones Day disputed, however, that the term “communicate” materially hindered the review of the invoices, and further disputed whether certain of the time entries flagged by the Fee Examiner constituted lumping. According to Jones Day, certain entries involved a single “communication” to many parties. Other entries involved situations when it would be impractical to record each separate communication, such as when a professional takes part in dozens of telephone calls on a given day related to a single topic.

The Fee Examiner respectfully disagrees with Jones Day that chronic overuse of the term “communicate” does not impair review of the invoices. The Fee Examiner believes the term emasculates the time entry by concealing the actual task performed—e.g., discuss, write an email, meet, teleconference, draft a letter. The result is two-fold: (i) the reader is deprived of additional detail about the task; and (ii) the Fee Examiner cannot verify the amount of time by comparing it to the entries of the other party to the communication to see if a commensurate amount of time was billed. The problem is significant—a quick search reveals that Jones Day used the term in approximately 1,116 of its 2,512 time entries in the June Invoice.

With respect to the “lumping” issue, the Fee Examiner agrees that one “communication,” such as a meeting or teleconference, with multiple people is not lumping, but the Fee Examiner has no way to know such is the case if the term “communicate” is used. The Fee Examiner also disagrees that timekeepers may place multiple communications in a single time entry. Again, the Fee Examiner is prevented from verifying the discrete tasks performed. The administrative burden doesn’t justify the practice, and many Jones Day timekeepers properly break down the various communications that make up their day.

Jones Day provided additional detail and wrote off additional time with respect to the Fee Examiner’s comments pertaining to this issue. The Fee Examiner will be monitoring future invoices from Jones Day with respect to this issue.

As to the categorization issue raised by the Fee Examiner, Jones Day noted generally that the subject matter of a given entry could belong in several categories. Jones Day attempts to “evaluate the category that the work most prominently relates to” on a “fair, rational and good faith basis, and . . . in a consistent manner.” Jones Day also provided detail about why certain entries were billed in the COP/Swap Matters and Plan of Adjustment categories rather than the Postpetition/Exit Financing category.

With respect to each of the Fee Examiner’s requests and comments, Jones Day has either reduced or written off such time entry or provided an adequate explanation with respect to the Fee Examiner’s comments on such time entry or expense. There are no open issues with respect to the June Invoice.

10. Foley & Lardner LLP (“Foley”) (Exhibit C)

Initial Voluntary Fee Reduction ⁴	None

In the Preliminary Report regarding the Foley June Invoice, the Fee Examiner identified several issues and suggested certain revisions related to, among other things, the sufficiency of various service descriptions. In response to the Fee Examiner’s Preliminary Report, Foley made the suggested revisions to the June Invoice which clarified the nature of the services rendered. As a result, there are no open issues with respect to the June Invoice.

11. Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC (“KCC”) (Exhibit D)

Additional Voluntary Expense Reduction	$0.00
Final Expense Request	$938,541.39
Total Fee and Expense Request	$1,099,245.27

In the Preliminary Report regarding KCC’s June Invoice, the Fee Examiner identified time entries for certain services that, in the Fee Examiner’s judgment, could be performed by professionals with a lower-hourly rate. Additionally, the Fee Examiner requested clarification regarding certain expenses. In response to the Fee Examiner’s Preliminary Report, KCC provided adequate clarification on the identified expenses which are redeemable from the estate. Additionally, KCC agreed to apply appropriate capped rates to the particular services identified by the Fee Examiner. Accordingly, there are no open issues with respect to the June Invoice.

⁴ Foley has agreed to charge a blended professional hourly rate of $360/hour for services charged to the City.

12. Miller Buckfire & Co. LLC (“Miller Buckfire”) (Exhibit E)

Initial Voluntary Fee Reduction ⁶	None
Original Monthly Invoice Fee Request	$300,000.00
Additional Voluntary Fee Reduction	$0.00
Final Invoice and Special Invoice Fee Request	$300,000.00
Original Expense Request	$10,926.16
Additional Voluntary Expense Reduction	$0.00
Final Expense Request	$10,926.16
Total Fee and Expense Request	$310,926.16

Miller Buckfire submitted its June Invoice on September 5, 2014. In the Preliminary Report regarding the June Invoice, which was sent to Miller Buckfire October 3, 2014, the Fee Examiner noted the reduced monthly fee of Miller Buckfire beginning as of January 2014 and that all prior comments by the Fee Examiner on specificity concerning expenses had been addressed. The Fee Examiner did request additional information concerning what appeared to be excessive charges for use of a car service rather than a commercial cab service. Miller Buckfire provided the Fee Examiner with a thorough explanation by email on October 27, 2014. The response received addresses all concerns raised by the Fee Examiner and there are no unresolved issues.

⁶ Pursuant to the service contract entered into between Miller Buckfire and the City, Miller Buckfire was paid a monthly advisory fee of $500,000 per month through December 2013, which monthly fee was reduced to $300,000 per month beginning in January 2014, plus Miller Buckfire has been reimbursed for its out of pocket expenses. In addition to the monthly advisory fee, Miller Buckfire is entitled to seek certain transactional and restructuring fees identified in the service contract.

13. Miller, Canfield, Paddock & Stone, P.L.C. (“Miller Canfield”) (Exhibit F)

Initial Voluntary Fee Reduction ⁷	None
Original Fee Request	$242,335.50
Subsequent Voluntary Fee Reduction	$1,883.50
Final Fee Request	$240,452.00
Original Expense Request	$2,057.48
Additional Voluntary Expense Reduction	$0.00
Final Expense Request	$2,057.48
Total Fee and Expense Request	$242,509.48

In the Preliminary Report regarding Miller Canfield’s June Invoice, the Fee Examiner identified several issues, including, but not limited to: (i) the inadequacy of several descriptions of services rendered in individual time entries, (ii) the necessity of having two senior professionals present at the same hearing, and (iii) the excessive billing rate of $395/hr for work performed by individuals identified as “paralegals.” Pursuant to its modified retention agreement with the City, effective retroactively to October 1, 2013, Miller Canfield charges the City the lesser of (a) standard hourly rates for all of lawyers; and (b) a blended hourly rate of $395 per hour for all non-bankruptcy lawyers and standard hourly rates for all bankruptcy lawyers. The Invoice reflects the blended hourly rate of $395 per hour for all non-bankruptcy lawyers and standard hourly rates for all bankruptcy lawyers.

With regard to the Fee Examiner’s comments concerning the insufficiency of certain service descriptions, Miller Canfield revised its June Invoice to provide additional detail of the services rendered. Miller Canfield also provided explanations to the Fee Examiner regarding the necessity of having two senior professionals attend the same hearing. With respect to the high billing rate of those individuals identified as “paralegals,” Miller Canfield explained that the billing rate was an error, and reduced the hourly rate for those individuals in its revised June Invoice. Miller Canfield’s revised June Invoice addresses all of the issues raised by the Fee Examiner in the Preliminary Report, and accordingly there are no open issues with respect to the June Invoice.

14. Milliman, Inc. (“Milliman”) (Exhibit G)

Initial Voluntary Fee Reduction ⁸	None
Original Fee Request	$57,768.00
Additional Voluntary Fee Reduction	$0.00

Original Expense Request	$0.00
Additional Voluntary Expense Reduction	$0.00
Final Expense Request	$0.00
Total Fee and Expense Request	$57,768.00

On October 3, 2014 the Fee Examiner sent Milliman the June Preliminary Report respecting its June Invoice received on July 24, 2014. In the Preliminary Report, the Fee Examiner requested that Milliman provide a discounted rate for its services, as the City is not receiving any discount on the work Milliman performs. Milliman continues to decline to provide a discounted rate to the City for its services. The Fee Examiner did not have any other comments regarding Milliman’s June Invoice, and did not identify any areas that warranted further explanation from Milliman. There are no open issues with respect to the June Invoice.

⁸ Milliman offers no discount on its services rendered in the Case.

15. Pepper Hamilton LLP (“Pepper”) (Exhibit H).

Initial Voluntary Fee Reduction ⁹	None
Original Fee Request	$179,098.20
Additional Voluntary Fee Reduction	$0.00

In response to the Fee Examiner’s suggestions and requests, Pepper made revisions to the June Invoice, including providing definitions and explanations of certain terms used throughout the June Invoice, as well as clarifying certain time entries. Based upon the foregoing revisions, there are no open issues with respect to the June Invoice.

⁹ Pepper has agreed to provide a 10% discount on all hourly fees charged to the City and to maintain its year 2013 professional rates for the remainder of the Case.

16. Ernst & Young (“EY”) (Exhibit I)

Agreed Fee Write-Offs (before Hold-Back)	$5,327.00
Revised Fee Request After Agreed Write-Offs	$918,164.00
10% Contractual Fee Hold-Back ¹¹	$91,816.00

In the Preliminary Report regarding the June Invoice of EY, the Fee Examiner attached a spreadsheet that identified specific issues and suggested revisions to particular time and expense entries that were vague, incomplete, improperly categorized or inconsistent with other time and expense entries. The Preliminary Report also (i) raised concerns about the billing increments used by a particular EY timekeeper, and (ii) requested an addition to EY’s running glossary of acronyms used in its invoices.

EY provided the Fee Examiner with a written response to the Preliminary Report. EY’s response included a supporting spreadsheet that mirrored the Fee Examiner’s spreadsheet, responded to each of the Fee Examiner’s comments on particular time and expense entries, and detailed specific revisions and adjustments that EY agreed to make to its June Invoice in order to ¹⁰ During the course of its postpetition engagement with the City, EY has agreed to certain discounts and limitations on its fees and expenses, including (i) to charge professional fees at 65% of its standard rates, (ii) to cap non-working travel time at the lower of actual time or 2 hours, (iii) to cap lodging expenses at $200/night for the metro Detroit area and $300/night for the metro New York City area, and (iv) to write off all meal expenses. These discounts and limitations were reflected in the Original Fee Request.

On October 3, 2014 the Fee Examiner sent Kilpatrick the June 2014 Preliminary Report respecting its June Invoice received on August 18, 2014. In the Preliminary Report, Kilpatrick was asked to explain what appeared to be duplicative time entries and, if appropriate, to remove duplicate time entries from the final invoice. Kilpatrick provided written comments in response to the Preliminary Report and explained that the duplicative time entries were not in fact duplicative, but were inadvertently attributed to the same professional by mistake. Kilpatrick submitted a revised June Invoice to the Fee Examiner that attributed the duplicative time entries to the correct professional, and that correction resulted in a slightly lower total compensation request. The revised June Invoice addresses all of the Fee Examiner’s concerns and there are no unresolved issues.

¹² Pursuant to the service contract between Kilpatrick and the City, Kilpatrick is charging discounted rates that reflect a 33-48% discount from its standard hourly rates.

Final Expense Request	$38,458.78
Total Fee and Expense Request	$1,278,738.03

The Fee Examiner reviewed the June Invoice of Dentons and raised several issues in the Preliminary Report, including, but not limited to: (i) Dentons’ continued practice of billing for services rendered in connection with monitoring press reports, preparing summaries of media coverage, and preparing and responding to press reports (“Media Activities”) (in excess of $14,000); and (ii) issues with respect to individual time entries and expenses (including, e.g., insufficient detail about the tasks performed, potential internal inconsistencies, and incorrect categorization, and unreasonable or non-compensable expenses).

With respect to the Media Activities, Dentons agreed to reduce its fee for such services by 40%, for a total discount of $6,552.00. The Fee Examiner believes that the discount is an appropriate and reasonable resolution to the issue and has no further comments with respect to the Media Activities for the June Invoice.

Finally, with respect to individual time entries and expenses, Dentons has either reduced or written off such time entry, revised the description, or provided an adequate explanation with respect to the Fee Examiner’s comments on such time entry or expense. There are no outstanding issues with respect to June Invoice.

21. Brooks Wilkins Sharkey & Turco, PLLC (“Brooks Wilkins”) (Exhibit N)

Initial Voluntary Fee Reduction ¹⁶	None
Original Fee Request	$61,514.00
Additional Voluntary Fee Reduction	$1,450.00
Final Fee Request	$60,064.00
Original Expense Request	$406.67
Additional Voluntary Expense Reduction	$0.00
Final Expense Request	$406.67
Total Fee and Expense Request	$60,470.67

The Fee Examiner reviewed the June Invoice for Brooks Wilkins and identified several issues and made certain requests of Brooks Wilkins in the Preliminary Report with respect to certain individual time entries (e.g., insufficient description, potentially duplicative services, and lumping). In response, Brooks Wilkins either revised the description, wrote-off the time entry, or provided an adequate explanation with respect to the Fee Examiner’s comments on such time entry. As a result of the response from Brooks Wilkins, there are no open issues with respect to the June Invoice.

¹⁶ Brooks Wilkins has agreed to reduce its standard hourly rates by 10%.

22. Lazard Freres & Co. LLC (“Lazard”) (Exhibit O)

Initial Voluntary Fee Reduction ¹⁷	None
Original Fee Request	$175,000.00
Additional Voluntary Fee Reduction	$0.00

Original Expense Request	$9,886.90
Additional Voluntary Expense Reduction	$0.00
Final Expense Request	$9,886.90
Total Fee and Expense Request	$184,886.90

The Fee Examiner reviewed the Lazard June Invoice and noted that Lazard had billed only 89.5 hours. Although the Fee Examiner recognizes that Lazard bills on a fixed monthly fee basis of $175,000, the effective hourly rate for the services rendered in June is approximately $1,955. In the Preliminary Report, the Fee Examiner suggested that Lazard issue a significant credit for June. As of the date of this Monthly Report, Lazard and the Fee Examiner are continuing to discuss this issue, and therefore it remains unresolved.

23. Segal Consulting (“Segal”) (Exhibit P)

Initial Voluntary Fee Reduction ¹⁸	None
Original Fee Request	$194,094.00
Additional Voluntary Fee Reduction	$0.00
Final Fee Request	$194,094.00
Original Expense Request	$5,504.40
Additional Voluntary Expense Reduction	$0.00
Final Expense Request	$5,504.40
Total Fee and Expense Request	$199,598.40

On October 3, 2014 the Fee Examiner sent Segal the June Preliminary Report. The Fee Examiner did not have any comments regarding Segal’s June Invoice, and did not identify any areas that warranted further explanation from Segal. There are no unresolved issues.

¹⁷ Lazard has agreed to charge a flat monthly fee of $175,000, plus a transaction fee upon the earlier of the settlement of the material claims of the Retiree Committee and the conformation of a plan of adjustment. The transaction fee is subject to the approval of the Retiree Committee and the Fee Examiner and the consent of the City.
