OBJECTION BY AGAR LAWN SPRINKLER SYSTEMS, INC.
TO DEBTOR'S FORTY-SEVENTH OMNIBUS OBJECTION TO CERTAIN CLAIMS

NOW COMES, the above named claimant Agar Lawn Sprinkler Systems, Inc. ("Agar") and for its Objection To Debtor's Forty-Seventh Omnibus Objection To Certain Claims states as follows:

1. Debtor seeks to disallow and/or expunge certain filed Proofs of Claim, including the Proof of Claim filed by Agar.
2. The basis for seeking disallowance and/or to expunge Agar's claim is that:

"The claimant overcharged the City and did not perform the represented services".

3. Agar takes great exception to the above since all of his work was approved and accepted without any claim of overcharging or that the work was not completed. Agar was simply another victim of the City's financial mess and who was not paid for work completed in good faith and on an emergency basis.
4. The work completed by Agar in part, was completed after the City's bankruptcy and on an emergency basis based on the representation from the City that it would be paid if Agar completed the emergency work and repairs and payment would not be effected by the City's bankruptcy.
5. Agar's work was provided and paid for in the ordinary course of business and it provided new value in exchange for any payments made.

WHEREFORE, for the above stated reasons, the Claim of Agar should not be disallowed or expunged as requested by the Debtor.
