IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is GRANTED on an interim basis as set forth herein.
2. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, in their sole discretion, to pay, remit, or otherwise honor the Interim Employee Wages and Benefits Obligations, as set forth in the Motion; provided, however, that notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, except as provided by further order of this Court, (a) no payment to any Employee on account of Interim Employee Wages and Benefits shall exceed the $13,650, unless such amounts above $13,650 are the result of cash payment for Paid Time Off that is required under applicable law, and (b) the total amount of payments made pursuant to this Interim Order on account of Interim Employee Wages and Benefits Obligations shall not exceed $445,900 in the aggregate.

3. Subject to Paragraph 2 of this Interim Order, the Debtors are authorized, in their discretion, in the ordinary course of their business on a postpetition basis, to (a) continue to honor and pay all amounts with respect to the Interim Employee Wages and Benefits Programs as such were in effect as of the Petition Date and as such may be modified or supplemented from time to time in the ordinary course of business, (b) withhold and remit to the applicable third-parties Wage Deductions, Trust Fund Taxes, and Payroll Taxes, and (c) pay the Payroll Processor Fees.

4. The Debtors are authorized to continue the Credit Card Program and Fuel Card Program subject to the terms and conditions thereof, and are further authorized to pay outstanding prepetition balances, charges, and fees due with respect to the Credit Cards and Fuel Cards. All obligations arising from the prepetition and postpetition usage of the Credit Cards and Fuel Cards may be offset against the respective payments in the ordinary course of business without further Court order.

5. Nothing in this Interim Order shall be deemed to authorize the payment of amounts relating to the Employee Severance Program or the KERP, except as necessary for the Debtors to provide one former non-insider Employee with COBRA Health Benefits coverage.

6. Notwithstanding anything in the contrary contained herein, any payments made or to be made by the Debtors under this Interim Order, any authorization contained in this Interim Order, shall be in compliance with, and shall be subject to, any applicable budget and/or cash collateral authorization requirements set forth in any order approving the Debtors' postpetition financing facilities and/or use of cash collateral.

7. All applicable banks and other financial institutions are hereby authorized to receive, process, honor, and pay any and all checks, drafts, wires, check transfer requests, automated clearing house transfers, and other payment orders drawn or issued by the Debtors under this Interim Order, whether presented or issued before or after the Petition Date to the extent the Debtors have good funds standing to their credit with such bank or other financial institution. Such banks and financial institutions are authorized to rely on representations of the Debtors as to which checks, electronic funds transfer requests, and payment orders are authorized to be paid pursuant to this Interim Order without any duty of further inquiry and without liability for following the Debtors' instructions.

8. The Debtors are authorized to issue postpetition checks, or to affect postpetition fund transfer requests, in replacement of any checks or fund transfer requests that are dishonored as a consequence of these Chapter 11 Cases with respect to prepetition amounts owed in connection with any Interim Employee Wages and Benefits or related amounts due to any third parties that provide or aid in the monitoring, processing or administration of the Interim Employee Wages and Benefits Programs, including the Wage Deductions, Trust Fund Taxes, Payroll Taxes, and Unpaid Payroll Processor Fees.

9. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Interim Order and any actions taken pursuant to such relief, nothing contained in the Motion or this Interim Order or any payment made pursuant to this Interim Order shall constitute, nor is it intended to constitute: (a) an admission as to the validity or priority of any claim or lien (or the priority thereof) against the Debtors, (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any party-in-interest's rights to subsequently dispute or contest such claim or lien on any grounds, (c) a promise or requirement to pay any claim, (d) an implication or admission that any particular claim is of a type specified or defined in this Interim Order or the Motion, (e) a request or authorization to assume or adopt any agreement, contract, or lease under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, or (f) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party-in-interest's rights under the Bankruptcy Code or applicable law.

10. Nothing in the Motion or this Interim Order shall be deemed to (a) authorize the payment of any amounts that are subject to section 503(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, including, for the avoidance of doubt, payment of any obligations related to the Employee Severance Program to or on behalf of any "insider" (as defined by section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code) or (b) violate or permit a violation of section 503(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

11. Notice of the Motion as provided therein is hereby deemed good and sufficient notice of such Motion and the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and the Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

12. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), the terms and conditions of this Interim Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

13. The requirements set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b) are satisfied because the relief sought by the Motion is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm.

14. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Interim Order in accordance with the Motion.

15. This Court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Interim Order.

16. A final hearing on the relief sought in the Motion shall be conducted on June 30, 2020 at 11:30 a.m. (ET) (the "Final Hearing").
