ARTICLE 16 – MISCELLANEOUS

Sec. 16.1. Nonduplication of Benefits

If any Member is a participant in another defined benefit pension plan, retirement system or annuity plan sponsored by the City (including Component II of this Retirement System) and the Member is or becomes entitled to accrue pension benefits under such plan or retirement system (including Component II of this Retirement System) with respect to any period of service for which he is entitled to accrue a benefit under Component I of this Retirement System, such Member shall not be eligible to accrue or receive payment of a benefit under Component I with respect to such period of service.

Sec. 16.2. Assignments Prohibited

The right of a person to a pension, annuity, the return of Accumulated Voluntary Employee Contributions and/or the return of Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contributions, the Retirement Allowance itself, to any optional form of payment, to any other right accrued or accruing to any person under the provisions of this Retirement System, and the monies in the various funds of the Retirement System shall not be assignable and shall not be subject to execution, garnishment, attachment, the operation of bankruptcy or insolvency law, or any other process of law whatsoever, except as specifically provided in this Combined Plan Document or by an eligible domestic relations order of a lawful court.

Sec. 16.3. Protection Against Fraud

A person who, with intent to deceive, makes any statements or reports required under this Retirement System that are untrue, or who falsifies or permits to be falsified any record or records of this Retirement System, or who otherwise violates, with intent to deceive, any terms or provisions of the Retirement System, shall be subject to prosecution under applicable law.

Sec. 16.4. Amendment; Termination; Exclusive Benefit

The City reserves the right to amend the Combined Plan Document created hereunder at any time; such amendments may include termination of the Retirement System; provided, however, that following the effective date of the Plan of Adjustment, no amendment other than amendments required to comply with applicable federal law or the Plan of Adjustment may be made effective prior to July 1, 2023, nor may any amendment or termination deprive any Member, former Member or Beneficiary of any then vested benefit under the Retirement System, except as provided in a Plan of Adjustment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the City and the Board have the authority to amend the Combined Plan Document as necessary to retain the tax qualified status of the Retirement System under the Internal Revenue Code. The City shall make no amendment or amendments to the Retirement System which causes any part of the assets of the Retirement System to be used for, or diverted to, any purpose other than the exclusive benefit of Members, former Members or their Beneficiaries; provided, that the City may make any amendment necessary, with or without retroactive effect, to comply with applicable federal law. Any amendment of the Retirement System by the City must be approved by the Council or person standing in the stead of the Council.

Upon termination of the Retirement System or upon complete discontinuance of contributions to the Retirement System, the rights of all Members to benefits accrued to the date of such termination or discontinuance, to the extent then funded, shall be nonforfeitable.

Sec. 16.5. Forfeitures Not to Increase Benefits

Any forfeitures arising under the Retirement System due to a Member's termination of employment or death, or for any other reason, shall be used to pay expenses of the Retirement System and shall not be applied to increase the benefits any Member would otherwise receive under the Retirement System at any time prior to termination of the Retirement System.

Sec. 16.6. Required Distributions - Compliance with Code Section 401(a)(9) and Regulations

The Retirement System will apply the minimum distribution requirements of Code Section 401(a)(9) in accordance with the final regulations issued thereunder, notwithstanding any provision in the Combined Plan Document to the contrary. Pursuant to Code Section 401(a)(9)(A)(ii), a Member's interest must begin to be distributed by the later of (i) the April 1 of the calendar year following the calendar year that he attains the Age of seventy and one-half (70-1/2), or (ii) April 1 of the calendar year following the year in which he retires. Distributions will be made in accordance with Regulations Sections 1.401(a)(9)-2 through 1.401(a)(9)-9. The provisions of this Section 16.6 and the regulations cited herein and incorporated by reference override any inconsistent plan distribution options.

Sec. 16.7. Direct Rollovers

- (1) For purposes of compliance with Code Section 401(a)(31), a distributee may elect, at the time and in the manner prescribed by the board, to have any portion of an eligible rollover distribution paid directly to an eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee in a direct rollover.
- (2) For purposes of this Section 16.7, the following terms shall have the following meanings:
  - (a) "Direct rollover" means a payment by the retirement system to an eligible retirement plan specified by a distributee.
  - (b) "Distributee" means a Member or former Member. It also includes the Member's or former Member's surviving spouse, a spouse or former spouse who is the alternate payee under an eligible domestic relations order, or a nonspouse beneficiary who is a designated beneficiary as defined by Code Section 401(a)(9)(E). However, a nonspouse beneficiary may only make a direct rollover to an individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity established for the purpose of receiving the distribution, and the account or annuity will be treated as an "inherited" individual retirement account or annuity.
  - (c) "Eligible retirement plan" means any of the following that accepts a distributee's eligible rollover distribution:
    - (i) a qualified trust described in Code Section 401(a);
    - (ii) an annuity plan described in Code Section 403(a);
    - (iii) an annuity contract described in Code Section 403(b);
    - (iv) an individual retirement account described in Code Section 408(a);
    - (v) an individual retirement annuity described in Code Section 408(b);

- (vi) a Roth IRA described in Code Section 408A; or
  - (vii) a plan eligible under Code Section 457(b) that is maintained by a state, political subdivision of a state, or any agency or instrumentality of a state or a political subdivision of a state that agrees to separately account for amounts transferred into that plan from the retirement system.
- (d) “Eligible rollover distribution” means any distribution of all or any portion of the balance to the credit of a distribute under the retirement system, except that an eligible rollover distribution does not include: any distribution that is one of a series of substantially equal periodic payments (not less frequently than annually) made for the life (or the life expectancy) of the distributee or the joint lives (or joint life expectancies) of the distributee and the distributee’s designated beneficiary, or for a specified period of ten years or more; any distribution to the extent such distribution is required under Code Section 401(a)(9); the portion of any distribution that is not includible in gross income; and any other distribution which the Internal Revenue Service does not consider eligible for rollover treatment, such as any distribution that is reasonably expected to total less than $200 during the year. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a portion of a distribution will not fail to be an “eligible rollover distribution” merely because the portion consists of after-tax contributions that are not includible in Member’s gross income upon distribution from the retirement system. However, such portion may be transferred only (i) to an individual retirement account or annuity described in Code Section 408(a) or (b) or to a qualified defined contribution plan described in Code Section 401(a) that agrees to separately account for amounts so transferred (and earnings thereon), including separately accounting for the portion of the distribution that is includible in gross income and the portion of the distribution that is not so includible; (ii) to a qualified defined benefit plan described in Code Section 401(a) or to an annuity contract described in Code Section 403(b) that agrees to separately account for amounts so transferred (and earnings thereon), including separately accounting for the portion of the distribution that is includible in gross income and the portion of the distribution that is not so includible; or (iii) to a Roth IRA described in Code Section 408A.

Sec. 16.8. Construction

Words in the singular should be read and construed as though used in the plural, and words in the plural should be read and construed as though used in the singular, where appropriate. The words “hereof”, “herein”, and “hereunder” and other similar compounds of the word “here”, shall mean and refer to Component I of this Combined Plan Document and not to any particular provision or section thereof. The table of contents, article and section headings are included for convenience of reference, and are not intended to add to, or subtract from, the terms of the Combined Plan Document or the Retirement System created hereunder.

Sec. 16.9. Severability

If any section or part of a section of this Combined Plan Document or provision relating to the Retirement System is for any reason held to be invalid or unconstitutional, such holding shall not be construed as affecting the validity of the remaining sections of the Combined Plan Document or Retirement System or of the Combined Plan Document or Retirement System in its entirety.

PRINCIPAL TERMS OF NEW GRS ACTIVE PENSION PLAN

NEW GRS ACTIVE PENSION PLAN -- MATERIAL TERMS

1. Benefit Formula: FAC (average base compensation over last 10 consecutive years of employment) x Years of Service x 1.5%. If an employee had leave of not less than 2 months without pay under the Family and Medical Leave Act in the last 2 years of employment, such employee's FAC will be determined using the highest 10 consecutive years of base compensation over the last 12 consecutive years of employment. Average base compensation means no overtime, no unused sick leave, no longevity or any other form of bonus.
2. Actual time for accrual is actual time served. For vesting and eligibility, 1,000 hours for a year of service.
3. Normal Retirement Age – age 62 with a transition period for active employees as of June 30, 2014 as follows:

Age as of July 1, 2014	Normal Retirement Age
61years	60 years
60 years	60 years
59 years	60.3 years
58 years	60.6 years
57 years	60.9 years
56 years	61.0 years
55 years	61.3 years
54 years	61.6 years
53 years	61.9 years
52 years	62 years

4. 10 Years of Service for vesting.
5. Early retirement -- Eligible at 55 & 30 years of service, with true actuarial reduction. No pension payments allowed below age 55; terminated employees must wait until 62.
6. Deferred Vested -- 10 Years payable at 62.
7. Disability -- to be provided by commercial insurance until normal retirement age. In applying the formula for an age 62 pension, a disabled employee will be credited with service for the period of long-term disability leave.
8. Annuity Savings Fund - voluntary Annuity Savings Fund contributions equal to 3%, 5% or 7% of after-tax pay. Interest will be credited at the actual net investment rate of return for GRS, but will in no event be lower than 0% or higher than 5.25%. No in-service withdrawals permitted.

9. Investment Return/Discount Rate – 6.75%
10. COLA - Variable COLA benefit payable after the hybrid plan has been in effect for 4 full plan years, provided that the funding level is above 100%. A simple 2% COLA on hybrid benefit. Retirees become eligible for a COLA only for plan years after the retiree reaches age 62 and has been retired for a minimum of 12 months.
11. Contributions - Employer contribution of 5% of the base compensation of eligible employees. A portion of such contribution is used to fund normal cost and a portion is credited to a rate stabilization fund. Employees contribute 4% of base compensation toward normal cost.
12. If the funding level is below 100% (based on 3 year look back of smoothed returns), the plan's risk-shifting levers listed below will be applied in the listed order, until the actuary can state that by virtue of the use of levers, and a 6.75% discount rate and return assumption, the funding level is projected to be 100% on a market value basis within the next 5 years.
  - (a) No COLAs will be paid;
  - (b) Amounts credited to the rate stabilization fund will be used to fund accrued benefits; and
  - (c) Employee contributions to the hybrid will increase by 1% to 5% of base compensation for up to a 5 year period.

If the funding level is below 80% (without taking into account the use of rate stabilization funds and the 1% increase in employee contributions):

- (d) The steps taken in (a), (b) and (c) above will be continued;
- (e) The most recently awarded COLA is rescinded (i.e., Members' future benefit payments will be not include that COLA);
- (f) Employee contributions to the hybrid will increase to 6% of base compensation for up to a 5 year period;
- (g) The second most recently awarded COLA is rescinded; and
- (h) The benefit accrual rate is decreased from 1.5% to 1% for up to 5 years.

ARTICLE 1 – GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec. 1.1. Police and Fire Retirement System Established; Adoption of 2014 Plan Document

Effective July 1, 1941, a Pension System for Policemen and Firemen of the City of Detroit was established for the purpose of providing retirement allowances and death benefits for Policemen and Firemen and their beneficiaries by amendment to the Charter of the City of Detroit. That Pension System was amended on numerous occasions after July 1, 1941, including an amendment renaming the Retirement System as the “Police and Fire Retirement System of the City of Detroit.” The provisions of the Police and Fire Retirement System of the City of Detroit, as in effect July 1, 2014, are set forth in this Plan Document. Component I of the Plan Document applies to benefits accrued by Members on and after July 1, 2014 and to operation of the Police and Fire Retirement System of the City of Detroit on and after July 1, 2014. Component II of the Plan Document generally applies to benefits accrued by Members prior to July 1, 2014. Except as specifically provided in Component II, benefits provided under Component II of the Plan Document are frozen effective June 30, 2014.

This Combined Plan Document shall replace the provisions of the Police and Fire Retirement System of the City of Detroit as set forth in the City of Detroit Charter, the Detroit City Code and any conflicting provisions in any collective bargaining agreements, rulings or opinions covering Members (including, without limitation, City Employment Terms). All resolutions and policies of the Retirement Board previously enacted which are inconsistent with the provisions of this Plan Document are also hereby repealed to the extent of such inconsistency.

Sec. 1.2. Retirement System Intended to be Tax-Qualified; Governmental Plan

The Retirement System is a governmental plan under Section 414(d) of the Internal Revenue Code which is intended to be a qualified plan and trust pursuant to applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code. The Board shall construe and administer the provisions of the Retirement System in a manner that gives effect to the tax-qualified status of the Retirement System.

Sec. 1.3. Board of Trustees

Effective July 1, 1941, a Board of Trustees of the Police and Fire Retirement System of the City of Detroit was created. The Board is vested with responsibility for the general administration, management and operation of the Police and Fire Retirement System of the City of Detroit and with the trust and investment powers conferred in this Combined Plan Document.

- (3) Not more than one month of Credited Service shall be granted for any period of more than one month during which the Member is absent without pay; notwithstanding the foregoing, any Member who shall be suspended from duty and subsequently reinstated to duty without further disciplinary action shall receive credit for the time of such period of suspension.
- (4) Solely for purposes of determining eligibility for a retirement benefit under Sections 5.1 and 5.4, a Member shall be credited with the sum of his Prior Service as determined by the Board and his Credited Service on and after July 1, 2014 determined under Section 4.1(2). The period of time during which a Member is on layoff from the service of the City shall be included in the Member's Credited Service solely for the purposes of determining whether the Member has attained twenty-five years of Credited Service for purposes of Section 5.1.

Sec. 4.2. Vesting Service

- (1) A Member shall be credited with a year of Vesting Service for each Plan Year commencing on or after July 1, 2014 during which the Member performs 1,000 or more Hours of Service for the City.
- (2) A Member's total Vesting Service shall be the sum of his Prior Service and his Service determined under Section 4.2(1).

Sec. 4.3. Service Credit; Military Service

A Member who enters the military service of the United States while employed with the City shall have the period of such military service credited as City Service in the same manner as if the Member had served the City without interruption, provided that (1) the Member's entry into such military service and re-employment thereafter shall be in accordance with applicable laws, ordinances, and regulations of the State of Michigan and the City, (2) he or she is re-employed by the City as a Police Officer or Firefighter upon completion of such military service, and (3) the Member contributes to the Retirement System the Mandatory Employee Contributions that would have been made by the Member but for the Member's military service. During the period of military service and until return to City employment, the Member's Mandatory Employee Contributions to the Retirement System shall be suspended.

Sec. 4.4. Service Credit; Qualified Military Service

Notwithstanding any provision of this Combined Plan Document to the contrary, contributions, benefits, and service credit with respect to qualified military service under Component I, shall be provided in accordance with Code Section 414(u). Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if a Member dies while performing qualified military service (as defined in Code Section 414(u)), to the extent required by Code Section 401(a)(37), the survivors of the Member are entitled to any additional benefits (if any, and other than benefit accruals relating to the period of qualified military service) provided under the Retirement System as if the Member had resumed and then terminated employment on account of death.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if the City decides to provide Differential Wage Payments to individuals who are performing service in the uniformed services (as defined in Chapter 43 of Title 238, United States Code) while on active duty for a period of more than thirty (30) days, such Differential Wage Payment will be treated as compensation under the Code Section 415(c)(3) limits, but not for purposes of benefit accruals under the Retirement System. For these purposes the term "Differential Wage Payment" means a payment defined in Code Section 3401(h)(2) that is made by the City to an individual who is performing service in the uniformed services while on active duty for a period of more than thirty (30) days.

ARTICLE 5 – ELIGIBILITY FOR RETIREMENT

Sec. 5.1. Eligibility for Unreduced Normal Retirement Benefit

Any Member who attains his Normal Retirement Age may retire upon written application filed with the Board setting forth the date on which the Member desires to be retired. The date of retirement shall be effective as of the first day following the later of (i) the Member's last day on the City payroll, or (ii) the date the Member executes and files an application for retirement, notwithstanding that the Member may have separated from Service during the notification period. Such a Member shall be entitled to receive an unreduced Retirement Allowance calculated as provided in Section 6.1 and payable in a form of payment selected by the Member pursuant to Section 8.1.

Sec. 5.2. Eligibility for Deferred Vested Retirement Benefit

Any Member who terminates employment with the City prior to satisfying the requirements for receipt of a retirement benefit under Section 5.1 and who is credited with ten (10) or more years of Vesting Service (regardless of age) shall be entitled to receive an unreduced Retirement Allowance commencing at any time following his attainment of Age sixty-two. At a Member's election, the Member may begin receiving an immediate Retirement Allowance following his attainment of Age fifty-five, actuarially reduced for early commencement, in lieu of an unreduced Retirement Allowance beginning at age sixty-two. Deferred vested retirement benefits shall be payable in accordance with a form of payment selected by the Member pursuant to Section 8.1.

Sec. 5.3. Eligibility for Disability Retirement Benefit – Duty Disability

(1) If the Board shall find that a Member has become Totally Disabled resulting from performance of duty, upon written application to the Board by or on behalf of such Member or by the head of his department, such Member shall be retired, notwithstanding that during such period of notification he may have separated from Service with the City. In making such determination, the Board may require that such Member undergo a medical examination to be made by a qualified physician or surgeon in the appropriate specialty at Detroit Receiving Hospital or other medical facility as may be selected by the Board. A Member who retires as a result of duty disability shall receive for a period of twenty-four months the sum of:

- (a) a basic benefit equal to fifty percent (50%) of his Final Compensation at the time his duty disability retirement begins, and
- (b) a supplemental benefit equal to sixteen and two-thirds percent (16-2/3%) of his Final Compensation at the time his duty disability retirement begins.

Subject to Section 9.5, on the first day of each Plan Year, a Member's duty disability benefit will be increased as provided in Section 6.2.

(2) After a Member receives benefits hereunder for a period of twenty-four months, the Board will determine whether the Member is disabled from any occupation. If the Member is disabled from any occupation, the Member shall continue to receive the benefit provided in paragraphs (1)(a) and (1)(b) until such time as the Member would have attained twenty-five years of Credited Service had he continued in active Service with the City. At that time, the Member shall continue to receive the benefit described in paragraph 1(a) above; however, benefits described in paragraph (1)(b) above will cease. If the Member is not disabled from any occupation, he shall continue to receive the benefit described in paragraph (1)(a) above; benefits described in paragraph 1(b) will cease.

- (3) In the event a Member receiving duty disability benefits has attained twenty-five years of Credited Service, duty disability benefits shall continue to be paid to the Member until the earlier of (i) the Member's attainment of age sixty-five, or (ii) the date the Member ceases to be Totally Disabled as determined by the Board. Upon termination of disability or attainment of age sixty-five, a member with twenty-five years of Credited Service shall be eligible to receive a Retirement Allowance as provided in Section 6.1. The amount of such Retirement Allowance shall be equal to the amount which would have been payable to the Member if the Member's conversion from duty disability retirement to a Retirement Allowance had occurred on the date the Member attained twenty-five years of Service Credit.
- (4) If a Member on duty disability retirement returns to active Service with the City and shall re-qualify for duty disability retirement for the same or related reasons within twenty-four months of his return to active Service, then the disability shall be deemed a continuation of the prior Total Disability and the period of the Member's active Service following the return to work will not qualify the Member to be entitled to a new initial determination of disability for purposes of determining the benefit payable to the Member. Instead, such Member will return to duty disability retirement benefits based on the number of months of disability with which the Member was credited at the time of his return to active Service, as if there had not been a break in his period of duty disability retirement.
- (5) During the period a Member is eligible to receive duty disability benefits under this Section 5.3, the Member shall continue to be credited with Credited Service until the Member accrues twenty-five years of Credited Service, at which time accrual of Credited Service shall cease.
- (6) In the event that a recipient of a duty disability retirement benefit receives earned income from gainful employment during a calendar year, the amount of the Member's disability benefit payable during the next subsequent Plan Year will be adjusted so it does not exceed the difference between (i) the Member's base salary at the date of duty disability, increased by the variable pension improvement factor (escalator) (if any) applicable to such benefit pursuant to Section 6.2 times the number of full Plan Years from the date of the Member's duty disability to the year in which the earnings offset is applied, and (ii) the amount of the Member's remuneration from gainful employment during the prior calendar year. The amount of income received by a Member shall be determined by the Board based upon information received from the Member or based upon information secured from other reliable sources. Furnishing such information to the Board shall be a condition for the Member's continued eligibility for duty disability benefits.
- (7) The Board shall not act upon or grant the application for duty disability benefits filed by a Member who, although not capable of performing the full duties of his prior position, has not suffered any diminishment of his base wages or benefits because he is either (i) regularly assigned to a position, the full duties of which he is capable of performing; or (ii) assigned to a restricted duty position, unless the Member's Department advises the Board that it intends to seek a duty disability retirement for the Member in the foreseeable future. The provisions of this paragraph shall not affect a Member's right to seek a duty disability retirement benefit when no restricted duty position is available or restrict the authority of the Police Department or Fire Department (as applicable) to apply for a duty disability retirement benefit for such Member.

Sec. 5.4. Eligibility for Disability Retirement Benefit – Non-Duty Disability

- (1) Upon the application of a Member or the Member's department head, a Member who becomes totally and permanently disabled in the employ of the City not resulting from the performance of duty shall be retired by the Board; provided that a qualified physician or surgeon in the appropriate specialty at Detroit Receiving Hospital or other medical facility as may be selected by the Board, shall certify to the Board after a medical examination, that such Member is mentally or physically totally and permanently disabled for the further performance of duty to the City. Such a Member shall receive the following applicable benefits:
  - (a) If such Member has less than five years of Credited Service at the time of his disability retirement, his Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contributions standing to his credit in the Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contributions Fund shall be returned to him, or at his option he shall receive a cash refund annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contributions.
  - (b) If such Member has five or more years of Credited Service at the time of his disability retirement, he shall receive a disability Retirement Allowance computed in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.1 payable in any of the optional forms provided in Section 8.1 hereof. His annual straight life retirement allowance shall not be less than twenty per cent (20%) of his Average Final Compensation.
- (2) The Board shall not act upon or grant the application for non-duty disability benefits filed by a Member who, although not capable of performing his full duties, has not suffered any diminishment of his base wages or benefits because he is either (i) regularly assigned to a position, the full duties of which he is capable of performing; or (ii) assigned to a restricted duty position, unless the Member's employer advises the Board that it intends to seek a non-duty disability retirement for the Member in the foreseeable future. The provisions of this paragraph shall not affect a Member's right to seek a non-duty disability retirement benefit when no restricted duty position is available or restrict the authority of the Police Department or Fire Department (as applicable) to apply for a non-duty disability retirement benefit for such Member.
- (3) If a Retiree receiving non-duty disability retirement benefits is or becomes engaged in a gainful occupation, business, or employment paying more than the difference between the disabled Retiree's Retirement Allowance and Average Final Compensation, the Retiree's Retirement Allowance shall be reduced by the amount of such difference. If the amount of the Retiree's earnings changes, the Retirement Allowance may be adjusted accordingly.

Sec. 5.5. Disability Retirees; Reexamination

- (1) At least once each year during the first five years following the retirement of a Member under Section 5.3 or Section 5.4, and at least once in every three year period thereafter, the Board may require that such disability Retiree who has not attained his Normal Retirement Age undergo a medical examination, to be made by, or under the direction of, a qualified physician or surgeon in the appropriate specialty at Detroit Receiving Hospital or other medical facility as may be selected by the Board. Should any such Retiree who has not attained Normal Retirement Age fail to submit to at least one such medical examination in any such period, the Retiree's Retirement Allowance may be suspended by the Board until the examination is completed. Should such failure continue for one year, all of the Retiree's rights in and to the Retirement Allowance may be revoked by the Board. If upon such examination of a Retiree, the examiner reports that the Retiree is no longer Totally Disabled, and such report is concurred in by the Board, the Retiree shall be restored to active service with the City and the Retirement Allowance paid pursuant to Section 5.3 or Section 5.4 shall be suspended until the Retiree terminates active service with the City.

- (2) A disabled Retiree who has been, or shall be, reinstated to active service in the employ of the City shall again become a Member. All Credited Service at the time of the disability retirement shall be restored to the Member.

Sec. 5.6. Return of Accumulated Mandatory Contributions to Non-Vested Member

If a Member ceases to be an Employee before becoming eligible for a deferred vested Retirement Allowance under Section 5.2 or a disability Retirement Allowance pursuant to Section 5.4 or 5.5, the Member may elect to receive distribution of the Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contributions made to the Retirement System by such Member. If a Member elects to receive his Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contributions, such amounts shall be paid to the Member in a lump sum payment or in equal monthly installments for a period not to exceed three years, according to such rules and regulations as the Board may adopt from time to time.

Sec. 5.7. Benefits Offset by Compensation Benefits; Subrogation

- (1) Any amounts which may be paid or payable to a Member, Retiree, or Beneficiary on account of disability or death under the provisions of any Workers' Compensation, pension, or similar law, except federal Social Security old-age and survivors' and disability insurance benefits, shall be an offset against any amounts payable from funds of the Retirement System on account of the same disability or death. If the present value of the benefits payable under said Workers' Compensation, pension, or similar law, is less than the Pension Reserve for the Retirement Allowance payable by the Retirement System, the present value of the said Workers' Compensation, pension, or similar legal benefit shall be deducted from the amounts payable by the Retirement System, and such amounts as may be provided by the Retirement System, so reduced, shall be payable as provided in this Combined Plan Document.
- (2) In the event a person becomes entitled to a pension payable by the Retirement System because of an accident or injury caused by the act of a third party, the Retirement System shall be subrogated to the rights of said person against such third party to the extent of the benefit which the Retirement System pays or becomes liable to pay.

ARTICLE 6 – RETIREMENT ALLOWANCE; VARIABLE PENSION IMPROVEMENT FACTOR (ESCALATOR)

Sec. 6.1. Retirement Allowance

The Retirement Allowance payable to a Member commencing at the later of his Normal Retirement Age or his actual retirement from employment with the City in the form of a Straight Life Retirement Allowance shall be equal to two percent (2%) of the Member's Average Final Compensation multiplied by the Member's years (computed to the nearest one-twelfth (1/12th) year) of Credited Service earned on and after July 1, 2014.

Sec. 6.2. Variable Pension Improvement Factor (Escalator)

Except as provided in Section 9.5, beginning July 1, 2015 and effective the first day of each Plan Year thereafter, the Board may determine that the annual Retirement Allowance of a member of the Detroit Police Command Officers Association or the Detroit Police Lieutenants and Sergeants Association shall be increased by a factor of one percent (1.0%), computed each year on the basis of the amount of the original Retirement Allowance received at the time of Retirement; provided, that the recipient of said Retirement Allowance shall have been receiving a Retirement Allowance for a period of not less than twelve months prior to the first day of such Plan Year.

ARTICLE 7 – DEATH BENEFITS

Sec. 7.1. Accidental Death Benefit; Performance of Duty

- (1) If a Member is killed in the performance of duty in the service of the City, or dies as the result of illness contracted or injuries received while in the performance of duty in the service of the City, and such death, illness, or injury resulting in death, is found by the Board to have resulted from the actual performance of duty in the service of the City, the following benefits shall be paid:
- (a) His Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contributions standing to his credit in the Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contributions Fund at the time of his death shall be paid to such person or persons as he shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the Board. If no such designated person survives the Member, his said Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contributions shall be paid to his legal representative, subject to paragraph (e) of this Section 7.1(1).
  - (b) His surviving Spouse shall receive a pension of five-elevenths of the Member's Final Compensation payable for the Spouse's lifetime. If the Member's child or children under age eighteen years also survive the deceased Member, each such child shall receive a pension of one-tenth of such Final Compensation; provided, that if there are more than two such surviving children under age eighteen years, each such child's pension shall be an equal share of seven thirty-thirds of such Final Compensation. Upon the death, marriage, adoption, or attainment of age eighteen years of any such child, his pension shall terminate and there shall be a redistribution of the benefit by the Board to the deceased Member's remaining eligible children, if any; provided, that in no case shall any such child's pension exceed one-tenth of the Member's Final Compensation. In no case shall the total of the pensions provided for in this paragraph (b), payable on account of the death of a Member exceed two-thirds of the Member's Final Compensation.
  - (c) If no surviving Spouse survives the deceased Member or if the Member's surviving Spouse dies before his youngest unmarried surviving child attains age eighteen years, his unmarried child or children under age eighteen years shall each receive a pension of one-fourth of the Member's Final Compensation; provided that if there are more than two such surviving children under age eighteen years, each such child's pension shall be an equal share of one-half of such Final Compensation. Upon the death, marriage, adoption, or attainment of age eighteen years of any such child, his pension shall terminate and there shall be a redistribution by the Board to the deceased Member's remaining eligible children, if any; provided, that in no case shall any such child's pension exceed one-fourth of the Member's Final Compensation.
  - (d) If the Member has no surviving Spouse or surviving children under age eighteen years and if the Member leaves surviving him either or both a father and mother, whom the Board shall find to be actually dependent upon such Member for financial support, such dependent father and mother shall each receive a pension of one-sixth of the Member's Final Compensation.
  - (e) If a Member dies intestate, without having designated a person or persons, as provided in paragraph (a) of this Section 7.1(1), and without heirs, the amount of his Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contributions in the Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contribution Fund, not to exceed a reasonable sum, to be determined by the Board, shall be used to pay his burial expenses, provided he leaves no other estate sufficient for such purpose. Any balance credited to such Member in the Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contribution Fund, and not used for burial expenses shall remain a part of the funds of the Retirement System and shall be transferred to the Pension Accumulation Fund.

Sec. 7.2. Non-Duty Death Benefits

The surviving Spouse of any Member who dies while in the employ of the City (other than in the performance of duty) after the date such Member has earned ten or more years of Credited Service, shall receive a Retirement Allowance computed in the same manner in all respects as if said Member had (i) retired effective the day preceding the Member's death, notwithstanding that the Member had not attained Normal Retirement Age, (ii) elected a Joint and One Hundred Percent Survivor Allowance as described in Section 8.1, and (iii) nominated the surviving Spouse as Beneficiary.

Sec. 7.3. Refund of Accumulated Mandatory Contributions Upon Death of Member

If a Member dies while employed by the City or following termination of employment but prior to commencement of a Retirement Allowance, the Member's Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contributions to the Retirement System at the time of death shall be paid to the Beneficiary nominated in a written designation duly executed by the Member and filed with the Board. In the event there is no such designated Beneficiary surviving, the Member's Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contributions shall be paid to the Member's estate. If a Member who dies without a legal will has not nominated a Beneficiary, the Member's Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contributions at the time of death may be used to pay burial expenses if the Member leaves no other estate sufficient for such purpose. Such expenses shall not exceed a reasonable amount as determined by the Board.

ARTICLE 8 – FORMS OF PAYMENT

Sec. 8.1. Retirement Allowance Options

- (1) Until the date the first Retirement Allowance payment check is issued, any Member may elect to receive a Straight Life Retirement Allowance payable throughout life, or the Member may elect to receive the Actuarial Equivalent of the Straight Life Retirement Allowance computed as of the effective date of retirement, in a reduced Retirement Allowance payable throughout life, and nominate a Beneficiary, in accordance with the options set forth below:
  - (a) Option One. Cash Refund Annuity. A Retiree will receive a reduced Retirement Allowance for as long as he lives, provided that if he dies before payment of the Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contributions made to the Retirement System on and after July 1, 2014 has been received in an aggregate amount equal to, but not exceeding the Retiree's Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contributions at the time of retirement, the difference between said Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contributions and the aggregate amount of annuity payments already received, shall be paid in a single lump sum to a Beneficiary nominated by written designation duly executed by the Member and filed with the Board. If there are no such designated Beneficiaries surviving said Retiree, any such difference shall be paid to the Retiree's estate.
  - (b) Option Two. Joint and One Hundred Percent Survivor Allowance. Upon the death of a Retiree who elected a Joint and One Hundred Percent Survivor Allowance, one hundred percent of the Member's reduced Retirement Allowance shall be paid to and continued throughout the life of the Beneficiary nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the Board prior to the date the first payment of the Retirement Allowance becomes due.
  - (c) Option "A". Joint and Seventy-Five Percent Survivor Allowance. Upon the death of a Retiree who elected a Joint and Seventy-Five Percent Survivor Allowance, seventy-five percent of the Member's reduced Retirement Allowance shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to the Beneficiary nominated by written designation duly executed by the Member and filed with the Board prior to the date the first payment of the Retirement Allowance becomes due.
  - (d) Option Three. Joint and Fifty Percent Survivor Allowance. Upon the death of a Retiree who elected a Joint and Fifty Percent Survivor Allowance, fifty percent of the Member's reduced Retirement Allowance shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to the Beneficiary nominated by written designation duly executed by the Member and filed with the Board prior to the date the first payment of the Retirement Allowance becomes due.
- (2) Joint and Survivor Optional Forms of Payment. The Joint and Survivor Optional Forms of Payment provided under the Retirement System shall be made available in either the standard form or the pop-up form, as follows:
  - (a) Standard Form. Under the Standard Form, the reduced Retirement Allowance shall be paid throughout the lifetime of the Retiree.
  - (b) Pop-up Form. Under the Pop-up Form, the reduced Retirement Allowance shall be paid throughout the lifetime of the Retiree and the designated Beneficiary. In the event of the death of the designated Beneficiary during the lifetime of the Retiree, the amount of the Retirement Allowance payable to the Retiree shall be changed to the amount that would have been payable had the Retiree elected the Straight Life Retirement Allowance Form of Payment.

Sec. 8.2. Disposition of Surplus Benefits upon Death of Retiree and Beneficiary

If under a Joint and One Hundred Percent Survivor allowance, a Joint and Seventy-Five Percent Survivor allowance, or a Joint and Fifty Percent Survivor allowance as provided for under Section 8.1, both a Retiree and Beneficiary die before they have received in Retirement Allowance payments an aggregate amount equal to the Retiree's Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contributions (and if the Retiree makes an election pursuant to Section 10.4(2), his Accumulated Voluntary Employee Contributions) at the time of retirement, the difference between the said Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contributions (and Accumulated Voluntary Employee Contributions, if applicable) and the aggregate amount of Retirement Allowances paid to the Retiree and Beneficiary, shall be paid in a single lump sum to such person or persons nominated by written designation of the Retiree duly executed and filed with the Board. If there are no such person or persons surviving the Retiree and the Beneficiary, any such difference shall be paid to the estate of the last survivor of the Retiree or the Beneficiary.

ARTICLE 9 – FUNDING AND RESERVES

Sec. 9.1. Funding Objective of the Retirement System

The funding objective of Component I of the Retirement System is to establish and receive City and Member contributions during each Plan Year that are sufficient to fully cover the actuarial cost of benefits anticipated to be paid on account of Credited Service rendered by Members during the Plan Year (the normal cost requirements of the Retirement System), and amortize the unfunded actuarial costs of benefits likely to be paid on account of Credited Service rendered on or after July 1, 2014 and before the first day of the Plan Year (the unfunded actuarial accrued liability of the Retirement System).

Sec. 9.2. Funds

Component I of the Retirement System shall consist of the Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contribution Fund, the Accumulated Voluntary Contribution Fund, the Deferred Retirement Option Program Fund, the Pension Accumulation Fund, the Rate Stabilization Fund, the Expense Fund and the Income Fund, as follows:

- (1) The Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contribution Fund shall be the Fund in which shall be accumulated the contributions of Members to provide their Retirement Allowances. Upon the Retirement, termination, disability or death of a Member with a Retirement Allowance, the Member's Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contributions shall be deemed to be part of the Pension Reserve which shall be used to pay the Member's Retirement Allowance.
- (2) The Accumulated Voluntary Employee Contribution Fund shall be the Fund in which shall be accumulated the voluntary after-tax contributions of Members, together with earnings thereon.
- (3) The Deferred Retirement Option Plan Fund shall be the fund in which shall be accumulated the amounts credited to the DROP Accounts of Members who have elected to participate in the DROP Program pursuant to Article 11, together with earnings thereon.
- (4) The Pension Accumulation Fund shall be the fund in which shall be accumulated reserves for the Retirement Allowances and other benefits payable from that portion of the City's annual contribution that is not credited to the Rate Stabilization Fund and from which shall be paid Retirement Allowances and other benefits on account of Members.
- (5) The Rate Stabilization Fund shall be the Fund to which shall be credited City contributions in excess of the amount of the City's contribution which is credited to the Pension Accumulation Fund.
- (6) The Expense Fund shall be the fund to which shall be credited any money provided by the City to pay the administrative expenses of the Retirement System, and from which shall be paid certain expenses incurred in connection with the administration and operation of the Retirement System.
- (7) The Income Fund shall be the Fund to which shall be credited all interest, dividends, and other income derived from the investments of the assets of Component I of the Retirement System, all gifts and bequests received by Component I of the Retirement System, and all other moneys credited to Component I of the Retirement System, the disposition of which is not specifically provided for in this Article 9. There shall be paid or transferred from the Income Fund, all amounts required to credit earnings and losses to the various Funds of the Retirement System in accordance with the provisions of Component I of this Combined Plan Document.

Sec. 9.3. Method of Financing Retirement System Benefits

- (1) The pension liabilities for Members shall be determined by the Plan's Actuary using the entry-age normal cost method of actuarial valuation.
- (2) The City's annual contribution to finance the prospective pension liabilities for the nine Plan Year period commencing July 1, 2014 and ending June 30, 2023 shall be (a) eleven and two-tenths percent (11.2%) of the payroll of active employees who are members of the Detroit Fire Fighters Association and the Detroit Police Officers Association, and (b) twelve and one-quarter percent (12.25%) of the payroll of active employees who are members of the Detroit Police Command Officers Association and the Detroit Police Lieutenants and Sergeants Association, for the applicable Plan Year. A portion of the City's annual contribution for each Plan Year shall be credited to the Rate Stabilization Fund. The remainder of the City's annual contribution shall be allocated to the Pension Accumulation Fund.
- (3) Except as provided in Section 9.5, for each Plan Year, a Member who was an active employee as of June 30, 2014 ("current active") shall contribute to the Retirement System an amount equal to six percent (6%) of his or her Compensation for such Plan Year and a Member who is hired or rehired by the City on or after July 1, 2014 ("new employee") shall contribute to the Retirement System an amount equal to eight percent (8%) of his or her Compensation for such Plan Year. A Member's Mandatory Employee Contributions for the Plan Year beginning July 1, 2014 and ending June 30, 2015 shall commence as of July 14, 2014. The officer or officers responsible for processing the payroll shall cause a Member's Mandatory Employee Contributions to be deducted from the Member's Compensation on each and every payroll, for each and every payroll period, from the date of his participation in the Retirement System to the date he ceases to be a Member. The contribution shall be deducted from the Members' Compensation, notwithstanding that the minimum compensation provided by law for any Member shall be reduced thereby. Payment of compensation, less said Mandatory Employee Contributions, shall be a complete discharge of all claims and demands whatsoever for the services rendered by the said Member during the period covered by such payment. Member Mandatory Employee Contributions will be used for the purpose of funding the normal cost of the Retirement System.

Sec. 9.4. Member Contributions Picked-Up

- (1) The City shall pick up Member Mandatory Employee Contributions required pursuant to Sections 9.3(3) and 9.5 in accordance with Code Section 414(h).
- (2) The picked-up contributions, although designated as employee contributions shall be treated as City contributions for the purpose of determining a Member's tax treatment under the Internal Revenue Code. The City shall pay the contributions picked-up on behalf of a Member from the same source of funds that are used for paying compensation to the Member.
- (3) The City shall pick up Member Mandatory Employee Contributions by a reduction in the Member's cash salary or an offset against a future salary increase, or both. The City shall designate the Mandatory Employee Contributions that are picked-up and paid to the Retirement System as employer contributions and not as employee contributions. No Member who participates in the Retirement System shall have the option of choosing to receive the contributed amounts directly instead of having those amounts paid by the City to the Retirement System.

Sec. 9.5. Fiscal Responsibility: Benefit Reductions and Increased Funding Obligations

- (1) To safeguard the long-term actuarial and financial integrity of the Retirement System, in the event the funding level of Component I of the Retirement System projected over a five year period falls below one hundred percent (100%), the Trustee may not award the variable pension improvement factor (escalator) described in Section 6.2 to any individual beginning with the Plan Year following the Plan Year in which such determination is made and continuing until the funding level is restored to not less than one hundred percent (100%).
- (2) In the event the funding level of the Retirement System projected over a five year period falls below ninety percent (90%), the following remedial action shall be required in the order set forth below, beginning with the Plan Year following the Plan Year in which such determination is made and continuing until the funding level is restored to not less than ninety percent (90%):
  - (a) the remedial action required in Section 9.5(1) shall be implemented or continued;
  - (b) all amounts credited to the Rate Stabilization Fund shall be transferred to the Pension Accumulation Fund for the purposes of funding benefits payable under the Retirement System;
  - (c) Mandatory Employee Contributions for active and new employees shall be increased by one percent (1%) for up to the next following five Plan Years;
  - (d) Mandatory Employee Contributions for active and new employees shall be increased by an additional one percent (1%) per year;
  - (e) Mandatory Employee Contributions for active and new employees shall be increased by an additional one percent (1%) per year;
  - (f) the Retirement Allowance payable to a Retiree shall not include the variable pension improvement factor (escalator) that was most recently paid to the Retiree on the date the funding level is projected to fall below ninety percent (90%);
  - (g) the Retirement Allowance payable to a Retiree shall not include the variable pension improvement factor (escalator) that was most recently added to the Member's Retirement Allowance for the Plan Year preceding the Plan Year referenced in paragraph (f) above;
  - (h) Mandatory Employee Contributions for active and new employees shall be increased by an additional one percent (1%) per year; and
  - (i) contributions made to the Retirement System by the City shall be increased, consistent with applicable actuarial principles and the Public Employee Retirement System Investment Act, as amended, MCL 38.1132 et seq.
- (3) For purposes of this Section 9.5, the "funding level" shall mean the ratio of the market value of the assets of Component I of the Retirement System to the actuarial accrued liability of Component I of the Retirement System. The actuarial accrued liability shall be calculated by the Plan's Actuary utilizing an interest rate assumption of six and three-quarters percent (6.75%) and other reasonable assumptions as directed by the Board upon the recommendation of the Investment Committee. The market value of assets shall be determined on the basis of a three-year look back period of smoothed investment returns.

ARTICLE 10 – VOLUNTARY EMPLOYEE CONTRIBUTIONS

Sec. 10.1. Voluntary Employee Contributions; Amount; Vesting

Subject to procedures established by the Board, a Member who is covered by a collective bargaining agreement with the City that permits the Member to make voluntary employee contributions to Component I of the Retirement System may elect to reduce his Compensation for any Plan Year by a whole percentage not less than one percent (1%) nor more than ten percent (10%) and have such amount contributed by the City to a Voluntary Employee Contribution Account maintained on his behalf under Component I of the Retirement System. Voluntary Employee Contributions shall be made to the Retirement System on an after-tax basis. Amounts credited to a Member's Voluntary Employee Contribution Account shall be one hundred percent (100%) vested at all times.

Sec. 10.2. Changing an Election to Contribute

A Member may change or revoke an election to make Voluntary Employee Contributions to the Retirement System pursuant to this Article 10 in such manner and with such advance notice as the Board shall determine. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Member shall be permitted to change such election not less frequently than annually.

Sec. 10.3. Individual Member Accounting; Crediting of Earnings

The Board shall maintain a Voluntary Employee Contribution Account on behalf of each Member who elects to make Voluntary Employee Contributions to the Retirement System. Each Plan Year, a Member's Voluntary Employee Contribution Account shall be credited with earnings at a rate equal to the actual net investment rate of return on the assets of the Retirement System for the second fiscal year immediately preceding the fiscal year in which the earnings are credited; in no event, however, shall the earnings rate credited to a Member's Voluntary Employee Contribution Account for any Plan Year be less than zero percent (0%) nor greater than five and one-quarter percent (5.25%).

Sec. 10.4. Distribution of Accumulated Voluntary Employee Contributions

- (1) If a Member ceases to be an Employee other than by reason of death, the Member may elect to receive distribution of the Accumulated Voluntary Employee Contributions made to the Retirement System by such Member. If a Member elects to receive his Accumulated Voluntary Employee Contributions, such amounts shall be paid to the Member in a lump sum payment or in equal monthly installments for a period not to exceed three years, according to such rules and regulations as the Board may adopt from time to time.
- (2) In lieu of receiving distribution of his Accumulated Voluntary Employee Contributions as provided in Section 10.4(1), a Member may elect to have the actuarial equivalent value of his Accumulated Voluntary Employee Contributions added to his Retirement Allowance and paid in the form of an annuity described in Section 8.1.
- (3) If a Member dies while employed by the City or following termination of employment but prior to receiving distribution of the Member's Accumulated Voluntary Employee Contributions, the amounts credited to the Member's Accumulated Voluntary Employee Contribution Account at the time of death shall be paid to the Beneficiary nominated in a written designation duly executed by the Member and filed with the Board. In the event there is no such designated Beneficiary surviving, the Member's Accumulated Voluntary Employee Contributions shall be paid to the Member's estate. If a Member who dies without a legal will has not nominated a Beneficiary, the Member's Accumulated Voluntary Employee Contributions at the time of death may be used to pay burial expenses if the Member leaves no other estate sufficient for such purpose. Such expenses shall not exceed a reasonable amount as determined by the Board.

ARTICLE 11 – LOAN PROGRAM FOR VOLUNTARY EMPLOYEE CONTRIBUTIONS

Sec. 11.1. The Loan Program

A loan program shall be available to members of the Detroit Police Lieutenants and Sergeants Association and the Detroit Police Command Officers Association who have amounts credited to a Voluntary Employee Contributions Account. The Board is authorized to adopt rules and regulations, from time to time, to govern the administration and the operation of the loan program. Copies of the rules shall be made available to eligible Members in the offices of the Retirement System. Any loans granted or renewed under the Retirement System shall be made and administered pursuant to and in compliance with Section 72(p) of the Internal Revenue Code and regulations thereunder.

Sec. 11.2. Eligibility for Loan

Subject to the rules and procedures established by the Board, loans may be made to eligible Members from such Member's Voluntary Employee Contribution Account. An eligible Member is any Member who has participated in the Retirement System for twelve (12) months or more. Former Members, Spouses and Beneficiaries are not eligible to receive any loans from the Retirement System. No Member shall have more than two (2) outstanding loans from the Retirement System (Component I and/or Component II) at any time. A Member who has previously defaulted on a loan shall not be eligible for a loan from the Retirement System.

Sec. 11.3. Amount of Loan

An eligible Member who has satisfied applicable rules and procedures established by the Board may borrow from his Voluntary Employee Contribution Account an amount, which does not exceed the lesser of (i) fifty percent (50%) of the Member's Voluntary Employee Contribution Account balance, and (ii) Fifteen Thousand Dollars ($15,000.00), in each case reduced by the excess, if any, of: (1) the Member's highest outstanding loan balance under the Retirement System during the one (1) year period ending on the day before the date on which the loan is made, or (2) the outstanding loan balance under the Retirement System on the date on which the loan is made, whichever is less. The minimum loan amount shall be One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00).

Sec. 11.4. Terms and Conditions

In addition to such rules and procedures that are established by the Board, all loans shall comply with the following terms and conditions:

- (a) Each loan application shall be made in writing.
- (b) All loans shall be memorialized by a collateral promissory note for the amount of the loan, including interest, payable to the order of the Retirement System and properly executed by the Member.
- (c) Each loan shall be repaid by substantially equal payroll deductions over a period not to exceed five (5) years, or, where the loan is for the purpose of buying a principal residence, a period not to exceed fifteen (15) years. In no case shall the amount of the payroll deduction be less than Twenty Dollars ($20.00) for any two-week pay period. A Member receiving a loan will be required to authorize payroll deductions from his compensation in an amount sufficient to repay the loan over its term.

- (d) An amount equal to the principal amount of the loan to a Member (but not more than one half of the Member's vested interest in the Retirement System) will be designated as collateral for guaranteeing the loan.
- (e) Each loan shall bear interest at a rate determined by the Board. The Board shall not discriminate among Members in its determination of interest rates on loans. However, loans initiated at different times may bear different interest rates, where, in the opinion of the Board, the difference in rates is supported by a change in market interest rates or a change in the Retirement System's current assumed rate of return. The loan interest rate shall bear a reasonable relationship to market rates for secured loans of a similar duration and shall bear a reasonable relationship to the costs to the Retirement System of administering the loan. The loan interest rate shall be calculated in a manner that will not negatively affect either the City's costs with respect to the Retirement System or the investment return allocated to Members.
- (f) Loan repayments shall be suspended during a period of military service, as permitted by Section 414(u)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code. A Member who has an outstanding loan balance from the Retirement System who is absent from employment with the City, and who has satisfied the requirements of Section 414(u) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be required to make loan repayments to the Retirement System during said periods of absence.

Sec. 11.5. Loan Balance

A Member's outstanding loan balance shall be considered a directed investment by the Member and interest payments shall be credited to the Member's Voluntary Employee Contribution Account (provided that the interest credited to the Member's Voluntary Employee Contribution Account shall be reduced appropriately to cover the administrative costs of the loan program and avoid negatively affecting the City's costs or the Retirement System's investment returns), and shall not be part of the Retirement System's net investment income or part of the Member's Voluntary Employee Contribution Account balance for the purpose of allocation of net investment income under the Retirement System.

Sec. 11.6. Default

In the event a Member defaults on a loan before the loan is repaid in full, the unpaid balance thereof will become due and payable and, to the extent that the outstanding amount is not repaid by the end of the calendar quarter which follows the calendar quarter in which the last payment was received, such amount shall be deemed to have been distributed to the Member for tax purposes, consistent with Section 72(p) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Sec. 11.7. Distribution

No distribution shall be made to a Member, former Member, Spouse or Beneficiary from the Retirement System until all outstanding loan balances and applicable accrued interest have been repaid or offset against amounts distributable to the Member from the Retirement System.

ARTICLE 12 DEFERRED RETIREMENT OPTION PLAN ("DROP") PROGRAM

Sec. 12.1. General Provisions

The following provisions are hereby established as the Deferred Retirement Option Plan ("DROP") Program, which shall be available to members of the Detroit Police Lieutenants and Sergeants Association and the Detroit Police Command Officers Association.

- (4) If amounts credited to a DROP Account are paid into an entity managed outside of the Retirement System, amounts credited to a Member's DROP Account shall be invested as directed by the Member within the investment choices provided by such entity.
- (5) Any fees associated with the maintenance of DROP Accounts outside of the Retirement System shall be paid by the Members by means of deduction from the DROP Account.

Sec. 12.2. Conversion to Retirement Allowance

Upon termination of employment, Member who is a participant in the DROP Program shall receive, at his option either a lump sum payment from the DROP Account equal to the amount credited to the DROP Account or an annuity based upon the amount credited to his DROP Account. In addition, the Member's full monthly Retirement Allowance that otherwise would have been paid upon the Member's retirement had he or she not elected to participate in the DROP Program shall commence to the Member in accordance with the form of payment selected by the Member at the commencement of his or her participation in the DROP Program. Termination of employment includes termination of any kind, such as, resignation, retirement, discharge or disability.

Sec. 12.3. Death of Member While Participating in the DROP Program

- (1) If a Member dies while participating in the DROP Program, a lump sum payment equal to the Member's DROP Account balance shall be paid to the Beneficiary named by the Member, or if no Beneficiary has been designated, to the Member's estate. In addition, the Member's Retirement Allowance, together with any applicable variable pension improvement factor (escalator) increases, will be restored to one hundred percent (100%) of the amount that would have been paid to the Member but for the Member's decision to participate in the DROP Program. Survivor benefits, if any, shall be paid in accordance with the payment Option elected by the deceased Member.

Sec. 12.4. Disability of Member While Participating in the DROP Program

- (1) If a Member becomes Totally Disabled due to a duty disability while participating in the DROP Program and while still an Employee and his employment with the City is terminated because he is Totally Disabled, he shall be immediately retired with one hundred percent (100%) of his Retirement Allowance payable in the form of payment selected by the Member at the commencement of the DROP Program, plus any applicable variable pension improvement factor (escalator) increases.

Such Member shall not be entitled to disability retirement benefits under Section 5.3 or Section 5.4 hereof.

Sec. 12.5. Cost Neutrality

- (1) The DROP Program shall be effective only for as long as it is cost-neutral to the City, provided however, that the DROP Program shall continue during the pendency of proceedings, described in paragraph (2) below, designed to restore the Retirement System to cost neutrality.
- (2) If the City contends that the DROP Program is costing it money, including, but not limited to, making the City's annual contribution to the Retirement System higher than it would be if the DROP Program was not in effect, the Retirement System's actuary as well as an actuary appointed by the City, shall meet and confer in good faith regarding the cost. If the actuaries are unable to reach an agreement as to cost, the matter shall be submitted to a third, independent, actuary, chosen or agreed upon by the Retirement System's actuary and the City's actuary who will be an associate or a fellow of the Society of Actuaries and a member of the American Academy of Actuaries. This actuary, when rendering a decision, will be limited to ordering implementation of changes necessary to make the DROP Program cost neutral. Upon the implementation of changes necessary to make the DROP Program cost neutral, Members shall have thirty days to elect to either (a) retire from active employment with the City or (b) withdraw from the DROP Program and resume active participation in the Retirement System. The Board shall notify the Member of these changes prior to implementation. Those Members resuming participation in the Retirement System shall not accumulate Credited Service for any time that they were participating in the DROP Program. ## ARTICLE 13 – LIMITATION ON BENEFITS AND CONTRIBUTIONS

Sec. 13.1. Compliance With Code Section 415(b) And Regulations

- (1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Combined Plan Document, the defined benefit component of the Retirement System shall be administered in compliance with the provisions of Code Section 415(b) and regulations thereunder that are applicable to governmental plans.
- (2) The maximum annual benefit accrued by a Member during a limitation year (which shall be the Plan Year) and the maximum annual benefit payable under the Retirement System to a Member at any time within a Plan Year, when expressed as an annual benefit in the form of a straight life annuity (with no ancillary benefits), shall be equal to $160,000 (as such amount is adjusted pursuant to Code Section 415(d) for such Plan Year).
- (3) Notwithstanding the foregoing:
  - (a) if the benefit under the Retirement System is payable in any form other than a straight life annuity, the determination as to whether the limitation described in Section 13.1(2) has been satisfied shall be made, in accordance with the regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, by adjusting such benefit to the Actuarially Equivalent straight life annuity beginning at the same time, in accordance with Section 13.1(8) or (9);
  - (b) if the benefit under the Retirement System commences before Age sixty-two, the determination of whether the limitation set forth in Section 13.1(2) (the “Dollar Limit”) has been satisfied shall be made, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, by reducing the Dollar Limit so that the Dollar Limit (as so reduced) is equal to an annual benefit payable in the form of a straight life annuity, commencing when such benefit under the Retirement System commences, which is Actuarially Equivalent to a benefit in the amount of the Dollar Limit commencing at Age sixty-two; provided, however, if the Retirement System has an immediately commencing straight life annuity commencing both at Age sixty-two and the age of benefit commencement, then the Dollar Limit (as so reduced) shall equal the lesser of (i) the amount determined under this Section 13.1(3)(b) without regard to this proviso, or (ii) the Dollar Limit multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the annual amount of the immediately commencing straight life annuity under the Retirement System and the denominator of which is the annual amount of the straight life annuity under the Retirement System, commencing at Age sixty-two; and
  - (c) if the benefit under the Retirement System commences after Age sixty-five, the determination of whether the Dollar Limit has been satisfied shall be made, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury, by increasing the Dollar Limit so that the Dollar Limit (as so increased) is equal to an annual benefit payable in the form of a straight life annuity, commencing when the benefit under the Retirement System commences, which is Actuarially Equivalent to a benefit in the amount of the Dollar Limit commencing at Age sixty-five; provided, however, if the Retirement System has an immediately commencing straight life annuity commencing both at Age sixty-five and the Age of benefit commencement, the Dollar Limit (as so increased) shall equal the lesser of (i) the amount determined under this Section 13.1(3)(c) without regard to this proviso, or (ii) the Dollar Limit multiplied by a fraction the numerator of which is the annual amount of the immediately commencing straight life annuity under the Retirement System and the denominator of which is the annual amount of the immediately commencing straight life annuity under the Retirement System, commencing at Age sixty-five.

- (4) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section 13.1, except as provided in Section 13.1(5), the maximum annual benefit specified in Section 13.1(2) above shall not apply to a particular Retirement System benefit if (a) the annual amount of such Retirement System benefit, together with the aggregate annual amount of any other pensions payable with respect to such Member under all other defined benefit plans maintained by the City, does not exceed $10,000 for the Plan Year or any prior Plan Year, and (b) the Member was not at any time a participant in a defined contribution plan maintained by the City.
- (5) In the case of a Member who has less than ten years of participation in the Retirement System, the limitation set forth in Section 13.1(2) shall be such limitation (without regard to this Section 13.1(5)), multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of years of participation in the Retirement System (or parts thereof) credited to the Member and the denominator of which is ten. In the case of a Member who has less than ten years of Vesting Service, the limitations set forth in Paragraph (b) of Section 13.1(2) and in Section 13.1(4) shall be such limitations (determined without regard to this Section 13.1(5)) multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of years of Vesting Service, or parts thereof, credited to the Member and the denominator of which is ten.
- (6) Notwithstanding anything in this Section 13.1 to the contrary, if the annual benefit of a Member who has terminated employment with the City is limited pursuant to the limitations set forth in Section 13.1(2), such annual benefit shall be increased in accordance with the cost-of-living adjustments of Code Section 415(d).
- (7) For purposes of determining actuarial equivalence under Paragraph (b) or (c) of Section 13.1(3), the interest rate assumption shall be five percent (5%) and the mortality table used shall be the applicable mortality table specified by the Board.
- (8) The actuarially equivalent straight life annuity for purposes of adjusting any benefit payable in a form to which Code Section 417(e)(3) does not apply, as required by Paragraph (a) of Section 13.1(3), is equal to the greater of (a) the annual amount of the straight life annuity payable under the Retirement System commencing at the same annuity starting date as the form of benefit payable to the Member, or (b) the annual amount of the straight life annuity commencing at the same annuity starting date that has the same actuarial present value as the form of benefit payable to the Member, computed using the interest rate and mortality assumptions set forth in Section 13.1(7).
- (9) The actuarially equivalent straight life annuity for purposes of adjusting any benefit payable in a form to which Code Section 417(e)(3) applies, as required by Paragraph (a) of Section 13.1(3), is equal to the greatest of (a) the annual amount of the straight life annuity commencing at the same annuity starting date that has the same Actuarial Equivalent present value as the form of benefit payable to the Member, (b) the annual amount of the straight life annuity commencing at the same annuity starting date that has the same actuarial present value as the form of benefit payable to the Member, computed using a five and one-half percent (5.5%) interest rate assumption and the applicable mortality table specified by the Board, or (c) the annual amount of the straight life annuity commencing at the same annuity starting date that has the same actuarial present value as the form of benefit payable to the Member, computed using the applicable interest rate and the applicable mortality table, both as specified by the Board, divided by 1.05.

- (10) For purposes of applying the limitations set forth in this Section 13.1, all qualified defined benefit plans (whether or not terminated) ever maintained by the City shall be treated as one defined benefit plan.
- (11) For purposes of this Section 13.1, the term “compensation” shall include those items of remuneration specified in Treasury Regulation § 1.415(c)-2(b) and shall exclude those items of remuneration specified in Treasury Regulation § 1.415(c)-2(c), taking into account the timing rules specified in Treasury Regulation § 1.415(c)-2(e), but shall not include any amount in excess of the limitation under Code Section 401(a)(17) in effect for the year. The term “compensation” as defined in the preceding sentence shall include any payments made to a Member by the later of (a) two and one-half months after the date of the Member’s severance from employment with the City or (b) the end of the limitation year that includes the date of the Member’s severance from employment with the City, provided that, absent a severance from employment, such payments would have been paid to the Member while the Member continued in employment with the City and are regular compensation for services performed during the Member’s regular working hours, compensation for services outside the Member’s regular working hours (such as overtime or shift differential pay), commissions, bonuses or other similar compensation.
- (12) This Section 13.1 shall be administered in conformity with the regulations issued by the Secretary of the Treasury interpreting Code Section 415 including, but not limited to, any regulation providing for the “grandfathering” of any benefit accrued prior to the effective date of such regulations or statutory provision.

Sec. 13.2. Compliance with Code Section 415(c) and Regulations

  - (b) One hundred percent (100%) of the Member’s compensation, as defined in Code Section 415(c)(3) and regulations issued thereunder, for the limitation year.
- (2) The “annual addition” with respect to a Member for a limitation year means the sum of his Voluntary Employee Contributions made to the Retirement System, and the employer contributions, employee contributions and forfeitures allocated to his accounts under any other qualified defined contribution plan (whether or not terminated) maintained by the City, and the amounts described in Code Sections 415(l)(2) and 419A(d)(2) allocated to his account.
- (3) In the event the “annual addition” to the Retirement System on behalf of a Member would otherwise exceed the amount that may be applied for his benefit under the limitation contained in this Section 13.2, the limitation shall be satisfied by reducing the Member’s Voluntary Employee Contributions to the extent necessary and distributing such amounts to the Member.

Sec. 17.1. Nonduplication of Benefits

If any Member is a participant in another defined benefit pension plan, retirement system or annuity plan sponsored by the City (including Component II of this Retirement System) and the Member is or becomes entitled to accrue pension benefits under such plan or retirement system (including Component II of this Retirement System) with respect to any period of service for which he is entitled to accrue a benefit under Component I of this Retirement System, such Member shall not be eligible to accrue or receive payment of a benefit under Component I with respect to such period of service.

Sec. 17.2. Assignments Prohibited

The right of a person to a pension, annuity, the return of Accumulated Voluntary Employee Contributions and/or the return of Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contributions, the Retirement Allowance itself, to any optional form of benefit, to any other right accrued or accruing to any person under the provisions of this Retirement System, and the monies in the various funds of the Retirement System shall not be assignable and shall not be subject to execution, garnishment, attachment, the operation of bankruptcy or insolvency law, or any other process of law whatsoever, except as specifically provided in this Combined Plan Document or by an eligible domestic relations order of a lawful court.

Sec. 17.3. Protection Against Fraud

A person who, with intent to deceive, makes any statements or reports required under this Retirement System that are untrue, or who falsifies or permits to be falsified any record or records of this Retirement System, or who otherwise violates, with intent to deceive, any terms or provisions of the Retirement System, shall be subject to prosecution under applicable law.

Sec. 17.4. Conviction of Felony; Forfeiture of Rights

If a Member or Beneficiary shall be convicted by a court of competent jurisdiction of a felony or high misdemeanor involving moral turpitude committed during active Service, the Board shall have the power to order the forfeiture of all rights of the Member or Beneficiary to benefits hereunder, except the return of the Member's Accumulated Mandatory Employee Contributions and Accumulated Voluntary Employee Contributions.

Sec. 17.5. Amendment; Termination; Exclusive Benefit

The City reserves the right to amend the Combined Plan Document created hereunder at any time; such amendments may include termination of the Retirement System; provided, however, that following the effective date of the Plan of Adjustment, no amendment other than amendments required to comply with applicable federal law or the Plan of Adjustment may be made effective prior to July 1, 2023, nor may any amendment or termination deprive any Member, former Member or Beneficiary of any then vested benefit under the Retirement System, except as provided in a Plan of Adjustment. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the City and the Board have the authority to amend the Combined Plan Document as necessary to retain the tax qualified status of the Retirement System under the Internal Revenue Code. The City shall make no amendment or amendments to the Retirement System which causes any part of the assets of the Retirement System to be used for, or diverted to, any purpose other than the exclusive benefit of Members, former Members or their Beneficiaries; provided, that the City may make any amendment necessary, with or without retroactive effect, to comply with applicable federal law. Any amendment of the Retirement System by the City must be approved by the Council or a person standing in the stead of the Council.

Upon termination of the Retirement System or upon complete discontinuance of contributions to the Retirement System, the rights of all Members to benefits accrued to the date of such termination or discontinuance, to the extent then funded, shall be nonforfeitable.

Sec. 17.6. Forfeitures Not to Increase Benefits

Any forfeitures arising under the Retirement System due to a Member's termination of employment or death, or for any other reason, shall be used to pay expenses of the Retirement System and shall not be applied to increase the benefits any Member would otherwise receive under the Retirement System at any time prior to termination of the Retirement System.

Sec. 17.7. Required Distributions - Compliance with Code Section 401(a)(9) and Regulations

The Retirement System will apply the minimum distribution requirements of Code Section 401(a)(9) in accordance with the final regulations issued thereunder, notwithstanding any provision in the Combined Plan Document to the contrary. Pursuant to Code Section 401(a)(9)(A)(ii), a Member's interest must begin to be distributed by the later of (i) the April 1 of the calendar year following the calendar year that he attains the Age of seventy and one-half (70-1/2), or (ii) April 1 of the calendar year following the year in which he retires. Distributions will be made in accordance with Regulations Sections 1.401(a)(9)-2 through 1.401(a)(9)-9. The provisions of this Section 17.7 and the regulations cited herein and incorporated by reference override any inconsistent plan distribution options.

Sec. 17.8. Direct Rollovers

- (1) For purposes of compliance with Code Section 401(a)(31), a distributee may elect, at the time and in the manner prescribed by the board, to have any portion of an eligible rollover distribution paid directly to an eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee in a direct rollover.
- (2) For purposes of this Section 17.8, the following terms shall have the following meanings:
  - (a) "Direct rollover" means a payment by the retirement system to an eligible retirement plan specified by a distributee.
  - (b) "Distributee" means a Member or former Member. It also includes the Member's or former Member's surviving spouse, a spouse or former spouse who is the alternate payee under an eligible domestic relations order, or a nonspouse beneficiary who is a designated beneficiary as defined by Code Section 401(a)(9)(E). However, a nonspouse beneficiary may only make a direct rollover to an individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity established for the purpose of receiving the distribution, and the account or annuity will be treated as an "inherited" individual retirement account or annuity.
  - (c) "Eligible retirement plan" means any of the following that accepts a distributee's eligible rollover distribution:
    - (i) a qualified trust described in Code Section 401(a);
    - (ii) an annuity plan described in Code Section 403(a);

- (iii) an annuity contract described in Code Section 403(b);
  - (iv) an individual retirement account described in Code Section 408(a);
  - (v) an individual retirement annuity described in Code Section 408(b);
  - (vi) a Roth IRA described in Code Section 408A; or
  - (vii) a plan eligible under Code Section 457(b) that is maintained by a state, political subdivision of a state, or any agency or instrumentality of a state or a political subdivision of a state that agrees to separately account for amounts transferred into that plan from the retirement system.
- (d) “Eligible rollover distribution” means any distribution of all or any portion of the balance to the credit of a distributee under the retirement system, except that an eligible rollover distribution does not include: any distribution that is one of a series of substantially equal periodic payments (not less frequently than annually) made for the life (or the life expectancy) of the distributee or the joint lives (or joint life expectancies) of the distributee and the distributee’s designated beneficiary, or for a specified period of ten years or more; any distribution to the extent such distribution is required under Code Section 401(a)(9); the portion of any distribution that is not includible in gross income; and any other distribution which the Internal Revenue Service does not consider eligible for rollover treatment, such as any distribution that is reasonably expected to total less than $200 during the year. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a portion of a distribution will not fail to be an “eligible rollover distribution” merely because the portion consists of after-tax contributions that are not includible in Member’s gross income upon distribution from the retirement system. However, such portion may be transferred only (i) to an individual retirement account or annuity described in Code Section 408(a) or (b) or to a qualified defined contribution plan described in Code Section 401(a) that agrees to separately account for amounts so transferred (and earnings thereon), including separately accounting for the portion of the distribution that is includible in gross income and the portion of the distribution that is not so includible; (ii) to a qualified defined benefit plan described in Code Section 401(a) or to an annuity contract described in Code Section 403(b) that agrees to separately account for amounts so transferred (and earnings thereon), including separately accounting for the portion of the distribution that is includible in gross income and the portion of the distribution that is not so includible; or (iii) to a Roth IRA described in Code Section 408A.

- (a) No new employee hired by an Employer on or after July 1, 2014 shall become a member who is eligible to accrue a benefit under the terms of the General Retirement System in effect as of the Freeze Date;
- (b) No employee who is rehired by an Employer on or after July 1, 2014 shall become a member who is eligible to accrue either a benefit or service credit for any purpose under the terms of the General Retirement System in effect as of the Freeze Date; provided, however, that a member who is entitled to a Frozen Accrued Benefit as defined in subsection (c) of this Section 47-1-27 and who is rehired by an Employer on or after July 1, 2014 but prior to the date the member incurs a six-year break in service shall be eligible to accrue service credit following rehire solely for the purpose of determining the member's eligibility for payment of his Frozen Accrued Benefit;

- (c) Benefit accruals for members with respect to service rendered prior to July 1, 2014 will be frozen based on a member's years of service, Average Final Compensation, and the pension multiplier formulae as of such Freeze Date ("Frozen Accrued Benefit");
- (d) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (e) of this Section 47-1-27, compensation of a member shall be frozen effective as of the Freeze Date for purposes of determining the member's Frozen Accrued Benefit. - (h) The 1998 Defined Contribution Plan will be closed to all employees hired or rehired by an Employer on or after July 1, 2014. On or after July 1, 2014, no person may make an election to participate in the 1998 Defined Contribution Plan, and no future contributions will be made to or accepted by the 1998 Defined Contribution Plan with respect to wages earned on or after July 1, 2014.

To the extent that a conflict arises between this Section 47-1-27 and other provisions in Chapter 47, or any collective bargaining agreement or other document governing the terms of employment of any employee, the Board of Trustees and the Retirement System are directed to interpret any inconsistency or ambiguity to give full effect to the Freeze.

Sec. B-9. [Formerly Sec. 47-2-9. Retirement Allowance Options.<sup>115</sup>]

- (a) Election by Member. Until the first retirement allowance payment check is cashed, or six months after the first payment check is issued but not thereafter, any member may elect to receive a straight life retirement allowance payable throughout life, or the member may elect to receive the actuarial equivalent of the Straight Life Retirement Allowance computed as of the effective date of retirement, in a reduced retirement allowance payable throughout life, with the exception that there will be no reduction in the benefits received pursuant to Section 47-2-5(e) of this Code; and nominate a beneficiary, in accordance with the options set forth below:

Option One. Cash Refund Annuity.<sup>116</sup> If a retiree who elected a Cash Refund Annuity dies before payment of the annuity portion of the reduced retirement allowance has been received in an aggregate amount equal to, but not exceeds the retiree's accumulated contributions in the Annuity Savings Fund at the time of retirement, the difference between said accumulated contributions and the aggregate amount of annuity payments already received, shall be paid in a single lump sum to such person or person nominated by written designation duly executed by the member and filed with the Board. If there are no such designated person or persons surviving said retiree, any such difference shall be paid to the retiree's estate.

Option Two. Joint and One Hundred Percent Survivor Allowance.<sup>117</sup> Upon the death of a retiree who elected a Joint and One Hundred Percent Survivor Allowance, one hundred percent of the reduced retirement allowance shall be paid to and continued throughout the life of the person nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the Board prior to the date the first payment of the retirement allowance becomes due.

Option "A". Joint and Seventy-Five Percent Survivor Allowance. Upon the death of a retiree who elected a Joint and Seventy-Five Percent Survivor Allowance, seventy-five percent of the reduced retirement allowance shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to the person nominated by written designation duly executed by the member and filed with the Board prior to the date the first payment of the retirement allowance becomes due.

Option Three. Joint and Fifty Percent Survivor Allowance. Upon the death of a retiree who elected a Joint and Fifty Percent Survivor Allowance, fifty percent of the reduced retirement allowance shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to the person nominated by written designation duly executed by the member and filed with the Board prior to the date the first payment of the retirement allowance becomes due.

Option "B". Joint and Twenty-Five Percent Survivor Allowance. Upon the death of a retiree who elected a Joint and Twenty-Five Percent Survivor Allowance, twenty-five percent of the reduced retirement allowance shall be paid throughout the life of the person nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the Board prior to the date the first payment of the retirement allowance becomes due.

- (b) Joint and Survivor Optional Forms of Payment. The Joint and Survivor Optional Forms of Payment provided under Section 47-2-9(a) of this Code shall be made available in either the standard form or the pop-up form, as follows:
- (1) Standard Form. Under the Standard Form, the reduced retirement allowance shall be paid throughout the lifetime of the retiree.
  - (2) Pop-up Form. Under the Pop-up Form, the reduced allowance shall be paid throughout the lifetime of the retiree and the designated beneficiary. In the event of the death of the designated beneficiary during the lifetime of the retiree, the amount of the allowance shall be changed to the amount that would have been payable had the retiree elected the Straight Life Form of Payment.
- (c) Coordination of Benefits. According to such rules and regulations as the Board shall adopt, until the first payment of a retirement allowance becomes due, but not thereafter, a member under age sixty-five may elect to have the member's Straight Life Retirement Allowance provided for in Section 47-2-5 of this Code equated on an actuarial equivalent basis to provide an increased retirement allowance payable to age sixty-two or age sixty-five, and to provide a decreased retirement allowance thereafter. The increased retirement allowance payable to such age shall approximate the total of the decreased retirement allowance payable thereafter and the estimated social security benefit. If a member elects to receive increased and then decreased retirement allowance payments provided for in this paragraph, he or she may also elect to have such payments reduced by electing one of the optional forms of payment provided for in paragraph (a) of this section. Sec. B-14. [Formerly Sec. 47-2-14. Disability Retirees; Reexamination; Authority of the Board.<sup>124</sup>]

- (a) Medical examination. At least once each year during the first five years following the retirement of a member with a Disability Retirement Allowance or Disability Pension, and at least once in every three year period thereafter, the Board may, and upon the retiree's application shall require that any disability retiree who has not attained age sixty undergo a medical examination, to be made by, or under the direction of, the Medical Director. Should any such disability retiree who has not attained age sixty refuse to submit to at least one such medical examination in any such period, the retiree's retirement allowance or pension may be discontinued by the Board until withdrawal of such refusal. Should such refusal continue for one year, all of the disability retiree's rights in and to the Pension portion of the Retirement Allowance may be revoked by the Board. Pension – Employer Contribution (414h Plan):

Upon notification by the Union to the City of its desire to activate a 414(h) Plan, the City will take steps to implement the provisions contained in the following paragraphs. The Union initiated the discussions and proposed the provisions contained in the paragraphs and the parties recognize and agree that it will take some time before this program can become operational due to the necessity of making changes in the City's computerized payroll system.

It is hereby agreed that every member of this bargaining unit shall be required to make contributions in the amount of 5% of their annual compensation to the Annuity Savings Fund of the General Retirement System. The said 5% employee contribution to the Retirement system Annuity Fund, although designated as employee contributions, shall be paid by the City of Detroit in lieu of contributions by the employee. The employee shall not have the option of choosing to receive the contributed amount directly instead of having them paid by the employer to the annuity fund. There shall be no additional contribution expense to the City of Detroit, and the amounts so contributed by the employer on behalf of the employee shall be treated, for tax purposes, as employer contributions and thus shall not be taxable to the employee until these amounts are distributed or made available to the employee.

These provisions shall not affect the amount or benefits level of the retirement allowance, or the City of Detroit's obligation thereto.<sup>ss</sup>

- (b) Annuity Reserve Fund. <sup>131</sup> The Annuity Reserve Fund shall be the fund, from which all annuities and benefits in lieu of annuities payable as provided in this Article, shall be paid. If a disability retiree is reinstated to active City service, the retiree's Annuity Reserve at that time shall be transferred from the Annuity Reserve Fund to the Annuity Savings Fund and credited to his or her individual account therein.
- (c) Pension Accumulation Fund. <sup>132</sup> The Pension Accumulation Fund shall be the fund in which shall be accumulated reserves for the pensions and other benefits payable from the contributions made by the City, and from which shall be paid pensions and other benefits on account of Members with prior service credit, and transfers as provided in this Section, Contributions to and payments from the Pension Accumulation Fund shall be made as follows:
- (1) Upon the basis of such mortality and other tables of experience and Regular Interest, as the Board shall adopt from time to time, the Actuary shall annually compute the amount of contributions, which, when made annually by the City during the entire prospective City service of Members without prior service credit, will be sufficient to provide the pension reserves required at the time the Members leave City employment, to cover the pensions to which they might be entitled or which might be payable because of their City employment. Upon the retirement of a Member without prior service credit, or upon a Member's death in the performance of duty, the Pension Reserve Fund for the pension or pensions to be paid on the Member's account shall be transferred from the Pension Accumulation Fund to the Pension Reserve Fund.
  - (2) Upon the basis of such mortality and other tables of experience and regular interest as the Board shall adopt from time to time, the Actuary shall compute annually the pension reserve liabilities for pensions being paid to Retirees and Beneficiaries.
  - (3) On an annual basis, the Board shall ascertain and report to the Mayor and the Council the amount of City contributions due to the System. The Council shall appropriate and the City shall pay such contributions during the ensuing Fiscal year. When paid, such contributions shall be credited to the Pension Accumulation Fund.

- (4) If the amount appropriated by the City and paid to the System for any Fiscal year is insufficient to make the transfers and pay the pensions from the Pension Accumulation Fund as provided in this Section, the amount of such insufficiency shall be provided by the appropriating authorities of the City.
- (d) Accrued Liability Fund. Pursuant to Ordinance No. 5-05, which authorizes the creation of the Detroit General Retirement Service Corporation, the City has entered into a transaction (the "Pension Funding Transaction") to obtain funds as an alternative to those available through the traditional funding mechanism described above in Subsection (c). The proceeds generated by the Pension Funding Transaction (or any Additional Pension Funding Transactions, as described below) that will be deposited into the System will be termed the "Funding Proceeds." The Funding Proceeds will be deposited into a new fund in the System to be called the Accrued Liability Fund. The purpose of the Funding Proceeds will be to fund all or part of the heretofore unfunded actuarial accrued liability ("UAAL") of the System, as determined as of a date certain, that is, the "Determination Date," pursuant to the System's actuarial valuation as of that date. The Funding Proceeds will be assets of the System and will be applied, together with all other assets of the System, to fund the System's obligation to pay accrued benefits.

This Accrued Liability Fund shall contain only the Funding Proceeds of this Pension Funding Transaction, and any earnings thereon. Should the City, by future ordinance, choose to raise additional moneys by additional pension funding transactions ("Additional Pension Funding Transactions") in order to fund the then existing UAAL of the System as of a future date certain, a new and separate Accrued Liability Fund shall be created within the System to contain the proceeds, and any earnings thereon, of any Additional Pension Funding Transactions, and a new Accrued Liability Fund will be created for each successive Additional Pension Funding Transaction undertaken by the City, if any. The treatment of any Additional Accrued Liability Fund shall be the same as described below:

- (1) The Funding Proceeds deposited in the Accrued Liability Fund will be subject to the oversight and investment direction of the Board of Trustees of the General Retirement System, consistent with the Board's obligations under Section 47-2-20 (Management of Funds). The Board will invest the Funding Proceeds as part of the System's overall assets, and will not differentiate the Funding Proceeds from other System assets for investment purposes.
- (2) All interest, dividends and other income derived from the investment of the Funding Proceeds shall be credited annually to the applicable Accrued Liability Fund on a total System rate of return basis determined by crediting the applicable Accrued Liability Fund with the investment return experienced by the System in total for all of its investments for the year. This shall be done by first determining the rate of return for the total assets in the System for the fiscal year, and then crediting back to each Accrued Liability Fund an amount that is determined by multiplying that rate of return times the balance in the Accrued Liability Fund as of the beginning of the fiscal year, less an amount obtained by multiplying one-half of the System's rate of return times the amount transferred to the Pension Accumulation Fund for that year. As provided in Section 47-2-18(g) of this Code, the interest, dividends and other income derived from the investment of the Funding Proceeds deposited in any Accrued Liability Fund are "other moneys" the disposition of which is specifically provided for in this Article, and these moneys will not be credited to the Income Fund. The interest, dividends and other income derived from the investment of the Funding Proceeds deposited in any Accrued Liability Fund will not be credited to any Funds other than the Pension Accumulation Fund.
- (3) Upon the creation of the Accrued Liability Fund and the deposit of the Funding Proceeds into the applicable Accrued Liability Fund, there shall be established a schedule for transferring assets of the Accrued Liability Fund by crediting them to the Pension Accumulation Fund on a regular basis over the period required to fully amortize that portion of the System's UAAL determined as of the applicable Determination Date.

The System's UAAL determined as of the applicable Determination Date shall be the "Determined Accrued Liability." The period over which the Determined Accrued Liability is to be fully amortized, as specified in the System's actuarial valuation as of the applicable Determination Date, is the "Amortizing Period.” The amount to be transferred each fiscal year (or monthly portion thereof) to the Pension Accumulation Fund from the Accrued Liability Fund is the “Scheduled Amortizing Amount.”

With respect to the Pension Funding Transaction and any Additional Pension Funding Transactions, the Scheduled Amortizing Amount will equal a level percentage of the City’s monthly payroll during the fiscal year, as determined by the City’s weekly payroll reports made available to the Board. The level percentage of the City’s monthly payroll that will be used to determine the Scheduled Amortizing Amount will be a level percentage that is equal to the level percentage that is specified in the actuarial valuation as of the applicable Determination Date as being the percentage of the City’s monthly payroll required to amortize the Determined Accrued Liability over the Amortizing Period multiplied by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction shall be the amount of the applicable Funding Proceeds up to the full amount of the Determined Accrued Liability as of the Determination Date. The denominator of the fraction shall be the System’s Determined Accrued Liability on that date.

Commentary: By way of example only, the Scheduled Amortizing Amount would be determined as follows: (1) the Determination Date is June 30, 2004, (2) the Funding Proceeds are deposited into the System during the 2004-2005 Fiscal Year, (3) the June 30, 2004 actuarial valuation produced a UAAL of $800 million, (4) the City’s contribution required to amortize that UAAL is 16% of the City’s payroll, and (5) the Funding Proceeds are $600 million, then the Scheduled Amortizing Amount for Fiscal Year 2005-06 would be 16% times ($600 million/$800 million) times the City’s payroll for 2005-2006. This would be 12% times the City’s payroll for that fiscal year.

With respect to the Pension Funding Transaction, or any Additional Pension Funding Transactions, where the applicable Determination Date occurs after the date of the actuarial valuation that determines the City’s contribution for the fiscal year during which the applicable Funding Proceeds are deposited into the System, for such fiscal year, there will be transferred from the applicable Accrued Liability Fund to the Pension Accumulation Fund an amount that is specified in such actuarial valuation as being the City’s required contribution needed to amortize the System’s UAAL as of the date of such actuarial valuation, multiplied by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction shall be the amount of the applicable Funding Proceeds up to the full amount of the UAAL specified in such actuarial valuation, and the denominator of the fraction shall be the System’s total UAAL as set forth in that same actuarial valuation.

Commentary: By way of example only, the Scheduled Amortizing Amount in this case would be determined as follows: (1) the Determination Date is June 30, 2004, (2) the Funding Proceeds had been deposited into the System during the 2004-2005 Fiscal Year, (3) the June 30, 2003 actuarial valuation produced a UAAL of $733 million, (4) the City’s contribution required to amortize that UAAL is 13.9% of the City’s payroll, and (5) the Funding Proceeds are $600 million, then the Scheduled Amortizing Amount for Fiscal Year 2004-05 would be 13.9% times ($600 million/$733 million) times the City’s payroll for 2004-2005. This would be 11.4% times the City’s payroll for that fiscal year.

Should the Board at some future time adopt a different period for amortizing the System’s UAAL (a “Revised Amortizing Period”), the Scheduled Amortizing Amount for ensuing years may change. If the Revised Amortizing Period provides for a longer period during which to amortize the System’s UAAL (that is, an “Extended Amortizing Period”), then the Amortizing Period initially used to amortize the applicable Determined Accrued Liability will also be revised. There will then be established a new schedule for amortizing the Determined Accrued Liability, and the Scheduled Amortizing Amount will be based on the level percentage of the City’s monthly payroll being equal to what it would be if the then unamortized balance of the Determined Accrued Liability were re-amortized over the Extended Amortizing Period. If the Revised Amortizing Period is changed so that the System’s UAAL is to be amortized over a shorter period than the one initially used to amortize the applicable Determined Accrued Liability, then that Scheduled Amortizing Amount will not be changed.

- (4) Each year (or monthly portion thereof), when the City is required to make its regular contribution to the System — the amount of which is to be determined pursuant to Subsection (c) and the timing of which is set forth in Section 47-2-19(b) — the Board will transfer the Scheduled Amortizing Amount from the

Accrued Liability Fund and credit it to the Pension Accumulation Fund; provided, however, that this transfer cannot occur unless and until the Board has been notified pursuant to the Pension Funding Transaction, or any Additional Pension Funding Transaction, if applicable, that the City is current on the service payments required under the applicable Pension Funding Transaction.

- (5) Should the Scheduled Amortizing Amount not be available for transfer because of the City's failure to make a timely service payment pursuant to the applicable Pension Funding Transaction, the Board will take any permitted action, including the filing of a civil action against the City, as contemplated in Section 47-4-3(3), to effectuate the transfer of the Scheduled Amortizing Amount.

Should the City's Finance Director certify to the Board by a duly attested notice that the City has no available funds to make the service payments required by the applicable Pension Funding Transaction, in that specific circumstance, the Board shall be authorized to transfer the Scheduled Amortizing Amount for that fiscal year (or monthly portion thereof) to the Pension Accumulation Fund, absent the notice requirement set forth in Section 47-2-18(d)(4).

- (6) Since the Funding Proceeds are to be considered assets of the System and are intended to fund the applicable Determined Accrued Liability, the City shall be required to make only a proportional contribution for any fiscal year (or monthly portion thereof) ending after the date the Funding Proceeds are deposited into the applicable Accrued Liability Fund, but prior to a fiscal year whose corresponding actuarial valuation includes the Funding Proceeds in the System's total assets. The proportional contribution to fund the System's then existing UAAL, if any, shall be the level percentage of the City's payroll specified in the actuarial valuation for the applicable fiscal year as the City's required contribution needed to amortize the System's then existing UAAL, multiplied by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction shall be the amount of the System's total UAAL as determined in such actuarial valuation minus the amount of the applicable Funding Proceeds, but not less than zero. The denominator of the fraction shall be the amount of the System's total UAAL in such valuation. Actuarial valuations following the deposit of the applicable Funding Proceeds into the System shall include the Funding Proceeds in the total assets of the System to determine any ensuing UAAL of the System, and the Funding Proceeds shall offset any such actuarial liability accordingly.

Commentary: By way of example only, the following indicates how the procedure described above would operate. Assume the following facts — (1) the Determination Date is June 30, 2004; (2) the June 30, 2004 actuarial valuation produced a UAAL of $800 million and a contribution toward the UAAL of 16% of the City's payroll; (3) the Funding Proceeds were $600 million and were deposited in the System during the 2004-2005 Fiscal Year; (4) the first actuarial valuation which included the Funding Proceeds in the System's assets was as of June 30, 2005 and (5) the June 30, 2003 valuation which determines the City's required contribution for fiscal 2004-05 produced a total UAAL of $733 million and a contribution toward that UAAL of 13.9% of the City's payroll. Then:

- The fiscal year ending after the date of deposit would be the year ending June 30, 2005, or the 2004-2005 Fiscal Year.
  - The first fiscal year whose corresponding valuation reflected the Funding Proceeds in its assets would be the 2006-2007 year.
  - Thus, the City's required UAAL contribution for fiscal 2004-2005 would be 13.9% of the City's payroll times ($733 million — $600 million) divided by $733 million, or 2.5% of payroll. The City's required UAAL contribution for fiscal 2005-06 would be 16% of the City's payroll times ($800 million — $600 million) divided by $800 million, or 4% of the City's payroll.
  - Beginning with the Fiscal Year 2006-2007, whose contribution is determined by the June 30, 2005 actuarial valuation, the City's required UAAL contribution would be the percentage of its payroll developed in the corresponding actuarial valuation that included the Funding Proceeds as being part of the System's assets.
- (7) Any contribution the City has made to the System for any fiscal year during which the Funding Proceeds from any applicable Pension Funding Transaction have become assets of the System. Where the amount of the contribution is equal to or less than the normal cost of that fiscal year, the City's contribution shall be deemed to have been made in satisfaction of its obligation to contribute an amount equal to the System's normal cost for that fiscal year, and not as payment towards any portion of its obligation to pay an amortized portion of the System's UAAL due in that fiscal year. The term "normal cost" as used in this Section 47-2-18(d)(6), shall be given its generally accepted actuarial meaning.

To the extent the City's contribution for that fiscal year exceeds its required contribution for normal cost owed in that fiscal year, its excess contributions shall be deemed as having been made for the immediately following fiscal year, and shall offset the City's normal cost contribution obligation for the immediately following fiscal year.

Commentary: By way of example only, the following indicates how the procedure described in the preceding paragraphs would operate. Assuming the same facts as in the prior Commentary, and the City contributed $40 million for the 2004-2005 Fiscal Year and the total normal cost for that year was $40 million:

- The entire $40 million would be deemed as payment of the required normal cost for 2004-2005, and
- No part of the $40 million contribution would be deemed payment toward UAAL.

Now assume that the facts remain the same, but that the City had contributed a total of $45 million for 2004-2005:

- The City's total required contribution for 2004-2005 would be deemed paid in full, and
- $5 million, that is, $45 million minus $40 million, would be deemed prepayment of the City's required normal cost for 2005-2006 and its required normal cost contribution for 2005-2006 would be reduced accordingly.

- (8) The System's auditor shall verify (a) the assets credited to the Pension Accumulation Fund and any Accrued Liability Fund at the beginning and end of each fiscal year, (b) that each Fund had been properly credited, and (c) that transfers from the Accrued Liability Fund(s) to the Pension Accumulation Fund had occurred as intended under this Section 47-2-18(d) of this Code.
  - (9) Should the System's auditor certify that the total assets then existing in the System, not including the assets in any Accrued Liability Fund, together are insufficient to pay the benefits then due under the System, the System's auditor will then determine and certify the minimum amount needed to fund the benefits then due and owing (the "Minimum Necessary Amount"). In this limited circumstance, the Board is authorized to transfer the Minimum Necessary Amount from the Accrued Liability Fund to the Pension Accumulation Fund absent the notification required pursuant to Section 47-2-18(d)(4) of this Code.
  - (10) At the end of the Amortizing Period, or the end of the Extended Amortizing Period, if applicable, should there be any moneys that remain credited to the Accrued Liability Fund, the Board may transfer, at its discretion, any such remaining moneys, in whole or in part, by crediting them to the Pension Accumulation Fund. The Pension Accumulation Fund is the only Fund into which the remaining moneys credited to any Accrued Liability Fund may be transferred.
- (e) Pension Reserve Fund.<sup>133</sup> The Pension Reserve Fund shall be the fund from which pensions shall be paid to beneficiaries. Should a Disability Retiree be reinstated to active service, the Retiree's pension reserve at that time, shall be transferred from the Pension Reserve Fund to the Pension Accumulation Fund.
  - (f) Expense Fund.<sup>134</sup> The Expense Fund shall be the fund to which shall be credited all money provided by the City to pay the administrative expenses of the Retirement System, and from which shall be paid all the expenses necessary in connection with the administration and operation of the System.
  - (g) Income Fund.<sup>135</sup> The Income Fund shall be the Fund to which shall be credited all interest, dividends, and other income derived from the investments of the System (other than those derived from the investments credited to any Accrued Liability Fund), all gifts and bequests received by the System, and all other moneys the disposition of which is not specifically provided for in this Article. There shall be paid or transferred from the Income Fund, all amounts required to credit Regular Interest to the various Funds of the Retirement System, except for the Accrued Liability Fund which is to be credited with interest, dividends and other earnings pursuant to Section 47-2-18(d)(2) of this Code in accordance with the limitations that are contained in Section 47-1-18 of this Code.

(h) Maintenance of Reserves.<sup>136</sup>

- (1) The maintenance of proper reserves in the various Charter-based funds of the Retirement System within this Article II except the Expense Fund are hereby made obligations of the Pension Accumulation Fund.
- (2) City contributions to the Retirement System to the extent necessary to provide pensions on account of members who are employees of a revenue-supported division of the City shall be made from the revenues of the said division. Any City contribution to the Retirement System from any Fund by law with a certain and definite purpose shall at the direction of the Finance Director, be accounted for separately.

Sec. B-19. [Formerly Sec. 47-2-19. Determination of City's annual contribution.<sup>137</sup>]

The annuity and pension reserve liabilities for members, retirees, and beneficiaries, shall be actuarially evaluated as set forth in this Article for each division as is accounted for separately pursuant to Section 47-2-18(g)(2) of this Code.

(a) Pension Liabilities.<sup>138</sup>

- (1) The pension liabilities for members shall be determined using the entry age-normal cost method of actuarial valuation.
- (2) The City's annual contribution, expressed as a percentage of active member compensation, to finance the prospective pension liabilities shall be determined by dividing the total cost of the individual annual normal costs of the active members by the active members' annual compensation used in the valuation.
- (3) The City's annual contribution to finance any unfunded accrued pension liabilities, expressed as a percentage of active member compensation, shall be determined by amortizing such unfunded accrued pension liabilities as a level percentage of covered payroll over a period or periods of future years as established by the Board.

- (b) Pension Accumulation Fund.<sup>139</sup> Based upon the provisions of this Article including any amendments, the Board of Trustees shall compute the City's annual contributions to the Retirement System, expressed as a percentage of active member compensation each fiscal year, using actuarial valuation data as of the June thirtieth date which date is a year and a day before the first day of such fiscal year. The Board shall report to the Mayor and Council the contribution percentages so computed. Such contribution percentages shall be used in determining the contribution dollars to be appropriated by Council and paid to the Retirement System. Such contribution dollars shall be determined by multiplying the applicable contribution percentage for such fiscal year by the member compensation paid for such fiscal year. Such contribution dollars for each fiscal year shall be paid to the Retirement System in such fiscal year in a manner to be agreed upon from time to time by the Board and the City, provided, for any fiscal year for which the agreement has not been reached before the first day of such fiscal year, such contribution dollars shall be paid in equal monthly installments at the end of each calendar month in such fiscal year.

Sec. B-22. [Formerly Sec. 47-2-22. Participant loan program.]

- (a) Established. Any loans granted or renewed shall be made pursuant to a Participant Loan Program which shall conform with the requirements of Section 72(p) of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. 1 et seq. Such loan program shall be established in writing by the Board of Trustees, and must include, but need not be limited to the following:
  - (1) The identity of the administrator of the Participant Loan Program;
  - (2) A procedure to apply for loans, the amount of loan that will be approved or denied, and limitations, if any, on the types and amount of loans offered;
  - (3) The procedures under the program for determining a reasonable rate of interest; and
  - (4) The events constituting default and the steps that will be taken to preserve plan assets.

(b) The Loan Program.

- (1) This Loan Program shall be contained in a separate written document copies of which shall be made available in the offices of the City of Detroit General Retirement System for prospective participants in the program. The Board of Trustees is authorized to adopt rules and regulations, from time to time, to govern the administration and the operation of this program. Copies of the rules shall also be made available to prospective participating members of the system in the offices of the General Retirement System; and
  - (2) All collective bargaining agreements which accept the terms of this section are specifically agreeing to be subject to the Boards authority to modify or amend the Participant Loan Program from time to time, including during the effective terms of the applicable labor agreement and no such modification or amendment shall be deemed a violation of said labor agreement and no grievance or other form of action shall be effective to overturn or alter the Boards decision.
- (c) Eligibility. Subject to rules and procedures established by the Board, loans will initially be made only to non-union participants of the General Retirement System. Union employees will be eligible when their respective bargaining unit has accepted the program.<sup>11</sup> Former participants, spouses of participants, and beneficiaries are not eligible to receive any loans from the Plan. Subject to rules and procedures established by the Board, a participant who has been in the plan for twelve (12) months or more is eligible to apply for a loan from this plan.
- (d) Amount of Loan. A participant who has satisfied applicable rules and procedures may borrow from his or her account an amount, which does not exceed fifty percent (50%) of the participants vested accumulated balance, or ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) reduced by the excess, if any, of: 1) the highest outstanding balance of loans from the trust during the one (1) year period ending on the day before the date on which the loan is made, or 2) the outstanding balance of loans from the trust on the date on which the loan is made, whichever is less. The minimum loan amount shall be one thousand dollars ($1,000.00).

In no case shall the amount of the payroll deduction be less than twenty dollars ($20.00) for any two-week period;
  - (3) Each loan shall be made against the assignment of the participants entire right, title, and interest in and to the trust, supported by the participants collateral promissory note for the amount of the loan, including interest payable to the order of the trustee;
  - (4) Each loan shall bear interest at a rate determined by the Board. The Board shall not discriminate among participants in its determination of interest rates on loans. Loans initiated at different times may bear different interest rates, where, in the opinion of the Board, the difference in rates is supported by a change in market interest rates or a change in the pension systems current assumed rate of return. The loan interest rate shall bear a reasonable relationship to market rates for secured loans of a similar duration and shall bear a reasonable relationship to the costs to the pension trust of administering the trust. The loan interest rate shall be calculated in a manner that will not negatively affect the City's costs to the trust or the return to trust members;

<sup>11</sup> The following bargaining units have accepted the annuity loan program: CBA-3 (§ 53.), CBA-6 (§ 44.), CBA-7 (§ 44.), CBA-8 (§ 40.), CBA-9 (§ 43.), CBA-10 (§ 48.).

- (h) Distributions. No distributions shall be made to a participant, former participant, or beneficiary until all loan balances drawn on the applicable vested accumulated balance and applicable accrued interest have been liquidated.
- (i) Annual Report. The General Retirement System shall include, in their annual report to all members, an accounting of the loan program established by this section, which contains the number and amount of loans made, the costs of administering the program, the amount of payments made including interest received by the trust, the amount of loans outstanding, including any defaults or delinquencies, and an evaluation as to whether the interest charged in that fiscal year covered the costs of administering the program.

Special Provisions

Sec. 1. Freeze of Police and Fire Retirement System as of June 30, 2014.

Notwithstanding anything in Chapter 47 of the 1984 Detroit City Code, or in Chapter 54, Article II of the 1964 Detroit City Code, or any ordinances, resolutions, or orders, or parts thereof, whether codified or not codified, or any collective bargaining agreement or other documents governing terms of employment to the contrary, effective as of June 30, 2014 (the "Freeze Date") –

- (a) No new employee hired by the City on or after July 1, 2014 shall become a member who is eligible to accrue a benefit under the terms of the Police and Fire Retirement System in effect as of the Freeze Date;
- (b) No employee who is rehired by the City on or after July 1, 2014 and who received a distribution of his accumulated employee contributions prior to July 1, 2014, shall become a member who is eligible to accrue a benefit under the terms of the Police and Fire Retirement System in effect as of the Freeze Date; provided, however, that if a member who is entitled to a Frozen Accrued Benefit as defined in subsection (d) of this Section 54-2-15 and who is rehired by the City on or after July 1, 2014 repays to the Police and Fire Retirement System in accordance with a payment schedule approved by the Board of Trustees the amount of accumulated employee contributions that he withdrew then such member shall be eligible to accrue service credit following rehire solely for the purpose of determining the member's eligibility for payment of his Frozen Accrued Benefit;
- (c) No member shall make contributions to the Annuity Savings Fund under the Police and Fire Retirement System in effect as of June 30, 2014 with respect to wages earned on or after July 14, 2014 and all member contributions made on or after July 14, 2014 shall be made to and in accordance with the terms of the Combined Plan for the Police and Fire Retirement System of the City of Detroit, Michigan;
- (d) Benefit accruals for members with respect to service rendered prior to July 1, 2014 will be frozen based on a member's years of service and Average Final Compensation and the pension multiplier formulae as of such Freeze Date ("Frozen Accrued Benefit");
- (e) Except as otherwise provided in this Section 54-2-15, compensation of a member shall be frozen effective as of the Freeze Date for purposes of determining the member's Frozen Accrued Benefit. No compensation of any type earned by a member after the Freeze Date shall be taken into consideration for purposes of determining the member's Frozen Accrued Benefit under the Police and Fire Retirement System;

- (f) Any member who, as of June 30, 2014, would have been eligible to elect to use a portion of the unused accrued sick leave that he could have received in cash upon retirement ("Cashable Sick Leave") to increase his Average Final Compensation if the member had been eligible to retire and had elected to retire as of June 30, 2014, shall have a one-time election to have the value of twenty-five percent (25%) of the member's Cashable Sick Leave as of June 30, 2014 included in the computation of the member's Average Final Compensation for purposes of determining the member's Frozen Accrued Benefit ("Sick Leave Election"); provided, however, that the amount of the member's Cashable Sick Leave at the time the completed election form is received by the Retirement System is at least equal to the value of twenty-five percent (25%) of the member's Cashable Sick Leave as of June 30, 2014 and, provided further that the completed election form is received by the Retirement System no later than August 15, 2014. A member's Sick Leave Election shall be made in the manner set forth by the Board of Trustees and the Police and Fire Retirement System. Notwithstanding anything in this subsection (f) to the contrary, a member's Sick Leave Election will be void and the determination of the member's Average Final Compensation for purposes of calculating the member's Frozen Accrued Benefit will not take into account any of the member's Cashable Sick Leave, if (i) the electing member would not have been eligible to receive an immediate service retirement benefit if he retired as of June 30, 2014, and (ii) the electing member's employment with the City is terminated before the electing member becomes eligible for an immediate service retirement benefit under the Police and Fire Retirement System;
- (g) Service earned after the Freeze Date shall be credited to a member solely for purposes of determining a member's vesting in and eligibility for payment of his or her Frozen Accrued Benefit and to a rehired member solely for purposes of determining the member's eligibility for payment of his or her Frozen Accrued Benefit. Service credit for all members for benefit accrual purposes under the terms of the Police and Fire Retirement System in effect as of the Freeze Date shall be frozen effective as of the Freeze Date and no member shall earn service credit with respect to benefits payable under the terms of the Police and Fire Retirement System in effect as of the Freeze Date (except for vesting and benefit payment eligibility purposes) after the Freeze Date; and
- (h) Effective as of July 1, 2014, the Deferred Retirement Option Plan ("DROP") shall be closed to, and no longer a distribution option with respect the Frozen Accrued Benefit of, members who are represented by the Detroit Fire Fighters Association or the Detroit Police Officers Association and who, as of June 30, 2014, have not elected to participate in the DROP. The DROP shall remain in effect for all members who either have enrolled in or elected to participate in the DROP as of June 30, 2014. Further, for members who are represented by the Detroit Police

Command Officers Association and the Detroit Police Lieutenants and Sergeants Association who elect to participate in DROP after June 30, 2014, participation in DROP with respect to their Frozen Accrued Benefit shall be limited to five years.

The foregoing terms of Section 54-2-15 shall be referred to as the "Freeze" of the provisions of the Police and Fire Retirement System as in effect on the Freeze Date and the provisions of the Police and Fire Retirement System shall be interpreted and construed by the Board of Trustees and the Police and Fire Retirement System to give full effect to the Freeze. To the extent that a conflict arises between this Section 54-2-15 and other provisions in Chapter 54 of the 1964 Detroit City Code, or any Charter, ordinances, resolutions, or orders, or parts thereof, whether codified or not codified, or any collective bargaining agreement or other document governing terms of employment of an employee, the Board of Trustees and the Police and Fire Retirement System are directed to interpret any inconsistency or ambiguity to give full effect to the Freeze.

(Ord. No. 12-14, Sec. 54-2-15.)

- (a) If a member of the System was or shall be drafted, or enlisted or shall enlist into military, naval, marine, or other service of the United States Government during time of war, or if a member shall be drafted into such service during time of peace, and within ninety days from the date of his separation from such government service or from the date peace was or shall be established by treaty, whichever date was or shall be earlier, resumed or shall resume employment as a Policeman or Fireman, then such government service shall be credited to him as a member of the System. During the period of such government service of a member, his contributions to the Annuity Savings Fund shall be suspended and the balance in the Annuity Savings Fund, standing to his credit as of the last payroll date preceding his leave of absence from the service of his Department shall be accumulated at regular interest. Even though the applicant may be unable to satisfy all the foregoing requirements, the Board of Trustees shall have the power to grant the privileges provided for by this section in exceptional or extraordinary cases.

- (b) A member on the City payroll on or after January 1, 1979 who, prior to employment in the city service, was called to or entered or is called to or enters any full time military service of the United States during time of war, period of compulsory military service, or period of unusual emergency as defined in this ordinance, shall have the required period of active duty credited him as membership service, subject to the following conditions and limitations:

(2) The member furnishes the Board of Trustees such information as the Board of Trustees determines necessary to verify the amount of military service claimed.

(3) The member pays to the Pension Accumulation Fund of the Retirement System an amount of five (5) percent of the member's annual rate of compensation at the time of payment multiplied by the years or parts of years of military service claimed.

(4) The required payment shall be made under one of the following options:

- a. Payment in full within 30 days of the election to claim military service.
- b. Payment in equal bi-weekly installments by payroll deduction over a 36 month period starting 30 days following the election to claim military service. Interest shall accrue during the period of installment payments at the compound rate of 5 percent per annum. Payments must be completed prior to application for retirement.
- c. If a member has sufficient funds in the principal portion of his annuity, he may authorize the Pension Bureau to transfer such funds to the Pension Accumulation Fund to meet the required payment.

(5) In the event a member, who has filed the required election of this benefit, and who would be eligible for a pension in all respects except for paying the full amount, dies prior to completion of the payment required in Item (4) preceding, the person otherwise entitled to a retirement allowance may pay the full amount due within 30 days of the member's death to become eligible for an additional pension credit under this section.

(6) Military service credited under the provisions of 54-30-3(c) shall not be claimed or credited under the provisions of this section.

(7) Military service which is or will be the basis of service credit under any other public employee retirement program shall not be claimed or credited under the provisions of this section.

(9) The required payments made to the Pension Accumulation Fund for military service credit pursuant to this section shall, upon application by the member or his estate, be returned without interest to any member who dies or leaves City employment prior to being eligible for a pension.

(10) Only honorable military service during the following periods:

World War II — December 8, 1941 to July 1, 1946.

Korean Conflict — June 27, 1950 to December 31, 1953.

Vietnam Conflict — August 5, 1964 to May 7, 1975, are applicable to this section.

(11) The military service credit pursuant to this section shall not apply toward meeting the minimum service and age requirements for vesting, for a non-duty disability pension or for a service pension. Such service credit may be used in meeting the minimum time needed for an automatic Option Two Pension in case of death of a member.

(12) In no case shall benefits be based on the military service credit provided by this section unless the member shall have been credited a minimum of eight years of service credit not including military service credit.

(13) Special service, contractual, part time, seasonal and summer camp employees are not eligible for the military service credit.

(14) In cases of doubt, the Board of Trustees will determine whether a member is entitled to the benefits of this section consistent with the requirements and limitations herein.

- 5. Annuity Withdrawal. The current withdrawal provision of the retirement system will continue. If a duty disability recipient elects annuity withdrawal after attaining 25 years of credited service, the applicable benefit reduction will offset the duty disability benefit until the conversion date, after which it will offset the converted service retirement benefit.

whether an applicant is disabled will be performed by a qualified physician or surgeon in the appropriate specialty at Detroit Receiving Hospital or such other medical facility as may subsequently be mutually determined by the Union and the City. If either the Union or the City desires to terminate the services of the medical facility, it shall give notice in writing to that effect to the other party, specifying the date of termination. The parties shall then send a joint written notice to the medical facility of its termination. Neither party may terminate the services of a medical facility unless it has heard at least one case. Once the medical facility has received written notice that its services are terminated, it shall hear no further cases. However, the medical facility shall render decisions on all cases where the applicant has been examined and evaluated prior to receiving such notice. The medical facility will select the doctor who will perform the examination and evaluation. The medical finding of this physician or surgeon as to whether the applicant is disabled shall be final and binding on all interested parties.

- b. If the applicant is determined to be disabled, the Board of Trustees or its designee will examine the pension file, including the submissions of the applicant and the Police or Fire Department, to determine if there is any dispute as to whether the disability “resulted from the performance of duty” within the meaning of the pension plan. If it is undisputed that the disability did result from the performance of duty, the Board of Trustees will grant duty disability retirement benefits. If it is undisputed that the disability did not result from the performance of duty, the Board of Trustees will grant non-duty disability retirement benefits, provided the applicant meets the other conditions of eligibility, e.g., five years of creditable service. If the performance of duty issue is in dispute, the Board of Trustees will refer the matter to arbitration by a member of the Disability Retirement Review Board (DRRB). The decision of the DRRB member as to whether the disability resulted from the performance of duty shall be final and binding upon all interested parties. The DRRB shall consist of 3 qualified arbitrators who will be individually assigned in rotating order to decide the matters referred to arbitration by the Board of Trustees. [[By March 1, 1998,<sup>59</sup> or within thirty (30) days after the issuance of the Act 312 Award (Case No. D92 C-554),<sup>60</sup>] the Union and the City shall convene and select 3 disinterested persons qualified as labor arbitrators to serve as members of the DRRB.<sup>61</sup>] The procedure for the termination of umpires and the selection of new umpires [currently in use by the Union and the Police or Fire Department<sup>62</sup> or found

  2. A court reporter will be present and make a stenographic record of the proceedings;

  8. If the applicant wishes to have an employee of the City released from duty to appear as a witness on his behalf, the applicant may so inform the Board of Trustees in writing which, in turn, will submit a written request to the appropriate Department executive for the release of the employee for the purpose of so testifying;
  9. The DRRB member will afford the parties an opportunity for the presentation of oral argument and/or the submission of briefs;
  10. The DRRB member will issue a written decision containing credibility resolutions as necessary, findings of fact and conclusions with respect to all relevant issues in dispute. The decision of the DRRB member shall be final and binding on all interested parties;
  11. The authority of the DRRB member is limited to deciding whether or not the applicant's disability "resulted from the performance of duty" within the meaning of the Pension Plan.     1. Monthly payment of benefits;
    2. The former duties of the Medical Director for conducting investigations to assure continuing eligibility for disability retirement benefits, including the annual re-examination of disability beneficiaries;
    3. Conducting investigations to determine any earnings the disability beneficiary may have for offset to system benefits; and
    4. The TPA shall have reasonable powers to insure compliance with re-examination and proof of earnings requirements including the withholding of monthly payments until compliance is achieved.
  - e. If a disability beneficiary is determined by the TPA to no longer be disabled, he/she may appeal that determination within seven (7) days thereof by filing a written request with the TPA for a re-examination by a qualified physician or surgeon at and selected by the medical facility identified in paragraph 6.a. above whose medical finding will be final and binding. The TPA shall promptly arrange for such re-examination. The applicant's disability benefits will be continued pending that final and binding medical finding, and if the finding is that the applicant is no longer disabled, his disability benefits will be further continued while the Police or Fire Department is conducting such examinations and/or investigations as necessary to determine whether the applicant is qualified for reappointment to active duty. [In the event that the examinations and/or investigations conducted by the Police Department result in a determination that the member is not qualified, for medical reasons, for reappointment to active duty, disability benefits will be continued.<sup>64</sup>]
  - f. In the event that the Union and the City are unable to reach agreement upon the medical facility to perform the functions described in paragraph 6.a. or the TPA to perform the functions described in paragraph 6.d. of this section, within thirty (30) days after a vacancy occurs, each shall nominate one choice as its selection and after reviewing any materials submitted and considering any arguments advanced by the parties in support of their respective nominations, a member of the DRRB

Sec. 3. Non-duty disability.

On written application to the Board of Trustees by or on behalf of a member or by the Head of his Department, a member, who becomes totally incapacitated for duty by reason of injury, illness or disease not resulting from the performance of duty, shall be retired by the Board of Trustees; provided, the Medical Director, after an examination of such member, shall certify to the Board of Trustees his total incapacity. If said member was separated from service after the filing of the written application and had attained 25 years or more of service prior to the date of separation, the Board of Trustees shall retire said member, under this Part B. ## Sec. 2. Allowances to widows, etc.

Upon the death of a member, or a member who retires after June 30, 1965, under part B, section 1 of this article, and such death was found by the board of trustees not to have resulted from the performance of his duty, the applicable retirement allowances provided in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of this section shall be paid from the Survivors Benefit Fund and shall be subject to paragraphs (e), (f) and (g) of this section.

- (a) His widow, or in the case of a female member, her widower, whom the board of trustees finds to be totally and permanently disabled and to have been dependent upon the said female member for at least fifty per cent of his financial support, shall receive a retirement allowance computed in the same manner in all respects as if the said member had (1) regularly retired the day preceding the date of his death, notwithstanding that he might not have acquired twenty-five years of creditable service, in the case of a member as defined in article IV, section 1 (a), (b), or (c), or notwithstanding that he might not have acquired twenty-five years of service or more and had not attained age fifty-five, in the case of a member as defined in article IV, section 1 (d), (2) elected option 2 provided for in part H of this article, and (3) nominated his said widow or widower as joint beneficiary; provided, that in no case shall the retirement allowance payable to such joint beneficiary be less than twenty per cent of said member's average final compensation. If a member who had less than twenty-five years of creditable service dies prior to July 1, 2001, the retirement allowance payable to the widow/widower shall be terminated in the event the widow/widower remarries.
- (b) His unmarried child or children under age eighteen years shall each receive a retirement allowance of one-seventh of the annual maximum earnable compensation of the rank of a patrolman or a fire fighter, as the case may be; provided, that if there be more than two such children, each child shall receive a retirement allowance of an equal share of two-sevenths of said annual maximum earnable compensation of a patrolman or a fire fighter. Upon any such child's adoption, marriage, death or attainment of age eighteen years, whichever occurs first, his retirement allowance shall terminate, and there shall be a redistribution by the board of trustees to the deceased member's remaining eligible children under age eighteen years; provided, that in no case shall the retirement allowance payable to any such child exceed one-seventh of the said annual maximum earnable compensation of a patrolman or a fire fighter.

- (c) If, at the time of the said member's death, there shall be neither a widow nor children eligible for a retirement allowance provided for in this section, each of his parents shall receive a retirement allowance of one-seventh of the annual maximum earnable compensation of a patrolman, or a fire fighter, as the case may be; provided, that the board of trustees finds that such parent was dependent upon the said member for at least fifty per cent of his financial support. Upon the remarriage of any such parent, his retirement allowance shall thereupon terminate.
- (d) In the event all the retirement allowances, provided for in this section, payable on account of the death of a member, terminate before there has been paid an aggregate amount equal to the said member's accumulated contributions standing to his credit in the Annuity Savings Fund at the time of his death, the difference between his said accumulated contributions and the said aggregate amount of retirement allowances shall be paid to such person or persons as the said member shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the board of trustees. If there be no such designated person or persons surviving the said member such difference, if any, shall be paid to his legal representative.
- (e) In no case shall any retirement allowance be paid under this section on account of the death of a member if any benefits are paid under part D of this article on account of his death. The retirement allowance provided for in this section shall be subject to part I of this article.
- (f) All benefits provided in this part E for beneficiaries of members as defined in article IV, section 1 (a), (b), or (c) shall be based on the maximum earnable compensation of the rank of patrolman or fire fighter, as the case may be. If hereafter the compensation of such rank shall be changed, the benefits provided shall be changed proportionately. All benefits provided in this part E for beneficiaries of members as defined in article VI, section 1 (d) shall be based on the maximum earnable compensation of the rank of patrolman or fire-fighter as established in the city's budget for the fiscal year of the member's death.
- (g) In the event a member has withdrawn his accumulated contributions from the Annuity Savings Fund and has not returned in full all amounts due the fund by him, the survivors benefits provided in paragraphs (a), (b), (c) and (d) of this section shall be reduced to the proportion that the member's accumulated contributions standing to his credit in the Annuity Savings Fund, at the time of his death bears to the amount his accumulated contributions would have been had he not made a withdrawal from the Annuity Savings Fund. ### Part H — Option Elections.

Sec. 1. Generally.

- (a) Prior to the first payment of any retirement allowance normally due, except a disability pension payable under Part B, Sections 2 and 2.1 of this article, a member may elect to receive his or her retirement allowance as a straight life retirement allowance payable throughout the member's life; or the member may elect to receive the actuarial equivalent, as of the date of the member's retirement, of his or her straight life retirement allowance in a reduced retirement allowance payable throughout the member's life and nominate a joint beneficiary, in accordance with the provisions of Options 1, 2 or 3 as follows:

(1) OPTION 1. Cash Refund Annuity. Under Option 1, a member will receive a reduced retirement allowance. If a member who selected Option 1 dies before full payment of the annuity has been received, the person or persons nominated by that member's written designation duly executed by the member and filed with the Board of Trustees shall receive in a single payment the difference between the present value of the member's annuity on the date the member retired, minus the amount of annuity payments already paid to the member. If there is no such designated person(s) surviving the retired deceased member, such difference, if any, shall be paid to the member's legal representative; or

(2) OPTION 2. Joint and Last Survivorship Retirement Allowance. Under Option 2, upon a member's death, payment of a reduced retirement allowance shall be continued through the life of and paid the person having an insurable interest in the member's life and nominated by written designation duly executed by the member and filed with the Board of Trustees prior to the first payment of the member's retirement allowance is due; or

(3) OPTION 3. Modified Joint and Last Survivorship Allowance. Under Option 3, upon a member's death, payment of one-half of the member's reduced retirement allowance shall be continued throughout the life of and paid to the person having an insurable interest in the member's life and nominated by that member's written designation duly executed by the member and filed with the Board of Trustees prior to the date the first payment of the retirement allowance is due.

- (b) This Section shall be applicable to those members receiving benefits on the effective date of this Section who are not covered by the arbitration decision regarding the Detroit Police Officers Association which became effective July 1, 1995, or the arbitration decision regarding the Detroit Police Lieutenant's and Sergeant's Association arbitration decision which became effective June 30, 1998.
- (c) This Section does not rescind any substantive rights of disability retirees from the Policemen and Firemen Retirement System who retired prior to the July 1, 1995 arbitration award, or the substantive rights of disability retirees from the Detroit Police Lieutenant's and Sergeant's Association who retired prior to the June 30, 1998 arbitration award.
- (d) This Section does not amend any computations used to determine benefits under Part B, Sections 2 and 2.1 of this Code, or result in an increase or decrease in such benefits.

- (e) Existing 1099R reporting procedures shall continue as currently in effect. A change in said procedures shall only occur as the result of an Internal Revenue Service ruling letter in favor of such change.

(Ord. 5-00, Sec. 54-2-14; Ord. 4-00, Sec. 54-2-14.)

Joint and Survivor Optional Forms of Payment. The Joint and Survivor Optional Forms of Payment provided under the retirement system shall be made available in either the standard form or the pop-up form, as follows:

(1) Standard Form. Under the Standard Form, the reduced retirement allowance shall be paid throughout the lifetime of the retiree.

(2) Pop-up Form. Under the Pop-up Form, the reduced allowance shall be paid throughout the lifetime of the retiree and the designated beneficiary. In the event of the death of the designated beneficiary during the lifetime of the retiree, the amount of the allowance shall be changed to the amount that would have been payable had the retiree elected the Straight Life Form of Payment.

In addition, a member may elect to have all or part of his accumulated contributions paid to the member in a single sum or used to purchase an annuity contract from an insurance company of his choice in which case, any annuity payments attributable to such amount under the retirement system shall not be payable from the annuity reserve fund but shall be the responsibility of the insurance company. A member's retirement allowance shall be reduced by the actuarial equivalent of the amount so paid or used.

Effective July 1, 1992, retirees of the Policemen and Firemen Retirement System shall be entitled to change their pension option from either Option 2 or Option 3 [or effective July 1, 2000, Option A<sup>83</sup>] to a straight life pension after they have commenced collection of the pension if the member's beneficiary predeceases the member. The actuarial cost of the change in benefit shall be borne by the member who seeks change in his option election. The pop-up option shall be based upon the investment return assumption as recommended by the Board's actuary and adopted by the Board of Trustees. [This provision shall be effective July 1, 1986.<sup>84</sup>] (Ord. No. 18-93, Sec. 47-12.6H-1(A).)

Sec. 2. Disposition of surplus benefits upon death of member and beneficiary.

In the event a member elected Option 2 or 3 provided for in section 1 of this part H and his designated joint beneficiary die before there has been paid in retirement allowances an aggregate amount equal to his accumulated contributions standing to his credit in the Annuity Savings Fund at the time of his retirement, the difference between his said accumulated contributions and the said aggregate amount of retirement allowances paid shall be paid to the said retired member's legal representative. (As amended September 1, 1964. In effect September 15, 1964.) (1918 Detroit City Charter, Title IX, Ch. VII, Art. VI, Part H, § 2.)

Part I — Pension Offset by Compensation Benefits.

Sec. 1. Generally.

Any amounts which may be paid under the provisions of any workmen's compensation, or pension, or similar law to a member, or to the dependents of a member on account of any disability or death, shall be offset against and payable out of funds provided by the City under the provisions of the system on account of the same disability or death. In case the present value of the total commuted benefits under said workmen's compensation, pension, or similar law, is less than the pension reserve on benefits otherwise payable from the funds provided by the City under this System, then the present value of the commuted payments shall be deducted from the pension reserve, and such benefits as may be provided by the pension reserve, so reduced, shall be payable under the provisions of the System. (1918 Detroit City Charter, Title IX, Ch. VII, Art. VI, Part I, § 1.)

Part J — Monthly Payments.

Unless otherwise herein provided, all benefits payable under this system shall be paid in equal monthly installments. (1918 Detroit City Charter, Title IX, Ch. VII, Art. VI, Part J.)

Part K — Re-Examination of Beneficiaries.

Sec. 1. Authority of Board.

- (a) Once each year during the first five years following retirement of a member on a disability pension or a disability retirement allowance and at least once in every three year period thereafter the Board of Trustees may, and upon his application, shall require any disability beneficiary, if he would not then be eligible for a service retirement allowance had he remained in active service; to undergo a medical examination: such examination shall be made by, or under the direction of the Medical Director at a place to be fixed by the Board of Trustees. Except when the examination is on the application of the beneficiary, if the beneficiary shall be required to travel more than twenty miles to reach such place, the Board of Trustees shall pay his reasonable traveling expenses. Should such disability beneficiary refuse to submit to such examination his disability pension or disability retirement allowance may be discontinued until he shall submit to such examination and should such refusal continue for one year, all his rights in and to a pension may be revoked by the Board of Trustees. If on medical examination of a beneficiary, the Medical Director reports, and the report is concurred in by the Board of Trustees, that the beneficiary is physically able and capable of resuming active duty as a Policeman or Fireman, he shall be restored to such duty and his disability pension or disability retirement allowance shall cease. Such member so restored to active duty shall be returned to duty in a rank or grade equivalent to or higher than the rank or grade in which he was serving at the time of his last retirement and his compensation shall be that provided for the rank or grade in which he is restored to service. It shall be the duty of the Commissioner of Police or the Board of Fire Commissioners to restore such member to duty forthwith.

- (b) If the Medical Director reports and certifies to the Board of Trustees that a disabled old plan member is engaged in a gainful occupation, paying more than the difference between his final compensation and his disability pension, or disability retirement allowance, and if the Board of Trustees concurs, the amount of his pension shall be reduced to an amount, which together with the amount earned by him, shall equal the amount of his final compensation. If the Medical Director reports and certifies to the Board of Trustees that a disabled new plan member is engaged in a gainful occupation, paying more than the difference between his base salary at the time of disability increased by two and twenty-five one hundredths percent (2.25%) for each full year from the date of disability and his disability pension, or disability retirement allowance, and if the Board of Trustees concurs, the amount of his pension shall be reduced to an amount, which together with the amount earned by him, shall equal the amount of his final compensation. Should his earnings be later changed, the amount of his pension may be further modified in like manner.
- (c) A disability beneficiary, who shall be reinstated to active service, as provided in this section, shall from the date of such restoration again become a member of the System; and he shall contribute to the System thereafter in the same manner and at the same rate as he paid prior to his disability retirement. Any prior service and membership service on the basis of which his services were computed at the time of his retirement shall be restored to full force and effect, and he shall be given service credit for the period of time he was in retirement due to such disability, except in the case of nonservice connected disability.

Part L — Medical Board of Review

As to all applications under this Article, the medical findings of the Medical Board of Review shall be binding on the Board of Trustees. (1918 Detroit City Charter, Title IX, Ch. VII, Art. VI, Part L.)

Part M — Benefit Limitations

The Defined Benefit Plan of the Retirement System is subject to Section 415 of the Internal Revenue Code. The Retirement System shall be administered, operated and limited consistent with all applicable Sections of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC) including Section 415, as described in Article IX, Section 8.

Part N — Withdrawal of Accumulated Contributions

Sec. 1. Member With Twenty or Twenty-Five Years of Service.

Effective July 1, 1982, a member with twenty-five years or more of creditable service (effective as of March 8, 2007, twenty years for DPOA members and fire equivalents) shall be allowed to withdraw either a partial or the full amount of his accumulated contributions, one time only, whether or not the member retires. A member shall make such election prior to the receipt of his first retirement benefit check.

Sec. 2. Disabled Member

A member who is receiving disability benefits (duty or non-duty) from the System and who has twenty-five years (effective as of March 8, 2007, twenty years for DPOA members and fire equivalents) or more of creditable service shall have the right to withdraw the full amount of his accumulated contributions. If such member withdraws his accumulated contributions, his retirement benefit shall be actuarially reduced to reflect such withdrawal.

(a) Optional Annuity Withdrawal

1. [Effective for those retiring on or after July 1, 1974;<sup>86</sup>] a member shall have the right to elect to receive on the effective date of his service retirement a partial or total refund of his accumulated contributions. If a member makes such an election, an annuity payable under any retirement allowance or reduced retirement allowance shall be reduced proportionally. If the total accumulated contributions are withdrawn, no annuity shall be payable.

The limitation of fifteen twenty-seconds of the maximum earnable compensation of a patrolman and fireman continues in effect. For purposes of determining the fifteen twenty-seconds limitation, a computation based on the annuity which is an actuarial equivalent of the accumulated contributions standing to a member's credit in the Annuity Savings Fund prior to any partial or total refund will be used.

[On or after July 1, 1974, members or former members who are entitled to begin to receive the “40 & 8” benefit will be entitled to the annuity refund withdrawal option.

Said option shall only apply to the balance of accumulated contributions, if any, remaining in applicable former member’s credit.

In any case of doubt, the Board of Trustees shall decide whether a member or beneficiary is entitled to an annuity refund withdrawal option.<sup>88</sup>]

2. In addition to the provisions of the current CET or collective bargaining agreement, pension charter and ordinance provisions and all other pension rights of members, a member shall have the right on or after the effective date of his becoming eligible for a full service retirement allowance (members who have twenty-five (25) years of creditable service) to elect to receive a partial or total refund of his accumulated contributions to the Annuity Savings Fund. If a member makes such an election, an annuity payable under any retirement allowance or reduced retirement allowance shall be reduced proportionally. If the total accumulated contributions are withdrawn, no annuity shall be payable.

If a member makes such an election, the retirement allowance shall be reduced to reflect the value of the annuity withdrawn. The amount of the annuity at the time of such election shall be the amount used at the time of retirement for purposes of computing the retirement allowance.

ARTICLE VII.

Method of Financing.

The funds of the retirement system shall be the Annuity Savings Fund, Annuity Reserve Fund, Pension Accumulation Fund, Pension Reserve Fund and the Survivors Benefit Fund. (As amended September 1, 1964. In effect September 15, 1964. As amended November 5, 1968. In effect January 1, 1969.) (1918 Detroit City Charter, Title IX, Ch. VII, Art. VII.)

Sec. 1. Annuity Savings Fund.

- (a) The Annuity Savings Fund shall be the fund in which shall be accumulated at regular interest, the contributions deducted from compensation of members to provide for their annuities. The contributions of a member as defined in article IV, section 1 (a), (b) or (c) shall be five percent of a member's compensation until the member has acquired twenty-five years of creditable service. The contribution of a member as defined in article IV, section 1(d) shall be five per cent of his compensation until he has acquired at least twenty-five years of creditable service (effective as of March 8, 2007, twenty years for DPOA members and fire equivalents) and attained age fifty-five. No member shall have the option of choosing to receive the compensation required to be contributed hereunder directly instead of having such amounts paid by the City to the Annuity Savings Fund.
- (b) The officer or officers responsible for making up the payroll shall cause the contributions provided for in paragraph (a) above to be deducted from the compensation of each member on each and every payroll, for each and every payroll period, from the date of his entrance in the system to the date he ceases to be a member.
- (c) The deductions provided for herein shall be made notwithstanding that the minimum compensation provided by law for any member shall be reduced thereby. Every member shall be deemed to consent and agree to the deductions made and provided for herein, and payment of his salary or compensation, less said deduction, shall be a full and complete discharge and acquittance of all claims and demands whatsoever for the services rendered by such person during the period covered by such payments, except as to the benefits provided under this chapter. The amounts to be deducted shall be deducted by the city treasurer and when deducted shall be paid into the Annuity Savings Fund and shall be credited to the individual account of the member from whose compensation said deduction was made.
- (d) If, under the provisions of this chapter, any person shall withdraw or be paid any part or all of his accumulated contributions and shall thereafter again become a member, he shall, in addition to the contributions provided for in paragraph (a) above, redeposit in the Annuity Savings Fund, by an increased rate of contribution to be determined by the board of trustees, or by a single payment, such amount that his accumulated contributions at the date of his eligibility for retirement will be the same amount it would have been had no withdrawal or payment been made therefrom.

- (e) Except as is otherwise provided in this chapter, upon the death or retirement of a member, his accumulated contributions shall be transferred from the Annuity Savings Fund to the Annuity Reserve Fund. (As amended September 1, 1964. In effect September 15, 1964. As amended November 5, 1968. In effect January 1, 1969.)

Sec. 2. Annuity Reserve Fund.

The Annuity Reserve Fund shall be the fund from which shall be paid all annuities payable as provided in this chapter, except annuities which are payable from the Survivors Benefit Fund. Should a disability beneficiary be restored to active service, his annuity reserve at the time shall be transferred from the Annuity Reserve Fund to the Annuity Savings Fund and credited to his individual account therein. (As amended September 1, 1964. In effect September 15, 1964.) (1918 Detroit City Charter, Title IX, Ch. VII, Art. VII, § 2.)

Sec. 3. Alternative Financing Method.

Except as provided regarding the survivors benefit fund, the pension accumulation fund shall be the fund in which shall be accumulated reserves for the pensions and other benefits payable from contributions made by the city, and from which transfers shall be made as provided in this section.

- (a) Accrued Liability Fund. Pursuant to Ordinance No. 05-05, which authorizes the creation of the Detroit Police and Fire Retirement System Service Corporation, the City has entered into a transaction ("the Pension Funding Transaction") to obtain funds as an alternative to those available through the traditional funding mechanism described in Section 4. The proceeds generated by the Pension Funding Transaction (or any Additional Pension Funding Transaction, as described below) that will be deposited into the System will be termed the "Funding Proceeds." The Funding Proceeds will be deposited into a new Fund in the System to be called the Accrued Liability Fund. The purpose of the Funding Proceeds will be to fund all or part of the heretofore unfunded accrued liabilities ("UAAL") of the System, as determined as of a date certain, i.e., the "Determination Date," pursuant to the System's actuarial valuation as of that date. The Funding Proceeds will be assets of the System and will be applied, together with all other assets of the System, to fund the System's obligation to pay accrued benefits.

This Accrued Liability Fund shall contain only the Funding Proceeds of the Pension Funding Transaction, and any earnings thereon. Should the City, by future ordinance, choose to raise additional monies by additional pension funding transactions (“Additional Pension Funding Transactions”) in order to fund the then existing UAAL of the System as of a future date certain, a new and separate Accrued Liability Fund shall be created within the System to contain the proceeds, and any earnings thereon, of any Additional Pension Funding Transactions, and a new Accrued Liability Fund will be created for each successive Additional Pension Funding Transaction entered into by the City, if any. The treatment of any Additional Accrued Liability Funds shall be the same as described below.

- (b) The Funding Proceeds deposited in the applicable Accrued Liability Fund will be subject to the oversight and investment direction of the Board of Trustees of the Police and Fire Retirement System, consistent with the Board’s obligations under Article VIII (Management of Funds). The Board will invest the Funding Proceeds as part of the System’s overall assets, and will not differentiate the Funding Proceeds from other System assets for investment purposes.
- (c) All Interest, dividends and other income derived from the investment of the Funding Proceeds shall be credited annually to the Accrued Liability Fund on a total System rate of return basis, determined by crediting the applicable Accrued Liability Fund with the investment return experienced by the System in total for all of its investments for the year. This shall be done by first determining the rate of return for the total assets of the System for the fiscal year, and then crediting back to each Accrued Liability Fund an amount that is determined by multiplying that rate of return times the balance in the Accrued Liability Fund as of the beginning of the fiscal year.

The interest, dividends and other income derived from the investment of the Funding Proceeds deposited in any Accrued Liability Fund will not be credited to any Funds other than the Pension Accumulation Fund. Moreover, because the Accrued Liability Fund has been impressed with a certain and definite purpose, it shall be accounted for separately as provided for in Section 8, Maintenance of Reserves.

- (d) Upon the creation of an Accrued Liability Fund and the deposit of the Funding Proceeds into the applicable Accrued Liability Fund, there shall be established a schedule for transferring assets of the applicable Accrued Liability Fund by crediting them to the Pension Accumulation Fund on an annual basis over the period required to fully amortize the System’s UAAL determined as of the applicable Determination Date.

The System’s UAAL determined as of the Determination Date shall be the “Determined Accrued Liability.” The period over which the Determined

Accrued Liability is to be fully amortized, as specified in the System's actuarial valuation as of the applicable Determination Date, is the "Amortizing Period." The amount to be transferred each fiscal year to the Pension Accumulation Fund from the Accrued Liability Fund is the "Scheduled Amortizing Amount."

With respect to the Pension Funding Transaction and any Additional Pension Funding Transactions, the Scheduled Amortizing Amount will equal a level percentage of the City's payroll for each fiscal year. The level percentage of the City payroll that will be used to determine the Scheduled Amortizing Amount shall be a level percentage that is equal to the percentage that is specified in the actuarial valuation as of the applicable Determination Date as being the percentage of City's annual payroll required to amortize the Determined Accrued Liability over the Amortizing Period, multiplied by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction shall be the amount of the applicable Funding Proceeds up to the full amount of the Determined Accrued Liability as of the Determination Date. The denominator of the fraction shall be the System's Determined Accrued Liability on that date.

Commentary: By way of example only, the Scheduled Amortizing Amount would be determined as follows: (1) the Determination Date is June 30, 2004, (2) the Funding Proceeds are deposited into the System during the 2004-2005 Fiscal Year, (3) the June 30, 2004 actuarial valuation produced a UAAL of $600 million, (4) the City's contribution required to amortize that UAAL is 21% of the City's payroll, and (5) the Funding Proceeds are $400 million, then the Scheduled Amortizing Amount for Fiscal Year 2005-06 would be 21% times ($400 million/$600 million) times the City's payroll for 2005-2006. This would be 14% times the City's payroll for that fiscal year.

With respect to the Pension Funding Transaction or any Additional Pension Funding Transactions, where the applicable Determination Date occurs after the date of the actuarial valuation that determines the City's contribution for the fiscal year during which the applicable Funding Proceeds are deposited into the System, for each fiscal year, there will be transferred from the applicable Accrued Liability Fund to the Pension Accumulation Fund, an amount that is specified in such actuarial valuation as being the City's required contribution needed to amortize the System's UAAL as of the date of such actuarial valuation, multiplied by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction shall be the amount of the applicable Funding Proceeds up to the full amount of the UAAL specified in such actuarial valuation, and the denominator of the fraction shall be the System's total UAAL as set forth in that same actuarial valuation.

Commentary: By way of example only, the Scheduled Amortizing Amount in this case would be determined as follows: (1) the Determination Date is June 30, 2004, (2) the Funding Proceeds had been deposited into the System during the 2004-2005 Fiscal Year, (3) the June 30, 2003 actuarial valuation produced a UAAL of $516 million, (4) the City's contribution required to amortize that UAAL is 19.07% of the City's payroll and (5) the Funding Proceeds are $400 million, then the Scheduled Amortizing Amount for Fiscal Year 2004-2005 would be 19.07% times ($400 million/$516 million) times the City's payroll for 2004-2005. This would be 14.77% times the City's payroll for that fiscal year.

Should the Board at some future time adopt a different period for amortizing the System's UAAL (a "Revised Amortizing Period"), the Scheduled Amortizing Amount for ensuing years may change. If the Revised Amortizing Period provides for a longer period during which to amortize the System's UAAL (i.e., an "Extended Amortizing Period"), then the Amortizing Period initially used to amortize the applicable Determined Accrued Liability will also be revised. There will then be established a new schedule for amortizing the Determined Accrued Liability and the Scheduled Amortizing Amount will be based on the level percentage of the City's payroll being equal to what it would be if the then unamortized balance of the Determined Accrued Liability were re-amortized over the Extended Amortizing Period. If the Revised Amortizing Period is changed so that the System's UAAL is to be amortized over a shorter period than the one initially used to amortize the applicable Determined Accrued Liability, then that Scheduled Amortizing Amount will not be changed.

- (e) Each year, when the City is required to make its annual contribution to the System — the amount of which is to be determined pursuant to Section 4 and the timing of which is set forth in Section 4(b) — the Board will transfer the Scheduled Amortizing Amount from the Accrued Liability Fund and credit it to the Pension Accumulation Fund; provided, however, that this transfer cannot occur unless and until the Board has been notified pursuant to the Pension Funding Transaction, or any Additional Pension Funding Transaction, that the City is current on the service payments required under the applicable Pension Funding Transaction.
- (f) Should the Scheduled Amortizing Amount not be available for transfer because of the City's failure to make a timely service payment as required by the applicable Pension Funding Transaction, the Board will take any permitted action, including the filing of a civil action against the City, as contemplated in Article VIII, Section 7, to effectuate the transfer of the Scheduled Amortizing Amount.

Should the City's Finance Director certify to the Board by a duly attested notice that the City has no available funds to make the service payments required by the applicable Pension Funding Transaction, in that specific circumstance, the Board shall be authorized to transfer the Scheduled

Amortizing Amount for that fiscal year to the Pension Accumulation Fund, absent the notice requirement set forth in Section 3(e).

- (g) Since the Funding Proceeds are to be considered assets of the System and are intended to fund the applicable Determined Accrued Liability, the City shall be required to make only a proportional contribution for any fiscal year ending after the date the Funding Proceeds are deposited into the applicable Accrued Liability Fund, but prior to a fiscal year whose corresponding actuarial valuation includes the Funding Proceeds in the System's total assets. The proportional contribution to fund the System's then existing UAAL, if any, shall be the level percentage of the City's payroll specified in the actuarial valuation for the applicable fiscal year as the City's required contribution needed to amortize the System's then existing UAAL, multiplied by a fraction. The numerator of the fraction shall be the amount of the System's total UAAL as determined in such actuarial valuation minus the amount of the applicable Funding Proceeds, but not less than zero. The denominator of the fraction shall be the amount of the System's total UAAL in such valuation. Actuarial valuations following the deposit of the applicable Funding Proceeds into the System shall include the Funding Proceeds in the total assets of the System to determine any ensuing UAAL of the System, and the Funding Proceeds shall offset any such actuarial liability accordingly.

Commentary: By way of example, the following indicates how the procedure describe above would operate. Assume the following facts — (1) the Determination Date was June 30, 2004, (2) the June 30, 2004 actuarial valuation produced a UAAL of $600 million and a contribution toward the UAAL of 21% of the City's payroll, (3) the Funding Proceeds were $400 million and were deposited in the System during the 2004-2005 Fiscal Year, (4) the first actuarial valuation which included the Funding Proceeds in the System's assets was as of June 30, 2005 and (5) the June 30, 2003 valuation which determines the City's required contribution for fiscal 2004- 05 produced a total UAAL of $516 million and a contribution toward that UAAL of 19.07% of the City's payroll. Then:

- The fiscal year ending after the date of deposit would be the year ending June 30, 2005, or the 2004-2005 Fiscal Year
- The first fiscal year whose corresponding valuation reflected the Funding Proceeds in its assets would be the 2006- 2007 year.
- Thus, the City's required UAAL. contribution for fiscal 2004-2005 would be 19.07% of the payroll times ($516 million — $400 million) divided by $516 million, or 4.3% of payroll. The City's required UAAL contribution for fiscal 2005-06 would be 21% of payroll times ($800 million — $400 million) divided by $600 million, or 7% of the City's payroll.

- Beginning with the Fiscal Year 2006- 2007, whose contribution is determined by the June 30, 2005 actuarial valuation, the City's required UAAL contribution would be the percentage of payroll developed in the corresponding actuarial valuation that included the Funding Proceeds as being part of the System's assets.

Any contribution the City has made to the System for any fiscal year prior to the date the Funding Proceeds from any applicable Pension Funding Transaction have become assets of the System. Where the amount of the contribution is equal to or less than the normal cost of that fiscal year it shall be deemed to have been made in satisfaction of the City's obligation to contribute an amount equal to the System's normal cost for that fiscal year, and not as payment towards any portion of its obligation to pay an amortized portion of the System's UAAL due in that fiscal year. The term "normal cost" as used in this Section 3(g), shall be given its generally accepted actuarial meaning.

To the extent the City's contribution for that fiscal year exceeds its required contribution for the normal cost owed in that fiscal year, its excess contributions shall be deemed as having been made for that immediately following fiscal year, and shall offset the City's normal cost contribution obligation for that immediately following fiscal year.

Commentary: By way of example, the following indicates how the procedure described in the preceding paragraphs would operate. Assuming the same facts as in the prior Commentary, and the City contributed $40 million for the 2004-2005 Fiscal Year and the total normal cost for that year was $40 million:

- The entire $40 million would be deemed as payment of the required normal cost for 2004-2005, and
- No part of the $40 million contribution would be deemed payment toward UAAL, as no UAAL contribution is required for that year.

Now assume that the facts remain the same, but that the City had contributed a total of $45 million for 2004-2005:

- The City's total required contribution for 2004-2005 would be deemed paid in full, and
- $5 million, i.e., $45 million minus $40 million, would be deemed prepayment of the City's required normal cost for 2005-2006 and its required normal cost contribution for 2005-2006 would be reduced accordingly.

- (h) The System's auditor shall verify (1) the assets credited to the Pension Accumulation Fund and any Accrued Liability Fund at the beginning and end of each fiscal year, (2) that each Fund had been properly credited, and (3) that transfers from the Accrued Liability Fund(s) to the Pension Accumulation Fund had occurred as intended, under this Section 3.

- (i) Should the System's auditor certify that the total assets then remaining in the System, not including the assets of any Accrued Liability Fund, together are insufficient to pay the benefits then currently due under the System, the System's auditor will then determine and certify the minimum amount needed to fund the benefits then due and owing (the "Minimum Necessary Amount"). In this limited circumstance, the Board is authorized to transfer the Minimum Necessary Amount from the Accrued Liability Fund to the Pension Accumulation Fund absent the notification required pursuant to Section 3(e).

At the end of the Amortizing Period, or the end of the Extended Amortizing Period, if applicable, should there be any moneys that remain credited to the Accrued Liability Fund, the Board may transfer, at its discretion, any such remaining funds, in whole or in part, by crediting them to the Pension Accumulation Fund. The Pension Accumulation Fund is the only Fund into which the remaining moneys credited to the Accrued Liability Fund may be transferred.

(Ord. No. 04-05, Sec. 54-43-4.)

Sec. 4. Contributions to and payments from pension accumulation fund.

Contributions to and payments from the pension accumulation fund shall be made as follows:

- (a) Upon the basis of such assumptions as to future financial experiences as the board of trustees shall from time to time adopt, the actuary shall annually compute the city's contribution, expressed as a percent of active member contributions, to provide the pension reserves covering the pensions or other city-financed benefits to which members might be entitled or which might be payable at the time of their discontinuances of city employment; provided, such contribution percents shall not be less than amounts which, expressed as percents of active member compensations, will remain level from generation to generation of Detroit citizens. Upon the retirement or death of a member, the pension reserve for any benefits payable on his behalf shall be transferred from the pension accumulation fund to the pension reserve fund, to the extent of there being assets in the pension accumulation fund.
- (b) The board of trustees shall annually ascertain and report to the mayor and the council the amount of contributions due the retirement system by the city, and the council shall appropriate and the city shall pay such contributions to the retirement system during the ensuing fiscal year.

When paid, such contributions shall be credited to the pension accumulation fund.

(Ord. No. 04-05, Sec. 54-43-5; Ord. No. 76-H, Sec. 54-43-4.)

Sec. 5. Retiree payments from Pension Reserve Fund; reinstatement of disability retirees to active service.

Except as to the survivor's benefit fund, the pension reserve fund shall be the fund from which shall be paid pensions on account of members. Should a disability retiree be reinstated to active service, the member's pension reserve, at that time, shall be transferred from the pension reserve fund to the pension accumulation fund. (Ord. No. 04-05, Sec. 54-43-6; Ord. No. 76-H, Sec. 54-43-5.)

Sec. 6. Expense Fund.

The Expense Fund shall be the fund to which shall be credited all money provided by the City to pay the administration expenses of the system, and from which shall be paid all the expenses necessary in connection with the administration and operation of the System. (1918 Detroit City Charter, Title IX, Ch. VII, Art. VII, § 5.)

Sec. 7. Appropriations.

- (a) The Board of Trustees shall certify the amount of the appropriation necessary to pay to the various funds of the System the amounts payable by the City as enumerated in this amendment, according to legal budget procedure.
- (b) To cover the requirements of the System temporarily, such amounts as shall be necessary to cover the needs of the System shall be paid into the Pension Accumulation Fund and the Expense Fund by special appropriations or transfers to the System; provided, however that no transfers can be made from the accrued liability fund other than the annual transfer of the scheduled amortizing amount, or transfers under special circumstances pursuant to Sections 3(f) and 3(I).

(Ord. No. 04-05, Sec. 54-43-7; 1918 Detroit City Charter, Title IX, Ch. VII, Art. VII, § 6.)

Sec. 8. Maintenance of reserves.

The maintenance of the annuity reserves in the Annuity Reserve Fund and the pension reserves in the Pension Reserve Fund are hereby made obligations of the Pension Accumulation Fund. All income, interest, and dividends derived from deposits and investments authorized by this ordinance, excluding any amounts credited to the Accrued Liability Fund, which are not required for the allowance of interest to the funds of the System as provided herein, shall be credited to the Pension Accumulation Fund. The moneys credited to the Accrued Liability Fund shall be credited to the Pension Accumulation Fund only to the extent of the annual transfer of the Scheduled Amortizing Amount or the special circumstance transfers authorized pursuant to

Sections 3(f) and 3(i). Any contributions by the City to the System from any Fund impressed by law with a certain and definite purpose shall be accounted for separately. (Ord. No. 04-05, Sec. 54-43-8; 1918 Detroit City Charter, Title IX, Ch. VII, Art. VII, § 7.)

Sec. 9. Survivors Benefit Fund.

- (a) The Survivors Benefit Fund shall be the fund in which shall be accumulated, at regular interest, the reserves for survivors benefits provided for in article VI, part E, section 2, hereof, and from which such benefits shall be paid.
- (b) After June 30, 1965 and prior to July 1, 1986, each member shall contribute to the Survivors Benefit Fund one per cent of his compensation paid by the city until he has acquired twenty-five years of creditable service. The officer or officers responsible for making up the payroll shall cause the said contributions to be deducted from the member's compensation, on each and every payroll, for each and every payroll period so long as he remains a member and has not acquired twenty-five years of creditable service. Each and every member shall be deemed to consent and agree to the said deductions. Said contributions, when deducted, shall be credited to the Survivors Benefit Fund and shall in no case become a part of the said member's accumulated contributions, nor be subject to refund.
- (c) Each member who retires after June 30, 1965, under part B, section 1 of article VI shall, prior to July 1, 1986, contribute to the Survivors Benefit Fund one per cent of his final compensation as defined until he would have had a total of twenty-five years of creditable service had he continued in active service. The officer or officers responsible for making up the retirement roll shall cause the said contribution to be deducted from the pension of each such retired member on each and every retirement roll, for each and every retirement roll period, so long as he is receiving a pension under part B, section 2(a) of article VI. Each and every such retired member who is receiving a pension under part B, section 2(a) of article VI shall be deemed to consent and agree to said deductions. Said contributions, when deducted, shall be credited to the Survivors Benefit Fund and shall in no case become a part of said member's accumulated contributions, nor be subject to refund.

Sec. 10. Computation of annuity and pension reserve liabilities for members, retirants and beneficiaries.

In computing the annuity and pension reserve liabilities for members, retirants and beneficiaries, the board of trustees shall cause the following annual decrement probabilities, salary factors and interest assumption to be used.

- (a) The annual decrement probabilities and salary factors to be used in evaluating the annuity and pension liabilities for members shall be as shown in Tables 1 and 2 hereinafter set forth.
- (b) The total of active member annual compensations shall be assumed to increase three percent per annum, compounded annually.

Sec. 11. Determination of city's annual contribution — Disability pension liabilities.

The city's annual contribution, expressed as a percent of active member compensations, to finance disability pensions shall be determined by dividing the average of the pension reserve liabilities for disability retirements incurred, during the three fiscal years ending with the date of the valuation by one percent of the active members' annual compensation used in the valuation. (Ord. No. 77-H, Sec. 54-2-3; Ord. No. 462-F, Sec. 3.)

Sec. 12. Determination of city's annual contribution — Death pension liabilities.

The city's annual contribution, expressed as a percent of active member compensations, to finance death-in-service pensions shall be determined by dividing the average of the pension, reserve liabilities for death-in-service claims incurred during the three fiscal years ending with the date of the valuation by one percent of the active member's annual compensations used in the valuation. (Ord. No. 77-H, Sec. 54-2-4; Ord. No. 462-F, Sec. 4.)

Sec. 13. Determination of city's annual contribution — Actuarial evaluation of annuity and pension reserve liabilities.

The annuity and pension reserve liabilities for members, retirants and beneficiaries shall be actuarially evaluated as set forth in this article. (Ord. No. 77-H, Sec. 54-2-5.)

Sec. 14. Determination of city's annual contribution — Service pension liabilities.

- (a) The service pension liabilities for members shall be determined using the entry age-normal cost method of actuarial valuation.
- (b) The city's annual contribution, expressed as a percent of active member compensations, to finance the prospective service pension liabilities shall be determined by dividing the total of the individual annual normal costs of the active members by one percent (1%) of the active members' annual compensations used in the valuation.
- (c) The city's annual contribution, expressed as a percent of active member compensations, to finance any unfunded accrued service pension liabilities, including instances in which assets exceed liabilities, shall be determined by dividing such unfunded accrued service pension liabilities by one percent (1%) of the present value of future compensations payable during a period of future years. Such period of future years shall be thirty

(30) years for the actuarial valuation as of June 30, 1974, decreasing one (1) year at each subsequent June 30th until a twenty (20) year period is reached, which twenty (20) year period shall be used in each subsequent actuarial valuation until June 30th, 2004 when the period shall again be thirty (30) years.

(Ord. No. 39-05, Sec. 54-43-3; Ord. No. 77-H, Sec. 54-2-6; Ord. No. 462-F, Secs. 5, 6.)

Sec. 15. Board of trustees to compute city's annual contribution.

Based upon the provisions of this article, including any amendments, the board of trustees shall compute the city's annual contributions, expressed as a percent of active member compensations, to the retirement system for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1975, using actuarial valuation data as June 30, 1974, and for each subsequent fiscal year using actuarial valuation data as of the June 30th date which date is a year and a day before the first day of such fiscal year. The board shall report to the mayor and to the city council the contribution percents so computed, and such contribution percents shall be used in determining the contribution dollars to be appropriated by the city council and paid to the retirement system. For each fiscal year beginning July 1, 1975 and each fiscal year thereafter, such contribution dollars shall be determined by multiplying the applicable contribution percent for such fiscal year by the member compensations paid for such fiscal year; provided for the one fiscal year beginning July 1, 1975 and ending June 30, 1976 such member compensations so used shall not exceed 106.09 percent of the active members' annual compensations used in the actuarial valuation determining such contribution percent. (Ord. No. 77-H, Sec. 54-2-7; Ord. No. 462-F, Sec. 8.)

Sec. 16. Repealed. (Ordinance No. 77-H, Sec. 54-2-8).

Sec. 17. Refunds for certain members.

Effective July 1, 1974, a member of the policemen and firemen retirement system who holds the rank of police inspector and above and who is not covered by a collective bargaining agreement shall, notwithstanding any other pension provisions to the contrary, have the right to elect to receive on the effective date of his service retirement a partial or total refund of his accumulated contributions. Effective as of March 8, 2007, a DPOA and fire equivalent retiree who elects not to withdraw his accumulated contributions as of the effective date of his service retirement shall have the option of receiving a quarterly payment of interest credited to his accumulated contributions or to receive periodic withdrawals of the contributions such retiree made to the plan. If a member makes such an election, an annuity payable under any retirement allowance or reduced retirement allowance shall be reduced proportionately. If the total accumulated contributions are withdrawn no annuity shall be payable. The limitations of fifteen twenty-seconds of the maximum earnable compensation of a patrolman and fireman continues in effect. For purposes of determining the fifteen twenty-seconds limitation, a computation based on the annuity which is an actuarial equivalent of the accumulated contributions standing to an above-defined member's credit in the annuity savings fund prior to any partial or total refund will be used. This provision affords the members as defined above a similar option available to members of the general retirement system pursuant to 1973 Charter Amendment K. No other benefits or amounts payable pursuant to other provisions of the policemen and firemen retirement system are increased by this section. The mechanical steps involved in computing the service retirement allowance of a member as defined above shall be determined by the board of trustees of the policemen and firemen retirement system subject to approval of the law department. (Ord. No. 29-H, § 1; Sec. 54-2-9.)

A beneficiary so recalled shall serve in the rank at which he retired, or a higher rank, and shall receive the pay of such rank without deduction. On subsequent separation from active duty, such beneficiary shall resume the beneficiary status held by him prior to such recall. (1918 Detroit City Charter, Title IX, Ch. VII, Art. IX, § 4.)

Sec. 5. Limitation of other statutes.

No other provision of law, Charter or Ordinance, which provides wholly or partly at the expense of the City for pensions or retirement benefits for Policemen or Firemen, their widows, or other dependents, shall apply to members or beneficiaries of the System established by this amendment, their widows, or other dependents.

calendar year that he attains the age of 70-1/2, or (ii) April 1 of the calendar year he retires. Distributions will be made in accordance with this Section and Regulations 1.401(a)(9)-2 through 1.401(a)(9)-9. Pursuant to Code Section 401(a)(9)(H), Annuity Savings Fund minimum required contributions otherwise required for 2009 ("2009 RMDs") will not be distributed for 2009 unless the member so chooses to receive them and 2009 RMDs will be treated as eligible rollover distributions.

Sec. 6. Tax Qualified Plan.

The Retirement System is intended and has been administered to be a qualified pension plan under § 401 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended ("IRC" or "Code"), or successor provisions of law, including the Tax Reform Act of 1986 (TRA '86); the Technical and Miscellaneous Revenue Act of 1988 (TAMRA); the Unemployment Compensation Amendments of 1992 (UCA); the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Acts (OBRA); the Uniformed Service Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994 (USERRA); the Uruguay Round Agreements Act of 1994 (GATT); the Small Business Job Protection Act of 1996 (SBJPA '96); the Taxpayer Relief Act of 1997 (TRA '97); the Internal Revenue Service Restructuring and Reform Act of 1998 (RRA '98); the Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001 (EGTRRA), and other applicable laws, regulations and administrative authority. The Retirement System is a governmental plan under IRC § 414(d) and is administered for the exclusive benefit of the plan's participants and their beneficiaries. The Retirement System trust is an exempt organization under IRC §501. All applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code are incorporated by herein by reference and such IRC provisions supercede any contrary provisions of the Retirement System.

Sec. 7. Definition of Compensation

Compensation will mean compensation as that term is defined in Article II, Sections 14 and 15 of the Plan. For any self-employed individual covered under the Plan, compensation will mean earned income. Compensation shall include only the compensation which is actually paid to the participant during the determination period. The determination period shall be the plan year.

Notwithstanding the above, compensation shall not include any amount which is contributed by the employer pursuant to a salary reduction agreement and which is not includible in the gross income of the employee under sections 125, 402(e)(3), 402(h) or 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The term compensation means the compensation of the member (participant) from the employer for the year consistent with Article II, Sections 14 and 15. The term "compensation" shall include any elective deferral (as defined in IRC Section 402(g)(3)) and any amount which is contributed or deferred by the employer at the election of the employee and which is not includible in the gross income of the employee by reason of IRC Sections 125, 132(f)(4), or 457.

For purposes of the Internal Revenue Code Section 415 limits, Compensation is defined pursuant to IRC Section 415(c)(3), by incorporating by reference the definition of Compensation pursuant to Treas. Reg. 1.415(c)-2. (Note: Notwithstanding that IRC 415(c)(3) applies only to defined contribution plans, this language is added to the defined benefit plan to satisfy the requirements of the Internal Revenue Service.)

Sec. 8. Limitation of Compensation

The Plan is subject to IRC 401(a)(17) and applicable regulations, as amended which currently provide:

Compensation shall not include any amount which is contributed by the employer pursuant to a salary reduction agreement and which is not includible in the gross income of the employee under sections 125, 402(e)(3), 402(h) or 403(b) or other applicable sections of the Internal Revenue Code.

For years beginning on or after January 1, 1989, and before January 1, 1994, the annual compensation of each participant taken into account for determining all benefits provided under the plan for any plan year shall not exceed $200,000. This limitation shall be adjusted by the Secretary at the same time and in the same manner as under section 415(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, except that the dollar increase in effect on January 1 of any calendar year is effective for plan years beginning in such calendar year and the first adjustment to the $200,000 limitation is effective on January 1, 1990.

For years beginning on or after January 1, 1994, the annual compensation limit of each participant taken into account for determining all benefits provided under the plan for any determination period shall not exceed $150,000, as adjusted for the cost-of-living in accordance with section 401(a)(17)(B) of the Internal Revenue Code. The cost-of-living adjustment in effect for a calendar year applies to any determination period beginning in such calendar year.

If a determination period consists of fewer than 12 months, the annual compensation limit is an amount equal to the otherwise applicable annual compensation limit multiplied by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of months in the short determination period, and the denominator of which is 12.

If compensation for any prior determination period is taken into account in determining a participant's benefits for the current plan year, the compensation for such prior determination period is subject to the applicable annual compensation limit in effect for that prior period. For this purpose, in determining benefits in plan years beginning on or after January 1, 1989, the annual compensation limit in effect for determination periods beginning before that date is $200,000. In addition, in determining benefits in plan years beginning on or after January 1, 1994, the annual compensation limit in effect for determination periods beginning before that date is $150,000.

For year beginning on and after July 1, 2001, the annual compensation of a member taken into account for determining benefits for any plan year shall not exceed $200,000.00.

Sec. 9. Limitation of Benefits.

The amount of annual benefits and contributions that is credited a member in any given year shall be subject to the following limitations:

- (a) Defined Benefit Plans. The maximum permissible Annual Pension Benefit with respect to any member shall be in accordance with IRC §415(b) which provides that such Annual Pension Benefit shall not exceed $90,000, as adjusted for inflation, which for 2002 is $160,000 (the “Dollar Limit”).

- (1) Special Dollar Limitations. If the benefit is payable prior to age 62, the dollar limitation shall be reduced to the actuarial equivalent of a benefit commencing at age 62. In the case of any full-time police or fire employee who is a Qualified Participant as defined in IRC §415(b)(2)(G), there is no reduction in the dollar limitation. If the benefit is not payable until after age 65, the dollar limitation shall be increased to the actuarial equivalent of a benefit commencing at age 65.

- (2) In the case of an employee who has less than ten (10) years of participation in the Plan, the Dollar Limitation shall be reduced 1/10 for each year of participation in accordance with IRC §415(b)(5).

- (b) Defined Contribution Plans.

- (1) For limitation years beginning after December 31, 1986 the term “annual addition” means, for purposes of this section the sum, credited to a participant’s account for any limitation year, of:

- a. Employer contributions;
    - b. Employee contributions; and
    - c. Forfeitures.

- (2) Annual additions that may be contributed or allocated to a participant’s account for a limitation year will not exceed the lesser of:

- a. 100% percent of participant’s compensation, within the meaning of IRC §415(c)(3), or

- b. $40,000, as adjusted for increases in the cost of living pursuant to IRC §415(d).

Sec. 10. Direct Rollovers.

The defined benefit plan does not currently provide for lump sum payments. However, to the extent lump sum payments are allowed, the plan will meet the following requirements regarding IRC 401(a)(31).

- (a) Direct Rollovers. This section applies to distributions made on or after January 1, 1993. Notwithstanding any provision of the plan to the contrary that would otherwise limit a distributee's election under this part, a distributee may elect, at the time and in the manner prescribed by the plan administrator, to have any portion of an eligible rollover distribution that is equal to at least $500 paid directly to an eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee in a direct rollover.
- (b) Eligible rollover distribution: An eligible rollover distribution is any distribution of all or any portion of the balance to the credit of the distributee, except that an eligible rollover distribution does not include: any distribution that is one of a series of substantially equal periodic payments (not less frequently than annually) made for the life (or life expectancy) of the distributee or the joint lives (or joint life expectancies) of the distributee and the distributee's designated beneficiary, or for a specified period of ten years or more; any distribution to the extent such distribution is required under section 401(a)(9) of the Internal Revenue Code; any hardship distribution described in section 401(k)(2)(B)(i)(iv) received after 12-31-98; the portion of any other distribution(s) that is not includible in gross income (determined without regard to the exclusion for net unrealized appreciation with respect to employer securities); and any other distribution(s) that is reasonably expected to total less than $200 during a year.
- (c) Eligible retirement plan: An eligible retirement plan is an individual retirement account described in section 408(a) of the Code, an individual retirement annuity described in section 408(b) of the Code, an annuity plan described in section 403(a) of the Code, or a qualified plan described in section 401(a) of the Code, that accepts the distributee's eligible rollover distribution. However, in the case of an eligible rollover distribution to the surviving spouse, an eligible retirement plan is an individual retirement account or individual retirement annuity. On and after January 1, 2008, an eligible retirement plan, for purposes of accepting a rollover, shall include a Roth IRA to the extent permitted by Code Section 408A, and the regulations promulgated thereunder.
- (d) Distributee: A distributee includes an employee or former employee. In addition, the employee's or former employee's surviving spouse and the employee's or former employee's spouse or former spouse who is the alternate payee under a qualified domestic relations order, as defined in section 414(p) of the Code, are distributees with regard to the interest of the spouse or former spouse. On and after January 1, 2008, the retirement system shall allow nonspousal beneficiary transfers to an individual retirement plan in accordance with and subject to Internal Revenue Code Section 402(c)(11).

- (e) Direct rollover: A direct rollover is a payment by the plan to the eligible retirement plan specified by the distributee.

ARTICLE X.

ARTICLE XI.

Compliance With USERRA.

USERRA. The Retirement System shall comply with applicable, required provisions of Internal Revenue Code Section 414(u). On and after January 1, 2007, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, if a member dies while performing qualified military service (as defined in Internal Revenue Code Section 414(u)), to the extent required by Internal Revenue Code Section 401(a)(37) the survivors of the member are entitled to any additional benefits (if any, and other than benefit accruals relating to the period of qualified military service) provided under the Retirement System as if the member had resumed and then terminated employment on account of death.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, on and after January 1, 2009, if the City decides to provide Differential Wage Payments to individuals who are performing service in the uniformed services (as defined in Chapter 43 of Title 238, United States Code) while on active duty for a period of more than 30 days, such Differential Wage Payment will be treated as compensation under Code Section 415(c)(3) limits, but not for purposes of Plan benefit accruals. For these purposes the term "Differential Wage Payment" means a payment defined in Code Section 3401(h)(2) that is made by the Retirement System to an individual who is performing service in the uniformed services while on active duty for a period of more than 30 days.

ARTICLE XII.

Deferred Retirement Option Plan.

The following provisions are hereby established as the Deferred Retirement Option Plan ("Drop") Program with respect to those members of the Retirement System who are covered by a collective bargaining agreement with a DROP Program (currently DPOA, DPCOA and DFFA and non-union executives of the Police Department and Fire Department).

- (a) In lieu of terminating employment and accepting a service retirement allowance under the plan provisions, any applicable member of this system who is eligible for the DROP Program and who is eligible to immediately receive a 25 year service retirement allowance may elect to participate in the Deferred Retirement Option Plan (DROP) and defer the receipt of retirement benefits in accordance with the provisions of this resolution. This DROP feature is effective for DROP eligible members retiring on or after March 1, 2002 or after IRS approval of the DROP provisions, whichever is later.
- (b) No additional service credit shall be earned by a participant in the DROP program.
- (c) There is no limit to the duration of participation in the DROP program.
- (d) Participation in the DROP program shall be consistent with applicable collective bargaining agreements. For DPOA members, Section 33N of the 1998-2001 collective bargaining agreement between the DPOA and the City of Detroit shall be controlling unless modified by future collective bargaining agreement.
- (e) Upon the effective date of the commencement of participation in the plan, active membership in the Retirement System shall terminate. However employer contributions shall continue to be paid into the Retirement System for the DROP participant as if the DROP participant was not a DROP participant. For purposes of this section, compensation and credit service shall remain as they existed on the effective date of commencement of participation in the DROP program. Seventy-five (75%) percent of the monthly retirement benefits (including applicable escalator increases) that would have been payable, had a member elected to cease employment and receive a service retirement allowance, shall be paid into the deferred retirement option plan (DROP) account. Upon termination of employment, deferred benefits (i.e. the DROP account balance) shall be paid as provided by this resolution.
- (f) The ICMA Retirement Trust has been selected as the initial DROP depository entity.
- (g) The Deferred Retirement Option Plan applicable amounts shall be invested as directed by the member within the investment choices as provided by the ICMA Retirement Trust (or substitute entity).
- (h) The fees for the DROP account shall be determined by the ICMA Retirement Trust (or substitute entity), which fees shall be paid by the DROP participant per deduction from the DROP account.

- (i) Upon termination of employment, a participant in the DROP program shall receive, at his or her option either a lump sum payment from the DROP account equal to the payments to the account plus earnings adjusted for any losses or a true annuity based upon his or her adjusted account, or he or she may elect any other method of payment allowed by the ICMA Retirement Trust (or substitute entity); provided, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Participant's adjusted DROP account balance at termination of employment shall not be less than total system DROP payments into his or her account (not including earnings and losses). The participant's monthly benefits that would have otherwise been paid at retirement prior to participation in the DROP program (i.e. 100%) shall begin to be paid to the retiree. Termination of employment includes termination of any kind, such as, resignation, discharge or disability.
- (j) If a participant dies during the period of participation in the DROP program a lump sum payment equal to his or her account balance shall be paid to his or her named beneficiary, or if none, to his or her estate; provided, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Participant's adjusted DROP account balance at death during the period of participation shall not be less than total system DROP payments into his or her account (not including earnings and losses).
- (k) In the event that a member dies prior to termination of employment while participating in the DROP, the member's designated beneficiary(ies) shall be entitled to the funds in the DROP account. In addition, the member's retirement allowance, with escalators, will be restored to one hundred percent (100%) of the amount that would have been paid, but for the member's decision to participate in the DROP program shall be paid in accordance with the deceased member's election option; provided, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Participant's adjusted DROP account balance at death shall not be less than total system DROP payments into his or her account (not including earnings and losses)..

ARTICLE XIII.

Participant Annuity Savings Fund Loan Program

By Agreement
---------------------

Participant Annuity Savings Fund Loan Program

The undersigned parties have agreed that a Participant Annuity Savings Fund Loan Program (Participant Loan Program) will be established and available to bargaining unit members. Its terms will be as follows:

- (a) Established: Any loans granted or renewed shall conform to the requirements of Section 72(p) of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C.1 et seq. Such loan program shall be established in writing by the Board of Trustees of the Police and Fire Retirement System, in conformity with the terms of this Memorandum of Agreement, and must include, but need not be limited to the following:
  - 1. The identity of the administrator of the Participant Loan Program;
  - 2. A procedure to apply for loans, the amount of loan that will be approved or denied, and limitations, if any, on the types and amount of loans offered;
  - 3. The procedure under the program for determining a reasonable rate of interest;
  - 4. The events constituting default and the steps that will be taken to preserve plan assets.
- (b) The Loan Program: The Participant Loan Program shall be contained in a separate written document copies of which shall be made available in the offices of the City of Detroit Police and Fire Retirement System for prospective participants in the program. The Board of Trustees is authorized to adopt rules and regulations, from time to time, to govern the administration and the operation of this program. Copies of the rules shall also be made available to prospective participating members of the system in the offices of the Police and Fire Retirement System.
- (c) Eligibility: Subject to the rules and procedures established by the Police and Fire Retirement System Board, loans may be made to bargaining unit members from such member's contributions to the Annuity Savings Fund. Former participants, spouses of participants, and beneficiaries are not eligible to receive any loans from the Plan. Subject to rules and procedures established by the Board, a participant who has been in the plan for twelve (12) months or more is eligible to apply for a loan from this plan.
- (d) Amount of Loan: A participant who has satisfied applicable rules and procedures may borrow from his or her annuity savings fund account an amount, which does not exceed fifty percent (50%) of the participant's vested accumulated balance, up to fifteen thousand dollars ($15,000.00) reduced by the excess, if any, of: (1) the highest outstanding balance of loans from the trust during the one (1) year period ending on the day before the date on which the loan is made, or (2) the outstanding balance of loans from the trust on the date on which the loan is made, whichever is less. The minimum loan amount shall be one thousand dollars ($1,000.00).

(e) Terms and Conditions: In addition to such rules and procedures that are established by the Board, all loans shall comply with the following terms and conditions:

1. Loan applications shall be in writing.
2. All loans shall be memorialized by a promissory note made to the Police and Fire Retirement System and properly executed by the participant.
3. Loan shall be repaid by equal payroll deductions over a period not to exceed five (5) years, or, where the loan is for the purpose of buying a principal residence, a period not to exceed fifteen (15) years. In no case shall the amount of the payroll deduction be less than twenty dollars ($20.00) for any two-week period.
4. Each loan shall be made against the assignment of the participant's entire right, title, and interest in and to the trust supported by the participant's collateral promissory note for the amount of the loan, including interest payable to the order of the trustee.
5. Each loan shall bear interest at a rate determined by the Board. The Board shall not discriminate among participants in its determination of interest rates on loans. Loans initiated at different times may bear different interest rates, where, in the opinion of the Board, the difference in rates is supported by a change in market interest rates or a change in the pension system's current assumed rate of return. The loan interest rate shall bear a reasonable relationship to market rates for secured loans of a similar duration and shall bear a reasonable relationship to the costs to the pension trust of administering the trust. The loan interest rate shall be calculated in a manner that will not negatively affect the City's costs to the trust or the return to trust members.
6. Loan repayments shall be suspended under this plan as permitted by Section 414(u)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. 414(u)(4). A participant who has an outstanding loan balance from the plan who is absent from employment with the employer, and who has satisfied the requirements of 26 USC 414(u) of the Internal Revenue Code shall not be required to make loan repayments to the fund during said periods of absence.

(f) Renewal of Loan: Any loans granted or renewed shall be made and administered pursuant to the participant loan program and Section 72(p) of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. 72(p) and the regulations thereunder.

(g) Loan Balance: A participant's outstanding loan balance shall be considered a directed investment by the participant and interest payments shall be credited to the participant's account balance (provided that the interest credited shall be reduced appropriately to cover the administrative cost of the loan program and avoid negatively affecting the City's costs or the trust's investment returns), and shall not be part of net investment income or part of the participant's account balance for the purpose of allocation of net investment income under [Article VII].

- (h) Distribution: No distributions shall be made to a participant, former participant, or beneficiary until all loan balances drawn on the applicable vested accumulated balance and applicable accrued interest have been liquidated.
- (i) Annual Report: The Police and Fire Retirement System shall include, in their annual report to all members, an accounting of the loan program established by this section, which contains the number and amount of loans made, the costs of administering the program, the amount of payments made including interest received by the trust, the amount of loans outstanding, including any defaults or delinquencies, and an evaluation as to whether the interest charged in the fiscal year covered the costs of administering the program.

The parties agree that eligibility for participation in said loan program will be in accordance with the provisions contained herein, and shall be effective immediately upon the signing of this Memorandum of Understanding. All necessary steps shall be taken to ensure that the implementation date of the Employee Loan Program for members of this bargaining unit shall occur as soon as administratively possible so that it coincides with the initial implementation date established by the Police and Fire Retirement System.

The parties agree that this Memorandum of Understanding represents the sole and complete agreement regarding the Participant Loan Program for members of this bargaining unit, that this Agreement shall be incorporated in the Labor Agreement and shall remain in full force for the duration of said agreement, and that no modifications can be made unless collectively bargained and mutually agreed between the parties hereto.<sup>128</sup>

By execution of this Trust Agreement each Board member hereby acknowledges his or her appointment and acceptance of the duties and responsibilities set forth in this Trust Agreement.

Section 7.2 Term of Office. Each member of the Board shall serve a period of four years until the termination of the Trust, or if earlier, until his or her death, incapacity to serve hereunder, or resignation. In the event of a vacancy, the replacement Board member shall be appointed pursuant to procedures established by the Board.

Section 7.3 Resignation. A Board member may resign, and shall be fully discharged from further duty or responsibility under this Trust Agreement to the extent permitted by law, by giving at least ninety (90) days' advance written notice to the remaining Board Members stating a date when such resignation shall take effect, which notice or time period may be waived by the Board.

Section 7.4 Operation of the Board; Quorum. The Board shall select from among its members a chair and a vice chair. The Board shall hold regular meetings, and shall designate the time and place thereof in advance. The Board shall adopt its own rules of procedure and shall keep a record of proceedings. Each Board Member shall be entitled to one vote on each question before the Board. Three (3) members shall constitute a quorum at any meeting. A majority vote of the members present at a meeting of the Board at which a quorum exists shall be necessary for a decision by the Board.

Section 7.5 Reliance on Written Instruments. Each member of the Board shall be fully protected in acting upon any instrument, certificate or paper believed by him or her to be genuine and to be signed or presented by a duly authorized person or persons, and shall be under no duty to make any investigation or inquiry as to any statement contained in any such writing, but may accept the same as conclusive evidence of the truth and accuracy of the statements therein contained.

Section 7.6 No Individual Liability on Contracts. The members of the Board shall not be liable personally for any debts, obligations, or undertakings contracted by them, or for the breach of any contracts. Such claims and obligations shall be paid out of the Trust; provided, however, that the Board shall not be exempt from personal liability for willful misconduct, intentional wrongdoing, breach of applicable fiduciary duty, negligence or fraud, and the Trust shall not indemnify the Board for such liabilities, or to the extent that application of this sentence would violate any law.

Section 7.7 City Not Liable for Conduct of Board. The Board is not, in its capacity as the Board of Trustees, an officer, agent, employee, or representative of Detroit. In its capacity as the Board of Trustees, the Board is a principal acting independently of the City, which shall not be liable for any act, omission, contract, obligation, or undertaking of the Trust, the Board or its officers, agents, or representatives.

Section 7.8 Liability Insurance. The Board may obtain and keep current a policy or policies of insurance, insuring the members of the Board from and against any and all liabilities, costs and expenses incurred by such persons as a result of any act, or omission to act, in connection with the performance of their duties, responsibilities and obligations under this Trust Agreement or the Plan. To the extent permitted by applicable law, the premiums on such policies may be paid from the Trust Fund.

Section 7.9 Reimbursement for Defense of Claims. To the extent permitted by applicable law and not otherwise covered by liability insurance purchased by the Trust (without regard to any non-recourse rider purchased by the insured), the Board, employees of the Board and persons acting on the Board's behalf pursuant to an express written delegation (each separately, the "Indemnified Party") shall be reimbursed by the Trust Fund for reasonable expenses, including without limitation attorneys fees, incurred in defense of any claim that seeks a recovery of any loss to the Plan or Trust Fund or for any damages suffered by any party to, or beneficiary of this Trust Agreement (a) for which the Indemnified Party is adjudged not liable, or (b) which is dismissed or compromised in a final settlement, where the Board or, where required by applicable law, an independent fiduciary determines that the settling Indemnified Party was not primarily responsible (in such cases, all or only a portion of the settling Indemnified Party's reasonable expenses may be reimbursed, as directed by the Board or an independent fiduciary), provided that, the Board shall have the right to approve of the retention of any counsel whose fees would be reimbursed by the Trust Fund, but such approval shall not be withheld unreasonably.

ARTICLE VIII AMENDMENT, TERMINATION AND MERGER

Section 8.1 Duration of the Trust. Unless terminated earlier pursuant to Section 8.3, this Trust Agreement shall terminate automatically on the earlier of: (a) the eighth anniversary of the Effective Date of the Plan of Adjustment if the City and the Board shall have agreed in writing that no Qualifying DWSD Transaction has occurred; or (b) the later of (i) written notice from GRS and PFRS of the death of the last individual who was a participant in such pension plans on the Effective Date of the Plan of Adjustment or (ii) the 90th anniversary of the effective date of this Trust Agreement.

Section 8.2 Amendment. The Trust Agreement may be amended at any time in writing by the Board or by Court order upon proper motion by the Board or the City, provided, however, that no amendment may impose a contribution obligation on the City beyond that specified in Section 3.1. No amendment to the Trust Agreement shall modify the responsibilities of the Board hereunder unless the Board has first consented to such amendment.

Section 8.3 Termination.

(a) Notwithstanding Section 8.1, the Trust and this Trust Agreement may be terminated at any time in writing by the Board with a copy of such written instrument to be provided to the City, or by Court order upon proper motion. Upon termination of this Trust Agreement, the assets of the Trust Fund, if any, shall be paid out at the direction of the Board to the GRS and PFRS as provided in Section IV.F of the Plan of Adjustment. Neither Detroit nor the Board shall have any beneficial interest in the Trust Fund. If the Trust Fund has assets at the time of its termination, it shall remain in existence only until all such assets have been distributed.

(b) Upon termination of the Trust pursuant to Section 8.1 or 8.3, the Board shall continue to have all of the powers provided in this Trust Agreement as are necessary or desirable for the orderly liquidation and distribution of the Trust Fund in accordance with the provisions hereof.

RETIREE HEALTH CARE SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

Plaintiffs, the Official Committee of Retirees of the City of Detroit, Michigan (the “Committee”), Detroit Retired City Employees Association, Retired Detroit Police and Fire Fighters Association, and AFSCME Sub-Chapter 98, City of Detroit Retirees (collectively with the Committee, the “Plaintiffs”) and Defendants, the City of Detroit, Michigan (the “City”) and Kevyn Orr, individually and in his official capacity as Emergency Manager of the City of Detroit, Michigan (collectively with the City, the “Defendants”), hereby enter into this Settlement Agreement as of the 14th day of February, 2014 (the “Agreement”), which contains the following terms:

I. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. Agreement Modifies March 1, 2014 Plan. The City agrees to make the changes listed in Part II herein to the City of Detroit Retiree Health Care Plan for the period March 1, 2014 through December 31, 2014. The changes enumerated in Part II are modifications to the City of Detroit Retiree Health Care Plan described in the 2014 Health Care Plan Options Booklet (“Booklet”) distributed approximately January 2, 2014. These modifications are premised on the terms summarized in the Booklet going into effect on March 1, 2014, subject only to the modifications set forth in this Agreement, which resolves the Plaintiffs’ claims in Adversary Proceeding No. 14-04015 (the “Adversary Proceeding”).

2. Modifications Will Not Decrease Benefits Offered in March 1, 2014 Plan. None of the modifications in Part II reduces or eliminates any of the benefits in the City of Detroit Retiree Health Care Plan for the period March 1, 2014 through December 31, 2014 as described in the Booklet, except as specified in Part II(4)(a) and (b) below.

3. Effective Date of Plan Modifications. The modifications listed in Part II of this Agreement shall be effective with the beginning of the plan on March 1, 2014 unless otherwise noted in the Agreement.

4. Aggregate Caps. Unless specifically noted below, there is no cap on the amount that the City will spend to fulfill the modifications listed in Part II. For the two modifications listed in Part II(3)(a)/(b) and (d)/(e) that expressly include capped funds of $2,500,000 and $3,000,000, respectively, the City shall aggregate those caps to a total of $5,500,000 such that if one capped fund is exhausted the City must draw from the other capped fund to the extent that the other capped fund has not been exhausted.

5. Conditions on Agreement. This Agreement, and the additional benefits set forth herein, are conditioned upon the City receiving debtor in possession financing that can be used for quality of life purposes on or before May 1, 2014 (the “DIP”). In the event the DIP is not in effect on or before May 1, 2014 and the City is unable to otherwise perform under this Agreement, this Agreement shall be null and void and the parties shall be returned to their respective positions.

II. MODIFICATIONS TO THE CITY'S RETIREE HEALTH CARE PLAN FOR THE PERIOD MARCH 1, 2014 THROUGH DECEMBER 31, 2014

1. Modification of Dental and Vision Coverage.

- (a) Dental Coverage. The City will make available an additional dental benefits option in addition to the dental benefits coverage option described in the Booklet. The additional option will be offered by Golden Dental Inc. ("Golden"). The premium charged for this group coverage option will be no greater than $23.73 per month for single coverage, $38.83 per month for two-person coverage, and $57.17 per month for family coverage, and the benefits will be as described in Exhibit 1 hereto; provided, however, that the amount charged to the retiree shall be increased to include an additional administrative charge, which administrative charge shall not exceed 20% of the applicable premium. The enrolling retiree will be fully responsible to pay the premium associated with this dental option, including the additional administrative charge, and the City shall allow the retirees to utilize the pension reduction feature for payment of the monthly premium. The City will use Reasonable Efforts to have such coverage effective June 1, 2014, including taking Reasonable Efforts to notify retirees by mail of this option as soon as practicable, and taking Reasonable Efforts to minimize the administrative charge. Reasonable Efforts, as used in this Agreement, requires the City to use good faith and reasonable diligence in light of its capabilities.
- (b) Vision Coverage. The City will make available an additional vision benefits option in addition to the vision benefits coverage option described in the Booklet. The additional option will be offered by Heritage Vision Plans, Inc. ("Heritage"). The premium for this group coverage option will be no greater than $6.95 per month for single coverage and $13.75 per month for 2 or more person coverage; provided, however, that the amount charged to the retiree shall be increased to include an additional administrative charge, which administrative charge shall not exceed 20% of the applicable premium. The option shall be a national network vision option similar to the option that the City provides to active employees. The enrolling retiree will be fully responsible to pay the premium associated with this vision option, including the additional administrative charge, and the City shall allow the retirees to utilize the pension reduction feature for payment of the monthly premium. The City will use Reasonable Efforts to have such coverage effective June 1, 2014, including taking Reasonable Efforts to notify retirees by mail of this option as soon as practicable, and taking Reasonable Efforts to minimize the administrative charge.

2. Modifications for Retirees Eligible for Medicare.

- (a) Extension of Enrollment Deadline to Opt Out of Medicare Advantage Plan Coverage. For retirees of the City who are enrolled in Medicare and receive coverage under a City-sponsored Medicare Advantage Plan through February 28, 2014, the date to opt out of such coverage was extended to February 7, 2014. Such retirees may opt out by hand delivery (no later than close of business February 7) or first-class mail delivery (post-marked on or before February 7) of the designated opt out form to the City Benefits Administration Office at Suite 1026, 2 Woodward Avenue, Detroit MI 48226. Retirees were permitted to request the designated opt out form by calling the City's Benefit Administration Customer Service Line or contacting the City Benefits Administration Office at the address above. The City will use Reasonable Efforts to process any such opt outs for which it receives timely notice in a manner so as to eliminate such Medicare Advantage Plan coverage effective March 1, 2014. To the extent the City is not able to process the timely sent opt out notices in a manner so as to eliminate such coverage effective March 1, 2014, such coverage shall be eliminated effective April 1, 2014. Retirees who did not opt out by February 7, 2014 will be enrolled in a City-sponsored Medicare Advantage Plan as described in the Booklet.

- (b) HRA Contribution for Medicare-Eligible Retirees Who Opt Out. For each Medicare-eligible retiree who opted out of coverage under the City-sponsored Medicare Advantage Plans on or prior to February 7, 2014, the City shall automatically enroll such retiree in a City-sponsored Health Reimbursement Arrangement ("HRA"). The HRA shall be administered by Flex Plan, Inc. The City will provide each electing enrollee with a vested $115 monthly contribution credit to his or her HRA during the remainder of 2014, which will carry forward until used by the retiree or otherwise forfeited under terms to be negotiated by the parties hereto. The City will make all Reasonable Efforts to implement the HRA credits effective May 1, 2014, retroactive to March 1, 2014. The initial monthly credit for May 2014 shall be in an amount equal to the total of $115 multiplied by the number of months starting March 2014 for which the enrolled retiree did not have Medicare Advantage Plan coverage (e.g., if John Smith had City-sponsored Medicare Advantage Plan coverage until February 28, 2014, the initial monthly credit for May 2014 will be $345, covering March, April, and May; thereafter, the payments shall be $115 per month for each month in 2014).
- (c) Medicare Advantage Plan Catastrophic Drug Expenses. Each of the Medicare Advantage Plans sponsored by the City for the period March 1, 2014 through December 31, 2014 include Medicare Part D prescription drug coverage, under which, once the $4,550 out-of-pocket threshold is met, the participant's cost sharing obligation is limited to the greater of 5% of the cost of the prescription, or $2.55 per prescription for generic and preferred multi-source drugs or $6.35 per prescription for all other prescription drugs; provided, that the participant's cost sharing obligation shall never be greater than the cost sharing that applied prior to the participant meeting such threshold. For each participant who meets the $4,550 out-of-pocket threshold while enrolled in one of the City's Medicare Advantage Plans during the period March 1, 2014 through December 31, 2014, the City will reimburse the amount of this cost sharing obligation to the related retiree. For the avoidance of doubt, participant means both retiree and any retiree's spouse who is covered by the City's Medicare Advantage Plans.

3. Modifications for Retirees Not Eligible for Medicare.

(a) Additional Stipend to Retirees With $75,000 or Lower Household Income Who Acquire Health Care Coverage on an Exchange. The City will provide non-duty disabled retirees who are not eligible for Medicare a $125 stipend that they may use to purchase health care coverage. The City will increase this stipend by $50 for any non-Medicare eligible retiree who either (i) was enrolled in the City's retiree health program on December 31, 2013 or (ii) transitioned from active City benefits to retiree City benefits on or after November 1, 2013; but only to the extent such retiree described in (i) or (ii) above meets the following requirements:

- i) Not eligible for Medicare or Medicaid;
- ii) Not eligible for a benefit under Part II(4);
- iii) Not a duty-disabled retiree (duty-disabled retirees are eligible for higher stipends as provided for in the Booklet);
- iv) Under 65 years old (non-Medicare eligible retirees age 65 and older may receive an increased stipend under Part II(3)(c) below);
- v) Household income is $75,000 or less, as demonstrated by satisfaction of the process set forth in Part II(3)(b);
- vi) Does not acquire a City-offered group health plan as set forth in Part II(3)(f); and
- vii) Purchases or is covered by a health insurance policy acquired through a health insurance exchange ("Exchange") established pursuant to the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act.

(b) Process to Obtain Additional $50 Monthly Stipend.

- i) The City will retain Aon Hewitt to administer the eligibility process for the additional $50 monthly stipend set forth above in Part II(3)(a). Retirees will be given a 30-day notice period, to expire no later than April 30, 2014, during which they shall provide to Aon Hewitt the following:
  - (1) Submission of having purchased an insurance policy through an Exchange that covers such retiree. Such submission shall include information necessary to validate the retiree's eligibility, including the name of the insurer, monthly premium amount, and the amount of federal subsidy, if any, that the retiree is to receive in connection with such Exchange-acquired coverage; and

- (2) If the proof of Exchange-acquired coverage shows that the retiree's premium does not also include a federal subsidy amount, such retiree shall also submit a copy of his or her most recently filed federal income tax return with proof of filing, but in no event a return prior to the 2011 tax year. If such federal income tax return shows household income in excess of $75,000 and the retiree believes that household income in 2013 was below $75,000, the retiree shall also submit – along with a copy of the most recently filed federal income tax return – proof sufficient for Aon Hewitt to conclude that his or her household income in 2013 was less than $75,000.
- ii) Aon Hewitt shall submit to the City its list of retirees eligible for the additional $50 monthly stipend and the monthly stipends shall be paid to the approved eligible retirees beginning in the month of June 2014 or as soon thereafter as administratively practical, with payments retroactive to March 1, 2014. For example, if the first payment is made in June 2014, it will be in the amount of $200 for the months of March, April, May, and June; thereafter, the payments shall be $50 per month for each succeeding month in 2014. The list provided by Aon Hewitt shall be final and no changes shall be made to such list for the remainder of 2014.

The City shall cap the amount that it pays for this additional $50 stipend during the period from March through December 2014 at $3,000,000. In the event that there are more retirees meeting the requirements in Part II(3)(a) and (b) (i.e., retirees listed on the final list) than can be paid in full for $3,000,000, each retiree will have his or her stipend amount reduced pro rata, unless there are additional funds that can be used as detailed in Part I(4).

- (c) Additional Payment to Non-Medicare Eligible Retirees Age 65 and Older.
The City will increase the stipend that it gives non-Medicare eligible retirees who are 65-years-old and older to $300/month. For such purposes, a non-Medicare eligible retiree is any retiree age 65 or older who is not – directly or through his or her spouse – eligible to automatically enroll in and obtain premium-free coverage under Part A of Medicare as evidenced by a denial letter from the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (“CMS”). Retirees who have previously submitted such a letter to the City will not be required to resubmit it. Non-Medicare eligible retirees who are duty-disabled will not be eligible for this increase because their stipend is already $300 or more. The City will coordinate with Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan to determine the number of non-Medicare eligible retirees who are eligible for this $300 stipend. The increased stipend will apply for each month from March 2014 through December 2014. The City will make all Reasonable Efforts to implement the $300 increased monthly stipend beginning April 1, 2014, with payment of the increased amount over the stipend otherwise paid for prior months being retroactive to March 1, 2014; thereafter, the stipend shall be $300 per month for each succeeding month in 2014. Such eligible retirees will not receive any other stipend amounts from the City that are described in the Booklet or this Agreement.

(d) $125 Monthly Stipend For City Retirees' Spouses Who are Under Age 65, With $75,000 or Lower Household Income, and Are Enrolled in Health Care Coverage on an Exchange.

The City will provide a $125 stipend to certain married retirees whose spouses either (i) were enrolled in the City's retiree health program on December 31, 2013 or (ii) transitioned from active City benefits to retiree City benefits on or after November 1, 2013; but only to the extent such spouse described in (i) or (ii) above meets the following requirements:

- i) Not eligible to enroll in one of the City's Medicare Advantage Plans;
- ii) Not eligible for Medicaid;
- iii) Not eligible for a benefit under Part II(4);
- iv) Under 65 years old;
- v) Household income is $75,000 or less, as demonstrated by satisfaction of the process set forth in Part II(3)(e);
- vi) Does not acquire a City-offered group health plan as set forth in Part II(3)(f); and
- vii) Purchases or is covered by a health insurance policy acquired through an Exchange.

(e) Process to Obtain $125 Monthly Spouse Stipend.

- i) The City will retain Aon Hewitt to administer the eligibility process for the $125 monthly spouse stipend. Retirees will be given a 30-day notice period, to expire no later than April 30, 2014, during which they shall provide to Aon Hewitt the following proof:
  - (1) Submission of proof that their spouse is covered under an insurance policy purchased through an Exchange, including information necessary to validate the retirees' eligibility, including the name of the insurer, monthly premium amount, and the amount of federal subsidy, if any, that the spouse is to receive in connection with such Exchange-acquired coverage; and
  - (2) If the proof of Exchange-acquired coverage shows that the spouse's premium does not also include a federal subsidy amount, such retiree shall also submit a copy of his or her most recently filed federal income tax return with proof of filing, but in no event a return prior to the 2011 tax year. If such federal income tax return shows household income in excess of $75,000 and the retiree believes that household income in 2013 was below $75,000, the retiree shall also submit – along with a copy of the most recently filed federal income tax return – proof sufficient for Aon Hewitt to conclude that his or her household income in 2013 was less than $75,000.

- ii) Aon Hewitt shall submit to the City its list of retirees who are eligible for this $125 monthly stipend and the monthly stipends shall be paid to the approved married retirees beginning in the month of June 2014 or as soon thereafter as administratively practical, with payments retroactive to March 1, 2014. For example, if the first payment is made in June 2014, it will be in the amount of $500 for the months of March, April, May, and June; thereafter, the payments shall be $125 per month for each succeeding month in 2014. The list provided by Aon Hewitt shall be final and no changes shall be made to such list for the remainder of 2014, except as follows:

- (1) if an eligible retiree ceases to be married (whether by death or divorce), the retiree's spouse will cease to be eligible for this stipend and the retiree shall be removed from the list effective as of the month immediately following such event; and
- (2) if a retiree's spouse transitions from active City benefits to retiree City benefits during 2014 and meets the eligibility provisions described in Part II(3)(d) and is approved as eligible pursuant to the process described in Part II(3)(e), the related retiree shall be added to the list effective as of the month in which the transition to retiree City benefits occurs, provided there is sufficient availability under the Aggregate Caps as described below.

The City will cap the amount that it pays for spousal stipends at $2,500,000. In the event that there are more retirees initially satisfying the requirements in Part II(3)(e) (i.e., retirees listed on the first list submitted by Aon Hewitt to the City) than can be paid in full for $2,500,000, each such retiree will have his or her stipend amount reduced pro rata, provided that if there are additional funds that can be used as detailed in Part I(4), each such retiree will only have his or her stipend amount reduced pro rata to the extent the aggregate amount is not sufficient to satisfy the full amount of such stipends. Retirees who become eligible for this spousal stipend during the year, as described above, shall only be eligible for a stipend to the extent there is sufficient availability under the Aggregate Caps detailed in Part I(4). The addition or removal of retirees from the list shall not impact the amount of the stipend being paid to other eligible retirees.

- (f) City Group Plan. In 2014, the City agrees to contract with Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan to offer a fully-insured group health plan option to retirees who are not eligible for Medicare. Such plan option shall be reasonably equivalent to the coverage offered by the City to active employees in 2014. The enrolling retiree will be fully responsible to pay the monthly premium associated with this option. The premium cost to retirees of such policy will include the cost to the City of enrollment and administration related to this policy option, so that the City will not incur any additional expense in offering this policy. The parties will use Reasonable Efforts to have such coverage effective May 1, 2014. The City shall provide a monthly stipend of $100 to each retiree who enrolls in the City group plan, beginning with the May 1, 2014 payment. No other stipend amounts from the City that are described in the Booklet or this Agreement shall be available to retirees enrolling in this group option, unless either (i) the retiree is duty-disabled, in which case, he or she will instead receive the stipend available to duty-disabled retirees described in the Booklet, or (ii) the retiree is eligible for the stipend described in Part II(3)I, in which case, he or she will instead receive such stipend.

4. Modifications for Retirees Below the Federal Poverty Level.

- (a) Coverage for Michigan Resident Retirees Eligible For Medicaid Coverage On or After April 1, 2014. The parties recognize that CMS has approved the State of Michigan's request to operate the "Healthy Michigan" program for adults who will become eligible for Medicaid under Section 1902(a)(10)(A)(i)(VIII) of the Social Security Act, and that on April 1, 2014 Michigan will provide Medicaid coverage to all adults residing in the State with income up to and including 133% of the Federal Poverty Level. "Federal Poverty Level" means the applicable poverty guideline based on state of residence and household size issued annually by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. For those retirees who are eligible for Medicaid under the scheduled April 1, 2014 expansion, the City will facilitate their transition in the following manner: Within 10 days of the effective date of this Agreement, the City shall contact by letter those non-Medicare eligible retirees, who, according to the Retirement Systems' records, reside in Michigan and whose annual pension income is in an amount less than 100% of the Federal Poverty Level. Such retirees will be given a 30 day opportunity to submit to Aon Hewitt proof that their income falls below the Federal Poverty Level. Upon receipt by Aon Hewitt of a list of such retirees falling below the Federal Poverty Level, the City shall provide payment to such retirees of the amount equal to the value of the federal subsidy for the month of March that they would have received in connection with the second lowest cost Exchange-purchased silver plan, had such retiree, and to the extent the retiree is married, such retiree's spouse, been eligible for such subsidy for the month of March 2014 for such plan based on a determination of household income at 100% of the Federal Poverty Level. A similar payment will be made by the City in connection with insurance coverage for April 2014 if such retiree and spouse are not covered by Medicaid. To the extent that the Medicaid expansion rules in Michigan have not provided such retirees the opportunity to migrate into the Michigan Medicaid program by May 1, 2014, the City shall cease its continued payment but the parties agree to negotiate in good faith an additional reasonable accommodation to such retirees that balances the City's and such retirees' interests. Retirees eligible for payments under this subsection are not eligible for any other payment offered by the City as set forth in the Booklet or as set forth in this Agreement.

- (b) Coverage for Non-Medicare Eligible Retirees in States that Have Not Expanded Medicaid. The City recognizes that not all States have chosen to expand Medicaid coverage in accordance with Title II of the Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, and certain non-Medicare eligible retirees residing outside the State of Michigan whose incomes fall below 133% of the Federal Poverty Level will not be eligible for Medicaid coverage. Accordingly, in connection with such retirees, the City will pay a monthly amount equal to the lesser of: (1) the second lowest cost monthly premium for a silver plan for such retiree and spouse purchased through an Exchange in their place of residence; or (2) the ratable monthly amount necessary to increase the retiree's annual household income to 100% of the Federal Poverty Level. Within 10 days of the effective date of this Agreement, the City shall contact by letter those retirees, who, according to the Retirement Systems' records, reside in states that do not provide Medicaid coverage to adults up to the Federal Poverty Level, and whose annual pension income is in an amount less than 100% of the Federal Poverty Level. Such retirees will be given a 30 day opportunity to submit to Aon Hewitt proof that their income falls below the Federal Poverty Level. The City shall commence such payments as soon as reasonably practicable after receiving a list of such retirees from Aon Hewitt. Retirees eligible for payments under this subsection are not eligible for any other payment offered by the City as set forth in the Booklet or as set forth in this Agreement.

III. RELEASES, FUTURE LEGAL PROCEEDINGS, AND MISCELLANEOUS

1. Future Claims in City Plan Confirmation Proceedings. This Agreement is entered into without prejudice to any party to this litigation with respect to any issue involving the rights, claims, obligations, and payments of health care and other post-employment benefits ("OPEB"); provided that the City will not seek to recover directly from the retirees any postpetition OPEB payments made to or on behalf of retirees. Each party expressly reserves its rights on OPEB issues in connection with negotiations of a plan of adjustment, and the Plaintiffs are free to pursue, and the City to oppose, their position that the postpetition OPEB payments the City made to or on behalf of retirees were a business necessity.

2. Release. Following the execution of this Agreement, the Plaintiffs will promptly dismiss the lawsuit – which solely addresses 2014 retiree health care benefits – with prejudice; provided, however, that any party to the lawsuit may bring an action in the Bankruptcy Court to enforce the terms of this Agreement resolving the lawsuit (an "Enforcement Action") and if the conditions contained in the last sentence of Part I(5) occur, then Plaintiffs are free to reinstate the Adversary Proceeding. Solely for purposes of an Enforcement Action, the City consents, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 904, to the Bankruptcy Court's hearing and deciding such Enforcement Action.

3. Counterparts. This Agreement may be signed in counterparts, and each counterpart shall be treated as an original.

4. Good Faith. As evidenced by the undersigned acknowledgment of Judge Wiley Daniel, Mediator, this Agreement was negotiated and entered into by all parties in good faith.

5. Plan of Adjustment. The terms of this Agreement, including Part III(4), shall be incorporated into any plan of adjustment filed by the City and confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court in 2014 in this bankruptcy case.

EXHIBIT I.A.327

STATE CONTRIBUTION AGREEMENT

EXECUTION VERSION

CONTRIBUTION AGREEMENT

This Contribution Agreement (“Agreement”), dated as of _____, 2014, is made by and among the Michigan Settlement Administration Authority, a Michigan body public corporate (the “Authority”), the General Retirement System of the City of Detroit, the Police and Fire Retirement System of the City of Detroit and the City of Detroit (the “City”).

RECITALS

A. The City filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 9 of the Bankruptcy Code on July 18, 2013 (the “Chapter 9 Case”) in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Michigan (the “Court”).

B. During the course of the Chapter 9 Case, the City has asserted that the City’s Police and Fire Retirement System (the “PFRS” or a “System”) and the General Retirement System (the “GRS” or a “System” and collectively with the PFRS, the “Systems”) are underfunded.

C. During the course of the Chapter 9 Case, there have been suggestions that the State of Michigan (the “State”) may be obligated to pay all or a portion of the underfunding of pension benefits payable to retirees, a suggestion the State vigorously disputes.

D. As part of the mediation process in the Chapter 9 Case, the mediators asked the State and other parties to assist in reducing the amount of underfunding in the PFRS and GRS pension funds by providing settlement funds for the benefit of pensioners that would not be otherwise available.

E. As part of its determination that the City was eligible to file the Chapter 9 Case, the Court determined that pension obligations of the City can be impaired or diminished in the Chapter 9 Case and are not protected from such impairment or diminution by the State Constitution.

F. In support of confirmation of the City’s Fourth Amended Plan of Adjustment dated May 5, 2014 (as may be further amended from time to time, the “Plan”), the State has agreed, subject to satisfaction of the terms and conditions set forth herein and in the Plan, to make a contribution to the GRS and PFRS in return for releases from, among others, the GRS and PFRS as set forth in the Support and Release Agreement entered into by the State and each of the Systems in connection with this matter.

G. On June 20, 2014, the Authority was established as the disbursement agent for the State with respect to the State Contribution (as defined below).

H. Capitalized terms used in this Agreement but not defined have the same meanings as set forth in the Plan.

NOW THEREFORE, THE PARTIES HERETO AGREE AS FOLLOWS:

1. State Contribution. On the later of (a) the date on which the Conditions Precedent have been satisfied, and (b) 60 days after the Effective Date of the Plan, the Authority shall disburse $98,800,000 to GRS and $96,000,000 to PFRS (collectively, the “State Contribution”) for the purpose of increasing the assets of the PFRS and GRS. The total aggregate State Contribution is equal to the net present value of $350,000,000 payable over 20 years determined using a discount rate of 6.75%, which results in a total contribution by the State of $194,800,000. The State Contribution shall only be used to fund payments to holders of GRS Pension Claims and PFRS Pension Claims, each as defined in the Plan.

2. Governance Requirements of the GRS and PFRS. At all times during the 20 year period following the disbursement of the State Contribution to the GRS and PFRS, the GRS and PFRS each must establish an investment committee (the “Investment Committee”) for the purpose of making recommendations to, and approving certain actions by, the respective System's board of trustees and/or making determinations and taking action under and with respect to Investment Management, as set forth in the terms and conditions enumerated on Exhibit A and Exhibit B, respectively, each attached to and incorporated by reference into this Agreement. Further, the Emergency Manager for the City and any subsequently appointed emergency manager for the City, appointed under PA 436 or under any successor or replacement statutes to PA 436, shall not seek to exercise any powers granted under section 12(1)(m) of PA 436 (or equivalent provision under any successor or replacement statute) against the Board of GRS or the Board of PFRS until the earlier of (a) one year following entry of an order confirming the Plan, and (b) December 31, 2015.

3. Income Stabilization Funds and Income Stabilization Payments. The City, GRS and PFRS shall establish an income stabilization program and amend the governing documents for GRS and the governing documents for PFRS to include the following:

- a. A supplemental pension income stabilization payment (the “Income Stabilization Payments”) payable on an annual basis beginning not later than 120 days after the Effective Date, to each Eligible Pensioner equal to the lesser of (a) the amount needed to restore the Eligible Pensioner's reduced pension benefit to the amount of the pension benefit that the Eligible Pensioner received from GRS or PFRS in 2013, or (b) the amount needed to bring the total annual household income of the Eligible Pensioner up to 130% of the Federal Poverty Level in 2013.
- b. In addition, to the extent an Eligible Pensioner's Estimated Adjusted Annual Household Income in any calendar year is less than 105% of the Federal Poverty Level in that year, the Eligible Pensioner will receive an additional benefit (“Income Stabilization Benefit Plus”). The Income Stabilization Benefit Plus shall be equal to the lesser of either (a) 100% restoration of pension benefits, including escalators and cost of living adjustments; or (b) the amount needed to bring the Eligible Pensioner's Estimated Adjusted Annual Household Income in that calendar year up to 105% of the Federal Poverty Level in that year.

- c. An Eligible Pensioner's "Estimated Adjusted Annual Household Income" shall be calculated as follows: (i) the annual pension benefit amount paid in 2013 shall be subtracted from the Eligible Pensioner's 2013 total household income (per their (or in the case of minor children, their legal guardian's) 2013 income tax returns or equivalent documentation) as adjusted for inflation or Social Security COLA increases to create a base additional income amount, plus (ii) the following three items as applicable, (x) the reduced pension benefit that GRS will pay the Eligible Pensioner for that year, (y) any GRS pension restoration due to an improved GRS funding level, and (z) the Eligible Pensioner's Income Stabilization Benefit. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Income Stabilization Payments, including the Income Stabilization Benefit Plus, under both GRS and PFRS shall not exceed $20 million in aggregate.
- d. A separate recordkeeping sub-account called the "Income Stabilization Fund" will be set up under each of GRS and PFRS for the sole purpose of paying the Income Stabilization Payments to Eligible Pensioners. The assets credited to the sub-accounts will be invested on a commingled basis with the applicable System's assets and will be credited with a pro-rata portion of the System's earnings and losses.
- e. Amounts credited to the Income Stabilization Fund, including the Assigned UTGO Bond Tax Proceeds, may not be used for any purpose other than the payment of Income Stabilization Payments to Eligible Pensioners, except as expressly provided in subparagraph (f) below.
- f. In 2022, provided that the State has not issued a certificate of default with respect to a System at any time prior to 2022, the Investment Committee for that System shall conduct a valuation to determine the Income Stabilization Payments anticipated to be made from the System in the future, in order for the System to fulfill the obligation to make Income Stabilization Payments (the "Estimated Future Liability"). In the event that 75% of the independent members of the Investment Committee determine that the GRS or PFRS Income Stabilization Fund is credited with assets in excess of its Estimated Future Liability (the "Excess Assets"), the Investment Committee may, in its sole discretion, recommend to the Board of Trustees that the Excess Assets, but not more than $35 million, be used to fund each System's payment of Adjusted Pension Amounts. The Investment Committee shall have the right to engage professionals to assist in this task as necessary, and such expenses shall be paid by the Systems. If any funds remain in the GRS or PFRS Income Stabilization Fund on the date upon which no Eligible Pensioners under their respective System are living, the remainder of each System's Income Stabilization Fund shall be used to fund each System's payment of Adjusted Pension Amounts.

- g. “Eligible Pensioners” are those retirees or surviving spouses who are at least 60 years of age or those minor children receiving survivor benefits from GRS or PFRS, each as of the Effective Date, whose pension benefit from GRS or PFRS will be reduced by the confirmed Plan, and who have a total household income equal to or less than 140% of the Federal Poverty Line in 2013 (per their (or in the case of minor children, their legal guardian’s) 2013 income tax returns or equivalent documentation). No new persons will be eligible to receive an Income Stabilization Payment at any time in the future, and any minor child receiving survivor benefits shall cease to be an Eligible Pensioner after he or she turns 18 years of age.
- h. The initial determination of Eligible Pensioners, and the amounts of Income Stabilization Payments payable to Eligible Pensioners shall be made by the State in its sole discretion. The State shall transmit the list of Eligible Pensioners to the Investment Committee and the Board of Trustees of GRS and PFRS, as applicable. The Board of Trustees, with the assistance of the Investment Committee of GRS and PFRS, shall be responsible for properly administering the respective Income Stabilization Fund and annually certifying to the Treasurer that it has properly administered the requirements for eligibility and payment of benefits with respect to Eligible Pensioners.

4. Conditions Precedent. The Authority’s obligations under this Agreement are not effective or enforceable until each of the following conditions (the “Conditions Precedent”) have been met to the satisfaction of the Authority and the Treasurer, unless any one or more of such conditions are waived in a writing executed by the Authority and the Treasurer:

- a. The Authority receives the State Contribution from the State.
- b. An endorsement of the Plan by the Official Retiree Committee which will include a letter from the Official Retiree Committee as part of the Plan solicitation package recommending to Classes 10 and 11 a vote in favor of the Plan, or equivalent assurances from member organizations representing a majority of retirees in the respective classes.
- c. Cessation of all litigation, including the cessation of funding of any litigation initiated by any other party, as it relates to the City (a) challenging PA 436 or any actions taken pursuant to PA 436, including but not limited to, a dismissal with prejudice of the cases set forth on Exhibit D, or (b) seeking to enforce Article IX, Section 24 of the Michigan Constitution; provided, however, (i) until the State Contribution is received by the Systems, the Systems agree to stay any pending litigation described in this subparagraph, and (ii) that as a condition precedent to the GRS and the PFRS dismissing any pending litigation described in this subparagraph that they are prosecuting, the GRS and the PFRS have the right to receive written confirmation from the Authority that the Authority is prepared and authorized to disburse the State Contribution in accordance with this Agreement and the Plan, subject only to the dismissal by the GRS and PFRS of any pending litigation described in this subparagraph that they are prosecuting.

- d. Active support of the Plan by, a release of and covenant not to sue the State from, and an agreement not to support in any way (including funding) the litigation described in subparagraph 4(c) by the parties listed on Exhibit C, or equivalent assurance of litigation finality (which, as to the Systems, shall be deemed satisfied by the execution of the Support and Release Agreement to be entered into by the State and each of the Systems in connection with this matter).
- e. Classes 10 and 11 accept the Plan.
- f. By December 31, 2014, the Court enters a final, non-appealable order confirming the Plan that includes, at a minimum, the following:
  - i. A release of the State and State Related Entities by each holder of a Pension Claim of all Liabilities arising from or related to the City, the Chapter 9 Case, including the authorization given to file the Chapter 9 Case, the Plan, all Exhibits, the Disclosure Statement, PA 436 and its predecessor or replacement statutes, and Article IX, Section 24 of the Michigan Constitution that such party has, had or may have against the State and any State Related Entities.
  - ii. A requirement that the governing documents of GRS and the governing documents of PFRS be amended to include:
    - a) the governance terms and conditions set forth in Paragraph 2, Exhibit A and Exhibit B of this Agreement; and
    - b) the Income Stabilization Payments and Income Stabilization Fund described in Paragraph 3 of this Agreement.
  - iii. Approval of, and authority for the City to enter into, the UTGO Settlement.
  - iv. A requirement that the City irrevocably assigns the right to receive not less than an aggregate amount of $20,000,000 of the payments on the Reinstated Stub UTGO Bonds to the Income Stabilization Funds of the GRS and PFRS. Such payments will be made to the Income Stabilization Funds in the form of annual installment payments over a 14 year period, pursuant to a payment schedule approved by the State.

- v. Approval of, and authority for the City to enter into, the DIA Settlement.
- vi. Agreement to and compliance with MCL 141.1561 and cooperation with the transition advisory board appointed pursuant to MCL 141.1563, or compliance with any new legislation that is enacted regarding post-bankruptcy governance.
- g. Evidence satisfactory to the State of an irrevocable commitment by:
  - i. The Foundations to fund $366,000,000 (or the net present value thereof) as part of the DIA Settlement; and
  - ii. The DIA Corp. to fund $100,000,000 (or the net present value thereof) as part of the DIA Settlement.
- h. The Plan Effective Date occurs on or before April 1, 2015.

5. Non-occurrence of Conditions Precedent. If the Conditions Precedent are not met to the satisfaction of the Authority and the Treasurer on or before April 1, 2015, upon written request of the Treasurer, the Authority shall remit the State Contribution to the Department and shall have no further obligations under this Agreement.

6. Default by GRS and PFRS; Cure Period; Remedies.

- a. A System will be in default if the System has not materially complied with any of the terms and conditions set forth in (i) the Plan, (ii) the Governing Documents, or (iii) this Agreement, including, but not limited to, failing to make the required Income Stabilization Payments or using funds in the Income Stabilization Fund for unauthorized purposes. For the purposes of this Agreement, "Governing Documents" shall mean, (x) for the GRS, the Combined Plan for the General Retirement System of the City of Detroit, Michigan, and (y) for the PFRS, the Combined Plan for the Police and Fire Retirement System of the City of Detroit, Michigan. Notwithstanding subparagraph 'e' below, there shall not be an event of default for purposes of this paragraph 6 unless and until the Treasurer delivers to the alleged defaulting System a written notice declaring and specifically identifying the facts of an alleged default (the "Default Notice"). Nothing herein shall prohibit the subject System from contesting the alleged default; provided, however, until the contest over the alleged default is resolved, the subject System may not include its State Contribution, as adjusted for earnings and losses, for purposes of determining whether benefits reduced by the Plan may be restored.
- b. In the event of a default by a System, the System shall have 100 days after receiving the Default Notice in accordance with subparagraph 'a' above (the "Cure Period") to cure such default by remedying the damages sustained as a result of the default, as well as making any delinquent

Income Stabilization Payments, and restoring any funds improperly removed from any other fund maintained by the System, including the Income Stabilization Fund, as applicable. Prior to the expiration of the Cure Period, at least six of the seven total aggregate votes of the Investment Committee for the defaulting System must certify to the Treasurer that (i) the default has been cured, and (ii) that no material damages have been caused by the default that have not otherwise been remedied (the “Cure Certification”). During the Cure Period, the defaulting System may not include its State Contribution, as adjusted for earnings and losses, for purposes of determining whether benefits reduced by the Plan may be restored.

- c. If the Investment Committee for the defaulting System provides the Cure Certification to the Treasurer in accordance with subparagraph ‘b’ above, then the default will be deemed cured and the defaulting System may once again include its State Contribution, as adjusted for earnings and losses, for purposes of determining whether benefits reduced by the Plan may be restored.
- d. If the Investment Committee for the defaulting System fails to provide the Cure Certification to the Treasurer in accordance with subparagraph ‘b’ above, then no portion of the total State Contribution to the defaulting system, as adjusted for earnings and losses, may be taken into consideration by the System during the remainder of the 20 year period following the date of such default for purposes of determining whether benefits reduced by the Plan may be restored. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if at any time during or after the Cure Period the Investment Committee certifies by a simple majority vote, that (i) the default has been cured; and (ii) that no material damages have been caused by the default that have not otherwise been remedied, then the Treasurer may consent to the defaulting System once again including its State Contribution, as adjusted for earnings and losses, for purposes of determining whether benefits reduced by the Plan may be restored, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.
- e. Each Investment Committee shall provide compliance reports to the Treasurer on a semi-annual basis and at such other times as the Treasurer reasonably may request (each, a “Compliance Report”) that certifies that the Investment Committee is not aware of any defaults, or, if the Investment Committee is aware of a default, specifically identifying the facts of such default. After review of a Compliance Report, the Treasurer shall provide to the System either a certificate of compliance or a Default Notice.
- f. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event of a default, the Treasurer and the Authority shall have the right to pursue all available legal and equitable remedies against the Board of Trustees for the defaulting System, the Investment Committee, or any other person.

7. Execution in Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be deemed to be an original and all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument.

8. Governing Law/Jurisdiction. This Agreement shall be construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Michigan, without reference to its conflict of law provisions, and the obligations, rights and remedies of the parties hereunder shall be determined in accordance with such laws. The Bankruptcy Court of the Eastern District of Michigan shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any action or proceeding solely with respect to this Agreement, and each party, to the extent permitted by law, agrees to submit to such jurisdiction and to waive any defense based on venue or jurisdiction of such court.

9. Amendment. This Agreement may be amended, modified, superseded or canceled, and any of the terms, covenants, representations, warranties or conditions hereof may be waived only by an instrument in writing signed by each of the Parties.

10. Limitation of Liability. The obligation to make the State Contribution is not a general obligation or indebtedness of the State or the Authority and is subject to satisfaction of the conditions described herein. Furthermore, neither the State nor the Authority has any liability or obligation arising from or related to the contributions and funding of the Income Stabilization Fund of each System. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, no State Related Entity or board member of the Authority shall have any liability for the representations, warranties, covenants, agreements or other obligations of the State or the Authority hereunder or in any of the certificates, notices or agreements delivered pursuant hereto.

11. Severability. If any one or more of the covenants, agreements or provisions of this Agreement shall be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, the invalidity of any such covenants, agreements and provisions shall in no way affect the validity or effectiveness of the remainder of this Agreement, and it shall continue in force to the fullest extent permitted by law.

12. Headings. ## TUNNEL LEASE AMENDMENT

FIRST AMENDMENT TO LEASE

THIS FIRST AMENDMENT TO LEASE (this “Amendment”) is made and entered into as of the ____ day of _____, 2014 (the “Date Hereof”), by and between the City of Detroit, a Michigan municipal corporation (the “City”), and Detroit Windsor Tunnel LLC, a Michigan limited liability company (“Tenant”).

RECITALS

A. The City, as landlord, and Tenant, as successor-in-interest to Detroit & Canada Tunnel Corporation (“DCTC”), as tenant, are parties to the Tube Lease, dated March 20, 1978 (the “Tube Lease”), whereby the City leases to Tenant the portion of the Detroit Windsor Tunnel (the entire such tunnel, the “Tunnel”) located in Detroit, which portion is more particularly defined in the Tube Lease and referenced herein as the “Tube.”

B. The City, as landlord, as successor-in-interest to Ford Motor Properties, Inc. as sublandlord, and Tenant, as tenant, as successor-in-interest to DCTC as subtenant, are parties to the Sublease, dated March 20, 1978 (the “Plaza Lease”; together with the Tube Lease, the “Lease”), whereby the City leases to Tenant certain property defined in the Plaza Lease as the “New Tunnel Plaza” (such premises, the “Plaza Premises”; together with the Tube, the “Property”).

C. The term of the Lease (the “Term”) expires on November 3, 2020, and the period commencing on the Effective Date through and including November 3, 2020 shall be referenced herein as the “Existing Remainder Term”.

D. The City desires to enter into a long-term agreement regarding the operation of the Property to assure that (i) the Tunnel will continue to provide to residents of Detroit and to other Tunnel passengers a safe and efficient route between Detroit and Windsor; (ii) the Property will be maintained and enhanced; and (iii), to promote such goals, there is transparency to the City regarding the operation of the Property.

E. In furtherance of the goals of the City, the Tenant desires to enter into a long-term agreement with the City regarding the leasing and operation of the Property.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and legal sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

1. Capitalized Terms; Effective Date. Any capitalized term used herein and not otherwise defined shall have the meaning ascribed to such term in the Plaza Lease. “Effective Date” means the first day of the month next succeeding the month in which occurs the Date Hereof.

2. Extension of Term. The term of the Tube Lease is extended for the period beginning November 4, 2020 and ending on December 31, 2040 (such period, the “Extension Term”), upon all the terms and conditions as contained in the Tube Lease and applicable during the Third Renewal Option (as defined in the Plaza Lease), except as amended hereby. The term of the Plaza Lease is extended for the Extension Term, upon all the terms and conditions as contained in the Plaza Lease and applicable during the Third Renewal Option (as defined in the Plaza Lease), except as amended hereby.

3. Existing Term CapEx Credit; CapEx Schedule.

- (a) For any Capital Expenditures (as defined below) paid by Tenant during the Existing Remainder Term (the “Existing Remainder Term Capital Expenditures”), Tenant shall receive a credit equal to the amount of such Existing Remainder Term Capital Expenditures (a “CapEx Credit”) against the aggregate rentals payable by Tenant pursuant to Article IV of the Plaza Lease (such amounts, the “Rent”) during the Existing Remainder Term; provided, however, that the aggregate CapEx Credit to which Tenant is entitled pursuant to this Paragraph 3 shall not exceed the aggregate Rent payable by Tenant during the Existing Remainder Term. Tenant shall not claim a CapEx Credit for any Capital Expenditures paid in advance of the performance of the related work, other than for progress payments customary in the industry (or payments required due to emergency) without the City’s prior written approval, which shall not be unreasonably withheld, delayed or conditioned. Subject to Paragraph 5, Tenant may not take a CapEx Credit during the Extension Term for an Existing Remainder Term Capital Expenditure.
- (b) “Capital Expenditures” means (i) capital expenditures, as determined by generally accepted accounting principles consistently applied in the United States (“GAAP”), paid for work to or at the Plaza Premises and (ii) (x) while the Existing JOA (as defined herein) or any successor agreement between Tenant (or its affiliate) and the City of Windsor (or its instrumentality) (any such agreement, a “D/W Agreement”) is in effect, 50% of the total capital expenditures, determined in accordance with GAAP, paid by Tenant (or its affiliate) and the City of Windsor (or its instrumentality) pursuant to a D/W Agreement for work to or at all or any portion of the underground tube of the Tunnel (i.e., the tube from and including the Detroit portal to and including the Windsor portal; such tube, the “Underground Portion”); provided, however, that Capital Expenditures made to the Underground Portion while a D/W Agreement is in effect shall be made such that the Detroit side of the Underground Portion is in a condition commensurate with the condition of the Windsor side of the Underground Portion; or (y) if no D/W Agreement is in effect, 100% of the capital expenditures, determined in accordance with GAAP, paid by Tenant for work to or at all or any portion for the Tube.
- (c) Within ninety (90) days after the Effective Date, Tenant shall provide the City a detailed plan and schedule for the capital improvements planned to be made to the Tunnel during the year in which the Effective Date occurs and the approximately five (5) years following the Effective Date. On or before each January 31st during the Term, Tenant shall deliver to the City an annual update of such plan together with a plan for the succeeding five (5) years.

4. Extension Term CapEx Credit.

- (a) For any Capital Expenditures paid by Tenant during the Extension Term (the “Extension Term Capital Expenditures”), Tenant shall receive a CapEx Credit against the Rent payable by Tenant during the Extension Term equal to the amount of such Extension Term Capital Expenditures; provided, however, the aggregate CapEx Credit to which Tenant is entitled during the Extension Term pursuant to this Paragraph 4 shall not exceed $8,000,000; and provided, further, that the annual CapEx Credit claimed by Tenant under this Paragraph 4 in any given calendar year of the Extension Term shall not exceed 75% of the Rent payable for such calendar year (but such annual limitation shall not in any way reduce the aggregate CapEx Credit to which Tenant is entitled under this Paragraph 4). If the Lease (as amended from time to time) terminates prior to December 31, 2040, other than due to a default by Tenant, then the City shall pay to Tenant, on thirty (30) days’ written notice from Tenant, the amount of CapEx Credits that have accrued to Tenant but have not been applied against the Rent.
- (b) No more than sixty (60) days prior to November 4, 2020, Tenant shall provide the City a high-level, strategic plan for the capital improvements that may be made to the Tunnel during the Extension Term to the extent such plan is known or is customary in the tunnel operations field.

5. CapEx Credit Documentation.

- (a) Tenant may offset the amount of any accrued but uncredited CapEx Credits against any monthly payments of Rent, subject to the limitations in Paragraphs 3 and 4. On or prior to the date of claiming any CapEx Credit (i.e., on or before the date of payment of any monthly installment of Rent, or if none is payable, on or before the date such monthly installment of Rent would otherwise have been payable) or requesting payment pursuant to the last sentence of Paragraph 4(a), Tenant shall submit to the City a notice setting forth the amount of the claimed CapEx Credit, together with reasonably detailed written documentation of the Capital Expenditures (and the work associated therewith) for which Tenant is entitled to a CapEx Credit (such notice, a “CapEx Notice”). Within five (5) days after receipt of any CapEx Notice, the City shall have the right to ask for reasonable additional information to verify such Capital Expenditures were paid and to determine the nature of work associated with such Capital Expenditure. If the City in good faith believes that a CapEx Credit was claimed for an expenditure that does not fall within the definition of “Capital Expenditure,” as such term is defined in Paragraph 3(b) above, then the City shall give Tenant notice thereof (a “Dispute Notice”) within fifteen (15) days after receipt of the applicable CapEx Notice, and the date on which Rent is due shall be extended by fifteen (15) days. If the City timely delivers a Dispute Notice, Tenant shall receive the portion of the CapEx Credit that is undisputed, if any, and shall pay the amount of disputed Rent, subject to the provisions of Article XVIII(2) of the Plaza Lease regarding disputed payments.

- (b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease, as amended hereby, if the City timely provides a Dispute Notice in connection with a CapEx Credit claimed for Existing Remainder Term Capital Expenditures, and if and to the extent such dispute is resolved in Tenant's favor, then the City shall promptly pay an amount equal to the formerly disputed CapEx Credit to Tenant, or at Tenant's option, Tenant may credit such formerly disputed CapEx Credit against the Rent next coming due; provided, however, if (i) the aggregate accrued but unapplied CapEx Credit to which Tenant is entitled under Paragraph 3, plus the formerly disputed CapEx Credit, exceed the aggregate Rent payable during the portion of the Existing Remainder Term commencing at the time the dispute is resolved; or (ii) at the time the dispute is resolved, the Existing Remainder Term has ended; then in addition to, and without in any way reducing, the CapEx Credits to which Tenant is entitled under Paragraph 4, Tenant may take such formerly disputed CapEx Credit as a credit against the Rents payable during the Extension Term. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall Tenant be entitled to aggregate CapEx Credits for the Existing Remainder Term Capital Expenditures in excess of the aggregate Rent payable during the Existing Remainder Term.
- (c) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease, as amended hereby, if the City timely delivers a Dispute Notice in connection with a CapEx Credit claimed for Extension Term Capital Expenditures, and if and to the extent such dispute is resolved in Tenant's favor, then the City shall promptly pay an amount equal to the formerly disputed CapEx Credit to Tenant, or at Tenant's option, Tenant may credit such formerly disputed CapEx Credit against the Rent next coming due (in addition to, and not in limitation of, any CapEx Credit due under Paragraph 4). Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall Tenant be entitled to aggregate CapEx Credits for Extension Term Capital Expenditures in excess of $8,000,000.
- (d) The provisions of this Paragraph 5 shall survive the expiration or sooner termination of the Lease, as amended hereby.

6. Repair and Maintenance Standards. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease, but subject to the casualty and condemnation provisions therein, Tenant shall maintain the Property in a good and safe condition and repair, in compliance with all applicable laws, and in accordance with the following sections of the Existing JOA (as defined below): Sections 8.1(d), (e) and (f), and the first grammatical paragraph of Section 8.1; Sections 8.3(a), (b) and (c); Section 8.4; Section 8.6; Section 9; Exhibit 8.1 and Sections 1, 2 and the first paragraph of Section 3 of Exhibit 9.1, provided that the second sentence of that first paragraph of Section 3 of Exhibit 9.1 shall be replaced with "The program shall include regular and customary cleaning and grounds maintenance." In the event that the Existing JOA is terminated or amended, these standards shall continue to apply (to the extent applicable).

7. Reporting. In addition to its reporting obligations under the Lease, but subject to Paragraph 10 hereof, Tenant shall deliver, at its sole cost and expense, the following reports and information to the City:

- (a) Within one hundred eighty (180) days following the end of each calendar year ending during the term of the Lease: (i) a copy of the audited balance sheets of Tenant at the end of each such calendar year and the related audited statements of income, calculation of annual rental, changes in equity and cash flows for such year, including, in each case, the notes thereto, together with the report thereon of the independent certified public accountants of Tenant, in each case in a manner and containing information consistent with Tenant's current practices and certified by Tenant's chief financial officer that such financial statements fairly present the financial condition and the results of operations, changes in equity and cash flows of Tenant as at the respective dates of and for the periods referred to in such financial statements, all in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States consistently applied; (ii) a report, in a format reasonably acceptable to the City, certified by the Tenant's chief financial officer, providing reasonably detailed information regarding any work associated with Capital Expenditures undertaken by the Tenant with respect to the Property, including such information as may be reasonably requested by the City, which shall include the type of work associated with such Capital Expenditures, the expected cost therefor, the expected completion date, the contractor engaged to perform such work associated with such Capital Expenditures, and any expected disruption of traffic in the Property as a result of the work associated with such Capital Expenditures; and (iii) a report, in a format reasonably acceptable to the City, detailing the amount of traffic through the Property on a weekly, monthly and quarterly basis, the make-up of that traffic and the Tenant's projections for the traffic in the upcoming calendar year and the Tenant's basis therefor;
- (b) Within thirty (30) days after the end of each six-month period, commencing with the six-month period ending June 30, 2015, a report, in a format reasonably acceptable to the City, detailing all material incidents that occurred in the Tunnel, including, but not limited to, vehicular accidents and hazardous material releases, but in each case only if such incidents materially impeded the normal operations of the Tunnel;
- (c) promptly after the occurrence thereof, an email report on any incident occurring in the Tunnel and causing material damage to property or injury to persons, if such incident results in the closure of any portion of the Tunnel for at least an hour;
- (d) within thirty (30) days after receipt by Tenant, a copy of (i) the engineering reports required by Sections 8.7 and 8.8 of the Joint Operating Agreement by and among the Corporation of the City of Windsor, the Windsor Tunnel Commission and Tenant (as successor-in-interest to DCTC and The Detroit and Windsor Subway Company, Ltd.) dated November 1, 1997 (the "Existing JOA"); or (ii) if the Existing JOA is amended or modified to change the requirements for those reports, (x) every year, an engineering report based on visual inspection of the Tunnel made by an independent, licensed engineer reasonably acceptable to Tenant and (y) every five (5) years a comprehensive engineering report on the Tunnel prepared by an independent, licensed engineer reasonably acceptable to the City, which report shall include, but not be limited to, an analysis of the structural integrity of the Tunnel, a description of the current state of the Tunnel, including its fixtures and mechanical systems, recommended capital expenditures for the Tunnel and such other information as the City may reasonably request; and

- (e) Within thirty (30) days after such request, any information regarding the Property reasonably requested by the City, provided that such information is in the possession or control of Tenant.

8. Right to Inspect. The City shall have the right, upon at least three (3) business days' written notice to Tenant, at reasonable times, provided that such inspection does not unreasonably interfere with the normal operation of the Property (and as to any portion of the Property subleased as of the date hereof or subsequently subleased to a governmental authority, does not violate the applicable sublease) and at the City's sole cost and expense, to have the Property inspected by an engineer, who is (i) either employed directly by the City or with whom the City has contracted; and (ii) licensed and has at least ten (10) years' experience in engineering matters related to construction, maintenance and repair of infrastructure projects or tunnels. Inspections made pursuant to this Paragraph 8 may only be performed once in each calendar year, except such limitation shall not apply when Tenant is in default of its obligations under Paragraph 6 of this Amendment or any other of its obligations regarding the repair, maintenance and operation of the Tunnel. Tenant shall make the Property and a senior officer who is responsible for maintenance and/or operations of the Property reasonably available to such engineer for the purposes of such inspection and shall provide such engineer any documentation in Tenant's possession or control, reasonably requested by such engineer, subject to Paragraph 10. Without limiting any provision hereof, any such engineering inspections conducted by or on behalf of the City shall be performed in accordance with all applicable laws and with all reasonable operating rules and regulations applicable to the Property. The City shall cause any individual or firm performing an inspection pursuant to this Paragraph 8 to be bound by the confidentiality obligations of the City pursuant to the provisions of Paragraph 10 hereof.

9. Calculation of Net Operating Income. For the avoidance of doubt, in calculating "net operating income" as defined in Section IV(2)(b) of the Plaza Lease, Tenant shall not include any expenses that are not attributable to the operation, maintenance and repair of the Property or to Tenant's obligations under the Lease; and, to the extent Tenant or Tenant's affiliates incur costs that are only partially attributable to the Property, Tenant shall not include as an expense for Section IV(2)(b) of the Plaza Lease the portion of those costs that are not attributable to the Property. Allocations will be prepared consistent with GAAP and the specific methodology and allocation shall be reflected and set forth in the companies' audited financial statements.

10. Confidentiality.

- (a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Lease, no information or document provided by Tenant to the City pursuant to or in connection with the Lease, as amended hereby, shall be subject to any confidentiality restrictions, and the City may publicly disclose such information or disclose such information to third parties as it deems appropriate in its sole discretion; provided, however, that Tenant shall have no obligation to deliver to the City (and Tenant may redact from information it delivers to the City) any Confidential Information (as defined below); and provided, further, that if Tenant delivers to the City any Confidential Information (and labels it as such), then the City shall not disclose such information to third parties (other than to its professional advisors, employees, third-party report providers, affiliates, officers, members, underwriters, agents, consultants, lenders, investors and legal counsel and as to those, only on a need-to-know basis, as reasonably determined by the City, provided such parties are bound by the confidentiality obligations of the City set forth in this Paragraph 10).

- (b) “Confidential Information” means information that (i) relates to maintaining national security and/or to maintaining security at the Tunnel; (ii) is required to be kept confidential by applicable law, regulation or order; or (iii) is a trade secret or is other information that is proprietary to Tenant (including, without limitation, information regarding Tenant’s proprietary toll and revenue collecting and accounting system and Tenant’s mobile app for express payments, and other technical and business information relating to Tenant’s proprietary ideas, patentable ideas, copyrights, and other proprietary systems and software).
- (c) If Tenant chooses to withhold Confidential Information from the City, Tenant shall promptly provide written notice that it has done so. The City, through its authorized representative, shall have the right, upon reasonable advance written notice to Tenant, to inspect any Confidential Information, which shall not be redacted, at the offices of Tenant within the City to verify during customary business hours that such information is Confidential Information and to review such Confidential Information, provided that the City may not make a copy of such Confidential Information.
- (d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in Lease (as amended hereby), in an effort to ensure that the City, Tenant and the City of Windsor can effectively and efficiently operate the Tunnel in an integrated and seamless manner, the City shall have the right to share with Windsor all information regarding the Tunnel it receives, and Tenant shall cause it and its affiliates to not restrict the City of Windsor, or its affiliates, from providing the City any information related to the Tunnel.
- (e) Nothing contained in this Lease (as amended hereby) shall be construed to limit or reduce the rights and powers of the State of Michigan or the United States of America.

11. Ineligible Parties. It shall be a default under the Lease, as amended hereby, if any Ineligible Party (as defined below) shall be involved in the operation, financing, construction or management of the Property or the improvements thereon, or if such Ineligible Party has a direct or indirect beneficial interest in Tenant. “Ineligible Party” means any individual or entity, or any entity controlled by, controlling or under common control with any individual or entity, maintaining a controlling interest in any crossing of the border between the State of Michigan and Canada, such as any tunnel, bridge or other similar infrastructure; provided, however that the term “Ineligible Party” shall not include Pike Pointe Holdings, LLC; any entity controlled, controlling or under common control with Pike Pointe Holdings LLC; or Windsor.

12. Operation of an Integrated Tunnel. The parties acknowledge that it is in their respective and joint interests to cause the entire Tunnel to be operated in a harmonious and integrated manner. The City understands that to effect such operation, Tenant intends to negotiate a new or amended operating agreement with the City of Windsor (or an agency or instrumentality thereof), and that Tenant will negotiate such agreement in good faith (but that Tenant shall have no obligation to enter into such an agreement). The City also understands that achieving such purpose may require amendments to the Lease (as amended hereby) and agrees to be reasonable, and to act in good faith, in discussing and considering any such amendments. For avoidance of doubt, (i) Tenant will not have any obligation to enter into any such amendment that would (x) adversely affect (other than in a de minimis manner) its rights under the Lease, as amended hereby, (y) increase (other than in a de minimis manner) its obligations under the Lease, as amended from time to time or (z) decrease (other than in a de minimis manner) the City’s obligations under the Lease, as amended from time to time; and (ii) the City will not have any obligation to enter into any such amendment that would (x) adversely affect (other than in a de minimis manner) its rights under the Lease, as amended hereby, (y) increase (other than in a de minimis manner) its obligations under the Lease, as amended from time to time or (z) decrease (other than in a de minimis manner) Tenant’s obligations under the Lease, as amended from time to time.

13. Notices. Article XVIII(3) of the Plaza Lease and Article XV(3) of the Tube Lease are each amended and restated as follows:

OPTION AGREEMENT

OPTION AGREEMENT

THIS OPTION AGREEMENT (this “Agreement”) is made and entered into as of the ____ day of _____, 2014, by and between Pike Pointe Holdings, LLC (“Pike Pointe”) and the City of Detroit, a Michigan municipal corporation (the “City”).

RECITALS

A. The City owns that certain parking garage, commonly known as the Grand Circus Parking Garage, located at 1600-01 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Michigan, as more particularly described in Exhibit 1 (the “Circus Garage”).

B. The Detroit Building Authority (the “DBA”) had previously owned the Circus Garage and had leased it to the City pursuant to the Contract of Lease No. 2 by and between the City and the DBA, dated October 1985, (as amended, the “DBA Lease”).

C. The DBA Lease has previously terminated pursuant to its terms, and pursuant to the terms of the DBA Lease, title to the property leased thereunder, including the Circus Garage, reverted back to the City.

D. Syncora Capital Assurance Inc. and Syncora Guarantee Inc. (collectively, “Syncora”) own the entire beneficial interest in Pike Pointe.

E. Syncora, through one or more of its affiliates, including Pike Pointe, owns and operates certain public infrastructure projects.

F. In connection with the continued improvement of the City, the City desires to grant an option to Pike Pointe with respect to the possibility of negotiating and entering into a mutually agreeable concession agreement for the operation and maintenance of the Circus Garage pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, and Pike Pointe desires to accept such option.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the foregoing and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt and legal sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the parties agree as follows:

1. Option. Pike Pointe shall have the option, in its sole discretion, to enter into a concession for the Circus Garage (the “Option”) on the terms set forth herein. In order to exercise the Option, Pike Pointe must deliver written notice to the City notifying the City that Pike Pointe has exercised the Option (the “Exercise Notice”), which Exercise Notice must be delivered within one (1) year from the effective date of the Seventh Amended Plan for the Adjustment of Debts of the City of Detroit, as it may be further amended and as modified (the “Plan of Adjustment”). After delivery of the Exercise Notice, the City and Pike Pointe shall promptly and in good faith, negotiate a concession agreement in accordance with the terms set forth in Exhibit 2; provided, however, that neither party shall be obligated to execute a concession agreement. If, within ninety (90) days following the delivery of the Exercise Notice, an agreement has not been reached between the City and Pike Pointe regarding the Circus Garage, either party may, by delivery of notice to the other party, terminate this Option, and thereafter Pike Pointe shall have no right with respect to the Circus Garage.

2. Failure to Exercise. If Pike Pointe fails to send the Exercise Notice within one (1) year after the effective date of the Plan of Adjustment, Pike Pointe will be deemed to have not exercised the Option and will have no further right to do so nor shall it have any interest in the Circus Garage. At such time, this Agreement and the Option will have no further force or effect.

3. Anti-Assignment. Pike Pointe may not assign to any third party (other than a wholly owned subsidiary or other affiliate of Syncora in which Syncora is the direct or indirect beneficial owner (a “Pike Pointe Affiliate”), any interest in this Agreement or the Option without the City’s prior written consent, which consent may be withheld in the City’s sole discretion. Any attempted assignment without the City’s consent shall be void ab initio and of no force and effect, and such purported transferee shall have no right to exercise the Option nor shall it have any interest in the Circus Garage. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, Pike Pointe shall have no right to exercise the Option if, at the time of such exercise and the execution of the Concession Agreement, Syncora is not a direct or indirect beneficial owner of Pike Pointe.

4. Title to Circus Garage. The City shall cause the DBA to execute such documentation as is necessary to confirm the transfer of ownership of the Circus Garage to the City promptly after execution of this Agreement. The City shall retain title to the Circus Garage during such time as Pike Pointe has the right to exercise the Option and shall maintain the Circus Garage in at least the same condition and repair as of the date hereof.

5. Development Agreements. Pike Pointe hereby acknowledges that the City has entered into certain development agreements with third party developers, which agreements contemplate that those developers will have the right to use parking spots within the Circus Garage at fair market rates (as determined by Pike Pointe from time to time and consistent with the rates provided to other patrons of the Circus Garage), and Pike Pointe agrees that it shall execute leases, licenses or other usage agreements with such developers on those terms. The City will provide the material terms and conditions of those development agreements with respect to developers’ use of Circus Garage as soon as is reasonably practicable following execution of this Agreement.

6. Due Diligence Activities.

(a) Prior to delivery of the Exercise Notice, Pike Pointe shall have a period commencing on the date hereof and continuing through and including the date of the delivery of the Exercise Notice or the expiration or termination of this Option, whichever is sooner, (the “Due Diligence Period”) to conduct its due diligence activities on the Circus Garage, which shall not unreasonably interfere with the use and operation of the Circus Garage. For purposes of this Agreement, “Due Diligence Activities” include but are not limited to the following:

(A) such physical inspections, soil borings and bearing tests, surveys, and possible relocation of utilities on or for the Circus Garage as Pike Pointe deems appropriate, all of which shall be completed at Pike Pointe’s expense;

- (B) investigations, environmental site assessments, including Phase I and Phase II site assessments, sampling and testing of soil, groundwater, surface water, soil vapors, indoor air, and building materials (such as Asbestos and lead-based paint), and/or a Baseline Environmental Assessment, (“BEA”), as defined in Part 201 of the Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Act (“NREPA”), being MCL 324.20101 et seq., and such other investigations and assessments as Pike Pointe may deem needed in its sole discretion to determine the condition of the Circus Garage and the Circus Garage’s compliance with applicable law, all of which shall be completed at Pike Pointe’s expense; and
  - (C) a review of the title evidence, survey, entitlements, and payment of taxes and assessments, all of which shall be completed at Pike Pointe’s expense;
  - (D) a review of financing sources related to Pike Pointe’s proposed use of the Circus Garage, or any other matter that in Pike Pointe’s sole discretion is relevant to Pike Pointe’s use of the Circus Garage;
  - (E) a review of all City Information and all publicly-available information with respect to the Circus Garage;
  - (F) a review of available public and private utilities and public accesses necessary for the proposed use of the Circus Garage; and
  - (G) application and procurement of any zoning, site plan, elevation, special land use, environmental, conditional use or other municipal approvals or permits, or variances therefrom, required or appropriate for the proposed use of the Circus Garage. The City hereby authorizes Pike Pointe to submit and apply for all such approvals, permits, and variances upon the commencement of the Due Diligence Period.
- (b) Restoration of City Property. Promptly following completion of a Due Diligence Activity, Pike Pointe shall restore the Circus Garage and all property therein to the state in which it existed prior to the commencement of the Due Diligence Activity.
- (c) City Information. The City shall use reasonable efforts to make available to Pike Pointe all information in the City’s (or the City’s agencies’ or departments’) possession or control related to the Circus Garage within thirty (30) days following the effective date of the Plan of Adjustment, including but not limited to existing leases, licenses, permits, approvals, contracts, warranties, title searches and policies, surveys, appraisals, environmental audits, Phase I environmental site assessments, Phase II reports or other testing or sampling data, asbestos surveys, reports, specifications, from the Planning, Building, Assessing, Environmental Affairs and Fire Departments, notices of violations of applicable laws, regulations and ordinances or other documents in the City's possession or control related to the Circus Garage, to the extent the City is not required by law or applicable agreement to keep such information confidential (collectively, the "City Information"). The City shall cooperate with Pike Pointe and use reasonable efforts to facilitate Pike Pointe's Due Diligence Activities, all at no material incremental cost to the City, including providing information, coordinating with third party users of the Circus Garage as applicable, and executing such documentation as may be reasonable and necessary for Pike Pointe's access to the site and completion of the Due Diligence Activities including the preparation of a BEA.

- (d) Insurance. Prior to entering onto the Circus Garage for any Due Diligence Activities, Pike Pointe or its contractors shall enter into a right-of-entry agreement regarding the entry into the Circus Garage to be reasonably agreed to by the City and Pike Pointe.
- (e) Indemnity. Pike Pointe shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless the City from and against any loss, liability, cost or expense incurred by the City to the extent resulting from Pike Pointe's (including its duly authorized employees, agents, engineers or other representatives) negligence or willful acts occurring in connection with the Due Diligence Activities; provided, however, that Pike Pointe shall in no circumstance have any obligation or liability with respect to any conditions pre-existing at the Circus Garage including without limitation any environmental condition, soil or groundwater contamination or other environmental conditions that may be discovered in the course of the Pike Pointe's Due Diligence Activities and thereafter disclosed to the City, except to the extent such conditions are materially exacerbated due to the negligence or willful acts of Pike Pointe or any of its duly authorized employees, agents, engineers or other representatives, and (ii) Pike Pointe shall not be responsible for any loss, liability, cost, or expense resulting from the discovery of any adverse information or condition regarding the Circus Garage or from the City's (or the City's agencies' or departments') negligence or misconduct.

7. Notices. All notices, demands and other communications given or delivered under this Agreement shall be given in writing to the address indicated below (or such other address as the recipient specifies in writing) and will be deemed to have been given when delivered personally, three (3) business days after mailed by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested and postage prepaid, or when delivery is guaranteed if sent via a nationally recognized overnight carrier, or when receipt is confirmed if sent via facsimile or other electronic transmission to the recipient with telephonic confirmation by the sending party.

(iv) will have the same rights (other than priority) in and to the Distributable State Aid, and have the same protections (including, without limitation, a statutory lien to the same extent the 2010 Series A Bonds are secured by a statutory lien), as the 2010 Series A Bonds, except that the City's Deposit Date Balance Requirement (as defined in Section 2.5) with respect to the Municipal Obligation shall be as described in paragraph 2.5(e) below;

(v) will have the identical Financial Terms as the Restructured UTGO Bonds; and

(vi) will be pledged by the MFA to the bond trustee for the holders of the MFA Bonds pursuant to a resolution of the MFA authorizing the issuance of the MFA Bonds.

(b) Proceeds of the Aggregate UTGO Tax Levy allocated to the UTGO Bonds will be transferred promptly by the Debt Millage Escrow Trustee (i) first, for deposit to the Tax Levy Account held by the Master Trustee for the Municipal Obligation in an amount sufficient, together with funds already on deposit therein to pay debt service due on the Municipal Obligation on or before the April 1 following such deposit, together with any past due debt service on the Municipal Obligation, and (ii) second, to the assignee of the rights to payment from the Assigned UTGO Bond Tax Levy of amounts payable on the Stub UTGO Bonds on or before the April 1 following such deposit, an amount equal to the scheduled debt service on the Stub UTGO Bonds. Proceeds of the Aggregate UTGO Bond Tax Levy transferred to the Master Trustee for the purpose of paying debt service on the Municipal Obligation will be held in trust under applicable State law.

(c) Neither the Holders of the MFA Bonds nor the Bond Insurers will seek payment from the proceeds of the UTGO Bond Tax Levy in excess of the amounts necessary to pay the Municipal Obligation scheduled annual debt service plus any amount necessary to pay past due Municipal Obligation debt service plus any amounts required by Section 2.14(b).

Payments by the State Treasurer of Distributable State Aid will be deposited directly into the funds and accounts held by the Master Trustee in accordance with and as provided by the Agreement to Deposit Distributable State Aid and the Master Indenture. Distributable State Aid payments made to the Master Trustee for the purpose of paying debt service on the Municipal Obligation will be held in trust and subject to a statutory lien under applicable State law.

(b) The Master Trustee will be required to deposit all of the City's Distributable State Aid in the Debt Retirement Fund established under the Master Indenture and allocate and set aside Distributable State Aid into the various Distributable Aid Escrow Funds as provided in the Master Indenture, including, without limitation, the Series 2014 DSA Escrow Fund defined in Section 2.5(d) below (the "DSA Escrow Funds") created pursuant to one or more supplemental indentures to the Master Indenture for the purpose of accumulating Distributable State Aid in amounts required by such supplemental indentures to be deposited in the DSA Escrow Funds by the dates specified in such supplemental indentures to pay debt service on the bonds and obligations of the City secured by a pledge of Distributable State Aid.

(c) On each date that the State Treasurer deposits a payment of the City's Distributable State Aid (each a "DSA Deposit") with the Master Trustee (each a "DSA Deposit Date"), the Master Trustee shall set-aside such amounts as shall be sufficient to fund the minimum balances required to be on deposit in each DSA Escrow Fund to pay the then current annual principal and interest requirements on the related obligation as provided in the Master Indenture (each, a "Deposit Date Balance Requirement") and collectively the "Deposit Date Balance Requirements"). Any amounts remaining in the Debt Retirement Fund after the setting aside of the amounts necessary to satisfy the Deposit Date Balance Requirements of all DSA Escrow Funds, shall be released to the City for deposit to the General Fund of the City.

(d) On or before the Effective Date, the City pursuant to a supplemental indenture to the Master Indenture shall establish with the Master Trustee a Series 2014 DSA Escrow Fund (the "Series 2014 DSA Escrow Fund") for the purpose of accumulating Distributable State Aid in sufficient amounts to pay debt service on the Municipal Obligation. Moneys on deposit in the Series 2014 DSA Escrow Fund shall be held and withdrawn by the Master Trustee solely for the purpose of paying to the bond trustee for the holders of the MFA Bonds (as assignee of the MFA) the principal of and interest on the Municipal Obligation when due and payable, which payments will be used to make corresponding payments of principal and interest on the MFA Bonds. Within the Series 2014 DSA Escrow Fund there shall be created three separate and segregated sub-accounts designated the "Distributable Aid Account," the "Tax Levy Account," and the "General Account." Proceeds of the Aggregate UTGO Tax Levy allocated to the Municipal Obligation and transferred to the Master Trustee by the Escrow Agent pursuant to Section 2.4(b)(i) shall be deposited to the Tax Levy Account and used as described in subsection (f) below. That portion of Distributable State Aid necessary to pay the principal of and interest on the Municipal Obligation when due, shall be set aside and maintained in the Distributable Aid Account and used as described in subsection (e) below. All other moneys deposited to the Series 2014 DSA Escrow Fund from time to time by the City shall be set aside and maintained in the General Account and used as described in subsection (f) below.

(e) To the extent the Master Trustee does not have on deposit in the Tax Levy Account the required portions of principal and interest due on the next October 1 or April 1 on the first day of each month set forth below (the "Deposit Date Balance Requirement for the Municipal Obligation"), the Master Indenture will provide for the deposit of all, or such lesser amount as is necessary to correct the deficiency in the Deposit Date Balance Requirement for the Municipal Obligation, of that month's distribution of Distributable State Aid into the Distributable State Aid Account of the Series 2014 DSA Escrow Fund (after all deposits to DSA Escrow Funds established to pay debt service on obligations of the City having priority over the Municipal Obligation). The Deposit Date Balance Requirement for the Municipal Obligation will be as follows:

DEPOSIT DATE BALANCE REQUIREMENT

MONTH OF DSA PAYMENT	PORTION OF NEXT MUNICIPAL OBLIGATION INTEREST PAYMENT	PORTION OF NEXT MUNICIPAL OBLIGATION PRINCIPAL PAYMENT
November	1/3	4/6
January	2/3	5/6
March	100%	100%
September	100%	3/6

(f) Amounts on deposit in the Series 2014 DSA Escrow Fund shall be withdrawn from the DSA Escrow Fund for the purpose of paying debt service on the Municipal Obligation when due to the bond trustee for the holders of the MFA Bonds (as assignee of the MFA), which payments will be used to make corresponding payments of principal and interest on the MFA Bonds. Amounts shall be debited first from the Tax Levy Account in an amount necessary to pay the principal of and interest on the Municipal Obligation on the corresponding payment date, and thereafter, if the amount on deposit in the Tax Levy Account is not sufficient to make the payments required, the amount necessary to satisfy the deficiency shall be debited, first, from the Distributable Aid Account, and second, from the General Account.

Section 2.6. Additional Indebtedness. From and after the date of this Agreement and, pursuant to documentation in form and substance satisfactory to the Parties, until the MFA Bonds have been paid in full:

(a) the City shall not incur, or permit to be outstanding, debt secured by a lien on the Distributable State Aid that is senior to the lien securing the Municipal Obligation, other than debt secured by a lien on the Distributable State Aid on the date of this Agreement ("Existing DSA Debt") and additional debt ("Additional DSA Debt") secured on a second or third lien level so that the aggregate principal amount of (x) Existing DSA Debt (as of the effective date of this Agreement – i.e., $479,310,000) plus (y) the Additional DSA Debt thereafter issued will not exceed $560,000,000, provided that, with respect to any Additional Debt the existing financial covenants in the Master Indenture restricting the issuance of additional bonds under the Master Indenture are satisfied.

(b) Notwithstanding clause (a), the City may issue first, second or third lien refunding bonds secured pursuant to the Master Indenture so long as any such refunding issuance results in debt service savings by the City in each year that such refunding bonds will be outstanding (based upon the amortization schedule in effect prior to the time of such refunding) or, if the last maturity of the MFA Bonds is prior to final maturity of the refunding bonds then to be issued, then in each year during which the MFA Bonds are outstanding.

(c) The City shall not incur debt secured by a lien on the Distributable State Aid that is pari passu with the lien securing the Municipal Obligation.

(d) The City may incur debt secured by a lien on the Distributable State Aid that is junior and subordinate to the lien securing the Municipal Obligation.

Section 2.7. Levy and Collection of the Ad Valorem Debt Millage.

The Settlement-Related Documents will provide that:

(a) The City shall impose in each year a separate debt millage levy reasonably projected to be in an amount necessary to pay the debt service coming due on all unlimited tax general obligation bonds (including both the Municipal Obligation and the Stub UTGO Bonds) before the next annual tax levy, including any past due amounts, plus any amounts necessary to reimburse the City for other City funds used to pay prior debt service, less any millage proceeds or other funds already on deposit with the Debt Millage Escrow Trustee which are available to pay the debt service next coming due. The City shall comply with applicable law in levying and collecting ad valorem millage levied to pay all unlimited tax general obligation bonds.

(b) The City shall certify annually not later than June 30 in each year that it has imposed the debt millage levy as required by and in accordance with Section 2.7(a). Such annual certification shall be in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C and shall be promptly provided to the Bond Insurers.

(c) The City shall furnish to the Bond Insurers promptly upon request such information reasonably requested by the Bond Insurers to confirm the imposition of the debt millage levy and to monitor collections. The Bond Insurers shall have the right to discuss such information with the City, and the City will use reasonable efforts to explain the collection process to the Bond Insurers, including the allocation methods used for partial property tax payments.

Section 2.8. Plan Effectiveness and Escrowing of Payments.

(a) If the Effective Date of the Plan does not occur on or prior to September 30, 2014 for any reason other than proximately by reason of the actions or positions taken by any of the executing Bond Insurers, or their failure to support the Plan as provided in Section 3.1 below, solely in their capacity as the insurers of the Prior UTGO Bonds and not in any other capacity (including, for the avoidance of doubt in their capacity as insurers of any other obligations of the City), the City will pay into an escrow to be established with the current paying agent for the Prior UTGO Bonds the pro rata portion of the October 2014 scheduled interest debt service payment and any pro rata payments of principal and interest due thereafter, which would otherwise be paid on the Restructured UTGO Bonds, as if the transaction contemplated by this Agreement (other than the MFA Bond issuance) had closed. Specifically, and for clarification of the City's obligation under this paragraph, the City will pay into escrow the pro rata portion of scheduled debt service payments on the $287.56 million of Restructured UTGO Bonds due after September 30, 2014 through the Effective Date of the Plan, on the same terms and schedule as set forth in the current documents governing the Prior UTGO Bonds, which, subject to Section 2.8(b) below, such escrowed funds shall be released to the Bond Insurers on the Effective Date of the Plan. Such escrow shall be pursuant to the Settlement Escrow Agreement ("Settlement Escrow Agreement") in the form of Exhibit D attached hereto, which will be executed and delivered on the date of the execution and delivery of this Agreement.

(b) If the Plan is not effective by March 31, 2015, and the Bankruptcy Court has issued an Approval Order (that is not stayed pending appeal) approving the settlement embodied in this Agreement, then on [March 31, 2015] the monies in such escrow will be released to the Bond Insurers, and the City will make all subsequent debt service payments, including the payment due on April 1, 2015, directly to the paying agent for the Prior UTGO Bonds as if the Restructured UTGO Bonds transaction (other than the MFA Bond issuance) had closed. If an Approval Order is entered but is subject to a stay pending appeal, the City shall continue to pay into escrow the scheduled debt service on the Prior UTGO Bonds for so long as such stay remains in effect, and shall release all monies in the escrow accounts as soon as such order is no longer subject to stay.

(c) If the Plan is not effective by September 30, 2014, then within fifteen (15) days of a request by the Bond Insurers, the City shall file an Approval Motion pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 with the Bankruptcy Court. The City and the Bond Insurers may mutually make an Approval Motion pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019 at any time upon mutual agreement of the City and the Bond Insurers.

Section 2.9. Confirmation Order and Findings. The Plan Confirmation Order shall include provisions substantially in the form of Exhibit E. Any material modification to such provisions shall be reasonably satisfactory to the Parties.

Section 2.10. Conditions to Plan Effectiveness. The Plan shall provide that the effectiveness of the Plan is subject to the following conditions:

(a) The Michigan Finance Authority board shall have approved the issuance of the MFA Bonds and such bonds shall have been issued; and

(b) The City shall have obtained all governmental and Emergency Manager consents and approvals required to carry out the terms of this Agreement.

Section 2.11. Most Favored Nation. In recognition of the unique features of the UTGO Bonds and in consideration of the settlement, the City agrees that the Bond Insurers will benefit from a "most favored nation" provision consisting of the two fundamental protections below and that such provision will be described in the Plan. Further, the City agrees that, if a class of Impaired Financial Creditors receives treatment other than the current treatment in the Fourth Amended Plan for the Adjustment of Debts of the City of Detroit (May 5, 2014) [Docket No. 4392], such class' treatment in the Plan will include the existence of this "most favored nation" provision.

(a) Recovery Percentage Projected as of Confirmation Date. Under no circumstances shall the terms of the Plan permit either of the Limited Tax General Obligation Claims or the COP Claims (each as defined in the Plan and collectively, the "Impaired Financial Creditors") to recover more on a percentage basis than the UTGO Claims as projected at Plan confirmation. In determining whether a Class of Impaired Financial Creditors will recover more on a percentage basis than the UTGO Claims as projected at Plan confirmation, the recovery percentage for each of the Impaired Financial Creditors' Claims will be the sum of:

(i) the percentage that any cash payments and the principal amount of any "hard pay" instrument, combination of instruments or any other evidences of indebtedness or payment obligations of any kind (collectively, the "Hard Pay Instruments") provided to such Impaired Financial Creditor Class under the Plan is of the aggregate amount of all the Allowed Claims in such Impaired Financial Creditor Class; and

(ii) the percentage that the reasonably anticipated recovery (as reasonably determined by the City as of Plan confirmation and as disclosed to creditors subject to the Bond Insurers' right to contest such determination as part of the confirmation hearing) on account of any "soft pay", contingent, or similar type of instrument, combination of instruments or any other evidences of indebtedness, contracts or settlements creating payment obligations of any kind including, without limitation, payment obligations relating to a sale, lease, privatization, public private partnership or similar arrangement or the value of any assets projected to be distributed or promised revenue streams or recoveries of any kind (collectively, the "Soft Pay Instruments" and together with the Hard Pay Instruments, the "Plan Instruments") provided to such Impaired Financial Creditor Class under the Plan is of the aggregate amount of all the Allowed Claims in such Impaired Financial Creditor Class.

(b) Actual Recovery Percentage Post-Confirmation. In the event the actual recovery percentage of any Impaired Financial Creditor Class on the aggregate Plan Instruments provided to such Impaired Financial Creditor's Class would result in such Class receiving 69.5% or more of the aggregate amount of all the Allowed Claims in any such Class (the "Trigger Event"), then payments that contribute to the Impaired Financial Creditor Class receiving a recovery over 69.5% (the "Trigger Payments") shall be made under such Plan Instruments to the Bond Insurers ("Top-Off Payments") on account of the Bond Insurer Claims in amounts equal to the following:

- (i) the amount of the Trigger Payment, multiplied by
- (ii) the quotient of
  - (A) $100.5 million, divided by
  - (B) the sum of (x) 30.5% of the aggregate amount of all the Allowed Claims in the particular Impaired Financial Creditor Class, and (y) $100.5 million.

For purposes of this sub-section, all actual recoveries for Impaired Financial Creditor Classes shall be determined by discounting the payments using a 5% discount rate back to the date of Plan confirmation. Amounts payable to the Bond Insurers pursuant to the provisions of this Section 2.11 will be allocated to the Bond Insurers as set forth on Schedule 2 attached hereto.

(c) Reporting. The City shall deliver to the Bond Insurers:

- (i) promptly after the first payment is made thereunder, a written notice of any payment under any Soft Pay Plan Instrument benefiting any Impaired Financial Creditor Class, including the amount and date of such payment;

(ii) on each January 15 of every year beginning in the year after the first payment is made on any Soft Pay Plan Instrument benefiting any Impaired Financial Creditor Class and until the maturity date of the Soft Pay Instrument, a written report calculating the aggregate recovery percentage of each Impaired Financial Creditor Class;

(iii) after any Impaired Financial Creditor Class achieves a recovery percentage on the aggregate amount of all the Allowed Claims in such class equal to or greater than 60%, on each January 15 and July 15, a written report calculating the aggregate recovery percentage of each Impaired Financial Creditor Class;

(iv) after a Trigger Event occurs, a written report on each date that a payment is made under any Plan Instruments held by or benefiting an Impaired Financial Creditor Class that explains the calculation for the Trigger Payment and the Top-Off Payment and demonstrates compliance with the terms of this Agreement; and

(v) written notice in the event any Impaired Financial Creditor challenges or disagrees in any manner with the determination of any payments related to a Trigger Payment.

The City official executing any written notice or written report described above will respond within a reasonable time to written inquiries from any Bond Insurer regarding such notice or report. In the event any Bond Insurer or Insurers make a written request to meet with such City official, such City Official will meet within a reasonable time period with such Bond Insurer or Insurers to answer their reasonable questions regarding any such notice or report.

(d) Dispute Resolution. In the event any of the Bond Insurers provides a written notice to the City articulating disagreement with the City's determination of whether a Trigger Event has occurred or with the amount of shared payments after a Trigger Event pursuant to subsection 2.11(c)(iv), the City will notify all Bond Insurers and meet with the Bond Insurers within 15 business days of such written notice. At the meeting the Parties will attempt in good faith to resolve the differences. If the Parties are unable to reach a resolution of the differences the Bond Insurers will have the right to bring an enforcement action in the Bankruptcy Court.

Section 2.12. Legal Opinions.

Bond counsel will provide at closing customary legal opinions relating to the validity, priority and enforceability of any MFA transaction in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Bond Insurers; such opinions to include standard bankruptcy opinion exceptions. Bond counsel will also provide a customary opinion in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Bond Insurers, on the exemption of interest from Federal and State taxation of the MFA Bonds and the Municipal Obligation.

No opinion will be provided with respect to any aspect of any lien on the UTGO Bond Tax Levy.

Section 2.13. Stay of Litigation, Proofs of Claim.

(a) The Assured/NPFG Action and Ambac Action (the “UTGO Litigation”) as it relates to the Prior UTGO Bonds shall be stayed pending the issuance of an Approval Order or Plan Confirmation Order and the occurrence of the Effective Date, whereupon the Parties shall ask the Bankruptcy Court to dismiss the UTGO Litigation without prejudice until the Approval Order or the Plan Confirmation Order, as applicable, is a Final Order, when such dismissal shall be deemed to be with prejudice.

(b) As soon as practicable subsequent to the execution and delivery of this Agreement by each of the Parties, but in no event later than five (5) business days subsequent thereto, the Parties shall take any and all action as is appropriate to (i) stay the UTGO Litigation as provided in subsection (a) above, (ii) maintain the status quo of the Parties in the UTGO Litigation as of the execution of this Agreement, and (iii) ensure that no action (including separate litigation and any objection to proofs of claim filed by the Bond Insurers relating to the Prior UTGO Bonds) is undertaken or commenced inconsistent with seeking a stay of and maintaining the status quo of the UTGO Litigation; provided, however, that any such stay shall terminate on the first (1st) business day following termination of this Agreement.

(c) In the event (i) an Approval Motion is made by the City and denied by the Bankruptcy Court, (ii) an Approval Order is issued but is not consistent with this Agreement in any material respect or is overturned on appeal, (iii) a Plan consistent with this Agreement in all material respects is not confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court other than changes regarding payments relating to the Stub UTGO Bonds, or (iv) a Plan Confirmation Order is entered by the Bankruptcy Court but is not consistent in all material respects with this Agreement, or is overturned on appeal, then any Party (including one or more of the Bond Insurers as to such Bond Insurer or Bond Insurers) may resume the UTGO Litigation and terminate this Agreement as to such Party by written notice to the Parties.

(d) The Bond Insurers agree that all proofs of claims filed by any of them with respect to Prior UTGO Bonds shall be deemed resolved and fully satisfied by approval of this Agreement in the Plan Confirmation Order, which is a Final Order or an Approval Order, which is a Final Order, as applicable.

Section 2.14. Additional Covenants

(a) City Will Not Contest. The City shall not contest the validity or enforceability of any of the liens or interests granted under this Agreement or any of the obligations of the City set forth in this Agreement.

(b) Paying Agent, Master Trustee and Escrow Agent Fees.

The City shall pay the reasonable and customary fees and expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) of (i) the paying agent with respect to the Prior UTGO Bonds (including the paying agent relating to the Prior UTGO Bonds that are not Holders Restructured UTGO Bonds) and (ii) of the paying agent, the Master Trustee, the Debt Millage Escrow Trustee and the escrow agent identified in the Settlement Escrow Agreement in respect of all transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(c) Further Action. To the extent that the City has not taken all necessary action to authorize the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement, it will do so.

ARTICLE III PLAN OF ADJUSTMENT AND PLAN SUPPORT

Section 3.1. Plan Support Commitment. From and after the date hereof, and so long as the City has complied, and is complying, with its covenants and obligations under this Agreement, the Bond Insurers will each support the treatment of the Prior UTGO Bonds in the Plan by, at a hearing or in a court filing, expressing such support solely as insurers of the Prior UTGO Bonds and, if each Bond Insurer has established its right to vote, will each vote Prior UTGO Bonds and reimbursement claims in support of such Plan treatment. The Plan shall provide that such treatment, consistent with this Agreement, is the treatment for all holders of the Prior UTGO Bonds. For the absence of doubt, nothing contained in this Agreement shall require any Bond Insurer to support or vote for the treatment of any class of claims under the Plan other than the UTGO Bonds.

Section 3.2. Solicitation Required in Connection with Plan.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this Article III or elsewhere in this Agreement to the contrary, this Agreement is not, and shall not be deemed to be, a solicitation of acceptances of the Plan. The City and the Bond Insurers acknowledge and agree that the acceptance of the Plan will not be solicited until the Bankruptcy Court has approved the Disclosure Statement and related ballots, and such Disclosure Statement and ballots have been transmitted to parties entitled to receive same.

Section 3.3. Plan Document Provisions. All Plan Documents, as they relate to the settlement embodied in this Agreement must (i) be in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the Bond Insurers and to the City and be consistent with this Agreement, (ii) provide that the Plan treatment for Prior UTGO Bonds is part of a settlement of the pending UTGO Litigation.

ARTICLE IV DEFAULTS AND REMEDIES

Section 4.1. Events of Default. The breach by any Party of any material agreement or covenant set forth in this Agreement or the Settlement Escrow Agreement will be an event of default ("Event of Default") under this Agreement.

Section 4.2. Remedies. The Parties acknowledge and agree that a breach of the provisions of this Agreement by any Party would cause irreparable damage to the other Parties and that such other Parties would not have an adequate remedy at law for such damage. Therefore, the obligations of the Parties set forth in this Agreement and the Settlement Escrow Agreement shall be enforceable by an order compelling specific performance issued by the Bankruptcy Court, and appropriate injunctive relief may be applied for and granted in connection therewith. Upon an Event of Default by the City, any Bond Insurer will have the right to compel immediate payment of amounts held under the Settlement Escrow Agreement by order of the Bankruptcy Court. Such remedies shall be cumulative and not exclusive and shall be in addition to any other remedies that the Parties may have under this Agreement, the Settlement Escrow Agreement or otherwise. Any Bond Insurer may exercise its rights hereunder on its own. Consistent with Section 904 of the Bankruptcy Code, the City hereby consents to the Bankruptcy Court enforcing the terms of this Agreement and the Settlement Escrow Agreement.

Section 4.3. Termination.

(a) This Agreement may be terminated by the mutual agreement of all of the Bond Insurers upon an Event of Default caused by the City. This Agreement may be terminated by less than all of the Bond Insurers as to such Bond Insurer or Bond Insurers upon an Event of Default caused by the City if (i) an action or proceeding seeking to enforce the material agreement or covenant purported to be breached is brought by one or more Bond Insurers before the Bankruptcy Court, (ii) the Bankruptcy Court, after notice and a hearing, finds that an Event of Default caused by the City has occurred and (iii) either (A) the Bankruptcy Court declines to issue an order compelling specific performance by the City of the applicable agreement or covenant purported to be breached or (B) the Bankruptcy Court issues such an order compelling specific performance but the City fails to comply with the order.

(b) This Agreement may be terminated by the City if any of the Bond Insurers fails to (i) support the Plan with respect to Class 8 – UTGO Claims or (ii) if it has the right to vote its Class 8 Claims as determined by the voting procedures process approved by the Bankruptcy Court in an order entered on March 11, 2014 (Docket No. 2984) (as such order may have been amended from time to time), vote its Class 8 Claims to accept the Plan. This Agreement may be terminated by the City upon an Event of Default caused by the Bond Insurers, or any of them, if (i) an action or proceeding seeking to enforce the material agreement or covenant purported to be breached is brought by the City before the Bankruptcy Court, (ii) the Bankruptcy Court finds, after notice and a hearing, that an Event of Default caused by the applicable Bond Insurer has occurred and (iii) either (A) the Bankruptcy Court declines to issue an order compelling specific performance by the applicable Bond Insurer of the applicable agreement or covenant purported to be breached or (B) the Bankruptcy Court issues such an order compelling specific performance but the applicable Bond Insurer fails to comply with the order.

(c) Upon any such termination, any Party (including one or more of the Bonds Insurers as to such Bond Insurer or Bond Insurers) may resume the UTGO Litigation unless it has been previously dismissed with prejudice or has been previously deemed dismissed with prejudice.

ARTICLE V REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

Section 5.1. Representations and Warranties of the City. The City represents and warrants to the Bond Insurers that:

- (a) It is a municipal corporation of the State of Michigan.
- (b) It has the power to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder and it has taken or will take all necessary action to authorize such execution, delivery and performance.
- (c) Such execution, delivery and performance do not violate or conflict with any law applicable to it, any order or judgment of any court or other agency of government applicable to it, or any material agreements specifically applicable to it or any of its assets.
- (d) Other than (i) approvals by the MFA, the State Treasurer, the execution of the Emergency Manager Order, and the approvals required by Section 19 of Act 436 to be obtained prior to delivery of the Municipal Obligation, all of which the City reasonably expects to be obtained prior to the Effective Date, and (ii) the approval of the Bankruptcy Court, all governmental and Emergency Manager consents and approvals that are required to have been obtained by it as of the date of execution of this Agreement with respect to the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement have been obtained and are in full force and effect and all conditions of any such consents and approvals have been complied with.

Section 5.2. Representations and Warranties of the Bond Insurers. Each of the Bond Insurers represents to the City that:

- (a) It is duly organized and validly existing under the laws of the jurisdiction of its organization or incorporation.

(b) It has the power to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform its obligations under this Agreement and it has taken all necessary corporate action to authorize such execution, delivery and performance.

(c) Such execution, delivery and performance do not violate or conflict with any law applicable to it, any provision of its constitutional documents, any order or judgment of any court or other agency of government applicable to it, or any agreements specifically applicable to it or any of its assets.

(d) All corporate or governmental consents and approvals that are required to have been obtained by it with respect to this Agreement have been obtained and are in full force and effect and all conditions of any such consents and approvals have been complied with.

(e) Each of the respective Bond Insurers had and has standing to bring and resolve the UTGO Litigation related to the Prior UTGO Bonds that it insures (Assured and NPFG represent that each had and has standing to bring and resolve the Assured/NPFG Action, and Ambac represents that it had and has standing to bring and resolve the Ambac Action).

Section 5.3. Mutual Representations and Warranties. Unless otherwise noted, each Party makes the following representations, warranties and covenants (on a several basis, with respect to such Party only) to each of the other Parties:

(a) Each person signing this Agreement warrants that he or she is legally competent and authorized to execute this Agreement on behalf of the Party whose name is subscribed at or above such person's signature.

(b) The Parties have not made any statement or representation to each other regarding any facts relied upon by them in entering into this Agreement, and each of them specifically does not rely upon any statement, representation or promise of the other Parties hereto or any other person in entering into this Agreement, except as expressly stated herein or in the exhibits hereto. Each party has relied upon its own investigation and analysis of the facts and not on any statement or representation made by any other party in choosing to enter into this Agreement and the transactions contemplated herein.

(c) The Parties and their respective attorneys have made such investigation of the facts pertaining to this Agreement and all of the matters pertaining thereto as they deem necessary.

ARTICLE VI EXCULPATION

Section 6.1. Exculpation. The Plan will include the Bond Insurer Exculpated Parties as exculpated parties for acts and omissions (other than those constituting gross negligence or willful misconduct) in connection with (i) the Plan as it relates to this Agreement and (ii) this Agreement.

Section 6.2. Releases. Upon the dismissal with prejudice or deemed dismissal with prejudice of the applicable UTGO Litigation, the Parties to the applicable UTGO Litigation shall be deemed to have released each other, and the Parties' officials, officers, directors, employees and representatives, of and from any and all claims and causes of action related to the applicable UTGO Litigation and the Prior UTGO Bonds.

Section 6.3. Defense Against Challenges. (a) Subject to the terms of Section 6.3(b) below, if, after the issuance of the Plan Confirmation Order or the Approval Order, the validity or enforceability of any term or provision of this Agreement or the Settlement-Related Documents (as they relate to the settlement set forth in this Agreement) is challenged in any action, suit or proceeding, each of the named Parties in such action, suit or proceeding shall assume its own defense of such action, suit or proceeding.

(b) If, after the issuance of the Plan Confirmation Order or the Approval Order, an action, suit or proceeding is brought, an issue in which is the validity or enforceability of the Stub UTGO Bonds, including, without limitation, a challenge to the Assigned UTGO Bond Tax Proceeds (a "Stub UTGO Challenge"), the City shall assume the defense of such issue in any such action, suit or proceeding. If any of the Bond Insurers are named as a party in a Stub UTGO Challenge, the City will appoint counsel to the named Bond Insurers, which may or may not be counsel to the City. In all events, such counsel must be reasonably acceptable to the named Bond Insurers, and the City will pay the reasonable costs of such counsel.

ARTICLE VII DISMISSAL OF CASE AND TERMINATION

Section 7.1. Effect of Dismissal of the Bankruptcy Case. In the event the Bankruptcy Case is dismissed, any Party may at any time within 60 days after such dismissal immediately terminate this Agreement by written notice to the other Parties.

Section 7.2. Effect of Termination. In the event of the termination of this Agreement by any Party pursuant to any provisions of this Agreement, this Agreement shall become null and void and be deemed of no force and effect, with no liability on the part of any Party hereto (or of any of its elected or appointed officials, directors, officers, employees, consultants, contractors, agents, legal and financial advisors or other representatives) arising from such termination, and no Party shall have any obligations to any other Party arising out of this Agreement. Upon termination, neither this Agreement nor any terms or provisions set forth herein shall be admissible in any dispute, litigation, proceeding or controversy among the Parties and nothing contained herein shall constitute or be deemed to be an admission by any Party as to any matter, it being understood that the statements and resolutions reached herein were as a result of negotiations and compromises of the respective positions of the Parties. If this Agreement is terminated, then no Party hereto may (i) use this Agreement, any of its terms or any discussions or negotiations conducted in respect of this Agreement, or any part of the foregoing, in the UTGO Litigation; (ii) seek discovery with respect to any of the matters described in subsection (i) in the UTGO Litigation; or (iii) seek to admit any of the matters described in subsection (i) into evidence in the UTGO Litigation.

ARTICLE VIII MISCELLANEOUS

Section 8.1. Amendments. This Agreement may not be modified, amended or supplemented except by a written agreement executed by each Party to be affected by such modification, amendment or supplement.

Section 8.2. No Admission of Liability.

(a) The execution of this Agreement is not intended to be, nor shall it be construed as, an admission or evidence in any pending or subsequent suit, action, proceeding or dispute of any liability, wrongdoing, or obligation whatsoever (including as to the merits of any claim or defense) by any Party to any other Party or any other person with respect to any of the matters addressed in this Agreement.

(b) None of this Agreement (including, without limitation, the recitals and exhibits hereto), the settlement or any act performed or document executed pursuant to or in furtherance of this Agreement or the settlement: (i) is or may be deemed to be or may be used as an admission or evidence of the validity of any claim or of any wrongdoing or liability of any Party; or (ii) is or may be deemed to be or may be used as an admission or evidence of any liability, fault or omission of any Party in any civil, criminal or administrative proceeding in any court, administrative agency or other tribunal. None of this Agreement, the settlement, or any act performed or document executed pursuant to or in furtherance of this Agreement or the settlement shall be admissible in any proceeding for any purposes, except to enforce the terms of the Agreement, and except that any Party may file this Agreement in any action for any purpose, including, but not limited to, in order to support a defense or counterclaim based on the principles of res judicata, collateral estoppel, release, good faith settlement, judgment bar or reduction or any other theory of claim preclusion or issue preclusion or similar defense of counterclaim.

Section 8.3. Good Faith Negotiations. The Parties recognize and acknowledge that each of the Parties hereto is represented by counsel, and such Party received independent legal advice with respect to the advisability of entering into this Agreement. Each of the Parties acknowledges that the negotiations leading up to this Agreement were conducted regularly and at arm's length; this Agreement is made and executed by and of each Party's own free will; that each knows all of the relevant facts and his or its rights in connection therewith, and that he or it has not been improperly influenced or induced to make this settlement as a result of any act or action on the part of any party or employee, agent, attorney or representative of any party to this Agreement. The Parties further acknowledge that they entered into this Agreement because of their desire to avoid the further expense and inconvenience of litigation and other disputes, and to compromise permanently and settle the claims between the Parties settled by the execution of this Agreement.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT:

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. For a non-individual person such as a business entity, a charity, a Trust or other legal entity we will ask for documentation to verify its formation and existence as a legal entity. We may also ask to see financial statements, licenses, identification and authorization documents from individuals claiming authority to represent the entity or other relevant documentation.

AUTHORIZATION, REDEMPTION AND ASSIGNMENT OF THE BONDS

Section 301. Authorization of Bonds and Pledge. (a) The City hereby authorizes the issuance of the Bonds in such series and in such principal amounts as shall be confirmed in the Supplemental Order. The Bonds shall be payable from and secured, to the extent permitted by applicable law, including, without limitation, Section 12(1)(x) of Act 436, by a lien on the Debt Millage Revenues derived from an annual levy of ad valorem taxes on all taxable property in the City without limitation as to rate or amount. Pursuant to authorization provided in Act 227, the City hereby pledges as additional security for the payment of principal of and interest on the Bonds, Distributable Aid payments that the City is eligible to receive on a fourth lien basis subordinate to the pledge thereof for the payment of the Prior DSA Bonds. The Finance Director is hereby authorized and directed to negotiate, approve and execute the Fifth Supplemental Indenture for and on behalf of the City with U.S. Bank National Association, Detroit, Michigan, as Master Trustee, to provide for a fourth lien pledge of Distributable Aid to secure payment of the Bonds. Nothing in this Order shall restrict or be construed as restricting the City's ability to make additional pledges or assignments of Distributable Aid as security for current or future bonds or obligations of the City, subject to the requirements for the issuance of additional bonds and obligations set forth in the Master Indenture.

(b) The Debt Millage Revenues as pledged by the City to secure payment of the Bonds, shall constitute "special revenues," as defined in Section 902 of the Bankruptcy Code and "pledged special revenues," as the term is used in Section 922(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

Section 302. Designations, Dates, Interest Rates, Maturities, Redemption and Other Terms of the Bonds and Stub UTGO Bonds.

(a) The Bonds shall be designated as "DISTRIBUTABLE STATE AID FOURTH LIEN RESTRUCTURED BONDS (UNLIMITED TAX GENERAL OBLIGATION), SERIES 2014 and may bear such later or earlier dates and additional or alternative designations as the Authorized Officer may determine in the Supplemental Order, shall be issued in fully registered form and shall be consecutively numbered from "R-1" upwards, respectively unless otherwise provided by the Authorized officer in the Supplemental Order. The Bonds shall be dated and issued in Denominations all as determined by the Authorized Officer and confirmed by the Authorized Officer in the Supplemental Order.

(b) The Bonds shall be issued in multiple separate series, each one corresponding to the related series of the Prior UTGO Bonds listed on Exhibit A hereto. Each separate series of the Municipal Obligations shall be issued in a principal amount equal to 86.9% of the outstanding principal amount of each maturity of the related series of Prior UTGO Bonds in Authorized Denominations as provided in Section 201(a). Each series of Municipal Obligations shall be further subdivided into two subseries, with one subseries equal to 84.5% of the outstanding principal amount of each maturity of the related series of Prior UTGO Bonds, in Authorized Denominations, and the second subseries equal to 2.4% of the outstanding principal amount of each maturity of the related series of Prior UTGO Bonds, in Authorized Denominations.

(c) The Bonds and the Stub UTGO Bonds shall bear interest from _____, 201_, at the same interest rate per annum as the related Prior UTGO Bonds; be subject to amortization on the same schedule as the related Prior UTGO Bonds; mature on the same dates; and be subject to redemption in the same manner as the related Prior UTGO Bonds. Unless otherwise provided by the Authorized Officer in the Supplemental Order, interest on the Bonds shall be calculated on the basis of a 360 day year consisting of twelve, 30 day months. In the event that a calculation of interest is not an integral multiple of $0.01, the Paying Agent shall round all amounts less than or equal to $0.0049 down to the nearest $0.01 and round all amounts greater than $.0049 up to the nearest $0.01. The Bonds shall be payable, as to principal and interest, in lawful money of the United States of America.

(d) On or after the Effective Date, the Municipal Obligations shall be delivered to the MFA in consideration for bonds to be issued by the MFA (the "MFA Bonds") and the following additional provisions shall apply:

(1) Each subseries of Municipal Obligations shall be in the form of a single fully-registered, nonconvertible bond in the denomination of the full principal amount thereof, dated as of the date of delivery of the Municipal Obligations, payable in principal installments serially shown on Exhibit B and approved by the MFA and the Authorized Officer. The obligation to deliver the Municipal Obligations to the MFA shall be evidenced by execution of a Purchase Contract (the "Purchase Contract") between the City and the MFA providing for the transfer of the Municipal Obligations to the MFA in consideration for the MFA Bonds, and an Authorized Officer is authorized and directed to execute and deliver the Purchase Contract when it is in final form and to make the determinations set forth above. An Authorized Officer is authorized and directed to approve of a series designation with respect to each series of Municipal Obligations.

(2) Each subseries of the Municipal Obligations shall not be convertible or exchangeable into more than one fully-registered bond. Principal of and interest on the Municipal Obligations shall be payable as provided in the Bond form in this Order as the same may be amended to conform to MFA requirements.

(3) The Master Trustee shall record on the registration books payment by the City of each installment of principal or interest or both when made and the cancelled checks or other records evidencing such payments shall be returned to and retained by the City Treasurer.

(4) Upon payment by the City of all outstanding principal of and interest on a Municipal Obligation, the MFA shall deliver the respective Municipal Obligation to the City for cancellation.

(e) Concurrently with the restructuring of a portion of the Prior UTGO Bonds and issuance of the MFA Bonds, the Stub UTGO Bonds, in Authorized Denominations as provided in Section 201(a), will be reinstated and remain Outstanding and will be payable from the UTGO Bond Tax Levy, provided that the Assigned UTGO Bond Tax Proceeds as assigned by the Plan of Adjustment shall be paid by the Debt Millage Escrow Trustee to the Plan Assignees and such proceeds shall not be paid to the paying agent for the Stub UTGO Bonds.

Section 303. Execution, Authentication and Delivery of Bonds. The Bonds shall be executed in the name of the City by the manual or facsimile signatures of the Mayor and the Finance Director and authenticated by the manual signature of the Finance Director, and the seal of the City (or a facsimile thereof) shall be impressed or imprinted on the Bonds. After the Bonds have been executed and authenticated for delivery, they shall be delivered by the Finance Director to the MFA in consideration for the issuance of the MFA Bonds.

Section 304. Authentication of the Bonds. Anything in this Order to the contrary notwithstanding, the Bonds bearing the manual or facsimile signatures of the Mayor and the Finance Director shall require no further authorization.

Section 305. The MFA's Depository. Notwithstanding any other provision herein to the contrary, as long as the MFA is the owner of the Bonds, the Bonds are payable as to principal, premium, if any, and interest at the corporate trust office of _____, _____, Michigan, or such other qualified bank or financial institution as shall be designated in writing to the City by the MFA (the "Authority's Depository"). The City will deposit, or cause the Master Trustee, to deposit with the MFA's Depository payments of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on the Bonds in immediately available funds at least five business days prior to the date on which any such payment is due whether by maturity, redemption or otherwise. Written notice of any redemption of the Bonds shall be given by the City and received by the MFA's Depository at least 40 days prior to the date on which such redemption is to be made.

Section 306. Mutilated, Destroyed, Stolen or Lost Bonds. (a) Subject to the provisions of Act 354, Public Acts of Michigan, 1972, as amended and any other applicable law, if (i) any mutilated Bond is surrendered to the City, and the City receives evidence to its satisfaction of the destruction, loss or theft of any Bond and (ii) there is delivered to the City such security or indemnity as may be required by it to save the City harmless, then, in the absence of notice to the City that such Bond has been acquired by a bona fide purchaser, the City shall execute and deliver in exchange for or in lieu of any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Bond, a new Bond of like tenor and principal amount, bearing a number not contemporaneously outstanding.

(b) If any such mutilated, destroyed, lost or stolen Bond has become or is about to become due and payable, the City in its discretion may, instead of issuing a new Bond, pay such Bond.

(c) Any new Bond issued pursuant to this Section in substitution for a Bond alleged to be mutilated, destroyed, stolen or lost shall constitute an original additional contractual obligation on the part of the City, and shall be equally secured by and entitled to equal proportionate benefits with all other Bonds of like tenor issued under this Order.

Section 307. Form of the Bonds. The Bonds shall be in substantially the following form with such insertions, omissions, substitutions and other variations as shall not be inconsistent with this Order or required by the Michigan Attorney General and the MFA or permitted by the Supplemental Order or as approved by an Authorized Officer and Bond Counsel:

[Form of Bond]

United States of America
State of Michigan
County of Wayne

CITY OF DETROIT
DISTRIBUTABLE STATE AID FOURTH LIEN RESTRUCTURED BOND
(UNLIMITED TAX GENERAL OBLIGATION), SERIES 2014__

REGISTERED OWNER: Michigan Finance Authority

PRINCIPAL AMOUNT: _____ Dollars ($ ___,000)

DATE OF ORIGINAL ISSUE: _____, 2014

The CITY OF DETROIT, County of Wayne, State of Michigan (the "City"), for value received, hereby promises to pay to the Michigan Finance Authority (the "Authority"), or registered assigns, the Principal Amount shown above, in lawful money of the United States of America, unless prepaid prior thereto as hereinafter provided. Capitalized terms used herein, but not defined herein, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Order, as hereinafter defined.

The Principal Amount shall be payable on the dates and in the annual principal installment amounts set forth in Schedule A attached hereto and made a part hereof, or if a portion of the Principal Amount is prepaid as provided below, with interest on said principal installments from the [Date of Original Issue] shown above, until paid at the rate [of interest as set forth on the attached schedule] [of _____ percent (____%) per annum]. Interest is first payable on _____ 1, 20__, and semiannually thereafter on the first day of _____ and _____ of each year, as set forth in the Purchase Contract.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this bond, as long as the MFA is the owner of this bond, (a) this bond is payable as to principal, premium, if any, and interest at the corporate trust office of _____, _____, _____, or at such other place as shall be designated in writing to the City by the MFA (the "Authority's Depository"); (b) the City agrees that it will cause the Master Trustee to deposit with the MFA's Depository payments of the principal of, premium, if any, and interest on this bond in immediately available funds at least five business days prior to the date on which any such payment is due whether by maturity, redemption or otherwise; and (c) written notice of any redemption of this bond shall be given by the City and received by the MFA's Depository at least 40 days prior to the date on which such redemption is to be made.

Additional Interest

[In the event of a default in the payment of principal or interest hereon when due, whether at maturity, by redemption or otherwise, the amount of such default shall bear interest

(the "additional interest") at a rate equal to the rate of interest which is two percent above the MFA's cost of providing funds (as determined by the MFA) to make payment on the bonds of the MFA issued to provide funds to purchase this bond but in no event in excess of the maximum rate of interest permitted by law. The additional interest shall continue to accrue until the MFA has been fully reimbursed for all costs incurred by the MFA (as determined by the MFA) as a consequence of the City's default. Such additional interest shall be payable on the interest payment date following demand of the MFA. In the event that (for reasons other than the default in the payment of any municipal obligation purchased by the MFA) the investment of amounts in the reserve account established by the MFA for the bonds of the MFA issued to provide funds to purchase this bond fails to provide sufficient available funds (together with any other funds which may be made available for such purpose) to pay the interest on outstanding bonds of the MFA issued to fund such account, the City shall and hereby agrees to pay on demand only the City's pro rata share (as determined by the MFA) of such deficiency as additional interest on this bond.]

This bond is a single, fully-registered, non-convertible bond in the principal sum of $ ___,000, issued pursuant to and in accordance with Act 34, Public Acts of Michigan, 2001, as amended, and Act 279, Public Acts of Michigan, 1909, as amended, Act 227, Public Acts of Michigan, 1985, as amended ("Act 227") and pursuant to and in accordance with an Order duly adopted by the Emergency Manager of the City on ___, [and a Supplemental Order of the Authorized Officer of the City issued on ___, (together,] the "Order"). The Bonds are issued for the purpose of restructuring certain unlimited tax general obligation bonds of the City as described in the Order, pursuant to the City's Plan of Adjustment under the Bankruptcy Case.

[Optional and/or Mandatory Redemption Provisions]

This Bond is payable out of the City's Debt Retirement Fund for this issue (which will be held by the Master Trustee), and the City is obligated to levy annually sufficient taxes to provide for the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds of this issue as they mature on all taxable property in the City without limitation as to rate or amount (the revenues of such levy, the "Debt Millage Revenues").

The Bonds shall be payable from and secured, to the extent permitted by applicable law, including without limitation, Section 12(1)(x) of Act 436, by a lien on the Debt Millage Revenues.

The Debt Millage Revenues as pledged by the City to secure payment of the Bonds, shall constitute "special revenues," as defined in Section 902 of the Bankruptcy Code and "pledged special revenues," as the term is used in Section 922(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

As additional security for the City's obligation to pay the Bonds, pursuant to Act 227 the City has pledged the payments that the City is eligible to receive from the State of Michigan under Act 140, Public Acts of Michigan, 1971, as amended ("Distributable Aid"), and certain monies in the funds and accounts established by the City with U.S. Bank National Association, as master trustee (the "Trustee"), pursuant to the terms and conditions of a Master Debt Retirement Trust Indenture dated as of March 1, 2010, as supplemented, by (i) the First Supplemental Debt Retirement Trust Indenture dated as of March 1, 2010; (ii) the Second Supplemental Debt Retirement Trust Indenture dated as of December 1, 2010; (iii) the Third Supplemental Debt Retirement Trust Indenture dated as of March 1, 2012; (iv) the Fourth Supplemental Debt Retirement Trust Indenture dated as of August 1, 2012; and (v) the Fifth Supplemental Debt Retirement Trust Indenture, dated as of _____, 2014, by and between the City and the Master Trustee (collectively, the "Trust Indenture"). The pledge and lien on Distributable Aid securing the Bonds is on a fourth lien basis to a lien on Distributable Aid securing the City's outstanding Prior DSA Bonds. The City has reserved the right to make additional pledges or assignments of Distributable Aid on a prior, parity or subordinate basis with the pledge of Distributable Aid securing the Prior DSA Bonds and the Bonds as security for future bonds or obligations of the City, subject to the requirements for the issuance of additional bonds and obligations as provided in the Trust Indenture.

This bond is transferable only upon the registration books of the City by the registered owner of record in person, or by the registered owner's attorney duly authorized in writing, upon the surrender of this bond together with a written instrument of transfer satisfactory to the City duly executed by the registered owner or the registered owner's attorney duly authorized in writing, and thereupon a new registered bond or bonds in the same aggregate principal amount and of the same maturity shall be issued to the transferee in exchange therefor as provided in the resolution authorizing this bond and upon the payment of the charges, if any, therein prescribed.

It is hereby certified and recited that all acts, conditions and things required by law to be done, precedent to and in the issuance of this bond and the series of bonds of which this is one, exist and have been done and performed in regular and due form and time as required by law, and that the total indebtedness of the City, including this bond and the series of bonds of which this is one, does not exceed any constitutional, statutory or charter debt limitation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the City of Detroit by authority of its Mayor, has caused this bond to be signed for and on its behalf and in its name by the manual or facsimile signature of the Mayor of the City and the manual or facsimile signature of its Finance Director and the official seal of the City to be impressed hereon, all as of the Date of Original Issue.

SPECIAL COVENANTS

Section 401. Tax Exemption Covenant for Tax-Exempt Bonds. The City covenants that it will not take any action, or fail to take any action required to be taken, if taking such action or failing to take such action would adversely affect the general exclusion from gross income of interest on any Tax-Exempt Bonds, from federal income taxation under the Code.

Section 402. Arbitrage Covenant. (a) The City will not directly or indirectly (1) use or permit the use of any proceeds of any Tax-Exempt Bonds or other funds of the City or (2) take or omit to take any action required by Section 148(a) of the Code in order to maintain the exclusion from gross income of the interest on any Tax-Exempt Bonds for federal income tax purposes. To that end, the City will comply with all requirements of Section 148 of the Code to the extent applicable to the Tax-Exempt Bonds and the requirements set forth in the Non-Arbitrage and Tax Compliance Certificate of the City.

(b) Without limiting the generality of subsection (a), above, the City agrees that there shall be paid by the City from time to time all amounts, if any, required to be rebated to the United States pursuant to Section 148(f) of the Code. This covenant shall survive payment in full or defeasance of the Tax-Exempt Bonds.

(c) Notwithstanding any provision of this Section, if the City obtains an opinion of Bond Counsel to the effect that any action required under this Section is no longer required, or that some further action is required, to maintain the exclusion from gross income of the interest of any Tax-Exempt Bonds for federal income tax purposes pursuant to Section 103 of the Code, the City may conclusively rely on such opinion in complying with the provisions hereof.

ARTICLE V

FUNDS AND ACCOUNTS; DISPOSITION OF BOND PROCEEDS

Section 501. Establishment of Accounts and Funds. (a) The City hereby establishes and creates the following special, separate and segregated accounts and funds which shall be held in trust by the Master Trustee for the benefit of the Bondholders:

- A. Debt Retirement Fund; and
- B. Series 2014 Escrow Fund.

(b) Pursuant to Section 201(b) of the Fifth Supplemental Indenture, the Master Trustee shall establish within the Series 2014 Escrow Fund, the separate and segregated sub-accounts designated the "Distributable Aid Account," the "Series 2014 Tax Levy Account" and the "General Account," the deposits into which and withdrawals from which shall be governed by Article II of the Fifth Supplemental Indenture.

(c) The UTGO Debt Millage Fund shall be established with the Debt Millage Escrow Trustee by the Finance Director of the City under the Debt Millage Escrow Agreement which is hereby authorized. The Finance Director is hereby authorized to negotiate the terms of the Debt Millage Escrow Agreement and to execute and deliver it for and on behalf of the City. The Finance Director is further hereby authorized to establish such accounts, subaccounts or other funds as shall be required for the Bonds, if any, to accommodate the requirements of such series of Bonds.

Section 502. Debt Retirement Fund-All Bonds. Proceeds of the Debt Millage Revenues levied pursuant to Section 301 hereof and transferred by the Debt Millage Escrow Trustee to the Master Trustee in accordance with the terms of the Debt Millage Escrow Agreement shall be used to pay the principal of and interest on the Bonds when due. The foregoing amounts shall be placed in the Debt Retirement Fund and held in trust by the Master Trustee, and so long as the principal of or interest on the Bonds shall remain unpaid, no moneys shall be withdrawn from the Debt Retirement Fund except to pay such principal and interest. Any amounts remaining in the Debt Retirement Fund after payment in full of the Bonds shall be retained by the City to be used for any lawful purpose.

Section 503. Debt Retirement Fund – Series 2014 Escrow Fund. As additional security for Bonds, Distributable Aid payments to be received by the City from time to time shall be distributed by the State Treasurer to the Master Trustee and deposited by the Master Trustee in the Debt Retirement Fund (designated the “Distributable State Aid – Common Debt Retirement Fund” in the Master Indenture), and allocated and set-aside by the Master Trustee into the Series 2014 Escrow Fund in accordance with the provisions of the Master Indenture and the related Fifth Supplemental Indenture for the payment of the principal of and interest on the Bonds when due. Any amounts remaining in the Debt Retirement Fund after the setting aside of the amounts necessary to satisfy the Deposit Date Balance Requirements (defined in the Master Indenture) of all DSA Escrow Funds (defined in the Master Indenture), shall be released to the City for deposit to the General Fund of the City.

Section 504. Investment of Monies in the Funds and Accounts. (a) The Finance Director shall direct the investment of monies on deposit in the Funds and Accounts established hereunder, and the Master Trustee, upon written direction or upon oral direction promptly confirmed in writing by the Finance Director, shall use its best efforts to invest monies on deposit in the Funds and Accounts in accordance with such direction.

(b) Monies on deposit in the Funds and Accounts may be invested in such investments and to the extent permitted by applicable law.

ARTICLE VI

THE MASTER TRUSTEE

Section 601. Master Trustee. Except as otherwise required by the MFA, the Master Trustee for the Bonds shall act as bond registrar, transfer agent and trustee for the Bonds, and shall be initially U.S. Bank National Association, Detroit, Michigan, or such other bank or trust company located in the State of Michigan which is qualified to act in such capacity under the laws of the United States of America or the State of Michigan. The Master Trustee means and includes any company into which the Master Trustee may be merged or converted or with which it may be consolidated or any company resulting from any merger, conversion or consolidation to which it shall be a party or any company to which the Master Trustee may sell or transfer all or substantially all of its corporate trust business, provided, that such company shall be a trust company or bank which is qualified to be a successor to the Master Trustee as determined by the Finance Director, shall be authorized by law to perform all the duties imposed upon it by this Order, and shall be the successor to the Master Trustee without the execution or filing of any paper or the performance of any further act, anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding. The Finance Director is authorized to enter into a Fifth Supplement to the Master Trust Indenture in the form of a Fifth Supplemental Indenture with the Master Trustee, and from time to time as required, may designate a similarly qualified successor Master Trustee and enter into an agreement therewith for such services.

Section 602. Fifth Supplemental Indenture. The Authorized Officers are each hereby authorized and directed on behalf of the City to take any and all other actions and perform any and all acts that shall be required, necessary or desirable to enter into and implement the Fifth Supplemental Indenture with the Master Trustee, including, but not limited to, entering into an agreement with the State Treasurer in accordance with Act 227 to provide for the direct payment of Distributable Aid by the State Treasurer to the Master Trustee as additional security for the Bonds.

SUPPLEMENTAL ORDERS OR RESOLUTIONS

Section 701. Supplemental Orders or Resolutions Not Requiring Consent of Holders of the Bonds. The City may with the prior written consent of the Bond Insurers, which in the opinion of the independent Bond Counsel are affected by such order or resolution, but without the consent of any Bondowner, adopt orders or resolutions supplemental to this Order for any one or more of the following purposes:

- (i) to confirm or further assure the security hereof or to grant or pledge to the holders of the Bonds any additional security;
- (ii) to add additional covenants and agreements of the City for the purposes of further securing the payment of the Bonds;
- (iii) to cure any ambiguity or formal defect or omission in this Order;
- (iv) to amend provisions in the Order relating to rebate to the United States Government or otherwise, which in the opinion of Bond Counsel are required in order to maintain the exclusion of interest on the Tax-Exempt Bonds from gross income for federal income tax purposes; and
- (v) such other action not materially, adversely and directly affecting the security of the Bonds;

provided that the effectiveness of any supplemental order or resolution is subject to Section 702 to the extent applicable.

Section 702. Opinion and Filing Under Act 34. Before any supplemental order or resolution under this Article shall become effective, a copy thereof shall be filed with the Master Trustee, together with an opinion of Bond Counsel that such supplemental order or resolution is authorized or permitted by this Article; provided that Bond Counsel in rendering any such opinion shall be entitled to rely upon certificates of the Finance Director or other City official, and opinions or reports of consultants, experts and other professionals retained by the City to advise it, with respect to the presence or absence of facts relative to such opinion and the consequences of such facts.

ARTICLE VIII

DEFEASANCE

Section 801. Defeasance. Bonds shall be deemed to be paid in full upon the deposit in trust of cash or direct obligations of, or obligations the principal of and interest on which are unconditionally guaranteed by, the United States of America, or any combination thereof, not redeemable at the option of the issuer thereof, the principal and interest payments upon which, without reinvestment thereof, will come due at such times and in such amounts, as to be fully sufficient to pay when due, the principal of such Bonds and interest to accrue thereon, as confirmed by a verification report prepared by an independent certified public accountant; provided, that if any of such Bonds are to be called for redemption prior to maturing, irrevocable instructions to call such Bonds for redemption shall be given only with the prior written consent of the MFA and on such terms as may be required by the MFA. Such cash and securities representing such obligations shall be deposited with a bank or trust company and held for the exclusive benefit of the Owners of such Bonds. After such deposit, such Bonds shall no longer be entitled to the benefits of this Order (except for any rights of transfer or exchange of Bonds as therein or herein provided for) and shall be payable solely from the funds deposited for such purpose and investment earnings, if any, thereon, and the lien of this Order for the benefit of such Bonds shall be discharged.

ARTICLE IX

OTHER PROVISIONS OF GENERAL APPLICATION

Section 901. Approval of Other Documents and Actions. The Mayor, the Finance Director, the Treasurer and the City Clerk are hereby authorized and directed on behalf of the City to take any and all other actions, perform any and all acts and execute any and all documents that shall be required, necessary or desirable to implement this Order.

The Finance Director is authorized to file applications with and to pay the related fees, if any, to the Michigan Department of Treasury at his discretion under Act 34 for an Order or Orders of Approval to issue all or a portion of the Bonds, and apply for such waivers or other Treasury approvals as necessary to implement the issuance, delivery and security for the Bonds, and as required by the Michigan Department of Treasury and Act 34. The Finance Director is authorized and directed to apply for ratings on the Bonds, if necessary, and pay any post closing filing fees required by Act 34 to the Michigan Department of Treasury or other specified agency, from legally available funds.

Section 902. Continuing Disclosure Undertaking. The City shall enter into a continuing disclosure undertaking pursuant to Rule 15c2-12 promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Rule") for the benefit of the MFA and the holders and beneficial owners of the MFA Bonds in connection with the delivery of the Bonds as to which the Rule is applicable, as more specifically set forth in Exhibit D hereto (the "Undertaking"); provided, however, that the terms of the Undertaking are subject to completion and modification prior to delivery of the Bonds by the Finance Director to such extent as the Finance Director shall deem necessary to comply with law or market requirements. The Finance Director is authorized to execute and deliver the Undertaking after completion and modification as provided in this Order and the Supplemental Order.

Section 903. Delegation of City to, and Authorization of Actions of the Mayor and the Finance Director. (a) Prior to the delivery date for the Bonds, the Finance Director may cause the preparation and approve the form and distribution of City disclosure, if necessary, for any Preliminary Official Statement or Official Statement of the MFA and offering materials to be used in conjunction with the transfer of the Municipal Obligations to the MFA in form and substance reasonably acceptable to the Bond Insurers, and the issuance of the MFA Bonds, and the Mayor or Finance Director shall deem the City's disclosure "final" for purposes of Rule 15c2-12 of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

(b) The Finance Director is hereby authorized and directed to do and perform any and all acts and things with respect to the Bonds which are necessary and appropriate to carry into effect, consistent with this Order, the authorizations therein and herein contained, including without limitation, the securing of ratings by bond rating agencies, if cost effective, the negotiation for and acquisition of bond insurance and/or other credit enhancement, if any, to further secure the Bonds or any portions thereof, the acquisition of an irrevocable surety bond to fulfill the City's obligation to fund any reserve account, the printing of the Bonds and the incurring and paying of reasonable fees, costs and expenses incidental to the foregoing and other costs of issuance of the Bonds including, but not limited to fees and expenses of bond counsel, financial advisors, accountants and others, from Bond proceeds or other available funds, for and on behalf of the City.

(c) Except as otherwise provided herein, all determinations and decisions of the Finance Director with respect to the issuance and sale of the Bonds as permitted or required by this Order shall be confirmed by the Authorized Officer in a Supplemental Order or Supplemental Orders, and such confirmations shall constitute determinations that any conditions precedent to such determinations and decisions of the Authorized Officer have been fulfilled.

Section 904. Act 34 Approval of the Bonds. The Bonds shall neither be issued nor delivered unless and only so long as the issuance of the Bonds as provided herein shall have been authorized and approved in accordance with the applicable provisions of Act 34.

Section 905. Approving Legal Opinions with Respect to the Bonds. Transfer of the Bonds to the MFA shall be conditioned upon receiving, at the time of delivery, the approving opinion of Bond Counsel, approving legality of the Bonds and, with respect to Bonds determined by the Finance Director to be issued on a tax-exempt basis, the exclusion from gross income of the interest paid thereon from federal and State income taxation only.

Section 906. Negotiated Transaction. (a) Pursuant to Section 309(1) of Act 34 the Emergency Manager determines to negotiate the delivery of the Bonds to the MFA in consideration for the transfer by the City to the MFA of the Bonds, as provided in the Purchase Contract approved by the Finance Director within the parameters established hereby, and confirmed by the Finance Director in the Supplemental Order. The reason for choosing a negotiated transaction instead of a competitive sale is that the terms of the Plan of Adjustment and the UTGO Settlement Agreement require the City to secure the payment of the Bonds with Distributable Aid under the terms of Act 227 which may only be accomplished by a delivery of the Bonds to the MFA. The negotiated transaction will allow the Municipal Obligations to be transferred to the MFA in consideration for the MFA Bonds to successfully implement a portion of the Plan of Adjustment.

(b) Subject to the foregoing, the Purchase Contract shall be dated the date of delivery of the Bonds. The Finance Director is hereby authorized and directed to execute the Purchase Contract for and on behalf of the City.

Section 907. Delivery of Bonds. Subject to the approval of the Supplemental Order, the Finance Director is hereby authorized to deliver the Municipal Obligations to the MFA upon the issuance and delivery of the MFA Bonds in consideration therefor.

Section 908. Official Statement. The Finance Director is hereby authorized to execute the Official Statement or other offering materials with respect to the Bonds in the form approved by him with such changes as the Finance Director may authorize. Circulation of the Preliminary Official Statement, if any, or other preliminary offering materials is hereby approved.

Section 909. Appointment of Bond Counsel; Engagement of Other Parties. The appointment by the Emergency Manager of the law firm of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, P.L.C. of Detroit, Michigan, as Bond Counsel for the Bonds is hereby ratified and confirmed, notwithstanding the periodic representation by Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, P.L.C., in unrelated matters of other parties and potential parties to the issuance of the Bonds. The fees and expenses of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, P.L.C. as Bond Counsel and other accumulated bond related fees and expenses shall be payable as a cost of issuance from available funds in accordance with the agreement of such firm on file with the Emergency Manager.

Section 910. Parties in Interest. Nothing in this Order, expressed or implied, is intended or shall be construed to confer upon, or to give to, any person or entity, other than the City, the Master Trustee, the MFA, the holders of the Bonds, the holders of the MFA Bonds, the Bond Insurers, and the Dissenting Bond Insurer any right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Order or any covenant, condition or stipulation hereof, and all covenants, stipulations, promises and agreements in this Order contained by and on behalf of the City, or the MFA shall be for the sole and exclusive benefit of the City and the MFA.

Section 911. No Recourse Under Order. All covenants, agreements and obligations of the City contained in this Order shall be deemed to be the covenants, agreements and obligations of the City and not of any councilperson, member, officer or employee of the City in his or her individual capacity, and no recourse shall be had for the payment of the principal of or interest on the Bonds or for any claim based thereon or on this Order against any councilperson, member, officer or employee of the City or any person executing the Bonds in his or her official individual capacity.

Section 912. Severability. ## SETTLEMENT ESCROW AGREEMENT

THIS SETTLEMENT ESCROW AGREEMENT (the "Agreement" or "Settlement Escrow Agreement"), is dated as of the ____ day of _____, 2014, made by and among the City of Detroit, County of Wayne, State of Michigan (the "City"), Ambac Assurance Corporation ("Ambac"), Assured Guaranty Municipal Corp. and Assured Guaranty Corp. (together, "Assured"), and National Public Finance Guarantee Corporation ("NPFG"), and U. S. Bank National Association, Detroit, Michigan (in such capacity, the "Settlement Escrow Trustee"). In this Agreement, each of the City, Ambac, Assured, NPFG and the Settlement Escrow Trustee is referred to individually as a "Party"; Ambac, Assured, and NPFG (including their successors and assigns) are referred to collectively as the "Bond Insurers"; and the City, the Settlement Escrow Trustee and the Bond Insurers are referred to collectively as the "Parties."

Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein shall have the meaning set forth in the UTGO Settlement Agreement (defined herein).

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the City and the Bond Insurers have heretofore entered into a Settlement Agreement, dated XX (the "UTGO Settlement Agreement") to consensually resolve their dispute under or in respect of the Prior UTGO Bonds, the Assured/NPFG Action, the AMBAC Action as it relates to the Prior UTGO Bonds, and the UTGO Claims, all arising out of a petition for relief filed by the City pursuant to Chapter 9 of title 11 of the United States Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Michigan;

WHEREAS, if the Effective Date of the Plan does not occur on or prior to September 30, 2014, for any reason other than proximately by reason of the actions or positions taken by any of the Bond Insurers, or their failure to support the Plan as described in Section 3.1 of the UTGO Settlement Agreement, solely in their capacity as the insurers of the Prior UTGO Bonds and not in any other capacity (including, for the avoidance of doubt in their capacity as insurers of any other obligations of the City), the City will be obligated to pay into an escrow to be established with the Settlement Escrow Trustee under this Agreement the October 2014 scheduled interest debt service payment that would otherwise be made on the Restructured UTGO Bonds as if the transaction contemplated by the UTGO Settlement Agreement (other than the MFA Bond issuance) had closed (the "Pro Forma Restructured UTGO Bonds"), and any pro rata payments of principal and interest due thereafter, as further described in Section 2.8 of the UTGO Settlement Agreement and herein;

WHEREAS, the City has executed the Debt Millage Escrow Agreement pursuant to which the City will be required, as of the Effective Date, to segregate and deposit the UTGO Tax Levy with the Debt Millage Escrow Trustee;

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual undertakings, provisions and agreements herein contained, the sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, and in order to provide for the payment of the Pro Forma Restructured UTGO Bonds should the Effective Date not occur on or prior to September 30, 2014, and to secure the performance and observance of the conditions and covenants herein set forth and for other valuable consideration, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the City covenants and agrees with the Settlement Escrow Trustee and the Bond Insurers as follows:

ARTICLE I.
ESTABLISHMENT OF FUNDS AND ACCOUNTS

Section 101 Establishment of Settlement Escrow Fund. There is hereby created and established with the Settlement Escrow Trustee, pursuant to Order No. ____ and this Agreement, a single and common trust fund designated the "Settlement Escrow Fund" (the "Settlement Escrow Fund").

Section 102 Deposits to the Settlement Escrow Fund.

(a) If the Effective Date of the Plan does not occur on or prior to September 30, 2014 for any reason other than proximately by reason of the actions or positions taken by any of the Bond Insurers, or their failure to support the Plan as described in Section 3.1 of the UTGO Settlement Agreement, solely in their capacity as the insurers of the Prior UTGO Bonds and not in any other capacity (including, for the avoidance of doubt in their capacity as insurers of any other obligations of the City), the City shall pay the Settlement Escrow Trustee, from Debt Millage Revenues, for deposit into the Settlement Escrow Fund the October 2014 scheduled interest debt service payment with respect to the Pro Forma Restructured UTGO Bonds, as shown on Exhibit A, and any pro rata payments of principal and interest due thereafter, as shown on Exhibit A, as if the transaction contemplated by the UTGO Settlement Agreement (other than the MFA Bond issuance) had closed. Any such monies in the Settlement Escrow Fund which would have been payable on October 1, 2014 shall be released to the Bond Insurers on the Effective Date of the Plan. Any other monies then on deposit in the Settlement Escrow Fund shall be transferred on the Effective Date to the Debt Millage Escrow Trustee for deposit in the 2014 UTGO Municipal Obligation Subaccount in the 2014 UTGO Bonds Account established pursuant to the Debt Millage Escrow Agreement.

(b) If the Plan is not effective by March 31, 2015, and the Bankruptcy Court has issued an Approval Order (that is not stayed pending appeal) approving the settlement embodied in the UTGO Settlement Agreement, the monies in the Settlement Escrow Fund will be released and paid to the Bond Insurers in the amounts shown in Exhibit A for each prior interest payment date and the City shall make, or shall cause the Debt Millage Escrow Trustee to make, all subsequent debt service payments on each interest date payment (as shown on Exhibit A) directly to the paying agent for the Prior UTGO Bonds. If an Approval Order is entered but is subject to a stay pending appeal, the City shall continue to pay into the Settlement Escrow Fund the scheduled debt service on the Pro Forma Restructured UTGO Bonds as shown on Exhibit A for so long as such stay remains in effect, and, as soon as such order is no longer subject to stay, shall thereafter apply all monies in the Settlement Escrow Fund first, to immediately reimburse the Bond Insurers for payments of principal and interest made on and after October 1, 2014 with respect to the Prior UTGO Bonds, and thereafter to make payments directly to the Paying Agent for the UTGO Bonds.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any Bond Insurer shall have defaulted in its obligation to make payments under its respective Bond Insurance Policy or Policies, any payment required to be made to such Bond Insurer shall be made to the holders of the Prior UTGOs at the direction of the City but only to the extent of any uncured failure or shortfall in the Bond Insurer's payment.

Section 103 Partial Payments; Accounting.

(a) If on any interest payment date amounts held in the Settlement Escrow Fund are less than the amounts due with respect to all Pro Forma Restructured UTGO Bonds (as shown on Exhibit A), such payments shall distributed pro rata based upon the aggregate amount payable to each Bond Insurer. If the City fails to deposit into the Settlement Escrow Fund, or to otherwise pay to the Bond Insurers or holders of the Prior UTGO the amounts required by this Agreement, any deficiencies shall be paid into the Settlement Escrow Fund from the first available amounts of the Aggregate UTGO Tax Levy as provided for in Section 2.4(b)(i) of the UTGO Settlement Agreement, and shall be distributed to, or at the direction of the Bond Insurers, pro rata, as soon as practicable (subject to Section 102(b)) hereof.

(b) The Settlement Escrow Trustee shall keep and maintain a record showing each deposit into the Settlement Escrow Fund, and all transfers of funds made therefrom, which shall be provided to any Bond Insurer upon request.

(c) Any payment to a Bond Insurer shall be paid by wire transfer in immediately available funds into the accounts as shown in Section 501.

ARTICLE II.
INVESTMENT OF FUNDS

Section 201 Permitted Investments. All money held by the Settlement Escrow Fund, without the need for further direction by the City, shall be invested by the Settlement Escrow Trustee in accordance with written instructions from the City in mutual funds registered under the investment company act of 1940, title I of chapter 686, 54 Stat. 789, 15 USC 80a-1 to 80a-3 and 80a-4 to 80a-64, that are at the time of purchase within the highest classification established by not less than two standard rating services and so long as the portfolio of such mutual funds is limited to bonds, and other obligations on which the full and timely payment of principal and interest is unconditionally guaranteed by the full faith and credit of the United States. All investments shall mature or be redeemable at the option of the holder no later than the next interest payment date on the Pro Forma Restructured UTGO Bonds. In the absence of any written direction delivered to the Settlement Escrow Trustee by the City, the Settlement Escrow Trustee shall hold funds uninvested. The Settlement Escrow Trustee shall be entitled to rely on any written direction from the City as to the suitability and legality of the directed investment.

ARTICLE III.
THE SETTLEMENT ESCROW TRUSTEE

Section 301 Powers and Duties of Settlement Escrow Trustee. (a) The Settlement Escrow Trustee may execute any of the trusts or powers hereof and perform any of its duties by or through attorneys, agents, receivers or employees, and shall be entitled to act upon the opinion or advice of its counsel concerning all matters hereof, and may in all cases be reimbursed hereunder for reasonable compensation paid to all such attorneys, agents, receivers and employees as may reasonably be employed in connection with the trust hereof. The Settlement Escrow Trustee may act upon an opinion of counsel and shall not be responsible for any loss or damage resulting from any action or nonaction by it taken or omitted to be taken in good faith in reliance upon such opinion of counsel.

(b) The Settlement Escrow Trustee shall not be responsible for any recital herein, or for the validity of the execution by the City of this Settlement Escrow Agreement, or of any supplements thereto or instruments of further assurance, or for the validity or sufficiency of, or filing of documents related to the security for the Prior UTGO Bonds intended to be secured hereby.

(c) The Settlement Escrow Trustee shall not be responsible or liable for any loss suffered in connection with any investment of funds made by it in accordance with this Settlement Escrow Agreement.

(d) The Settlement Escrow Trustee shall be protected in acting upon any notice, request, consent, certificate, order, affidavit, letter, telegram or other paper or document reasonably believed by it to be genuine and correct and to have been signed or sent by the proper person or persons.

(e) As to the existence or non-existence of any fact or as to the sufficiency or validity of any instrument, paper or proceeding, the Settlement Escrow Trustee shall be entitled to rely upon a certificate believed in good faith to be genuine and correct, signed on behalf of the City or a Bond Insurer by an authorized officer of the City or Bond Insurer, as the case may be, as sufficient evidence of the facts therein contained. The Settlement Escrow Trustee may also accept a similar certificate to the effect that any particular dealing, transaction or action is necessary or expedient, but may at its discretion secure such further evidence deemed necessary or advisable, but shall in no case be bound to secure the same.

(f) The permissive right of the Settlement Escrow Trustee to do things enumerated in this Settlement Escrow Agreement, as amended, shall not be construed as a duty, and the Settlement Escrow Trustee shall not be answerable for other than its gross negligence or willful misconduct. The immunities and exceptions from liability of the Settlement Escrow Trustee shall extend to its officers, directors, employees and agents.

(g) The Settlement Escrow Trustee shall not be required to give any note or surety in respect to the execution of its rights and obligations hereunder.

(h) All moneys received by the Settlement Escrow Trustee shall, until used or applied or invested as herein provided, be held in trust in the manner and for the purpose for which they were received, but need not be segregated from other funds except to the extent required by this Settlement Escrow Agreement, as amended, or by law. The Settlement Escrow Trustee shall not be under any liability for interest on any moneys received hereunder except such as may be agreed upon.

(i) The Settlement Escrow Trustee shall not be under any obligation to initiate any suit or to take any remedial proceeding under this Settlement Escrow Agreement or to take any steps in the execution of the trusts created by this Settlement Escrow Agreement or in the enforcement of any rights and powers under this Settlement Escrow Agreement until it has been indemnified to its satisfaction against any and all fees, costs and expenses and other reasonable disbursements and against all liability.

(j) The Settlement Escrow Trustee shall have no responsibility or liability with respect to any information, statement or recital in any official statement, offering memorandum or other disclosure material prepared or distributed with respect to the issuance of the Prior UTGO Bonds, except for liability for its own gross negligence or willful misconduct.

(k) The Settlement Escrow Trustee may become the holder of any of the Prior UTGO Bonds with the same rights it would have if it were not Settlement Escrow Trustee, and, to the extent permitted by law, may act as depositary for and permit any of its officers or directors to act as a member of, or in any other capacity with respect to, any committee formed to protect the rights of holders, whether or not such committee shall represent the holders of a majority in principal amount of any of the Prior UTGO Bonds of such series then outstanding.

(l) The Settlement Escrow Trustee shall not be liable for any error of judgment made in good faith by any of its officers, employees, agents or representatives, unless it shall be proved that the Settlement Escrow Trustee was negligent in ascertaining the pertinent facts.

(m) The Settlement Escrow Trustee has no obligation or liability to the holders for the payment of interest on, principal of or redemption premium, if any, with respect to the Prior UTGO Bonds from its own funds; but rather the Settlement Escrow Trustee's obligations shall be limited to the performance of its duties hereunder.

(n) Whether or not therein expressly so provided, every provision of this Agreement or related documents, relating to the conduct or affecting the liability of or affording protection to the Settlement Escrow Trustee shall be subject to the provisions of this Article.

Section 302 Fees and Expenses of Settlement Escrow Trustee. (a) The Settlement Escrow Trustee shall be entitled to reasonable and customary fees for services rendered under this Agreement, as amended, and shall be reimbursed for all expenses reasonably incurred in connection with such services. Such fees and expenses shall be payable by the City and shall be determined in accordance with the Fee Schedule attached as Exhibit E of this Agreement or as otherwise may be agreed to by the City and the Settlement Escrow Trustee. The Settlement Escrow Trustee shall not have a lien for the payment of its fees and expenses upon any of the money deposited with it in accordance with this Agreement.

(b) The City shall be liable for all fees, expenses, charges, losses, costs, liabilities and damages (including reasonable attorneys' or other professional fees) incurred by the Settlement

Escrow Trustee pursuant to this Agreement except for those which are adjudicated to have resulted from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Settlement Escrow Trustee, and shall pay such amounts to or at the direction of the Settlement Escrow Trustee.

Section 303 Resignation; Appointment of Successor Settlement Escrow Trustee; Successor Settlement Escrow Trustee Upon Merger, Consolidation or Sale. (a) The Settlement Escrow Trustee and any successor Settlement Escrow Trustee may resign only upon giving 60 days' prior written notice to the City and the Bond Insurers. Such resignation shall take effect only upon the appointment of a successor Settlement Escrow Trustee and the acceptance of such appointment by the successor Settlement Escrow Trustee. Upon appointment of a successor Settlement Escrow Trustee, the resigning Settlement Escrow Trustee shall, after payment of its fees, costs and expenses, assign all of its right, title and interest in the Settlement Escrow Fund, and transfer and assign its right, title and interest in the Settlement Escrow Agreement to the successor Settlement Escrow Trustee. The successor Settlement Escrow Trustee shall meet the requirements of Section 303(b) below and shall accept in writing its duties and responsibilities hereunder and file such acceptance with the City.

(b) In case the Settlement Escrow Trustee shall give notice of resignation or be removed, or be dissolved, or shall be in the course of dissolution or liquidation, or otherwise become incapable of acting hereunder, or in case it shall be taken under the control of any public office or offices, or of a receiver appointed by a court, a successor may be appointed by the Bond Insurers, with the prior written consent of the City (to the extent that no breach by the City of any material agreement or covenant, i.e. an "Event of Default," shall have occurred and be continuing under this Settlement Escrow Agreement, written notice of which has been provided by the Bond Insurers to the City and the Settlement Escrow Trustee), which consent shall not be unreasonably be withheld. ## UTGO Settlement Agreement – Insert for Confirmation Order

Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law

A. After sufficient notice and opportunity for all parties to be heard, and after due deliberation, based on the Court's thorough review and full consideration of the UTGO Settlement Agreement and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor, the Court makes the following findings of fact and conclusions of law. Any finding of fact constitutes a finding of fact even if it is stated as a conclusion of law, and any conclusion of law constitutes a conclusion of law even if it is stated as a finding of fact. All findings of fact and conclusions of law announced by the Court on the record in connection with confirmation of the Plan or otherwise at the Confirmation Hearing are incorporated herein by reference.<sup>1</sup> The findings and conclusions set forth herein and in the record of the Confirmation Hearing constitute the Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Rule 52 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, as made applicable herein by Bankruptcy Rules 7052 and 9014.

B. The UTGO Settlement described in the Plan and the UTGO Settlement Agreement are fair, equitable, reasonable, and in the best interests of the City and its creditors and residents.<sup>2</sup> The UTGO Settlement Agreement is the result of extensive arms' length negotiations among the City and the UTGO Bond Insurers – all of whom were represented by

<sup>1</sup> The findings of fact and conclusions of law set forth herein and announced on the record during the Confirmation Hearing shall be construed in a manner consistent with each other so as to effect the purpose of each; provided, however, that if there is any direct conflict that cannot be reconciled, then, solely to the extent of such conflict, the provisions of this Confirmation Order shall govern and shall control and take precedence over any findings of fact or conclusions of law announced on the record at the Confirmation Hearing.

<sup>2</sup> Capitalized terms used herein but not defined shall have the meanings ascribed to them in the Plan or the UTGO Settlement Agreement, a copy of which is attached to the Plan as Exhibit sophisticated counsel. The compromises and settlements embodied in the UTGO Settlement (a) resolve all disputes with respect to claims classified in Class 8 under the Plan and the issues raised by the UTGO Bond Insurers in the UTGO Litigation and (b) are, collectively, a key compromise upon which several provisions of the Plan rest. In the absence of such compromises and settlements, the City's emergence from chapter 9 would likely have been delayed by litigation and burdened with additional expenses. The UTGO Settlement and the UTGO Settlement Agreement: (a) were negotiated and entered into in good faith, (b) comport with policies and purposes of chapter 9, (c) are fair, equitable and reasonable; (d) are in the best interests of the City and its creditors and residents as they not only fully resolve the UTGO Litigation but also permit the City's assignees to receive value from the Assigned UTGO Bond Tax Proceeds as set forth in the Plan; (e) are within the range of reasonable results if the disputes resolved by the UTGO Settlement, including the Assured/NPFG Action and the Ambac Action as they relate to the UTGO Bonds, were instead litigated to a conclusion; (f) fall above the lowest point in the range of reasonableness; and (g) meet the standards for approval under sections 105(a) and 1123(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 9019(a) and other applicable law.

C. Without limiting any of the foregoing, the Court hereby finds that:

- a. The Plan incorporates the UTGO Settlement Agreement, and the effectiveness of the Plan is expressly conditioned upon: (a) the Michigan Finance Authority board having approved the issuance of the MFA Bonds and such bonds having been issued; and (b) the City having obtained all governmental and Emergency Manager consents and approvals required to carry out the terms of the UTGO Settlement Agreement.

- b. As of the Effective Date, the Plan represents a full, final and complete compromise, settlement, release and resolution of, among other matters, all disputes and pending or potential litigation (including any appeals), including, without limitation, the UTGO Litigation, regarding the allowability, amount, priority and treatment of the Unlimited Tax General Obligation Bond Claims. The treatment of Class 8 UTGO Claims under the Plan is a component of a settlement and compromise of the UTGO Litigation.
- c. Good and valuable consideration has been provided for all releases and exculpations granted pursuant to the UTGO Settlement Agreement, including, without limitation, the releases and exculpations granted pursuant to sections 6.1 and 6.2 of the UTGO Settlement Agreement. Such provisions are fair, equitable, reasonable and integral elements of the UTGO Settlement Agreement.
- d. The Court confirms that as of the Effective Date and pursuant to Emergency Manager Order No. __, the Municipal Obligation shall be secured, to the extent permitted by law, including without limitation section 12(1)(x) of Act 436, by a lien granted by the City on the UTGO Bond Tax Levy for so long as either the Municipal Obligation or the Stub UTGO Bonds are outstanding.
- e. As of the Effective Date, the UTGO Bond Tax Levy shall constitute “special revenues,” as defined in section 902 of the Bankruptcy Code, and "pledged special revenues," as that term is used in section 922(d) of the Bankruptcy Code.

- f. As of the Effective Date, the MFA shall possess a valid and enforceable statutory fourth lien and trust on Distributable State Aid, as provided in section 15(2) of the Shared Credit Rating Act or as otherwise provided under applicable law.
- g. As of the Effective Date, Holders of the MFA Bonds shall possess all of the MFA's rights and interest in the Municipal Obligation including all the rights and interest provided herein and under the UTGO Settlement Agreement, subject to the reservation by the MFA of rights to indemnification and to make all determinations and approvals and receive all notices accorded to it under the Municipal Obligation and related documents. Accordingly, the MFA Bonds will be payable from and secured by (i) payments made by the City on the Municipal Obligation and to the extent permitted by law, including without limitation section 12(1)(x) of Act 436, a lien on the portion of the UTGO Bond Tax Levy allocable to the Municipal Obligation, pledged by the City to secure the Municipal Obligation and (ii) a lien, made a statutory lien as provided by the Shared Credit Rating Act, on moneys in the funds and accounts established for the MFA Bonds under the authorizing resolution for such bonds, including payments pledged by the City and received and held by the MFA or its trustee for the MFA Bonds, which include, without limitation, all payments of (x) the proceeds of the UTGO Bond Tax Levy and (y) Distributable State Aid.

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED THAT:

1. The UTGO Settlement. Consistent with the findings herein, the UTGO Settlement and the UTGO Settlement Agreement, including without limitation all of the transactions contemplated, the liens granted, and the protections created therein, are APPROVED in their entirety as a good faith, fair, reasonable, and equitable compromise and settlement of all disputes with respect to claims classified in Class 8 under the Plan that is in the best interests of the City and its creditors and residents. The entry of this Confirmation Order constitutes approval of the UTGO Settlement Agreement pursuant to the Bankruptcy Rules, including Bankruptcy Rule 9019, the Bankruptcy Code, including section 1123, and Act 279, Public Acts of Michigan, 1909, as amended; Act 436, Public Acts of Michigan, 2012; Act 34, Public Acts of Michigan, 2001, as amended; and Act 80, Public Acts of Michigan, 1981, as amended. As provided in the Plan, on the Effective Date, the UTGO Settlement Agreement shall be binding on the City, Ambac, Assured and NPF.

2. Approval of Exculpations and Releases. All exculpations and releases granted pursuant to the UTGO Settlement, including, without limitation, the releases and exculpations granted pursuant to sections 6.1 and 6.2 of the UTGO Settlement Agreement, are hereby approved in their entirety. The Court approves such settlements and releases on the grounds that good and valuable consideration has been provided therefor, and that such provisions are fair, equitable, reasonable, and integral elements of the UTGO Settlement Agreement.

3. Segregation of UTGO Bond Tax Levy. The proceeds of the UTGO Bond Tax Levy collected by the City shall be segregated and transmitted to the Debt Millage Escrow Trustee under the Debt Millage Deposit Escrow Agreement, and the Debt Millage Escrow Trustee shall segregate and transmit the proceeds allocable to the Municipal Obligation to the Master Trustee in accordance with section 2.4(a) of the UTGO Settlement Agreement.

4. Annual Certification of Debt Millage Levy. Pursuant to the Section 2.7(b) of the UTGO Settlement Agreement, the City shall certify annually, not later than June 30 of each year, that it has imposed the debt millage levy as required by and in accordance with the terms of the UTGO Settlement Agreement.

5. Retention of Jurisdiction. Pursuant to section 945(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court shall retain jurisdiction over the UTGO Settlement and the UTGO Settlement Agreement and any dispute arising from or related to the UTGO Settlement Agreement. For the avoidance of doubt and as the City has consented, the Court shall retain exclusive post-confirmation authority and power, to implement, interpret and enforce the UTGO Settlement Agreement and all Settlement-Related Documents, including, without limitation, all exhibits to the UTGO Settlement Agreement, the Restructured UTGO Bonds, the Municipal Obligation and the MFA Bonds. As the City has consented, the Court reserves all powers as are necessary or appropriate to enforce or to give effect to the Court's retained jurisdiction under the Plan and this Confirmation Order, including by way of injunction, as long as any of the Municipal Obligation, Stub UTGO Bonds or MFA Bonds are outstanding.

TERMS OF PFRS PENSION RESTORATION

TERMS OF PFRS PENSION RESTORATION

Pension Restoration Process

The following rules shall govern how accrued pensions, including COLA benefits, that are reduced as part of the Plan of Adjustment, shall be restored during the thirty year period following the Confirmation Order. The pension restoration process shall be supervised, and restoration decisions undertaken by the Investment Committee of PFRS and in accordance with the pension governance provisions set forth in the State Contribution Agreement and exhibits thereto. This pension restoration program shall be deemed a part of Component II of the Combined Plan for the Police and Fire Retirement System, but in the event of any conflict between the language set forth herein and the Combined Plan the terms of this Pension Restoration Agreement will govern.

GENERAL RESTORATION RULES

I. PFRS RESTORATION

1. Waterfall Categories

There will be three Waterfall Classes:

- a. PFRS Waterfall Class 1 – Retirees in retirement benefit pay status as of June 30, 2014, and their surviving spouses and beneficiaries
- b. PFRS Waterfall Class 2 – Retirees, who entered into retirement benefit pay status after June 30, 2014, and their surviving spouses and beneficiaries, and who are in pay status as of the end of the PFRS Fiscal Year prior to the year in which the restoration decision is made
- c. PFRS Waterfall Class 3 – All retirees, surviving spouses, and beneficiaries in pay status and all other PFRS participants who as of June 30, 2014 are not in retirement benefit pay status

2. General PFRS Pension Restoration Through June 30, 2023

Each year in conjunction with the annual actuarial valuation report, the PFRS actuary will project the PFRS funded ratio as of 2023 based upon the market value of plan assets relative to the actuarial accrued liabilities (the “Funded Level”). This projection will be further based upon a 6.75% assumed rate of investment return which is net of expenses (administrative and investment), future employer contributions as set forth in the Plan of Adjustment (subject to conditions in the Plan of Adjustment), and such other actuarial assumptions as utilized by the PFRS actuary. For purposes of PFRS Restoration through June 30, 2023, the Funding Target will be a 75% funded ratio, and the Restoration

Target will be a 78% funded ratio, both projected to June 30, 2023. For purposes of calculating the funded ratio, the assets in the Restoration Reserve Account will be excluded. Each year, if the actuary projects that the Funded Level as of 2023 (excluding Restoration Account assets to avoid double counting) exceeds the Restoration Target (i.e., exceeds 78%), a credit of assets for bookkeeping purposes will be made into a new notional Restoration Reserve Account. The notional credit will be an amount equal to the excess of assets above the amount projected to be needed to satisfy the Restoration Target. Once the Restoration Reserve Account is established, each year thereafter, Restoration Account assets will be credited with interest in an amount equal to the net return on plan investments but capped at the actuarially assumed rate of investment return (i.e., 6.75% for the period through June 30, 2023). In the event of net losses, the credited asset value of the Restoration Reserve Account will be diminished to reflect such losses and any required transfer to the PFRS Pension Reserve Account as provided herein.

Actual restoration payments and restoration credits will work as follows: each year, in conjunction with the preparation of the annual actuarial valuation report and following establishment of the Restoration Reserve Account, the PFRS actuary will determine whether there are sufficient funds in such account to restore COLA benefits in a minimum incremental amount of 10% or more. For example: If a retiree's then current COLA benefit is a 1.0% annual compounded COLA, the minimum incremental restoration would increase the COLA benefit to 1.225%. COLA restoration only will occur if the funding level in the Restoration Reserve Account can fund 100% of the COLA increase over the actuarially-projected lives of the eligible recipient PFRS Waterfall Class. If the actuary certifies that the Restoration Reserve Account as of the end of the prior PFRS fiscal year satisfies the required funding level for one or more increments of restoration, then in the next immediate PFRS fiscal year actual COLA restoration payments will be made to PFRS Waterfall Class 1 members in such increments until an amount sufficient to fund 66% of the value of their future COLA payments (e.g., a 1.5% compound COLA, or as otherwise applicable) has been funded. At that juncture, and to the extent that additional assets in the Restoration Reserve Account would fully fund COLA restoration in at least one minimum 10% increment (i.e., amounts equal to 10% of the value of future COLA payments), PFRS Waterfall Class 2 members will receive COLA restoration, until an amount sufficient to fund 66% of the value of their future COLA payments has been funded. At that juncture, and to the extent that additional assets in the Restoration Reserve Account would fully fund COLA restoration in at least one minimum 10% increment (i.e., amounts equal to 10% of the value of future COLA payments), PFRS Waterfall Class 3 members will receive COLA restoration on a pro-rata basis. For PFRS Waterfall Class 3 members who are in pay status at that time of restoration, they will receive COLA payments; for active employees at the time of restoration, they will receive credits granting them a right upon retirement to receive COLA restoration equal to the 10% increments that are fully funded to PFRS Waterfall Class 3 members. For Example: Assume there are sufficient assets credited to the Restoration Reserve Account as of the end of a fiscal year to fully fund 66% of the value of the COLA for all PFRS Waterfall Class 1 and Class 2 members for their actuarially projected lives. To the extent additional assets remain in the Restoration Reserve Account to fully fund at least a 10% COLA increment for PFRS Waterfall Class 3 members for their actuarially projected lives, then (i) all retirees would receive a restoration payment of 76% of the value of their COLAs (their having already received by virtue of their membership in PFRS Waterfall Classes 1 and 2 an increase to 66% of the value of their COLAs) and also a 10% COLA increment would be credited to eligible active employees which would be included in their benefit payments upon retirement (thus causing their COLAs to increase in value from 45% to 55% ). Restoration amounts actually paid from the Restoration Reserve Account will be debited from such account. Restoration payments will be calculated and paid on a prospective basis only.

Once restoration payments and credits begin, as long as the Restoration Reserve Account continues to have assets to fund 100% of an incremental COLA restoration amount for such Waterfall Class for their actuarially projected lives, the restoration payments and credits will continue; provided, however, that in the event the Restoration Reserve Account, after having sufficient assets to fund 100% of two or more increments, falls below 100% for the second or greater increment, the annual amounts to pay such second or greater increment can continue until the Restoration Reserve Account lacks any assets to fund such additional increment. For Example, assume a 10% increment in PFRS Waterfall Class 1 requires $10 million in assets to be fully funded for the PFRS Waterfall Class' actuarially projected lives, and that based on FY 2018 results the Restoration Reserve Account has assets of $22 million so as to fund two increments of restoration in FY 2019. Assume further that in the following year the Restoration Reserve Account drops in value to $17 million; in such event two increments could still be paid, and the second increment would cease being paid only if the value of assets in the Restoration Reserve Account dropped to or below $10 million (in the event they dropped below $10 million, the first increment also would cease being paid). For purposes of restoration reduction, restoration increments will be taken away in reverse order in which they were granted (i.e. last in, first out).

If the PFRS Funded Level (excluding Restoration Reserve Assets) projected to 2023 falls below 76% (hereinafter, "Restoration Reserve Suspension Trigger"), then, until such time as the projected PFRS Funded Level in 2023 is 76% or above, further interest credits to the notional Restoration Reserve Account will cease notwithstanding the actual net PFRS investment returns for the fiscal year in question. Furthermore, if the PFRS Funded Level projected to 2023 falls below the Funding Target (i.e., 75%) then restoration payments to retirees and credits to active employees in the following year will be modified in the following manner: (1) funds previously credited to the Restoration Reserve Account will be notionally transferred and credited to the PFRS Pension Reserve Account in sufficient amounts to restore the projected PFRS Funded Level in 2023 to 75%; (2) following such transfer, the remaining assets in the Restoration Reserve Account shall be applied to make restoration payments in accordance with and pursuant to the same mechanism described in the previous paragraph.

In connection with preparation of the actuarial report for FY 2023, the PFRS actuary will determine whether PFRS has satisfied the Permanent Restoration Target, which shall be 78%. Transfers from the Restoration Reserve Account for credit to the PFRS Pension Reserve Account may be made in such amounts as are necessary to satisfy the Permanent Restoration Target. If following such transfers, the PFRS Funded Level as of June 30, 2023 has satisfied the Permanent Restoration Target (i.e., 78%), then the residual amounts, if any, in the Restoration Reserve Account (which will necessarily represent excess not necessary to satisfy the Permanent Restoration Target), and which fully fund one or more increments of COLA restoration payments for one or more PFRS Waterfall Classes for their actuarially projected lives, shall be transferred from the Restoration Reserve Account and credited to the PFRS Pension Reserve Account and the applicable incremental COLA payments shall be permanently restored for the applicable PFRS Waterfall Class and shall no longer be variable from year to year.

Following receipt of the actuarial reports for 2019, and in the event that the projected Funded Level of PFRS as of 2023 is less than 76%, the PFRS actuary shall revisit the restoration calculations that it made during each of the prior 4 years. It shall recalculate each such prior year's Funded Level projection, this time by assuming the lesser of (i) $4.5 million in annual administrative expenses until 2023, or (ii) an amount of annual administrative expenses until 2023 equal to the average annual administrative expenses in the prior 4 years, in addition to a net 6.75% annual investment return. If such retrospective recalculation indicates that fewer amounts would have transferred to the PFRS Restoration Reserve Account than actually were transferred during such look back period, then the PFRS Restoration Reserve Account shall be debited by the lesser of (i) this difference (plus interest at a rate equal to the rate that was credited to the Restoration Reserve Account during the look-back period or (ii) the dollars that were actually paid out in restoration payments during such look-back period (plus interest at a rate equal to the rate that was credited to the Restoration Reserve Account during the look-back period); or (iii) the amount required to increase the projected 2023 PFRS Funded Level to 76%.

3. General PFRS Pension Restoration from July 1, 2023 to June 30, 2033.

If and to the extent that all COLA payments have not been restored pursuant to the permanent restoration feature as of June 30, 2023 described in the immediately preceding paragraph, then during this period and for purposes of variable restoration, the Funding Target, the Restoration Target, the Permanent Restoration Target and the Restoration Reserve Suspension Trigger shall be as set forth on Exhibit A hereto, all projected as of June 30, 2033. The same rules for restoration payments that applied during the period ending June 30, 2023 shall apply (including ceasing interest credits in the event of a Restoration Reserve Suspension Trigger, and making Restoration Account asset transfers in the event the 2033 PFRS Funded Level falls below the 2033 Funding Target), except as follows. For purposes of determining whether the 2033 Restoration Target has been satisfied, the Plan actuary shall project investment returns through June 30, 2033 at the then current investment return assumption, and the then applicable actuarial assumptions as utilized in the annual actuarial valuation. Further, the Plan actuary shall assume, merely for purposes of determining whether the Restoration Target is satisfied, that the annual City contribution amount shall be the annual amount necessary to fund the PFRS based upon an amortization of the actual 2023 UAAL (using the market value of assets) over 30 years (hereinafter, the "2023 UAAL Amortization") and in such manner that the resulting annual contribution stream would achieve the applicable PFRS' Funding Target (on Exhibit A) as of 2033. (Such projected, hypothetical contributions shall be for purposes only of making restoration determinations, and shall not necessarily be the actual contributions made or required to be made by the City or recommended during such period; all of which shall be determined independent of the restoration calculation process). For purposes of calculating the funded ratio, the assets in the Restoration Reserve account will be excluded

To the extent that the City's actual contributions to the PFRS in any of the FYs 2024 (i.e., the year ending June 30, 2024) through 2033 are greater than the projected annual contribution under the 2023 UAAL Amortization, such amounts, and any investment earnings thereon, shall be notionally credited to a new bookkeeping account in PFRS called the Extra Contribution Account. In determining pension restoration during the period from FY 2024 through 2033, none of the amounts in the Extra Contribution Account shall be considered for purposes of determining the projected funded level for the Restoration Target or Permanent Restoration Target. To the extent that the City's actual contributions to the PFRS in any of the FYs 2024 through 2033 are less than the projected annual contribution under the 2023 UAAL Amortization, such difference and any investment earnings thereon shall be notionally allocated to the Restoration Reserve Account.

Each year, in addition to the crediting of assets that exceed the amount necessary to satisfy the Restoration Target, existing Restoration Account assets will be credited with interest equal to the net return on plan investments, but capped at the then actuarial investment return assumption. In the event of net losses, the credited asset value of the Restoration Reserve Account will be diminished to reflect such losses.

In connection with preparation of the annual actuarial valuation report for FY 2033, the PFRS actuary will determine whether PFRS has satisfied the applicable Permanent Restoration Target, as set forth on Exhibit A. Transfers from the Restoration Reserve Account for credit to the PFRS Pension Reserve Account may be made in such amounts as are necessary to satisfy the Permanent Restoration Target. If following such transfers the funding level as of June 30, 2033 has satisfied the applicable Permanent Restoration Target, then the residual amounts in the Restoration Reserve Account, if any (which will necessarily represent excess not necessary to satisfy the Permanent Restoration Target), and which fully fund one or more increments of COLA restoration payments for one or more PFRS Waterfall Classes, shall be transferred from the Restoration Reserve Account and credited to the PFRS Pension Reserve Account and the applicable incremental COLA payments shall be permanently restored for the applicable PFRS Waterfall Class and shall no longer be variable from year to year.

Following receipt of the actuarial reports for 2028, and in the event that the projected Funded Level of PFRS as of 2033 is less than 79%, the PFRS actuary shall revisit the restoration calculations that it made during each of the prior 4 years. It shall recalculate each such prior year's Funded Level projection, this time by assuming the lesser of (i) $4.5 million in annual administrative expenses until 2033, or (ii) an amount of annual administrative expenses until 2033 equal to the average annual administrative expenses in the prior 4 years, in addition to a net 6.75% annual investment return. If such retrospective recalculation indicates that fewer amounts would have transferred to the PFRS Restoration Reserve Account than actually were transferred during such look back period, then the PFRS Restoration Reserve Account shall be debited by the lesser of (i) this difference (plus interest at a rate equal to the rate that was credited to the Restoration Reserve Account during the applicable look-back period or (ii) the dollars that were actually paid out in restoration payments during such look-back period (plus interest at a rate equal to the rate that was credited to the Restoration Reserve Account during the applicable look-back period); or (iii) the amount required to increase the projected 2033 PFRS Funded Level to 79%.

4. General PFRS Pension Restoration from July 1, 2033 to June 30, 2043.

If and to the extent that all COLA payments have not been restored pursuant to the permanent restoration feature as of June 30, 2033 described in the immediately preceding paragraph, then during the period ending June 30, 2044 and for purposes of variable restoration, the Funding Target, the Restoration Target, the Permanent Restoration Target and the Restoration Reserve Suspension Trigger shall be as set forth on Exhibit A hereto. The same rules for restoration that applied during the period ending June 30, 2033 shall otherwise apply (including ceasing interest credits in the event of a Restoration Reserve Suspension Trigger, and making Restoration Account asset transfers in the event the 2043 PFRS Funded Level falls below the 2043 Funding Target), and shall be rolled forward. For example, for purposes of determining whether the 2043 Restoration Target has been satisfied, the Plan actuary shall project annual contributions using the same 2023 UAAL Amortization. For purposes of calculating the funded ratio, the assets in the Restoration Reserve account will be excluded, and no Extra Contribution Account assets shall be included for purposes of determining whether the Funded Level meets the Restoration Target or Permanent Restoration Target, including any additions to such account after 2033.

In connection with preparation of the annual actuarial valuation report for FY 2043, the PFRS actuary will determine whether PFRS has satisfied the applicable Permanent Restoration Target, as set forth on Exhibit A. Transfers from the Restoration Reserve Account for credit to the PFRS Pension Reserve Account may be made in such amounts as are necessary to satisfy the Permanent Restoration Target. If following such transfers the PFRS Funded Level as of June 30, 2043 is equal to or greater than the applicable Permanent Restoration Target, then the residual amounts in the Restoration Reserve Account, if any (which will necessarily represent excess not necessary to satisfy the Permanent Restoration Target), and which fully fund one or more increments of COLA restoration payments for one or more PFRS Waterfall Classes, shall be transferred from the Restoration Reserve Account and credited to the PFRS Pension Reserve Account and the applicable incremental COLA payments shall be permanently restored for the applicable PFRS Waterfall Class and shall no longer be variable from year to year.

5. Modification of the Pension Restoration Program

If any time after July 1, 2026, the PFRS Investment Committee (by vote of 5 of its 7 members), or the PFRS Board of Trustees (by a greater than 66% vote) determines that a change in relevant circumstances has occurred, or there was a mutual mistake of fact in developing this Pension Restoration Agreement, such that the continued operation of this Agreement without amendment will: (a) materially harm the long-term economic interests of the City or Retirement System; or (b) materially impair the City's ability to fully fund over a reasonable period the then existing frozen benefit liabilities, the Investment Committee or the Board, as the case may be, shall provide written notice to the other entity of such a determination and of the need to amend this Restoration Agreement (it being understood that the post-Chapter 9, 40-year amortization period (to 2053) to full fund PFRS frozen liabilities is presumptively reasonable, but not irrebutably so). The Investment Committee and the Board shall then meet to negotiate amendments to this Agreement that address the identified risk of harm or impairment, but which also considers this Agreement's objective of providing pension restoration. Such negotiations shall take into account reasonable actions the City has pursued or could pursue to mitigate such harm or impairment. Any such amendments shall require the approval of a majority vote of the combined members of the Committee and Board (persons who sit on both the Board and Committee shall have one vote). Such parties shall consult with the Mayor, City Council and the Governor in connection with such negotiation. If the Board, acting through a majority, and the Investment Committee, acting through a majority, cannot agree to such amendments with the 90-day period following the provision of such notice by the determining party, then the Board and Investment Committee shall proceed to mediation. In this regard, within 30-days following expiration of the 90-day period the Board and the Investment Committee shall each select a mediator from the list of approved mediators for the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan. The two selected mediators shall appoint a third neutral mediator from the approved list. Each party shall furnish a written statement to the mediators within 30 days of selection of the neutral mediator. Representatives of the Mayor and the Governor shall participate in such mediations. If following a 90-day mediation period following submission of the written statements the matter is not settled, then either the Investment Committee or the Board can file an action in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan asking it to declare, inter alia, whether or in what manner to amend this Agreement.

TERMS OF GRS PENSION RESTORATION

TERMS OF GRS PENSION RESTORATION

Pension Restoration Process

The following rules shall govern how accrued pensions, including COLA benefits, that are reduced as part of the Plan of Adjustment, shall be restored during the thirty year period following the Confirmation Order. The pension restoration process shall be supervised, and restoration decisions undertaken by the Investment Committee of GRS and in accordance with the pension governance provisions set forth in the State Contribution Agreement and exhibits thereto. This pension restoration program shall be deemed a part of Component II of the Combined Plan for the General Retirement System of the City of Detroit, but in the event of any conflict between the language set forth herein and the Combined Plan the terms of this Pension Restoration Agreement will govern.

I. GRS RESTORATION

1. Waterfall Categories

There will be three Waterfall Classes:

- a. GRS Waterfall Class 1 – Retirees, in retirement benefit pay status as of June 30, 2014, and their surviving spouses and beneficiaries
- b. GRS Waterfall Class 2 – Retirees, who entered into retirement benefit pay status after June 30, 2014, and their surviving spouses and beneficiaries, and who are in pay status as of the end of the GRS Fiscal Year prior to the year in which the restoration decision is made
- c. GRS Waterfall Class 3 – All other GRS participants who as of June 30, 2014 are not in retirement benefit pay status

2. General GRS Pension Restoration Through June 30, 2023

Each year in conjunction with the annual actuarial valuation report, the GRS actuary will project the GRS funded ratio as of 2023 based upon the market value of plan assets relative to the actuarial accrued liabilities (the “Funded Level”). This projection will be further based upon a 6.75% assumed rate of investment return which is net of expenses (investment and administrative), future employer contributions as set forth in the Plan of Adjustment (subject to the conditions in the Plan of Adjustment) and such other actuarial assumptions as utilized by the GRS actuary. For purposes of GRS Restoration through June 30, 2023, the Funding Target will be a 70% funded ratio, the Restoration Target will be a 75% funded ratio, and the Restoration Reserve Suspension Trigger will be a 71% funded ratio, all projected to June 30, 2023. For purposes of calculating the funded ratio, the assets in the Restoration Reserve account will be excluded. Each year, if the actuary projects that the projected Funded Level as of June 30, 2023 (excluding Restoration Account assets to avoid double counting) exceeds the Restoration Target (i.e., exceeds 75%), a credit of assets for bookkeeping purposes will be made into a new notional Restoration Reserve Account. The notional credit will be in an amount equal to the excess of assets above the amount projected to be needed to satisfy the Restoration Target. Once the Restoration Reserve Account is established, each year thereafter, Restoration Account assets will be credited with interest in an amount equal to the net return on plan investments, but capped at the actuarially assumed rate of investment return (i.e., 6.75% for the period through June 30, 2023). In the event of net losses, the credited asset value of the Restoration Reserve Account will be diminished to reflect such losses and any required transfer to the GRS Pension Reserve Account.

Actual restoration payments and credits will work as follows: Each year in conjunction with preparation of the annual actuarial valuation report and following establishment of the Restoration Reserve Account, the GRS actuary will determine whether there are sufficient funds in such account to restore a portion of the 4.5% across the board pension cuts in one or more minimum incremental amounts equal to  $\frac{1}{2}\%$  of the monthly benefit for each member of GRS Waterfall Class 1 (i.e. reducing the initial across the board cut to 4.0%). This restoration only occurs if the funding level in the Restoration Reserve Account can fund 100% of each incremental increase over the remaining actuarially projected lives of the eligible recipients in GRS Waterfall Class 1. If the Restoration Reserve Account satisfies the required funding level, then in the next GRS fiscal year, actual restoration payments will be made to GRS Waterfall Class 1 members in amounts equal to the benefit associated with each increment that have been fully funded in the Restoration Reserve Account. Once Waterfall Class 1 has sufficient assets in the GRS Restoration Reserve Account to fully fund and restore the 4.5% cut in their monthly benefits, and to the extent that additional assets in the Restoration Reserve Account remain and will fully fund at least  $\frac{1}{2}\%$  of the monthly benefit for each member of GRS Waterfall Class 2 over their remaining actuarially projected lives, then GRS Waterfall Class 2 members will receive pension restoration in minimum  $\frac{1}{2}\%$  benefit increments until an amount equal to the 4.5% cuts in their monthly benefits has been fully funded. At that juncture, and to the extent that additional assets in the Restoration Reserve Account remain and will fund at least a minimum  $\frac{1}{2}\%$  of the monthly benefit of each member in GRS Waterfall Class 3 over their remaining actuarially projected lives, then each such member of the class shall receive a credit granting them a right upon retirement to receive pension restoration equal to the benefit increments that are fully funded. Restoration payments will be calculated and paid on a prospective basis only.

After the full 4.5% across the board pension cuts are restored for all three GRS Waterfall Classes, and to the extent there are additional assets in the Restoration Reserve Account to fully fund COLA benefits over the actuarially-projected lives of the eligible recipient GRS Waterfall Class, such assets will be used to fully fund and restore a portion of the COLA values that were eliminated as part of the Plan of Adjustment. COLA will be restored in minimum 10% COLA value increments up to 50% of the future COLA values for each member of GRS Waterfall Class 1 (i.e., a 50% future COLA value will constitute a 1.125% simple COLA), then up to 50% of the future COLA values for each member of Waterfall Class 2, and then up to 50% of the future COLA values for each member of Waterfall Class 3 until all members of the three GRS Waterfall Classes have had 50% of the value of their COLAs fully funded and restored. After 50% of the future values of COLA have been fully funded and restored, and to the extent there are additional assets in the Restoration Reserve Account for each of the three GRS Waterfall Classes, then a second 50% COLA restoration will be made, first to members of GRS Waterfall Class 1, then Waterfall Class 2, and then Waterfall Class 3. Classes will be restored in minimum 10% COLA value increments. Restoration payments will be calculated and paid on a prospective basis only.

If the amounts in the Restoration Reserve Account are sufficient to fully-fund the 4.5% across the board pension cuts for all three GRS Waterfall Classes and 100% COLA restoration for all three GRS Waterfall Classes, then any additional assets in the Restoration Reserve Account shall be used to increase the frozen accrued benefits of active and other GRS participants whose ASF accounts were diminished as part of the ASF Recoupment, such that they receive treatment equal to the 20%/20% ceiling applied to retirees in pay status under the Plan of Adjustment. If after such pension restoration there are additional assets in the Restoration Reserve Account to fully fund benefit increments over their remaining actuarially projected lives, GRS Waterfall Class 1 members will receive pension restoration in  $\frac{1}{2}\%$  benefit increments of the reductions to their monthly pension due to ASF Recoupment, and once such pension benefits are restored, Waterfall Class 2 members will receive pension restoration in  $\frac{1}{2}\%$  benefit increments in connection with the reductions to their monthly pensions due to ASF Recoupment. Restoration payments will be calculated and paid on a prospective basis only.

Once restoration payments to applicable retirees and restoration credits to active employees begin, as long as the Restoration Reserve Account continues to have assets sufficient to fund 100% of an incremental pension restoration amount for such GRS Waterfall Class members for their actuarially projected lives, such restoration payments and credits will continue; provided, however, that in the event the Restoration Reserve Account, after having sufficient assets to fund 100% of two or more increments (over their actuarially projected lives), falls below 100% for the second or greater increment, the annual amounts to pay such second or other additional increment can continue until the Restoration Reserve Account lacks any assets to fund it. For example, assume a ½% increment in GRS Waterfall Class 1 requires $10 million in assets to be fully funded for the GRS Waterfall Class' actuarially projected lives, and that based on FY 2018 results the Restoration Reserve Account has assets of $22 million so as to fund two increments of restoration in FY 2019, i.e., a 1% pension increase. Assume further that in the following year the Restoration Reserve Account drops in value to $17 million; in such event two increments could still be paid, and the second increment of ½% would cease being paid only if the value of assets in the Restoration Reserve Account dropped to or below $10 million (in the event they dropped below $10 million, the first increment also would cease being paid). For purposes of restoration reduction, restoration increments will be taken away in reverse order in which they were granted (i.e. last in, first out).

In the event the GRS Funded Level (not including Restoration Reserve Assets) falls below 71% (hereinafter, "Restoration Reserve Suspension Trigger"), then, until such time as the projected GRS Funded Level in 2023 is 71% or above, further interest credits to the notional Restoration Reserve Account will cease notwithstanding the actual net GRS investment returns for the fiscal year in question. Furthermore, if the GRS Funded Level projected to 2023 falls below the Funding Target (i.e., 70%) then restoration payments and credits in the following year will be modified in the following manner: (1) funds previously credited to the Restoration Reserve Account will be notionally transferred and credited to the GRS Pension Reserve Account in sufficient amounts to restore the projected GRS Funded Level in 2023 to 70%; (2) following such transfer, the remaining assets in the Restoration Reserve Account shall be applied to make restoration payments in accordance with and pursuant to the same mechanism described in the previous paragraph.

Following receipt of the actuarial reports for 2019, and in the event that the projected Funded Level of GRS as of 2023 is less than 71%, the GRS actuary shall revisit the restoration calculations that it made during each of the prior 4 years. It shall recalculate each such prior year's Funded Level projection, this time by assuming the lesser of (i) $4.5 million in annual administrative expenses until 2023, or (ii) an amount of annual administrative expenses until 2023 equal to the average annual administrative expenses in the prior 4 years, in addition to a net 6.75% annual investment return. If such retrospective recalculation indicates that fewer amounts would have transferred to the GRS Restoration Reserve Account than actually were transferred during such look back period, then the GRS Restoration Reserve Account shall be debited by the lesser of (i) this difference (plus interest at a rate equal to the rate that was credited to the Restoration Reserve Account during the look-back period or (ii) the dollars that were actually paid out in restoration payments during such look-back period (plus interest at a rate equal to the rate that was credited to the Restoration Reserve Account during the look-back period); or (iii) the amount required to increase the projected 2023 GRS Funded Level to 71%.

3. General GRS Pension Restoration from July 1, 2023 to June 30, 2033.

During this period, the Funding Target, the Restoration Target, the Permanent Restoration Targets and the Restoration Reserve Suspension Trigger shall be as set forth on Exhibit A hereto. The same rules for variable restoration payments and credits that applied during the period ending June 30, 2023 shall apply during the period ending June 30, 2033 (including ceasing interest credits in the event of a Restoration Reserve Suspension Trigger, and making Restoration Account asset transfers in the event the 2033 GRS Funded Level falls below the 2033 Funding Target), except as follows. For purposes of determining whether the 2033 Restoration Target has been satisfied, the Plan actuary shall project investment returns through June 30, 2033 at the then current investment return assumption and the applicable actuarial assumptions as utilized in the annual actuarial valuation. Further, the GRS Plan actuary shall assume, merely for purposes of determining whether the Restoration Target is satisfied, that the annual City contribution amount shall be the annual amount necessary to fund the GRS based upon an amortization of the actual 2023 UAAL at market value over 30 years (hereinafter, the "2023 UAAL Amortization") and in such manner that the resulting annual contribution stream would achieve the GRS Funding Target (on Exhibit A) as of 2033. (Such projected, hypothetical contributions shall be for purposes only of making restoration determinations, and shall not necessarily be the actual contributions made or required to be made by the City or recommended during such period; all of which shall be determined independent of the restoration calculation process.). For purposes of calculating the funded ratio, the assets in the Restoration Reserve account will be excluded.

To the extent that the City's actual contributions to the GRS in any of the FYs 2024 (the year ending June 30, 2024) through 2033 are greater than the projected annual contribution under the 2023 UAAL Amortization, such amounts, and any investment earnings thereon, shall be notionally credited to a new bookkeeping account in GRS called the Extra Contribution Account. In determining pension restoration during the period from FY 2024 through 2033, none of the amounts in the Extra Contribution Account shall be considered for purposes of determining the projected funded level for the Restoration Target or Permanent Restoration Targets. To the extent that the City's actual contributions in any of the FYs 2024 through 2033 are less than the projected annual contribution under the 2023 UAAL Amortization, such difference and any investment earnings thereon shall be notionally allocated to the Pension Fund Reserve Account.

Each year, in addition to the credit of assets that exceed the amount necessary to satisfy the Restoration Target, existing Restoration Account assets will be credited with interest equal to the net return on plan investments, but capped at the then investment return assumption. In the event of net losses, the credited asset value of the Restoration Reserve Account will be diminished to reflect such losses.

In connection with preparation of the actuarial report for FY 2028, the GRS actuary will determine whether GRS has satisfied the applicable Permanent Restoration Target, which shall be 75%. Transfers from the Restoration Reserve Account for credit to the GRS Pension Reserve Account may be made in such amounts as are necessary to satisfy the Permanent Restoration Target. If following such transfers the GRS Funded Level as of June 30, 2028 has satisfied the Permanent Restoration Target(75%), then the amounts in the Restoration Reserve Account , if any (which will necessarily represent excess not necessary to satisfy the Permanent Restoration Target), and which fully fund one or more increments of restoration payments for one or more GRS Waterfall Classes over such GRS Waterfall Class members' actuarially projected lives, shall be transferred from the Restoration Reserve Account and credited to the GRS Pension Reserve Account and the applicable incremental payments shall be permanently restored for the applicable GRS Waterfall Class and shall no longer be variable from year to year. Variable restoration payments will continue to be paid or credited during the period from July 1, 2028 through June 30, 2033 based on the applicable Restoration Target set forth in Exhibit A and otherwise in accordance with this restoration memorandum, notwithstanding whether the Restoration Target during this period is less than the Permanent Restoration Target as of June 30, 2028 of 75%.

In connection with preparation of the annual actuarial valuation report for FY 2033, the GRS actuary will determine whether GRS has satisfied the Permanent Restoration Target for 2033, as set forth on Exhibit A. Transfers from the Restoration Reserve Account for credit to the GRS Pension Reserve Account may be made in such amounts as are necessary to satisfy the Permanent Restoration Target . If following such transfers the GRS Funded Level as of June 30, 2033 has satisfied the applicable Permanent Restoration Target, then the amounts in the Restoration Reserve Account if any (which will necessarily represent excess not necessary to satisfy the Permanent Restoration Target), and which fully fund one or more increments of restoration payments for one or more GRS Waterfall Classes over such GRS Waterfall Class members' actuarially projected lives, shall be transferred from the Restoration Reserve Account and credited to the GRS Pension Reserve Account and the applicable incremental payments shall be permanently restored for the applicable GRS Waterfall Class and shall no longer be variable from year to year.

Following receipt of the actuarial reports for 2028, and in the event that the projected Funded Level of GRS as of 2033 is less than 71%, the GRS actuary shall revisit the restoration calculations that it made during each of the prior 4 years. It shall recalculate each such prior year's Funded Level projection, this time by assuming the lesser of (i) $4.5 million in annual administrative expenses until 2033, or (ii) an amount of annual administrative expenses until 2033 equal to the average annual administrative expenses in the prior 4 years, in addition to a net 6.75% annual investment return. If such retrospective recalculation indicates that fewer amounts would have transferred to the GRS Restoration Reserve Account than actually were transferred during such look back period, then the GRS Restoration Reserve Account shall be debited by the lesser of (i) this difference (plus interest at a rate equal to the rate that was credited to the Restoration Reserve Account during the look-back period or (ii) the dollars that were actually paid out in restoration payments during such look-back period (plus interest at a rate equal to the rate that was credited to the Restoration Reserve Account during the look-back period); or (iii) the amount required to increase the projected 2033 GRS Funded Level to 71%.

4. General GRS Pension Restoration from July 1, 2033 to June 30, 2043.

During this period, the Funding Target, the Restoration Target, the Permanent Restoration Target and the Restoration Reserve Suspension Trigger shall be as set forth on Exhibit A hereto. The same rules for restoration that applied during the period ending June 30, 2033 shall otherwise apply (including ceasing interest credits in the event of a Restoration Reserve Suspension Trigger, and making Restoration Account asset transfers in the event the 2043 GRS Funded Level falls below the 2043 Funding Target). For example, for purposes of determining whether the 2043 Restoration Target has been satisfied, the Plan actuary shall project annual contributions using the same 2023 UAAL Amortization. For purposes of calculating the funded ratio, the assets in the Restoration Reserve account will be excluded, and no Extra Contribution Account assets shall be included for purposes of determining whether the Funded Level meets the Restoration Target or Permanent Restoration Target, including any additions to such account after 2033.

In connection with preparation of the annual actuarial valuation report for FY 2043, the GRS actuary will determine whether GRS has satisfied the applicable Permanent Restoration Target, as set forth on Exhibit A. Transfers from the Restoration Reserve Account for credit to the GRS Pension Reserve Account may be made in such amounts as are necessary to satisfy the Permanent Restoration Target. If following such transfers the GRS Funded Level as of June 30, 2043 is equal to or greater than the applicable Permanent Restoration Target, then the amounts in the Restoration Reserve Account if any (which will necessarily represent excess not necessary to satisfy the Permanent Restoration Target), and which fully fund over their actuarially projected lives one or more increments of restoration payments for one or more GRS Waterfall Classes, shall be transferred from the Restoration Reserve Account and credited to the GRS Pension Reserve Account and the applicable payments for the applicable GRS Waterfall Class shall be permanently restored and shall no longer be variable.

5. Modification of the Pension Restoration Program

If any time after July 1, 2026, the GRS Investment Committee (by vote of 5 of its 7 members), or the GRS Board of Trustees (by a greater than 66% vote) determines that a change in relevant circumstances has occurred, or there was a mutual mistake of fact in developing this Pension Restoration Agreement, such that the continued operation of this Agreement without amendment will: (a) materially harm the long-term economic interests of the City or Retirement System; or (b) materially impair the City's ability to fully fund over a reasonable period the then existing frozen benefit liabilities, the Investment Committee or the Board, as the case may be, shall provide written notice to the other entity of such a determination and of the need to amend this Restoration Agreement (it being understood that the post-Chapter 9, 40-year amortization period (to 2053) to full fund GRS frozen liabilities is presumptively reasonable, but not irrebutably so). The Investment Committee and the Board shall then meet to negotiate amendments to this Agreement that address the identified risk of harm or impairment, but which also considers this Agreement's objective of providing pension restoration. Such negotiations shall take into account reasonable actions the City has pursued or could pursue to mitigate such harm or impairment. Any such amendments shall require the approval of a majority vote of the combined members of the Committee and Board (persons who sit on both the Board and Committee shall have one vote). Such parties shall consult with the Mayor, City Council and the Governor in connection with such negotiation. If the Board, acting through a majority, and the Investment Committee, acting through a majority, cannot agree to such amendments with the 90-day period following the provision of such notice by the determining party, then the Board and Investment Committee shall proceed to mediation. In this regard, within 30-days following expiration of the 90-day period the Board and the Investment Committee shall each select a mediator from the list of approved mediators for the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan. The two selected mediators shall appoint a third neutral mediator from the approved list. Each party shall furnish a written statement to the mediators within 30 days of selection of the neutral mediator. Representatives of the Mayor and the Governor shall participate in such mediations. If following a 90-day mediation period following submission of the written statements the matter is not settled, then either the Investment Committee or the Board can file an action in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan asking it to declare, inter alia, whether or in what manner to amend this Agreement.

SUPPLEMENTAL BRIEF OF THE CITY OF DETROIT IN SUPPORT OF OBJECTION OF THE CITY OF DETROIT,
PURSUANT TO SECTIONS 105 AND 502(B) OF THE BANKRUPTCY
CODE, BANKRUPTCY RULE 3007 AND LOCAL RULE 3007-1,
TO PROOF OF CLAIM NUMBER 2958 FILED BY MICHIGAN
AFSCME COUNCIL 25 AND ITS AFFILIATED DETROIT LOCALS

The City of Detroit, Michigan (the "City") hereby files this supplemental brief (the "Brief")<sup>1</sup> in support of the Objection of the City of Detroit, Pursuant to Sections 105 and 502(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 3007 and Local Rule 3007-1, to Proof of Claim Number 2958 Filed by Michigan AFSCME Council 25 and Its Affiliated Detroit Locals (Docket No. 4876) (the "Claim Objection") and respectfully represents as follows:

<sup>1</sup> Capitalized terms not otherwise defined in this Brief have the meanings given to them in the Seventh Amended Plan for the Adjustment of Debts of the City of Detroit (Docket No. 7502) (as it may be further supplemented, modified or amended, the "Plan").

Background

1. On November 21, 2013, the Court entered the Order, Pursuant to Sections 105, 501 and 503 of the Bankruptcy Code and Bankruptcy Rules 2002 and 3003(c), Establishing Bar Dates for Filing Proofs of Claim and Approving Form and Manner of Notice Thereof (Docket No. 1782) (the "Bar Date Order"). The Bar Date Order established February 21, 2014 at 4:00 p.m., Eastern Time (the "General Bar Date"), as the general deadline for the filing of proofs of claim in the City's chapter 9 case.

2. On the General Bar Date, Michigan AFSCME Council 25 and Its Affiliated Detroit Locals ("AFSCME") filed proof of claim number 2958 (the "Claim"), asserting liabilities in the aggregate amount of not less than $8,718,697,854.82. The Claim expressly provides that it consists of a number of separate claims. Claim, at 1. AFSCME filed the Claim for all amounts allegedly due to AFSCME and its members and former member retirees and future retirees with respect to an array of potential liabilities. Id. The Claim is protective in nature, identifying a series of broad categories of claims, as well as "any other claims which arise before July 18, 2014." Id.

3. On May 15, 2014, the City filed the Claim Objection. By the Claim Objection, the City objected to the Claim on the ground that, among other things, the liabilities asserted therein frequently are too vague to permit the City to

4. On September 2, 2014, AFSCME filed Creditor Michigan AFSCME Council 25 and Its Affiliated Detroit Locals' Response to the Debtor's Objection to Proofs of Claim (Docket Number 2958) (Docket No. 7235) (the "AFSCME Response").

6. On October 14, 2014, legal issues relating to two potential theories of liability asserted by AFSCME in the Claim (together, the "Issues") were referred back to this Court for expedited adjudication. The Issues consist of the following:

- ATI-102623040v5
 13-5389-Swr Doc 878-14 Filed 10/16/14 Entered 10/16/14 15:47:13 Page 4 of 81

"13th Check" program. See Claim, at Ex. 1, row 7 (the "13th Check Claim").<sup>2</sup>

- (b) Whether the City has any additional liability to AFSCME or the parties AFSCME represents, above and beyond the treatment provided for OPEB Claims under the Plan, arising from modifications to retiree health care benefits made by the City in 2006. See Claim, at Ex. 1, row 17 (the "Health Care Modification Claim").

7. AFSCME asserts the 13th Check Claim and the Health Care Modification Claim as Other Unsecured Claims in Class 14 under the Plan, and seeks a recovery separate and apart from the Plan recoveries for pension and other post-employment benefit claims. However, with the public agreement and support of AFSCME and other parties, the City has resolved its obligations on account of:

- (a) all GRS Pension Claims, including, by definition, the liabilities asserted in the 13th Check Claim (the "Alleged 13th Check Liabilities"); and (b) all OPEB Claims, including the liabilities asserted in the Health Care Modification Claim (the "Alleged OPEB Liabilities"). This resolution was developed after months of negotiations and is unambiguously reflected in the terms of the Plan by the treatment provided to Class 11 (GRS Pension Claims) and Class 12 (OPEB Claims). Accordingly, the City requests that the Court disallow the 13th Check Claim and the Health Care Modification Claim consistent with the terms of the Plan and the settlements embodied therein.

<sup>2</sup> In support of the 13th Check Claim, attached to the AFSCME Response is a copy of the Decision and Recommended Order of Administrative Law Judge on Summary Disposition (the "ALJ Opinion") issued in the Michigan Employment Relations Commission ("MERC") proceeding In the Matter of City of Detroit and AFSCME Council 25, Case No. C12 E 092 (the "13th Check Proceeding"). See AFSCME Response at Exhibit 7. AFSCME asserts that the ALJ Opinion establishes the 13th Check Claim "to be as high as $174,000,000." In fact, the ALJ Opinion states that reserving any amount for this claim would be "entirely unwarranted at this stage" and that establishing an amount for this claim "would require an unwarranted degree of speculation upon speculation." ALJ Opinion, at 18-19.

Argument

The 13th Check Claim Was Resolved by the Agreed-Upon Treatment of GRS Pension Claims Under the Plan

8. Under the 13th Check program, annual earnings on GRS pension assets over and above the assumed rate of return of 7.9% were distributed, at the discretion of the GRS board of trustees (the "Board"), in the form of additional contributions to active employees' annuity savings fund accounts or additional checks to retirees in excess of the 12 monthly pension checks retirees otherwise would receive each year. ALJ Opinion, at 2. In the 13th Check Proceeding, AFSCME (a) alleged that the City failed to collectively bargain regarding the elimination of the 13th Check program in 2011 and (b) sought to recover amounts that individual retirees allegedly would have received in 2011 and 2012 had the 13th Check program remained in place during that period. Id.

9. The 13th Check Proceeding was stayed as a result of the commencement of the Chapter 9 Case. The automatic stay of sections 362 and 922 of the Bankruptcy Code was lifted by the Court for the limited purpose of permitting the retiring Administrative Law Judge to issue the ALJ Opinion based on an earlier bench ruling. See Order Modifying the Automatic Stay to Allow Administrative Law Judge to Execute His Opinion (Docket No. 1070), at ¶ 2.

10. Once issued on October 2013, the ALJ Opinion acknowledged that the nature of the relationship between the City and the counterparties to pending MERC proceedings would be materially changed by the Chapter 9 Case, "and the dormant pending litigation, and the relief sought therein, will all likely be moot." ALJ Opinion, at 3. This statement is correct as to the 13th Check Proceeding. The Plan establishes the treatment of the City's pension-related liabilities regardless of the outcome of the 13th Check Proceeding.

11. The liabilities asserted in the 13th Check Proceeding, to the extent valid at all (which they are not, for the reasons discussed below), are classified as GRS Pension Claims under the Plan. In particular, Section I.A.203 of the Plan provides as follows:

"GRS Pension Claim" means any Claim (other than an OPEB Claim), whether asserted by current or former employees of the City or any participants in GRS, their heirs or beneficiaries or by the GRS or any trustee thereof or any other Entity acting on the GRS's behalf, against the City or any fund managed by the City (including, but not limited to, the General Fund, the water fund, the sewage disposal fund, the Detroit General Retirement System Service Corporation fund or the pension funds) based upon, arising under or related to any agreement, commitment or other obligation, whether evidenced by contract, agreement, rule, regulation,

Plan, at § I.A.203 (emphasis added).<sup>3</sup>

13. The Plan provides for the clearly defined treatment of all GRS Pension Claims – in the estimated aggregate allowed amount of $1.879 billion – in Class 11 under the Plan. See Plan, at § II.B.3.r (providing for the treatment of all

3 The Plan defines the term "Claim" with reference to section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code. Plan, at § I.A.60. Section I.A.257 of the Plan makes clear that any Claim that meets the definition of a GRS Pension Claim, among other claims, cannot also be an Other Unsecured Claim in Class 14 under the Plan. See Plan, at § I.A.257 (providing that "'Other Unsecured Claim' means any Claim that is not . . . a GRS Pension Claim [or] an OPEB Claim" among other Claims).

GRS Pension Claims). The express Plan provisions will govern the treatment of all claims falling within the definition of GRS Pension Claims. The filing of proofs of claim by AFSCME with respect to such liabilities, as permitted by the Bar Date Order, does not somehow transform these liabilities into Claims that fall outside the Plan or its definition of GRS Pension Claims.<sup>4</sup> It is a fundamental aspect of the bankruptcy plan process that proofs of claim are subject to the treatment specified in the Plan; the Plan is not subject to the proposed treatment of liabilities that individual claimants may include in proofs of claim.

14. Once classified as GRS Pension Claims by the Plan, these claims cannot be asserted by the claimant in another class to obtain additional or preferred treatment. As noted above, the Plan expressly prohibits AFSCME's preferred treatment of this alleged claim in Class 14. See Plan, at § I.A.257 (providing that "'Other Unsecured Claim' means any Claim that is not . . . a GRS

4 By the Bar Date Order, AFSCME was permitted to file "one or more omnibus proofs of claim on behalf of AFSCME-represented employees and former employees, regardless of the nature of such claims, including, without limitation, claims for post-retirement health obligations, pension obligations (whether benefits, underfunding or otherwise) or other compensation, subject to the City's right to object to any such claims." Bar Date Order, at ¶ 14. Notwithstanding this general authorization, however, it is not clear to the City whether the individual retiree Holders of the Claims constituting the Alleged 13th Check Liabilities and the Alleged OPEB Liabilities are, in fact, represented by AFSCME – and, therefore, that AFSCME possesses standing to assert these portions of the Claim – because AFSCME expressly declined to represent retired employees in the Chapter 9 Case in pre-bankruptcy correspondence with the City.

Pension Claim [or] an OPEB Claim" among other Claims). In sum, because the Alleged 13th Check Liabilities fit squarely into the Plan's definition of GRS Pension Claims, they are subsumed within the treatment provided all such Claims in Class 11 under the Plan.<sup>5</sup>

15. The Plan further makes clear that Holders of Claims are entitled to no satisfaction of their Claims other than that provided in the applicable Class under the Plan. Section III.D.4.a of the Plan, for example, provides that "the rights afforded under the Plan and the treatment of Claims under the Plan will be in exchange for and in complete satisfaction, discharge and release of all Claims arising on or before the Effective Date .... whether or not ... a proof of Claim based on such debt is Filed or deemed Filed pursuant to section 501 of the Bankruptcy Code." Plan, at § III.D.4.a.

16. Section III.D.4.b of the Plan similarly confirms that "the Confirmation Order will be a judicial determination, as of the Effective Date, of a discharge of all debts of the City ... and such discharge will void any judgment obtained against the City at any time, to the extent that such judgment relates to a discharged debt ...." Plan, at § III.D.4.b. In addition, as of the Effective Date, AFSCME and all other Holders of Claims against the City will be enjoined from

<sup>5</sup> Among other things, AFSCME already has agreed to withdraw $8.1 billion of the Claim relating to pension liabilities. See Order Dismissing Claims from Mediation (Docket No. 7877).

taking any actions to enforce any Claim against the City pursuant to Section III.D.5.a of the Plan. Thus, to the extent the Alleged 13th Check Liabilities constitute a valid Claim against the City – which they do not for all of the reasons set forth below – such Claim would be entirely subject to the treatment provided GRS Pension Claims in Class 11 under the Plan and cannot be a Class 14 Claim. Likewise, by the terms of the Plan, the 13th Check Proceeding will be permanently enjoined and must be "withdrawn or dismissed with prejudice." See Plan, § III.D.5.a.1.<sup>6</sup>

The City Has No Liability on Account of the 13th Check Claim

17. Even if the Court were to find that the 13th Check Claim is not subsumed by the treatment of GRS Pension Claims under the Plan (which it is), the City has no liability with respect to the 13th Check Claim.

18. AFSCME seeks to compel the City's payment of "13th check" distributions to retirees for 2011 and 2012 based on the ALJ Opinion, which found that elimination of the 2011 and 2012 payments violated the Michigan Public Employment Relations Act, MCL § 423.201, et seq. ("PERA"), because the elimination of the 13th Check program was implemented by the City without first bargaining with AFSCME.

<sup>6</sup> This principle applies equally to the numerous other union claims and claims filed by individuals asserting similar liabilities.

19. In reaching its conclusion, the ALJ Opinion assumes for the purpose of its analysis that the practice of paying 13th checks was lawful under the Michigan Public Employee Retirement System Investment Act, MCL § 38.1132, et seq. ("PERSIA"). It was not. The Board's practice of awarding additional benefits to active employees and retirees who participate in GRS, including the "13th check" distributions, was a clear breach of the Board's fiduciary duties under applicable state law, and it is beyond purview that an employer does not violate labor law by failing to bargain to continue an illegal practice.

20. GRS was established pursuant to Article 11 of the Charter of the City of Detroit (the "Charter"). Section 11-101 of the Charter provides that "The city shall provide, by ordinance, for the establishment and maintenance of retirement plan coverage for city employees." Chapter 47 of the Detroit City Code of 1984 (the "Ordinance"), in effect at the times relevant for this dispute, sets forth the benefits available to participants and other terms of the GRS. Section 47-1-3 of the Ordinance creates the Board as the responsible party for administration of the GRS as follows:

A Board of Trustees of the General Retirement System is hereby created. The Board is vested with the general administration, management and responsibility for the proper operation of the System, and for making effective the provisions of [this] chapter.

21. No provision of the Charter or the Ordinance authorizes the Board to increase or decrease benefits provided by GRS, or to create benefits not otherwise described in the Ordinance. The grant of authority to the Board is limited to administration, management and proper operation – not the creation of new benefits.

22. The Charter and Ordinance further provide that the authority to amend GRS is vested in the City Council. Section 47-3-14(h) of the Ordinance provides that collective bargaining agreements that accept the terms of the Ordinance are subject to the Board's power to modify or amend "the administrative rules and procedures" (emphasis added) governing the defined contribution benefits provided in Article III of GRS, and Section 47-3-12(b) of the Ordinance provides that the Board may amend the "Participant Loan Program," but each of these limited exceptions highlight the general rule that only the City Council had general amendment authority over GRS.

23. Although, for many years prior to 2011, the Board took the position that it had authority to designate GRS funds as "excess earnings" for distribution to active employees and retirees pursuant to the 13th Check program, the Ordinance did not expressly authorize these additional benefits.

24. PERSIA requires that, among other things, a fiduciary "discharge his or her duties solely in the interest of the participants and the beneficiaries, and ... (a) [a]ct with the same care, skill, prudence, and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent person acting in a similar capacity and familiar with those matters would use in the conduct of a similar enterprise with similar aims." MCL § 38.1133(13)(3)(a).

25. This requirement is almost identical to the federal Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended ("ERISA") requirement that a fiduciary "act with the care, skill, prudence, and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent man acting in a like capacity and familiar with such matters would use in the conduct of an enterprise of a like character and with like aims." 29 U.S.C. § 1104(a)(1)(B); see generally Bd. of Trs. of Birmingham Emps. Ret. Sys. v. Comerica Bank, 767 F. Supp. 2d 793, 798 (E.D. Mich. 2011) ("Michigan courts ... look to ERISA and interpretive case law as persuasive authority in applying PERSIA ...."); Estes v. Adrian Anderson & N. Point Advisors, 2012 Mich. App. LEXIS 2236 at **7-8 (Mich. Ct. App. Nov. 15, 2012) (PERSIA is analogous to ERISA with respect to fiduciary requirements);<sup>7</sup> accord Bd. of Trs. of Birmingham Emps. Ret. Sys., 767 F. Supp. 2d at 798.

26. To meet ERISA's prudence standard, fiduciaries must undertake a careful and impartial investigation of all relevant facts and circumstances. The prudence requirement focuses on whether the fiduciaries, at the time they engaged in the challenged transaction, "employed the appropriate methods to investigate the merits" of the transaction. Donovan v. Mazzola, 716 F.2d 1226, 1231-32 (9th Cir. 1983); Bussian v. RJR Nabisco Inc., 223 F.3d 286, 299-300 (5th Cir. 2000) (fiduciary must conduct a thorough and impartial investigation and make an objectively reasonable decision). A showing that a plan fiduciary failed to follow reasonable procedures is sufficient to show a breach of fiduciary duty. Howard v. Shay, 100 F.3d 1484, 1488-90 (9th Cir. 1996). Prudence is an objective standard that focuses on the fiduciary's conduct. Good faith will not excuse a lack of procedural prudence. For purposes of satisfying the duty of prudence, "a pure heart and an empty head are not enough." Donovan v. Cunningham, 716 F.2d 1455, 1467 (5th Cir. 1983).

27. In at least one instance, a federal district court has held that allegations that trustees continued to issue 13th checks despite their knowledge that doing so would put the plan in financial jeopardy, are sufficient to state a claim for breach of fiduciary duty. Saxton v. Central Pennsylvania Teamsters Pension Fund, 2003 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 23983 (E.D. Pa. 2003). In that case, the trustees had explicit authority to issue 13th checks so long as certain funding prerequisites were satisfied. Id. at *35. Although the plan's actuary certified that the funding prerequisites had been met, it was alleged that the plan trustees allowed the funding analysis to be performed with outdated and improper actuarial methods, all with the knowledge that continued payments would put the plan's funding status at risk. Id. In those circumstances, the court held that the plaintiffs had stated a claim for breach of fiduciary duty. Id. at *38. The court held that ERISA's fiduciary obligations include "monitoring the plan's solvency." Id. at *37.

28. In the case of the City's 13th Check program, there is no indication that the Board ever thoroughly analyzed the determination of "excess earnings," or the impact of their decisions on the financial stability of GRS. Nor is there any indication that the Board made any attempt to understand the actuarial risk associated with "13th checks" and other extra benefits, or to question the Board's actuaries regarding the basis for their projections. If the Board had fulfilled its duty, it undeniably would have understood that the very concept of "excess earnings" in a pension system like GRS is the product of a conceptual mistake.

29. Actuaries project pension costs and assets over the long term, and when trustees spend "excess" money from the good years, they defeat one of the fundamental aspects of actuarial models – that investment gains, rather than employer contributions or local taxpayers, will defray a significant portion of total pension costs. The very actuarial consulting firm that GRS uses and the Board has long retained, Gabriel Roeder Smith & Company, has publicly conceded that use of a 13th check program in public pension plans poses imprudent actuarial and financial risks to the retirement system.

30. In a New York Times article (the "Article") published October 22, 2013, Rick Roeder, a founding member of Gabriel Roeder Smith & Company, said the following about the 13th Check program: "There is no actuarial justification for 13th checks .... A 7-year-old child could understand this. It's laughable that this could happen, but it did." (emphasis added). A copy of the Article is attached hereto as Exhibit B. To put it mildly, laughably unsound practices hardly satisfy the heightened duty of care imposed by PERSIA on the GRS Board.

31. The Article also notes that "a study in 2011 by an outside actuary showed that the extra payouts were actually costing Detroit billions of dollars . . . . Actuaries model pension costs over the long term, and when trustees find 'excess' money year by year and spend it, they defeat the fundamental premise of the plan — that investment gains, not local taxpayers, will pay most of the cost." A copy of this study is attached hereto as Exhibit C.

32. It is black-letter law that one of the common-law duties of a trustee under PERSIA and ERISA is to preserve and maintain the assets of the trust. See Central States Pension Fund v. Central Transit., 472 U.S. 559, 559-60 (1985). By continuing to pay benefits not required by the terms of GRS without careful and thorough analysis of the financial impact to GRS, and without an adequate understanding of (or willful blindness to) the consequences of their actions, the Board breached its fiduciary duty to GRS and its participants.

33. Because the Board breached its fiduciary duty by issuing 13th checks, the City could not have breached any duty to bargain under PERA over the elimination of the unlawful practice.

34. "In construing and applying PERA, the Michigan Supreme Court has held that the Michigan legislature intended Michigan courts to rely on analogous federal precedent." Rogers v. Board of Educ., 2 F.3d 163, 166 (6th Cir. 1993) (compiling authority).

35. In this vein, the Michigan Supreme Court has held that subjects of bargaining that are mandatory, permissive or illegal have the same meaning under PERA as under the NLRA:

Mandatory subjects of collective bargaining are those within the scope of 'wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment'. [MCL § 423.215; MSA § 17.455(15).] If either party proposes a mandatory subject, both parties are obligated to bargain about it in good faith.

Permissive subjects of collective bargaining are those which fall outside the scope of 'wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment', and may be negotiated only if both parties agree.

Illegal subjects are those which even if negotiated will not be enforced because adoption would be violative of the law or of the NLRA.

Central Michigan University Faculty Assoc. v. Central Michigan University, 404 Mich. 268, 289-90 (Mich. 1978), citing Pontiac Police Officers Ass'n v Pontiac, 397 Mich 674, 679 (Mich. 1976).

36. The City could not have violated PERA by failing to bargain over a change to the 13th Check program because any negotiated resolution other than to eliminate this illegal practice would violate PERSIA.

37. As such, were the City to appeal the ALJ Opinion, there is virtually no doubt that the decision would be set aside. The standard for setting aside a decision such as the ALJ Opinion requires a showing that the decision was (a) in violation of the constitution or a statute, (b) in excess of the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the agency, (c) made upon unlawful procedure resulting in material prejudice to a party, (d) not supported by competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record, (e) arbitrary, capricious or clearly an abuse or unwarranted exercise of discretion or (f) affected by other substantial and material error of law. MCL § 24.306.

38. Based on the foregoing, AFSCME's claim for any amount related to the elimination of the 13th check should be disallowed.

The Health Care Modification Claim Was Resolved by the Agreed-Upon Treatment of OPEB Claims Under the Plan

39. Just as with respect to the Alleged 13th Check Liabilities, the Alleged OPEB Liabilities constitute OPEB Claims under the Plan and are subject to the Plan treatment in Class 12. According to AFSCME, the Alleged OPEB Liabilities arise from the modification of retiree health-care benefits by the City in 2006 that caused retirees to incur increased costs for such health care. Claim, at 3.

40. The Plan defines OPEB Claims as "any Claim against the City for OPEB Benefits held by a retiree who retired on or before December 31, 2014 and is otherwise eligible for OPEB Benefits, and any eligible surviving beneficiaries of such retiree." Plan, at § I.A.255. The Plan defines "OPEB Benefits" as follows:

post-retirement health, vision, dental, life and death benefits provided to retired employees of the City and their surviving beneficiaries pursuant to the Employee Health and Life Insurance Benefit Plan and the Employees Death Benefit Plan, including the members of the certified class in the action captioned Weiler et. al. v. City of Detroit, Case No. 06-619737-CK (Wayne County Circuit Court), pursuant to the "Consent Judgment and Order of Dismissal" entered in that action on August 26, 2009.

Plan, at § I.A.254.

41. Based on the totality of the information provided by AFSCME, the City is not aware of any basis for AFSCME to argue that the Alleged OPEB Liabilities do not arise from "post-retirement health, vision, dental, life and death benefits" or that such Claims are not held by retirees who retired on or before December 31, 2014. The description of the Health Care Modification Claim states that it is for "retiree health care benefits" dating back to 2006, establishing that the Alleged OPEB Liabilities fit squarely within the Plan definition of "OPEB Claims." Accordingly, the Alleged OPEB Liabilities are subsumed within the treatment provided all such Claims in Class 12 under the Plan. See Plan, at § II.B.3.s. As noted above, a Claim within the definition of OPEB Claim cannot also be asserted as an Other Unsecured Claim in Class 14 of the Plan. See Plan, at § I.A.257 (providing that "'Other Unsecured Claim' means any Claim that is not . . . a GRS Pension Claim [or] an OPEB Claim" among other Claims). Moreover, for all of the reasons set forth above with respect to the Alleged 13th Check Liabilities, the Alleged OPEB Liabilities will be discharged as of the Effective Date and are entitled to no further recovery except as set forth in Class 12 under the Plan.

Reservation of Rights

42. The City is filing this Brief to address certain specific arguments relating to the 13th Check Claim and the Health Care Modification

Claim. The City continues to seek the relief requested in the Claim Objection with respect to the remaining liabilities asserted in the Claim, and this Brief does not constitute a waiver of any such request for relief. The City reserves all of its rights with respect to the Claim Objection and currently expects to file its reply in support of the additional relief requested in the Claim Objection on October 17, 2014.

WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons, the City requests that the Court promptly disallow the 13th Check Claim and the Health Care Modification Claim and grant such other and further relief to the City as the Court determines to be appropriate.

JUDGES: Before: MURRAY, P.J., and CAVANAGH and STEPHENS, JJ.

OPINION

PER CURIAM.

These eight consolidated appeals arise from three cases filed in the Wayne Circuit Court that challenge pension fund investments made by the city of Detroit's General Retirement System (LC Nos. 09-010080-NZ and 09-010940-NZ), and the city's Police and Fire Retirement System (LC No. 09-012332-NZ). We affirm in part, reverse in part, and remand for further proceedings consistent with this opinion.

Four appeals derive from LC No. 09-010080-NZ. In Docket No. 294515, 11 present and former members of the General Retirement System's Board of Trustees (the trustee defendants) appeal as of right a September 2009 circuit court order denying their motion for summary disposition premised on governmental immunity. In Docket No. 294537, the trustee defendants appeal by leave granted a separate September 2009 [*2] order certifying a plaintiff class. In Docket No. 294555, the trustee defendants appeal by leave granted portions of the circuit court's September 2009 order denying summary disposition on grounds unrelated to governmental immunity. And in Docket No. 294559, Adrian Anderson and North Point Advisors, L.L.C. (the investment advisor defendants), two other defendants who advised the General Retirement System on financial matters, appeal by leave granted the circuit court's September 2009 order denying their motion for summary disposition.

Two appeals derive from LC No. 09-010940-NZ. In Docket No. 294543, 16 current and former members of the General Retirement System's Board of Trustees (the trustee defendants) appeal as of right an October 2009 circuit court order denying their motion for summary disposition premised on governmental immunity. Plaintiffs cross-appeal, challenging the circuit court's dismissal of a breach of contract claim and refusal to allow amendment of their complaint. In Docket No. 294729, the trustee defendants appeal by leave granted portions of the circuit court's October 2009 order denying summary disposition unrelated to governmental immunity.

Lastly, two of the [*3] appeals derive from LC No. 09-012332-NZ. In Docket No. 294541, 20 current and former members of the Police and Fire Retirement System's Board of Trustees (the trustee defendants) appeal as of right an October 2009 circuit court order denying summary disposition on the basis of governmental immunity. Plaintiffs cross-appeal, challenging the circuit court's dismissal of a breach of contract claim and refusal to allow amendment of their complaint. In Docket No. 294728, the trustee defendants appeal by leave granted portions of the court's October 2009 order denying summary disposition unrelated to governmental immunity.

I

In LC No. 09-010080-NZ, plaintiffs filed an eight-count second amended complaint against 11 current and former trustees of the General Retirement System and their investment advisors. Count I alleged that defendants "repeatedly and flagrantly" violated their fiduciary duties to participants in the General Retirement System as set forth in the Public Employee Retirement System Investment Act (PERSIA), MCL 38.1132 et seq., and that governmental immunity did not shield the trustee defendants from their grossly negligent conduct. Count II alleged a breach of common-law fiduciary [*4] duties based on "grossly ill-advised and high risk investments." Count III, alleged a breach of common-law fiduciary duties based on the shredding and loss of Plan-related documents, i.e., "spoliation of evidence." The allegations in Count IV, entitled "gross negligence," included self-dealing, improper and extravagant travel, and approving improper investments. Count V averred a claim of "Waste," in that defendants "improperly dissipated the Plans' assets." Count VI set forth instances of common-law and statutory conversion committed by the trustee defendants, including with regard to extravagant, unnecessary, and improper travel. Count VII contained a request for "declaratory and injunctive relief." And Count VIII alleged that, because of defendants' gross negligence, the Plan suffered losses beyond normal market risk and amounted to "unconstitutional diminishment and/or impairment of accrued financial benefits of the Plan" in violation of Const 1963, art 9, § 24.

In LC Nos. 09-010940-NZ and 09-012332-NZ, substantially similar first amended complaints were filed against 16 current and former trustees of the General Retirement System and 20 current and former trustees of the Police [*5] and Fire Retirement System, respectively, as well as the same financial advisors. Count I of the first amended complaints alleged that defendants' investment decisions violated their statutory fiduciary responsibilities under the PERSIA, MCL 38.1132 et seq. Count II, captioned "City of Detroit Ordinance," asserted that Detroit ordinances "permit[] Plaintiffs to bring this civil action for relief against Defendant-Trustees" for violating their fiduciary duties under the PERSIA. Count III was a negligence claim. Count IV alleged that the trustee defendants had caused the city to breach its agreements with pension plan participants, like plaintiffs. Count V, titled "Breach of Third-Party Contract," alleged that plaintiffs were third-party beneficiaries of the contracts between the investment advisor defendants and the trustee defendants and plaintiffs were harmed by the investment advisor defendants' unreasonable performance. Count VI averred breaches of common-law fiduciary duties; Count VII alleged gross negligence; and Count VIII sought "declaratory and injunctive relief."

II

In Docket Nos. 294555, 294559, 294728, and 294729, appeals arising from each of the three circuit court actions, [*6] the trustee defendants and the investment advisor defendants assert that plaintiffs do not have standing to pursue any of the claims in their complaints. Defendants sought summary disposition pursuant to MCR 2.116(C)(7), (8), and (10), but the circuit court relied on subrule (C)(10) in denying defendants' motions pertaining to standing. Whether a party has legal standing to assert a claim constitutes a question of law that this Court considers de novo. Heltzel v Heltzel, 248 Mich App 1, 28; 638 NW2d 123 (2001). We also review de novo a circuit court's summary disposition ruling. Corley v Detroit Bd of Ed, 470 Mich 274, 277; 681 NW2d 342 (2004).

A motion brought pursuant to MCR 2.116(C)(10) "tests the factual support of a plaintiff's claim." Walsh v Taylor, 263 Mich App 618, 621; 689 NW2d 506 (2004). "Summary disposition is appropriate under MCR 2.116(C)(10) if there is no genuine issue regarding any material fact and the moving party is entitled to judgment as a matter of law." West v Gen Motors Corp, 469 Mich 177, 183; 665 NW2d 468 (2003). "In reviewing a motion under MCR 2.116(C)(10), this Court considers the pleadings, admissions, affidavits, and other relevant documentary evidence [*7] of record in the light most favorable to the nonmoving party to determine whether any genuine issue of material fact exists to warrant a trial." Walsh, 263 Mich App at 621. "A genuine issue of material fact exists when the record, giving the benefit of reasonable doubt to the opposing party, leaves open an issue upon which reasonable minds might differ." West, 469 Mich at 183.

Pursuant to longstanding Michigan jurisprudence on standing, "a litigant has standing whenever there is a legal cause of action. Further, whenever a litigant meets the requirements of MCR 2.605, it is sufficient to establish standing to seek a declaratory judgment." Lansing Sch Ed Ass'n v Lansing Bd of Ed, 487 Mich 349, 372; 792 NW2d 686 (2010).

A. STANDING UNDER THE PERSIA, LEGAL CAUSE OF ACTION

1. THE TRUSTEE DEFENDANTS

Defendants initially contend that plaintiffs cannot bring a private cause of action under the PERSIA because it does not include a civil enforcement provision.

The PERSIA is analogous to the federal Employee Retirement Income Security Act, ERISA, 29 USC 1001 et seq. ERISA sets minimum standards for pension plans offered by private employers, but does not apply to pension plans established by governmental [*8] entities. See 29 USC 1003(b)(1); Bd of Trustees of City of Birmingham Employees' Retirement Sys v Comerica Bank, 767 F Supp 2d 793, 798 (ED Mich, 2011). Neither ERISA nor the PERSIA requires the establishment of pension plans; however, when a pension plan is established, the PERSIA requires that certain minimum standards be met. Like ERISA, the PERSIA requires that fiduciaries of employee pension plans "act with the same care, skill, prudence, and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent person acting in a similar capacity and familiar with those matters would use in the conduct of a similar enterprise with similar aims." MCL 38.1133(3)(a); see, also, 29 USC 1104(a)(1)(B). And the PERSIA requires that fiduciaries give appropriate consideration to the facts and circumstances relevant to the particular investment or investment course of action and act accordingly. MCL 38.1133(3)(d).

ERISA, however, includes a civil enforcement provision which provides that participants and beneficiaries may bring civil actions to redress violations of the Act, including violations by fiduciaries. See 29 USC 1109; 29 USC 1132(a)(1) and (l)(1). The PERSIA does not include a civil [*9] enforcement provision. But this lack of a specific civil enforcement provision is consistent with the broad constitutional grant of powers of local self-government enjoyed by municipalities as relates to local governmental issues like their retirement plans. See, e.g., Brouwer v Bronkema, 377 Mich 616, 649-650; 141 NW2d 98 (1966); Dooley v City of Detroit, 370 Mich 194, 212; 121 NW2d 724 (1963); Davidson v Hine, 151 Mich 294, 296; 115 NW 246 (1908).

The city of Detroit is a home rule city pursuant to the Home Rule City Act, MCL 117.1 et seq. As our Supreme Court observed in Detroit Police Officers Ass'n v City of Detroit, 391 Mich 44, 66; 214 NW2d 803 (1974), the Home Rule City Act "reflect[s] the position now expressed in Const 1963, art 7, s 22 that Michigan is a strong home rule state with basic local authority." Specifically, Const 1963, art 7, § 22, provides that a city has the power and authority to adopt a charter, as well as resolutions and ordinances "relating to its municipal concerns, property and government, subject to the constitution and law." Accordingly, subject to the constitution and law, home rule cities are governed by their city charter. "Retirement plans are a [*10] 'permissible charter provision' adoptable under the broad grant of authority bound in [MCL 117.4i and 117.4j] of the Home Rule Cities Act." Detroit Police Officers Ass'n, 391 Mich at 66. As our Supreme Court has held "the entire subject of pensions, including the manner of proving the right thereto, is subject to control by the people of the municipality in the adoption of their charter." Kelly v City of Detroit, 358 Mich 290, 299; 100 NW2d 269 (1960). That is, "[p]ension matters . . . in a municipality operating under a home-rule or freeholders' charter are generally held to be within the exclusive control of the municipality." Id. at 298 (citation omitted).

The Detroit City Charter provides for retirement plans in Article 11. In particular, Section 11-101 provides:

1. The City shall provide, by ordinance, for the establishment and maintenance of retirement plan coverage for city employees.

2. Financial benefits arising on account of service rendered in each fiscal year shall be funded during that year and that funding shall not be used for financing unfunded accrued liabilities.

3. The accrued financial benefits of active and retired city employees, being contractual obligations of the [*11] city, shall in no event be diminished or impaired.

Section 11-103 provides that two governing bodies exist to administer the city's General Retirement System and the Police and Fire Retirement System.

The Detroit Municipal Code, in Chapter 47, sets forth provisions related to the retirement system. Article 1 sets forth the common provisions of the retirement system and several provisions cite to the PERSIA as authority. See, e.g., Sections 47-1-12 and 47-1-15. Article 4 of Chapter 47 sets forth miscellaneous provisions of the retirement system, and includes the following provision which appears to have been effective since 2001:

Sec. 47-4-3. - Enforcement; civil action.

A civil action for relief against any act or practice which violates the state law, the 1997 Detroit City Charter, 1984 Detroit City Code or the terms of this Plan, may be brought by:

- (1) A Plan participant who is or may become eligible to receive a benefit;
- (2) A beneficiary who is or may become eligible to receive a benefit;
- (3) A Plan fiduciary, including a Trustee;
- (4) The Finance Director, on behalf of the City as Plan sponsor.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>1</sup> In accordance with this provision, for example, the Police and Fire Retirement System and the [*12] General Retirement System of the City of Detroit have brought a civil action as "pension plan[s] and trust[s] established by the Charter and Municipal Code of the City of Detroit." Police & Fire Retirement Sys of City of Detroit v Watkins, unreported opinion, No. 08-12582 (ED Mich, Sept 30, 2009).

In this case, plaintiffs, as plan participants or beneficiaries, alleged that defendant trustees violated a state law, in particular their fiduciary duties arising under the PERSIA, including MCL 38.1133(3)(a) and (3)(d). "[A]pplicable general laws of the state must be read into the charters of municipal corporations." Council of City of Saginaw v Bd of Trustees of Policemen & Firemen Retirement System of City of Saginaw, 321 Mich 641, 647; 32 NW2d 899 (1948). But it is a tort claim because plaintiffs alleged breach of duties imposed by law, the PERSIA. Although a municipality like Detroit has broad authority, that authority is subject to statutory limitations, Const 1963, art 7, § 22, including the governmental tort liability act (GTLA) which provides that a governmental agency is immune from tort liability if "engaged in the exercise or discharge of a governmental function." MCL 691.1407(1).

A [*13] "governmental function" is activity expressly or impliedly mandated or authorized by charter or ordinance. MCL 691.1401(f); Maskery v Univ of Mich Bd of Regents, 468 Mich 609, 613-614; 664 NW2d 165 (2003). The focus is on the general activity, not the specific conduct involved at the time of the alleged tort. Tate v Grand Rapids, 256 Mich App 656, 661; 671 NW2d 84 (2003). In this case, Article 11 of the city charter provides for the establishment of two boards of trustees as governing bodies for administering the city's retirement plans. Plaintiffs' claims arise from the trustee defendants' alleged acts related to administering the city's retirement plans, i.e., a governmental function. The Legislature has not specifically authorized a private cause of action under the PERSIA in avoidance of governmental immunity. See Lash v Traverse City, 479 Mich 180, 194; 735 NW2d 628 (2007). Although the Detroit Municipal Code may appear to have authorized such a cause of action, the city could not create a cause of action against itself in contravention of the broad scope of governmental immunity. See Mack v Detroit, 467 Mich 186, 196; 649 NW2d 47 (2002). Thus, contrary to the circuit court's [*14] conclusion that Detroit ordinances invested plaintiffs with standing to challenge investment decisions of the trustee defendants, none of the plaintiffs in these cases may pursue a legal cause of action for the alleged PERSIA violations against the trustee defendants. See Lansing Sch Ed Ass'n, 487 Mich at 372.

2. THE INVESTMENT ADVISOR DEFENDANTS

Defendant Anderson works as the president of defendant North Point Advisors, a private entity, which rendered services to the retirement system. Because the investment advisor defendants were not engaged in a "governmental function" when they rendered such services, they are not entitled to the protection of governmental immunity. See Rambus v Wayne Co Gen Hosp, 193 Mich App 268, 273; 483 NW2d 455 (1992). As set forth above, the Detroit Municipal Code authorized plan participants, beneficiaries, fiduciaries, and the Plan sponsor to bring "[a] civil action for relief against any act or practice which violates the state law." "The framers of the charter, and the people of the city in its adoption, must be presumed to have intended that the provision be construed as it reads." Kelly, 358 Mich at 296.

Plaintiffs, as plan participants or beneficiaries, [*15] alleged that the investment advisor defendants violated state law, in particular, the PERSIA. Pursuant to the PERSIA, the investment advisor defendants constitute "investment fiduciaries," which MCL 38.1132c(1)(b) defines as including a person who "[r]enders investment advice for a system for a fee or other direct or indirect compensation." Plaintiffs alleged that the investment advisor defendants violated their investment fiduciary duties as set forth in MCL 38.1133(3). Accordingly, as the trial court concluded, plaintiffs have standing to pursue their cause of actions against the investment advisor defendants for violations of the PERSIA.

B. DECLARATORY RELIEF UNDER THE PERSIA

Governmental immunity prohibits plaintiffs from pursuing tort claims against the trustee defendants, but such immunity does not prevent the enforcement of the PERSIA by declaratory judgment if the requirements of MCR 2.605 are met. See Lansing Sch Ed Ass'n, 487 Mich at 372; Lash, 479 Mich at 194-196. According to MCR 2.605(A)(1), "[i]n a case of actual controversy within its jurisdiction, a Michigan court of record may declare the rights and other legal relations of an interested party seeking a declaratory judgment, [*16] whether or not other relief is or could be sought or granted." "An 'actual controversy' exists where a declaratory judgment or decree is necessary to guide a plaintiff's future conduct in order to preserve his legal rights." Groves v Dep't of Corrections, 295 Mich App 1, 10; 811 NW2d 563 (2011) (internal quotation and citation omitted). And the purpose of a declaratory judgment is "to enable the parties to obtain adjudication of rights before an actual injury occurs, to settle a matter before it ripens into a violation of the law or breach of contract, or to avoid multiplicity of actions by affording a remedy for declaring in expedient action the rights and obligations of all litigants." Rose v State Farm Mut Auto Ins Co, 274 Mich App 291, 294; 732 NW2d 160 (2006).

In this case, an "actual controversy" does not exist because a declaratory judgment is not necessary to guide plaintiffs' "future conduct in order to preserve [their] legal rights." Groves, 295 Mich App at 10. And, because plaintiffs have alleged actual injury and violations of the law, the objectives of the declaratory judgment rule cannot be met. Accordingly, plaintiffs do not have standing to pursue a declaratory judgment [*17] action against either the trustee defendants or the investment advisor defendants with regard to their PERSIA-based claims.

C. PLAINTIFFS' STANDING TO BRING OTHER CLAIMS (LC NO. 09-010080-NZ)

In their complaint, plaintiffs also alleged that the trustee defendants breached their common-law fiduciary duties. It is clear that a fiduciary relationship existed between plaintiffs as plan participants or beneficiaries and the trustee defendants. See In re Karmey Estate, 468 Mich 68, 75 n 2; 658 NW2d 796 (2003), quoting Black's Law Dictionary (7th ed). Accordingly, the trustee defendants had a duty to act for the benefit of plaintiffs on matters within the scope of that relationship. Id. "Relief is granted when such position of influence has been acquired and abused, or when confidence has been reposed and betrayed." Vicencio v Ramirez, 211 Mich App 501, 508; 536 NW2d 280 (1995).

Here, plaintiffs alleged and offered evidence<sup>2</sup> that the trustee defendants breached their fiduciary duties in several respects, including by making imprudent and improper investments causing losses of retirement funds, destroying evidence, and engaging in self-dealing such as spending funds on unnecessary and extravagant [*18] travel.<sup>3</sup> However, this state treats a breach of fiduciary duty claim as a common-law tort. Miller v Magline, Inc, 76 Mich App 284, 313; 256 NW2d 761 (1977). As discussed above, the trustee defendants are entitled to immunity for tort claims. See MCL 691.1407(1). But in Count IV of their complaint, plaintiffs alleged that the trustee defendants were not entitled to immunity because their conduct was grossly negligent. MCL 691.1407(2)(c) sets forth as a condition of immunity that "conduct [ ] not amount to gross negligence that is the proximate cause of the injury or damage." Because plaintiffs pleaded in avoidance of governmental immunity, the circuit court properly denied the trustee defendants' motion for summary disposition on the basis of standing with regard to plaintiffs' claims that the trustee defendants violated their common-law fiduciary duties.

2 The newspaper articles that plaintiffs attached to their summary disposition response qualify as hearsay. Baker v Gen Motors Corp (After Remand), 420 Mich 463, 512; 363 NW2d 602 (1984). But the articles may contain at least some admissible content. MCR 2.116(G)(5) ("documentary evidence offered in support of or in opposition to a motion [*19] based on subrule (C)(1)-(7) or (10) shall only be considered to the extent that the content or substance would be admissible as evidence") (emphasis added).

3 We note that Count III (spoliation of evidence and document destruction) and Count V (spending funds on unnecessary travel) were properly dismissed as distinct causes of action by the circuit court.

We also conclude that plaintiffs have standing to assert their claims of common-law and statutory conversion set forth in Count VI, legal causes of action grounded in the trustee defendants allegedly spending plan funds "on extravagant, unnecessary and improper trips." And plaintiffs possess standing to assert their claims set forth in Count VIII, that both the trustee defendants and investment advisor defendants violated Const 1963, art 9, § 24, which declares: "The accrued financial benefits of each pension plan and retirement system of the state and its political subdivisions shall be a contractual obligation thereof which shall not be diminished or impaired thereby."

D. PLAINTIFFS' STANDING IN LC NOS. 09-010940-NZ AND 09-012332-NZ

Unlike the plaintiffs in LC No. 09-010080-NZ, plaintiffs in LC Nos. 09-010940-NZ and 09-012332-NZ did [*20] not submit with their responses to the trustee defendants' motions for summary disposition an affidavit explaining how defendants' course of conduct (poor investments, self-dealing) harmed or placed at risk plaintiffs' interests in the retirement system. Nor did plaintiffs attach any affidavit, court records, or documentary evidence in admissible form; they attached copies of Detroit Free Press articles that reported on excessive travel by some board members and failed investments. The newspaper articles themselves do not constitute admissible evidence, Baker v Gen Motors Corp (After Remand), 420 Mich 463, 512; 363 NW2d 602 (1984), but the contents of some of the articles might be admissible. MCR 2.116(G)(5). Even assuming that plaintiffs in LC Nos. 09-010940-NZ and 09-012332-NZ inadequately supported their summary disposition responses, the trustee defendants' motions for summary disposition were inappropriate given the early stage of these litigations.

E. DISCOVERY INCOMPLETE IN ALL THREE CIRCUIT COURT ACTIONS

With respect to all three circuit court actions, a basic, well-established procedural proposition supported the circuit court's denial of defendants' motions for summary disposition [*21] contesting plaintiffs' standing: "[I]ncomplete discovery generally precludes summary disposition, [unless] . . . further discovery does not stand a fair chance of finding factual support for the nonmoving party." VanVorous v Burmeister, 262 Mich App 467, 476-477; 687 NW2d 132 (2004). The circuit court record in LC No. 09-010080-NZ contains four voluminous files, but when defendants filed their motions for summary disposition discovery remained ongoing. Plaintiffs filed their initial complaint on April 29, 2009, and the trustee defendants filed their motion for summary disposition on July 17, 2009, just 79 days later. The Court in VanVorous, 262 Mich App at 477, noted that a "party opposing a motion for summary disposition because discovery is not complete must provide some independent evidence that a factual dispute exists." (Internal quotation and citation omitted). In plaintiffs' summary disposition response, they appended many exhibits tending to substantiate the allegations in their second amended complaint, including an affidavit and other documents tending to suggest that defendants had invested unwisely and squandered plan funds. In summary, plaintiffs in LC No. 09-010080-NZ [*22] have presented "some independent evidence that a factual dispute exists" in this case, and that further discovery "stand[s] a fair chance of finding factual support for the nonmoving party." VanVorous, 262 Mich App at 477. The circuit court thus correctly denied defendants' motions for summary disposition on the basis that plaintiffs lacked standing.

In LC Nos. 09-010940-NZ and 09-012332-NZ, summary disposition likewise was inappropriate because no discovery had occurred. See VanVorous, 262 Mich App at 476-477. The newspaper articles attached to plaintiffs' summary disposition responses in these cases comprise at least some independent evidence in support of their bad investment and self-dealing allegations. Id. at 477. There is a reasonable likelihood that plaintiffs could secure some admissible evidence supporting their breach of fiduciary duty and gross negligence claims, which they had standing to bring. Lansing Sch Ed Ass'n, 487 Mich at 372.<sup>4</sup> The circuit court correctly denied defendants' motions for summary disposition on the basis that plaintiffs lacked standing, even assuming that the court may have erred in premising its ruling on the Detroit retirement system ordinances and [*23] dismissing the declaratory relief count of the complaint. See Klooster, 488 Mich at 313.

4 In Docket Nos. 294541 and 294543, plaintiffs in LC Nos. 09-010940-NZ and 09-012332-NZ cross-appeal contesting the circuit court's summary dismissal of their breach of contract counts (Counts IV and V) pursuant to MCR 2.116(C)(8). We affirm the dismissal because these counts do not reference any specific agreements and consist entirely of conclusory allegations. On remand, plaintiffs may seek leave to file more specific breach of contract counts in amended complaints. See MCR 2.118(A)(2).

F. CONCLUSIONS CONCERNING STANDING

In LC No. 09-010080-NZ, the trustee defendants' motion for summary disposition on the basis of standing with regard to Count I, the alleged PERSIA violations, should have been granted, and summary disposition of Count VII, the request for declaratory relief, was properly granted. The investment advisor defendants' motion for summary disposition on the basis of standing with regard to Count I, the alleged PERSIA violations, was properly denied. The circuit court properly denied the trustee defendants' and the investment advisor defendants' motions for summary disposition on the basis [*24] of standing with regard to (1) Count II, breach of common-law fiduciary duties, (2) Count IV, gross negligence, (3) Count VI, conversion, and (4) Count VIII, the violation of Const 1963, art 9, § 24. The court properly dismissed Count III, spoliation, and Count V, waste, as separate counts.

In LC Nos. 09-010940-NZ and 09-012332-NZ, the trustee defendants' motion for summary disposition on the basis of standing with regard to Count I, the alleged PERSIA violations, should have been granted, and summary disposition of Count VIII, the request for declaratory relief, was properly granted. The investment advisor defendants' motion for summary disposition on the basis of standing with regard to Count I, the alleged PERSIA violations, and Count II, the ordinances under which plaintiffs sought relief, was properly denied. The circuit court properly denied defendants' motions for summary disposition of (1) Count III, negligence, (2) Count VI, breach of common-law fiduciary duties, and (3) Count VII, gross negligence. Plaintiffs' inadequately pleaded breach of contract claims, as set forth in Counts IV and V, were properly dismissed.

III

In Docket Nos. 294515, 294541, and 294543, the trustee defendants [*25] in each circuit court action assert that the circuit court erred in denying their motions for summary disposition premised on governmental immunity. The circuit court stated that it denied the motions for summary disposition premised on governmental immunity under MCL 2.116(C)(7).

Under MCR 2.116(C)(7), summary disposition is proper when a claim is barred by immunity granted by law. To survive such a motion, the plaintiff must allege facts justifying the application of an exception to governmental immunity. [The reviewing court] consider[s] all documentary evidence submitted by the parties, accepting as true the contents of the complaint unless affidavits or other appropriate documents specifically contradict them. [Fane v Detroit Library Comm'n, 465 Mich 68, 74; 631 NW2d 678 (2001).]

A. LC NO. 09-010080-NZ

Pursuant to MCL 691.1407(7)(a), "gross negligence" is defined as "conduct so reckless as to demonstrate a substantial disregard for whether an injury results." MCL 691.1407(7)(a). Accepting as true plaintiffs' allegations in LC No. 09-010080-NZ, including that the defendant trustees entered into multiple "grossly ill-advised and high-risk" pension fund investments with little investigation [*26] and contrary to the advice of most investment consultants, as well as spent pension funds on numerous unnecessary and extravagant trips, a reasonable inference arises that the trustee defendants engaged in "conduct so reckless as to demonstrate a substantial disregard for whether" injury resulted to the retirement system. See MCL 691.1407(7)(a). The complaint also maintained that "Defendants' breaches of duty and gross negligence are the proximate cause of the injury." The trustee defendants did not submit with their motion any documentary evidence contradicting the complaint's assertions. Thus, the motion for summary disposition was properly denied.

B. LC NOS. 09-010940-NZ AND 09-012332-NZ

In LC Nos. 09-010940-NZ and 09-012332-NZ, the first amended complaints mentioned the defendant trustees' series of ill-advised and high risk pension fund investments, as well as their excessive travel that included attending numerous meetings in California, Chicago, Arizona, Florida, New York, and Singapore in a six-month period of time. The first amended complaints also contain a gross negligence count, Count VII. The first amended complaints do not as extensively describe the allegedly reckless [*27] conduct as the second amended complaint does in LC No. 09-010080-NZ. However, accepting as true the allegations in the first amended complaints as a whole, they at least arguably suggest that defendants engaged in "conduct so reckless as to demonstrate a substantial lack of concern for whether an injury results," MCL 691.1407(7)(a), and that defendants proximately caused the injuries alleged.

C. DISCOVERY INCOMPLETE

Moreover, summary disposition on the issue of governmental immunity also is improper because discovery remains incomplete in LC No. 09-010080-NZ, and there has been little to no discovery in LC Nos. 09-010940-NZ and 09-012332-NZ. The circuit court reached the correct result in denying defendants' motions for summary disposition based on governmental immunity. However, we caution that bad investment decisions as determined in hindsight do not constitute gross negligence.

IV

Lastly, in Docket No. 294537, the trustee defendants argue that the circuit court erred in several respects when it granted plaintiffs' motion for class certification. For the reasons discussed above, we reject the trustee defendants' first contention that the class certification was a mistake because plaintiffs [*28] lacked standing.

The trustee defendants next submit that "the record does not reveal . . . whether the trial court engaged in any analysis of whether the prerequisites were met, let alone a sufficient analysis to satisfy the standard set by" the Michigan Supreme Court. [Emphasis in original.]

"Pursuant to MCR 3.501(A)(1), members of a class may only sue or be sued as a representative party of all class members if the prerequisites dictated by the court rule are met." Henry v Dow Chem Co, 484 Mich 483, 496; 772 NW2d 301 (2009). Our Supreme Court elaborated as follows, in Henry, 484 Mich at 502-504, concerning the quantum of information that a party seeking class certification must supply a circuit court:

[A] certifying court may not simply "rubber stamp" a party's allegations that the class certification prerequisites are met. However, the federal "rigorous analysis" requirement does not necessarily bind state courts. . . . Given that MCR 3.501(A) expressly conditions a class action on satisfaction of the prerequisites, a party seeking class certification is required to provide the certifying court with information sufficient to establish that each prerequisite for class certification [*29] in MCR 3.501(A) is in fact satisfied. A court may base its decision on the pleadings alone only if the pleadings set forth sufficient information to satisfy the court that each prerequisite is in fact met. The averments in the pleadings of a party seeking class certification are only sufficient to certify a class if they satisfy the burden on the party seeking certification to prove that the prerequisites are met, such as in cases where the facts necessary to support this finding are uncontested or admitted by the opposing party.

If the pleadings are not sufficient, the court must look to additional information beyond the pleadings to determine whether class certification is proper. However, when considering the information provided to support class certification, courts must not abandon the well-accepted prohibition against assessing the merits of a party's underlying claims at this early stage in the proceedings. . . . [S]tate courts also have broad discretion to determine whether a class will be certified. . . . [Emphasis in original.]

In LC No. 09-010080-NZ, plaintiffs' second amended complaint recited 14 paragraphs under the heading, "Class Action Allegations," which addressed the [*30] class action prerequisites in MCR 3.501(A)(1). Later, plaintiffs filed a motion and brief seeking class certification in which they summarized the facts underlying the claims of the entire proposed class, and added specific details to their complaint's class action allegations, including that:

o approximately 9,000 active members of the Plan were damaged by defendants' conduct,

o the claims of the proposed class members had "questions of law and fact in common," including whether defendants "violated their statutory fiduciary duties established by PERSIA," "violated common law fiduciary duties owed to the Plan and Plan participants," and "were negligent [or grossly negligent] with respect to the Plan," o "the only individual issue will be that of each individual Class member's damages," o plaintiffs' counsel had "particular and extensive experience in litigating complex class actions" and "[c]ertifying the Class . . . is the superior, if not only, mechanism by which to proceed" because "[a]djudication of the legality of Defendants' actions will determine most . . . liability issues for all Class members," o [*31] the class members' best interests weighed in favor of certifying the proposed class, o the proposed class' claim for declaratory and injunctive relief "weigh[ed] heavily in favor of class certification," o the case did not present any disparate issues that might render the class action unmanageable, o certification "will bring finality to the litigation on this issue and it will avoid additional litigation by other members of the plaintiff Class," and o in light of the relatively small damages suffered by individual class members, the present case was well-suited "to the class action procedural device, because Class members may be precluded from pursuing their rights individually, due to the economics of doing so."

On September 23, 2009, the circuit court entered an order granting the motion for class certification. The order provides:

Plaintiff[s] having filed a Motion for Class Certification; Defendants having opposed Plaintiffs' Motion for Class Certification; the Court having reviewed all of the Briefs and supporting material submitted [emphasis added], and having heard oral argument of counsel for the Parties; and being fully advised in the premises:

IT IS . . . ORDERED that Plaintiffs' [*32] Motion for Class Certification is GRANTED as this Court is satisfied that:

(a) The class is so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable as there are approximately 9,000 members;

(b) There are questions of law, breach of fiduciary duty, and gross negligence; or questions of fact, Plaintiffs lost money; common to the members of the class that predominate over questions affecting only individual members;

(c) The claims or defenses of the representative parties, as derivative Plaintiffs that lost a percentage of the Plan money, are typical of the claims or defenses of the class;

(d) The representative parties have fairly and adequately asserted the interests of the class; and

(e) The maintenance of the action as a class action will be superior to other available methods of adjudication in promoting the convenient administration of justice.

Further, this Court is satisfied:

(a) That this class action is the superior method of adjudicating because the prosecution of separate actions by or against individual members of the class could create a risk of:

i. Inconsistent or varying adjudications with respect to individual members of the class that would confront the party opposing the class [*33] with incompatible standards of conduct; and

ii. Adjudications with respect to individual members of the class that would as a practical matter be dispositive of the interests of other members not parties to the adjudications or substantially impair or impede their ability to protect their interests;

(b) Equitable or declaratory relief might be appropriate with respect to the class;

(c) The action will be manageable as a class action;

(d) The separate claims of individual class members are insufficient to support separate actions;

(e) It is probable that the amount which may be recovered by the derivative class members justifies a class action; and

(f) Members of the class have a significant interest in controlling the prosecution and defense of all actions.

The class shall be certified as follows: all active Detroit employee and retiree participants in the Detroit General Retirement System, and all beneficiaries of a participant in the Detroit General Retirement System;

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that the Class shall receive notice pursuant to MCR 3.501(C)(5), and that the Class Notice will be published in the following newspapers, for the following time periods: The Detroit Free Press and The [*34] Detroit News, one 5.5 inch-by-5 inch display to run Monday through Friday for two consecutive weeks and on two consecutive Sundays. Also, Plaintiffs' counsel shall receive any responses to the various forms of notice, and shall promptly inform the Court of any class members who choose to opt out of this litigation. [Emphasis in original.]

Our review of the record confirms that plaintiffs satisfied their obligation "to provide the certifying court with information sufficient to establish that each prerequisite for class certification in MCR 3.501(A) is in fact satisfied." Henry, 484 Mich at 502. The circuit court considered the many class action allegations in plaintiffs' complaint, the documentation that plaintiffs submitted to substantiate their motion for class certification, and the parties' many briefs pertaining to certification. In light of the complaint's class action allegations and the evidence plaintiffs appended to their motion for class certification, which the circuit court referenced in deciding the motion, we conclude that (1) the circuit court's order adequately explains that the prerequisites for class certification existed in this case; (2) the circuit court's order [*35] contains no clearly erroneous findings of fact; and (3) the circuit court acted within its discretion in entering the order certifying the plaintiff class. See Henry, 484 Mich at 495-496.

Contrary to the trustee defendants' inadequate notice arguments, the order granting certification satisfied court rule notice requirements. "As soon as practicable, the court shall determine how, when, by whom, and to whom the notice shall be given; the content of the notice; and to whom the response to the notice is to be sent." MCR 3.501(C)(3). The order granting certification makes evident that notice shall occur (1) by publication (how), a notice method specifically contemplated in MCR 3.501(C)(4)(b), in the Detroit Free Press and the Detroit News; (2) "Monday through Friday for two consecutive weeks and on two consecutive Sundays" (when); (3) to "all active Detroit employee and retiree participants in the Detroit General Retirement System, and all beneficiaries of a participant in the Detroit General Retirement System" (to whom); (4) "the Class shall receive notice pursuant to MCR 3.501(C)(5)," which sets forth in subrules (a)-(h) mandatory notice contents (the content of the notice); (5) "Plaintiffs' [*36] counsel shall receive any responses to the various forms of notice, and shall promptly inform the Court of any class members who choose to opt out of this litigation" (to whom responses should be sent); and (6) the trustee defendants do not contradict plaintiffs' appellate contention that they prepared the notice.<sup>5</sup> Although the trustee defendants complain that the "court did not review nor make any findings with respect to the sufficiency of the form, substance or manner of class notice," the trustee defendants do not mention any specific information that the court purportedly failed to consider in formulating the notice, and they do not explain any manner in which the failure to take into account the information could have prejudiced anyone--the potential class members, plaintiffs, or defendants. MCR 2.613(A). Accordingly, the circuit court's order granting plaintiffs' motion for class certification is affirmed.

5 In MCR 3.501(C)(6)(a), the Supreme Court placed on the plaintiff the burden of paying for the notice to the class.

Affirmed in part, reversed in part, and remanded for further proceedings consistent with this opinion. We do not retain jurisdiction.

OPINION AND ORDER

I. Introduction

We have before us Defendants' Motion to Dismiss Plaintiffs' Amended Complaint for failure to state cognizable claims pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6). Plaintiffs Drake Saxton, Jimmy Little, and Thomas C. Dudley, acting on behalf of themselves and all others similarly situated, allege that Defendants Central Pennsylvania Teamsters Pension Fund, Trustees, and Fund Administrator violated various provisions of ERISA, including breach of fiduciary duty provisions, § 404(a)(1)(A)-(D), 29 U.S.C. § 1104 (a)(1)(A)-(D) [*2] ; unlawful reduction of accrued benefits, § 204(g), 29 U.S.C. § 1054(g); unlawful forfeiture of accrued benefits, § 203(a), 29 U.S.C. § 1053(a); illegal transfers of plan assets, § 4231, 29 U.S.C. § 1411; and prohibited transactions, § 406(a), 29 U.S.C. § 1106(a). Plaintiffs also assert violations under the LMRA, § 302, 29 U.S.C. § 186, as well as a violation of collective bargaining agreements. For the reasons set forth below, the Defendants' Motion to Dismiss is granted in part and denied in part.

II. Jurisdiction

This case arises under ERISA, 29 U.S.C. § 1001 et seq.; thus, we have federal question jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1331 and 29 U.S.C. § 1132(e).

III. Background

We present the relevant facts as Plaintiffs allege them in their brief. Defendant, the Central Pennsylvania

Teamsters Fund ("Fund" or "Pension Plan") is a multi-employer pension fund governed by the Employee Retirement Income Securities Act ("ERISA"), 29 U.S.C. § 1001 et seq. [*3] Plaintiffs are participants in the Fund, which is administered by three union Trustees, and three employer Trustees, as well as a Fund Administrator appointed by the Trustees. The Fund itself, a trust, is comprised of three distinct pension sub-plans, or sub-trusts, all of which qualify as separate ERISA benefit plans. These sub-plans include the Defined Benefit Plan ("DB Plan"), the Retirement Income Plan 1987 ("RIP 87 Plan"), and the Retirement Income Plan 2000 ("RIP 2000 Plan"). Each sub-plan is governed by the Central Pennsylvania Teamster Pension Fund Trust Agreement, as restated December 9, 1999 ("1999 Trust Agreement" or "Trust Agreement"), as well as by its own plan document. The DB Plan is a defined benefit plan, whereas the RIP 87 Plan and the RIP 2000 Plan are defined contribution or individual account plans, as defined by ERISA § 3(34), 29 U.S.C. § 1002(34).<sup>1</sup>

1 Defined benefit plans generally provide for fixed benefits payments as provided by the plan's terms. See 29 U.S.C. § 1002(35). Defined contribution, or individual account plans, create an individual account for each plan participant. The benefits paid to the participant are based entirely on the amount contributed to the participant's account, "and any income, expenses, gains and losses, and any forfeitures of accounts of other participants which may be allocated to such participant's account." 29 U.S.C. § 1002(34).

[*4] Plaintiffs filed the instant action as a class action lawsuit. Named Plaintiffs Drake Saxton, Jimmy Little, and Thomas C. Dudley are participants in both the DB and RIP 87 Plans. In addition to asserting claims against the Fund, Plaintiffs' Amended Complaint alleges various ERISA violations against the Trustees and the Fund Administrator. Briefly, Count 1 of the Amended Complaint seeks declaratory and injunctive relief to clarify and enforce Plaintiffs' rights to future benefits under the DB Plan and the RIP 87 Plan upon this Court's resolution of Plaintiffs' remaining statutory based claims. Count II alleges that Defendant Trustees and Defendant Fund Administrator breached their fiduciary duties through various measures. Counts III and IV aver that the plan amendments adopted by Defendant Trustees in 2002 violated the "anti-cut back" rule of ERISA § 204(g)(1), 29 U.S.C. § 1054(g)(1) and constituted unlawful forfeitures of Plaintiffs' accrued benefits under § 203(a), 29 U.S.C. § 1053(a), respectively. Count V contends that the Trustees flouted ERISA § 4231(a), 29 U.S.C. § 1411(a) by causing illegal transfers [*5] of plan assets without meeting certain specified requirements. Count VI alleges that Defendants breached collective bargaining agreements with employers. The employers' obligations to contribute to the Fund arise from these agreements. Finally, Count VII sets forth claims pursuant to the Labor Management Relations Act ("LMRA") and seeks to hold Defendant Trustees and Defendant Fund Administrator personally liable for committing prohibited transactions in connection with the violations alleged throughout the Amended Complaint.

The Fund was created in 1955 by its settlors, the Transport Employers Association ("TEA") and the Teamsters, Chauffeurs, Warehouseman, and Helpers Local Union No. 429 ("Local 429"). Since then, the Fund and its sub-plans have been amended on multiple occasions. In 1986, the Fund documents were amended to phase out the DB Plan over a three year span, and establish a new "Retirement Income Plan," which, after the RIP 2000 plan was created, became known as the RIP 87 Plan. The DB Plan and RIP 87 Plan had overlapping, but not identical participation. As the collective bargaining agreements ("CBA") governing employer contributions into the DB Plan expired during [*6] the three-year window, 95% of future employer contributions were directed into the RIP 87 Plan, and the remaining 5% were directed into the old DB Plan. This apportionment of employer contributions between the two plans was made pursuant to a formula set forth the Trust Agreement. The DB Plan was thereafter amended in 1989, effective January 1990, to direct all employer contributions into the RIP 87 Plan. The amendment was implemented based on the Trustees' incorrect assumption that the DB Plan was "fully funded" and thus required no further employer contributions to meet its existing benefit obligations to beneficiaries.

By 1999, however, it became evident that the DB Plan was in danger of not meeting ERISA's minimum funding requirements. The Fund's Settlers, TEA and Local 429, therefore amended the Fund's Trust Agreement in 1999. This agreement, known as the 1999 Second Amended and Restated Central Pennsylvania Teamsters Pension Trust Agreement, contained two important amendments. First, the RIP 2000 Plan was spun off from the RIP 87 Plan. The RIP 2000 Plan was established as a separate defined contribution plan for employers who had joined the Fund since 2000 and whose employees [*7] had never participated in the DB Plan. Second, to ameliorate the DB Plan's funding problems, an amendment allocated a certain amount of future contributions of RIP 87 Employers from the RIP 87 Plan into the DB Plan for the years 2000 to 2005. The quantity of contributions reallocated was calculated from the total forfeitures<sup>2</sup> of RIP 87 Plan employees from the previous year. Significantly, the previous year's forfeitures remained in the RIP 87 Plan. The quantity of forfeitures merely served as a guide for determining the portion of future contributions from RIP 87 Employers that would be allocated to the DB Plan. Thus, while the employers' overall contribution obligations did not diminish, a portion of those contributions were directed into the DB Plan. These amendments to the Trust Agreement were signed by both TEA and Local 429, the Fund's settlors.

In another attempt to surmount the DB Plan's underfunding issue, the Trustees announced two proposals to the membership in 2001. The first involved freezing the RIP 87 Plan, and re-activating the DB Plan for receipt of future employer contributions. The second option reallocated a additional percentage of future contributions of RIP [*8] 87 Plan employers into the DB Plan pursuant to a formula based on the participant's age and years of service. The Trustees ultimately selected this latter option, deemed Amendment No. 4, effective March 1, 2002.<sup>3</sup> Amendment No. 4 also contained a second, separate amendment. The Trustees added to the amendment provisions of the Trust Agreement the statement, "nothing in this Trust Agreement shall preclude the Trustees from acting in their Settlor-capacity as appropriate by law." (1999 Trust Agreement, Art. XI, Sec. 11.1.) Amendment No. 4 was signed and issued by the Trustees, without the signatures of Local 429 and the TEA. Several months later, however, the Trustees reversed their position and adopted Amendment No. 6 to the 1999 Second Amended and Restated Trust Agreement. This amendment, effective January 2003, froze the RIP 87 Plan and allocated all future contributions of RIP 87 Plan employers into the DB Plan.<sup>4</sup> Plaintiffs' allegations stem primarily from these amendments.

2 A forfeiture occurs when a RIP 87 Plan participant terminates membership prior to his/her benefits becoming vested.

3 Amendment No. 4 provides in relevant part:

Section 2.3. Contributions to RIP 1987. Beginning January 1, 2000, all Contributions paid to the Fund by RIP 87 Employers shall be allocated to RIP 1987, except as otherwise provided in Section 2.4, herein.

Section 2.4. Contributions to the Defined Benefit Plan. A portion of the Contributions that each RIP 1987 Employer pays to the Fund will be allocated to the Defined Benefit plan, as follows:

A. Forfeitures. Effective January 1, 2000, the Contributions for each RIP 1987 Employer that would otherwise be allocated to RIP 1987 will be reduced by the dollar value of the Forfeitures that its Employees incurred in RIP 1987 as of the first day of each Fund year. ...

B. In addition to the Contributions allocated to the Defined Benefit Plan under subsection (A) above, a portion of the Contributions to the Fund of each RIP 1987 Employer for hours worked by Participants on and after March 1, 2002, will be allocated to the Defined Benefit Plan in accordance with the following formula ...

(emphasis added).

4 Amendment No. 6 provides in pertinent part:

Section 2.3 Contributions to RIP 1987. Effective January 1, 2000 until December 31, 2002, all Contributions owed to the Fund by RIP 1987 Employers shall be allocated to RIP 1987, except as otherwise provided in Section 2.4, herein. Effective January 1, 2003, all Contributions to RIP 1987 will cease and all Contributions paid to the Fund by RIP 1987 Employers will be allocated to the Defined Benefit Plan.

[*10] IV. Standard of Review

A motion to dismiss, pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6), tests the legal sufficiency of the complaint. Conley v. Gibson, 355 U.S. 41, 45-46, 78 S. Ct. 99, 2 L. Ed. 2d 80 (1957). Accordingly, an action will be dismissed under 12(b)(6) only when the plaintiff has failed to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. The criteria for deciding whether a plaintiff has met this standard have been clearly established. "In reviewing a motion to dismiss a complaint for failure to state a claim under Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6), all allegations in the complaint and all reasonable inferences that can be drawn therefrom must be accepted as true and viewed in the light most favorable to the non-moving party." Sturm v. Clark, 835 F.2d 1009, 1011 (3d Cir. 1987). This Court need not credit, however, any conclusory allegations of law, unsubstantiated conclusions, and/or unwarranted factual inferences. Morse v. Lower Merion Sch. Dist., 132 F.3d 902, 906 (3d Cir. 1997). In addition, a complaint should be dismissed only if it appears to a [*11] legal certainty that a plaintiff could prove no set of facts which would entitle him or her to relief. D.P. Enterprises v. Bucks County Cmty. Coll., 725 F.2d 943, 944 (3d Cir. 1984).

Generally, a court may not take into account materials extraneous to the pleadings when considering a motion to dismiss. Angelaastro v. Prudential-Bache Sec., Inc., 764 F.2d 939, 944 (3d Cir. 1985). If, however, a document is "integral to or explicitly relied upon in the complaint," it may be considered "without converting the motion [to dismiss] into one for summary judgment." Shaw v. Digital Equip. Corp., 82 F.3d 1194, 1220 (1st Cir. 1996), superceded by statute on other grounds, as noted in Greebel v. FTP Software, Inc., 194 F.3d 185, 197 (1st Cir. 1999); see also In re Burlington Coat Factory Sec. Litig., 114 F.3d 1410, 1426 (3d Cir. 1997) (finding district court's reliance on document provided by defendants in ruling on motion to dismiss appropriate because plaintiff's complaint was based on that document, even though complaint did not explicitly refer or cite to it); In re Donald J. Trump Casino Sec. Litig., 7 F.3d 357, 368 n.9 (3d Cir. 1993) [*12] ("a court may consider an undisputedly authentic document that a defendant attaches as an exhibit to a motion to dismiss if the plaintiff's claims are based on the document") (quoting Pension Benefit Guar. Corp. v. White Consol. Indus., 998 F.2d 1192, 1196 (3d Cir. 1996)).

Plaintiffs' allegations, as set forth in the Amended Complaint, are heavily based upon the 1999 Trust Agreement, and the February 2002 and December 2002 amendments thereto, the 1999 RIP 1987 Plan Document, the 1994 DB Plan Document, and the collective bargaining agreements governing the named Plaintiffs' employment. These documents are attached as exhibits to both Plaintiffs' and Defendants' supporting Memoranda. The authenticity of these documents is not in dispute. Thus, it is proper for this Court to consider these documents in adjudicating Defendants' Motion to Dismiss. Notably, if the plan documents are unambiguous, we may construe them as a matter of law. Kemmerer v. ICI Americas, Inc., 70 F.3d 281, 288-89 (3d Cir. 1995).

V. Discussion

A. Count 1

Pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 1132(a)(1)(B), Count 1 of the Plaintiffs' Amended Complaint [*13] seeks declaratory relief to clarify and enforce their rights to future benefits under the DB Plan and the RIP 87 Plan. (Am. Compl. P 59.) § 1132(a)(1)(B) enables ERISA plan participants or beneficiaries to institute a civil enforcement action "to recover benefits due to him under the terms of his plan, to enforce his rights under the terms of the plan, or to clarify his rights to future benefits under the terms of the plan." Before a federal court may entertain a claim under this provision, however, the Third Circuit requires that a plaintiff first exhaust any remedies available under the plan. Harrow v. Prudential Ins. Co., 279 F.3d 244, 252 (3d Cir. 2002) (citing Zipf v. Am. Tel. & Tel., 799 F.2d 889, 891 (3d Cir. 1986)). The exhaustion requirement applies "to ERISA benefit claims, but not to claims arising from violations of substantive statutory provisions." Id. Courts require exhaustion of administrative remedies "to help reduce the number of frivolous lawsuits under ERISA; to promote the consistent treatment of claims for benefits; to provide a nonadversarial method of claims settlement; and to minimize the costs of claims settlement for [*14] all concerned." Id. at 249 (quoting Amato v. Bernard, 618 F.2d 559, 567 (9th Cir. 1980)). The exhaustion requirement, however, is not absolute. If a plaintiff can provide a "clear and positive" showing that exhaustion would be futile, the requirement is excused. Brown v. Cont'l Baking Co., 891 F. Supp. 238, 241 (E.D.Pa. 1995); see Berger v. Edgewater Steel Co., 911 F.2d 911, 916 (3d Cir. 1990) ("Although the exhaustion requirement is strictly enforced, courts have recognized an exception when resort to the administrative process would be futile").

Plaintiffs admit that they have not exhausted their claim. Because the determination and clarification of benefits under the plans depend upon this Court's resolution of Plaintiffs' remaining statutory claims<sup>5</sup>, they allege that exhaustion under the plans' administrative claim procedures would be futile. (Am. Compl. PP 59, 60.) To support this argument, Plaintiffs characterize Count 1 as a "claim for benefits" not under the current plans' terms, but rather under the terms of the plans as ultimately determined by this Court. This distinction is unavailing because it does not overcome [*15] the fundamental nature of the Count as a claim for the clarification and enforcement of future benefits.

5 Plaintiffs' Brief explains that Count 1, seeking a declaration of their rights to benefits, becomes relevant only upon this Court's adjudication of their remaining claims: "Hence, the legality under the ERISA statute of the plan terms are first placed in issue under Counts II through VII. It is only after these statutory claims are decided that the parties and the Court can determine the consequences of these rulings for the actual benefits entitlements of plaintiffs ... " (Pls.' Br. at 20.)

In essence, Plaintiffs first seek reconstitution of the plans' terms through this Court's adjudication of their remaining statutory-based counts before any resolution of claims for benefits. Thus, in one sense, it would be futile to require Plaintiffs to exhaust any claims for benefits before these statutory issues are resolved, because the changes in the plans' terms constitute the gravamen of the Amended Complaint. [*16] But all this means is that Plaintiffs' claim for clarification and enforcement of future benefits is premature. It does not provide a basis to apply the futility exception. Once this Court rules on Plaintiffs' remaining counts, they are then free to exhaust claims for benefits under the reconstituted plans' internal administrative procedures. Because such a claim must first be exhausted through the plans' internal administrative procedures before being brought in federal court, and because the futility exception is inapplicable, Count 1 must be dismissed at this time, without prejudice for Plaintiffs to refile the claim if and when appropriate.

B. Count II

Count II of the Amended Complaint alleges that Defendant Trustees and Defendant Fund Administrator, acting as "fiduciaries" within the meaning of 29 U.S.C. § 1002(21)(A)(1) <sup>6</sup>, breached their ERISA mandated fiduciary obligations through various measures.

To state a claim for breach of fiduciary duty under ERISA, a plaintiff must allege that the defendant undertook the challenged actions in a fiduciary capacity, and that the action taken constituted a breach of that duty. 29 U.S.C. §§ 1109 (a) [*17] , 1132(a)(3). An ERISA fiduciary, properly identified, must employ within the defined domain "the care, skill, prudence, and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent man acting in a like capacity and familiar with such matters would use." 29 U.S.C. § 1104(a)(1)(B). The fiduciary should act "solely in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries," and must discharge his duties "in accordance with the documents and instruments governing the plan insofar as such documents and instruments are consistent with the provisions of [ERISA]." §§ 1104(a)(1)(A),(D). 29 U.S.C. § 1109(a) authorizes a beneficiary to bring suit against a fiduciary who has violated any of the fiduciary obligations ERISA imposes.

6 This provision provides in relevant part:

[A] person is a fiduciary with respect to a plan to the extent (i) he exercises any discretionary authority or discretionary control respecting management of such plan or exercises any authority or control respecting management or disposition of its assets.

Specifically, Plaintiffs assert nine separate violations of Defendants' fiduciary duties. (Am. Compl. PP 64(a)-(j).) For purposes of the following analysis, the alleged violations are grouped as follows: (1) inappropriately amending the 1999 Trust Agreement on several occasions in 2002 without the requisite signatures; (2) improperly issuing to retired DB Plan participants the "thirteenth check" through 2000; and (3) failing to prudently and effectively monitor the performance of investment advisors and managers responsible for the investment of plan assets.

1. Trust Amendments

For the reasons set forth below, Plaintiffs' claims relating to Defendants' implementation of the 2002 Amendments to the 1999 Trust Agreement are dismissed with prejudice.

i. Trustees' Failure to Abide by the Amendment Provisions Of The Trust Agreement In Undertaking Amendment 4

Plaintiffs' Amended Complaint asserts that Defendant Trustees and Defendant Fund Administrator:

failed to discharge their duties in accordance with the documents and instruments governing the plans by again purporting to amend the 1999 Trust Agreement in February 2002 to arrogate to themselves [*19] broad powers to act as settlors in amending the Trust Agreement, again without the authorizing signatures of Fund settlors, Local 429 and TEA, as required by the 1999 Trust Agreement.

(Am. Compl. P 64(i).) Specifically, "amendment No. 4 was signed solely by the Fund Trustees, but not by the TEA or by Local 429, as required by the 1999 Restated Trust Agreement, the document purportedly being amended." (Am. Compl. P 51.) Thus, Plaintiffs claim that Defendants' failure to comply with the appropriate Trust Agreement amendment procedures in implementing Amendment No. 4 constituted a breach of their fiduciary obligations. For the following reasons, we find that Plaintiffs have failed to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

Article XI, section 11.1 of the 1999 Trust Agreement gives the power of amendment to the Trustees or Settlers, and explicitly sets forth the appropriate procedures to be employed when the amending party seeks to amend the Agreement:

The Trustees or the Settlers may amend the Trust Agreement in any manner and at any time, subject to the provisions of the Trust Agreement, ERISA and other federal and/or state law; provided, however, that [*20] no amendment shall prejudice the rights of any Participant or Beneficiary with respect to claims which have been opened and are in being pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Fund; provided, further, that no amendment shall cause any of the assets of the Fund to revert to any Employer. Any amendment shall be effective as of the date set by resolution of the Trustees. Amendments shall be in written form. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary set forth herein, any amendment to the Trust Agreement which would affect any rights or obligations of the Trustees or of TEA, as a Settlor, or of the Union, as a Settlor, shall not be effective unless approved in writing by the party or parties affected.

(1999 Trust Agreement, Art. XI, Sec. 11.1 (emphasis added).)

Section 402(b)(3) of ERISA requires that every employee benefit plan provide (1) a "procedure for amending [the] plan and (2) "[a procedure] for identifying the persons who have authority to amend the plan." Curtiss-Wright Corp. v. Schoonejongen, 514 U.S. 73, 82, 115 S. Ct. 1223, 131 L. Ed. 2d 94 (1995). So long as these minimal requirements are met, "ERISA [] follows standard trust [*21] law principles in dictating only that whatever level of specificity a company ultimately chooses, in an amendment procedure or elsewhere, it is bound to that level." Id. at 84, 115 S. Ct. 1223, 131 L. Ed. 2d 94; see 29 U.S.C. § 1104(a)(1)(D). Thus, a plan sponsor's failure to act in accordance with the amendment procedures of the governing plan document when implementing an amendment constitutes a breach of fiduciary duty possibly warranting judicial annulment of the amendment. Curtiss-Wright Corp., 514 U.S. at 84-85, 115 S. Ct. 1223, 131 L. Ed. 2d 94. In the case at bar, Plaintiffs note that the February 2002 (and presumably December 2002) amendments to the Trust Agreement were promulgated without the signatures of TEA or Local 429. As the 1999 Trust Agreement indicates, however, the Trustees need only obtain the signatures of TEA and Local 429 if the amendment being adopted somehow impacts the rights or obligations of those parties as settlers. Thus, Defendants' adoption of the 2002 amendments without the signatures of either TEA or Local 429 constituted a failure to act in accordance with the Trust Agreement's amendment [*22] procedures only if the amendments impacted the settlers as such. Plaintiffs, however, fail to allege that the contested 2002 amendments affected the rights or obligations of TEA and Local 429 as settlers.<sup>7</sup> To state a claim for breach of fiduciary duty in this context, it must be alleged that the defendant neglected to administer the plan in accordance with its terms. The absence of any specific allegation that Defendants did not obtain the signatures required by the Trust Agreement despite the fact that the 2002 amendments implicated the rights and obligations of TEA and Union as settlers renders Plaintiffs' breach of fiduciary duty claim fatal. This claim of Count II is accordingly dismissed with prejudice for the aforementioned reasons.

7 Plaintiffs' claim that the amendments "severely reduced the accrued benefits of plaintiffs and the members of the Class and their accrual of future benefits under the pre-amendment RIP 87 Plan" (Am. Compl. P 64(h)) does not suggest that TEA or Local 429's rights or obligations as settlers were affected by the amendments.

[*23] ii. Plan Amendments As A Fiduciary Act

Plaintiffs allege that Defendant Trustees and Defendant Fund Administrator violated their fiduciary duties under ERISA by adopting various amendments to the 1999 Trust Agreement in 2002. ERISA, a comprehensive statutory scheme, is intended to protect employees enrolled in pension and benefit plans. The responsibility of administering a plan in the best interests of its participants and beneficiaries resides with plan trustees, who are obligated under § 404 of ERISA to act in accordance with a standard of fiduciary conduct. 29 U.S.C. § 1104(A)-(D). Specifically, Plaintiffs aver that the 2002 amendments to the 1999 Trust Agreement violated ERISA § 404 because the amendments "severely reduced the accrued benefits of plaintiffs and the members of the class and their accrual of future benefits under the terms of the pre-amendment RIP 87 Plan." (Am. Compl. P 64(h).)

Before we may consider whether Plaintiffs have stated a claim for breach of fiduciary duty, we must first decide whether the Trustees' adoption of the 2002 amendments invoked ERISA's fiduciary duty provisions. In urging that we answer this question in the [*24] affirmative, Plaintiffs argue that in the context of this multi-employer Pension Plan, the Trustees' actions in implementing amendments which affected the allocation of a finite asset pool constituted administrative and fiduciary functions. Defendants, in turn, counter with the proposition that a plan sponsor acts within its power as a settlor when amending any plan. As the following discussion reveals, the issue is not clear-cut. Upon careful consideration, we find that the Trustees functioned as settlors when amending the Pension Plan.<sup>8</sup> They were, consequently, free to amend without the restraints imposed by ERISA § 404.

8 We reach our decision today regardless of the November 2002 Department of Labor Bulletin.

In ascertaining whether plan sponsors act in a settlor or fiduciary capacity when amending ERISA-governed benefit plans, courts have drawn distinctions between multi-employer and single-employer plans, and between those plans that "affect the allocation of a finite plan asset pool" to which each [*25] participating employer has contributed. Musto v. Am. Gen. Corp., 861 F.2d 897, 912 (6th Cir. 1988), cert. denied, 490 U.S. 1020, 109 S. Ct. 1745, 104 L. Ed. 2d 182 (1989). Undoubtedly, the general rule is that the ERISA fiduciary obligations do not apply to a plan amendment. But, as the below discussion indicates, by no means has this general rule been unequivocally applied by courts.

Plaintiffs' argument is premised upon the rationale articulated by the Second Circuit in Siskind v. Sperry Retirement Program, Unisys, 47 F.3d 498 (2d Cir. 1995). Former employees brought suit challenging the defendant corporation's adoption of an amendment to a single-employer pension plan. The plaintiffs argued that the plan amendment, which excluded the plaintiffs from a selective early retirement program, constituted a breach of fiduciary duty to act for the sole benefit of plan participants. Id. at 500. In holding that the plan trustees' amendment of the single-employer plan did not invoke ERISA's fiduciary obligations, the Second Circuit explained that "in the single-employer setting, where plan trustees are also corporate officers, [*26] their actions must be made in the interest of both the plan's participants and the employer." Id. at 506. Because the trustees have dual responsibilities in this regard, subjecting them to fiduciary obligations in their adoption of plan amendments would discourage the creation of benefit plans, a result ERISA intended to prevent. In setting forth its rationale, the Second Circuit distinguished cases where plan amendments were held to be fiduciary functions.<sup>9</sup> Those cases involved multi-employer pension plans.

The cases holding plan amendment to be an administrative and fiduciary task concern multiemployer pension plans, jointly administered by trustees representing the employers and trustees appointed by and representing the union. In the multiemployer setting, trustees amending a pension plan "affect the allocation of a finite plan asset pool" to which each participating employer has contributed. For that reason trustees administering a multiemployer plan are expected to act solely for the benefit of beneficiaries and are barred from acting on the employers' behalf.

Id. (internal citations omitted).

9 In Chambless v. Masters, Mates & Pilots Pension Plan, 772 F.2d 1032, 1038 (2d Cir. 1985), the Second Circuit recognized the existence of a fiduciary breach cause of action against the trustees of a multi-employer pension fund who amended a vested pension plan.

[*27] In drawing a distinction between single-employer plans and multi-employer plans implicating a finite plan asset pool, the Second Circuit garnered support from the Sixth Circuit's dicta in Musto, 861 F.2d at 912, that "in amending a multi-employer plan, where the level of contributions of each participant employer has generally been set by collective bargaining, the trustees 'affect the allocation of a finite plan asset pool between participants' ... and hence act as plan administrators subject to a fiduciary duty." The Sixth Circuit, however, subsequently refused to treat single-employer and multi-employer plans differently in Pope v. Central States S.E. & S.W. Areas Health and Welfare Fund, 27 F.3d 211, 213-214 (6th Cir. 1994). In Pope, the Court of Appeals held that the trustees of a multiemployer welfare-benefit plan were not subject to fiduciary standards in amending a plan to reduce benefits in order to protect its financial stability. The Third Circuit recognized Pope's impact on the fine distinction drawn by Musto as well: "Pope stands for the proposition that the Sixth Circuit, despite its authorship of Musto, is [*28] prepared to treat single- and multi-employer plans similarly in the absence of some other salient difference." Walling v. Brady, 125 F.3d 114, 118 (3d Cir. 1997).

In the aftermath of these decisions, the Supreme Court has had occasion to address the issue of whether ERISA's fiduciary obligations apply to plan sponsors who amend plan agreements. These decisions, however, arose in the context of single-employer plans. See, e.g., Lockheed Corp. v. Spink, 517 U.S. 882, 116 S. Ct. 1783, 135 L. Ed. 2d 153 (1996). In Lockheed, the Court counseled that:

Plan sponsors who alter the terms of a plan do not fall into the category of fiduciaries. As we said with respect to the amendment of welfare benefit plans ... "employers or other plan sponsors are generally free under ERISA, for any reason at any time, to adopt, modify, or terminate welfare plans." When employers undertake those actions, they do not act as fiduciaries, but are analogous to the settlors of a trust.

Id. at 890, 116 S. Ct. 1783, 135 L. Ed. 2d 153 (citations omitted). This is because "only when fulfilling certain defined functions, including the exercise [*29] of discretionary authority or control over plan management or administration,' does a person become a fiduciary under § 3(21)(A)," and ERISA's definition of fiduciary does not include plan design. Id. (quoting Siskind, 47 F.3d at 505). The Court stated that this reasoning applied to both pension and welfare benefit plans. Id. Despite the categorical language characterizing the Supreme Court's pronouncement, the Third Circuit expressly refused to recognize that the rule would apply in all situations.

Lockheed speaks of "plan sponsors," a term that applies to both single-employer sponsors and multi-employer sponsors under ERISA, and the opinion lacks any hint that single- and multi-employer plans should be analyzed differently. At the same time, the silence of Lockheed on this topic could arguably be a result of its subject matter, a single-employer plan. The Court did not mention multiemployer plans nor state that its decision was intended to reach them or to address their particular characteristics. ... We do not read Lockheed to be the definitive word that there are never valid occasions on which to distinguish between the two types [*30] of plans....

Walling, 125 F.3d at 117. Walling involved an amendment to a multi-employer pension fund that lacked a finite asset pool. In no uncertain terms, the Court of Appeals held that "the simple fact that the plan at issue is a multiemployer plan is insufficient to cause the fiduciary duty to attach to the Trustees' actions." Id. at 120. Nevertheless, the Third Circuit took notice that "the plan feature (a finite asset pool) on which Siskind based its deviation from this bright-line rule is not present here" and concluded that "the rationale for having the fiduciary duty of loyalty apply is therefore absent, because the Trustees have the power to incur unfunded liabilities." Id. at 118. Thus, while the Third Circuit's refusal to impose fiduciary burdens on the trustees before it was grounded in the logic of Lockheed, the underlying analysis reveals the court's reluctance to consider the principle articulated in Lockheed to be unequivocally independent of the type of plan involved.

Following the Walling decision, however, the Supreme Court reaffirmed the general principle that a plan sponsor's decision [*31] to amend a plan concerns the composition or design of the plan itself and thus does not implicate ERISA's fiduciary obligations in Hughes Aircraft Co. v. Jacobson, 525 U.S. 432, 444, 119 S. Ct. 755, 142 L. Ed. 2d 881 (1999). Hughes clarified that the prior holding in Lockheed does not turn on "the type of plan being amended for the simple reason that the plain language of the statute defining fiduciary makes no distinction." Id. Notably, the issue arose before the Supreme Court once again in the context of a single-employer benefit plan. Id. Thus, while it does not necessarily diminish the import of Walling, it does undermine the notion that the type of plan at issue informs the decision of whether a plan sponsor acts as a fiduciary in undertaking a plan amendment. The Court's textual approach places emphasis on ERISA's definition of fiduciary. Because the term fails to distinguish between various plan permutations, and because it fails to include plan design as a defined function, a plan sponsor is free to amend any employee benefit plan without being subject to fiduciary review. Lockheed, 517 U.S. at 890, 116 S. Ct. 1783, 135 L. Ed. 2d 153. [*32] Indeed, the Hughes Court stressed that "our conclusion applies with equal force to persons exercising authority over a contributory plan, a noncontributory plan, or any other type of plan." 525 U.S. at 444-45, 119 S. Ct. 755, 142 L. Ed. 2d 881. Thus, the Court held that the plaintiffs' fiduciary claims were directly foreclosed "by Spink's holding that, without exception, 'plan sponsors who alter the terms of a plan do not fall into the category of fiduciaries.'" Id. at 445, 119 S. Ct. 755, 142 L. Ed. 2d 881 (emphasis added). Admittedly, the Court's decision in Hughes does not directly dispose of the issue facing this Court, because the Pension Plan sub judice is a multi-employer plan involving the allocation of finite plan assets. But the reasons underpinning the Court's decision appear to preclude imposition of fiduciary duties on the Trustees in this instance. To prevail, Plaintiffs must address the definition of "fiduciary" set forth in the statute. Yet it appears that under any plausible reading of the term, a plan sponsor's amendments to ERISA governed plans do not fall within its purview. Moreover, the Court's analysis appears [*33] to foreclose consideration of any policy driven distinctions premised upon the unique features of the particular plan under review. Therefore, we cannot recognize a legal claim for breach of fiduciary duty stemming from Defendants' promulgation of the 2002 amendments.<sup>10</sup>

10 We are aware that a strong argument can be made that specific plan features should inform the fiduciary inquiry, and thus that fiduciary obligations should be imposed on plan sponsors who implement amendments to multi-employer pension funds implicating a finite asset pool. What we do learn from the Supreme Court's pronouncements on this issue is that the critical inquiry lies in determining whether the plan sponsors exercised discretionary authority or control over plan management or administration. While tinkering with plan design does not fall within this definition, the thrust of Plaintiffs' complaint is not simply that the Trustees amended the "form or structure" of the Pension Plan, Hughes Aircraft, 525 U.S. at 444, 119 S. Ct. 755, 142 L. Ed. 2d 881, but rather that the plan was amended to the detriment of Plaintiffs' present and future accrued benefits. Unlike in the former scenario, a rationale for having fiduciary duties apply in the latter case is present. Unquestionably, ERISA is intended to promote the creation of employee benefit plans, and its provisions should be read with this goal in mind. This explains the Supreme Court's reluctance to inflict on single-employer sponsors the burden of fiduciary obligations when such employers undertake to amend a plan that they have no obligation to provide in the first instance. There is, of course, another important competing goal: "to make sure that if a worker has been promised a defined pension benefit upon retirement-and if he has fulfilled whatever conditions are required to obtain a vested benefit-he actually will receive it." Nachman Corp. v. Pension Benefit Guar. Corp., 446 U.S. 359, 375, 100 S. Ct. 1723, 64 L. Ed. 2d 354 (1980); see generally, 29 U.S.C. § 1001. It is important that employees enrolled in a benefit plan not be deprived of compensation that they reasonably anticipate under the plan's purported coverage. Indeed, this competing element may at times run up against ERISA's first purpose. As explicated above, the Pension Fund under review is a multi-employer plan that involves a finite asset pool. The fact that a multi-employer pension plan involves a finite asset pool could justify the imposition of fiduciary obligations on trustees that adopt plan amendments because, in this setting, trustees are charged with administering allocation of the finite plan asset pool. Consequently, the trustees' decision to amend a plan in such manner as to alter the benefits could be interpreted as a fiduciary exercise of their administrative discretion under ERISA.

Plaintiffs contend that, through various purported amendments, Defendants reallocated employer contributions among several distinct, protected plans, to the immediate disadvantage of plan participants, who partake in the RIP 87 defined contribution plan. Although Defendants diverted future RIP 87 employer contributions to the defined benefit plan, Plaintiffs' reasonably anticipated receipt of benefits from these contributions plus their investment returns. This scenario may pose conflicting choices on the part of the Trustee Defendants as to each class of participants in the separate plans, who do not have identical economic interests. An argument can be made that these actions involve administering the allocation of employer contributions and plan assets, and justify imposition of fiduciary obligations. On the other hand, it is the job of sponsors to make difficult choices, not the courts, and as explicated above the Supreme Court's pronouncements on the subject do not leave room for this type of policy-based analysis.

[*34] Neither the Third Circuit's decision in Walling or the Supreme Court's opinions analyzing this matter directly control the situation where trustees of a multiemployer pension fund reallocate a finite asset pool among various sub-plans through an amendment. Yet an examination of the rationales espoused by the Supreme Court in its teachings on the matter support the view that plan sponsors act as settlors in such setting.<sup>11</sup> Thus, we find that the Trustees' promulgation of the 2002 amendments to the Trust Agreement constitutes settlor conduct unrestrained by the obligations set forth in 29 U.S.C. §§ 1104(a)(1)(A)-(D). Accordingly, we grant Defendants' Motion on this issue, and dismiss this claim of Count II with prejudice.

11 As settlors, the Trustees are "free to make any amendment that [does] not run afoul of relevant ERISA regulations." Walling, 125 F.3d at 120. In Hozier v. Midwest Fasteners, Inc., the Third Circuit explained that "an employer's decision to amend or terminate an employee benefit plan is unconstrained by the fiduciary duties that ERISA imposes on plan administration. Our conclusion does not imply that an employer has unfettered discretion to amend or terminate plans at will. In the case of pension plans, ERISA's detailed accrual and vesting provisions substantially limit this power." 908 F.2d 1155, 1162 (3d Cir. 1990). Thus, the Court of Appeals determined that although the defendant could have effected an invalid amendment, he could not have breached any fiduciary duties in deciding to amend the plan because he was simply not acting as an ERISA fiduciary. Id.

[*35] 2. The Thirteenth Check

Plaintiffs assert that, in contrast to the explicit terms of the Trust Agreement, Defendant Trustees and Defendant Fund Administrator paid to DB Plan retirees a "thirteenth check" from 1987 through 2000. (See Am. Compl. P 64(a)-(f).) Defendants move to dismiss this allegation on the ground that it fails to state a claim for breach of fiduciary duties. For the following reasons, we find that Plaintiffs have stated a claim for breach of fiduciary duties in this context.

The DB Plan required that its participants be issued an additional benefit check, known as the "thirteenth check" so long as certain funding prerequisites were met. Specifically, the DB Plan provided that:

For certain retired participants and their Beneficiaries, an additional retirement benefit check in the form of a bonus check shall be paid ... [This benefit] is payable only to those retired pants ... who are entitled to receive a monthly benefit check for each month of the calendar year with respect to which the thirteenth check is being paid. Notwithstanding the preceding, the "thirteenth check" shall only be payable if the Fund Actuary certifies that [*36] the unfunded vested liability of the Fund, as calculated for MPPAA purposes as of the last day of the calendar year preceding distribution of the Additional Retirement Benefit check, does not exceed $ 85,000,000.

(1994 DB Plan, Art. IV, Sec. I(1)(j).) (emphasis added).

Plaintiffs, who were not members of the DB Plan at the time and thus never received any of the additional benefits, do not claim that the Fund Actuary failed to make the requisite certifications. Rather, they aver that the Defendant Trustees and Defendant Fund Administrator encouraged and permitted the Fund Actuary "to use outdated and improper 1951 mortality tables to calculate the funding liability of the DB Plan, thereby distorting and concealing the true funding status of the Plan, depriving it of needed and legally required funding, and jeopardizing the security of the accrued pension benefits of plaintiffs and the members of the Class." (Am. Compl. P 64(e).) In response, Defendants argue that their decision to issue the check was a settlor decision not falling within the ambit of ERISA's fiduciary duty provisions. (Defs.' Reply Mem. at 22.) Because the Fund Actuary made the requisite certifications, [*37] Defendants assert that the DB Plan term afforded them no choice but to pay to DB participants the additional benefits. (Id.)

As noted above, ERISA deems a person to be a fiduciary with respect to a plan "to the extent (i) he exercises any discretionary authority or discretionary control respecting management of such plan or exercises any authority or control respecting management or disposition of its assets. ..." 29 U.S.C. § 1002(21)(A)(1). Thus, "fiduciary obligations can apply to managing, advising, and administering an ERISA plan." Pegram v. Herdrich, 530 U.S. 211, 223, 120 S. Ct. 2143, 147 L. Ed. 2d 164 (2000). ERISA Section 404(a)(1)(D), 29 U.S.C. § 1104(a)(1)(D) imposes upon fiduciaries the requirement that they discharge their duties solely in the interest of plan participants and beneficiaries and in accordance with plan documents insofar as such documents are consistent with ERISA. These obligations further include monitoring the plan's solvency and adjusting benefit levels if and when appropriate. See Dippel v. Joint Bd. of Trustees, 1982 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 10134, No. 80-0271, 1982 WL 2085, at *7 (D.D.C. May 6, 1982) [*38] ("The Board obviously retains the discretionary authority and indeed the fiduciary obligation to alter existing types and levels of medical benefits available under the Plan when the financial solvency of the Fund so requires.") (dicta); cf. Baum v. Nolan, 853 F.2d 1071, 1074-75 n.2 (2d Cir. 1988) (possibility that payment of pension benefits may affect fund's solvency is a matter of fiduciary duty) (dicta).

We find that Plaintiffs' claim passes muster under Rule 12(b)(6). Because Plaintiffs do not allege that Defendants paid out thirteenth checks in the absence of the Fund Actuary's certification, Defendants have technically adhered to a DB Plan term that affords them no discretion. They have complied with a term that demands issuance of the check upon meeting a specified prerequisite--the actuary's certification. Nevertheless we must at this point take as true Plaintiffs' factual allegations in the Amended Complaint that Defendants did exercise improper discretion, and thus acted in a fiduciary capacity, in their effort to ensure that the term's prerequisite was met, despite knowledge that the actual circumstances reflected otherwise. [*39] Cf. Fechter v. Conn. Gen. Life Ins. Co., 798 F. Supp. 1120, 1124 (E.D.Pa. 1991)

("Plaintiffs allege that Connecticut General transcended their usual role as an actuary and became a fiduciary by purposely using an allocation formula that, contrary to the plain language of the Plan, would permit most of the surplus assets to revert to the Company so that the Company would not question Connecticut General's excessively high premium. We have no doubt that if plaintiffs can prove their allegations, then as a matter of law, Connecticut General is an ERISA fiduciary"). Defendants have a fiduciary duty to faithfully administer the terms of the DB Plan, and to act prudently in determining whether the payment of a benefit was in fact authorized. See Gruby v. Brady, 838 F. Supp. 820, 829 (S.D.N.Y. 1993) (denying motion to dismiss fiduciary breach claim that trustees maintained benefits at excessive levels in plan that was in financial difficulty despite trustees following dictates of plan documents because "if the benefits levels as set forth in the Fund's governing plan documents are excessive, the Trustee Defendants may not avoid their fiduciary duties to Members [*40] by hiding behind documents which are inconsistent with ERISA"). Permitting or encouraging the Fund Actuary to use an improper assumption in calculating the unfunded vested liability of the DB Plan in order to satisfy the term's prerequisite which subsequently necessitates a certain result, all with the knowledge that continued payments were imprudent and would put the entire Fund in financial jeopardy, states a claim for breach of fiduciary duty.<sup>12</sup>

12 Dicta contained in Concrete Pipe and Products of California v. Construction Laborers Pension Trust For Southern California, 508 U.S. 602, 633 n.19, 113 S. Ct. 2264, 124 L. Ed. 2d 539 (1993) buttresses our finding that Plaintiffs' allegations state a cognizable breach of fiduciary duty claim. In the context of holding that the MPPAA's presumptions in favor of multi-employer plans did not deny employer access to an impartial decision maker and thus did not violate due process rights, the Supreme Court noted that:

we know of no [case] in which a plan sponsor was found to have replaced an actuary's actuarial methods or assumptions with different ones of its own. Although we express no view on the question whether a plan sponsor must adopt the assumptions used by the actuary, we note that the legislative history of § 1082, which was enacted as part of ERISA in 1974, suggests that the actuarial [sic] assumptions must be "independently determined by an actuary," and that it is "inappropriate for an employer to substitute his judgment ... for that of a qualified actuary" with respect to these assumptions.

Id. (quoting S.Rep. No. 93-383, p. 70 (1973)).

[*41] Defendants may not avoid their fiduciary obligations by circumventing a term that purportedly provides them with no discretion. Accordingly, Defendants' Motion to Dismiss this claim of Count II is denied.

3. Imprudent Investment of Plan Assets

Plaintiffs' last breach of fiduciary duty claim is premised on the allegation that Defendant Trustees and Defendant Fund Administrator:

failed to prudently and effectively monitor and oversee the performance of the investment advisors and managers who were responsible for the investment of plan assets, and instead continued to employ the services of the same investment advisors and managers despite their unusually poor results from 1998-2000, thereby causing a significant loss of assets to the plans, further jeopardizing the funding of the DB Plan and diminishing the values of the individual accounts of plaintiffs and the members of the Class in the RIP 87 Plan itself and as transferred into the reformulated DB Plan.

(Am. Compl. P 64(g).) As explained below, we find that Plaintiffs have adequately alleged a breach of fiduciary duty claim.

Specifically, Plaintiffs assert that the DB Plan and RIP 87 Plan performed [*42] poorly because of mismanagement of plan assets by the Trustee appointed investment managers. During this same period, however, other similar multi-employer pension funds experienced a rapid growth in the values of assets held and invested. (Am. Compl. P 41.) Although "this sub-par performance and mismanagement was either known to the Trustees and Fund Administrator, or would have been discovered by them had they made prudent and proper efforts to monitor and supervise the performance of the managers who had been engaged to invest plan assets," (Id.), Defendants "did not investigate, consider pursuing, or pursue a legal cause of action or other remedies either against the plans' investment advisors or managers ... or against the current and former Trustees who failed to take prudent action. ..." (Am. Compl. P 42.) Defendants' Motion to Dismiss challenges whether Plaintiffs have met the liberal pleading requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a)(2), which requires "a short and plain statement of the claim showing that the pleader is entitled to relief." A complaint that "contains only conclusory allegations and lacks any factual assertions for support [*43] fails even the liberal standard of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(6)." Crowley v. Corning, Inc., 234 F. Supp. 2d 222, 230 (W.D.N.Y. 2002).

Few cases discuss the adequacy of pleading a breach of fiduciary duty claim in this specific context. Indisputably, Defendants' investment conduct is governed by ERISA's fiduciary provisions. See 29 U.S.C. §§ 1104(a)(1)(B)-(C).<sup>13</sup> With respect to the Defendants' fiduciary duties when they retain outside professional assistance, the Third Circuit has stated:

While we would encourage fiduciaries to retain the services of consultants when they need outside assistance to make prudent investments and do not expect fiduciaries to duplicate their advisers' investigative efforts, we believe that ERISA's duty to investigate requires fiduciaries to review the data a consultant gathers, to assess its significance and to supplement it where necessary.

Meinhardt v. Unisys Corp. (In re Unisys Sav. Plan Litig.), 74 F.3d 420, 435 (3d Cir. 1996).

13 29 U.S.C. §§ 1104(a)(1)(B)-(C) provide in pertinent part:

(1) [A] fiduciary shall discharge his duties with respect to a plan solely in the interest of the participants and beneficiaries and -

(B) with the care, skill, prudence, and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent man acting in a like capacity and familiar with such matters would use in the conduct of an enterprise of a like character and with like aims;

(C) by diversifying the investments of the plan so as to minimize the risk of large losses, unless under the circumstances it is clearly prudent not to do so.

[*44] We find that Plaintiffs' breach of fiduciary duty claim, as alleged in the Amended Complaint, satisfies the pleading requirements of Fed. R. Civ. P. 8. The essential elements of the claim are alleged. In addition to alleging the fiduciary status of Defendants, the Amended Complaint sets forth Defendants' fiduciary duties and specifies the Defendants' involvement in breaching those duties. (See Am. Compl. PP 41-42, 64(g).) As summarized above, the Amended Complaint rests on more than mere conclusory allegations. Defendants' reliance on Crowley is inapposite. Unlike the situation confronting the district court in Crowley, the crux of Plaintiffs' claim here is that if Defendants were actually unaware of the Fund's poor investment performance, they would have been aware had they done the type of investigation and oversight that the Third Circuit demands of fiduciaries who employ outside consultants. If, on the other hand, Defendants did possess knowledge of the Fund's inadequate performance, and yet failed to take any remedial measures, this too constitutes a breach of fiduciary duty. Because Plaintiffs set forth sufficient facts under [*45] which relief could be granted, Defendants' Motion to Dismiss this claim of Count II is denied.<sup>14</sup>

14 Defendants further argue that, as a matter of law, a breach of fiduciary duty claim cannot arise from a fund's poor investment performance over a short period of time. Defendants' Reply Memorandum references two cases in support of this proposition. (See Defs.' Reply Mem. at 23 (citing Lalonde v. Textron, Inc., 270 F. Supp. 2d 272, 280 (D.R.I. 2003); Wright v. Or. Metallurgical Corp., 222 F. Supp. 2d 1224, 1234 (D.Or. 2002)).) Defendants, however, fail to note that both decisions adjudicated the validity of plaintiffs' breach of fiduciary duty claims in the context of an ESOP plan. These plans, unlike other ERISA benefit plans, involve unique considerations. Indeed, "ESOPs are unlike other benefit plans, because they have competing purposes which, at times, can be in tension with one another. Any allegation of breach of a fiduciary duty must be considered in light of the special natures of ESOPs." Textron, 270 F. Supp. 2d at 278.

[*46] Accordingly, we find with respect to Count II that Plaintiffs (1) have failed to state a claim for breach of fiduciary duty for Defendants' alleged inappropriate amendments to the 1999 Trust Agreement; and (2) have successfully stated a claim for breach of fiduciary duty for (a) Defendants' alleged improper issuance of the "thirteenth check," and (b) Defendants' alleged failure to prudently and effectively monitor the performance of investment advisors and managers responsible for the investment of plan assets.

C. Count III

Count III of Plaintiffs' Amended Complaint alleges that Defendants unlawfully reduced accrued benefits in the RIP 87 Plan through their amendment of the 1999 Trust Agreement. For this claim, Plaintiffs rely on § 204(g)(1) of the ERISA statute, which prohibits the reduction of accrued benefits by amendment of an employee pension plan. See 29 U.S.C. § 1054(g)(1). Defendants counter that while the amendments to the RIP 87 Plan impact future employer contributions, they do not in any way affect accrued benefits. Thus the issue before us in Count III is whether the amendments to the plan constituted a reduction in "accrued [*47] benefits."

ERISA defines "accrued benefit" in an individual account plan as "the balance of the individual's account." 29 U.S.C. § 1002(23)(B). Neither party here has identified cases that are particularly helpful in establishing how the term "accrued benefit" has been interpreted in practice. However, we believe the Third Circuit's discussion of an "accrued benefit" in Hoover v. Cumberland, Maryland Area Teamsters Pension Fund, 756 F.2d 977 (3d Cir. 1985), though written in the context of a defined benefit plan dispute, is instructive. Hoover contains an extensive discussion of ERISA's legislative history. Of particular note is the court's citation of language in the Congressional Report accompanying the ERISA bill, which highlights the purpose behind its accrued benefit and vesting protections. The Report states:

Unless an employee's rights to his accrued pension benefits are nonforfeitable, he has no assurance that he will ultimately receive a pension. Thus, pension rights which have slowly been stockpiled over many years may suddenly be lost if the employee leaves or loses his job prior to retirement. Quite apart from the [*48] resulting hardships, . . . such losses of pension rights are inequitable, since the pension contributions previously made on behalf of the employee may have been made in lieu of additional compensation or some other benefit which he would have received.

Hoover at 985, citing S.Rep. No. 383, 93d Cong., 2d Sess., reprinted in 1974 U.S. Code Cong. & Ad. News 4890, 4930.

This language indicates that when Congress included § 204(g)(1) in ERISA, it intended to ensure that employees would receive the funds that employers had already set aside for their retirement, not to guarantee a certain amount of future employer contributions. Such a provision reflects the balance Congress undoubtedly sought to achieve between protecting employees' retirement funds and maintaining private pension plans as an attractive option for employers. That ERISA was meant to protect contributions that had already been made on behalf of employees is further substantiated in the Act's "Congressional findings and declaration of policy." See 29 U.S.C. § 1001. This Section establishes the means by which Congress intended to protect employees' retirement income. Specifically, [*49] it sought to do so by requiring the disclosure and reporting to participants and beneficiaries of financial and other information with respect thereto, by establishing standards of conduct, responsibility, and obligation for fiduciaries of employee benefit plans, and by providing for appropriate remedies, sanctions, and ready access to the Federal courts.

29 U.S.C. § 1001(b).

Nowhere in this section or in subsequent portions does the Act require employers to make contributions on behalf of employees. Rather, it simply seeks to make employee benefit plans more transparent and predictable and to preserve their integrity and financial well-being when employers choose to contribute to them. This goal has been realized through the decisions of courts which have focused on enforcing the terms of pension plan documents, as can be seen from the cases discussed below.

Hoover illustrates how ERISA's protections work in practice when applied to a defined benefit pension plan, where the employer agrees to make regular payments to participants of a fixed amount upon reaching retirement. In Hoover, the court held that the employer reduced [*50] employees' accrued benefits when it lowered the "unit multiplier" it used to calculate the amount of benefits that employees accrued each year. Id. at 980. Under the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. § 411(a), an employer is required to state the formula by which accrued benefits are calculated in a defined benefit plan each year. Id. Since this formula "represents the interest in a retirement benefit that a participant earns each year," it "enables a worker to mark his or her progress toward the full pension benefit due at retirement." Id. Thus when the employer in Hoover lowered the multiplier from $ 25.00 to $ 6.00, it diminished by seventy-five percent the amount of funds that had already been theoretically set aside by the employer under the formula it created. Id. at 986. By finding the employer in violation of ERISA, the court held it liable for the level of funds it had voluntarily agreed to set aside for employees. In keeping with the purposes and principles of ERISA, the court's decision turned on the terms of the Plan documents, which obligated the employer to utilize a certain formula for calculating the [*51] benefits accrued thus far. In so doing, it effectively defined "accrued benefits" as the product of the formula set out by the employer in Plan documents, which is dependant on the amount of time thus served by employees. Courts have offered a comparable analysis when protecting accrued benefits in defined contribution plans by similarly focusing on the terms of Plan documents. In Izzarelli v. Rexene Products Corp., 24 F.3d 1506 (5th Cir. 1994), the plaintiffs argued that their accrued benefits were unlawfully reduced when their employer initially contributed 101,794 shares of stock to the Plan one year, but, after amending the Plan, ultimately allocated a much smaller amount to the individual accounts of Plan participants. Izzarelli, 24 F.3d at 1509-16. While the district court held that the act of contributing the shares to the Plan created an accrued benefit, the Fifth Circuit reversed, drawing a distinction between contributions to the Plan and allocations to individual accounts. Id. at 1515. The court drew this distinction from the Plan document itself, which stated that "contributions initially are held in the 'Unprorated [*52] Fund,' i.e. 'that portion of the assets or property in the [Plan] . . . which at any particular time, has not been allocated to a particular Member's Account.'" Id. at 1516. Additionally, the court noted that the Plan gave the employer "'complete discretion' to control the 'time and manner of allocating Stock among [participants'] Accounts.'" Id. Thus the court held that the district court had clearly erred in finding the 101,794 share contribution an accrued benefit because the Plan specified that contributions were not the same as allocations. Id. at 1518. In so doing, the court declined to protect what it deemed were expected contributions to the individual accounts.

The First Circuit's approach to defining "accrued benefits" comports with those of the Third and Fifth Circuits. In Campbell v. BankBoston, 327 F.3d 1 (1st Cir. 2003), the plaintiff sued his former employer for making amendments that converted its defined benefit plan to a cash balance system because they ultimately resulted in a reduction in his retirement benefits. Campbell, 326 F.3d at 2. In implementing the amendments, the employer placed [*53] participants' accrued benefits, in other words, the amount that had been earned up until the conversion, into an account which was guaranteed a certain level of interest under the new cash balance plan. Id. at 4-5. In exchange for the guaranteed level of interest under the cash balance plan, the accounts ceased to accrue benefits under the old defined benefit plan. Id. Had the plaintiff been able to continue accruing benefits under the old plan, he would have eventually been entitled to an annual retirement benefit of $ 31,882.12. Id. However, as a result of the conversion, his benefits were reduced by approximately $ 3,000 per year. Id. The court held that this was not a reduction in the plaintiff's accrued benefits, but a reduction in his expected benefits. Id. at 8-9. The employer had not reduced the amount of benefits accrued by the employee, it simply chose to guarantee a certain interest rate, in lieu of future accruals. The court concluded that the employer was within its rights under the Plan and the law to modify or eliminate future benefits, since ERISA does not offer protection for "expected benefits." Id.

Plaintiffs' [*54] reliance on John Blair Communications, Inc. v. Telemundo Group, Inc., 26 F.3d 360, 367 (2d Cir. 1994), is not particularly helpful to this discussion or even applicable when determining when an accrued benefit has been reduced. We discuss it merely to explain why we do not rely on it here. The case concerned an alleged violation of ERISA § 208, which states that assets cannot be transferred to a new plan unless participants are entitled to receive a benefit that is equal to or greater to what they were entitled to under the old plan. 29 U.S.C. § 1058. The plaintiff argued that it received decreased benefits under the new plan because there was a three and a half month delay between the valuation of benefits under the old plan and when the benefits were actually transferred to the new plan. John Blair, 26 F.3d at 363-64. In spite of the fact that the funds under the old plan were appreciating and earning interest during the three and a half month period before they were actually transferred, the plaintiff's account was never credited for this increase in value. Id. The court held that the trustee had violated § 208 because [*55] the individuals' accounts post-transfer of plan assets "did not reflect the gains occurring during the interim period before the actual transfer." Id. at 366.

As stated above, we believe that the holding in this case is too abstract to be applied to the instant case, particularly since it concerns an unrelated section of ERISA. However, even if we were to attempt to apply it to this analysis, it would not be inconsistent with our discussion of accrued benefits thus far. John Blair stands for the proposition that trustees must acknowledge and credit appreciation and interest earned in defined contribution accounts. As in Hoover, Izzarelli, and Campbell, the court interpreted ERISA to protect benefits as they existed prior to any alteration of the plan. Thus the participants in the plan in John Blair were entitled to any gains (and losses) that occurred up until the point of the actual transfer. We fail to see then how the holding in John Blair can be interpreted as offering protection for anything beyond the appreciation and interest earned on funds in a defined contribution plan. Since this case does not concern appreciation and interest earned [*56] in a defined contribution plan, we do not find it is an appropriate precedent.

Applying the foregoing discussion to the case at hand, we find that the Defendants did not reduce accrued benefits in the RIP 87 Plan. Accepting Plaintiffs' facts as true, Defendants made several amendments to the RIP 87 Plan which adversely affected its future growth. The first amendment, effective January 1, 2000, caused a portion of employer contributions intended for the RIP 87, in the amount of forfeitures incurred by employees in that fund year, to be invested into the DB Plan. The second amendment resulted in an additional portion of the funds intended for the RIP 87 Plan by employers to be diverted to the DB Plan, according to a formula based on the number of hours worked by participants after March 1, 2002. The final amendment, Amendment No. 6, caused all contributions intended for the RIP 87 to be made to the DB Plan, of which all RIP 87 Plan participants became members.

Although these amendments undeniably reduced and eventually stopped future employer contributions to the RIP 87 Plan, they did not reduce the existing balances of members' individual accounts. Plaintiffs' own brief supports this [*57] conclusion. Plaintiffs described the initial reduction in contributions as a "derogation of the expectation [emphasis added] and agreement that contributions on their behalf would be made to the defined contribution RIP Plan and used to earn income to increase their individual account balances." (Pls' Br. at 11.) As to the final amendment, in Plaintiffs' own words, it "froze the RIP 87 Plan for all future accruals of benefits after January 1, 2003 (other than those gains or losses from future investment performance), and directed all employer contributions made on behalf of all RIP 87 Plan participants on and after January 1, 2003 into the DB Plan." (Id. at 12.) These characterizations of the amendments strongly support Defendants' claim that Plaintiffs have failed to state a claim upon which relief can be granted. However, even if Plaintiffs had not made these apparent admissions, the foregoing discussion of relevant case law leads us to the same conclusion. In each of the cases discussed above, the court looked to see if the alterations or amendments to the employers' pension plans impacted benefits retroactively or just future benefits. In Hoover, the application of [*58] a new formula to benefits already earned by employees was considered a reduction of accrued benefits. In Izzarelli, however, a decision not to allocate the full amount of stock contributed to a plan was not considered a reduction in accrued benefits because the stock had not actually been applied to members' accounts and thus there was no deduction of benefits from participants' existing balances. Nor did the court in Campbell consider it a reduction in benefits when the employer decided to stop benefits from continuing to accrue, and instead replaced accruals with a guaranteed interest rate. In each of these cases, the court determined whether the amendments impacted benefits retroactively or prospectively. Only where the amendments were considered retroactive did the court find them in violation of ERISA because, as the court found in Campbell, ERISA does not protect expected benefits.

The Defendants here made a decision to reduce employer contributions to the RIP 87 Plan and eventually eliminate them altogether. However, it did not in any way alter the balances of the individual accounts that had accrued in the RIP 87 Plan. Plaintiffs' facts do not dispute this. [*59] Nor did the Defendants act inconsistently with Plan documents by diverting employer contributions to the DB plan, which Plaintiffs allege, had already accrued to the RIP 87 Plan. Plaintiffs argue that since Plan documents mandate direct contribution to the RIP 87 Plan, any diversion of contributions to the DB Plan is a reduction in accrued benefit. However, as correctly quoted in Plaintiffs' own brief, the Second Amended and Restated Central Pennsylvania Teamsters Pension Trust Agreement counters the notion that RIP 87 Employers contributions are deposited directly and fully to the RIP 87 Plan. Specifically, it states that "Contributions paid to the Fund by RIP 1987 Employers shall be paid to RIP 1987, except as otherwise provided in Section 2.4, herein [emphasis added]." (See Art. II, Sec. 2.3.) In other words, contributions made by RIP 87 employers to the Fund are to be paid to the RIP 87 Plan, but only in accordance with the terms of Section 2.4, which initially reduced contributions to RIP 87 and then, as amended, stopped them altogether.

Other portions of the Second Amended Trust Agreement controvert Plaintiffs' contention that RIP 87 employer contributions directly [*60] accrued to the RIP 87 Plan, rather than the Fund. For example, the preamble to the Second Amended Trust Agreement makes it clear that employers make contributions to the "Fund," not to individual pension plans or individual accounts. It notes that employers "pay contributions to the Fund on behalf of their employees who were participants of the Fund." Furthermore, Section 7.1 of Article VII states that "No Employer, Employee, Union, Local Union or other party shall have any right, title or interest in or to the Fund or any part thereof." The relevant collective bargaining agreements conform to this principal by stating that employers obligate themselves to contribute to the Fund and not specific plans under the Fund. (See Art. 65 of the National Master United Parcel Service Agreement and Art. 50 of the National Master Freight Agreement.) Thus we find as a matter of law that employer contributions were to the Fund and not directly to the RIP 87 Plan. As such, the diversion of employer contributions to the DB Plan prior to their allocation to the RIP 87 Plan cannot be considered a reduction of accrued benefits in the RIP 87 Plan.

The only way in which we could conceive of Plaintiffs [*61] making a claim upon which relief could be granted here is if Plaintiffs had alleged that the balances in participants' accounts were reduced so that they no longer reflected the rate of accrual set out in Plan documents as of the time they were amended. For example, if the balance at the time of amendment was recalculated using a monthly contribution amount for the year 1997 that was less than the amount promised under the case of the National Master United Parcel Service Agreement ($ 737.52), that would seem to constitute a reduction in accrued benefits. However, Plaintiffs have not made such an allegation. As such, we must conclude that with regard to Count III, Plaintiffs have failed to state a claim upon which relief can be granted and the Motion to Dismiss Count III must therefore be granted. Plaintiffs' Count III claim is dismissed with prejudice.

D. Count IV

Plaintiffs' Count IV claim appears to be a variation of Count III, though we confess we had some difficulty understanding the basis for the claim. It relies on section § 203(a) of ERISA, which states that "each pension plan shall provide that an employee's right to his normal retirement benefit is nonforfeitable [*62] upon the attainment of normal retirement age." 29 U.S.C. § 1053(a). Plaintiffs appear to argue from this, and their collective bargaining agreements, that they are entitled to "a nonforfeitable right to accrue and to ultimately receive payment of the pension benefits purchased by these employer contributions on their behalf."

We do not believe that Plaintiffs have stated a claim upon which relief can be granted in Count IV. A claim under § 203(a) of ERISA is only valid if accrued benefits have been withdrawn from participants' accounts. See Hughes Aircraft Co. v. Jacobson, 525 U.S. 432, 441, 119 S. Ct. 755, 142 L. Ed. 2d 881 (1999). It is not a guarantee that employers will make future contributions to pension plans. Since we have already found in Count III that Defendants' amendments to the pension plan did not reduce Plaintiffs' accrued benefits, we find that none of Plaintiffs' accrued benefits have been forfeited under § 203(a). Therefore Count IV must be dismissed with prejudice.

E. Count V

Count V of the Amended Complaint, asserted against Defendant Trustees and Defendant Fund Administrator, alleges illegal transfers of plan [*63] assets in violation of ERISA § 4231, 29 U.S.C. § 1411(a).<sup>15</sup> Specifically, Plaintiffs claim that the following five transactions constituted unlawful transfers of assets:

Defendant Trustees and Defendant Fund Administrator did not comply with the notice requirements of Section 4231(b)(1) or the valuation requirements of Section 4231(b)(4) when they (a) diverted employer contributions to and plan assets of the RIP 87 Plan to the DB Plan; (b) diverted participant forfeitures and plan assets of the RIP 87 Plan to the DB Plan; (c) transferred the RIP 2000 participants and associated assets out of the RIP 87 Plan; (d) diverted assets of the RIP 87 Plan into the DB Plan in March 2002 under Option 2; or (e) transferred all RIP 87 Plan participants and associated assets into the DB Plan in January 2003.

(Am. Compl. P 79.) As a result, "the accrued benefits of RIP 87 Plan participants were lower immediately following each of these transfers and diversions of plan assets, in violation of Section 4231(b)(2)." (Am. Compl. P 80.) Significantly, all of Plaintiffs' contentions arise out of transfers from a defined contribution plan into either a defined benefit [*64] or a second defined contribution plan. Because we determine that § 4231 of ERISA does not apply to transfers of assets to or from a defined contribution plan, Plaintiffs cannot prove any set of facts warranting relief.

15 29 U.S.C. § 1411 is part of the Multiemployer Pension Plan Amendments Act of 1980 ("MPPAA"), 29 U.S.C. §§ 1381-1461. The MPPAA was enacted as an amendment to ERISA, and is referenced as "Subtitle E-Special Provisions for Multiemployer Plans."

29 U.S.C. § 1411(a) provides that:

Unless otherwise provided in regulations prescribed by the corporation, a plan sponsor may not cause a multiemployer plan to merge with one or more multiemployer plans, or engage in a transfer of assets and liabilities to or from another multiemployer plan, unless such merger or transfer satisfies the requirements of subsection (b) of this section.

plan, as defined in paragraph (34) of section 1002 of this title...."

29 U.S.C. § 1411(b) provides in pertinent part:

A merger or transfer satisfies the requirements of this section if-

(1) in accordance with the regulations of the corporation, the plan sponsor of a multiemployer plan notifies the corporation of a merger with or transfer of plan assets or liabilities to another multiemployer plan at least 120 days before the effective date of the merger or transfer;

(2) no participant's or beneficiary's accrued benefit will be lower immediately after the effective date of the merger or transfer than the benefit immediately before that date;

(4) an actuarial valuation of the assets and liabilities of each of the affected plans has been performed during the plan year preceding the effective date of the merger or transfer, based upon the most recent data available as of the day before the start of that plan year, or other valuation of such assets and liabilities performed under such standards and procedures as the corporation may prescribe by regulation.

[*65] Section 4231 of ERISA is contained within title IV of the statute, 29 U.S.C. § 1301 et seq. 29 U.S.C. § 1321(a), located in title IV, subchapter III, subtitle B, enumerates the specific plan types that title IV does and does not encompass:

"(a) Plans covered

Except as provided in subsection (b) of this section, this subchapter applies to any plan...."

Subsection (b) of § 1321 then states:

"This section does not apply to any plan (1) which is an individual account

Plaintiffs do not dispute that the RIP 87 and RIP 2000 Plans are defined contribution plans, as that term is delineated by § 1002(34):

The term, "individual account plan" or "defined contribution plan" means a pension plan which provides for an individual account for each participant and for benefits based solely upon the amount contributed to the participants's account, and any income, expenses, gains and losses, and any forfeitures of accounts of other participants which may be allocated to such participant's account.

Defendants correctly posit that these definitions [*66] govern 29 U.S.C. § 1411, because this section is set forth in title IV, subchapter III, subtitle E of ERISA. Consequently, as title IV expressly excludes defined contribution plans from its domain, § 1411 does not regulate transfers of assets and liabilities between defined contribution plans, or between a defined contribution and a defined benefit plan. Bolstering this interpretation is a regulation promulgated by the Pension Benefit Guarantee Corporation ("PBGC"), an administrative agency within the United States Department of Labor charged with interpreting the MPPAA. The following regulation is applicable to part 2 of subsection E of ERISA, which includes 29 U.S.C. §§ 1411-1415.

(a) Purpose. The purpose of this part is to prescribe notice requirements under section 4231 of ERISA for mergers and transfers of assets or liabilities among multiemployer pension plans....

(b) Scope. This part applies to mergers and transfers among multiemployer plans where all of the plans immediately before and immediately after the transaction are multiemployer plans covered by title IV of ERISA.

29 C.F.R. § 4231.1 [*67] (emphasis added). The PBGC's interpretations of MPPAA provisions, while not binding, are entitled to substantial deference. Bd. of Trs. v. Foodtown, Inc., 296 F.3d 164, 169 (3d Cir. 2002). We believe that the PBGC's reading of these interrelated statutory provisions represents sound statutory interpretation. See Local 1115 Pension Fund v. Local 144 Hosp.

Pension Fund, 876 F. Supp. 39, 40-41 (S.D.N.Y. 1994) (deferring to analogous PBGC regulation in holding that subtitle E of title IV of ERISA does not apply to multiemployer plans that are defined contribution plans). Accordingly, we defer to it. Plaintiffs do not allege that unlawful transfers of assets occurred between defined benefit plans. Instead, they allege unlawful asset transfers from a defined contribution plan into either a defined benefit or second defined contribution plan. Section 4231 is simply not implicated in the latter scenario because, "all of the plans immediately before and immediately after the transaction" are not "multiemployer plans covered by title IV of ERISA." 29 C.F.R. § 4231.1. Plaintiffs can adduce no set [*68] of facts to substantiate a claim under § 4231 of ERISA. Defendants' Motion to Dismiss this claim is thus granted, and Plaintiffs' Count V claim is dismissed with prejudice.

F. Prohibited Transaction Claims

In Counts II, V, and VII of the Amended Complaint, Plaintiffs have alleged that Defendant Trustees and Defendant Fund Administrator engaged in various transactions in violation of ERISA § 406(a)(1)(D), 29 U.S.C. § 1106(a)(1)(D).<sup>16</sup> Congress enacted this section "to bar categorically a transaction that [is] likely to injure the pension plan." Comm'r v. Keystone Consol. Indus., Inc., 508 U.S. 152, 160, 113 S. Ct. 2006, 124 L. Ed. 2d 71 (1993). To effectuate this purpose, § 406(a)(1) "places certain transactions outside the scope of their [plan fiduciaries] lawful authority." Lockheed v. Spink, 517 U.S. 882, 888, 116 S. Ct. 1783, 135 L. Ed. 2d 153 (1996).

16 29 U.S.C. § 1106(a)(1)(D) states in pertinent part that:

(a) Transactions between plan and party in interest

(1) A fiduciary with respect to a plan shall not cause the plan to engage in a transaction, if he knows or should know that such transaction constitutes a direct or indirect-

(D) transfer to, or use by or for the benefit of a party in interest, of any assets of the plan.

[*69] To sustain an alleged transgression of § 406(a)(1)(D),<sup>17</sup> the Third Circuit requires that five elements be satisfied:

(1) the person or entity is "[a] fiduciary with respect to [the] plan"; (2) the fiduciary "causes" the plan to engage in the transaction at issue; (3) the transaction "uses" plan assets; (4) the transaction's use of the assets is "for the benefit of" a party in interest; and (5) the fiduciary "knows or should know" that elements three and four are satisfied.

Reich v. Compton, 57 F.3d 270, 278 (3d Cir. 1995) (quoting 29 U.S.C. § 1106(a)(1)(D)). When a fiduciary runs afoul of the rules promulgated in § 406(a)(1), ERISA § 409, 29 U.S.C. § 1109(a)<sup>18</sup> renders him/her personally liable for, inter alia, any losses the plan incurred as a result of the breach.

17 ERISA § 408 lists specific exceptions to the per se prohibitions in § 406. See 29 U.S.C. § 1108(b). Plaintiffs do not allege that any of these exceptions apply.

18 Section 409(a) provides:

Any person who is a fiduciary with respect to a plan who breaches any of the responsibilities, obligations, or duties imposed upon fiduciaries by this subchapter shall be personally liable to make good to such plan any losses to the plan resulting from each such breach, and to restore to such plan any profits of such fiduciary which has been made through use of assets of the plan by the fiduciary, and shall be subject to such other equitable or remedial relief as the court may deem appropriate, including removal of such fiduciary.

[*70] Specifically, Count II of the Amended Complaint states that the Defendants:

Entered into, or enabled or allowed, a series of per se prohibited transactions using plan assets, as more fully specified in this Complaint, including paying to the DB Plan retirees a "thirteenth check" in violation of the established minimum funding requirements for such payments and the terms of the Plan, and diverting contributions which had been allocated to and/or received by the RIP 87 Plan and hence were assets of that plan into the separate DB Plan.

(Am. Compl. P 64(d).)

Although we found that Plaintiffs have successfully alleged a breach of fiduciary duty claim stemming from Defendants' issuance of the "thirteenth check," see discussion infra Part V.B., we find that they have failed to adequately plead a claim for breach of § 406(a)(1)(D). The Amended Complaint does allege elements one, two and three of the § 406(a)(1)(D) claim—namely that Defendants acted in a fiduciary capacity when they issued the thirteenth check, that Defendants, as fiduciaries, caused the challenged transaction to occur, and that the transaction used plan assets. (Am. Compl. PP 37, 38, 62, 64(a). [*71] ) As noted above, however, element four of the five element test requires that the challenged transaction employ plan assets "for the benefit of" a party in interest. The Third Circuit has held that this factor requires manifestation of a subjective intent to benefit a party in interest. Compton, 57 F.3d at 279. In other words, it encompasses more than merely having "the effect of benefitting" a party in interest. Id. (emphasis added). Plaintiffs do assert that the Trustees on a continuing basis encouraged and allowed the Fund actuaries to improperly use outdated 1951 mortality tables ... to calculate the unfunded vested liability of the DB Plan in order to justify their conclusion that the DB Plan was 'fully funded,' that it required no additional employer contributions to satisfy its benefits obligations to participants and their beneficiaries, and that the continued payment of the 'thirteenth check' to retirees of the DB Plan was permissible under the terms of the DB Plan.

(Am. Compl. P 38.) We fail to recognize how this allegation can be construed as identifying the party in interest that was benefitted by the Defendants' issuance of the [*72] thirteenth check—a benefit paid to DB Plan participants. Certainly the allegation suggests that the employers benefitted as a result of Defendants' actions in ensuring that the Fund appeared to be fully funded. It does not allege or even insinuate, however, that a party in interest benefitted through the Defendants' decision to continue to pay bonus benefits to the DB Plan participants. Plaintiffs' failure to allege this element of a § 406(a)(1)(D) renders their claim fatal. As such, this prohibited transaction claim of Count II is dismissed without prejudice to Plaintiffs' right to file a Second Amended Complaint.

The second portion of the above quoted Amended Complaint also fails to state a claim warranting relief. (See Am. Compl. P 64(d).) Plaintiffs contend that the 2002 amendments to the 1999 Trust Agreement, that "diverted contributions which had been allocated to and/or received by the RIP 87 Plan ... into the separate DB Plan," (Id.), constituted a prohibited transaction under ERISA § 406(a)(1)(D). 29 U.S.C. § 1106(a)(1)(D) mandates that fiduciary status must exist for a transaction to constitute a prohibited one. See 29 U.S.C. § 1106(a)(1)(D) [*73] . As explicated in Part V.B.2. of this opinion, the 2002 amendments to the 1999 Trust Agreement were instituted by Defendants in their settlor capacity. See discussion infra Part V.B.2. Thus, § 406(a)(1)'s requirement of fiduciary status is not met. See Lockheed, 517 U.S. at 891, 116 S. Ct. 1783, 135 L. Ed. 2d 153. As a matter of law then, Plaintiffs cannot prove any set of facts with respect to the challenged plan amendments that would justify relief under § 406(a)(1)(D). This prohibited transaction claim of Count II is thus dismissed with prejudice.

Next, Count V of the Amended Complaint alleges that:

Inasmuch as defendant Trustees and defendant Fund Administrator did not comply with the requirements of Section 4231(a) and (b), the transfers constitute prohibited transactions under ERISA Section 406(a), 29 U.S.C. § 1106(a), pursuant to Section 4231(c).

(Am. Compl. P 81.) As Part V.E. of this opinion explains, ERISA § 4231 is not applicable to the circumstances presently confronting this Court. Moreover, as described above, the purported transfers were the product of Trust Amendments that we found the Defendants [*74] to have instituted in their settlor capacity. In addition, we found as a matter of law in Part V.C. of this opinion that the Trust documents provide for employer contributions into the Fund, as opposed to any of the individual plans that comprise the Fund. The Fund then distributes these employer contributions—plan assets—among the participating plans pursuant to the allocation formula set forth in the Trust Agreement. The various amendments to this Agreement reallocated a percentage of future RIP 87 employer contributions into the Fund to the DB Plan. Consequently, we determined that the existing assets of the RIP 87 Plan, a defined contribution plan, were never transferred to another plan. As discussed above, a prohibited transaction claim under § 406(a)(1)(D) requires there to be a transfer of plan assets. The unambiguous language of the plan documents precludes a finding that, by virtue of the Trust Amendments, plan assets were transferred out of the RIP 87 Plan. Accordingly, Plaintiffs have failed to state a prohibited transaction claim with respect to the supposed illegal transfer of plan assets. As such, this prohibited transaction claim of Count V is dismissed with prejudice.

[*75] Finally, Plaintiffs allege in Count VII of the Amended Complaint that:

Defendant Trustees and defendant Fund Administrator engaged in a series of prohibited transactions by, inter alia, paying the DB retirees a "thirteenth check" in violation of the established minimum funding requirements for such benefit.

(Am. Compl. P 87.) For the reasons set forth in the above discussion regarding the "thirteenth check," we find that Plaintiffs have failed to successfully state a claim for violation of ERISA § 406(a)(1)(D). Count VII continues:

In addition, defendant Trustees' and defendant Fund Administrator's agreement to accept, and their acceptance of, employer contributions made on behalf of RIP 87 Plan participants but then to divert those plan assets into the different DB Plan, for the benefit of the DB Plan, violates ... ERISA Section 406, because such payments are not for the sole and exclusive benefit of the employees for whom such contributions were made and received.... Such payments and diversions are also prohibited transactions under ERISA Section 406(a)(1)(D), 29 U.S.C. § 1106(a)(1)(D), because they constitute a direct or indirect [*76] use and transfer of assets of one plan (the RIP 87 Plan) to benefit employers who are parties in interest to that plan by reducing their independent funding obligations to another plan (the DB Plan).

(Am. Compl. P 88.) Once again, for the reasons reiterated above, this claim must be dismissed with prejudice.

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiffs' prohibited transaction claims are dismissed.

G. Count VI

Count VI of Plaintiffs' Amended Complaint advances the claim that Defendant Trustees and Defendant Fund Administrator breached relevant Collective Bargaining Agreements by amending the Trust Agreement so as to reallocate employer contributions from the RIP 87 Plan to the DB Plan. Specifically, Plaintiffs aver that:

Plaintiffs and other similarly situated Class members have contractual rights under their respective CBA's to employer contributions, which are made on their behalf in consideration of their current services to the employers, to be directed into their RIP 87 Plan accounts. Insofar as the CBA's define the employees' rights to pension benefits and contributions with respect to the RIP 87 Plan, the CBA's constitute documents and instruments governing [*77] the RIP 87 Plan. In violation of those rights under the Plan, defendant Trustees have purported to amend the Trust Agreement, and defendant Trustees and defendant Fund Administrator have acted, so as to divert all employer contributions from the RIP 87 Plan to the DB Plan without obtaining the necessary and corollary amendments of the relevant CBA's. In so doing, these defendants have violated the CBA instruments governing the RIP 87 Plan and breached their strict fiduciary duty to act in accordance with the CBA's.

(Am. Compl. P 83.) The CBAs relevant to the named Plaintiffs' participation in the Fund include the National Master Freight and Central Pennsylvania Supplemental Agreement, and the 1997 and 2002 National Master United Parcel Service agreement and Central Pennsylvania Supplemental Agreement. (See Defs.' Mem. at 29.) These CBAs unequivocally provide that employer contributions be made to the Central Pennsylvania Teamsters Pension Fund in accordance with the terms of the Trust Agreement and Pension Plan.<sup>19</sup> Although it thus appears that the relevant CBAs do not require that participating employers' contributions be allocated specifically to the RIP 87 Plan, nonetheless [*78] we accept as true at this stage of litigation Plaintiffs' assertion that "at all times following 1989, the CBA's pursuant to which employer contributions are owed to the Fund and the plan have directed that these employer contributions in varying amounts must be made into plaintiffs' and other Class members' accounts in the RIP 87 Plan." (Am. Compl. P 54.) We hesitate to construe the CBAs as a matter of law despite the unambiguous language of the above-referenced CBAs only because Plaintiffs allude to other possibly relevant CBAs and employer participation agreements that they claim support their allegation, but which they have not yet received through discovery.

19 Article 50(a) of the National Master Freight Agreement provides in relevant part:

"The Employer agrees to make the following contributions to the Central Pennsylvania Teamsters Pension Fund for each eligible employee, probationary and casual covered by this Agreement, in accordance with the terms of the Trust Agreement."

(emphasis added).

In addition, Article 50(c) states that "all contributions shall be made at such a time and in such a manner as the Trustees require..."

Similarly, Article 65(1)(a) of the relevant UPS Agreements provided:

The Employer hereby agrees to contribute to the Central Pennsylvania Teamsters Pension Fund the following monthly contributions, in accordance with the terms of the Trust Agreement and Pension Plan executed by the Employer, subject to the qualifications hereinafter specified: ... In addition, allocations between the Defined Benefit Plan and the Retirement Income Plan shall be made by the Joint Supplemental Area Committee in the manner determined by the Settlers [sic] of the Central Pennsylvania Teamster Pension Fund, or, to the extent lawful, the Trustees of the Central Pennsylvania Teamsters Pension Fund.

[*79] Significantly, Plaintiffs' claim rests on the presupposition that the Trust Agreement does not conflict with the provisions in the CBAs that allegedly require employer contributions to be routed directly into the RIP 87 Plan. (See Pls.' Br. at 54 ("nothing in the provisions of the CBA's in this case, which expressly require that the employer contributions be paid to the RIP '87 or to the RIP 2000, in any way conflicts with the terms of the Trust Agreement.... In total, they require direction of employer contributions into particular plans and the Trustees do not have the discretion to do otherwise").) We found as a matter of law, however, that the Trust Agreement has at all times explicitly mandated that employer contributions be paid to the Fund, and then allocated to the various sub-plans comprising the Fund as provided by the Trust Agreement's allocation formula. See discussion infra Part V.C. Thus, contrary to Plaintiffs' assumption, there exists an apparent conflict between the Trust Agreement and the CBAs, as interpreted by Plaintiffs.

This conflict is pertinent because, in the absence of any provision in the Trust Agreement to the contrary, the Trust Agreement [*80] term will prevail over the conflicting CBA term. See Sinai Hosp. of Balt. v. Nat'l Benefit Fund for Hosp. & Health Care Employees, 697 F.2d 562, 567 (4th Cir. 1982) (holding that "labor-management contracting parties ... cannot control expenditures from funds already vested in a trust entity where the trust instrument reposes that authority solely with the trustees. Likewise, neither an employer nor a union, singly or together, can alter the terms of a trust instrument such as the one involved in this case unless the power to do so was reserved when the trust was created or properly amended"); see also Hale v. Trustees of United Mine Workers Health & Ret. Funds, 23 F.3d 899, 902 (4th Cir. 1994) (holding that collective bargaining agreement is not enforceable against trustees of pension fund); Cent. States, Southeast and Southwest Areas Pension Fund v. Tank Transport, Inc., 779 F. Supp. 947, 951 (N.D.Ill. 1991) (noting that trustees of multiemployer pension fund are not bound to arbitration provision in a collective bargaining agreement of a participating employer and its union). In short, the Trustees are bound only by the terms of [*81] the Trust Agreement. Consequently, they cannot be held liable for breaching a conflicting term in a CBA.

Nothing in the 1999 Trust Agreement indicates that the provisions of any CBA prevail over the terms of the Trust. As this Court has previously noted, "the provisions of the trust agreement provide the framework with which a court should analyze an employer's obligation to a ... fund." Cent. Pa. Teamsters Pension Fund v. W&L Sales, Inc., 778 F. Supp. 820, 829 (E.D.Pa. 1991) (quoting Ind. State Council of Roofers v. Adams Roofing, 753 F.2d 561, 564 (7th Cir. 1985)). The Trust Agreement itself belies Plaintiffs' argument that the Trust Agreement obligates the Trustees to comply with the terms of the CBAs insofar as the employers' contribution obligations are concerned. Indeed, the Trust Agreement sets forth the exact opposite proposition:

Each Employer shall make prompt contributions or payments to the Fund in such amount and pursuant to the terms and conditions set forth in this Agreement and the Collective Bargaining Agreement in effect from time to time between the Employer or his bargaining representative and the Local Union.... A Collective [*82] Bargaining Agreement or other written document that provides for Contributions to the Fund in an amount or in a manner that is not in accord with or does not comply with the Trust Agreement or with any rules promulgated by the Trustees ... is null and void to the extent of such inconsistency.

(1999 Trust Agreement, Art IV, Sec. 4.1(A).) This Court employed a similar analysis in W&L Sales to reach the same conclusion that the trust agreement, rather than the conflicting CBA, controlled determination of pension eligibility. 778 F. Supp. at 829-30.

Unless the Trust Agreement expresses otherwise, and we find that it does not, Defendants cannot be held liable for breaching a CBA term that conflicts with the unambiguous provisions of Trust Agreement. Accordingly, Count VI which contains Plaintiffs' claim for violation of collective bargaining documents must be dismissed with prejudice.

H. Count VII

Defendants move to dismiss Plaintiffs' claim for violation of § 302 of the Labor Management Relations Act ("LMRA"), 29 U.S.C. § 186. <sup>20</sup> Specifically, Plaintiffs contend that the Fund provisions providing for the allocation of contributions [*83] from participating RIP 87 Plan employers into the DB Plan violated §§ 302(b) and (c)(5) of the LMRA because such payments were not undertaken for the "sole and exclusive benefit of the [RIP 87 Plan] employees for whom such contributions were made and received." (Am. Compl. P 88.) In response, Defendants assert that § 302(e) of the LMRA does not create a private cause of action for purported violations of §§ 302(b) and (c)(5). <sup>21</sup> Additionally, Defendants argue that even if this Court had jurisdiction, no such transgression occurred because employer contributions to a multi-employer pension plan need only be used to benefit the Fund's beneficiaries, as opposed to the particular employee on whose behalf the employer contributed. (See Defs.' Mem. at 41-42.)

20 § 302(a) prohibits an employer, or association of employers, from, inter alia, rendering payments to any representative of its employees. This provision provides in part:

"(a) ... It shall be unlawful for any employer or association of employers ... to pay, lend, or deliver ... any money or other thing of value-

(1) to any representative of any of his employees, who are employed in an industry affecting commerce; or

(2) to any labor organization, or any officer or employee thereof, which represents, seeks to represent, or would admit to membership, any of the employees of such employer ...;"

§ 302(b)(1) prohibits employee representatives from receiving the payments proscribed by subsection (a). This provision provides:

"(b) ... (1) It shall be unlawful for any person to request, demand, receive, or accept, or agree to receive or accept, any payment, loan, or delivery of any money or other thing of value prohibited by subsection (a) of this section."

§ 302 (c) then enumerates exceptions to the broad prohibitions contained in subsections (a) and (b). This provision provides in pertinent part:

"(c) ... The provisions of this section shall not be applicable ... (5) with respect to money or other thing of value paid to a trust fund established by such representative, for the sole and exclusive benefit of the employees of such employer, and their families and dependents (or of such employees, families, and dependents jointly with the employees of other employers making similar payments, and their families and dependents): Provided, That (A) such payments are held in trust for the purpose of paying, either from principal or income or both, for the benefit of employees, their families and dependents, for medical or hospital care, pensions on retirement or death of employees, ...; (B) the detailed basis on which such payments are to be made is specified in a written agreement with the employer, and employees and employers are equally represented in the administration of such fund ...; and (c) such payments as are intended to be used for the purpose of providing pensions or annuities for employees are made to a separate trust which provides that the funds held therein cannot be used for any purpose other than paying such pensions or annuities; ... "

21 § 302(e) states:

"(e) The district courts of the United States and the United States courts of the Territories and possessions shall have jurisdiction, for cause shown, and subject to the provisions of section 381 of title 28 (relating to notice to opposing party) to restrain violations of this section, without regard to the provisions of section 17 of title 15 and section 52 of this title, and the provisions of chapter 6 of this title."

Plaintiffs failed to adequately reply to this part of Defendants' Motion to Dismiss.<sup>22</sup> Therefore, we dismiss Plaintiffs' LMRA claim against Defendants pursuant to Local Rule of Civil Procedure 7.1(c). See Toth v. Bristol Township, 215 F. Supp. 2d 595, 598 (E.D.Pa. 2002) (dismissing plaintiff's claim on Motion to Dismiss under Local Rule 7.1 because plaintiff did not respond to portion of defendants' motion discussing claim); Smith v. Nat'l Flood Ins. Program, 156 F. Supp. 2d 520, 522 (E.D.Pa. 2001) ("Because plaintiffs failed to address defendants' motion to dismiss with respect to defendants' argument that [*85] costs, interest, and attorneys' fees are not recoverable under the National Flood Insurance Act, the court will grant this aspect of the defendants' motion to dismiss as unopposed"). We suppose that, given their lack of response, Plaintiffs do not challenge this dismissal.

22 Plaintiffs' Brief In Opposition discusses the prohibited transaction claims comprising Count VII, but fails to assert any arguments in support of Count VII's LMRA claims. Plaintiffs merely state that, "this [prohibited transaction claim] is true whether or not LMRA Section 302(b), 29 U.S.C. § 186(b), confers an independent basis of jurisdiction." (Pls.' Br. at 58.)

Even if we were to undertake a cursory examination of the claim, however, we would find that we do not have jurisdiction to adjudicate it. Plaintiffs' claim contests Defendant Trustees and Defendant Fund Administrator's administration of the Fund's assets. (See Am. Compl. P 88.) Such a claim is permissibly brought, and indeed has been brought, under, [*86] inter alia, the fiduciary duty provisions of ERISA. (See generally Am. Compl.) The Supreme Court has made clear that an attack on the actual administration of trust funds cannot be properly brought under §§ 302(b) and (c)(5) of the LMRA, because these provisions are directed towards policing the purposes for which a trust fund is established.

We hold today that § 302(e) does not provide authority for a federal court to issue an injunction against a trust fund or its trustees requiring the trust funds to be administered in the manner described in § 302(c)(5). By its unmistakable language, § 302(e) provides district courts with jurisdiction "to restrain violations of this section." A "violation" of § 302 occurs when the substantive restrictions in §§ 302(a) and (b) are disobeyed, which happens, not when funds are administered by the trust fund, but when they are "paid, lent, or delivered" to the trust fund, § 302(a), or when they are "received, or accepted" by the trust fund, or "requested, [or] demanded" for the trust fund, § 302(b)(1). And the exception to violation set forth in paragraph (c)(5) relates, not to the purpose for which the trust fund is in [*87] fact used (an unrestricted fund that happens to be used "for the sole and exclusive benefit of the employees" does not qualify); but rather to the purpose for which the trust fund is "established," § 302(c)(5), and for which the payments are "held in trust," § 302(c)(5)(A). The trustees' failure to comply with these latter purposes may be a breach of their contractual or fiduciary obligations and may subject them to suit for such breach; but it is no violation of § 302.

Local 144 Nursing Home Pension Fund v. Demisay, 508 U.S. 581, 587-89, 113 S. Ct. 2252, 124 L. Ed. 2d 522 (1993). Accordingly, Count VII which contains Plaintiffs' allegation under the LMRA would be dismissed with prejudice pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6) had we not already dismissed this claim under Local Rule of Civil Procedure 7.1(c).

VI. Conclusion

For the foregoing reasons, Defendants' Motion to Dismiss is granted in part and denied in part. An appropriate order follows.

Case in Detroit Highlights Costs of 'Extra' Pension Payments

By Mary Williams Walsh

October 22, 2013 7:49 pm

The constitutions of some states, including Michigan, explicitly bar the cutting of public pensions. But what about extra payments promised to Detroit's workers and retirees?

The city's pension system made extra payments for decades to thousands of people, on the thinking that the base pensions were too small. The pension board thought it found the money for the extra payments by skimming off "the excess" when returns on investments exceeded the plan's target — 7.9 percent in Detroit.

But the pension fund also had years when its investments fell short of the target. And with millions of dollars being paid out each year in the extras, the fund missed out on all the investment income that money would have brought in. So the extra payments fundamentally undercut the health of the pension plan.

Nor is Detroit alone in making the extra payments — known variously as "the 13th check," "the skim fund," "the bump up," "the waterfall" and so on. New York City; Phoenix; San Jose, Calif.; and Tampa, Fla., along with some of the public plans in Illinois, Indiana, Texas and Mississippi also have the add-ons.

The problems with the extra payments have long been known. San Diego ran into a financial quagmire in the early 2000s after years of removing "excess earnings" from its pension fund to sweeten benefits. The city finally had to bring in a forensic team led by Arthur Levitt Jr., a former chairman of the Securities and Exchange Commission, to sort out the mess. Mr. Levitt found "not mere negligence, but deliberate disregard for the law" in San Diego's pension practices.

Unlike company pension plans, which are tightly regulated by the federal government, public plans are largely governed by their boards of trustees. And officials outside San Diego seem not to have thought that Mr. Levitt's message applied to them.

The federal judge dealing with the Detroit bankruptcy is left, then, with a conundrum: The pension extras have cost Detroit billions of dollars over the years, hastening the city's downfall, yet state laws say the extra payments must continue.

Earlier this month, a state labor judge ruled that Detroit illegally interfered with its pension system two years ago, when it stopped the extra payments in a last-ditch effort to save money and avoid bankruptcy. (The base pensions are still being paid.)

"The city's conduct was unlawful and constitutes a refusal to bargain in good faith," wrote Doyle O'Connor, a state administrative law judge. Unions are likely to cite his finding in bankruptcy court this week to bolster their arguments that Detroit should not even be in federal bankruptcy court. Bankruptcy law requires that Detroit show that it bargained in good faith with its creditors, to no avail, before seeking relief in federal bankruptcy court.

Judge O'Connor said he was not ruling on the wisdom of the add-ons, only on whether the City Council could unilaterally stop them. He ordered that the add-ons for 2011 and 2012 be paid retroactively. But, given Detroit's bankruptcy, he likened his order to a ticket refund for passengers on the deck of the Titanic.

If Detroit does qualify for protection under Chapter 9 of the bankruptcy code, the presiding federal judge, Steven Rhodes, may override Michigan's constitution and cut the pensions.

Cities and states around the country are watching Detroit's case closely. Many of them are struggling with pension plans that are overwhelming their finances, and a surprising number also make the extra payments.

Detroit's pension trustees distributed the extra payments not only to retirees and active workers, but also effectively gave some to the city in the form of reduced annual pension contributions.

"We were saving the city money," said Tina Bassett, a spokeswoman for Detroit's pension trustees.

But a study in 2011 by an outside actuary showed that the extra payouts were actually costing Detroit billions of dollars, although it was hard to see because the city's disclosures were sketchy. Actuaries model pension costs over the long term, and when trustees find "excess" money year by year and spend it, they defeat the fundamental premise of the plan — that investment gains, not local taxpayers, will pay most of the cost.

"This sounds like San Diego," Mr. Levitt said when told about Detroit's program. "It appears to lack transparency, and it appears deceptive, in terms of not defining the true cost of the pension."

In San Diego, officials also decided that the "excess earnings" of the pension fund allowed the city to reduce its required annual contributions. In fact, that worsened the damage because after making all the extra payments, the pension fund needed more money from the city, not less.

The San Diego pension fund seemed to doing fine for a while, but under the surface it grew shakier and shakier, and finally broke down after the technology stock crash in 2001. The resulting scandal led to a shake-up of the city government, indictments, civil lawsuits and a federal charge of securities fraud — the first against an American city for pension malfeasance.

Auditors called the notion of excess earnings "the snake in the garden," and San Diego lost vital access to the municipal bond market for a time. Its pension fund was found to have a huge shortfall, and officials openly discussed declaring bankruptcy.

For all that, San Diego's retirees still receive their extra checks — about $4.7 million worth last year. The add-ons remain contentious, though. Last year, city residents voted overwhelmingly to close the existing pension plan to new hires. Savings from that change will take many years to appear.

The actuary advising San Diego's pension trustees at the time, Rick Roeder, said the disaster was caused by faulty thinking about pension math.

"There is no actuarial justification for 13th checks," he said in a telephone interview from his home in La Mesa, Calif. "A 7-year-old child could understand this. It's laughable that this could happen, but it did."

Mr. Roeder and his firm, Gabriel Roeder Smith & Company, were both sued by San Diego's city attorney during the pension scandal there, but he was soon dropped as an individual defendant. When his contract with the San Diego pension board expired, he did not seek to have it renewed. Gabriel Roeder Smith settled with San Diego for undisclosed terms.

The firm has also advised Detroit's pension trustees and has been subpoenaed in that city's bankruptcy case, but the documents it provided are not in the public record. The firm said in a statement that its role was limited, that it did not determine the payment of benefits, that decisions were made by the trustees and that it was not a fiduciary, with the associated higher duties to the plan and its members.

"Gabriel Roeder Smith & Company has consistently performed its work for the Retirement Systems professionally and in keeping with industry standards," the firm said.

In San Diego, Mr. Levitt wrote: "Of all of the board's advisers, Mr. Roeder was most qualified to understand, and explain to the board, the basic conceptual mistake" it was making in removing "excess earnings" from the pension fund. By failing to do so, and giving the pension fund "sound" annual valuations, "Mr. Roeder facilitated the perpetuation of the underfunding scheme and breached his professional obligations."

Mr. Roeder said in the interview that he thought "the actuarial community, in general," had not been "as explicit as we could have been" about unsustainable pension costs. He said many places in California had granted rich benefits, then sought relief when they found they could not afford the contributions. When he tried to warn clients, they dismissed him, he said. He is now semiretired.

“Many entities in California are watching the Detroit situation like a hawk,” he said. “There will be a number of entities, in my opinion not a small number, that will be willing to put up with the expense and stigma of bankruptcy if the judge says, ‘Look, federal bankruptcy law supersedes the state law protections of pensions.’ ”

RE: Proposed Pension Ordinance Amendment – Codifying the Distribution of Investment Earnings for the Detroit General Retirement System

In connection with the pension ordinance amendment introduced by Council Member Jenkins and under consideration by your Honorable Body I am submitting as Attachment I the preliminary report from Mr. Joseph Esuchanko, MAAA, ASA, MSPA, FCA, EA of Actuary Services Company. His services were utilized by the Pension Reform Working Group to present an independent analysis on the past practice of the Detroit General Retirement System (DGRS) concerning the distribution of earnings. I believe each member has received this preliminary report through your representative on the Pension Reform Working Group.

Adoption of the pension ordinance amendment will result in reduced pension contribution requirements from the city because contributions from the city for pensions and the accumulated interest on these contributions, or assets in the funds of the retirement system for pension payments will be protected from being used for other purposes. The reduction or savings will not be immediate, that is cannot address the current cash crisis, but will begin next fiscal year when the percentage of payroll pension contribution rate is determined by the next annual valuation report.

Actuary Services Company information and Mr. Esuchanko's credentials include:

"Since 1984, Actuarial Service Company, P.C. has provided actuarial consulting and full-service retirement plan administration to clients ranging from small, closely held companies to large corporations and government entities.

The company is owned and managed by Joseph Esuchanko, an Enrolled Actuary with more than 35 years of experience in the actuarial profession. Mr. Esuchanko is an associate of the Society of Actuaries and a member of the American Academy of Actuaries and the American Society of Pension Actuaries. His professional expertise has been cited in articles published by The Houston Chronicle, New York Times, Christian Science Monitor, and Fortune."

Accumulated Cost to the City:

Mr. Esuchanko's report provides a comprehensive discussion on the information and methods he used to determine "The approximate accumulated cost to the City, due to excess earnings being distributed to DGRS members, rather than being applied to the contractual DGRS benefits, is $1.9212 billion." This statement is found at the bottom of page 9 of the attached report.

The excess earnings include bonus interest payments to active employees' annuity accounts and "13th checks to retirees. For active employees the bonus interest represents interest above the amount declared by the trustees which has generally matched the actuarial assumed interest rate as set by the trustees.

Intent of Proposed Ordinance Amendment

In the past the trustees of the DGRS have exercised total discretion on how investment earnings are distributed within the retirement system. The trustees have granted bonus interest to active employee annuity accounts and additional pension payments to retirees commonly known as 13th checks. The decision by the trustees on distribution of investment earnings has substantially increased the cost to the city of funding the pension system as shown by Mr. Esuchanko's analysis.

The proposed pension ordinance will codify how investment earnings will be distributed within the system. As such this ordinance amendment does not change pension benefits and does not require an actuarial study. The amendment requires that active employees' annuity accounts will be credited with the actual rate of return that the investments of the system earn for the year, with a cap of the actuarial assumed investment rate of return, currently 7.9% per the last retirement system valuation for June 30, 2010, and a floor of zero that protects the employees' annuity from losses.

In any year that the system experiences a loss, since the employees' accounts will not be reduced, the city will incur increased funding requirements. However to offset this, in years when investment earnings exceed the actuarially assumed rate of return the city will incur a reduction in funding requirements, as the employees' annuity accounts will be capped. In theory the assumed actuarial rate of return should approach the actual performance of the system over time.

Simplified Example of Past Practice

In reality the DGRS has five funds, excluding funds required for pension obligation certificates. For this discussion I will limit the example to two funds as this reduces the complexity and highlights the way the city has lost in the past. The two funds are the pension fund and the annuity fund. The balance in the pension fund consists of the contributions from the city to fund pensions and the interest the contributions have accumulated. The annuity fund consists of voluntary employee payroll deductions, a savings account of sorts, and the interest the account has accumulated. The annuity fund is maintained by individual employee.

For this example each fund will have a beginning balance of $1.0 million. For investment purposes the funds are combined for a total investment of $2.0 million. The board of trustees establishes the assumed rate of return and sets a percentage that the annuity fund is "guaranteed" and for the following examples will be 5% in both cases.

For the first case the actual earnings on the invested pool of pension and annuity funds will be 0%, the funds will neither make or loss money on the investments. Since the annuity fund has a "guaranteed" return of 5%, the annuity fund must be increased by $50,000 ($1.0 million times 5% equals $50,000). The only place the $50,000 to increase the annuity fund can come from is the pension fund. So the pension fund is reduced by $50,000 and the annuity fund is increased by $50,000. Or the pension fund now has a balance of $950,000, and the annuity fund has a balance of $1,050,000. This results in the creation of an unfunded actuarial accrued liability (UAAL) in the pension fund which causes future contributions by the city for pensions to increase.

For the second case let's assume the $2.0 million earns exactly 5%, or $100,000. If the $100,000 was split evenly between the pension fund and the annuity fund there would not be a problem. Each fund would increase by $50,000, to $1,050,000 each. A UAAL would not be created and the city's contributions for pensions have increased by the exact amount of the assumption.

For the third case the assumption for earnings will be 7%, or $140,000. If the $140,000 is split equally again there would not be a problem. In fact, since the earnings exceed the assumed rate of return the pension system would be slightly over funded. The overfunding could reduce future contributions required by the city to fund pensions. However, since the split of the investment earnings has been at the sole discretion of the trustees, an equal split has not always taken place. If the split of the earnings is made so that the pension fund does not receive at least $50,000, again a UAAL would be created and future city pension contributions would have to increase.

In order to show how easily it is for the pension fund not to get credit for at least the $50,000 required to match the assumed rate of return and not create a UAAL, let's bring in the retirees 13th check. So now there are three funds/groups involved and the decision is made to split the earnings three ways, or take the $140,000 divide by 3 equals $46,666. Since the pension fund would not receive the $50,000 required to meet the assumed rate of return a UAAL is created, increasing future funding required from the city.

Unfortunately over time the third case or variations of it have taken place leading to the city having to make additional contributions to the retirement system.

Summary

The proposed ordinance amendment will address most of the situations where pension fund balances or assets can be diverted to the annuity fund or used to pay 13th checks to retirees increasing future contributions to pension by the city. The only situation where this will happen in the future if the amendment is adopted will be in years when the system loses money on investments. Since the ordinance contains a floor of zero for the annuity fund to prevent losses to the annuity fund, the losses of both the pension and annuity funds will have to be fully absorbed by the pension fund, similar to case one above. To offset this, in years when investment earnings exceed the actuarially assumed rate, the pension fund will gain, reducing pension contribution requirements. Hopefully over time will the two will balance out for the city.

Contributions That Should Have Been Paid by the City of Detroit
To the General Retirement System
Assuming No Distribution of "Excess" Earnings

Objective

I have prepared an analysis of the City of Detroit (City) contributions to the City of Detroit General Retirement System (DGRS) from July 1, 1987 through June 30, 2008. My review included determination of the following values for all periods between July 1, 1985 and June 30, 2008:

- A. The contributions that were paid by the City to the DGRS retirement fund.
- B. The total contribution that would have been paid by the City to the DGRS retirement fund if the excess earnings had not been distributed.
- C. The difference between A and B, which I will refer to as the overage.
- D. The accumulation of C, including the investment returns that would have been earned on that difference.

The contributions paid by the City during this period were higher than the contributions determined using the increased assets which would have resulted if the distributed excess earnings had been applied to the funding of contractual retirement benefits. This is the result of a reduction in the unfunded actuarial accrued liability (UAAL) and a corresponding decrease in the annual amortization payments.<sup>1</sup>

Information Used

This section summarizes the information I used to assist me in determining the amount that the City would have contributed. The fiscal years run from July 1 to the next June 30. Thus, I show, for example, the fiscal year from July 1, 2003 through June 30, 2004 as the 2003/2004 fiscal year.

I received a list of distributed excess contributions from July 1, 1985 through June 30, 2008. The list of the distributed excess earnings is in Table 1. The City makes contributions annually to fund the liabilities of the DGRS retirement fund. I have assumed that such contributions are made in equal monthly installments throughout the fiscal year. The actuarial valuations showed total contributions, including both City contributions and Employee contributions. The City share of contributions was accounted for separately from the Employee share. The list of City contributions is in Table 2.

<sup>1</sup> Excess earnings distribution amounts for the July 1, 2008 through June 30, 2010 fiscal year were not provided to me.

The Actuarially Redetermined Contributions

The contributions made by the City prior to July 1, 1987 were determined using asset amounts exclusive of the distribution of any excess earnings. Beginning with the City contribution for 1987/1988<sup>4</sup>, the City actuarially redetermined contributions were determined using assets increased by the hypothetical inclusion of distributed excess earnings. The actual City contributions were greater than would have been required using the hypothetically increased assets.

The actuarially determined contributions, as reported by the DGRS actuary in each fiscal year, were calculated through the following procedure:

1. Calculate the normal cost, which is the cost associated with the current fiscal year of additional service covered by DGRS.
2. Calculate the actuarial accrued liability (AAL), which is the present value of costs associated with all prior fiscal years of service covered by DGRS.
3. Obtain the value of plan assets.
4. Determine the unfunded actuarial accrued liability (UAAL), which is line 2 decreased by line 3.
5. Amortize the UAAL from line 4.

6. The contribution is the sum of the normal cost (line 1) and the amortization of the UAAL (line 5).

The process used to determine the overage for fiscal years after June 30, 1987 is different from the process above. If the distributed excess earnings had instead been included in the actuarial value of assets, the actuarially redetermined contribution amounts, beginning with the 1987/1988 fiscal year, would have been smaller after June 30, 1987. The inclusion of the distributed excess earnings, combined with the smaller City contributions, would have increased the fund value used in the actuarial reports beginning with the June 30, 1986 report. Therefore, I had to take into account the increase in the fund value in the determination of contribution rates applied to fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 1987.

Beginning with the June 30, 1986 actuarial valuation, the normal cost from line 1 above and the AAL from line 2 above would have been unchanged, because there was no change in actuarial assumptions. However, the actuarial value of assets would have been higher. These higher amounts would first increase contributions in the 1987/1988 fiscal year, since contribution rates are determined two fiscal years in advance. Therefore, I had to take into account the increase in the contribution rate in the determination of contribution rates applied to fiscal years beginning on or after July 1, 1987.

For June 30, 1986 and later valuations, I replaced the reported assets in the above equation (item 3) with the sum of (1) the reported assets and (2) the increase in fund value which would have resulted if the distributed excess earnings had been allocated instead for contractual DGRS benefits. The increased fund is the accumulated shortfall in assets, with investment return. I assumed that the full investment return would be included in the actuarial value of assets. In fact, the assets were valued at cost in the early years of this study and after that the investment gains and losses were smoothed over a period of years and added to the prior year's actuarial value of assets. My approach generally results in a slightly lower redetermined contribution amount than would have actually occurred.

The 1986/1987 contribution was based on the June 30, 1985 actuarial valuation and, therefore, it would not have been affected by the 1985 distribution of excess earnings. The 1987/1988 contribution was based on the June 30, 1986 actuarial valuation. Since the June 30, 1986 actuarial valuation would have included the 1985 distribution of excess earnings, it, and all subsequent actuarial valuations, would have produced lower City contributions.

In redetermining the contribution rates for the June 30, 1986 and later actuarial valuations, I replaced the reported assets in the above equation (item 3) with the sum of (a) the reported assets and (b) the increase in the fund value which would have resulted if the City had contributed the actuarially redetermined contribution. The increased fund is the accumulated shortfall in assets, with investment return.

The accumulated shortfall, with investment return, at the end of each fiscal year beginning with June 30, 1986 was determined using the following method:

1. Obtain the shortfall at the beginning of the fiscal year.
2. Calculate the additional shortfall in the City contribution during the fiscal year.
3. Determine the additional investment return that would have been earned by the increased fund during the fiscal year.
4. The shortfall at the end of the fiscal year is then the sum of the three amounts.

The investment return was composed of two parts. The first part was the investment return on the shortfall at the beginning of the fiscal year. This is the investment return during the fiscal year as shown in Table 3 times the fund at the beginning of the fiscal year. The second part was the investment return on the lower contributions. For this, I assumed that the lower contributions would have been made in equal monthly installments throughout the fiscal year.

Table 4 shows the overage in contributions for each fiscal year and the accumulation of the overage, using the earnings rates from Table 3, through June 30, 2008.

Table 5 shows the Increase in assets if the distributed excess earnings had been allocated to DGRS contractual benefits, using earnings rates from Table 3, through June 30, 2008. In fiscal year 1989/1990, for instance, the amount that should have been contributed was $46.8 million compared to the $56.1 million actually contributed. Thus there was a preliminary annual decrease in assets of $9.3 million. Then, $35.7 million was added to that, since distributed excess earnings were assumed to be allocated to contractual DGRS benefits. Therefore, the total annual increase in assets was $26.4 million. The accumulated increase in assets through June 30, 1989 was $156.6 million and the accumulated increase in assets as of June 30, 1990 was $192.4 million.

Table 5 summarizes the sources of the contribution overage. Item (1) is the sum of the contributions that should have been made, which is objective B stated at the beginning of my report. Item (2) is the contributions which were made, which is objective A. Item (3) is the total overage which is objective C. Item (4) is the total investment return that would have been earned on the shortfall. Item (5) is the total accumulated shortfall including the investment return, which is objective D.

1           THE CLERK: All rise. Court is in session. You may
2 be seated. Calling the matter of City of Detroit, Michigan,
3 13-53846.

4           MS. LENNOX: Good morning, your Honor. For the 5 record, Heather Lennox of the city on behalf -- or Heather
6 Lennox of Jones Day on behalf of the city. We're here before
7 your Honor this morning on an objection to two parts of the 8 omnibus claim that AFSCME filed against the city in this 9 case. That's Claim Number 2958. Specifically, we are here
10 on the first issue, which is line 7 in the description of 11 claims filed by AFSCME, and that relates to a proceeding -- a 12 grievance that the -- that AFSCME had filed with respect to 13 the 2011 change to the city ordinances that prohibited the 14 payment of 13th checks and also limited the amount of 15 interest that could be credited to a participant's annuity
16 savings fund account. That would be the line 7 claim.

17           The line 17 claim is a claim for -- it's an unfair
18 labor practice with respect to changes in retiree healthcare
19 benefits that the city implemented back in 2006.

20           I should say that with respect to the line 7 claim, 21 the 13th check claim, AFSCME is asking for damages related to 22 the years 2011 and 2012, but what we're doing here
23 fundamentally today, your Honor, is objecting to these 24 portions of the claim, and I say this because, although it
25 seems obvious, after reading AFSCME's brief, I got the

1 impression that they were a bit confused about what a
2 bankruptcy claim is and what effect bankruptcy has on those 3 claims, so while I know the Court understands this, I want to 4 make a few things clear for the claimant. The definition of 5 the claim that will be treated by the plan of adjustment, we 6 define that in the plan, and we define that as a claim as 7 defined in Section 1015 of the Bankruptcy Code against the 8 city. The definition of claim under Section 1015 of the 9 Bankruptcy Code is, "any right to payment, whether or not 10 such right is reduced to judgment, liquidated, unliquidated,
11 fixed, contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed,
12 legal, equitable, secured or unsecured," or it is, "any right
13 to an equitable remedy for breach of performance if such 14 breach gives rise to a right to payment, whether or not such 15 right to an equitable remedy is reduced to judgment, fixed,
16 contingent, matured, unmatured, disputed, undisputed,
17 secured, or unsecured." It's an exceedingly broad definition
18 and deliberately so, as your Honor found in the In re. Lipa
19 case. I hope I pronounced that name correctly. But this 20 includes both claims for past due amounts and for future or 21 prospective payments on account of any liability or 22 obligation of a debtor that accrued or arose prior to the 23 petition date. That's what a claim is. It encompasses all 24 rights to payment or any payments that were due whether they 25 were due pre-petition or whether they come due post-petition

1 or in the future as long as it's related to a liability or an
2 obligation that arose prior to the petition date.

3           So here -- and I'll take the two claims separately.
4 I'll start with Item 7, which is the 13th check claim. Here
5 AFSCME's claim for damages in Item Number 7, which, if 6 granted, would be increased pension payments for the years
7 2011 and 2012, that claim is a claim that has to be addressed
8 in the plan of adjustment. I think AFSCME seemed to indicate 9 in the brief that the plan of adjustment only deals with 10 future pension payments, and, again, that really 11 misapprehends the nature of what a claim in bankruptcy is, 12 and, in fact, it is a claim that is addressed already in the 13 plan of adjustment. And, of course, everything I say, your 14 Honor, assumes that the plan of adjustment will eventually be 15 confirmed by your Honor and its terms become operative, but 16 that claim in the plan of adjustment is called a GRS pension
17 claim. And, again, in keeping with the concept of a claim, 18 the GRS pension claim definition is exceedingly broad and 19 deliberately so, so it would capture all aspects of pension
20 payments or other pension obligations and leave nothing out.
21 In fact -- and we cited the definition in our papers -- but 22 the operative language is that it's a claim based upon,
23 arising under or related to any agreement, commitment, or 24 other obligation, whether evidenced by contract, agreement, 25 rule, regulation, ordinance, statute, or law for (a) any

1 pension, disability or other post-retirement payment or 2 distribution in respect to the employment of current or 3 former employees or (b) the payment by the GRS to persons who
4 at any time participated in, were beneficiaries of or accrued
5 post-retirement pension or financial benefits under the GRS.
6 That is all-encompassing. And this definition, which is 7 embodied in the plan, which, as you know, your Honor, for -- 8 at least with respect to the global pension settlement and 9 the grand bargain, that arose from the global pension
10 settlement. And the agreement that arose from it is embodied
11 in the language in the plan. That settlement was negotiated 12 with all of the union and retiree representatives in the 13 case, including GRS and including AFSCME. AFSCME has never 14 objected to this definition in the plan. AFSCME, in fact, 15 supported the plan and encouraged its members to vote in 16 favor of the plan, and, in fact, AFSCME has signed up to a 17 new CBA with the city that is faithful to the terms of the 18 plan and, in fact, makes no mention whatsoever of ASF or 13th
19 check payments or references the applicable ordinance.

20           However, now AFSCME wants to claim that somehow its 21 claim for the 2001 and 2012 13 check pension payment survives
22 and somehow morphs into a Class 14 general unsecured claim, 23 and that argument has to fail for several reasons. The 24 first -- and in its brief AFSCME asserts this. It asserts
25 that it filed its proof of claim and they filed it as a Class

1 14 claim, but when a claimant files a claim, all it is is a
2 filed claim. It is the plan that classifies the claims as 3 they are filed, and just as a creditor files an omnibus proof
4 of claim that can encompass many different kinds of claims --
5 in fact, in this case, we've had the insurers for various 6 bond debt issuances that filed one claim, and they filed
7 claims for UTGOs and LTGOs and COPs, and all of those claims,
8 although they were contained in one piece of paper, are 9 classified in separate classes under the plan of adjustment.
10 So too here AFSCME filed several claims. Some are for 11 ordinary grievances under the labor agreements. Some are for 12 OPEB benefits. Some are for pension benefits. And they are,
13 likewise, separately classified in the plan. So our position
14 is that any pension-related claims or claims where increased 15 pension benefits would be a remedy go into Class 11, at least 16 for GRS, because of the broad definition of GRS pension
17 claim, and claims for enhanced pension benefits under a 13th
18 check practice are included in the definition that I went 19 through before. AFSCME suggests that, quote, crediting of an 20 account with excess interest doesn't count as a payment I
21 believe is an unavailing argument for a couple of reasons.
22 First, 13th checks are more than just crediting. They're 23 actual payments. People get an actual check. That's why 24 it's called a 13th check. Secondly, even if it were just 25 crediting, this is simply an unmatured claim for a payment in

1 the future, which is within the definition of claim under
2 Section 1015 of the Bankruptcy Code. Secondly, whether a 3 claim for the 13th checks would be due in payment today or in 4 the future, the fact that the alleged liability for this
5 cause of action arose prior to the city's petition date --
6 specifically, it would have accrued in 2011 when the 7 ordinance was changed, and that makes these types of claims
8 pre-petition claims that can be and are treated in the plan
9 and can be discharged in this bankruptcy case. I think, your 10 Honor, that that's all the analysis that's really needed with 11 respect --

12 THE COURT: Well, let's pause here and ask do you 13 actually object to the claims, or do you object to the 14 treatment that the proof of claim asks for --

15 MS. LENNOX: Well, that's --

16 THE COURT: -- as being applicable instead of the 17 treatment that you say the plan would provide?

18 MS. LENNOX: So I think we object to both, your 19 Honor. In the brief we focused on -- although the reason for 20 no liability is also in there as well, but in the brief we 21 focused on that these are really subsumed in Class 11 of the 22 plan and should not be independently Class 14 claims. Our 23 brief, as you may know about, the full claim is due tomorrow,
24 and your Honor has a hearing scheduled on November 5th on 25 account of it, but we also believe that there's no liability

1 for this claim because we believe --

2 THE COURT: Well, but what difference does it make 3 if there's no liability or not -- if there is liability or 4 not if you are correct that the plan will treat whatever the 5 liability is in the way that the plan proposes to treat it?

6 MS. LENNOX: You're correct, your Honor. If your 7 Honor would find, as we believe is appropriate, that this is 8 subsumed within Class 11, that treatment is already 9 specified, and so the actual liability on it would never have 10 to be determined because that was settled and was in there.

11 THE COURT: Because neither the pension claimants
12 nor the OPEB claimants were required to file claims; right?

13 MS. LENNOX: That is correct because they were going 14 to be treated in the plan, and they had multiple 15 representatives negotiating for them.

16 THE COURT: Right.

17 MS. LENNOX: Now, that did not prohibit some of 18 their representatives from filing a claim, but they were not 19 required to.

20 THE COURT: Okay.

21 MS. LENNOX: That's correct. If, however, your 22 Honor would disagree with me today and find that this really 23 is a Class 14 claim, we would absolutely assert before your 24 Honor --

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1 MS. LENNOX: -- that there's no liability. So I
2 can, if you'd like, your Honor -- we set forth in our brief
3 why we think these were illegal and why there's no liability,
4 but for purposes of today about -- which is the issue about 5 whether they're subsumed in Class 11, I can either rest on 6 the papers if your Honor has questions or I can certainly go
7 through it. I'm prepared to do it.

8 THE COURT: Well, AFSCME asserts that under Michigan
9 law --

10 MS. LENNOX: Um-hmm.

11 THE COURT: -- a plan sponsor like the city here --

12 MS. LENNOX: Um-hmm.

13 THE COURT: -- doesn't have standing to assert a 14 breach of fiduciary obligation claim against the 15 administrators of the plan and that under that law only plan
16 beneficiaries can assert a breach of fiduciary obligation.

17 MS. LENNOX: Yeah.

18 THE COURT: How do you deal with that?

19 MS. LENNOX: I would refer to the section of the 20 ordinance, which actually provides standing to the financial 21 officer of the City of Detroit, and I'm looking for that cite 22 right now, your Honor. Yes. It would be Detroit Municipal 23 Code 47-4-3, Enforcement Civil Action Number 4. The finance
24 director on behalf of the city, as plan sponsor, may maintain
25 a civil action for relief. Now, in the case -- in the Estes

1 case that was cited by Mr. Mack, those were individual
2 plaintiffs who were asserting standing, and in some cases,
3 not all cases, the Court in that case found that they didn't
4 have standing, notwithstanding what this Code section said,
5 because of governmental immunity. Here if the city, as a
6 governmental agent, is asserting that, it is unclear to me
7 whether a governmental immunity defense would arise with 8 respect to that, so I do think the city very clearly has 9 standing by virtue of the ordinance that's out there.

10 THE COURT: Well, what is the financial impact on 11 the city if the trustees of the GRS pension plan do breach
12 their fiduciary obligation and overpay beneficiaries?

13 MS. LENNOX: I would say -- I will answer the 14 question, but I'd also say it's not just a breach of 15 fiduciary obligation. It's a violation of the Code. It's an 16 ultra vires act because there is no authority in the Code --
17 in Article -- in Chapter 47, which is the Retirement System
18 Code, for them to increase, augment benefits at all or 19 otherwise distribute investment income to participants, so
20 putting aside --

21 THE COURT: Okay. Well, no. Let's not put it
22 aside. Let's assume that this 13th check is a violation of 23 that --

24 MS. LENNOX: Um-hmm.

25 THE COURT: -- and a breach of fiduciary obligation.

1 MS. LENNOX: Breach of fiduciary duty, um-hmm.

2 THE COURT: The question that I want to address
3 isn't the merits of that.

4 MS. LENNOX: Correct.

5 THE COURT: It's the standing question. What is the 6 financial impact on the city --

7 MS. LENNOX: Um-hmm.

8 THE COURT: -- if the Code is violated by means of 9 this 13th check and/or if there's a breach of fiduciary duty
10 that arises from the issuance of these 13th checks?

11 MS. LENNOX: So the financial impact to the city,
12 your Honor, as the plan sponsor who has to contribute to this 13 plan was actually laid out -- and we attached this as Exhibit
14 C to our brief. When the city council went to amend the 15 ordinance to try to curtail and prohibit some of these 16 practices in 2011, they retained an actuary to do an analysis
17 of just exactly what effect that would have had on the city.
18 And as of -- he evaluated the impact through 2008, and so
19 obviously this would continue after 2008, but Mr. Esuchanko
20 found that as of 2008, as a result of these practices, it
21 cost the city about $1.9 billion in the form of increased
22 contributions that it had to make and in sort of lost asset
23 value, you know. Assets, had they been in the plan, would 24 have appreciated, so he valued that, and that is attached to 25 our exhibit. That was a report that was presented to city

1 council that as of 2008 it had already cost the city almost 2 $2 billion, and that would have continued, so there's great
3 harm in these practices, and we allege -- and we believe it's 4 very true that they're illegal practices. Part of the reason
5 that we are cleaning this all up in bankruptcy is to help
6 curtail these practices once and for all.

7 THE COURT: So the city's position is that benefits
8 payable to GRS beneficiaries are fixed as a matter of city
9 ordinance.

10 MS. LENNOX: They are fixed as a matter of city
11 ordinance and obviously the terms of the pension accruals
12 that are negotiated with the unions in their collective 13 bargaining agreements, but once those payments and those 14 accruals are determined by both of those sources, the GRS
15 pension board -- remember, they're not part of the city.
16 They're the board of a trust, which is separate from the 17 city. They have no authority to augment them, which is 18 essentially what's been happening, and so they -- you know, 19 they would be violating, in our view, city law, and they 20 would be acting contrary to the collective bargaining 21 agreements. So that's our position obviously with respect to 22 the 13th check matter.

23 I can turn now to Item Number 17, which is Claim 4, 24 retiree healthcare benefits from changes which happened in 25 2006, and the analysis, again, is very similar. All claims

1 related to any obligations or liabilities associated with the 2 city's obligations to provide retiree healthcare are entirely
3 subsumed within the definitions that make up the Class 12
4 OPEB claim class. The plan defines OPEB claims as any 5 claim -- again, that very broad definition of claim -- any 6 claim against the city for OPEB benefits, which is a defined
7 term, held by a retiree who retired on or before December
8 31st, 2014, and is otherwise eligible for OPEB benefits and 9 any eligible surviving beneficiaries of such retiree. In 10 turn, the plan defines OPEB benefits as follows. Post-
11 retirement health, vision, dental, life, and death benefits
12 provided to retired employees of the city and their surviving 13 beneficiaries pursuant to the employee health and life
14 insurance benefit plan and the employee's death benefit plan,
15 including the members of the certified class in the action
16 captioned Weiler et al. versus City of Detroit, case number, 17 pursuant to the, quote, consent judgment and order of 18 dismissal, end quote, entered in that action on August 26,
19 2009, again, a comprehensive definition for any kind of post-
20 retirement welfare benefit as opposed to pension benefit, 21 and, again, claim includes a right to payment of these 22 benefits whether it was due in the past or is due in the 23 future. So based on everything that AFSCME has described in 24 its proof of claim with respect to this Item 17, we can only 25 conclude that the OPEB modifications that included -- that

1 occurred in 2006 for which AFSCME seeks redress are included
2 in the definition of OPEB claim and, again, are subsumed in 3 Class 12. Again, we don't need to worry about whether there
4 is or is not liability for this if your Honor agrees with me
5 that they are subsumed in this class, and if your Honor
6 doesn't, we would certainly assert later on that there's no
7 liability for this.

8 I would also state at this point because this is 9 clearly a claim on behalf of the retirees -- and I only say
10 this as a footnote, but it may be relevant. It is not clear 11 to us whether AFSCME has established its standing to 12 represent these retirees. As your Honor may recall, prior to 13 the petition date AFSCME had sent the city a letter
14 specifically disavowing its ability to or desire to represent 15 retirees in this case, which is one of the reasons we have 16 the Retiree Committee that's been appointed, and the Retiree
17 Committee did negotiate OPEB benefits and the treatment of 18 OPEB benefits under the plan, so I raise that standing issue
19 for your Honor's consideration. So the argument on this one,
20 your Honor, is the same. We believe these are Class 12
21 claims. They are treated under the plan that way. They 22 shouldn't be deemed to be Class 14 claims, and even if they 23 were, we would further object to their liability.

24 THE COURT: Thank you.

25 MR. MACK: Good morning, your Honor. Richard Mack

1 on behalf of AFSCME. I'll start off, your Honor, by saying,
2 as I started in our brief, we, AFSCME, has gone to great
3 lengths to work with the city in an effort to help with its 4 financial situations. We've been doing that since the 1980s,
5 frankly. We did it in 2011 and 2012. We did it in 2014 in 6 the effort to resolve the plan of adjustment that's now
7 before your Honor, which calls for very significant cuts to 8 pension and retiree healthcare, so -- and I bring that up
9 because obviously this particular issue is something that 10 concerns a claim that we have against the City of Detroit,
11 but that does not detract from our efforts to seek to work
12 with the city to resolve it with its financial problems.
13 Matter of fact, your Honor, I started off -- I really feel 14 like this is deja vu. In 2011 when the city asked for the 15 assistance of the unions, AFSCME led and pulled the coalition
16 together, and we put together hundreds of millions of dollars
17 in savings only to learn that this 13th check benefit had 18 been surreptitiously taken without being put on the 19 bargaining table. And we're here today, your Honor, after 20 having gone through great lengths to, as Ms. Lennox
21 indicated, send out letters, encourage -- and I myself
22 personally, all of us working to have this plan approved only 23 to learn now that there's a brand new argument that was never 24 raised before, never brought up in any context that somehow 25 what had been filed is no longer valid but is now subsumed in

1 the definitions of the plan. We just think that's an
2 unfortunate development. It's what leads us here today.

3 With respect to the definitions themselves, I think
4 it's important, your Honor, to look at the context of the 5 definition even -- we cited the --

6 THE COURT: I'd rather look at the words.

7 MR. MACK: Yes. You can look at the words, your 8 Honor, but even in looking at the words, it's important, as 9 your Honor knows, interpreting contracts you look at the 10 words and how the words are being used. And in this --

11 THE COURT: What is it about the words that suggests 12 that the claims you assert here are not included?

13 MR. MACK: About the words themselves, first of all,
14 in the GRS pension claim definition, as we mentioned --
15 Ms. Lennox is right. A 13th check is a check, but an annuity
16 savings fund credit is a credit. It's not a, quote, payment
17 or distribution that takes place at present time. It's a 18 credit for when that person retires or hits their 25th year
19 and you're able to draw it down. You will have that money --
20 you will have access to that money. It's not something that 21 you have access to at the present time. So at the very 22 least, your Honor, there is an ambiguity with respect to 23 whether or not a future credit is a, quote, payment or 24 distribution that's within the definition of GRS claim.

25 THE COURT: And what's the relationship between ASF

1 or this ASF credit that you talk about and the 13th check?

2 MR. MACK: Well, the two -- the 13th check -- we're
3 using that as the nomenclature. That really involved three 4 buckets that this money was placed into, an ASF credit that 5 was given to active employees for them to access in the 6 future, a 13th check that was a check cut for retirees, and 7 then a reduction in the City of Detroit's contribution to the 8 plan. So the claim is obviously not over the city's 9 contribution, but it's over --

10 THE COURT: How does the 13th check result in a 11 reduction in the city's contribution?

12 MR. MACK: Well, no, no. I'm using the whole notion
13 of what happened with the excess earnings. Whenever there
14 was an investment return in the market beyond 7.9 percent,
15 they would call it excess earnings under the prior practice.

16 THE COURT: But, of course, they weren't excess
17 earnings.

18 MR. MACK: Under the prior practice, that's exactly
19 what they were considered, and the board was given 20 specific --

21 THE COURT: But they weren't excess earnings.

22 MR. MACK: Well, your Honor, I'm not here to defend 23 the wisdom of what took place, and as Judge O'Connor laid out
24 in his pleading -- in his opinion, rather, the plan was what 25 it was, and it was something that was negotiated. As a

1 matter of fact, your Honor, importantly, on that point the 2 motion --

3 THE COURT: The 13th check was negotiated?

4 MR. MACK: The 13th check practice absolutely was 5 put into the bargaining agreement where it says whatever is 6 taking place within the present ordinance system shall remain
7 in place. That was the language in the bargaining agreement
8 that was -- and that's what Judge O'Connor found. It was, in 9 fact -- it was a negotiated benefit. More importantly,
10 though, Judge, the last contract term was imposed by the 11 city. And in labor law when you have union and employee 12 negotiating, when you get to an impasse, the employer puts in 13 place what it wants. The employer put the 13th check in 14 place in 2010. It was the employer's doing that of the last 15 contract we have to put the 13th check program in place, so
16 to suggest that, well, now, we're supposed to, you know, look
17 back retrospectively and say how wise was that, the blame
18 lays at least as much on the city.

19 THE COURT: You say the city did it or wasn't it the 20 reality that the pension board did it?

21 MR. MACK: No. The city put in place a contract
22 provision which called for the continuation of the board
23 having discretion to issue 13th checks. That's absolutely
24 what happened on September 28, 2010.

25 THE COURT: Where is that language?

1 MR. MACK: The language is -- we've attached it to
2 our pleadings, your Honor. It is -- no. That's the wrong
3 one. If you look at Exhibit B to our pleadings, it is the 4 Article 47, coincidentally, retirement article, and the very 5 last paragraph, T, which reads, quote, "All retirement and 6 pension plan provisions provided for by the City Charter and 7 Municipal Code are incorporated herein by reference unless 8 otherwise specifically modified by this Agreement and 9 Ordinance 2-93-J.C.C. page 133," so it references the --

10 THE COURT: I don't see 13th check in there.

11 MR. MACK: Well, your Honor, in labor law you place
12 a provision of an existing ordinance, of an existing law into 13 the contract by reference.

14 THE COURT: All right. Then let's look at the code.
15 What in the code authorizes 13th check?

16 MR. MACK: What in the code at the time authorized 17 the 13th check was --

18 THE COURT: Right, at the time.

19 MR. MACK: -- the board having the discretion to do
20 what it had been doing.

21 THE COURT: What's the language? Let's look at the 22 language because that's what we lawyers do.

23 MR. MACK: Okay. If you'll give me a second, your 24 Honor, I will find it. It is in -- Judge O'Connor actually 25 laid out very thoroughly the specific language in his -- give

1 me one second. I apologize, your Honor. Of course it would
2 be the last one.

3 THE COURT: That's all right. Take your time.

4 MR. MACK: One second.

5 THE COURT: Yeah.

6 MR. MACK: I'll get some assistance here.

7 THE COURT: Yeah. Take your time.

8 MR. MACK: Your Honor, in all candor, I'm not 9 finding where the judge specifically quoted --

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 MR. MACK: -- the section of the ordinance, but we 12 absolutely can provide the essential -- well, hang on. In 13 Exhibit C we attached the cover letter to the change of the 14 ordinance. Because the issue was addressed by Judge
15 O'Connor, albeit apparently without citing the specific -- or 16 quoting the specific section, it does -- Section 41-1-18 and 17 41-1-21, and then again it amends Section 42- -- 47-2-18 of 18 the code, and we are absolutely able to provide that to your 19 Honor. It was just because we were addressing a narrow issue
20 and the issue as to the precise language was not raised by 21 the city's pleading, we felt it necessary only to attach ALJ
22 O'Connor's opinion, but I don't think there's any dispute,
23 though, your Honor, that the board at the time under the old
24 ordinance --

25 THE COURT: Oh, I think the city very definitely

1 disputes that. In fact, I think the city's brief did quote
2 from the language of the ordinance and argued that it did not
3 give the discretion that you suggested it did.

4 MR. MACK: As I recall it, it quoted from the -- 5 they quoted language in the ordinance with respect to the 6 board of trustees vested with the general administration
7 management responsibility for the operation of the system.

8 THE COURT: All right. Well, we've wandered --

9 MR. MACK: But I have --

10 THE COURT: We've wandered off into whether the 11 payments were legal or not. I want to focus back on the 12 issue of whether the two claims that are at issue here this 13 morning are within the language of Classes 11 and 12 here.

14 MR. MACK: Yes. And with respect to, as I
15 indicated, the pension or the ASF credits are -- at the least 16 there's an ambiguity with respect to payment or distribution.
17 As to the -- again, as to the OPEB claim or even the ASF or 18 the 13th check claim, if you look at the context of how those 19 terms were used throughout the code, throughout Classes 11
20 and 12, they deal with impairment of benefits that are owed
21 in the future. They don't deal with prior contingent
22 liability claims for things that have been filed, and I think 23 it's --

24 THE COURT: Well, but you're talking about -- you're 25 talking about how they're treated, how these claims are

1 treated.

2 MR. MACK: They're modified.

3 THE COURT: That's a separate question from defining 4 the class that is to be treated.

5 MR. MACK: Well, they're modified, but there is no
6 modification of a 13th check program in the plan. There is 7 no modification of a prior --

8 THE COURT: Right, but the city says --

9 MR. MACK: -- liability for a --

10 THE COURT: The city says here's the claim, which 11 includes what you're asserting here, and that's set forth in 12 the definition of the class. Separate from that is the 13 treatment of that class. Now, it is true that that treatment
14 may not provide any payment on the 13th check for the OPEB
15 that you assert here, but that doesn't mean it isn't being 16 treated.

17 MR. MACK: Well, but if it's not addressed, how is 18 it treated?

19 THE COURT: It's treated by not being paid anything.
20 That's how.

21 MR. MACK: It doesn't say that. There's nothing in 22 the plan which says that if their prior --

23 THE COURT: It says here's how we're treating these 24 claims. We're giving them these benefits. That's how we're 25 treating all these claims. Plans do that all the time.

1 That's bankruptcy.

2 MR. MACK: In order to take that logic, your Honor,
3 the next step would necessarily be that the 95-1/2 percent of 4 the pension check of an individual aside from the ASF
5 recoupment -- or the ASF impairment, so forth, is also 6 somehow treated by that and, therefore, subsumed within the 7 $1.8 billion.

8 THE COURT: I'm sorry. Could you repeat that?

9 MR. MACK: Sure. There's no language addressing
10 prior payments that were due for 13th check or annuity 11 savings fund credits. The only thing that it addresses is 12 pension payments which are due in the future are going to be 13 impaired by 4-1/2 percent, so under the logic to say, well,
14 we've had this broad definition, and even though we don't 15 address it with respect to the treatment, you have to assume 16 that that means that it's treated by being eliminated, well,
17 if that logic were true, your Honor, that would be the same
18 logic for the rest of the pension check that's not treated
19 also, that's not impaired because if that's not specifically
20 addressed, you get 4-1/2 percent cut, oh, by the way, 95-1/2
21 percent you still get to keep --

22 THE COURT: Well, but here's how bankruptcy works.
23 Every single claim of any kind against a debtor is discharged
24 upon plan confirmation. It's gone. It's just no longer
25 legally enforceable. Those obligations are replaced by the

1 obligations that the debtor includes in the plan and that the
2 Court confirms. Why isn't that the answer to this argument
3 you make?

4 MR. MACK: Well, it's not because, your Honor, if 5 you look at the city's own pleadings, it suggests that the 6 city itself concurred with AFSCME's opinion in this matter
7 when it filed its initial objection on May the 15th. This
8 is, at the very least, an ambiguity. In fact, it was so
9 ambiguous that the city took a different position when it
10 filed its first objection from the position that they're 11 taking now.

12 THE COURT: I guess you need to show that to me
13 because I don't -- I didn't see that at all.

14 MR. MACK: Okay. Here's the timeline.

15 THE COURT: I'm not even -- I'm not sure it makes a 16 difference, but show me anyway.

17 MR. MACK: Sure. Well, it makes a difference
18 because it demonstrates that, at the very least, there's an 19 ambiguity with respect to how this is defined and the 20 assumption that has --

21 THE COURT: Well, but it's for the Court to 22 determine whether there's an ambiguity. I mean even if the 23 parties agree that there's an ambiguity, that isn't binding
24 on the Court.

25 MR. MACK: Well, let me walk through the factual

1 history.

2 THE COURT: Okay.

3 MR. MACK: February 21st you have the plan of 4 adjustment, their first plan of adjustment filed, which has 5 this very language, by the way, with respect to GRS pension
6 claim. There was a --

7 THE COURT: Has the same claim definition?

8 MR. MACK: Yes, same claim definition. There was a
9 modification from OPEB claim from February 21st until a later
10 claim, but it was inconsequential with respect to what we're 11 dealing with today.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 MR. MACK: There was robust negotiation between 14 AFSCME and the City of Detroit and all of the creditor
15 interest groups, and obviously I can't disclose all of the 16 particulars of that because of the confidentiality order. We 17 do believe, though, that it is important for your Honor in 18 ruling on this issue to have some factual revelation
19 regarding the details, but --

20 THE COURT: The argument you raised is in a pleading
21 filed by the city --

22 MR. MACK: Yes.

23 THE COURT: -- it agreed with your position.

24 MR. MACK: Yes.

25 THE COURT: Where is that? What is that?

1           MR. MACK: On May -- the deal was reached. AFSCME,
2 in fact, was the first employee creditor group to agree to 3 the plan. May 5th the city files its fourth amended plan of 4 adjustment, the very plan of adjustment that the retiree
5 groups voted on, along with the fourth amended disclosure
6 statement, has the same plan definition. Ten days later on 7 May the 15th the city files its objection to AFSCME's proof
8 of claim which had also been filed back on February 21st, so
9 the February 21st proof of claim that AFSCME filed,
10 appropriately timely filed, preserved this 13th check issue,
11 the retiree healthcare grievance issue, preserved that and 12 laid out specifically the nature of the claim. The first 13 objection came from the city ten days after it filed its own
14 proof of claim.

15           THE COURT: Right. Got that.

16           MR. MACK: Nowhere in the objection of May the 15th 17 did the city say, "Hey, the reason we're objecting to the 18 13th check proof of claim is because it's already subsumed in 19 the deal we just cut with AFSCME, and it's already subsumed
20 in the plan of adjustment that we just sent out to retirees
21 to vote on," but as a matter of fact, they did in one portion 22 of the proof of claim, your Honor, say that the matter was 23 subsumed --

24           THE COURT: You mean objection, objection to the 25 claim.

1           MR. MACK: I'm sorry. Yes. Forgive me. They did
2 say, your Honor, in one portion of their objection that part 3 of AFSCME's proof of claim was subsumed within the plan of 4 adjustment, but that wasn't the 13th check. The portion of 5 the plan of -- of the proof of claim that the city felt was 6 subsumed within the plan of adjustment was the overarching
7 line one of the proof of claim, which AFSCME filed, again,
8 back on February 21st asking for $8.1 billion for all pension
9 and all retiree benefits. And that was a catch-all claim
10 that was filed. Obviously at that time there had been no 11 arrangements or agreements as to how the pension and 12 healthcare benefits were going to be impaired, so it was 13 filed at the time just to represent the impairment that the 14 city had been speaking of in the present before the Court.
15 The city made the argument there's no need for this line one
16 proof of claim which deals with general individual pension
17 and healthcare impairments because we've already got a plan
18 of adjustment which now addresses that, and it cited the very 19 sections that it's now relying on in line one. Line seven, 20 as Ms. Lennox indicated, addresses the 13th check claim. The 21 only thing that the city said with respect to why it was 22 objecting to the 13th check claim was not that it was 23 subsumed within the plan of adjustment but that there had not 24 yet been a ruling from MERC. It gathered all of the claims.
25 It made a mention in -- I'll give you the specific paragraph.

1 One second. In paragraph 18, your Honor, of the city's May 2 15th objection to AFSCME's proof of claim, it says, quote,
3 "In a similar vein, the Claim identifies several alleged
4 liabilities related to various other proceedings identified
5 in Exhibit 1 to the Claim," which is our outline of the 6 various claim elements, "including a number of proceedings
7 before the Michigan Employment Relations Commission," this 8 being the 13th check, which was, in fact, a dispute before 9 MERC. "To the extent any such proceedings have not been 10 adjudicated on a full and final basis before the applicable
11 tribunal, the City disputes its liability to the Claimant or 12 the individuals it represents on account of such 13 liabilities," so it's saying we don't yet have a final ruling
14 from MERC on the 13th check, and that was the position that 15 the city took May the 15th, not that it was subsumed within 16 the plan agreement that we just filed ten days earlier. I
17 can tell your Honor is reading, so --

18 THE COURT: Well, I'm reading the paragraph just 19 before that, 17.

20 MR. MACK: Yes.

21 THE COURT: "AFSCME and the city have reached a
22 tentative agreement on all outstanding prepetition grievances
23 asserted on behalf of individual employees for which AFSCME
24 seeks monetary relief. As a part of the settlement, City
25 expects AFSCME to withdraw its bankruptcy claims related to

1 these settled matters."

2 MR. MACK: Yes. That reference, your Honor, is with 3 respect to -- you have to go up to actually paragraph 16 to 4 see what that's talking about. That references to -- there
5 was an Exhibit 2 to the proof of claim which listed over 700
6 grievances that had been outstanding, and the parties had 7 been for months prior actually working through those and 8 resolving those, and many of them had been resolved at the 9 time. So, again -- oh, I'm sorry -- your Honor, I can tell
10 you're reading, so I'll --

11 THE COURT: No, no. Go ahead.

12 MR. MACK: Well, I was just going to say that that 13 is -- again, the city's position here is new, and, again,
14 there are other documents which were produced in confidential
15 mediations which, in our position, would indicate that, 16 again, as late as September the city did not take the 17 position that it now takes, but this is a new creation where 18 once the attention was shifted to the proof of claim, the 19 city said, "Wait a minute. We can argue. We can get rid of 20 this 13th check liability by simply arguing that it's 21 subsumed within the claim," but prior to that, the city did 22 not take that position. When the parties bargained, they did
23 not take that position, and, again, that would involve 24 factual development with respect to the understanding between 25 the parties on that score.

1           Allow me to shift to the PERSIA argument that the
2 city raises as to why it's -- whether or not it's illegal.
3 The city -- oh, I'm sorry. Your Honor was right. We do
4 argue that there is a standing question. The Wayne County
5 case, the Court of Appeals case that we cited in our brief,
6 specifically addressed that. That was a case where there
7 actually was a 13th check that was being paid out by the 8 Wayne County Retirement System, and the county
9 counterclaimed. After the Retirement System sued the county,
10 the county counterclaimed and said it's a breach of duty to 11 pay out this 13th check. They had a little different 12 situation where they would put money in a reserve account and 13 then pay out of that reserve, but other than that, it was 14 very similar facts. And the Court found there's no standing 15 for Wayne County to raise that claim, but beyond that, your 16 Honor, the Court found that there's no evidence that the 17 system breached its fiduciary duty because it relied on the 18 same notion that's commonly relied on with respect to 13th
19 checks, that 13th checks are used as a way for retirement 20 systems to avoid a more hefty inflationary factor in order to 21 pay up a little bump when the investments come in, so --

22           THE COURT: Well, "A," how can there be no standing 23 when every dollar that the pension plan pays out either in 24 violation of the Code or in breach of its fiduciary duty is a
25 dollar more that the city has to pay into the plan?

1 MR. MACK: Well, "A," there'd be no standing because 2 the courts have said so, and I would suggest --

3 THE COURT: Well, but how can that be?

4 MR. MACK: Because as the Court did an analysis with 5 respect to the treatment of this inflationary EIF account,
6 they looked at the fact that the Retirement System actually 7 was quite prudent and quite --

8 THE COURT: But that mixes up the merits of the 9 claim with the standing to pursue it. When you examine 10 standing, you assume the merit of the claim. You have to.
11 Otherwise no one would ever have standing.

12 MR. MACK: Well, the Court quoted specifically the 13 statute with respect to a duty that is to the beneficiaries
14 of the benefits under the system due to those individuals, 15 and that's what the Court relied on with respect to the 16 standing question.

17 THE COURT: So this Court would say that the law
18 would rely upon those very individuals who are getting the 19 benefit of the breach of fiduciary duty to bring a claim for 20 breach of fiduciary duty? What?

21 MR. MACK: Your Honor --

22 THE COURT: Seriously?

23 MR. MACK: No. Your Honor, the point is that this
24 brand new argument would have to be addressed and ferreted
25 out not only with respect to the standing question but with

1 respect to the merits on the issue, and if we're going to
2 entertain that notion, then we do need a more full-blown
3 hearing to address it more specifically, but as to that
4 particular standing question, again, the Court didn't write
5 the law. The legislature wrote the law.

6 THE COURT: Why isn't the --

7 MR. MACK: The law was written with respect to the 8 duty to run to those beneficiaries, and when courts have 9 addressed that, they addressed it with respect to who has the 10 standing to bring the claim. The city has not presented any 11 case to counter the notion that somehow the sponsor would 12 have the ability to have standing nor has the city addressed 13 the point about whether or not the three-year statute of 14 limitations that applies in the State of Michigan could 15 apply. I mean certainly they've known about this for much 16 longer than three years. So all of these issues had not been 17 yet addressed by the city, and it would have to be --

18 THE COURT: So here's a party who is harmed to the 19 extent of $1.9 billion and has no remedy?

20 MR. MACK: Well, in essence. Again, the courts are 21 interpreting --

22 THE COURT: Am I right; sir?

23 MR. MACK: Under the way that the courts have 24 interpreted the statute, they would not be able to bring the 25 claim under PERSIA, under that particular provision of the 1 statute that they cite.

2 THE COURT: What claim would they have?

3 MR. MACK: Ask the city. I'm not their lawyer. I
4 mean they'd have to find appropriate -- a proper claim to 5 bring under the proper statute, but certainly the way that 6 the Michigan courts have interpreted that statute, which 7 would have precedent, I believe, in this situation, they 8 would not have the right to bring that claim.

9 THE COURT: Do they have standing to assert a
10 violation of their own ordinance?

11 MR. MACK: Well, you know, what's interesting about 12 the ordinance is I --

13 THE COURT: I want an answer to my question.

14 MR. MACK: Under the --

15 THE COURT: I'm not asking about the merits. I'm 16 asking about standing.

17 MR. MACK: Could the city sue?

18 THE COURT: Does the city have standing to assert
19 that the 13th check violates its own ordinance --

20 MR. MACK: Potentially.

21 THE COURT: -- separate from the breach of fiduciary 22 duty issue?

23 MR. MACK: Potentially. I'd have to look into the 24 specifics of it. Potentially.

25 THE COURT: Okay. You haven't objected to that.

1 MR. MACK: Well, but what's interesting --

2 THE COURT: Have you objected to that?

3 MR. MACK: Have I objected to the city's notion that 4 there was a breach of the --

5 THE COURT: To the city's standing to assert a claim
6 arising from a breach of -- a violation of its ordinance.

7 MR. MACK: Under the old ordinance? It's important
8 to --

9 THE COURT: Answer my question, Mr. Mack. Come on.

10 MR. MACK: Your Honor, the reason that I say that --

11 THE COURT: Please answer my question.

12 MR. MACK: We do not assert that the city would have 13 a standing issue to raise a problem under its old ordinance.
14 The problem comes in when you try to take a new ordinance and 15 apply it to a collective bargaining unit which --

16 THE COURT: Oh, I understand you dispute the merits
17 of the claim.

18 MR. MACK: Yes.

19 THE COURT: That's a separate question.

20 MR. MACK: Yes. No. We do not have any reason to 21 dispute at this time --

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 MR. MACK: -- that the city could not flag a concern
24 of its old ordinance. I will point out that under the old 25 ordinance the city not only felt that it could not raise the

1 claim but felt that it took the vote of the citizens of the 2 City of Detroit in order to change the practice, and that was
3 the 1996 AFSCME versus City of Detroit matter that's cited by 4 Judge O'Connor where the city acknowledged that we have this 5 issue. We don't believe that this is a proper practice. And 6 they felt that they couldn't just simply change the 7 ordinance. They couldn't just simply flag a -- they couldn't
8 just simply sue under the ordinance, but they had to get a
9 change of the charter in order to stop the practice, so I
10 guess in that --

11 THE COURT: Why isn't the record before the Court
12 adequate for it to determine that this concept of excess 13 earnings is a fiction because the concept of assumed rate of 14 return assumes that in some years the actual returns will be 15 higher than projected and in some years the returns will be 16 lower than projected, and you need the higher returns to save 17 the assets of the system -- or to protect the assets of the 18 system against the years in which there will be lower than -- 19 lower returns than assumed?

20 MR. MACK: The reason is because, your Honor, in 21 doing so -- excuse me -- respectfully, you would be ruling
22 counter to published Michigan Court of Appeals opinion, the 23 Wayne County case. In that case specifically they addressed 24 this issue. They looked at evidence. They went through the 25 specifics of what the board considered, what the board did

1 not consider, the distributions that were made into this
2 inflation equity fund. They looked at specifically the 3 interest earnings each year that came in. They looked at a 4 lot of facts concerning whether or not the 13th check should 5 have been paid out or whether or not it breached the 6 fiduciary duty of the system in order to do so, and they 7 ultimately came to the conclusion after looking at all those 8 facts that, in fact, it wasn't appropriate.

9 THE COURT: What case is that or cases?

10 MR. MACK: The case, your Honor, is Wayne County
11 Employees' Retirement System versus Wayne County, 301 Mich.
12 App. 1. That's a 2013 case. And, again --

13 THE COURT: You say they decided it was not a breach
14 of fiduciary duty?

15 MR. MACK: They decided -- they went through and 16 looked at the 13th check and decided it was not -- there was 17 not enough to find a breach of fiduciary duty.

18 THE COURT: And they found that even though they 19 found that the county didn't have standing?

20 MR. MACK: They answered the question, and then they 21 went on to address the merits of the issue.

22 THE COURT: Okay.

23 MR. MACK: I'll turn to the --

24 THE COURT: So which holding is dicta?

25 MR. MACK: Pardon?

1 THE COURT: Which holding is dicta?

2 MR. MACK: It's not dicta.

3 THE COURT: Well, if there's no standing, then 4 there's no reason to address the merits, so I ask which 5 holding is dicta?

6 MR. MACK: There was standing on -- one moment, your 7 Honor. Let me --

8 THE COURT: Sure.

9 MR. MACK: Let me pull the opinion for you.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 MR. MACK: We actually give a fairly thorough
12 analysis of the case in our pleadings, your Honor, on page --

13 THE COURT: Right. I read that. I'm just asking 14 you beyond what you stated in your brief whether either of 15 those holdings is dicta because the Court didn't need both to 16 get to the --

17 MR. MACK: Well, here's --

18 THE COURT: -- ultimate result that it reached.

19 MR. MACK: There were a number of issues concerning 20 the inflation equity fund, and with respect to the issue of 21 the actual payment of the monies into the 13th -- into the 22 EIF, there was a standing issue. There was a problem with 23 standing with respect to the System. With respect to the 24 setting of the rates of return for purposes of funding the 25 EIF during the unfunded years, they assumed that their System

1 had standing and went on to find that the practice was 2 proper.

3 THE COURT: Okay.

4 MR. MACK: So there are three -- there were three --
5 there are three issues that the Court addressed with respect
6 to the inflation equity fund in that score -- in that part of 7 the opinion, and on one of them, with respect to the payment
8 of the 13th check, they found that the System didn't have 9 standing.

10 THE COURT: Okay.

11 MR. MACK: They went through other two, and then on 12 those they found that there was no breach of the duty that 13 was found, so I think it's an important opinion, your Honor,
14 because it deals with both of the issues, the standing
15 question and what is necessary for your Honor in order to 16 make a finding with respect to whether the excess earnings
17 was proper. We have absolutely no facts on the record. We 18 don't know what they've reviewed. We don't know what they 19 haven't reviewed. And with respect to the filing of an 20 objection, your Honor, if it's going to be based on 21 substantive grounds, the city should have included some sort
22 of declaration, some sort of facts, something for your Honor
23 to rely upon in order to make a determination that the excess
24 earnings was improper, and we have none of that in this 25 record, your Honor, at this time.

1 THE COURT: Well, we have a statement from Mr.
2 Roeder --

3 MR. MACK: Well, we have a letter from Mr. Roeder.

4 THE COURT: -- who says it is laughably plain that
5 this was improper.

6 MR. MACK: We have a letter. We have a letter from 7 Mr. Roeder, which may very well be considered hearsay. We 8 don't have evidence on the record.

9 THE COURT: It is hearsay. I agree with you.

10 MR. MACK: Thank you. On the issue of the OPEB
11 claim, again, there's no question that the definition is 12 broad, but, again, if you look at the context of the 13 treatment, on the OPEB claim the treatment specifically says
14 that there's a VEBA set up, and then it specifically says
15 that there will be no further responsibility in the future of 16 the city for retiree healthcare, so it couldn't be more clear
17 that in reading those definitions -- and you have to read.
18 You don't just read that paragraph. Even without considering 19 parol evidence, in interpreting the contract you read the 20 contract for it as a whole because you can't read one section
21 of a contract to be adverse to another section of a contract.
22 You have to read them in harmony to the best extent possible
23 if we're even assuming that this is a contract, but you have 24 to read them together. In looking at the context of the use
25 of those terms, it's crystal clear that it's talking about

1 future liabilities, not with respect to what has been owed
2 and already filed again as a contingent claim under Class 14.
3 And, your Honor, there was some discussion of the merits
4 of -- second time -- some discussion of the merits of whether 5 or not there was a violation of the Public Employment
6 Relations Act in the city's pleadings, and so, very briefly,
7 what we have here is the state labor board, the Michigan
8 Employment Relations Commission, by action of a recommended
9 decision by an appointed ALJ, administrative law judge,
10 making a finding of fact on the law and on the facts of that 11 issue. It is clear that the city cannot hide behind an 12 ordinance and ignore its collective bargaining rights. It is 13 clear that the MERC actually has the jurisdiction to 14 interpret the Public Employment Relations Act, and if the 15 city is going to ask this Court again to delve into the 16 specifics of whether or not that statute was violated by what 17 the city did, it's going to take a whole lot more than a 18 simple oral argument and some pleadings on the issue. Your 19 Honor will have to be -- well, one of two things could happen
20 obviously. Obviously your Honor could send the matter back
21 to MERC to have the issue finalized, and then the city could 22 contest liability, and we can have the hearing or, you know,
23 the pleading and go forth from that, but if your Honor is 24 going to address this issue, it's going to take a lot more to 25 deal with. And I don't think -- the city doesn't have any

1 credible argument with respect to the fact that the city
2 couldn't -- the city could simply eliminate the ordinance.
3 As a matter of fact, the city's only argument on that score
4 was that the elimination -- the ordinance was now the new law
5 and, therefore, they had the right to follow the new law, and 6 they could ignore their collective bargaining rights. And 7 quite frankly, Judge O'Connor found that argument to be
8 frivolous. It was frivolous because the city took the exact 9 opposite position in a published Court of Appeals case in 10 1996, and in that case, AFSCME versus City of Detroit -- we 11 cited it in our pleadings -- in that case, the city put this 12 13th check issue on the ballot because it said in order for 13 us to make this change in the 13th check practice, it's now
14 on the ballot, which, your Honor, leads me to, I guess,
15 question the whole standing notion because obviously at that 16 point in time the city lawyers, you know, good lawyers, 17 didn't feel that they had the ability to challenge the 18 practice by simply filing a lawsuit. Okay. So, you know, in 19 answer to that question, obviously that needs more briefing
20 as to whether or not they have standing under the ordinance, 21 but what they argued in that position -- in that case, your 22 Honor, after the unions went into court and they said you
23 cannot put this issue in front of the voters because it
24 involves our collective bargaining rights and we have a right
25 to pass on that at the bargaining table first, the position

1 the city took was there's no need for an injunction. We know
2 that if this charter amendment passes, we still have to go to 3 the union to bargain. They took that position, and the Court
4 of Appeals said because the city acknowledges that they could 5 not simply make the change of the law and have that apply to 6 the union represented employees without bargaining, we're not
7 going to issue the injunction. And so what we argued before
8 Judge O'Connor was that the city is bound by judicial 9 estoppel where you can't make an argument and win in a case
10 and then come back and make an opposite argument in a later
11 proceeding, and he found that there was, in fact, judicial 12 estoppel in that case.

13           Your Honor, again, we've -- and I've been saying I 14 think it's appropriate for -- if this matter before your 15 Honor conclusively resolves the matter to have a hearing on 16 this issue, to permit -- whether it be discovery, whether it
17 be, you know, all of what the rules entail us to have to get 18 to the bottom of how this 13th check and these OPEB claims
19 should be treated. I know that when we spoke, we were going 20 to have some discussion concerning what we would have and 21 what we would ask for. Well, we're asking for the full gamut
22 of it with respect to discovery, with respect to an 23 evidentiary hearing. We believe that that's appropriate and 24 not to have this matter ruled on without any evidence in the 25 record whatsoever when the only thing that's in the record is

1 hearsay.

2 THE COURT: Thank you, sir.

3 MR. MACK: Thank you, your Honor.

4 MS. LENNOX: I'll be brief, your Honor. I only want
5 to address a couple of technical points that Mr. Mack raised.
6 The first is with respect to your Honor's questions of Mr.
7 Mack about where in the collective bargaining agreements or 8 where in the ordinance did it say that you could have annuity 9 savings fund credits and 13th checks, and the answer is 10 nowhere, and they've never said it anywhere. Mr. Mack is 11 correct. What the old collective bargaining agreements used
12 to say is that the ordinance, Chapter 7 of the Detroit
13 Municipal Code, is encompassed within the collective 14 bargaining agreement, so your Honor asked the next logical
15 question. Well, then what did the code say? The code only 16 said before the amendments in 2011 two things. One is the 17 provision that we quoted in our brief, 47-103, that says the 18 board of trustees of the General Retirement System is hereby 19 created. The board is vested with the general
20 administration, management and responsibility for the proper 21 operation of the System and for making effective the 22 provisions of this chapter. Didn't say anything about 23 increasing benefits, augmenting benefits or anything of the 24 sort. Section 47-1-11 of the code says something similar, 25 that they have to set up rules for the administration of the 1 pension plan. That's it. There was never any discussion

2 anywhere in the ordinance of these practices. Where these 3 practices came from was the board of trustees, who is not 4 AFSCME's employer and who is not the city. The board of 5 trustees of this trust decided that this might be a nifty
6 thing to do. They have no authority to do it statutorily or 7 otherwise, yet they did it anyway, and in 2011 the city woke
8 up, and now the concept of 13th checks and annuity savings
9 fund credits do appear in the code. They were added to 10 Section 47-118 of the Detroit Municipal Code as prohibitions.
11 That is the ordinance of which Mr. Mack and his client
12 complain. Before the addition of the last section of 47-118-
13 A -- and they added Sections B and C, which are the 14 prohibitions -- all 47-118 consisted of prior to this 15 amendment was a statement that said the board shall adopt 16 such mortality and other tables of experience and a rate or 17 rates of regular interest as shall be necessary for the 18 operation of the System on an actuarial basis, period. There 19 was nothing ever in the statutes that authorized these 20 practices.

21           Secondly, we were talking about our initial 22 objection filed on May 15th. If your Honor looks at that 23 objection, it is very clearly kind of a cursory objection
24 that was designed to -- and we specifically requested it in 25 this motion -- or in this objection. We gave the Court a

1 flavor of the breadth and the magnitude of the claim and
2 said, "Your Honor, we kind of need a process that's not a
3 court process to try to resolve this." We've engaged in that 4 to large measure. So far it's proven unsuccessful. And then
5 your Honor set a briefing schedule that said, well, this is 6 all very nice, but I need to see what your real objections
7 are. And, in fact, our brief on that is due today, and your 8 Honor set a hearing on that.

9 I would also point out that in Section -- or 10 paragraph 18 of the claim, we did reference that there were 11 MERC disputes that needed to be addressed. The ALJ opinion
12 is a MERC dispute. We also said in paragraph 21 of that that 13 we requested an initial hearing as a status conference to 14 report on progress and to set up further process, and in 15 paragraph 23 we specifically reserve the right to amend or 16 supplement our objection as necessary, so I don't think any 17 of this is or at least should have been a surprise to Mr.
18 Mack and his client.

19 THE COURT: Well, he doesn't argue surprise. What 20 he argues is that in your original objection that you're 21 referring to here, you agree that either the claims that are 22 at issue here are not within the plan definition of claim --

23 MS. LENNOX: Um-hmm.

24 THE COURT: -- or you admit it's ambiguous.

25 MS. LENNOX: Well, your Honor, I looked through this

1 objection while Mr. Mack was speaking, and I don't see
2 anywhere in this objection where we agreed to any of that or 3 asserted any ambiguity. I don't see that anywhere in it. In 4 fact, I categorically deny we ever did it or do it today. I
5 don't think there's been a gotcha here particularly because,
6 as your Honor knows, in the claims process, claims are 7 routinely addressed usually post-confirmation, and so what 8 matters is what does the plan of adjustment say about the 9 treatment of these claims and how are they classified, as 10 your Honor went through with Mr. Mack before, so this is the 11 normal claims process. We have proceeded as would be 12 normally expected. We don't think there's any ambiguity. We 13 think the plain language of the plan will control.

14           Finally, with respect to the Wayne County case, it
15 was an interesting colloquy, but I'd like to point out a 16 couple of important points with respect to that. First of 17 all, I believe this decision is on appeal at Michigan Supreme 18 Court. Secondly, whatever statute existed in Wayne County
19 are not the statutes that exist in Detroit, and I already 20 pointed out that the Detroit city statute gives the city
21 finance director standing if they ever wanted to bring a 22 claim, but, importantly, we aren't bringing a claim. What is 23 before your Honor today is an objection to a claim that has 24 been filed by another party, and we are arguing two things
25 with respect to that. One is that it's already subsumed in

1 Class 11 treatment, and, two, if your Honor were to tell me
2 that I'm wrong, there is no liability.

3 So, finally, I also think that AFSCME is precluded
4 from arguing the merits of this claim because it has agreed
5 to the treatment of this claim in the plan. Thank you.

6 THE COURT: All right. The Court will take this
7 under advisement, and I will give you a decision in open
8 court Monday morning at nine o'clock.

9 MS. LENNOX: Thank you, your Honor.

10 MR. MACK: Your Honor --

11 THE COURT: Sir.

12 MR. MACK: -- may I ask if -- the question that you 13 had asked concerning the provisions of the ordinance -- of 14 the old ordinance with respect to allowing the board of 15 trustees to issue these 13th checks and to treat the excess 16 earnings, I would like to -- if your Honor was okay with 17 that, to provide that to you whether it be in a supplement
18 or --

19 THE COURT: You mean a copy of the ordinance?

20 MR. MACK: Provide a section of that -- of the 21 ordinance --

22 THE COURT: Oh, no. We can track that down. That's 23 all right. Thank you.

24 MR. MACK: -- because I believe it's in -- I believe 25 I found it. I believe it's in 42-2- -- it's in the 1 definition section of accrued liability -- one second --

2 accrued liability fund, paragraph 10.

3 THE COURT: So what's the section number you want us
4 to look at?

5 MR. MACK: The definition of accrued liability fund,
6 Section 10, and it addresses any such remaining monies.

7 THE COURT: What's the section number, sir? Detroit
8 city ordinance --

9 MR. MACK: The definitional section.

10 THE COURT: What's the number? I need a number.

11 MR. MACK: I'm looking for the number here.

12 THE COURT: Okay.

13 MR. MACK: Let's see. The document that I'm looking 14 at has actually been component two of the sixth amended plan
15 of adjustment. Of course, they don't have the number listed.

16 THE COURT: Oh, you're not looking at the Detroit
17 City Code. You're looking at the plan.

18 MR. MACK: They quote -- they copy the Detroit City
19 Code on component two of the plan of adjustment. That's what 20 I'm looking at.

21 THE COURT: Do you know what he's talking about?

22 MS. LENNOX: No, I don't, but I do have my plan with

25 MR. MACK: Actually, because it doesn't -- it looks

15            MR. MACK: I think, your Honor, what would be 18            THE COURT: If you can do it today, that's fine.

19            MR. MACK: I can do it this morning, yes.

20            THE COURT: All right. And copy Ms. Lennox on that.

21            MR. MACK: Absolutely.

22            THE COURT: All right. Thank you.

23            MR. MACK: Thank you.

24            MS. LENNOX: Thank you, your Honor.

25            THE CLERK: All rise. Court is adjourned.

CORRECTED REPLY IN SUPPORT OF OBJECTION TO PROOF OF CLAIM NUMBER 2958 FILED BY MICHIGAN
AFSCME COUNCIL 25 AND ITS AFFILIATED DETROIT LOCALS

The City of Detroit (the "City") hereby files this reply (the "Reply") in support of the Objection of the City of Detroit, Pursuant to Sections 105 and 502(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 3007 and Local Rule 3007-1, to Proof of Claim Number 2958 Filed by Michigan Council 25 and Its Affiliated Locals (Docket No. 4876) (the "Claim Objection").<sup>1</sup> In support of this Reply, the City respectfully represents as follows:

1. By the Claim Objection, the City seeks the disallowance and expungement of proof of claim number 2958 (the "Proof of Claim") filed by the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees ("AFSCME")

Council 25 and its affiliated locals (together, the "Claimant"). The Proof of Claim is comprised of 20 separate claims asserting aggregate liabilities in the amount of $8,718,697,854.82. See Claim Objection Ex. 1.

2. On September 2, 2014, the Claimant filed a response to the Claim Objection (Docket No. 7235) (the "Response").

3. By agreement between the parties, the Proof of Claim was referred to facilitative mediation before the Honorable Victoria A. Roberts. See Order (I) Referring to Facilitative Mediation Objections to Certain Claims Filed by Michigan AFSCME Council 25 and its Affiliated Detroit Locals and the Coalition of Detroit Unions, (II) Continuing Hearing on Related Claim Objections and (III) Modifying Briefing Schedule (Docket No. 7663), at ¶ 2. The facilitative mediation was conducted and has been concluded, but did not lead to a resolution.

4. Since the filing of the Claim Objection and the Response, the Claimant withdrew certain of the claims contained in the Proof of Claim, as more fully discussed below. Of the remaining claims, one overriding theme is the Claimant's attempt to recover alleged damages arising from the necessary cost-savings mechanisms that the City established through the City Employment Terms implemented on July 18, 2012. As discussed below, the City Employment Terms (or "CETs") were implemented lawfully, and AFSCME's claims for damages relating to the CETs therefore fail under applicable law. Certain claims relating to pension and benefit issues – including claims relating to the so-called "13 Check" program – were addressed by the City separately in the Supplemental Brief of the City of Detroit, Pursuant to Sections 105 and 502(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, Bankruptcy Rule 3007 and Local Rule 3007-1, to Proof of Claim Number 2958 Filed by Michigan AFSCME Council 25 and Its Affiliated Locals (Docket No. 7981) ("Supplemental Brief"), a supplement to the Claim Objection filed on October 16, 2014 (Docket No. 7981), which is incorporated herein by reference. The majority of the remaining claims fail because they are too vague and general to state a legitimate and allowable claim.

5. Each separate claim contained in the Proof of Claim (in the order set forth on the chart attached to the Proof of Claim as Exhibit 1) is addressed below. These claims are referred to by number below.

Reply

Claim 1: Underfunded Pension and Post Employment Benefit Obligations:

6. The Claimant has agreed to withdraw Claim 1. See Order Dismissing Claims from Mediation (Docket No. 7877) (the "Dismissal Order").<sup>2</sup>

<sup>2</sup> Claims for GRS pension and other post-employment benefits ("OPEB") are subject to treatment in Class 11 and Class 12 of the Plan, respectively. Moreover, consistent with the bar date order in this case, no proof of claim is required to preserve a claim in Class 11 or Class 12. See Bar Date Order, at ¶ 8 (providing that the holders of claims relating to pension liabilities and OPEB liabilities are not required to file proofs of claim on account of such claims). Because Claim 1 of the Proof of Claim – asserted in an amount not

Claim 2: Violations of Local, State or Federal Law

7. The Claimant has agreed to withdraw Claim 2. A copy of the Order Dismissing Claim 2 From Mediation issued by Judge Roberts is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.<sup>3</sup>

Claim 3: Refusal to Bargain AFSCME Local 1023 – MERC Case Number D13 C-0331.

8. Through Claim 3, AFSCME asks the Court to ignore a 2013 decision of the State of Michigan Employment Relations Commission ("MERC"), a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 2 (the "Act 312 Decision"). In particular, the Act 312 Decision holds that, as a result of the passage of the Local Financial Stability and Choice Act, 2012 PA 436, MCL § 141.1541, et seq. ("PA 436"), the City was not obligated to engage in binding arbitration under 1969 PA 312, MCL § 423.231, et seq. ("Act 312") and therefore had a right to unilaterally impose employment terms on various City unions (i.e., through the City Employment Terms).

9. Act 312 compels arbitration of labor disputes in municipal police and fire departments under certain circumstances, including disputes over less than $8.1 billion – relates to GRS pension and OPEB liabilities, any valid liabilities will be addressed consistent with Class 11 and Class 12 of the Plan.

<sup>3</sup> In any event, even if not withdrawn, this claim is too vague to be allowed and is subsumed by the other portions of the Proof of Claim. To the extent applicable, those matters are addressed below.

the negotiation of collective bargaining agreements. Similarly, the Michigan Public Employment Relations Act ("PERA"), MCL 423.201, et seq., imposes a duty to bargain on the City, which was expressly suspended pursuant to PA 436. MCL 141.1567(3) ("A local government placed in receivership under this act is not subject to section 15(1) of 1947 PA 336, MCL 423.215, for a period of 5 years from the date the local government is placed in receivership or until the time the receivership is terminated, whichever occurs first."). AFSCME nevertheless asserts that the City was required to arbitrate instead of imposing unilateral terms on AFSCME Local 1023 (the Emergency Service Operators). AFSCME therefore seeks unspecified relief as a result of the imposed terms contained in the CETs. The imposed terms included wage and other concessions effective August 2013, consistent with concessions imposed Citywide. AFSCME cannot meet the standard to set aside MERC's Act 312 Award.

10. Specifically, the Police Officers Association of Michigan (Emergency Medical Technician Unit), the Detroit Police Command Officers Association, and the Detroit Police Lieutenants & Sergeants Association (collectively, the "Act 312 Unions") alleged before MERC that the City was obligated to engage in mediation under PERA and compulsory arbitration under Act 312. Ex. 2 at 2, 11. MERC ruled that the City has no obligation to arbitrate under Act 312 while its PERA duty to bargain is suspended under Section 27(3) of PA 436 and dismissed the Act 312 Unions' petitions for arbitration. Ex. 2 at 14.

11. AFSCME Local 1023 (the Emergency Service Operators) did not join the Act 312 Unions in the challenges addressed by the Act 312 Decision. Instead, AFSCME Local 1023 filed a separate demand for Act 312 arbitration with MERC on June 3, 2013. See Response Ex. 3. MERC dismissed the demand based on the Act 312 Decision. See Response Ex. 4.

12. Through its claim, AFSCME asserts that (a) the Act 312 Decision is in error, (b) the City should have been compelled to arbitrate with AFSCME Local 1023 over the terms of a new collective bargaining agreement and (c) the unilateral imposition of City Employment Terms was unlawful. See Claim Objection Ex. 1 at 6.

13. Contrary to AFSCME's assertions, the Act 312 Decision is sound and not in error (and remains in effect). The City's duty to bargain is derived from Section 15(1) of PERA. MCL § 423.15(1). It is undisputed that this duty was suspended by the express terms of PA 436. MCL 141.1567(3) Act 312 does not confer a duty to bargain on the City, it merely provides a method of dispute resolution premised on the duty to bargain found in PERA. MCL § 423.231, et seq. Yet the Claimant asserts in the Response that Section 423.243 of Act 312 creates a duty to bargain apart from PERA because it provides that "during the pendency of proceedings before the arbitration panel, existing wages, hours and other conditions of employment shall not be changed by action of either party without the consent of the other but a party." See Response at 6. However, this alleged duty would only be triggered "during the pendency of proceedings before the arbitration panel." MCL § 423.243. Absent a PERA duty to bargain, (a) the City has no obligation to participate in "proceedings before the arbitration panel;" and (b) it also has no duty to participate in mediation under PERA, which is a prerequisite to compulsory arbitration under Act 312. Ex. 2 at 12.

14. As MERC noted in the Act 312 Decision:

[t]he mediation process is a condition precedent to initiation of Act 312 arbitration. A public employer that has no duty to bargain has no duty to participate in mediation. Only a public employer not in receivership under PA 436 or a labor organization may be required by this Commission under § 10 of PERA to participate in mediation. Therefore, the duty to bargain must be present before a party can be compelled to involuntarily participate in mediation. If parties have no duty to participate in mediation, they cannot be required to participate in Act 312 arbitration.

Moreover, § 7a of Act 312 gives the arbitration panel chair the authority to remand the matter to mediation. Mediation is a function of bargaining pursuant to PERA. If there is no duty to bargain, there is also no duty to engage in mediation. Therefore, § 7a of Act 312 presupposes the presence of a duty to bargain. In the absence of a duty to bargain, there is no obligation to participate in Act 312 arbitration.

Ex. 2 at 12.

15. It also bears noting that a failure to abide by the terms of an Act 312 arbitration award is not a violation of Act 312, but rather is a violation of the duty to bargain under PERA. City of Jackson, 1979 MERC Lab. Op. 1146, 1151-1154 (1979); see also City of Hamtramck, 1984 MERC Lab. Op. 520, 524 (1984). Therefore, a requirement that the City engage in Act 312 arbitration while its duty to bargain is suspended would be futile – the City cannot breach a duty where no duty exists.

16. The Act 312 Decision also addresses the issue of a potential unilateral implementation of terms and conditions of employment:

In the light of the language of PA 436, we cannot find that the Legislature intended to impose the aforesaid "extraordinary restrictions" of Act 312 on an emergency manager. Inasmuch as an Act 312 award serves as the parties' collective bargaining agreement, it appears that pursuant to § 15(8) of PERA and § 12(1)(j) of PA 436 that the Emergency Manager could reject, modify, or terminate terms of an Act 312 award. If that is the case, it seems doubtful that the Legislature would have intended an employer in receivership, with no duty to bargain and with an emergency manager in place, to be subject to Act 312 arbitration proceedings.

Ex. 2 at 11.

17. The Michigan Supreme Court summarized the standard of review of MERC decisions in Grandville Municipal Executive Ass'n v. City of Grandville, 453 Mich. 428, 436 (1996), stating:

The decisions of the MERC are reviewed on appeal pursuant to Const. 1963, art. 6, § 28, and M.C.L. § 423.216(e); MSA 17.455(16)(e). The commission's findings of fact are conclusive if they are supported by competent, material, and substantial evidence on the record considered as a whole. Port Huron Ed. Ass'n v. Port Huron Area School Dist., 452 Mich. 309, 322, 550 N.W.2d 228 (1996). The MERC's legal determinations may not be disturbed unless they violate a constitutional or statutory provision or they are based on a substantial and material error of law. MCL 24.306(1)(a), (f); MSA 3.560(206)(1)(a), (f).

Id. at 323. Applying this standard, there is no basis to overturn the Act 312

Decision even if such relief were sought by AFSCME. The Act 312 Decision

(a) does not violate a constitutional or statutory provision and (b) is not based on a substantial and material error of law.

18. In addition, the Court of Appeals has held that in applying this standard "an administrative agency's findings and conclusions are entitled to a considerable degree of deference due to the expertise of the agency with respect to the subjects under its jurisdiction." Central State Bank v. Commissioner of Financial Institutions Bureau, 136 Mich. App. 368, 372 (Mich. Ct. App. 1984); see also, e.g., Neal v. Light Corp., 1998 Mich. App. LEXIS 858, *16-*17 (Mich. Ct. App. Dec. 1, 1998) ("[W]here there is sufficient evidence to support the agency's findings, a reviewing court must not substitute its discretion for that of the agency, even if the court would have reached a different result. Indeed, it is irrelevant whether alternative findings could have been supported by the evidence, because deference must be afforded to the agency's findings of fact.").

19. Pursuant to section 101 of the Bankruptcy Code, a creditor holds a claim against a debtor only to the extent that it has a "right to payment" for the asserted liability. See 11 U.S.C. §§ 101(5), 101(10). By contrast, there is no right to payment — and therefore no claim — to the extent that the asserted liability is not due and owing by a debtor. MERC properly found that there is no liability due and owing. Claim 3 has no valid basis and should be disallowed and expunged in its entirety.

Claim 4: Local 207, 2394 and 2920 DWSD Refusal to Bargain – Case Number C13 D-069.

20. Claim 4 asserts that the City violated PERA by unilaterally imposing City Employment Terms on AFSCME Locals 207, 2394, and 2920. See Claim Objection Ex. 1. Like Claim 3, this is another attempt by AFSCME to pursue liability for the necessary cost-savings achieved through the City Employment Terms.

21. Employees represented by AFSCME Locals 207, 2394 and 2920 (the "DWSD Locals") work for the Detroit Water and Sewerage Department ("DWSD"). The imposed City Employment Terms took effect throughout the City on July 18, 2012. See, e.g., the AFSCME Master Non-Supervisory City

Employment Terms applicable to AFSCME non-supervisory employees both within and without DWSD, which is attached as Exhibit 3.

22. Prior to that time, in April 2012, the City entered into a Financial Stability Agreement with the State of Michigan (the "Financial Stability Agreement"), which served as a consent agreement under Public Act 4 of 2011, MCL § 141.1501, et seq. ("PA 4"), and suspended the City's duty to bargain under PERA (similar to its successor PA 436). PA 4, at § 10 ("Unless the state treasurer determines otherwise, beginning 30 days after the date a local government enters into a consent agreement under this act, that local government is not subject to section 15(1) of 1947 PA 336, MCL 423.215, for the remaining term of the consent agreement."). A copy of the Financial Stability Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 4.

23. Thus, during the relevant timeframe, the City had no obligation to bargain with these locals (or any other local) and had the right to unilaterally impose terms and conditions of employment.

24. AFSCME asserts generally that the City engaged in "bad faith" bargaining but gives no specific basis for this allegation other than implementation of the City Employment Terms. There can be no bad faith bargaining under PERA when the duty to bargain has been suspended.

25. As such, Claim 4 should be disallowed and expunged in its entirety because AFSCME cannot show that the City has any debt due and owing as a result of the lawful imposition of the City Employment Terms on the DWSD Locals.

Claim 5: Imposition of Furlough Days in February 2013.

26. Claim 5 asserts that the City violated PERA by unilaterally imposing furlough days. See Claim Objection Ex. 1. Like Claims 3 and 4, AFSCME again seeks relief for the lawful unilateral implementation of employment terms by the City.

27. In March 2013, the City implemented furlough days for certain of its employees as a cost saving mechanism. This practice involved each employee taking an unpaid day off – a furlough day – once every two weeks, thereby reducing hours by 10%.

28. Section 4.1 of the Financial Stability Agreement, then in effect, provided the Mayor of the City with "the authority to ... amend, modify, reject or terminate collective bargaining agreements to the fullest extent authorized by law and subject to the terms of [the] Agreement." Id. § 4.1. Section 4.4 of the Financial Stability Agreement stated that "beginning 30 days after the effective date of this Agreement the City is not subject to Sec. 15(1) of Act 336, Public Acts of Michigan, 1947, as amended MCL, 423.215 [which provides the duty to bargain], for the remaining term of [the] Agreement." Id. § 4.1.

29. Because the City entered into the Financial Stability Agreement with the State while PA 4 was in effect, the Financial Stability Agreement, and the suspension of the duty to bargain contained therein, continued in effect even after PA 4 was rejected by referendum in November 2012.<sup>4</sup> Thus, at the time the City imposed furlough days, it was empowered to do so under the Financial Stability Agreement.

30. As a result, the Claimant cannot show that there is any debt due and owing based on Claim 5, therefore it should be disallowed and expunged in its entirety. This claim also should be disallowed because it is duplicative of Claim 8 (City of Detroit 2012 Negotiations and Implementation With Coalition: MERC Case No. C12 D-065, C12 F-125, C13 G-129), which also seeks to recover for the cost-savings provisions imposed by the City Employment Terms (including furlough days).

Claim 6: Detroit Refusal to Bargain Concerning Transportation Locals – Case Number C12 H-157.

31. Claim 6 again challenges the implementation of the City Employment Terms. It appears to allege that, because the City has opted to bargain with AFSCME Locals 214 and 312, the City had an obligation to bargain with all AFSCME locals, and that the imposition of City Employment Terms on all other AFSCME locals was therefore unlawful. See Claim Objection Ex. 1.

The employees represented by AFSCME Locals 214 and 312 work in the Detroit Department of Transportation ("DDOT").

32. This claim is baseless. The City in fact has opted to bargain with AFSCME Locals 214 and 312 – but not with other AFSCME locals – to preserve the City's ability to receive federal funding for DDOT in accordance with Section 13(c) of the Federal Transportation Act, 49 U.S.C. § 5333(b). This statute provides that:

As a condition of financial assistance under [the Federal Transportation Act] ... the interests of employees affected by the assistance shall be protected under arrangements ... [that provide for] the continuation of collective bargaining rights ....

Id.

33. The Claimant has not cited any authority supporting the proposition that the City is prohibited from choosing to bargain with some AFSCME locals, while choosing not to bargain with other AFSCME locals, or that proceeding in such a manner would nullify the suspension of the duty to bargain under PA 436. Under PA 436, the City has no obligation to bargain with any AFSCME local. The 1988 case relied upon by the Claimant in the Response at page 11, Michigan Ass'n. of Public Employees v. Michigan AFSCME Council 25, 172 Mich. App. 761, 766 (Mich. Ct. App. 1988), is inapposite. That case arose in the context of a representation proceeding in which another union attempted to force a representation vote on the members of AFSCME Local 312. The case does not hold, nor address, the City's ability to negotiate different agreements with different AFSCME locals or even different parts of the same local, which the City has done historically.

34. For example, half of AFSCME Local 1023 (the Emergency Service Operators) historically has reached collective bargaining agreements through Act 312 arbitration, while the other half (the non-Emergency Service Operators) were parties to a different City-wide master collective bargaining agreement. Similarly, AFSCME Local 542 historically has had half of the unit covered by the AFSCME Council 25 Non-Supervisory Master Agreement and the other half of the unit, the Motor City Seasonals, covered under a different master agreement. The recently ratified current agreements for AFSCME Locals 542 and 1023 follow this same historic principle. Thus the Claimant's argument that all AFSCME Locals must be treated the same way contradicts past and current practice.

35. Furthermore, the Claimant's argument that the City was obligated to bargain with non-DDOT AFSCME locals because it opted to bargain with two DDOT locals is contrary to PA 436. Akin to MERC's holding in the Act 312 Decision (i.e., that the City has the ability to choose to participate in Act 312 arbitration even though it is not required to), the City has the ability to choose whether to bargain with some locals and not others – it is not required to bargain with AFSCME at all. See Ex. 2 at 13.

36. Finally, this claim is duplicative of Claim 8, which seeks to recover for the implementation of the City Employment Terms generally.

37. For all of these reasons, Claim 6 should be disallowed and expunged in its entirety.

Claim 7: AFSCME Council 25 (13th Check ULP) – MERC Case No. C12-E-092.

38. Claim 7 should be disallowed for all of the reasons set forth in the Supplemental Brief.

Claim 8: City of Detroit 2012 Negotiations and Implementation With Coalition – MERC Case No. C12 D-065, C12 F-125, C13 G-129.

39. Claim 8 asserts that the City violated PERA by failing to execute a 2012 tentative agreement with the Claimant and other non-uniform Detroit unions and subsequently implementing the City Employment Terms unilaterally in July 2012. See Claim Objection Ex. 1. The Claimant places an upper limit on the value of this claim of approximately $170,000,000.

40. This claim should be disallowed because it is duplicative of a portion of Proof of Claim Number 2851 Filed by the Coalition of Detroit Unions, which seeks relief for the same alleged conduct on behalf of AFSCME and other Detroit unions.

41. Additionally, this claim should be disallowed and expunged for all of the reasons set forth in detail in the City's concurrently filed Reply in Support of the Objection of the City of Detroit to Proof of Claim Number 2851 Filed by the Coalition of Detroit Unions, this claim is meritless and should be disallowed and expunged in its entirety.

Claim 9: Violation of Privatization Ordinance.

42. Claim 9 alleges generally that "[t]he City has repeatedly violated the City's Privatization Ordinance," but it does not identify a single violation of the ordinance with particularity. See Claim Objection Ex. 1. This claim should be disallowed and expunged in its entirety because it is simply too vague and general to state a legitimate and allowable claim. Moreover, the City is not aware of any such valid liability.

Claim 10: City of Detroit/DFFA – MERC Case No. C11 K-201.

43. Claim 10 refers to an unfair labor practice charge pending before MERC alleging that work designated for an AFSCME Local bargaining unit was being performed by the Detroit Fire Fighters' Association. See Claim Objection Ex. 1.

44. This claim should be disallowed and expunged in its entirety because it is duplicative of grievances that already have been resolved through the grievance mediation process.<sup>5</sup>

Claim 11: City of Detroit Longevity Claim for AFSCME Employees: Claim number 12-000522 and 12-000523; Wayne County Circuit Court Number 13-003430-AA.

45. Claim 11 seeks a claim based on the City's elimination of longevity payments in 2010. See Claim Objection Ex. 1.

46. The facts underlying this claim are the same as those presented to Michigan Department of Licensing and Regulatory Affairs, Wage and Hour Division (the "Wage and Hour Division"), Administrative Law Judge David M. Cohen, when the Claimant previously litigated this issue. See Response Ex. 10. ALJ Cohen's decision is instructive. In that decision, he ruled that longevity payments were governed by contract, not state law, and that the contract in effect at the time longevity payments would have come due did not require the City to make longevity payments. See Response Ex. 9 at 12.

The City's Labor Relations Department engaged in facilitative mediation with AFSCME staff representatives over a six-month period ending in April 2014. During this process, each AFSCME Local President with pending prepetition grievances met with the AFSCME staff representatives and City Labor Relations to mediate an expedited resolution to those grievances. Various of those grievances were resolved for de minimis amounts that will be paid in the ordinary course, subject to a settlement agreement that requires AFSCME to amend the Proof of Claim to withdraw the portion of the claim settled through grievance mediation.

47. It is undisputed that AFSCME and the City were unable to agree on a 2008-2012 collective bargaining agreement. As a result, the parties engaged in fact-finding and complied with their bargaining obligations under PERA. Ultimately, the City imposed the recommendations of the fact-finder, which recommended the elimination of longevity payments. Al Garrett, President, AFSCME Council 25, acknowledged in a letter to the then Director of Labor Relations for the City that AFSCME accepted the imposed terms as the parties' agreement. A copy of Mr. Garrett's letter is attached as Exhibit 5 hereto.

48. AFSCME appealed ALJ Cohen's decision to the Wayne County Circuit Court. See Response Ex. 11. That appeal remains pending, but currently is subject to the stay of Sections 362 and 922 of the Bankruptcy Code as modified and extended by orders of the Court.

49. Claim 11 should be disallowed because ALJ Cohen's decision remains in effect, and the Claimant cannot meet the standard under applicable Michigan law for setting aside ALJ Cohen's decision on appeal. It cannot show that the "substantial rights of the petitioner have been prejudiced because the decision or order is any of the following:

- (a) In violation of the constitution or a statute.
- (b) In excess of the statutory authority or jurisdiction of the agency.
- (c) Made upon unlawful procedure resulting in material prejudice to a party.

- (d) Not supported by competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record.
- (e) Arbitrary, capricious or clearly an abuse or unwarranted exercise of discretion.
- (f) Affected by other substantial and material error of law.

MCL § 24.306. As discussed above, the Court of Appeals has held that in applying this standard, an administrative agency's decision is entitled to substantial deference. See infra Central State Bank, 136 Mich. App. at 372; Neal 1998 Mich. App. LEXIS 858 at *16-*17.

50. The Claimant argues that Mr. Garrett's letter did not accept the elimination of longevity payments for 2010. This is incorrect. First, the letter does not state that it rejects elimination of the longevity payment 2010 – to the contrary it states that AFSCME accepts the recommendations of the fact-finder (which eliminated longevity payments as of October 2010). Ex. 5. Second, regardless of whether Mr. Garrett intended to accept the elimination of the 2010 longevity payments, the City exercised its lawful right to impose the recommendations of the fact-finder, which eliminated longevity payments; AFSCME's agreement was not required for implementation.<sup>6</sup> It is irrelevant

<sup>6</sup> Under PERA, following fact finding, an employer is entitled to implement the fact finder's recommendations, even absent the assent of the union, so long as the employer has satisfied its duty to meet and bargain with the union for a reasonable period of time following the making of the fact-finder's recommendations. Orion Twp., 18 MPER ¶ 72 at *9 (2005). whether AFSCME believes that its members previously had earned the payment – there was no statutory or contractual obligation on the City to provide the payment in 2010.

Claim 12: Negotiation of Local 542 Supplement Agreement – MERC Case Number C07 L-033.

52. The Claimant has agreed to withdraw this claim. See Dismissal Order.<sup>7</sup>

Claim 13: Detroit and SEMHA – MERC Case No. C05 H-194.

53. Claim 13 relates to a 2005 unfair labor practice charge filed by AFSCME alleging that Department of Health employees were laid off and then rehired by a contractor in violation of PERA. See Claim Objection Ex. 1 at 8.

AFSCME does not dispute that the imposition of the fact finder's recommendations was lawful.

<sup>7</sup> This claim alleges that the City's failure to negotiate a supplemental agreement with AFSCME Local 542 caused its members unspecified "financial harm." See Claim Objection Ex. 1. The City submits that this claim has no value because: (a) supplemental agreements do not address economic terms (economic terms are covered by the AFSCME Master Agreement), thus a failure to have a supplemental agreement would not cause financial harm to bargaining unit members; and (b) this issue is moot because Local 542 now has a ratified supplemental agreement.

54. This claim should be disallowed because: (a) the Claimant failed to timely prosecute this unfair labor practice charge; (b) the layoffs were allowed under the collective bargaining agreement in place at the time; and (c) contrary to the Claimant's arguments, the underlying events had nothing to do with outsourcing.

Claim 14: Breach of Contract Claims.

55. Claim 14 apparently alleges that the City breached various AFSCME collective bargaining agreements, but fails to specify any particular breaches. See Claim Objection Ex. 1 at 8.

56. This claim is too vague and general to state a legitimate and allowable claim. Additionally, this claim is duplicative of many of the individual grievances included as part of Claim 15. As a result, Claim 14 should be disallowed and expunged in its entirety.

Claim 15: Exhibit 2 Listing of Specific Grievances.

57. Claim 15 refers to a list of over 800 grievances attached as Exhibit 2 to the Claim (the "Grievance Chart"). See Proof of Claim at Ex. 2.

58. The City's Labor Relations Department engaged in facilitative mediation with AFSCME to secure an expedited resolution to the grievances listed in the Grievance Chart, as well as others that appeared on various iterations of the Grievance Chart provided to the City by AFSCME.

59. Attached hereto as Exhibit 6 is Exhibit A to the City's proposed settlement agreement, which sets forth the resolution of approximately 220 grievances through the mediation process.

60. With respect to the six hundred or so additional grievances included on the Grievance Chart, but not included in Exhibit 6, AFSCME informed the City that the vast majority have been withdrawn, while some remain outstanding. The City anticipates that City Labor Relations will conclude mediation of these individual grievances with AFSCME in the near future, allowing the parties to enter into a settlement agreement requiring AFSCME to withdraw the portions of the Proof of Claim relating to the individual grievances.

Claim 16: City of Detroit/Human Services Department – Grievance No. 25-01-12 / COA: 12-0077708-CL.

61. Claim 16 relates to an award issued by Arbitrator Roumell, attached as Exhibit 12 to the Claimant's Response, finding that various AFSCME-represented employees were laid off in violation of the applicable collective bargaining agreement. See Response Ex. 12.

62. To the extent that any liability is due and owing under the arbitration award, such liability is limited. The City's records show that approximately one hundred AFSCME-represented employees were affected by the layoff. Of those affected, more than a third either retired or were re-hired by the City. In addition, other factors mitigate any potential liability, including, for example, an individual's receipt of unemployment insurance and income derived from subsequent employment of which the City would have no record.

63. Without adequate support from AFSCME for this alleged liability, Claim 16 should be disallowed.

Claim 17: City of Detroit Retirees Health Care – Grievance No. C10 A-025.

64. Claim 17 should be disallowed for all of the reasons set forth in the Supplemental Brief.<sup>8</sup>

Claim 18: Payroll Disputes.

65. Claim 18 alleges unspecified "payroll disputes." but fails to allege any particular dispute with particularity. See Proof of Claim Ex. 1.

66. This claim is too vague and general to state a legitimate and allowable claim. Additionally, this claim is duplicative of many of the individual grievances included as part of Claim 15. As a result, Claim 18 should be disallowed and expunged in its entirety.

The Supplement describes why this claim is properly classified as an OPEB Claim in Class 12 under the Plan. Even if this claim were properly classified as a Class 14 Claim (which it is not), it nevertheless should be disallowed because the City would have no liability arising from the underlying allegations. The Claimant opted to file a class action lawsuit that has been stayed predicated on the same facts as the this claim. (Copy attached as Exhibit 7.) The allegations of U.S. Constitutional violations and breaches of contract in the class action complaint are baseless for the reasons set forth in the City's Answer and Special and Affirmative Defenses attached hereto as Exhibit 8 and incorporated herein by reference. The Claimant also alleged the same liability in a grievance that is duplicative of the class action lawsuit. If the claim is based on the grievance rather than the lawsuit, it would be subject to disallowance for the same reasons.

Claim 19: Detroit Service and Maintenance Outsourcing in Downtown Detroit – Grievance Number C09-078.

67. Claim 19 alleges that between 2009 and 2012 the City reduced the overtime of "40-60" AFSCME members in violation of the then-current collective bargaining agreement. See Proof of Claim Ex. 1. However, AFSCME has failed to provide the referenced grievance, and the claim fails to allege any particular incident or identify the affected employees with particularity.

68. This claim is too vague and general to state a legitimate and allowable claim. Additionally, this claim may be duplicative of some of the individual grievances included as part of Claim 15. As a result, Claim 19 should be disallowed and expunged in its entirety.

Claim 20: Tree Artisan Failure to Secure License – Grievance Number 727May08.

69. Claim 20 alleges that the City failed to reinstate one employee pursuant to an arbitration award finding that the employee was wrongfully terminated. See Proof of Claim Ex. 1.

70. In the absence of more specifics from AFSCME with respect to this employee, including potential mitigation, the City submits that Claim 20 should be disallowed.

Conclusion

71. For the foregoing reasons, the City requests that the Court sustain the Claim Objection, disallow and expunge the Proof of Claims and grant such other and further relief to the City as the Court may deem proper.

DECISION AND ORDER

This matter is before the Commission on the motions of the Employer, the City of Detroit. On April 18, 2013, the Employer filed its Emergency Motion for Determination of Arbitral Jurisdiction and Dismissal of Act 312 Petitions and Motion for Stay Pending Ruling and its supporting brief. In its motion to the Commission, the Employer states that in each of the three Act 312 arbitration proceedings, the Employer filed a motion with the arbitrator seeking dismissal of the petition on the grounds that the arbitrator had no jurisdiction over this matter based on the suspension of the Employer's duty to bargain set forth in § 27(3) of the Local Financial Stability and Choice Act, 2012 PA 436 (PA 436), MCL 141.1541 – 141.1575. The Employer also filed a motion with each arbitrator seeking a stay of proceedings pending the outcome of the arbitrator's ruling. According to the Employer's motion to the Commission, two of the arbitrators denied the Employer's motion to dismiss and the third had failed to rule at the time the Employer filed the instant motion with the Commission.

Each of the Unions involved in the three arbitrations, Police Officers Association of Michigan (POAM), Detroit Police Command Officers Association (DPCOA), and Detroit Police Lieutenants & Sergeants Association (DPLSA) have filed responses to the Employer's motions to the Commission. At our meeting on May 14, 2013, we stayed the Act 312 proceedings pending our decision in this matter, granted leave to the Detroit Fire Fighters Association to file an amicus curiae brief in response to the City's motions, and heard oral argument from the Employer, POAM, DPCOA, and DPLSA.

The Employer claims that each of the three Act 312 arbitration cases should be dismissed based on the suspension of its duty to bargain pursuant to PA 436. Each of the involved Unions and the amicus curiae contend that there is no basis for dismissal of the Act 312 arbitrations and have raised several arguments in an effort to rebut the Employer's contention that the arbitrations should be dismissed. The Unions question the Commission's jurisdiction to dismiss a pending Act 312 arbitration. The three involved Unions contend that the suspension of the Employer's duty to bargain under PA 436 does not impact the parties' rights and obligations to proceed with Act 312 arbitrations on petitions filed prior to March 28, 2013, the effective date of Act 436.

Procedural History

In City of Detroit and Police Officers Association of Michigan, Case No. D09 F-0703, the Commission received notice on June 1, 2009, that the parties were in negotiations for a new collective bargaining agreement pursuant to §7(2) of the Public Employment Relations Act (PERA), 1965 PA 379 as amended, MCL 423.207(2). On June 15, 2010, the POAM filed a petition for Act 312 arbitration. The arbitrator currently assigned to the case, William E. Long, was appointed on October 2, 2012. On or about April 15, 2013, the Employer filed two motions with Arbitrator Long, a motion for an Award of Dismissal Due to Lack of Arbitral Jurisdiction, and a motion for a Stay of Proceedings Pending Determination of Jurisdiction by MERC. On April 17, 2013, Long denied the motion to dismiss but granted the stay after learning that the Employer had brought similar motions before this Commission and based on his belief that this Commission was the appropriate body to resolve this issue.

At the time of Long's April 17 ruling, hearing dates had already been scheduled for April 22, April 29, and May 2, 2013. He notified the parties that the hearing scheduled for April 22 would proceed, but directed the parties to meet on the remaining two dates for the purpose of reviewing, clarifying, and possibly resolving some of the issues in advance of any subsequent hearing dates. He concluded that if "MERC rules that Section 27(3) of Act 436 does preclude MERC from retaining jurisdiction of this case, proceeding with the April 22, 2013 hearing and scheduling others, if needed, following a ruling by MERC, is not a significant financial burden on the parties and the information obtained from the April 22, 2013 hearing, and the April 29, 2013 and May 2, 2013 meetings of the representatives for the parties, may assist the parties in ultimate resolution of many matters in dispute through further collective bargaining." The April 22, 2013 hearing was conducted and is the only hearing that has been held in this case.

In City of Detroit and Detroit Police Command Officers Association, Case No. D11 J-1169, the Employer filed a petition for Act 312 arbitration on October 5, 2011. On September 11, 2012, the Employer withdrew its petition over the objection of the DPCOA. In response, the director of the Bureau of Employment Relations, notified the parties by letter dated September 13, 2012, that the Commission had reviewed the parties' filings at its September 11, 2012 meeting and concluded that nothing in the Act 312 statute and/or rules requires or allows the Commission to approve or deny a party's request to withdraw its petition. The letter went on to explain that the "obvious remedy for a Union that objects to the withdrawal is to file its own Act 312 petition." The DPCOA filed its petition for Act 312 arbitration on September 20, 2012. Arbitrator Gregory M. Saltzman was appointed on October 5, 2012 and held a prehearing conference on March 1, 2013. In an e-mail to the parties dated April 19, 2013, Arbitrator Saltzman acknowledged receipt of the two motions from the Employer and deferred the issue to the Commission.

In City of Detroit and Detroit Police Lieutenants & Sergeants Association, Case No. D13 A-0005, a petition for Act 312 arbitration was filed on February 4, 2013 by the DPLSA. Arbitrator Francis L Hill was appointed on February 19, 2013, and held a prehearing conference on February 26, 2013. In an e-mail to the parties on April 28, 2013, Arbitrator Hill notified the parties of hearing dates scheduled for May 15, 16, and 21, and June 11 and 13, 2013. She informed the parties that the Employer's motion to dismiss was pending before the Commission and that she would advise them if MERC's decision had an impact on the scheduled hearing dates.

Discussion and Conclusions of Law:

I. COMMISSION JURISDICTION

The Employer argues that the Commission should rule on its motion to dismiss because the arbitrators are deferring the question of jurisdiction to MERC. The Employer seeks a global ruling on the legal issues presented by the impact of PA 436 on pending Act 312 arbitrations and wants the Commission to provide guidance on the question of whether the arbitrators may exercise jurisdiction in these matters. Whether the Commission has jurisdiction to rule on the questions presented by the Employer's motion to dismiss depends on the authority granted by the Legislature to MERC in the Labor Relations and Mediation Act (LRMA), Act 176 of 1939; the Public Employment Relations Act (PERA), Act 336 of 1947; and the act that provides for compulsory arbitration of labor disputes in police and fire departments, Act 312 of 1969 (Act 312).

A. Act 312 Provisions with Respect to MERC's Authority

Matters proceed to Act 312 arbitration following mediation initiated pursuant to §7 of PERA, MCL 423.207<sup>1</sup>. After a matter has been submitted to mediation for at least 30 days, either of the parties may request binding arbitration pursuant to § 3 of Act 312, MCL 423.233. In City of Manistee v Employment Relations Comm & Manistee Fire Fighters Ass'n, 168 Mich App 422, 428 (1988), the Court commented: "The only prerequisites [to Act 312 arbitration] are those expressly stated in § 3 of Act 312." Section 3 of Act 312, MCL 423.233, sets the prerequisites for proceeding to Act 312 arbitration as follows:

Whenever in the course of mediation of a public police or fire department employee's dispute, except a dispute concerning the interpretation or application of an existing agreement (a "grievance" dispute), the dispute has not been resolved to the agreement of both parties within 30 days of the submission of the dispute to mediation, or within such further additional periods to which the parties may agree, the employees or employer may initiate binding arbitration proceedings by prompt request therefor, in writing, to the other, with copy to the employment relations commission.

Only §§ 3, 4, 5, 6 and 7a of Act 312, as amended, mention or refer to the Commission. Section 4, MCL 423.234, provides the process for the parties to select their delegates to the arbitration panel and notify each other and the "mediation board" of their selections. Section 5, MCL 423.235, establishes the procedure to be used in selecting the chair of the arbitration panel

- (1) Upon the request of the collective bargaining representative defined in section 11 or, if a representative has not been designated or selected, upon the request of a majority of any given group of public employees evidenced by a petition signed by the majority and delivered to the commission, or upon request of any public employer of the employees, the commission forthwith shall mediate the grievances set forth in the petition or notice, and for the purposes of mediating the grievances, the commission shall exercise the powers and authority conferred upon the commission by sections 10 and 11 of Act No. 176 of the Public Acts of 1939, as amended, being sections 423.10 and 423.11 of the Michigan Compiled Laws.
- (2) At least 60 days before the expiration date of a collective bargaining agreement, the parties shall notify the commission of the status of negotiations. If the dispute remains unresolved 30 days after the notification on the status of negotiations and a request for mediation is not received, the commission shall appoint a mediator.

from MERC's panel of arbitrators, authorizes MERC to establish and appoint members of the panel of arbitrators, and requires MERC to establish qualifications and training for panel members. Section 6, MCL 423.236, sets time periods for the arbitration and establishes procedures that the arbitration panel members are to follow. It also provides that the fee to be paid to the panel's chair is to be established in advance by the Commission. Section 7a, MCL 423.237a, authorizes the chair of the arbitration panel to remand the matter for further bargaining and requires the chair to notify the Commission of any such remand.

B. Prior MERC Actions in Act 312 Cases

The Employer contends that the Commission is empowered to determine jurisdictional limits for Act 312 panels, citing City of Detroit, 1990 MERC Lab Op 561, 565. In the City of Detroit case, after noting that the Commission has jurisdiction to determine what is a mandatory subject of bargaining and whether employees are eligible for Act 312 arbitration, the Commission denied the employer's motion to instruct the Act 312 arbitrator to refrain from deciding those issues. The Commission stated, id. at 565:

The jurisdiction of an Act 312 arbitration panel to make findings on these issues in the absence of, or concurrent with, our rulings has now been firmly established. We see no reason to grant the employer's request that we direct the Act 312 panel's actions in this case. Under Section 12 of Act 312, the employer may seek review by the Circuit Court of findings by the arbitration panel on the grounds that the panel exceeded its jurisdiction.

While it may be noted that the Commission refused to dismiss the Act 312 proceeding in this case, MERC did not find that it lacks the authority to do so.

In support of its contention that the Commission should decide this issue, the Employer also argues that Act 312 panels function under the auspices of the Commission and are bound by the Commission's decisions, citing Jackson Fire Fighters Ass'n v City of Jackson, 227 Mich App 520, 523 (1998). In the Jackson Fire Fighters Ass'n case, the Act 312 arbitrator held that a matter was a mandatory subject of bargaining. The circuit court affirmed the arbitration award on appeal. In a concurrent unfair labor practice charge case involving the same parties, City of Jackson, 1996 MERC Lab Op 125; 9 MPER 27050, the Commission found the disputed matter to be a permissive subject of bargaining. Upon subsequent review of the circuit court ruling and MERC's decision, the Court of Appeals held that MERC had primary jurisdiction to determine whether the matter was a mandatory subject of bargaining, and therefore, the decision of the arbitrator did not bar MERC from adjudicating the issue based on collateral estoppel. In the two cases cited above, it is clear that the Commission has jurisdiction to determine, in an unfair labor practice charge case, whether subjects of bargaining brought before an Act 312 arbitrator are mandatory or permissive.

This Commission also has jurisdiction to determine whether an Act 312 arbitration should proceed by ascertaining whether the employees in the bargaining unit are eligible for Act 312 arbitration. Metropolitan Council 23, AFSCME v Oakland Co (Prosecutor's Investigators), 89 Mich App 564 (1979) rev'd on other grounds, 409 Mich 299 (1980); Kalamazoo Co, 23

MPER 22 (2010); Oakland Co & Oakland Co Sheriff, 20 MPER 63 (2007); City of Grand Rapids, 1981 MERC Lab Op 327. Typically, such determinations are made in the context of a unit clarification or other representation proceeding.

In a representation proceeding, Oakland Co Sheriff's Dep't, 1977 MERC Lab Op 843, the Commission was called upon to determine whether a pending Act 312 arbitration was appropriate. The union, Metropolitan Council 23 of AFSCME, and the employer, Oakland County Sheriff's Department, had reached an impasse in negotiations and in mediation. The union initiated arbitration under Act 312. The employer objected, contending that the arbitration included the issue of wages for "nonpolice" classifications that were not eligible for Act 312 arbitration. The employer moved to dismiss the representation hearing, which was scheduled before a MERC ALJ, contending the matter was within the sole discretion of the Act 312 arbitrator. The Commission denied the employer's motion and concluded, id. at 846-848, that it did indeed have jurisdiction to resolve the issue. The MERC noted that § 14 of Act 312 specifically makes the Act supplementary to PERA and observed that § 7 of PERA MCL 423.207, and §§ 10 and 11 of the LRMA, MCL 423.10 and 423.11, conferred broad powers upon it. The Commission explained, id. at 847,

We find that the responsibility for implementing Act 312 necessarily includes the power to determine who is covered by the Act. This is simply an extension of the Commission's function in representation matters. The resolution of questions involving employer and employee status, exclusions under PERA and the LRMA, community of interest and appropriate bargaining units, is an integral part of the work of the Commission. Clearly, the Commission's expertise in determining such issues is significant in determining the question raised in these proceedings. In addition, a determination by the Commission ensures the necessary uniformity and consistency in this important area.

. . . . [A] determination of who is covered by the Act is a condition precedent to the arbitration proceeding itself, and is not properly before the arbitrator since it is not an "issue in dispute" as asserted by the Employer.

In a separate, unrelated matter, Metropolitan Council 23, AFSCME v Oakland Co (Prosecutor's Investigators), 89 Mich App 564 (1979) rev'd on other grounds, 409 Mich 299 (1980), the Court of Appeals considered an appeal of MERC's decision in Oakland Co (Prosecutor's Investigators), 1978 MERC Lab Op 328, and adopted the Commission's reasoning Oakland Co Sheriff's Dep't. There, the Court of Appeals found, at 89 Mich App 567, that the Legislature intended to provide public employees eligible for Act 312 arbitration with an "expeditious, effective and binding procedure for the resolution of disputes." Noting that the Legislature's purpose of establishing an expeditious dispute resolution procedure would be impeded by the lengthy delays inherent in court procedures, the Court reasoned, id. at 567-568, that MERC "has the necessary implied authority and expertise in labor relations to initially determine the eligibility of public employees for compulsory arbitration" and cited Oakland Co Sheriff's Dep't, 1977 MERC Lab Op 843. The Court of Appeals affirmed MERC's finding, in Oakland Co (Prosecutor's Investigators), 1978 MERC Lab Op 328, that the Oakland County prosecutor's investigators were eligible for Act 312 arbitration.

Subsequently, the Michigan Supreme Court granted the employer's motion for leave to appeal and both MERC and the Court of Appeals were reversed on the issue of the investigators' eligibility for Act 312 arbitration. Metropolitan Council 23, AFSCME v Oakland Co (Prosecutor's Investigators), 409 Mich 299 (1980). The Supreme Court found the employees were not subject to Act 312 coverage. Although the Supreme Court did not address the issue of whether MERC has the authority to determine Act 312 eligibility, it has been widely accepted that MERC's authority extends to determining the eligibility of employees for Act 312 arbitration. Since that time, MERC has reviewed the Act 312 eligibility of numerous bargaining units in which the union and employer disputed the eligibility of all or part of the unit's members. Macomb Co (Sheriff's Dep't), 1991 MERC Lab Op 542, 547. See, e.g. Michigan State Univ (Police Dep't), 26 MPER 44 (2013); Kalamazoo Co, 23 MPER 22 (2010); Oakland Co & Oakland Co Sheriff, 20 MPER 63 (2007); Kent Co & Kent Co Sheriff, 1991 MERC Lab Op 549; 4 MPER 22071; Washtenaw Co (Sheriff's Dep't), 1990 MERC Lab Op 768; City of Detroit (Police Detention Facility), 1990 MERC Lab Op 598; Midland Co, 1989 MERC Lab Op 923; Mecosta Co, 1989 MERC Lab Op 607.

We agree with the prior Commission in Oakland Co Sheriff's Dep't, and with the Court of Appeals in Metropolitan Council 23, AFSCME v Oakland Co (Prosecutor's Investigators) that by enacting § 7 of PERA and §§ 10 and 11 of the LRMA, the Legislature conferred broad powers upon the Commission for the purpose of resolving labor disputes. We also agree with the previous Commission that it is our responsibility to exercise these powers "as are necessary to carry out the purposes of PERA and the supplementary Act 312." As with the Commission in Oakland Co Sheriff's Dep't, 1977 MERC Lab Op 843, 847, "We find that the responsibility for implementing Act 312 necessarily includes the power to determine who is covered by the Act." Therefore, given the importance of this issue and the number of parties affected, including those beyond the instant cases, we find it is necessary to provide the parties and our panel of arbitrators with our decision on the question of whether the suspension of the duty to bargain pursuant to § 27(3) of the Local Financial Stability and Choice Act, Public Act 436 of 2012, MCL 141.1567(3), also suspends the authority of the Act 312 arbitrator in a pending arbitration.

C. Does This Matter Raise a Constitutional Question That Must Be Resolved by the Courts?

DPCOA argues that the question of whether PA 436 deprives an Act 312 arbitrator of jurisdiction must be determined by the courts, citing Kent Co Sheriffs Ass'n v Kent Co, 463 Mich 353, 359-362 (2000).<sup>2</sup> DPCOA argues at length that the Legislature's failure to amend §15(8) of PERA, to replace the reference to 2011 PA 4 with a reference to PA 436, makes the language of that provision invalid and creates a conflict with § 27(3) of PA 436 in violation of the Michigan Constitution. Section 15(8) of PERA states:

Collective bargaining agreements under this act may be rejected, modified, or terminated pursuant to the local government and school district fiscal accountability act, 2011 PA 4, MCL 141.1501 to 141.1531. This act does not confer a right to bargain that would infringe on the exercise of powers under the local government and school district fiscal accountability act, 2011 PA 4, MCL 141.1501 to 141.1531.

The Commission has no jurisdiction to resolve questions of the constitutionality of legislative enactments. Michigan State Univ, 17 MPER 75 (2004). The Commission must decide matters before it based on the language of PERA and its amendments. Waverly Cmty Sch, 26 MPER 34 (2012). Thus, any constitutional issues that the parties wish to raise must be raised elsewhere.

II. THE IMPACT OF PA 436 ON RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS UNDER ACT 312

The Employer argues that the arbitration panels have no jurisdiction over the parties, the petitions, or the matters in dispute where the City's duty to bargain has been suspended by the operation of § 27(3) of PA 436. According to the Employer, Act 312 is a procedural statute and acts as an extension of, or supplement to, PERA, while PERA is the substantive enabling statute that defines the contents and parameters of the duty to bargain. The Employer contends: "Where the duty to bargain under PERA is suspended, there can be no compulsory arbitration over mandatory subjects of bargaining because no subjects remain 'mandatory' and therefore, [there is] no dispute to resolve."

A. The Relationship between 1969 PA 312, As Amended, and 2012 PA 436

This Commission's interpretation of these two statutes is constrained by rules of statutory construction established by the courts. The rules of statutory construction tell us that, much like any literary composition, a statute is enacted and is meant to be read as a whole. Metropolitan Council 23, AFSCME v Oakland Co Prosecutor, 409 Mich 299, 317-318 (1980). As such, any provision that is in dispute must be read in the light of the general purpose of the act. Romeo Homes, Inc v Comm'r of Revenue, 361 Mich 128, 135 (1960).

While both statutes deal with local government administration there is no express conflict in their purposes or in their wording. Act 312 of 1969 was recently amended by 2011 PA 116 which became effective July 20, 2011. Less than two years later, 2012 PA 436 took effect on March 28, 2013. Indeed, PA 436 makes no reference to Act 312 or to its recent amendment in 2011 PA 116. PA 436 does not exclude bargaining units eligible for Act 312 arbitration from its coverage.<sup>3</sup>

Under well-established principles of statutory construction, the legislature is presumed to be aware of and to have considered the effect on all existing statutes when enacting new ones. Walen v Dep't of Corrections, 443 Mich 240, 248 (1993). Moreover, rules of statutory construction hold that the legislature is presumed to be aware of statutory interpretations by the courts and by the administrative bodies charged with statutory enforcement. Gordon Sel-Way, Inc v Spence Bros, Inc, 438 Mich 488, 505-506 (1991); Melia v Appeal Bd of Michigan Employment Sec Comm, 346 Mich 544, 565-566 (1956); Parker v Bd of Ed of Byron Center Pub Sch, 229 Mich App 565, 570-5712 (1998).

<sup>3</sup> We note that the Legislature expressly excluded employees eligible for Act 312 arbitration from the changes under the "Freedom-to-Work" amendment to PERA, 2012 PA 349, which became effective on the same day as 2012 PA 436.

The Commission has found that the failure to honor terms and conditions of employment established by an Act 312 award is a violation of § 10(1)(e) of PERA. City of Jackson, 1979 MERC Lab Op 1146, 1151-1154. See also, City of Hamtramck, 1984 MERC Lab Op 520, 524.

In City of Jackson, at 1151, the Commission explained:

A refusal to execute a completed collective bargaining agreement is an unfair labor practice whether negotiated through voluntary collective bargaining or by submission of unresolved issues to Act 312 arbitration.

The Commission went on to say, id. at 1153-1154:

The legislative policy of providing an "expeditious," "effective," and "binding" procedure for resolving labor disputes would be severely undermined if the parties could short circuit the Act by refusing to execute the contract.

* * *

The term "resolution of disputes" in § 1 of the Act [312] means that the product of compulsory arbitration is a completed collective bargaining agreement. The refusal to execute that agreement is a refusal to bargain in good faith

Section 10(1)(e) of PERA prohibits public employers that have a duty to bargain from refusing to bargain collectively with the representatives of their employees. However, if their duty to bargain has been suspended, their refusal to bargain does not violate § 10(1)(e). Quite simply, there can be no breach of duty if there is no duty. Thus, when a public employer's duty to bargain has been suspended, their failure to comply with the terms and conditions of an Act 312 award would not violate § 10(1)(e) of PERA and the Act 312 award cannot be enforced under PERA.

As we stated in Oakland Co & Oakland Co Sheriff, 20 MPER 63 (2007):

Act 312 functions primarily as an extraordinary restriction on the ordinary rights of certain public employers to unilaterally impose changes in conditions of employment when good faith negotiations have failed to result in agreement.

Nevertheless, without reference to Act 312, § 12(1)(j) of PA 436 in conjunction with § 15(8) of PERA gives the Emergency Manager the right to reject, modify, or terminate terms of an existing collective bargaining agreement. Section 15(8) of PERA states:

Collective bargaining agreements under this act may be rejected, modified, or terminated pursuant to the local government and school district fiscal accountability act, 2011 PA 4, MCL 141.1501 to 141.1531. This act does not confer a right to bargain that would infringe on the exercise of powers under the local government and school district fiscal accountability act, 2011 PA 4, MCL 141.1501 to 141.1531.<sup>4</sup>

Section 12(1)(j) of PA 436 states:

(1) An emergency manager may take 1 or more of the following additional actions with respect to a local government that is in receivership, notwithstanding any charter provision to the contrary:

* * *

(j) Reject, modify, or terminate 1 or more terms and conditions of an existing contract.

---

<sup>4</sup> We recognize the arguments made by the Petitioners challenging the constitutionality of PA 436 and the substitution of its provisions for the provisions of 2011 PA 4. However, as indicated above in our discussion of Petitioners' constitutional challenge, we must administer the law as it is enacted and must give effect to the provisions of PA 436, as well as its enacting § 2 which provides as follows:

2012 PA 436, enacting § 2, provides:

It is the intent of the Legislature that this act function and be interpreted as a successor statute to former 1988 PA 101, former 1990 PA 72, and former 2011 PA 4, and that whenever possible a reference to former 1988 PA 101, former 1990 PA 72, or former 2011 PA 4, under other laws of this state or to a function or responsibility of an emergency financial manager or emergency manager under former 1988 PA 101, former 1990 PA 72, or former 2011 PA 4, under other laws of this state shall function and be interpreted to reference to this act, with the other laws of this state referencing former 1988 PA 101, former 1990 PA 72, or former 2011 PA 4, including, but not limited to, all of the following:

- (a) The Charter Township Act, 1947 PA 359, MCL 42.1 to 42.34.
- (b) 1966 PA 293, MCL 45.501 to 45.521.
- (c) 1851 PA 156, MCL 46.1 to 46.32.
- (d) The General Law Village Act, 1895 PA 3, MCL 61.1 to 74.25.
- (e) The Home Rule Village Act, 1909 PA 278, MCL 78.1 to 78.28.
- (f) The Fourth Class City Act, 1895 PA 215, MCL 81.1 to 113.20.
- (g) The Home Rule City Act, 1909 PA 279, MCL 117.1 to 117.38.
- (h) The Metropolitan Transportation Authorities Act of 1967, 1967 PA 204, MCL 124.401 to 124.426.
- (i) 1947 PA 336, MCL 423.201 to 423.217.

In the light of the language of PA 436, we cannot find that the Legislature intended to impose the aforesaid "extraordinary restrictions" of Act 312 on an emergency manager. Inasmuch as an Act 312 award serves as the parties' collective bargaining agreement, it appears that pursuant to § 15(8) of PERA and § 12(1)(j) of PA 436 that the Emergency Manager could reject, modify, or terminate terms of an Act 312 award. If that is the case, it seems doubtful that the Legislature would have intended an employer in receivership, with no duty to bargain and with an emergency manager in place, to be subject to Act 312 arbitration proceedings.

Petitioners have argued that the amendment to § 9 of Act 312 by 2011 PA 116 indicates that an employer in receivership remains subject to the operation of Act 312. Section 9 of Act 312, as amended, provides in relevant part:

(1) If the parties have no collective bargaining agreement or the parties have an agreement and have begun negotiations or discussions looking to a new agreement or amendment of the existing agreement and wage rates or other conditions of employment under the proposed new or amended agreement are in dispute, the arbitration panel shall base its findings, opinions, and order upon the following factors:

(a) The financial ability of the unit of government to pay. All of the following shall apply to the arbitration panel's determination of the ability of the unit of government to pay:

* * *

(iv) Any law of this state or any directive issued under the local government and school district fiscal accountability act, 2011 PA 4, MCL 141.1501 to 141.1531, that places limitations on a unit of government's expenditures or revenue collection.<sup>5</sup>

The Employer contends that the amendment to § 9 of Act 312 by 2011 PA 116 does not show that an employer in receivership remains subject to the operation of Act 312. The Employer asserts, that the amended § 9 of Act 312 applies to those municipalities where the duty to bargain has not been suspended. We agree.

B. Is Act 312 Arbitration Dependent on the Presence of a Duty to Bargain?

In Metropolitan Council 23, AFSCME v Center Line, 414 Mich 642 (1982), the Court inferred from PERA that the distinction drawn between mandatory and permissive subjects of bargaining determines the scope of the Act 312 arbitration panel's authority. Given the fact that Act 312 supplements PERA and that under § 15 of PERA the duty to bargain only extends to mandatory subjects, the Court concluded that the arbitration panel can only compel agreement as to mandatory subjects. The Court noted further that it would be inconsistent to conclude that the arbitration panel can issue an award on a permissive subject when the parties do not even have a duty to bargain over such a subject. Based on that, we might infer that the arbitration panel has no authority over matters for which there is no duty to bargain.

The mediation process is a condition precedent to initiation of Act 312 arbitration. A public employer that has no duty to bargain has no duty to participate in mediation. Only a public employer not in receivership under PA 436 or a labor organization may be required by this Commission under § 10 of PERA to participate in mediation. Therefore, the duty to bargain must be present before a party can be compelled to involuntarily participate in mediation. If parties have no duty to participate in mediation, they cannot be required to participate in Act 312 arbitration.

Moreover, § 7a of Act 312 gives the arbitration panel chair the authority to remand the matter to mediation. Mediation is a function of bargaining pursuant to PERA. If there is no duty to bargain, there is also no duty to engage in mediation. Therefore, § 7a of Act 312 presupposes the presence of a duty to bargain. In the absence of a duty to bargain, there is no obligation to participate in Act 312 arbitration.

C. Does Suspension of the Duty to Bargain Pursuant to 2012 PA 436 Convert Mandatory Subjects of Bargaining to Non-Mandatory Subjects of Bargaining?

The Employer contends: "Where there is no duty to bargain, there are no mandatory subjects in dispute regarding which an Act 312 panel has jurisdiction to fashion an Award." It asserts that "by operation of Act 436, there are no subjects regarding which there is a duty to bargain and therefore none can be the subject of an Award." (Emphasis in original.)

As previously noted, an Act 312 arbitration panel can only issue an award regarding mandatory subjects of bargaining. Metropolitan Council 23, AFSCME v Center Line, 414 Mich 642, 654-655 (1982). Moreover, as indicated above, both this Commission's past enforcement of an Act 312 award as a violation of the duty to bargain and the arbitration panel chair's authority under § 7a of Act 312 to remand a matter to mediation indicates an assumption that the duty to bargain is a condition precedent to participation in Act 312. However, we reject the Employer's premise that the suspension of the duty to bargain automatically converts the nature of subjects of bargaining from mandatory to non-mandatory. The existence of a duty to bargain is a separate and distinct issue from the question of whether a particular subject of bargaining is mandatory or permissive.

Whether a matter is a mandatory subject of bargaining depends on whether it has a significant or material impact on wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment or settles an aspect of the employer-employee relationship. Detroit v Michigan Council 25, AFSCME, 118 Mich App 211, 215 (1982); Houghton Lake Ed Ass'n v Houghton Lake Cmty Sch, Bd of Ed, 109 Mich App 1, 6 (1981). Once a subject has been determined to be a mandatory subject of bargaining, parties bound by the duty to bargain under PERA, must bargain concerning the subject. Neither party may take unilateral action on that subject unless the parties arrive at an impasse in their negotiations or there is a clear and unmistakable waiver. Wayne Co Gov't Bar Ass'n v Wayne Co, 169 Mich App 480, 486 (1988); 1 MPER 19105, aff'g 1987 MERC Lab Op 230; Central Michigan Univ Faculty Ass'n v Central Michigan Univ, 404 Mich 268, 277

(1978). See also Detroit Police Officers Ass'n v Detroit, 391 Mich 44, 54-55 (1974). The Commission and the courts have adopted an expansive interpretation of "wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment" under § 15 of PERA. Local 1383, Int'l Ass'n of Fire Fighters v Warren, 411 Mich 642, 652 (1981).

A matter that is a mandatory subject of bargaining remains so, even if a party's duty to bargain is suspended. The nature of the subject does not change just because the duty ceases. Wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment continue to be mandatory subjects for the purpose of determining what must be bargained by those parties who have a duty to bargain.

Where a public employer's duty to bargain is statutorily suspended, the employer has no obligation to bargain. However, nothing in PERA denies a public employer the right to bargain, even when the duty to bargain under § 15(1) has been suspended. Indeed, the suspension of a public employer's duty to bargain does not suspend the bargaining obligation of the labor organization representing that employer's employees. Therefore, if an emergency manager of a public employer in receivership determines that the employer should bargain with the labor organization, the employer has the right to bargain with that labor organization. The labor organization, in that situation, still has a duty to bargain in good faith pursuant to §§ 10(3)(c) and 15(1) of PERA. Similarly, if an emergency manager of a public employer in receivership determines that the employer should petition for Act 312 arbitration in an effort to resolve a labor dispute with a bargaining unit of police or fire fighters, that employer may petition for Act 312 arbitration. In that case, unless the parties agree otherwise, the arbitration would be limited to mandatory subjects of bargaining, that is, matters that have a material impact on wages, hours, and other terms and conditions of employment or settle an aspect of the employer-employee relationship.

The finding urged by the Employer on this issue, could result in the denial of an employer's right to settle a pending labor dispute through Act 312 proceedings. Even though we agree with the Employer that the suspension of its duty to bargain under PA 436 also suspends its obligation to participate in Act 312 proceedings, we cannot agree that such suspension denies the Employer the opportunity to participate in Act 312 arbitration should it so choose. Accordingly, we find the suspension of the duty to bargain does not convert mandatory subjects of bargaining to non-mandatory subjects. The underlying nature of subjects of bargaining, whether they are mandatory or permissive, does not change upon the suspension of an employer's duty to bargain. Indeed, nothing in PA 436 declares a change in the nature of subjects of bargaining. It merely suspends the duty to bargain of an employer in receivership. That employer still retains the right to bargain and the right to proceed to Act 312 arbitration if it determines that to be appropriate under the circumstances. However, where an employer in receivership chooses not to participate in Act 312 arbitration they have no obligation to do so. For the foregoing reasons, we conclude that where an employer has no duty to bargain under PERA and has not voluntarily consented to Act 312 arbitration, the arbitration panel has no authority to issue an award binding that employer.

III. CONCLUSION

The Employer in this matter is in receivership and has no duty to bargain under PA 436. It has expressed an unwillingness to bargain or participate in Act 312 arbitration in light of PA 436. As such, the Employer has no obligation to participate in Act 312 arbitration and is not required to do so. Accordingly, the arbitrations in the cases before us must be dismissed.

We have considered all other arguments submitted by the parties and conclude that they would not change the result in this case.

ORDER

The Employer's motion to dismiss the Act 312 arbitrations pending in these three cases is granted. The Act 312 arbitrations in City of Detroit and Police Officers Association of Michigan, Case No. D09 F-0703, City of Detroit and Detroit Police Command Officers Association, Case No. D11 J-1169, and City of Detroit and Detroit Police Lieutenants & Sergeants Association, Case No. D13 A-0005, are hereby dismissed.

COMMISSIONER GREEN, CONCURRING IN PART; DISSENTING IN PART:

Although I agree with the Majority's rejection of the Employer's argument that the suspension of the duty to bargain converts mandatory subjects of bargaining to permissive subjects, I disagree with the Majority's conclusion that the three Act 312 arbitration cases should be dismissed.

In numerous representation cases, we have been called upon to determine whether Act 312 petitions met the requirements of § 3 of Act 312 to initiate binding arbitration proceedings. In those cases, we were required to decide whether bargaining unit members met the definition of "public police or fire department employee" contained in § 2 of Act 312. Where the bargaining unit members were not public police or fire department employees, the requirements for initiating an Act 312 proceeding under § 3 were not met and, we dismissed the proceeding. For this Commission to initially determine the eligibility of public employees for compulsory arbitration in the context of representation proceedings is simply an extension of the Commission's function in representation matters.

However, in the three cases before us, there is no assertion by the Employer that the requirements for initiating Act 312 proceedings were not met. The Employer has not filed any representation proceeding claiming that the members of the three involved bargaining units are not public police or fire department employees as defined by § 2 of Act 312 nor has the Employer made any assertion that a creditable claim could be filed on that basis.

In these cases, the requirements for submitting the matters to mediation were met before PA 436 took effect and nothing in PA 436 indicates that the suspension of the duty to bargain is retroactive. When the parties were in mediation, the employer had a duty to bargain. In each case, the labor dispute was not resolved to the agreement of both parties and a petition for Act 312 arbitration was filed. All three petitions were filed and arbitrators were appointed in each case before PA 436 became effective.

I find nothing in PERA or Act 312 that authorizes this Commission to dismiss an Act 312 petition when the conditions in § 3 of Act 312 have been fully met. The Employer contends that the suspension of its duty to bargain, by PA 436, also suspends its obligations under Act 312. However, PA 436 contains no explicit prohibition barring Act 312 arbitration. Whether there is an implicit bar of binding arbitration by virtue of Act 436 is a matter for the courts to decide.

Although an emergency manager's authority to reject, modify, or terminate the provisions of a labor contract raises doubt as to whether a compulsory arbitration award is enforceable against an emergency manager, I conclude that the Commission lacks authority to dismiss an Act 312 arbitration where the requirements of Act 312 have been met. Consequently, I would deny the Employer's motion to dismiss the three Act 312 petitions.
