

in Portland. The Court believes a liberal telephone attendance policy will reduce costs and provide more meaningful access to proceedings in this case. For those reasons, and in the interest of justice,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that until further notice otherwise, any person or entity wishing to listen to, but not actively participate in, a hearing, may do so by dialing the Toll Free Call-In Number 1-888-684-8852 and entering the seven digit Access Code 1238244 followed by the "#" key. Anyone listening to a hearing in this manner should not speak or otherwise announce their presence unless instructed to do so by the Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that any person or entity wishing to participate in a hearing, versus merely monitoring the proceedings, must follow the Court's normal procedure for making a request to appear via telephone using the Court's electronic filing system. Instructions for making such a request can be found on the Court's website. The court encourages out-of-town counsel to take advantage of this opportunity to save time and reduce expense. Parties participating by telephone will not be permitted to examine witnesses or put on evidence, but otherwise will be allowed to participate in hearings the same as those attending in person.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Debtor's authorized noticing agent, Kurtzman Carson Consultants LLC, shall include the information set forth immediately above on the website it maintains in connection with this case.

###