Re: Washington Mutual, Inc., et al.,
Debtors
Chapter 11
Case No. 08-12229 (MWF)
DEBTORS' SEVENTH OMNIBUS (NON-SUBSTANTIVE)
OBJECTION TO CLAIMS

Claimant : Pamela LaVine
Claim number: 3686

RESPONSE TO THE OBJECTION – I OPPOSE THE DISALLOWANCE AND EXPUNGEMENT OF MY CLAIM!

An amendment was filed after the fact of the first filing (claim number 959) due to the death of George LaVine, my husband. The first filing was for payment of my husband's deferred compensation held by Washington Mutual, Inc. in the amount of $16,943.25 (before interest) . After his death, I amended the claim to include a $107,040.00 life insurance policy held by Washington Mutual, Inc. under his Executive Benefit Package. The total for both claims comes to $123,983.25. This claim includes NO duplications.

Unfortunately, with the loss of my husband and the above income, I am unable to afford legal consul or argument. I hope that I will not be prejudiced because of this.

I have included my correspondence from MullinTBG which verifies the life insurance total and a correspondence from Union Bank that confirms my husband's participation in the Deferred Compensation Plan.

Sincerely,

Pamela LaVine
