NOTICE OF RESOLUTION OF CERTAIN PERSONAL INJURY CLAIMS
[Relates to Docket No. 5057]

Pilgrim’s Pride Corporation (“PPC”) and its affiliated reorganized debtors in the above-referenced chapter 11 cases (collectively, as reorganized, the “Debtors”)¹ file this Notice of Resolution of Certain Personal Injury Claims and respectfully state as follows:

1. On December 1, 2008 (the “Commencement Date”), the Debtors each commenced with the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Northern District of Texas (the “Bankruptcy Court”) a voluntary case under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”).

¹ The Debtors in these cases are PPC; PFS Distribution Company; PPC Transportation Company; To-Ricos, Ltd.; To-Ricos Distribution, Ltd.; Pilgrim’s Pride Corporation of West Virginia, Inc.; and PPC Marketing, Ltd.

2. On April 28, 2010, the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas, Fort Worth Division (the “District Court”) entered an Order Respecting Reference in In re Pilgrim’s Pride Corporation, et al; Civil Action No. 4:10-CV-292-Y (the “District Court Case”) [District Court Docket No. 1; Bankruptcy Court Docket No. 5057]. The Order Respecting Reference provided:

that all jurisdiction respecting the “Personal Injury Claims, including all matters pertaining to their liquidation and allowance, the forum in which they are to be liquidated, their resolution by agreement or their reference to an alternative dispute resolution mechanism shall be retained by this Court.

To the extent that, as to any Personal Injury Claim, prior to entry of this Order the bankruptcy court has (1) approved a settlement respecting such claim; (2) authorized liquidation of such claim (through relief from the stay (as applicable) of 11 U.S.C. § 362(a) or 524(a)(2) or otherwise), or (3) directed that such claim be the subject of alternative dispute resolution proceedings, the acts of the bankruptcy court are, to the extent necessary, adopted and ratified by this Court.

3. Subsequent to the entry of the Order Respecting Reference, the Debtors filed the Debtors’ Omnibus Objection to Personal Injury Claims (Untimeliness, Failure to Comply with the ADR Procedures, Unsupported Claims, Books and Records, and No Liability) and Motion to Refer this Objection in Part to the Bankruptcy Court [District Court Docket No. 11] (the “Objection and Motion to Refer”), which included one or more objections to the claims set forth in Exhibit A, attached hereto.

4. The Objection and Motion to Refer included a request that the District Court refer all procedural objections (those made on a basis other than no liability), to the Bankruptcy Court for resolution.

5. On September 16, 2010, the District Court entered the Order Granting Motion to Refer Certain Objections to the Bankruptcy Court (the “Referral Order”) [District Court Docket No. 135]. The Referral Order referred certain personal injury claims, including the claims set forth in Exhibit A, to the Bankruptcy Court for adjudication of the procedural objections.

6. The claims and the pending objections as they pertain to each claim in Exhibit A have been resolved by agreement of the parties.
