Dear Judge Mary,
my Dad and I have gotten at least 20 packets from Brian Rosen to vote. My Dad is so confused he didn't even know where to send our vote back to. He sent it to the wrong place first. we got lots more even after we voted our shares. Dad can't explain to me why, except that Brian likes to confuse us all. That includes you Judge Mary.

I ask Dad why Brian wants to give away property and stuff to everyone except us share holders. Dad says we are the owners. He can't explain to me why Brian does what he does. He just tells me to write you and complain about what Brian does. So I do.

Just letter I sent you a list of Wamw things they own. Dad says it is only a partial list, because they are still hiding a lot of things we own. That is why Brian won't show you a real list of things that belong to Wamw. it is really really big and would ruin his case. Isn't stealing a sin still? If I took things and hid them under my bed, I would get in a lot of trouble and be grounded forever. Can you ground Brian?

Anyway, Dad and I do object to all this and he told me to be ^{sure} to tell you. Dad is afraid that Brian will do to us, what happened to K-Mart shareholders. They find all the stuff after they get rid of us for good.
yours truly
Mike

PS—

Dad says it is important to get involved and don't let others take advantage
of us.
