WMI LIQUIDATING TRUST'S
OBJECTIONS AND RESPONSES TO THE
INTERROGATORIES OF BRIAN T. FOSTER

Pursuant to Rules 26 and 33 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (the “Federal Rules”), applicable hereto pursuant to Rules 7026 and 7033 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy Rules”), and Rule 7026 of the Local Rules for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Local Rules”), WMI Liquidating Trust (“WMILT”), as successor in interest to Washington Mutual, Inc. (“WMI”) and WMI Investment Corp., responds to the Interrogatories (the “Interrogatories”) of Brian T. Foster (the “Claimant”), as follows:

GENERAL OBJECTIONS

WMILT responds to the Interrogatories subject to the following general objections (the “General Objections”) and without waiving, and expressly preserving, all other objections herein.

1. Inconsistency with Applicable Rules. WMILT objects to each Interrogatory to the extent that it seeks to impose requirements that are in addition to, different from, or broader than those set forth in, required or permitted by the Federal Rules, the Bankruptcy Rules, the Local Rules, and/or any rules, statutes, applicable case law, or court orders governing the proper scope, timing, and extent of all discovery in this litigation and these chapter 11 cases.

2. Relevance. WMILT objects to each Interrogatory to the extent it seeks information neither relevant to the subject matter of this proceeding nor reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence or testimony.

3. Vagueness/Ambiguity/Compound. WMILT objects to each Interrogatory to the extent that it is vague, ambiguous, or compound.

4. Privilege. WMILT objects to each Interrogatory to the extent that it seeks information that is protected from discovery by the attorney-client privilege, work product doctrine, common interest privilege, joint-defense privilege, bank examiner privilege, or any other applicable common law or statutory privilege or doctrine. WMILT does not, and does not intend to, waive any privilege in responding to the Interrogatories. To the extent that any privileged information is provided in response to any Interrogatory, consistent with paragraph 21(k) of the Agreed Order Establishing Procedures and Deadlines Concerning Hearing on Employee Claims and Discovery In Connection Therewith, dated October 15, 2012 [D.I. 10777] (the "Scheduling Order"), WMILT reserves (a) its privileges with respect to such information; (b) its right to object to the use of such information; and (c) its right to object to the admissibility of such information.

5. Possession, Custody, or Control. WMILT objects to the Interrogatories to the extent they seek information not in WMILT's possession, custody and/or control.

6. Claimant's Possession/Equal or Superior Access to Documents. To the extent that any Interrogatory seeks information that is: (a) publicly available where the burden of accessing such information is the same for all parties; or (b) within Claimant's possession, custody, or control, or to which Claimant has equal or superior access, WMILT objects on the grounds that the burden of deriving or ascertaining such information is substantially the same for Claimant as for WMILT and, therefore, any such Interrogatory is unduly burdensome, oppressive, harassing and vexatious, goes beyond any legitimate need for discovery, and exceeds the scope of discovery as set forth in the Federal Rules, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the Local Rules.

7. Legal Conclusions. WMILT objects to each Interrogatory to the extent that it requires WMILT to draw legal conclusions and/or to assume disputed facts. WMILT's response to any Interrogatory is not to be construed as an admission that any of the requested information exists or that any of the contentions or legal conclusions, whether implicitly or explicitly stated in the Interrogatory, are founded.

8. Duplicative Interrogatories. WMILT objects to each Interrogatory to the extent that it is duplicative of each other or of other discovery propounded in this litigation or these chapter 11 cases, or is unreasonably cumulative.

9. Overbreadth/Undue Burden/Harassment. WMILT objects to each Interrogatory to the extent that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, and harassing.

10. Time Period. WMILT objects to the time period specified in the Interrogatories to the extent that it is overly broad, unduly burdensome, and harassing.

11. Definitions. WMILT objects to the Claimant's definitions to the extent that such definitions give meaning to words different from their ordinary English meaning or definitions set forth in applicable statutes or rules. When WMILT uses one of Claimant's capitalized terms in a response (as indicated by WMILT's own use of capital letters in its response), WMILT is using that term as defined by Claimant, subject to any specific objections to those definitions set forth herein. WMILT does not otherwise adopt or accept Claimant's capitalized, defined terms.

12. WMILT objects to the definition of "Debtor" as vague and ambiguous. For purposes of responding to these Requests, WMILT will construe "Debtors" to mean (i) Washington Mutual, Inc. (3725); and (ii) WMI Investment Corp.

13. Excessive Number of Interrogatories. WMILT objects to each Interrogatory to the extent that it exceeds the numerical limit imposed by the Scheduling Order.

14. Wrong Party. WMILT objects to each Interrogatory to the extent that it seeks information concerning an entity separate and distinct from Washington Mutual, Inc. Any such Interrogatory is properly addressed to the separate and distinct entity inquired about. With respect to any such Interrogatory to which WMILT provides a response, such response is provided upon information and belief.

RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

By making the following responses to the Interrogatories, WMILT does not waive, and hereby expressly reserves, its objections to these Interrogatories. By making these responses and objections, WMILT does not concede that any information sought by any Interrogatory is discoverable. WMILT makes these responses and objections without waiving or intending to waive (a) the right to object on any ground to the use, introduction, or admissibility of the information provided in response to any Interrogatory on any and all grounds, including, but not limited to, competency, relevancy, materiality, and privilege; (b) the right to object to the use of the information provided in response to any Interrogatory in any subsequent proceeding in, or the resolution of, this or any other action; and (c) the right to object on any ground at any time to other Interrogatories, document requests, or other further discovery into any of the subject matters addressed in any Interrogatory or the responses hereto. Furthermore, WMILT makes the responses herein without in any manner implying or admitting that any conclusions or characterizations contained in the Interrogatories are true and accurate. WMILT expressly reserves the right to supplement, clarify, revise, or correct the responses herein, and to assert additional general and/or specific objections to the Interrogatories, at any time. Subject to and without waiving the General Objections or the Reservation of Rights, WMILT responds to the individual interrogatories as follows:

WMILT further objects to this Interrogatory on the grounds that it: (i) is overbroad, unduly burdensome, and otherwise exceeds the permissible scope of discovery; (ii) is vague and ambiguous; (iii) is premature to ask WMILT to identify all documents that support or relate to its contentions because discovery in these proceedings is ongoing; (iv) calls for information beyond WMILT's possession, custody or control; (v) to the extent it seeks information with respect to Washington Mutual Bank and JPMorgan Chase Bank, it is properly addressed to those entities, as applicable, which are entities separate and distinct from WMILT; and (vi) calls for a legal conclusion.

Subject to and without waiving this objection and the General Objections, and without waiving WMILT's right to supplement or amend its answer, WMILT responds to Interrogatory No. 11 as follows: WMILT refers Claimants to WMI Liquidating Trust's Seventy-Ninth Omnibus (Substantive) Objection to Claims [D.I. 10504]; WMI Liquidating Trust's Eightieth Omnibus (Substantive) Objection to Claims [D.I. 10505], WMI Liquidating Trust's Eighty-First Omnibus (Substantive Objection to Claims [D.I. 10506], WMI Liquidating Trust's Eighty-Second Omnibus (Substantive Objection) to Claims [D.I. 10507], and WMI Liquidating Trust's Eighty-Fourth Omnibus (Substantive) Objection to Change in Control Claims [D.I. 10677], WMI Liquidating Trust's Eighty-Fifth Omnibus (Substantive) Objection to Change in Control Claims [D.I. 10678], as applicable, to WMILT's responses and objections to Claimants'
