LOS ANGELES, October 2, 2018 - Verity Health System of California, Inc. ("Verity Health"), a nonprofit healthcare system, today filed a motion in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court in Los Angeles seeking bankruptcy court approval of a procedure to obtain bids leading to a potential auction of its hospitals in Santa Clara County. The process is being led by an asset purchase agreement with the County of Santa Clara ("the County") where the County's offer serves as an initial "stalking horse bid" to acquire O'Connor Hospital in San Jose, Calif. and Saint Louise Regional Hospital in Gilroy, Calif., including the De Paul Health Center in Morgan Hill, Calif., under Section 363 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code. Verity Health has requested court approval of an orderly auction process where other potential buyers can submit qualified competing bids against the Stalking Horse Bid. The winning bid, as selected by the Verity Health Board of Directors, in consultation with its professional legal and financial advisors, is subject to the approval of the Bankruptcy Court, and, depending on the buyer, the California Attorney General. The timeline requested by Verity Health would result in an auction in December 2018.

"O'Connor and Saint Louise are two critically important institutions in the communities they serve, and the County has shown great leadership to ensure both can continue their mission of providing high-quality care to patients well into the future," said Rich Adcock, CEO of Verity Health. "As we advance this sale process through the court, we are continuing to work with other potential buyers for Verity's remaining assets, so they can be relieved from the financial burdens that impede their service to the community, and they can continue serving patients in their respective communities."

Details of the asset purchase agreement

Pursuant to the terms of the agreement, the County has agreed to acquire substantially all assets at both hospitals for a purchase price of $235 million, although that price is potentially subject to certain price adjustments at closing.

In the agreement, the County has committed to operating both hospitals with a focus on quality, safety and patient satisfaction, including maintaining participation with public and private payors. In addition, the County commits to instituting its charity care policies, which are broad in scope, along with continuing to provide care through community-based health programs.
