STATE OF OREGON, DEPARTMENT OF REVENUE'S MOTION FOR ORDER ALLOWING EXTENSION TO FILE NOTICE OF APPEAL

The State of Oregon, Department of Revenue (Department), appearing by and through the Oregon Department of Justice and Carolyn G. Wade, Senior Assistant Attorney General, hereby moves this court (the "Motion") for the entry of an order, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 8002(c), granting Department an additional 14 days to file its notice of appeal from this court's order disallowing Claim No. 3846 [Docket No. 10951]. In support of this Motion, Department respectfully represents as follows:

Background

- 1. The order in question was entered on December 19, 2012, and disallowed Department's priority claim of $27,298,903.58 and an unsecured non-priority claim for $2,082,819.33, secured by possible refunds of $1,423,462.76. This is an extremely significant amount, and the decision to appeal must be made at several levels of the Department.
- 2. The fourteen-day appeal period runs from the entry of the order, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 8002(a). This particular fourteen-day period is perhaps the least effective two weeks in the entire calendar, as it contains four weekend days, Christmas Eve, Christmas Day, New Year's Eve, and New Year's Day. Not only are offices closed during those days, but the people who must meet and be consulted are taking vacations and are otherwise frequently out of the office during this time period.

3. That it is a period of uneven availability is borne out by counsel's attempts to determine WMILT's position on this motion. After leaving several messages for different lawyers, we were finally able to ascertain that its position could not be determined until after Christmas, already one week into the two-week appeal period.

Relief Requested

4. The Oregon Department of Revenue (Department) respectfully requests that the court enter an order extending Department's time for filing a notice of appeal from its Order [Docket No. 10951] to and including January 16, 2013.
