EXHIBIT A (Statement of Claim)

1. This proof of claim (the "Claim") is submitted by Aetna Inc. and its affiliated entities ("Aetna") against the Debtor identified on the foregoing proof of claim form (the "Debtor").
2. Prior to the Debtor's bankruptcy, the Debtor submitted to Aetna requests for reimbursement in connection with healthcare services that the Debtor provided to current or former Aetna members either under a provider agreement or on an out-of-network basis. Aetna then paid the Debtor various amounts in connection with those requests for reimbursement. Aetna has subsequently determined, however, that certain of those payments were erroneous and demands return of those overpayments. As of the date hereof, the amount of overpayments, as reflected on the statement attached as Schedule 1, ${ }^{1}$ is at least $$ 33,982.53$. For the avoidance of doubt, $$ 33,982.53$ is the minimum amount due and payable on account of those overpayments as of July 12, 2018, and Aetna reserves all rights to assert additional amounts subsequently identified as owing to Aetna, including, without limitation, with respect to any pre-petition claims that may become due subsequent to any transfer of assets by the Debtor. Further documentation supporting Aetna's Claim contains confidential or proprietary information, including protected health information that cannot be publicly disclosed, and thus is not attached hereto. Further information regarding this Claim is available upon written request to:

3. Filing of this Claim does not constitute an election of remedies and cannot be construed as a waiver or release of any claims Aetna has or may have against any non-Debtor third party that may be responsible for all or a portion of the amounts asserted in this Claim. Filing this Claim shall not limit or affect any setoff or recoupment rights Aetna may have with

[^1]respect to the Claim amount, which rights are fully preserved. Aetna expressly reserves the right to amend or supplement this Claim, including to assert that all or part of Aetna's Claim is secured by a contingent right of setoff. By filing this Claim, Aetna does not waive (a) its right to trial by jury in any proceedings so triable herein or in any case, controversy, or proceeding related hereto, or (b) any other rights, claims, actions, defenses, setoffs, or recoupments to which Aetna may be entitled under agreements, in law, or in equity, all of which rights, claims, action, defenses, setoffs, and recoupments are expressly reserved.

[^1]:    1 In the ordinary course of its business, Aetna periodically audits the payments that it has previously made to healthcare providers such as the Assignor, and in some situations will "flag" for further investigation a payment that may have been paid erroneously. Once flagged, these payments are then noted in Aetna's system as having a " $$ 0.01$ " balance due. This notation will remain on those flagged payments until the conclusion of Aetna's audit process, at which time the " $$ 0.01$ " notation will be modified to reflect the actual amount of the erroneous overpayment (e.g., either $$ 0.00$ if the audit finds no overpayment or the actual amount of the overpayment if an overpayment is confirmed). With respect to the amounts listed on Schedule 1 hereto, the payments showing amounts listed as " $$ 0.01$ " represent payments for which Aetna's audit process is still pending, while the payments showing amounts other than " $$ 0.01$ " represent payments for which Aetna's audit process is complete and the overpayments have been confirmed. Aetna expressly reserves the right to complete the audit process for all payments made to the Assignor, including the "flagged" payments listed on Schedule 1, as well as the right to amend this proof of claim to assert any and all overpayments that Aetna confirms at the conclusion of its audit process.
