COMMENCEMENT OF CASES: Petitions for reorganization under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code have been filed in this Court by the Debtors and orders for relief have been entered. You will not receive notice of all documents filed in these cases. All documents filed with the Court, including lists of the Debtors' property and debts, are available for inspection at the Office of the Clerk of the Court. In addition, such documents may be available at www.deb.uscourts.gov. Certain documents are also available on the web site of the Debtors' claims agent, Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC ("KCC"), at: <http://www.kccllc.net/endeavour>.

PURPOSE OF CHAPTER 11 FILING: Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code enables a debtor to reorganize and/or liquidate pursuant to a chapter 11 plan. A plan is not effective unless approved by the Court at a confirmation hearing. Creditors and other parties in interest will be given notice concerning any plan, or in the event the case is dismissed or converted to another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors will remain in possession of their property and will continue to operate any business unless a trustee is appointed.

CREDITORS MAY NOT TAKE CERTAIN ACTIONS: A creditor is anyone to whom a debtor owes money or property. Under the Bankruptcy Code, a debtor is granted certain protection against creditors. Common examples of prohibited actions by creditors are contacting a debtor to demand repayment, taking action against a debtor to collect money owed to creditors or to take property of a debtor, and starting or continuing foreclosure actions or repossessions. If unauthorized actions are taken by a creditor against a debtor, the Court may penalize that creditor. A creditor who is considering taking action against a debtor or the property of a debtor should review section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code and may wish to seek legal advice. The staff of the Clerk of the Court are not permitted to give legal advice.

CLAIMS: Schedules of creditors will be filed pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1007. Any creditor holding a scheduled claim which is not listed as disputed, contingent or unliquidated as to amount may, but is not required to, file a proof of claim in these cases. Creditors whose claims are not scheduled or whose claims are listed as disputed, contingent or unliquidated as to amount and who desire to participate in the cases or share in any distribution must file their proofs of claim. A creditor who desires to rely on the schedule of creditors has the responsibility for determining that the claim is listed accurately. Separate notice of the deadlines to file proofs of claim and proof of claim forms will be provided by mail to the Debtors' known creditors and by publication. Proof of claim forms also are available in the clerk's office of any bankruptcy court. Proof of claim forms are also available from the Court's web site at www.deb.uscourts.gov. KCC is the claims agent in these cases and can provide a proof of claim form if you cannot obtain one from your local bankruptcy court. KCC can be reached through their web site specifically for these cases at <http://www.kccllc.net/endeavour>, by telephone, toll-free at (866) 967-0263 or by first class, hand delivery or overnight mail as follows:

DISCHARGE OF DEBTS: Confirmation of a chapter 11 plan may result in a discharge of debts, which may include all or part of your debt. See 11 U.S.C. § 1141(d). A discharge means that you may never try to collect the debt from the debtor, except as provided in the plan.
