DEBTOR'S OMNIBUS REPLY IN SUPPORT OF ITS FIFTY-SIXTH AND SIXTY-SECOND OMNIBUS OBJECTIONS TO CERTAIN CLAIMS

The City of Detroit ("City"), by its undersigned counsel, files this reply in support of its Fifty-Sixth and Sixty-Second Omnibus Objections to Certain Claims (collectively, the "Omnibus Objections," Doc. Nos. 12763 and 12769), stating as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. On April 18, 2018, the City filed its Omnibus Objections. The following parties filed responses to the Omnibus Objections:

Fifty-Sixth Omnibus Objection

- (a) Response filed by Edith Woodberry ("Edith Woodberry") [Doc. No. 12791]. Edith Woodberry's response is attached as Exhibit 1.

Sixty-Second Omnibus Objection

- (b) Response filed by Penny Mabin, Kenny Mabin, Roger Mabin, Cavel Woodberry, Cavel Woodberry, Jr., Cranston Woodberry, Garfield Woodberry , Happy Woodberry , LaJeff Woodberry , Lavan Woodberry , Phebe Lee Woodberry (“Mabin/Woodberry Group”, and together with Edith Woodberry, the “Woodberry Claimants’)) [Doc. No. 12794]. The Mabin/Woodberry response is attached as Exhibit 2.

BACKGROUND

2. On February 21, 2014, the Woodberry Claimants filed the following proofs of claim, each of which is related to an eminent domain proceeding (collectively, the “Woodberry Claims”):

Claim No.	Claimant	Exhibit #
2846	Edith Woodberry	3-1
2880	Happy Woodberry	3-2
2883	LaJeff Woodberry	3-3
2888	Cavel Woodberry	3-4
2889	Lavan Woodberry	3-5
2902	Penny Mabin	3-6
2905	Cranston Woodberry	3-7
3006	Garfield Woodberry	3-8
3271	Adam Woodberry ¹	3-9
3278	Phebe Woodberry	3-10

¹ Claim 3271 of Adam Woodberry is subject to the Debtor’s Sixty-Second Omnibus Objection to Certain Claims; however Adam Woodberry is not listed among the respondents in the Mabin/Woodberry Group response to the Sixty-Second Omnibus Objection to Certain Claims. As such, no timely response was filed and the Court should expunge the claim of Adam Woodberry.

3. On May 15, 2014, the City filed objections to the Woodberry Claims, asserting that the Woodberry Claims as filed, did not meet the requirements of Fed. R. Bankr. P. 3001 (the “Initial Objections”) [Doc. Nos. 4843, 4841, 4840, 4839, 4838, 4837, 4836, 4835, 4834, and 4859]. Among other things, the City argued that the Woodberry Claimants had not identified the property at issue nor provided any evidence to support the valuation of the Woodberry Claims.

4. On June 18, 2014, the Woodberry Claimants filed responses to the Initial Objections. [Doc. Nos. 5410, 5415, 5414, 5418, 5413, 5411, 5417, 5416, 5419, 5420]. The responses identified the property as 2457 Beaubien, Detroit, Michigan (“Property”) and asserted that the City owes the Woodberry Claimants money for the taking of the Property by eminent domain. On June 20, 2014, the City filed its omnibus reply to the Woodberry Claimants’ responses to the Initial Objections [Doc. No. 5505].

5. The Property was the subject of a condemnation action filed in 2005 in the Wayne County Circuit Court, Case No. 05-522129-CC (“State Court Case”). Each of the Woodberry Claimants was a named defendant. On April 28, 2009, the Wayne County Circuit Court entered a judgment in favor of the City, confirming that the title passed to the City effective July 27, 2005, and ordering the payment of just compensation to the defendants (the “2009 Judgment”). The 2009 Judgment is attached as Exhibit 4. The State Court Case docket is attached as Exhibit 8.

6. The 2009 Judgment provides that the Court granted the City's motion for summary disposition, dismissed the Woodberry Claimants counterclaims in their entirety, and denied Defendants' Motion for Reconsideration. 2009 Judgment, pp. 1-2.

7. In the 2009 Judgment, the Wayne County Circuit Court ordered that the just compensation for the Property was $240,000, minus amounts owed by the defendants to the City for rent and water services, as well as previously paid compensation amounts. 2009 Judgment, p. 2.

8. The 2009 Judgment also provides that "this Judgment shall be with prejudice to any further assertion of claims by Defendants against the City arising directly or indirectly, in whole or in part, from the taking of the Subject Property." 2009 Judgment, p. 3 (emphasis added).

9. None of the Defendants in the State Court Case appealed the 2009 Judgment.

10. Edith Woodberry received $83,294.72 in compensation prior to the 2009 Order and signed an acknowledgement to that effect (the "Acknowledgment"). The Acknowledgement is attached hereto as Exhibit 5.

11. Certain other defendants also received compensation totaling $9,000.00. These defendants included Happy Woodberry, Phebe Woodberry,

Adam Woodberry, Cavel Woodberry, Penny Mabin, and Cranston Woodberry, as well as other defendants who have not filed claims in the bankruptcy.

12. Edith Woodberry filed a proof of claim in the amount of $3 million, and each of the other Woodberry Claimants filed their claims for $1 million, totaling $12 million.

13. On June 25, 2014, the Court held a hearing on the Initial Objections. See Transcript Excerpt, Exhibit 6. At that hearing, the Court focused on the following language in the 2009 Judgment: “Pursuant to Rule 2.602(A)(3), this judgment does not resolve the last of any claims, and it does not close this case.” Ex. 4, p. 4. The Court asked the parties what was left to be done in the State Court Case. Ex. 6, p. 26. The City stated that it was unsure whether there was anything further to be done and would consult with the Law Department. Id. The City has since consulted with the Law Department and there is nothing further to be done in the State Court Case. As set forth on Exhibit 8, no action has been taken in the State Court Case in over six years and there are no pending appeals.

14. The Court thus abstained from making a final decision on the Woodberry Claims. Following the hearing, the Court entered the Order Regarding Objections to Claims Numbers 2846, 2880, 2883, 2888, 2889, 2902, 2905, 3006, 3271 and 3278 [Doc. No. 5586], overruling the City’s objections to the claims, without prejudice. See Order, Exhibit 7.

ARGUMENT

15. As noted above, on April 18, 2018, the City filed the Omnibus Objections. On May 16, 2018, Edith Woodberry and the Mabin/Woodberry Group each filed their responses to the Omnibus Objections.

16. As set forth in the Omnibus Objections, the Alternative Dispute Resolution Procedures (“ADR Procedures”) attached as Annex 1 to the ADR Order permitted the City to serve on claimants a notice that the Stay/Injunction is lifted to permit the underlying claim to be liquidated in a non-bankruptcy forum consistent with the terms, conditions and limitations of Section II.E. below (a “Stay Modification Notice”). In that event, immediately upon the filing of the Stay Modification Notice, the Stay/Injunction shall be deemed modified with respect to the applicable Initial Designated Claim solely to permit the liquidation of the claim in a non-bankruptcy forum...

ADR Procedures, Section I.B, p. 4.

17. Paragraph 10 of the ADR Order states

If the Stay/Injunction is modified as a result of a Stay Modification Notice, the liquidation of each applicable Initial Designated Claim shall proceed in [. . .] such other non-bankruptcy forum selected by the Designated Claimant

18. The ADR Procedures contain a procedure for their enforcement:

If a Designated Claimant fails to comply with the ADR Procedures, negotiate in good faith or cooperate with the City as may be necessary to effectuate the ADR Procedures, the Bankruptcy Court may, after notice and a hearing, find such conduct to be in violation of the ADR

Order or an abandonment of or failure to prosecute the Designated Claim, or both. Upon such findings, the Bankruptcy Court may, among other things, disallow and expunge the Designated Claim, in whole or part, or grant such other or further remedy deemed just and appropriate under the circumstances, including, without limitation, awarding attorneys' fees, other fees and costs to the City.

ADR Procedures, Section II.G.

19. The City filed stay modification notices on the Woodberry Claimants.

See Omnibus Objections, Ex. 2.

20. None of the Woodberry Claimants present a legally cognizable response to the Omnibus Objection. They have had 9 years since the 2009 Judgment was entered to take whatever actions they deem necessary in the State Court Case. Yet, they have done nothing and do not offer any explanation for why they have not taken any action. Nor, do they explain what remains left in the State Court Case. The City has investigated the State Court Case and there is nothing further to be done. The Woodberry Claims should be expunged.

21. Finally, the Mabin/Woodberry Group's assertion that their claims are not subject to the discharge provisions in the City's Eighth Amended Plan of Adjustment [Doc. No. 8045] ("Plan") fails. The deadline to object to the Plan was approximately five years ago. In addition to being untimely, the Woodberry Claimants cannot object to the Plan in a response to a claim objection, as that would be an impermissible collateral attack on the Plan and the order confirming

it. See DeLorean v. Gully, 118 B.R. 932, 935 n.1 (E.D. Mich. 1990) (noting that a collateral attack is a request for relief, which, if granted, “must in some fashion overrule a previous judgment.”)

22. This Court should expunge the Woodberry Claims.

CONCLUSION

For these reasons, the City asks the Court to overrule the responses of Edith Woodberry and the Mabin/Woodberry Group and sustain the City’s Objection to these claims pursuant to the terms of the Plan and the ADR Procedures.

City of Detroit Michigan Judge Thomas J. Tucker
Debtor Chapter 9

EDITH WOODBERRY'S RESPONSE TO DEBTOR'S FIFTY-SIXTH
OMNIBUS OBJECTION TO CERTAIN CLAIMS

Claimant Edith Woodberry in pro per, (Edith) RESPONSE; SHE filed her CLAIM against Debtor City of Detroit (City), in Bankruptcy Court; Case Number 2846 Bankruptcy Court's Hon. Judge Rhodes is assigned judge. Edith has not been assigned or been before any of the other Bankruptcy Judges.

Within eight years the City has used its Eminent Domain Power; in at least four different Court Actions to seize Edith's property without paying her just compensation. During this period the City refused to issue her requested PERMITS to correct the many VIOLATIONS the City is required by law to issue permits to correct.

After refusing to grant permits, the City demolished Edith's property as unsafe. Said property was an 18 unit Apartment Building with 9, two (2) bedroom units; 9 three (3) bedroom units; three (3) commercial units and a subbasement. It stood on a prime corner. Its address was 2457 Beaubien St / 445 Fisher Freeway. Edith has not been paid just compensation to date for the City's "taking." Payment of just compensation is mandated by both Federal and State Constitutions.

Between times, Edith filed a $2,000,000, lien later raising it to $3,000,000 lien on her property. The City's last Case against Edith in the Third Judicial Circuit Court; her Case is still open. This Case was assigned to Hon. Judge Isidore S Torres, who later reassigned it to the Hon. Judge Daphne Curtis Means, who has retired.

City's attorney, Charles Raimi, (pursuant to 28 U.S.C 1746,) declared under penalty of perjury that the following is true and correct to the best of my (his) knowledge and belief, I am Deputy Corporation Counsel for the City of Detroit ("City"). Unless otherwise stated in his Declaration, I have personal knowledge of the facts set forth herein. The City's ongoing claims reconciliation process involves the collective effort of a team of employees assembled from personnel specifically familiar with the operations and liabilities of the City. This team worked together and in conjunction with City's counsel, the City's financial advisor, and the City's claims agent, to review proofs of claim filed against the City. (the "Objection"), the City reviewed the claims at issue as described on EXHIBIT 2 of the Objection. Each claimant has abandoned and failed to prosecute his or her claim.

Edith Woodberry is named in Exhibit 2.] Edith has not abandoned her Claim. Raimi's Declaration is dolus.^{it} Consequently, each claim on Exhibit 2 should be disallowed and expunged pursuant to the ADR Order (as defined in the Objection).ⁱ

A city attorney (name I do not recall) met with me at the of City's attorney 's office located in the City Country Building to Settle my Case at his request. He became upset when it became apparent to him that the City had wronged me. Faced with the truth, his integrity and the Code of Ethics would not let him continue after he saw what he saw in the City's file.

He was openly distraught. He left the conference in a huff, saying that he was going on vacation – and to "Let Dave handle it." Dave, whomever he is, has not contacted me to date.

Wherefore, Edith prays that the Bankruptcy Court will ORDER the City (DEBTOR) to provide her with a complete copy of the documentation in her Case File, at no cost to her. or no

Edith also pray that this Court will deny City's request for an Order Sustaining Debtor's Sixty-Second Omnibus Objection to in its Exhibit 2 as it relates to her; Claimant Edith Woodberry.

Respectfully submitted,

Edith Woodberry, In pro per

Affidavit

I, Edith Woodberry, do hereby declare under penalty of perjury that the following is true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief.

1. I am the owner of the property that the City took by eminent domain and is now attempting to have the City's obligation to pay just compensation discharged in bankruptcy.

2. Shortly after this court upheld my objection to the discharge of the City's obligation to pay just compensation, an attorney representing the City of Detroit approached me regarding negotiations to settle this claim.

3. I met with the City's attorney in person at his office for preliminary negotiation and document exchange.

4. During this meeting, the City attorney informed me that in approximately one week he would no longer be working for the City and that his successor would contact me regarding further negotiation and settlement.

5. To date, no one from the City of Detroit Law Department has contacted me regarding further negotiation and settlement.

6. No one has been identified as the successor attorney.

7. I have not abandoned my claim or refused to negotiate with the City.

8. I attempted to review the bankruptcy file to provide further proof. The bankruptcy clerk told me that the file could not be accessed because the file was under the exclusive control of the City of Detroit's attorney.

9. I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true, and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Bankruptcy Case No: 13-53846
Judge Thomas J. Tucker
Chapter 9

RESPONSE TO DEBTOR'S SIXTY-SECOND OMNIBUS OBJECTION TO CERTAIN CLAIMS

Debtor alleges that Designated Claimant abandoned the claim or failed to negotiate in good faith or cooperate with the City. Designated Claimant asks this court to deny Debtor's Sixty-Second Omnibus Objection to Certain Claims for the following reasons.

1. The ADR Procedures enforcement procedures require that Claimant "negotiate in good faith or cooperate with the City as may be necessary to effectuate the ADR Procedures.

Designated Claimant has met this requirement.

2. The City of Detroit failed to negotiate in good faith. Shortly after this court upheld my objection to the discharge of the City's obligation to pay just compensation, an attorney representing the City of Detroit approached me regarding negotiations to settle this claim. Designated Claimant engaged in good faith negotiation with the City of Detroit attorney regarding the resolution of this claim.

3. During the course of negotiation, the City of Detroit attorney left the City for other employment and advised Designated Claimant that his successor would contact Designated Claimant regarding further negotiation.

4. To date, the City of Detroit has not identified to Designated Claimant who the successor attorney is and no one else from the City of Detroit has contacted Designated Claimant for further negotiation.

5. There has been no abandonment of the claim or failure to prosecute the claim by Designated Claimant. Rather, the City of Detroit has failed to negotiate in good faith or cooperate with Designated Claimant as may be necessary to effectuate the ADR Procedures.

6. In addition, this claim presents the question of whether the Bankruptcy Court can lawfully discharge in bankruptcy the U.S. Constitutional requirement that the City pay just compensation for the Designated Claimant's property that the City took via eminent domain.

7. The Fifth Amendment of the United States Constitution in pertinent part states no person shall be "deprived of life, liberty, or property without due process of law" . . . "nor shall private property be taken for public use without just compensation."

8. The City of Detroit's obligation to pay just compensation cannot be discharged in a bankruptcy proceeding. The payment of just compensation is mandated by the United States Constitution.

9. The Bankruptcy Court has wide latitude with regard to this claim. The Bankruptcy Court, per ADR Procedure, may among other things, grant such other or further remedy deemed just and appropriate. A possible just resolution is to require the City to return to the Designated Claimant property taken. The return of the property is a more equitable and lawful resolution than discharging the debt.

WHEREFORE, Designated Claimant respectfully requests that this Court deny the City's request for the Order Sustaining Debtor's Sixty-Second Omnibus Objection to Certain Claims, attached as Exhibit 1.

1 MS. DARRAH: No. That's a five-year contract. I'm
2 sorry. So that's approximately what they spent, but what I
3 wanted was that we have some way that the citizens can become 4 involved in their own survival, and right now we don't have 5 that.

6 THE COURT: Well, I appreciate that, but that's all
7 we can do here today. That's all we can do here today.

8 MS. DARRAH: That's not enough.

9 THE COURT: That's all we can do here today.

10 MS. DARRAH: All right. Okay.

11 THE COURT: Please take your seat now, ma'am.

12 MS. DARRAH: It goes out in the suburbs, too, if you

14 THE COURT: Mr. Simon.

15 MR. SIMON: Yes, your Honor. Moving on to the next
16 set of objections, the Woodberry claimants' objections is 17 Claim Numbers 3278, 3271, 3006, 2905, 2902, 2889, 2888, 2883,
18 2880, and 2846. Those are ten claims filed for a total of 19 $12 million by members of the Woodberry family. They filed
20 these claims initially, your Honor, just listing eminent 21 domain as a reason on one page of the proof of claim without 22 any backup saying the city took -- quote, "The city took real 23 property without paying just compensation." We objected to 24 the claims because we couldn't tell at all anything about 25 them. We couldn't tell what real property this was or what

1 the situation was.

2 And the Woodberrys did file responses. The 3 responses identified the property -- the subject property as 4 2457 Beaubien. We did some digging on the city's end, your
5 Honor, and determined that property was the subject of a
6 condemnation proceeding that started back in 2005. The 7 claimants in this case were parties to that litigation over
8 condemnation, and in April 2009 after years of that
9 litigation, the Wayne County Circuit Court entered an order
10 confirming that title to the property had vested in the city,
11 and they ordered payment of $240,000, which the city paid,
12 and so the claimants had totally omitted that from their
13 claim, but we did determine what -- you know, some background
14 on it. There is no basis for any further claims because the 15 April 2009 order also says that it is with prejudice to any 16 other claims against the city with respect to the property.
17 It says, quote, "This judgment shall be with prejudice to any
18 further assertion of claims by defendants against the city
19 arising directly or indirectly in whole or in part from the 20 taking of the subject property." I would note that we had an 21 acknowledgement which we filed as well by Ms. Edith
22 Woodberry, who filed the biggest one of the claims for $3
23 million, that acknowledged that she received full payment.
24 So, your Honor, we would object to this claim. It's baseless
25 in that there's no basis for any further liability or claim

1 against the city as evidenced by the April order from 2009.

2 THE COURT: Thank you. Are any members of the
3 Woodberry family here or anyone representing them?

4 MR. CRANSTON WOODBERRY: Good morning, your Honor.
5 I'm Cranston Woodberry.

6 MS. EDITH WOODBERRY: Good morning. I'm Edith
7 Woodberry.

8 MR. LA JEFF WOODBERRY: Excuse me, your Honor. Good
9 morning, your Honor. I'm LA Jeff Woodberry.

10 THE COURT: All right. So the city contends that 11 you already got paid for this property through the 12 condemnation proceeding in court.

13 MS. EDITH WOODBERRY: Your Honor, I had received
14 from the city by express mail I think the day before
15 yesterday his statements, and I filed a -- prepared a
16 response, but I don't know how to give it to the city, Judge.

17 THE COURT: I'll have a --

18 MS. EDITH WOODBERRY: Can you give a copy to him or 19 the -- but the answer is that --

20 THE COURT: If you want me to, I'll have a look at 21 it, ma'am.

22 MS. EDITH WOODBERRY: I would appreciate it.

23 THE COURT: All right.

24 MS. EDITH WOODBERRY: And there's one for the city's 25 attorney.

1 THE COURT: Mr. Simon, Ms. Woodberry has one for
2 you, too.

3 MR. SIMON: Thank you, your Honor.

4 MS. EDITH WOODBERRY: I wasn't seeking oral argument
5 because I know I'm not a -- I'm in here in pro per. I'm not
6 any way capable of matching what was said here today, but I
7 will say that the purpose of me filing that claim was to put
8 Bankruptcy Court on notice that we had an action in a lower
9 court, in the state court, and that I wanted -- I don't know
10 the rules of the Bankruptcy Court, so, therefore, I didn't 11 want to have this rejected in the state court because the 12 action should have been brought to you. My suggestion or 13 hope would be that you would dismiss or accept, receive for 14 Bankruptcy Court's information the fact that we do have 15 something and maybe let it go back to state court or dismiss
16 it for lack of --

17 THE COURT: What is there left for the state court
18 to do?

19 MS. EDITH WOODBERRY: Well, now, the state court in 20 its -- the state court has not issued a final order, so,
21 therefore, we cannot appeal the --

22 MR. CRANSTON WOODBERRY: The judgment.

23 MS. EDITH WOODBERRY: -- the judgment. We can't 24 appeal the judgment because she has not issued a final -- she 25 says that that judgment is not a final order. If you look at

1 the bottom of plaintiff's -- the city's --

2 MR. CRANSTON WOODBERRY: Exhibit 1, the April 28th,
3 2009, judgment.

4 THE COURT: Okay.

5 MS. EDITH WOODBERRY: It's a citizen's --

6 THE COURT: I will look at that. Give me one
7 second, please.

8 MS. EDITH WOODBERRY: Okay. Well, actually, I'm not 9 capable of maybe presenting an oral argument against what he 10 was saying here because I couldn't hear him in the back, and 11 what he wrote, I responded to that.

12 THE COURT: I do see the language you are referring 13 to. It says, "Pursuant to Rule 2.602(a)(3), this judgment
14 does not resolve the last of any claims, and it does not 15 close the case." That's the language you're talking about?

16 MS. EDITH WOODBERRY: Yes.

17 THE COURT: Okay. Let me ask Mr. Simon about that.
18 Mr. Simon. Ms. Woodberry, let me just ask you to step a
19 little bit to the side so Mr. Simon can use the microphone
20 there. Thank you very much.

21 MR. SIMON: Your Honor, actually the city law
22 department is right now looking at the status of that case.
23 I had interpreted that language to be separate from the 24 condemnation and separate from any payment related to the 25 eminent domain, which is clearly set forth in the order as

1 being exclusively handled, and the order was entered on a
2 final basis. It calls for the resolution of all the claims
3 by the payment of $240,000, and so I don't think that the --

4 THE COURT: You don't know what's left to be done?

5 MR. SIMON: I don't know of anything left to be 6 done.

7 MR. CRANSTON WOODBERRY: Well, your Honor, the 8 problem is --

9 THE COURT: No. One second. So you don't know that 10 there isn't anything left to be done?

11 MR. SIMON: I cannot say that, your Honor. Based on 12 that language, I have a -- yes. That's correct.

13 THE COURT: I'm sorry to have interrupted you, sir.
14 What were you going to say?

15 MR. CRANSTON WOODBERRY: Well, he just answered the 16 question. We do have an appeal of right.

17 THE COURT: Stand right by that microphone.

18 MR. CRANSTON WOODBERRY: I'm sorry. We do have an 19 appeal of right, and the other issue is that there were 20 certain people who had an interest in that property that were 21 not brought into the action by the City of Detroit, and --

22 THE COURT: And who were those people?

23 MR. CRANSTON WOODBERRY: This is the one person
24 right there, Jeff Woodberry.

25 MR. LA JEFF WOODBERRY: LA Jeff Woodberry. And I

1 never was brought into the action.

2 THE COURT: Um-hmm.

3 MR. LA JEFF WOODBERRY: (Inaudible) for the 4 property.

5 THE COURT: Well, Mr. Simon, in the circumstances,
6 subject to further development of our record here, I think I
7 have to overrule your objection and abstain from any further
8 action by this Court in the matter to allow the state court
9 to do whatever is left to be done in the case. And if there
10 is ever a final judgment in the sense that all appeals have 11 been exhausted, then we can sustain the objection assuming 12 the judgment is in the city's favor.

13 MR. SIMON: Your Honor, there's been no appeal. The 14 order was entered in 2009.

15 THE COURT: Right, but there's a question about
16 whether this is a final appealable judgment because it says
17 the judgment does not resolve the last of any claims, and it
18 doesn't close the case.

19 MR. SIMON: And, your Honor, would it be possible to 20 set a briefing schedule on substantive response to the claim
21 objection, you know, based on --

22 THE COURT: No. I'm going to abstain --

23 MR. SIMON: Okay.

24 THE COURT: -- and allow the state court to make a
25 final determination on the issues.

1 MR. SIMON: Thank you, your Honor.

2 THE COURT: I can't tell, based on this record,
3 what's left let alone decide it. All right. I'll prepare an
4 appropriate order. So you should go back to state court and 5 try to work with the judge there on resolving whatever is 6 left to be resolved so you can get on with your appeal.

7 MR. CRANSTON WOODBERRY: Thank you, your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Do you have an attorney in that case?

9 MR. CRANSTON WOODBERRY: I was appearing as the 10 attorney in that case, your Honor, yes.

11 THE COURT: Okay. All right.

12 MR. SIMON: Your Honor, if I may, just one further
13 note, is it -- the claim really should be contingent, though,
14 at best, and unliquidated rather than have a certain dollar
15 figure.

16 THE COURT: Yes.

17 MR. SIMON: Okay.

18 THE COURT: At this point it's not fixed at all.

19 MR. SIMON: Exactly. I just wanted to be clear
20 about that. Thank you.

21 THE COURT: All right. I'll make sure the order
22 says that.

23 MR. SIMON: And, your Honor, the final matters that
24 we have, your Honor, are in respect of Macomb Interceptor
25 Drain District. This is probably the thorniest area. We are
