INTRODUCTION

Plaintiffs Landon Rothstein, Jennifer Davidson, Robert Davidson, and Ihor Kobryn (collectively, the “Rothstein Plaintiffs” or “Plaintiffs”) (Claim Nos. 4074 and 3966) respectfully submit this motion and incorporated memorandum of law pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7023 and 9019 requesting final approval of Plaintiffs’ proposed class action Settlement and Plaintiffs’ proposed Plan of Allocation.¹ In accordance with this Court’s Order Preliminarily Approving the Proposed Settlement with the Rothstein Plaintiffs (the “Notice Order”) (Doc. 9609), the court-appointed Settlement Administrator, KCC Class Action Services LLC (“KCC”), duly has effectuated notice to the Class. Decl. ¶ 16.² The Final Approval Hearing is scheduled for May 24, 2016 at 10:00 a.m. See Doc. 9609.³

Plaintiffs and Class Counsel respectfully submit that the proposed Settlement satisfies all the relevant standards for final approval. Plaintiffs are residential mortgagors whose loans were serviced by GMAC Mortgage LLC (“GMACM”) and who were charged by GMACM for Lender-Placed Insurance (“LPI”). Plaintiffs alleged that GMACM — together with certain other defendants named in the Rothstein Action, i.e., the Balboa Defendants — perpetrated a scheme to overcharge Plaintiffs for LPI in violation of the Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act, 18 U.S.C. § 1961, et seq. (“RICO”), and applicable state law. See Decl. ¶ 3.

² References to “Decl.” or the “Supporting Declaration” are to the Declaration of Mark A. Strauss in Support of Final Approval of Proposed Rothstein Class Action Settlement (Claim No. 4074), Plan of Allocation, Award of Attorneys’ Fees, Reimbursement of Litigation Expenses, and Incentive Awards for Named Plaintiffs, which is filed concurrently herewith.

The Settlement resolves Plaintiffs' Bankruptcy Proofs of Claim in exchange for an allowed unsecured claim not subject to subordination in the amount of $13 million against GMACM. See Decl. ¶ 4; Doc. 9491-3, Strauss Decl. Ex. 1 at ¶ 2. The face value of the Allowed Claim is equal to 16% of the approximately $80 million in aggregate out-of-pocket losses that Plaintiffs' Counsel, assisted by Plaintiffs' Forensic Accounting Expert, estimate were suffered by the Class as a result of the alleged scheme. See Decl. ¶ 5. As an "Allowed Borrower Claim" in Class GS-5, the Allowed Claim is estimated to yield a $0.30 per $1.00 recovery from the Borrower Claims Trust. Accordingly, the Allowed Claim is expected to yield a distribution by the Borrower Claims Trust to Plaintiffs and the Class of $3.90 million. See id. ¶¶ 6, 94, 99, 111.

The Settlement represents an exceptional result for the Class. It establishes a non-reversionary common fund which will be distributed to qualified Class Members. Accordingly, the Class will receive cash, and not coupons or cy pres relief as in many consumer class action settlements. See Decl. ¶¶ 7, 90.

Furthermore, Class Members will not be required to file claims. Rather, Plaintiffs' Counsel, with the assistance of Plaintiffs' Forensic Accounting Expert, has already identified each Class Member and determined their respective Recognized Losses. See Decl. ¶¶ 8, 90. This was accomplished through algorithmic analysis of borrower payment data and LPI records of GMACM (the "Class Data") that was supplied by the Liquidating Trust. Under the Plan of Allocation, Class Members whose allocation of the Net Settlement Fund is $10 or more, as calculated from the Class Data, will receive a distribution without having to do anything. See id. ¶¶ 8, 93. By this procedure, it is anticipated that the Settlement Administrator will issue approximately 61,788 distribution checks to qualified Class Members. Id. ¶¶ 8, 94. Hence, there is no question that the Class will receive a significant recovery, and that Class Members will be able to participate to the fullest extent possible.

This Settlement is also an excellent result in light of the difficulties that Plaintiffs and the Class faced in proving their claims. GMACM vigorously denied liability, and had numerous potentially availing defenses, including that: (i) Plaintiffs' claims were barred by the filed-rate doctrine; (ii) the proposed class did not meet the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 7023; and (iii) Plaintiffs failed adequately to allege, and could not prove, their RICO claims.

Indeed, the filed-rate doctrine defense in particular loomed as potentially fatal to Plaintiffs' claims. In Rothstein v. Balboa Ins. Co., 794 F.3d 256 (2d Cir. 2015), the Second Circuit, reversing the District Court, held that the filed-rate doctrine barred Plaintiffs' claims against the Balboa Defendants. Those claims were essentially identical to those asserted by Plaintiffs against GMACM. Accordingly, had there been no Settlement, it is highly likely that the Court would have determined that this binding authority mandated dismissal of the Bankruptcy Proofs of Claim. Had this occurred, the Class would have received nothing. See Decl. ¶ 74.

Additionally, the Settlement was reached only after extensive litigation by Plaintiffs in both the District Court and the Bankruptcy Court, and after months of arm's-length, vigorous negotiations between well-represented parties. See Decl. ¶¶ 29, 42-57.

Accordingly, as detailed below, the proposed Settlement is fair, equitable and in the best interest of the Class and the Debtors' estates, and should be approved.

I. PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND AND SUBSTANTIVE ALLEGATIONS

A. Procedural Background

The Supporting Declaration, which is expressly incorporated herein by reference, details the factual and procedural background, the events that led to the Settlement, and the details of the Settlement.

B. Nature and History of Plaintiffs' Claims

1. The Rothstein Action

Plaintiffs commenced the Rothstein Action on April 30, 2012, alleging that GMACM and the Balboa Defendants had engaged in a fraudulent scheme to overstate GMACM's LPI costs, and, thereby to recoup inflated reimbursements from Plaintiffs, who were obligated to indemnify those costs under their mortgages. See Decl. ¶ 27. Specifically, Plaintiffs alleged that the Balboa Defendants, which consisted of GMACM's LPI carriers and an affiliate of theirs, gave GMACM secret rebates, i.e., kickbacks, but that GMACM nevertheless charged Plaintiffs and the Class for the LPI based on the full premiums. Id. Plaintiffs further alleged that GMACM and the Balboa Defendants concealed the rebates/kickbacks by funneling them through related-party transactions involving the affiliate. Id.

Two weeks after Plaintiffs commenced the Rothstein Action, on May 14, 2012, GMACM and certain of its affiliates filed this Chapter 11 proceeding. Thereafter, on September 28, 2012, Plaintiffs filed their First Amended Class Action Complaint in the Rothstein Action, and, on January 22, 2013, Plaintiffs filed their Second Amended Complaint in the Rothstein Action. Decl. ¶¶ 29-30.

In their amended pleadings, Plaintiffs withdrew their claims against GMACM due to the automatic stay under the Bankruptcy Code. However, Plaintiffs named non-debtors Ally Bank (“Ally Bank”) and Ally Financial, Inc. (“AFI”) (collectively, “Ally”) as new defendants based on theories of veil-piercing, alter-ego liability, and agency. See Decl. ¶ 31.

On February 25, 2013, the Balboa Defendants filed a motion to dismiss the claims pled against them in the Rothstein Action. Such motion involved numerous issues potentially dispositive of Plaintiffs’ claims against GMACM, e.g., the applicability of the filed-rate doctrine and the sufficiency of Plaintiffs’ RICO claims, which alleged a conspiracy between, and concerted deceptive activity by, GMACM and the Balboa Defendants. See Decl. ¶ 35.

On September 30, 2013, after full briefing, the District Court denied the Balboa Defendants’ motion to dismiss, holding that the filed-rate doctrine did not apply and sustaining Plaintiffs’ RICO claims. See Decl. ¶ 37.

On June 25, 2014, the Second Circuit granted interlocutory appeal of the District Court’s order. See Decl. ¶ 40. On July 22, 2015, after extensive briefing and argument, the Second Circuit reversed the District Court, holding that the filed-rate doctrine barred Plaintiffs’ claims. See 794 F.3d, at 259, 262-64; Decl. ¶ 41.

2. The Bankruptcy Proceeding

Plaintiffs filed their Bankruptcy Proofs of Claim on November 9, 2012. See Decl. ¶ 42.

On December 21, 2012, Ally filed a motion (which was subsequently joined by the Debtors) pursuant to Section 362 seeking to stay Plaintiffs’ claims against Ally in the Rothstein Action. See Decl. ¶ 43; Docs. 2511, 2793.

On April 2, 2013, Plaintiffs filed their opposition and cross-motion for relief from any applicable stay. See Decl. ¶ 45; Doc. 3343. Plaintiffs submitted that the claims against Ally were direct and personal, not derivative. See id.

On August 28, 2013, Ally, the Debtors, and the Committee filed an amended motion to stay Plaintiffs' claims against Ally. See Decl. ¶ 47; Doc. 4871.⁴

On August 8, 2013, Plaintiffs filed an Objection and Reservation of Rights with respect to the Debtors' Disclosure Statement. See Decl. ¶ 49; Doc. 4578. Plaintiffs stated that they intended to object to the proposed plan to the extent that it enjoined Plaintiffs from prosecuting their claims against Ally. Plaintiffs also submitted that the proposed Third Party Releases were improper because insufficient funding was provided for the release of borrower claims. See id.

In or around July 2013, Class Counsel and counsel for the Settling Debtors and the Committee began discussing the potential settlement of Plaintiffs' Bankruptcy Proofs of Claim. After much back and forth, the discussions culminated in a nearly day-long, arm's-length, face-to-face negotiation session on September 9, 2013. See Decl. ¶ 51. This meeting was followed by additional phone calls and email exchanges between Plaintiffs' Counsel and counsel for the Settling Debtors and the Committee. See Decl. ¶ 52.

Finally, on September 20, 2013, Plaintiffs' Counsel and the Settling Debtors, with the consent of the Committee, reached an agreement in principle to resolve the claims asserted in the Bankruptcy Proofs of Claim. Such agreement was memorialized in an exchange of emails. See Decl. ¶ 53.

As part of the agreement in principle, Plaintiffs consented to support the Chapter 11 Plan. On December 11, 2013, the Chapter 11 Plan was confirmed with Plaintiffs' support, and, on December 17, 2013, the Plan Effective Date occurred. See Decl. ¶ 54.

⁴ On June 12, 2013 and July 10, 2013, respectively, the Court held status conferences with respect to the stay motion. See Decl. ¶ 48.

3. Plaintiffs' Counsel's Successful Efforts To Obtain, And To Identify The Class Members And Determine Their Recognized Losses From, the Class Data

Also as part of the agreement in principle reached between the parties, the Settling Debtors agreed to produce to Plaintiffs data and business records (to the extent that such information was within the Debtors' control or reasonably available from the Debtors' successors) regarding GMACM's LPI transactions and the payment histories of mortgagors, i.e., the Class Data. See Decl. ¶ 58; Doc. 9491-3, Strauss Decl. Ex. 1 at ¶ 26. Plaintiffs' Counsel and the Settling Debtors engaged in extensive negotiations between October 2013 and June 2014 over such production. See id. ¶ 59. The discussions were highly technical in nature. Plaintiffs' Counsel engaged Plaintiffs' Forensic Accounting Expert to advise Plaintiffs' Counsel and to help in the negotiations. Numerous, lengthy conference calls were held. *See id.*⁵

In or about June 2014, the Liquidating Trust, pursuant to a cooperation agreement it maintains with the Borrower Claims Trust, produced the Class Data to Plaintiffs' Counsel. Plaintiffs' Counsel caused the Class Data to be loaded onto the computer system of Plaintiffs' Database Hosting Provider for analysis. See Decl. ¶ 61.

Plaintiffs' Counsel, with the assistance of Plaintiffs' Forensic Accounting Expert, performed extensive computerized analysis of the Class Data. See Decl. ¶ 62. The analysis required the development of an algorithm to iterate through each borrower payment history making requisite calculations. By this analysis, the members of the Class were identified, the amounts that GMACM recouped or recovered from each for LPI during the Class Period were determined, and the Recognized Loss of each Class Member was calculated. See id.

II. REASONS FOR THE SETTLEMENT

The principal reason for the Settlement is the significant benefit that it provides to the Class. This benefit must be weighed against the very real risk that the Class would have received no recovery had Plaintiffs elected to continue litigating. The benefit of the Settlement to the Class is particularly great in light of the Second Circuit's decision with respect to the applicability of the filed-rate doctrine in the Rothstein Action. It is highly likely that, had there been no Settlement, Plaintiffs' Bankruptcy Proofs of Claim would have been dismissed based on this binding authority, and the Class would have received nothing. See Decl. ¶¶ 73-74.

Plaintiffs' decision to settle was fully informed and the product of Plaintiffs' rigorous prosecution of Plaintiffs' claims. The terms of the Settlement were reached after vigorous litigation in both the District Court and this Court, and through good faith, extensive, arm's length and vigorous negotiations between well-represented parties. Those negotiations included a nearly day-long, face-to-face negotiation session between Class Counsel and counsel for the Debtors. At all times, counsel for the Committee greatly assisted by acting as an intermediary in the negotiations. See Decl. ¶¶ 14, 51.

Plaintiffs continue to believe in the merit of their claims against GMACM. However, the Settling Debtors vigorously denied liability, and had numerous potentially availing defenses — including the potentially dispositive filed-rate doctrine defense — increasing the uncertainty of a favorable outcome absent settlement. See Decl. ¶ 12. Similarly, although the Settling Debtors deny Plaintiffs' claims and contentions, they nevertheless concluded that it was desirable to fully and finally resolve Plaintiffs' Bankruptcy Proofs of Claim in the manner and on the terms set forth in the Stipulation. See Doc. 9491-3, Strauss Decl. Ex. 1 at 17.

III. THE TERMS OF THE SETTLEMENT AND PLAN OF ALLOCATION

As indicated above, the Settlement resolves Plaintiffs' Bankruptcy Proofs of Claim in exchange for an allowed unsecured claim not subject to subordination, represented by Claim No. 4074, in the amount of $13 million, against GMACM.⁶ Assuming the rate of recovery estimated by the Plan for Class GS-5 claims, the Allowed Claim is expected to yield a distribution by the Borrower Claims Trust to Plaintiffs and the Class of $3.9 million. See Decl. ¶¶ 4-6.

The Plan of Allocation provides that the Net Settlement Fund will be allocated to Class Members pro rata based on the Recognized Loss of each Class Member relative to the total Recognized Losses of all Class Members. Class Members whose allocation of the Net Settlement Fund is $10 or more, as calculated from the Class Data, will receive a distribution. See Decl. ¶¶ 8, 93.

IV. THE SETTLEMENT IS FAIR, REASONABLE, AND ADEQUATE AND FINAL APPROVAL SHOULD BE GRANTED

A. The Applicable Standard

The settlement of class action claims is subject to court approval after reasonable notice and a hearing. See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7023. A court will approve a settlement if it is "fair, adequate, and reasonable, and not a product of collusion." Wal-Mart Stores, Inc. v. Visa U.S.A. Inc., 396 F.3d 96, 116 (2d Cir. 2005) (internal quotations omitted). This determination falls within the court's sound discretion.⁷ In exercising such discretion, the Second Circuit has Supp. 2d 570, 575 (S.D.N.Y. 2008); see Wal-Mart, 396 F.3d at 116 (citations omitted); see also In re WorldCom, Inc., 347 B.R. at 143-49 (holding that in order for a class action settlement to be approved in bankruptcy court the settlement must be both procedurally and substantively fair under Rules 7023 and 9019).

In addition, under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 9019(a), “[a] court must determine that a settlement . . . is fair, equitable, and in the best interests of the estate before approving it.” In re Residential Capital, LLC, 497 B.R. at 749; see also In re Iridium Operating LLC, 478 F.3d 452, 462 (2d Cir. 2007). However, “the business judgment of the debtor in recommending the settlement should be factored into the court’s analysis.” In re Residential Capital, LLC, 497 B.R. at 750.

Regarding process, a class action settlement enjoys a strong “presumption of fairness” where it is the product of arm’s-length negotiations conducted by experienced, capable counsel. See Wal-Mart, 396 F.3d at 116.⁹ Indeed, “absent evidence of fraud or overreaching, [courts] consistently have refused to act as Monday morning quarterbacks in evaluating the judgment of counsel.” *Trief v. particularly true in complex class actions, where “the courts have long recognized that such litigation ‘is notably different and notoriously uncertain,’ and that compromise is particularly appropriate.” In re Union Carbide Corp. Consumer Prods. Bus. Sec. Litig., 718 F. Supp. 1099, 1103 (S.D.N.Y. 1989) (internal citations omitted).

With respect to the substantive terms of a settlement, courts in this Circuit analyze the factors set forth in City of Detroit v. Grinnell Corp., 495 F.2d 448, 463 (2d Cir. 1974), which include:

(1) The complexity, expense and likely duration of the litigation; (2) the reaction of the class to the settlement; (3) the stage of the proceedings and the amount of discovery completed; (4) the risks of establishing liability; (5) the risks of establishing damages; (6) the risks of maintaining the class action through the trial; (7) the ability of the defendants to withstand a greater judgment; (8) the range of reasonableness of the settlement fund in light of the best possible recovery; and (9) the range of reasonableness of the settlement fund to a possible recovery in light of all the attendant risks of litigation.

Wal-Mart, 396 F.3d at 117 (quoting Grinnell, 495 F.2d at 463) (citations omitted)).

In applying the Grinnell factors, the Second Circuit has indicated that a court should not substitute its judgment for those of the parties who negotiated the settlement, or conduct a “mini-trial” on the action’s merit. See Weinberger v. Kendrick, 698 F.2d 61, 74 (2d Cir. 1982).

Here, the proposed Settlement clearly is fair, reasonable and adequate under the pertinent standards and merits approval.

B. The Settlement Is Procedurally Fair as It Was Negotiated at Arm’s-Length and Is Supported by Plaintiffs and Experienced Counsel

A strong initial presumption of fairness attaches to a proposed settlement reached by experienced counsel after arm’s-length negotiations. See Wal-Mart, 396 F.3d 116. “To determine procedural fairness, courts examine the negotiating process leading to the settlement.” Yang v. Focus Media Holding Ltd., No. 11 Civ. 9051, 2014 WL 4401280, at *4 (S.D.N.Y. Sept. 4, 2014) (citing Wal-Mart, 396 F.3d at 116). Where a settlement is the “product of arm’s length negotiations conducted by experienced, capable counsel,” it enjoys a “presumption of correctness.” Id. (citations omitted); see City of Providence, 2014 WL 1883494, at *4 (“[a] strong initial presumption of fairness attaches to a proposed settlement if it is reached by experienced counsel after arm’s-length negotiations.”).

The strong initial presumption applies here. As described in the Supporting Declaration, the Settlement was negotiated at arm’s-length by experienced counsel acting in an informed manner. See Decl. ¶¶ 14, 51; Doc. 9491 at ¶¶ 16-17, 37-41. Furthermore, at all times, counsel for the Committee greatly assisted in the negotiations. See Decl. ¶ 87. Additionally, Plaintiffs’ Special Bankruptcy Counsel assisted Plaintiffs’ Counsel in navigating the relevant bankruptcy issues and procedures. Id. ¶¶ 44, 70. The negotiations included a nearly day-long, arm’s-length, face-to-face session on September 9, 2013. Id. ¶ 51. Prior to reaching the Settlement, Plaintiffs’ Counsel conducted an extensive investigation of the facts relating to Plaintiffs’ claims.¹⁰ Id. ¶ 65.¹¹ Plaintiffs’ Counsel additionally conducted extensive research into the legal theories asserted. Id.

In the opinion of Plaintiffs’ Counsel, who have a great deal of experience litigating class actions, the Settlement is not merely fair, reasonable and adequate, but represents an excellent result for the Class. See Decl. ¶¶ 7, 12, 71. This opinion is entitled to “great weight.” In re PaineWebber Ltd. P’ships Litig., 171 F.R.D. 104, 125 (S.D.N.Y. 1997), aff’d, 117 F.3d 721 (2d

Cir. 1997) (citation omitted); see also In re Veeco Instruments Inc. Sec. Litig., No. 05 MDL 1695, 2007 WL 4115809, at *12 (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 7, 2007).

C. The Settlement Satisfies the Second Circuit's Grinnell Factors for Approval

In determining whether the substantive terms of a settlement are fair, reasonable, and adequate, courts in this Circuit look to the nine Grinnell factors as set forth above. All nine factors need not be satisfied. Instead, the court should look to the totality of these factors in light of the specific circumstances involved. In re Global Crossing, 225 F.R.D. at 456. As demonstrated below, the Settlement clearly warrants approval in light of the Grinnell factors.

1. Continued Litigation Would be Complex, Expensive, and Protracted Courts have consistently recognized that the complexity, expense, and likely duration of litigation are critical factors in evaluating the reasonableness of a settlement. See In re Trinsum Grp., Inc., No. 08 Civ. 12547, 2013 WL 1821592, at *3-4 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Apr. 30, 2013) (citing In re Iridium Operating LLC, 478 F.3d at 462).

Here, the Settlement precluded potentially protracted litigation over Plaintiffs' Bankruptcy Proofs of Claim. Those claims raised complex legal and factual issues which likely would have required extensive third-party discovery (i.e., of the Balboa Defendants). The issues included, inter alia, whether the filed-rate doctrine applied – a question with respect to which the Second Circuit granted interlocutory appeal and which was fully briefed and argued at the appellate level in the Rothstein Action. See Decl. ¶¶ 35, 37, 41, 74. The issues also included whether Plaintiffs could prove their RICO claims, which are notoriously complex and time-consuming to litigate on a class basis. See In re Ins. Brokerage Antitrust Litig., 282 F.R.D. 92, 102-03 (D.N.J. 2012); Farinella v. Paypal, Inc., 611 F. Supp. 2d 250, 265-66 (E.D.N.Y. 2009).

The Settlement also precluded the necessity to fully litigate Ally's stay motion. See Decl. ¶¶ 45, 47-48; Docs. 2834, 3343, 4871. Such motion raised complex issues regarding the derivative versus direct nature of Plaintiffs' claims that would have entailed substantial litigation. See id. ¶ 48; Docs. 2834, 3343, 4871.

The Settlement also removed a potential impediment to confirmation of the Chapter 11 Plan. See Decl. ¶¶ 47, 50-54; Doc. 4941-3, Strauss Decl. Ex. 1 at 14-15. In return for the Settlement, Plaintiffs agreed to drop their objections and consent to the Chapter 11 Plan, which was confirmed with Plaintiffs' support. Id.

2. Reaction of the Class to the Settlement

The reaction of the class to the Settlement is a significant factor in assessing its fairness and adequacy. See In re Flag Telecom Holdings, Ltd. Sec. Litig., No. 02 Civ. 3400, 2010 WL 4537550, at *16 (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 8, 2010); Veeco, 2007 WL 4115809, at *7. The absence of valid objections to a settlement provides evidence of class members' approval of the terms of the Settlement and desire to share in the proceeds thereof. See RMED Int'l, Inc. v. Sloan's Supermarkets, Inc., No. 94 Civ. 5587, 2003 WL 21136726, at *1 (S.D.N.Y. May 15, 2003).

Here, as indicated above, the court-appointed Settlement Administrator, KCC, duly issued notice to the Class in accordance with the Notice Order. See Decl. ¶¶ 16, 20-26, Ex. A; Doc. 9606. Notably, this included mailing more than [143,973] copies of the Summary Direct U.S. Mail Postcard Notice to Class Members. Id. ¶¶ 20, 25, 62, 94. The Notice apprised Class Members of their rights to participate in the Settlement, to object to the Settlement, the Plan of Allocation or the application for attorneys' fees and Litigation Expenses, or to exclude themselves. See id. ¶ 18 ; Doc. 9609, at 6-7.

To date, no objections have been received to the Settlement, the Plan of Allocation, or the amount of Class Counsel's fee requests or expenses. Decl. at ¶¶ 89, 120. Furthermore, the Settlement Administrator has only received one valid request for exclusion from the Settlement. Id. at ¶ 11, 89.

The overwhelmingly positive reaction of the Class evidences the Class' approval. See City of Providence, 2014 WL 1883494, at *6 ("That almost no Class Member objected to the Settlement or chose to exclude himself from it is indeed the strongest indication that the Settlement is fair and reasonable.").¹²

3. Plaintiffs Had Sufficient Information to Make Informed Decisions as to Settlement

In considering the third Grinnell factor, "the question is whether the parties had adequate information about their claims, such that their counsel can intelligently evaluate the merits of plaintiff's claims, the strengths of the defenses asserted by defendants, and the value of plaintiff's causes of action for purposes of settlement." In re Bear Stearns Cos., Inc. Sec., Derivative, and ERISA Litig., 909 F. Supp. 2d 259, 267 (S.D.N.Y. 2012) (citing In re IMAX Sec. Litig., 283 F.R.D. 178, 190 (S.D.N.Y. 2012) (internal citations, quotation marks and alterations omitted)).

Here, Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' Counsel consider the proposed Settlement to be an excellent outcome for the Class in light of a fully-informed understanding of the strengths and weaknesses of Plaintiffs' claims. See Decl. ¶¶ 71-88. The Settlement was reached after extensive litigation in this Court and the District Court, and a complete investigation and analysis of the facts and legal principles relating to Plaintiffs' claims. Id. ¶¶ 29, 42-57. Plaintiffs' Counsel also conferred extensively with Plaintiffs' Special Bankruptcy Counsel in navigating the relevant bankruptcy issues and procedures, and in developing strategies to maximize Class's recovery against the Debtors. See id. ¶¶ 44, 70. Counsel for the Committee also greatly contributed to Plaintiffs’ Counsel’s grasp of the relevant issues. See id.

Accordingly, Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs’ Counsel were well versed in the factual and legal aspects of the claims, and had sufficient information to intelligently negotiate the terms of the Settlement. See City of Providence, 2014 WL 1883494, at *7 (“Accordingly, Lead Plaintiff and Lead Counsel have developed a comprehensive understanding of the key legal and factual issues in the litigation and, at the time the Settlement was reached, had a ‘clear view of the strengths and weaknesses of their case’ and of the range of possible outcomes at trial.”) (internal citations omitted).¹³

4. Plaintiff Faced Significant Risks in Establishing Liability and Damages

In analyzing the risk to plaintiffs in establishing liability, the Court does not “need to decide the merits of the case or resolve unsettled legal questions.” Cinelli v. MCS Claim Servs., Inc., 236 F.R.D. 118, 121 (E.D.N.Y. 2006) (internal quotations and alterations omitted); see also In re Austrian and German Bank Holocaust Litig., 80 F. Supp. 2d at 177 (holding in evaluating the risks of establishing liability the Court need not, “foresee with absolute certainty the outcome of the case”). Rather, the Court is only required to weigh the likelihood of success on the merits against the relief provided by the Settlement. See id. Court routinely approve settlements where the plaintiffs would have faced significant legal and factual obstacles to establishing liability. See In re Global Crossing, 225 F.R.D. at 459.

Here, the risks that Plaintiffs faced were numerous and large. There was a risk, which materialized, that GMACM would file Chapter 11, thus impairing Plaintiffs’ ability to collect any settlement or judgment. See In re Hibbard Brown & Co., Inc., 217 B.R. 41, 46 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1998) (noting that even successful claimants in bankruptcy may not be able to collect).

There was also a risk that the filed-rate doctrine barred Plaintiffs' claims. Indeed, the Second Circuit, reversing the District Court in the Rothstein Action, held that the filed-rate doctrine barred Plaintiffs' claims against the Balboa Defendants. See Decl. ¶ 74. Those claims were essentially identical to those asserted by Plaintiffs against GMACM. Accordingly, had there been no Settlement, it is highly likely that the Court would have determined that this binding authority mandated dismissal of the Bankruptcy Proofs of Claim. Had this occurred, the Class would have received nothing. Id.

The uncertain outcome of the Balboa Defendants' motion to dismiss in the Rothstein Action also loomed as a large risk. See Decl. ¶ 75. That motion — which involved numerous issues potentially dispositive of the Bankruptcy Proofs of Claim, such as the applicability of the filed-rate doctrine and the sufficiency of Plaintiffs' RICO claims which involved an alleged conspiracy by GMACM and the Balboa Defendants — was fully briefed and pending at the time that the Settling Parties were negotiating the Settlement. Class Counsel was keenly aware that, were the District Court to grant the motion, it very likely would have torpedoed Plaintiffs' chances of getting a settlement from the Debtors, and rendered the Bankruptcy Proofs of Claim of little or no value. Id. Class Counsel therefore sought to mitigate this risk by attaining the agreement in principle prior to the District Court's issuing its decision. As indicated above, the Settling Parties reached their agreement in principle just three weeks before the District Court decision came out. Id.

Plaintiffs also faced a significant risk that the Court would refuse to certify the proposed nationwide Class. Numerous courts have declined class certification in LPI cases or limited the proposed class to a single state.¹⁴ See Decl. ¶ 76.

Class Counsel also faced the risk of being unable to prove damages. “In class actions, the ‘complexities of calculating damages increase geometrically.’” Chatelain v. Prudential-BACHE Sec., Inc., 805 F.Supp. 209, 214 (S.D.N.Y. 1992) (citation omitted); see In re Milken and Assoc. Sec. Litig., 150 F.R.D. 46, 54 (S.D.N.Y. 1993) (observing that proving damages often becomes a “battle of experts . . . with no guarantee of the outcome”). Here, establishing damages would have required the expert analysis of literally millions of borrower transactions. While Plaintiffs ultimately conducted such an expert analysis in connection with the Settlement, it is highly doubtful that this difficult task could have been achieved without the willing cooperation of the Debtors. See Decl. ¶¶ 59-61.

Class Counsel additionally faced serious obstacles in proving Plaintiffs’ RICO claims. Plaintiffs would have had to show that GMACM “participated in a scheme to defraud” and evinced a “specific intent to defraud.” Compania Sud-Americana de Vapores, S.A. v. IBJ Schroder Bank & Trust Co., 785 F.Supp. 411, 424 (S.D.N.Y. 1992) (citing United States v. Rodolitz, 786 F.2d 77, 80 (2d Cir. 1986)). Notably, GMACM sought to blame any wrongdoing on the Balboa Defendants. See Decl. ¶¶ 81-83; Rothstein, ECF No. 39 at ¶ 73.

Indeed, Courts across the country have rendered opinions illustrating the numerous risks associated with mortgagor LPI claims. In Feaz v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., 745 F.3d 1098 (11th

¹⁴ See Gooden v. Suntrust Mortg., Inc., No. 11 Civ. 02595, 2013 WL 6499250, at *9 (E.D. Cal. Dec. 11, 2013) (denying certification); Gustafson v. BAC Home Loans Serv., LP, 294 F.R.D. 529, 550 (C.D. Cal. 2013) (same); Gordon v. Chase Home Fin., LLC, No. 11 Civ. 2001, 2013 WL 436445, at *12 (M.D. Fla. Feb. 5, 2013) (same); Kunzelmann v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., No. 11 Civ. 81373, 2013 WL 139913, at *13 (S.D. Fla. Jan. 10, 2013) (same); Lane v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., No. 12 Civ. 04026, 2013 WL 3187410, at *16 (N.D. Cal. June 21, 2013) (certifying only single-state class); Williams v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., 280 F.R.D. 665, 675 (S.D. Fla. 2012) (same).

Cir. 2014), the Eleventh Circuit dismissed lender-placed flood insurance claims brought under Alabama law. The court held that commissions paid by the insurer to the bank did not constitute “kickbacks” because the servicer did not owe a fiduciary duty to the borrowers. Id. at 1110. In Cohen v. American Sec. Ins. Co., 735 F.3d 601 (7th Cir. 2013), the Seventh Circuit affirmed a decision dismissing LPI claims holding that there was nothing “unfair” or “deceptive” about the defendants’ allegedly improper LPI practices.¹⁵ Id. at 609.

Accordingly, the Class faced significant risks, compared to certain other relief provided by the Settlement.

5. Risks of Maintaining Class Action Status Through Trial

Plaintiffs’ Counsel is confident that the Class would have been certified. Nonetheless, Defendants would have been entitled to challenge certification, and to seek an order limiting and/or de-certifying the Class. See Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7023(c); Chatelain, 805 F. Supp. at 214. Thus, there was always a risk that Plaintiffs would be unable to maintain class action status through trial. The Settlement obviates this risk.

6. Ability to Withstand Greater Judgment

The court may also consider a defendant’s ability to withstand a judgment greater than that secured by settlement. See Grinnell, 495 F.2d at 463. As a Chapter 11 debtor, however, GMACM per se could not withstand a greater judgment. See, e.g., In re Am. Family Enters., 256 B.R. 377, 420 (D.N.J. 2000) (debtor defendants “cannot withstand any significant judgment at all, let alone a greater judgment than the . . . monetary relief being offered in compromise. Accordingly, this factor weighs most heavily in favor of the proposed settlement”).

7. The Settlement Amount is in the Range of Reasonableness in Light of the Best Possible Recovery and All the Attendant Risks of Litigation

“[T]here is a range of reasonableness with respect to a settlement – a range which recognizes the uncertainties of law and fact in any particular case and the concomitant risks and costs necessarily inherent in taking any litigation to completion . . .” Wal-Mart, 396 F.3d at 119 (internal citation omitted).

Here, as indicated above, the face value of the Allowed Claim value equals 16% of the approximately $80 million in aggregate out-of-pocket losses that Plaintiffs’ Counsel, with the assistance of Plaintiffs’ Forensic Accounting Expert, estimate were suffered by the Class as a result of the alleged scheme.¹⁶ See Decl. 5; Doc. 9491, at ¶¶ 6, 56. In light of the estimated payout rate for Class GS-5 claims, the Allowed Claim is expected to yield a distribution by the Borrower Claims Trust of $3.9 million.

This recovery falls well within the “range of reasonableness,” particularly in light of the risks faced by Plaintiffs, as set forth above and in the Supporting Declaration. See Decl. ¶¶ 71-83; e.g., In re PaineWebber Litig., 171 F.R.D. at 130 (fairness determination turns not on a “mathematical equation yielding a particularized sum . . . but rather ... [on] the strengths and weaknesses of the plaintiff’s case.”) (quotation marks omitted). Indeed, the Second Circuit has indicated that “[t]he fact that a proposed settlement may only amount to a fraction of the potential recovery does not, in and of itself, mean that the proposed settlement is grossly inadequate and should be disapproved.” Grinnell Corp., 495 F.2d at 455. “In fact there is no reason, at least in theory, why a satisfactory settlement could not amount to a hundredth or even a thousandth part of a single percent of the potential recovery.” Id at n.2.

Courts in this Circuit and elsewhere consistently approve settlements recovering comparable or smaller fractions of estimated damages. See, e.g., In re Prudential Sec. Inc. L.P. Litig., MDL No. 1005, 1995 WL 798907 (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 20, 1995) (approving settlement in RICO class action amounting to between 1.6% and 5% of claimed damages); In re Payment Card Interchange Fee & Merchant Discount Antitrust Litig., 986 F. Supp. 2d 207, 229 (E.D.N.Y. 2013) (settlement equaled 2.5% of damages); Hall v. Children’s Place Retail Stores, Inc., 669 F. Supp. 2d 399, 402 n. 30 (S.D.N.Y. 2009) (recovering 5% to 12% of provable damages); Cagan v. Anchor Sav. Bank FSB, No. CV-88-3024, 1990 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 11450, at *9-10 (E.D.N.Y. May 22, 1990) (settlement represented less than 2% of possible damages).¹⁷

Indeed, courts routinely approve settlements that do not involve any cash recovery whatsoever. See, e.g., In re Toys R Us-Del., Inc. – Fair & Accurate Credit Transactions (FACTA) Litig., 295 F.R.D. 438, 453-54 (C.D. Cal. 2014) (class members received vouchers toward future purchases from the defendants); In re Mexico Money Transfer Litig., 164 F. Supp. 2d 1002, 1017-18 (N.D. Ill. 2000) (class members received coupons); see generally Grinnell, 495 F.2d at 455 n.2 (“It might be pointed out that the settlement agreement approved in Sunrise

¹⁷ See Bayat v. Bank of the W., No. 13 Civ. 02376, 2015 WL 1744342 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 15, 2015) (approving consumer settlement recovering 0.7% of potential damages); In re AT&T Corp. Secs. Litig., 455 F.3d 160, 162, 170 (3d Cir. 2006) (affirming approval of settlement representing 4% of total damages); In re Ikon Office Solutions v. Stuart, 194 F.R.D. 166, 183 (E.D. Pa. 2000) (approving settlement providing recovery of 5.2% to 8.7% of damages); Lazy Oil Co. v. Witco Corp., 95 F. Supp. 2d 290, 319 (W.D. Pa. 1997) (recovering 5.35% of damages); Fisher Bros. v. Cambridge-Lee Indus., Inc., 630 F. Supp. 482, 489-90 (E.D. Pa. 1985) (recovering less than 1% of damages); In re Four Seasons Secs. Laws Litig., 58 F.R.D. 19, 36-37 (W.D. Okla. 1972) (8% of damages); see generally Behrens v. Wometco Enters., Inc., 118 F.R.D. 534, 542 (S.D. Fla. 1988) (“The mere fact that the proposed settlement of $0.20 a share is a small fraction of the desired recovery of $3.50 a share is not indicative of an inadequate compromise”), aff’d, 899 F.2d 21 (11th Cir. 1990).

Toyota v. Toyota Motor Company, Ltd., 1971-1 Trade Cases P74, 398, at 93, 821 (S.D.N.Y. 1973), did not provide for the payment of any money to the class members.”).

The reasonableness of the Settlement is amplified by the fact that it establishes a non-reversionary common fund that will be distributed to qualified Class Members without a claims process. See Decl., at ¶¶ 7, 90. This stands in marked contrast to the usual consumer class action settlement, where “claims made” or cy pres forms of relief that “produce negligible benefits for class members” are the norm. See Mayer Brown LLP, Do Class Actions Benefit Class Members, An Empirical Analysis of Class Actions, at 6 (2013).

The Settlement is also exemplary compared to numerous other recent LPI class action settlements. Almost uniformly, those settlements have been “claims made,” did not involve a common fund, and which have not involved the automatic distribution of settlement proceeds to class members. See Decl. ¶ 10. In those cases, there has been no assurance that the defendants would pay any material consideration apart from the plaintiffs’ attorneys’ fees. Id. Unsurprisingly, many of those settlements have been challenged as collusive and unfair. Id.

In contrast, not a single Class Member has objected to the Settlement to date. Id. ¶ 89, 120.

The Settlement also compares favorably to the outcomes of the three other class actions that were filed against GMACM relating to LPI — Ulbrich v. GMAC Mortgage, LLC et al., No. 11 Civ. 62424 (RNS) (S.D. Fla.), Cronk v. GMAC Mortgage, LLC, No. 11 Civ. 05161 (E.D. Pa.), and Throm v. GMAC Mortgage, LLC, No. 11 Civ. 06813 (E.D. Pa.). In each case, the putative class did not recover a penny from GMACM. See Decl. ¶ 86.

Hence, the recovery is fair, reasonable, and adequate. Accordingly, Plaintiffs' Counsel respectfully submits that this Court should find that the Grinnell factors, taken together, weigh in favor of Settlement and that the Settlement should be approved.

D. The Plan of Allocation Should Be Approved as it is Fair, Reasonable, and Adequate

When evaluating the fairness of a plan of allocation, courts give weight to the opinion of qualified counsel. "When formulated by competent and experienced class counsel," a plan for distribution of net settlement proceeds "need have only a reasonable, rational basis." In re Telik, 576 F. Supp. 2d at 580 (quoting In re Global Crossing, 225 F.R.D. at 462 (quotation marks omitted)). "A reasonable plan may consider the relative strength and values of different categories of claims." Id.; see also In re Gulf Oil/Cities Serv. Tender Offer Litig., 142 F.R.D. 588, 595-96 (S.D.N.Y. 1992) (plan of allocation that distributes greater part of settlement proceeds to those most injured is reasonable).

Here, the Plan of Allocation was devised by Plaintiffs' Counsel, who are highly experienced in class action litigation (see Decl. ¶¶ 90-95, 98, 101, Ex. C), and provides for the proportional allocation of the Net Settlement Fund based on each Class Member's Recognized Loss (see Doc. 9491, at ¶ 75). Courts deem the apportionment of available funds according to the relative amount of damages suffered by class members to be fair and reasonable.¹⁸

The $10 de minimis threshold for the receipt of distributions is also fair and reasonable. Courts routinely approve similar thresholds.¹⁹

¹⁸ See In re McDonnell Douglas Equip. Leasing Sec. Litig., 838 F. Supp. 729, 733-35 (S.D.N.Y. 1993); In re Vitamins Antitrust Litig., No. 99 Civ. 197, 2000 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8931, at *32 (D.D.C. Mar. 30, 2000) (citing Beecher v. Able, 575 F.2d 1010, 1013-14 (2d Cir. 1978)); In re Chicken Antitrust Litig., 669 F.2d 228, 240-41 (5th Cir. 1982).

The use of an estimate to compute the Recognized Losses of those Class Members as to which computerized calculations were impossible is also fair and reasonable. Courts routinely approve the use of similar estimates and extrapolations.²⁰

Accordingly, Plaintiffs and Plaintiffs' Counsel submit that the Plan of Allocation represents a fair and equitable method for allocating the Net Settlement Amount among the members of the Class, and should be given final approval by the Court. To date, not one objection to the Plan of Allocation has been filed, which also supports its approval by the Court. See Veeco, 2007 WL 4115809, at *14; Maley v. Del Global Techs. Corp., 186 F. Supp. 2d 358, 367 (S.D.N.Y. 2002).

E. Notice to the Class Satisfies Due Process Requirements

As indicated above, the court-appointed Settlement Administrator, KCC, has effectuated notice to the Class in accordance with the Notice Order. See Decl. ¶¶ 16, 20-26, Ex. B, at ¶¶ 9-19. KCC caused a copy of the Summary Direct U.S. Mail Postcard Notice to be mailed to each of the 143,973 persons whose names appear on the computerized Class Member List provided by the Borrowers Claims Trust. Decl. ¶¶ 20, 25, Ex. B, at ¶10.²¹ KCC also caused the Publication Notice to be published in USA Today on February 23, 2016 and to be transmitted over the PR Newswire on February 23, 2016. Id. ¶ 14; Decl. ¶ 22.

settlement funds.”); City of Livonia Emp. Ret. Sys. V. Wyeth, No. 07 Civ. 10329, 2013 WL 4399015, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. Aug. 7, 2013) (same, as “very small checks, i.e. those under $10.00, are often not cashed initially, and in many cases are never cashed.”).

²⁰ See In re Warfarin Sodium Antitrust Litig., 212 F.R.D. 231, 260 (D. Del. 2002) (approving loss formula based on averages from available data); In re Citigroup Inc. Sec. Litig., No. 07 Civ. 9901, 2014 WL 2445714, at *2 (S.D.N.Y. May 30, 2014) (allocating recovery based on estimates); In re Lorazepam & Clorazepate Antitrust Litig., 205 F.R.D. 369, 382 (D.D.C. 2002); see also Bouaphakeo v. Tyson Foods, Inc., 765 F.3d 791, 799 (8th Cir. 2014); In re Urethane Antitrust Litig., 768 F.3d 1245, 1256-57 (10th Cir. 2014).

In order to provide Class Members with information concerning the Settlement, as well as downloadable copies of the Notice, KCC also established a dedicated website, www.GMACMortgageLenderPlacedInsuranceClassActionSettlement.com. Both the Summary Direct U.S. Mail Postcard Notice and the Publication Notice directed Class Members to the website for the full Notice. See Decl. ¶ 21, Ex. B, at ¶ 13.

KCC also caused an Interactive Voice Response (the “IVR”) system to be established at a toll-free number (844-830-5220) to provide information about the Settlement and to record requests for copies of the Notice. See Decl. 23, Ex. B, at ¶ 12.

The Notice apprises Class members of the proposed Settlement and Plan of Allocation, as well as the rights of Class members and the method and dates by which they can object to, or opt-out of, the Settlement. See Decl. ¶ 18 ; Doc. 9609, at 6-7. The Class has also been advised of the date of the Final Hearing at which time they will have the opportunity to be heard with respect to any objection raised. Id.

Hence, the Settlement fully satisfies due process and complies with the requirements of Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7023. The notice program clearly provides “the best notice practicable under the circumstances including individual notice to all members who can be identified through reasonable effort.” See Eisen v. Carlisle & Jacquelin, 417 U.S. 156, 173 (1974) (citing Fed. R. Civ. P. 23(c)(2)).

CONCLUSION

For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court (1) approve the proposed Settlement as fair, reasonable, and adequate, (2) approve the Plan of Allocation as fair, reasonable, and adequate, and (3) enter the accompanying proposed Order and Final Judgment.

FINAL JUDGMENT AND ORDER OF DISMISSAL WITH PREJUDICE

MARTIN GLENN, Bankruptcy Judge

On November 9, 2012, Named Plaintiffs Landon Rothstein, Jennifer Davidson, Robert Davidson, and Ihor Kobryn, individually and purportedly on behalf of the putative class, filed Bankruptcy Proofs of Claim 4074 and 3966.¹

On this ___ day of, _____ 2015, a hearing having been held before this Court to determine (i) whether the terms and conditions of the Stipulation and Agreement of Settlement between Named Plaintiffs, on behalf of themselves and the Settlement Class, and the Settling Defendants, dated _____ (the “Stipulation”) are fair, reasonable and adequate for the settlement of all claims asserted by the Settlement Class Members against the Settling Defendants; and (ii) whether an order should be entered resolving the Bankruptcy Proofs of Claim as set forth in the Stipulation including, without limitation, the release of the Released Claims in favor of the Released Parties, as against all persons or entities who are Settlement Class Members and who have not requested exclusion therefrom;

And it appears that a notice of the hearing substantially in the form approved by the Court was mailed to all persons and entities reasonably identifiable, who are residential mortgage loan borrowers whose loans were serviced by GMACM (defined in paragraph 1(y) below) and from whose payments GMACM recouped or recovered, in whole or part, charges for Lender-Placed Insurance, including, without limitation, any borrowers whose payments were applied, in whole or part, to charges for Lender-Placed Insurance, at any time from February 3, 2004 through October 2, 2013, except those persons and entities excluded from the definition of the Settlement Class, as shown by the records of the Settling Debtors and as further identified through the mailing of the Summary Direct U.S. Mail Postcard Notice pursuant to an earlier order of the Court, at the respective addresses set forth in such records;

And it appears that a Publication Notice of the hearing substantially in the form approved by the Court was published once in USA Today and was transmitted once over the PR Newswire, pursuant to the specifications of the Court;

And the Court, having considered all matters submitted to it at the hearing, along with all prior submissions by the Parties to the Stipulation and others, and otherwise having determined the fairness and reasonableness of the proposed Settlement of the claims of the Settlement Class Members against the Settling Defendants and the Released Parties;

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Court, for purposes of this Final Judgment and Order of Dismissal with Prejudice (the “Judgment”), adopts the following defined terms:

(a) “Allowed Claim” means an allowed unsecured claim not subject to subordination, represented by Claim No. 4074, in the amount of $13 million, against GMACM only. Such allowed unsubordinated claim shall be an “Allowed Borrower Claim” in Class GS-5, as set forth in the Chapter 11 Plan. For the avoidance of doubt, Claim No. 3966 shall be disallowed and expunged in its entirety without further order or action on the Settlement Effective Date.

(b) “Balboa Defendants” means Balboa Insurance Company, Meritplan Insurance Company, Newport Management Company, QBE Insurance Corporation, Praetorian Insurance Company, QBE Specialty Insurance Company, QBE FIRST Insurance Agency, Inc., and QBE FIRST Institutional Risk Services, Inc.

(c) “Bankruptcy Court” means the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York, or any other court having jurisdiction over the Chapter 11 Cases.

(d) “Bankruptcy Proofs of Claim” means the proofs of claim filed by the Named Plaintiffs on behalf of themselves and the putative class in the Chapter 11 Cases against Residential Capital (Claim No. 3966) and GMACM (Claim No. 4074).

(e) “Bankruptcy Rules” means the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, as applicable to the Chapter 11 Cases, promulgated under 28 U.S.C. § 2075 and the general, local, and chambers rules of the Bankruptcy Court, as the context may require.

(f) “Chapter 11 Cases” means the Debtors’ Chapter 11 cases being jointly administered as In re Residential Capital LLC, Case No. 12-12020-MG, pending in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York.

(g) “Chapter 11 Plan” means the Second Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan Proposed by Residential Capital, LLC, et al., and the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors in the Chapter 11 Cases confirmed by the Bankruptcy Court per order entered on December 11, 2013 [ECF No. 6137], including all exhibits, addenda, schedules or other attachments thereto, and the Plan Supplement.

(h) “Class Representatives” means Landon Rothstein, Jennifer Davidson, Robert Davidson, and Ihor Kobryn.

(i) “Class Counsel” means Plaintiffs’ Counsel and Plaintiffs’ Special Bankruptcy Counsel.

(k) “Litigation Expenses” means the reasonable costs and expenses incurred by Class Counsel in connection with filing and litigating the Bankruptcy Proofs of Claim, commencing and prosecuting the claims against GMACM and Ally in the Rothstein Action, and litigating in the Bankruptcy Court, for which Class Counsel intends to apply to the Bankruptcy Court for reimbursement from the Settlement Fund.

(m) “Net Settlement Fund” means the Settlement Fund less: (i) any Taxes and Tax Expenses; (ii) any Notice and Administration Costs; (iii) any attorneys’ fees and Litigation Expenses awarded by the Bankruptcy Court; and (iv) any incentive fees awarded by the Bankruptcy Court to the Named Plaintiffs.

(n) “Notice Amount” means $95,000.00 cash to be advanced by the Borrower Claims Trust to the Escrow Agent within five (5) business days of entry of the Notice Order, to cover the cost of disseminating the Notice, as reflected in an invoice provided by the Settlement Administrator to the Borrower Claims Trust, and subsequently credited against the Settlement Amount.

(o) “Notice and Administration Costs” means the Notice Amount and other costs, fees and expenses that have been or are to be incurred by the Settlement Administrator, Plaintiffs’ Database Hosting Provider, or Plaintiffs’ Forensic Accounting Expert in connection with: (i) analyzing the Class Data to identify the Settlement Class Members and determine the allocations, if any, to which they may be entitled pursuant to the Plan of Allocation, (ii) providing any notices to the Settlement Class associated with the settlement contained herein; (iii) developing and implementing the Plan of Allocation; and (iv) distributing the Net Settlement Fund to Settlement Class Members.

(p) “Person” and “Persons” means any individual, corporation, limited liability company, limited partnership, partnership, professional corporation, association, affiliate, joint stock company, estate, trust, unincorporated association, entity, government and any political subdivision thereof, or any other type of business or legal entity and their spouses, heirs, predecessors, successors, representatives, or assignees.

(q) “Plaintiffs’ Counsel” means Kirby McInerney LLP.

(r) “Plaintiffs’ Special Bankruptcy Counsel” means The Hogan McDaniel Firm.

(s) “Plan of Allocation” means the plan for allocating the Net Settlement Fund between and among the members of the Settlement Class and as approved by the Court.

(t) “Proceeding” means the above-captioned bankruptcy.

(u) “Released Claims” means any and all claims, including without limitation any proof of claim filed in the Chapter 11 Cases, Unknown Claims, demands, rights, liabilities, and causes of action of every nature and description, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, contingent or non-contingent, matured or unmatured, whether or not concealed or hidden, which now exist, or heretofore have existed, whether arising under federal, state, common or foreign law, that the plaintiffs in the Rothstein action (including without limitation, the Named Plaintiffs), or any Settlement Class Member have had, filed or asserted in the past, or now have or assert against the Released Parties, which (a) relate to alleged kickbacks, inflated reimbursements or inflated rates in whatever form for Lender-Placed Insurance; (b) were asserted or could have been asserted in the Bankruptcy Proofs of Claim against the Released Parties; or (c) were or could have been asserted against the Released Parties by any Person eligible to be a Settlement Class Member which relate to alleged kickbacks, inflated reimbursements or inflated rates in whatever form for Lender-Placed Insurance, unless such Person has opted out of the Settlement and has otherwise filed a proof of claim prior to the deadline established by the Bankruptcy Court for filing proofs of claim in the Chapter 11 Cases that has not been expunged or disallowed. “Released Claims” shall not include any claims against any Non-Settling Defendant in the Rothstein Action.

(v) “Released Parties” means the Borrower Claims Trust, the Borrower Claims Trustee, the “Trust Committee” (as such term is defined in the ResCap Borrower Claims Trust Agreement dated December 17, 2014 and filed in Chapter 11 Cases as Dkt. #6136-3) and the members of the Trust Committee (collectively, the Trust Committee and its members “Borrower Claims Trust Committee”), the Liquidating Trust, Settling Defendants and their parents, subsidiaries, and affiliates and all of their respective past, current, and future respective directors, officers, employees, partners, insurers, co-insurers, reinsurers, agents, controlling shareholders, shareholders, attorneys, accountants, auditors, advisors, investment advisors, personal or legal representatives, predecessors, divisions, joint ventures, spouses, heirs, related or affiliated entities, and any entity in which any Settling Defendant has a controlling interest, and all of their respective property. “Released Parties” shall not include any Non-Settling Defendant.

(w) “Rothstein Action” means the litigation in the District Court captioned Landon Rothstein, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated v. GMAC Mortgage, LLC, et al., No. 12-cv-3412 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 30, 2012).

(x) “Settlement” means the settlement of the claims asserted in the Bankruptcy Proofs of Claim against all Settling Defendants, upon the terms and conditions set forth in the Stipulation.

(y) “Settlement Amount” means the distribution(s) to be provided from the Borrower Claims Trust in respect of the Allowed Claim, in the manner set forth for the payment of allowed Borrower Claims in the Chapter 11 Plan and the Borrower Claims Trust Agreement (as such term is defined in the Chapter 11 Plan) after the Borrower Claims Trust has deducted the Notice Amount.

(z) “Settlement Class” means all residential mortgage loan borrowers whose loans were serviced by GMACM and from whose payments GMACM recouped or recovered, in whole or part, charges for Lender-Placed Insurance, including, without limitation, any borrowers whose payments were applied, in whole or part, to charges for Lender-Placed Insurance, at any time during the Class Period. Excluded from the Settlement Class are current and former officers, directors, and employees of the Settling Defendants and of the Balboa Defendants, and their immediate families. Also excluded from the Settlement Class are the Settling Defendants’ and the Balboa Defendants’ legal representatives, heirs, successors or assigns, and any entity in which any defendant has or had a controlling interest.

(aa) “Settlement Class Member” means a Person that is a member of the Settlement Class and that does not exclude himself, herself, or itself by timely filing a request for exclusion in accordance with the requirements set forth in the Notice.

(cc) “Settling Debtors” means GMACM Mortgage, LLC (“GMACM”) and Residential Capital LLC (“Residential Capital”).

(dd) “Settling Defendants” means GMACM, Residential Capital, and the Borrower Claims Trust.

(ee) “Settling Parties” means the Named Plaintiffs and the Settling Defendants.

(ff) “Unknown Claims” means any and all potential Released Claims that the Named Plaintiffs and/or any Settlement Class Member does not know or suspect to exist in his, her or its favor at the time of the release of the Released Parties, which if known by him, her or it might have affected his, her or its settlement with and release of the Released Parties, or might have affected his, her or its decision not to object to the Stipulation or not exclude himself, herself or itself from the Settlement Class. With respect to any and all Released Claims, the parties stipulate and agree that, upon the Settlement Effective Date, the Named Plaintiffs shall expressly waive, and each Settlement Class Member shall be deemed to have waived, and by operation of the Judgment shall have expressly waived, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any and all provisions, rights and benefits conferred by Cal. Civ. Code § 1542 (to the extent it applies to the Rothstein Action), and any law of any state or territory of the United States, or principle of common law, or the law of any foreign jurisdiction, that is similar, comparable or equivalent to Cal. Civ. Code § 1542, which provides:

A general release does not extend to claims which the creditor does not know or suspect to exist in his or her favor at the time of executing the release, which if known by him or her must have materially affected his or her settlement with the debtor.

The Named Plaintiffs and Settlement Class Members may hereafter discover facts in addition to or different from those which he, she or it now knows or believes to be true with respect to the subject matter of the Released Claims, but the Named Plaintiffs shall expressly fully, finally and forever settle and release – and each Settlement Class Member, upon the Settlement Effective Date, shall be deemed to have, and by operation of the Judgment shall have fully, finally and forever settled and released – any and all Released Claims, known or unknown, suspected or unsuspected, contingent or non-contingent, whether or not concealed or hidden, which now exist, or heretofore have existed, upon any theory of law or equity now existing or coming into existence in the future, including, but not limited to, conduct which is negligent, reckless, intentional, with or without malice, or a breach of any duty, law or rule, without regard to the subsequent discovery or existence of such different or additional facts. The Named Plaintiffs acknowledge, and Settlement Class Members by law and operation of the Judgment shall be deemed to have acknowledged, that the inclusion of “Unknown Claims” in the definition of Released Claims was separately bargained for and was a material element of the settlement contained herein.

2. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of the proceeding, including all further proceedings concerning the administration, consummation and enforcement of the Stipulation, and over all parties to the proceeding, including all Settlement Class Members.

3. For settlement purposes only the Court finds that all elements of the settlement of the Bankruptcy Proofs of Claim have been met. Specifically, solely for purposes of settlement, the Settlement Class satisfies the numerosity requirement of Bankruptcy Rules 7023(a) and 7023(b)(3); there are common issues of fact and law sufficient to satisfy Bankruptcy Rule 7023(a)(2); the claims of the Class Representatives are typical of the claims of absent Settlement Class Members, satisfying Bankruptcy Rule 7023(a)(3); the Class Representatives and Class Counsel are adequate representatives of the Settlement Class Members, satisfying Bankruptcy Rule 7023(a)(4); common issues predominate over individual issues, satisfying Bankruptcy Rule 7023(b)(3)(i); and class action treatment of this Settlement is a superior method of proceeding in this matter, satisfying Bankruptcy Rule 7023(b)(3)(ii).

4. Accordingly, and for settlement purposes only and for no other purposes, the Court hereby certifies a Settlement Class as defined above in paragraph 1(y).

5. The Court hereby finds, in accordance with the Order of Preliminary Approval, dated _____ 201__, that the notice given to the Settlement Class, including the individual notice to all Settlement Class Members who could be identified through reasonable effort, was the best notice practicable under the circumstances. Said notice provided due and adequate notice of these proceedings and the matters set forth herein, including the proposed Settlement set forth in the Stipulation, to all Persons entitled to such notice, and said notice fully satisfied the requirements of Federal Rule of Bankruptcy Procedure 23 due process, the Rules of the Court, and all other applicable laws and rules.

6. Pursuant to Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure 7023 and 9019, the Court hereby approves the Settlement as fair, reasonable and adequate, and in the best interests of the Settlement Class Members. The Parties to the Settlement are directed to consummate the Settlement in accordance with the terms and provisions of the Stipulation.

7. All claims asserted in the Bankruptcy Proofs of Claim against the Settling Defendants are dismissed on the merits and with prejudice, and the Released Claims are released as against each of the Settling Defendants.

8. Named Plaintiffs and other Settlement Class Members (exclusive of the persons and entities as listed on Exhibit A-1 annexed hereto who submitted timely and valid exclusion requests) who have not timely and validly opted out in accordance with the requirements set forth in the Notice of Class Action, on behalf of themselves, are deemed to have, and by operation of the Judgment have, fully, finally, and forever released, relinquished and discharged (regardless of whether they receive distributions) (i) all Released Claims against the Released Parties; and (ii) against each and all of the Released Parties all claims arising out of, relating to, or in connection with, the defense, settlement or resolution of the Released Claims. This release shall not apply to any Person who has timely and validly requested exclusion from the Settlement Class in accordance with the requirements set forth in the Notice of Class Action.

9. All Settlement Class Members are hereby permanently barred and enjoined from bringing any action against any and all Released Parties concerning any and all of the Released Claims.

10. Notwithstanding paragraphs 9-10 above, nothing in this Judgment shall bar any action by any of the Settling Parties to enforce or effectuate the terms of the Stipulation or this Judgment.

11. Neither the Stipulation nor the Settlement, nor any act performed or document executed pursuant to or in furtherance of the Stipulation or the Settlement:

(a) shall be offered or received against the Released Parties, the Named Plaintiffs or the other members of the Settlement Class as evidence of, or be deemed to be evidence of, any presumption, concession, or admission by any of the Released Parties or by the Named Plaintiffs or the other members of the Settlement Class with respect to the truth of any fact alleged by the Named Plaintiffs or the validity, or lack thereof, of any claim that has been or could have been asserted in the Rothstein Action or in any litigation, or the deficiency of any defense that has been or could have been asserted in the Rothstein Action or in any litigation, or of any liability, negligence, fault or wrongdoing of the Released Parties;

(b) shall be offered or received against the Released Parties as evidence of a presumption, concession, or admission of any fault, misrepresentation, or omission with respect to any statement or written document approved or made by any Released Party, or against the Named Plaintiffs or any of the other members of the Settlement Class as evidence of any infirmity in the claims of the Named Plaintiffs and the other members of the Settlement Class;

(c) shall be offered or received against the Released Parties, the Named Plaintiffs, or the other members of the Settlement Class as evidence of a presumption, concession, or admission with respect to any liability, negligence, fault, or wrongdoing, or in any way referred to for any other reason as against any of the parties to the Stipulation, in any arbitration proceeding or other civil, criminal, or administrative action or proceeding, other than such proceedings as may be necessary to effectuate the provisions of the Stipulation; provided, however, that if the Stipulation is approved by the Bankruptcy Court, the Released Parties may refer to it to effectuate the liability protection granted them hereunder;

(d) shall be construed against the Released Parties, Class Counsel, or the Named Plaintiffs or the other members of the Settlement Class as an admission or concession that the consideration to be given hereunder represents the amount which could be or would have been recovered after trial; and

(e) shall be construed as or received in evidence as an admission, concession, or presumption against the Named Plaintiffs or the other members of the Settlement Class or any of them that any of their claims are without merit or that damages recoverable under the Complaints would not have exceeded the Settlement Fund.

12. The Plan of Allocation is approved as fair and reasonable and the Allowed Claim is approved. The distribution procedure shall not occur until after the Borrower Claims Trust has distributed the full Settlement Amount to the Escrow Agent (it being contemplated that the Borrower Claims Trust may potentially make one or more interim, partial distributions).

13. The Released Parties shall have no liability, obligation, or responsibility for the notice procedure, allocation and distribution procedure, administration or processing of claims or of the settlement contained herein, or disbursement of the Net Settlement Fund, including without limitation, distributing notice to the Settlement Class, the validity of any allocation determinations, distributions of the Settlement Fund, or any loss incurred by the Escrow Agent or the Settlement Administrator.

14. After the Borrower Claims Trust has distributed the full Settlement Amount to the Escrow Agent (it being contemplated that the Borrower Claims Trust may make one or more interim, partial distributions), the Named Plaintiffs shall file a motion for distribution of the Net Settlement Fund.

15. The Court finds that an attorneys' fee award in the amount of ___% of the Settlement Fund plus interest is just and reasonable, and fairly accounts for (i) the time and labor expended by Class Counsel; (ii) the magnitude and complexities of the proceeding and the prosecution of the claims asserted against the Settling Defendants and Ally, (iii) the risks of litigation; (iv) the quality of representation; (v) the requested fee in relation to the Settlement Fund; and (vi) public policy considerations. The attorneys' fee award is to be paid to Class Counsel from the Settlement Fund.

16. Class Counsel application for Litigation Expenses in the amount of $_____, plus interest, is also approved as just and reasonable and is to be paid to Class Counsel from the Settlement Fund.

17. The awards of attorneys' fees and Litigation Expenses shall be payable ten calendar days after the distribution by the Borrower Claims Trust of the Settlement Amount, or, in the event of any interim distribution by the Borrower Claims Trust, ten calendar days after the distribution by the Borrower Claims Trust of any portion of the Settlement Amount, provided that the Settlement Effective Date has occurred.

18. The Court further hereby awards $_____ to each of the Named Plaintiffs – namely Landon Rothstein, Jennifer Davidson, Robert Davidson, and Ihor Kobryn – that participated in the Proceeding and for their efforts in prosecuting this Proceeding on behalf of the Settlement Class ("Incentive Awards"). The Incentive Awards are to be paid to the Named Plaintiffs from the Settlement Amount before the Net Settlement Fund is distributed to the Settlement Class Members in accordance with the Plan of Allocation, and shall be in addition to the amount to be paid pursuant to the Plan of Allocation and the Class Distribution Order.

19. The Court finds that during the course of the proceeding, the Settling Parties and their respective counsel at all times complied with the requirements of Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 11 and Bankruptcy Code 9011.

20. In the event that this Judgment is modified or reversed on appeal to the extent that the Settlement does not become effective in accordance with the terms of the Stipulation, or the Stipulation terminates according to its provisions, or the Settlement Fund, or any portion thereof, is returned to the Settling Defendants, or this Judgment does not become final, then this Judgment shall be rendered null and void and shall be vacated, certification of the Settlement Class shall be nullified, and the Bankruptcy Proofs of Claim shall proceed as though the Settlement Class had never been certified, with the Settling Parties reserving all their rights regarding the issue of class certification, and, in such event, all orders entered and releases given in connection herewith shall be null and void, nunc pro tunc, and the Settling Parties will be deemed to have reverted to their respective status as of the date and time immediately before _____, except that (i) Notice and Administration Costs that have been paid or incurred at the time of modification or reversal, and less any taxes paid or payable on the Settlement Fund (including any costs and expenses of tax attorneys and accountants) need not be refunded to the Settling Defendants; (ii) any modifications, reductions or reversal of the award of attorneys' fees and Litigation Expenses to Class Counsel on appeal or in any further motion in this Court shall in no way disturb or affect any other part of this Judgment, and (iii) any further proceedings, whether in this Court or on appeal, related to the Plan of Allocation shall in no way disturb or affect any other part of this Judgment.

21. Any disapproval or modification of the application for an award of attorneys' fees and reimbursement of Litigation Expenses or additional Notice and Administration Costs by the Bankruptcy Court shall not affect the enforceability of the Stipulation, provide any of the Settling Parties with the right to terminate the settlement contained herein, or impose an obligation on the Settling Defendants to increase the compensation paid in connection with the settlement.

22. Without further order of the Court, the Parties may agree in writing to reasonable extensions of time to carry out any of the provisions of the Stipulation.

23. Without affecting the finality of this Judgment in any way, the Court hereby retains continuing and exclusive jurisdiction over: (i) implementation of this Settlement and any award or distribution of the Settlement Fund, including any interest earned thereon; (ii) disposition of the Settlement Fund; and (iii) all parties hereto for the purpose of construing, enforcing and administering the Stipulation.
