Proceeding Memorandum and Order

MATTER:

Video Evidentiary Hearing: Determining the Admissibility and Presumptive Effect of the Aggregation Methodology in Determining Net Winners (C. Bennett for Plaintiff) (I. Ronas for Defendants)

Decision set forth more fully as follows:

Evidentiary hearing held on November 23 and 24, 2020, and concluded. Before the evidentiary hearing commenced, the plaintiff filed a Memorandum in Support of the Admissibility of Timothy Martin's Expert Opinion. After the filing of the evidentiary hearing's official transcript, the defendants shall have two weeks to file a memorandum, addressing the admissibility of the proposed expert opinion and matters related thereto as presented during the evidentiary hearing. The plaintiff may file a further memorandum within two weeks thereafter. The Court will then take this matter under advisement.
