1 MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

2 I. INTRODUCTION

3 This case arises from an asset purchase agreement (the “APA”) for the sale of 4 four hospitals to Defendant Strategic Global Management, Inc. (“SGM”) under the 5 auspices of a Bankruptcy Court order. Ultimately, SGM did not close the sale, and 6 Plaintiffs terminated the APA. The cornerstone of SGM’s Counterclaim is the claim 7 that the APA requires Plaintiffs to refund SGM’s $30 million deposit (the “Deposit”), 8 and that Plaintiffs have wrongfully retained the Deposit. On the basis of that claim, 9 SGM asserts counts for breach of contract, breach of the implied covenant of good 10 faith and fair dealing, and for tortious breaches of contract and the implied covenant.
11 SGM’s theory, however, fails as a matter of law.

12 First, pursuant to the express terms of Section 1.2 of the APA, the Deposit was 13 “non-refundable.” The APA provides that SGM is entitled to a refund of the Deposit 14 under only four triggering circumstances, none of which SGM alleges. SGM fails to 15 allege that any of those circumstances occurred, and it fails to allege any basis for 16 recovering the Deposit under the APA or any legal theory.

17 Second, Plaintiffs are under court order not to release the Deposit.
18 Specifically, the Bankruptcy Court’s May 2, 2019 order approving the SGM Sale 19 ordered that sale proceeds shall not be used for any purpose “except as provided in 20 this Order, the DIP Credit Agreements or the Final DIP Order without further order 21 of this Court.” Plaintiffs’ RJN, Ex. B. Declining to violate a court order does not 22 breach the APA or its implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, tortiously or 23 otherwise.

24 Third, SGM cannot base its claims on the smattering of other alleged APA 25 breaches that are referenced in the Counterclaim because SGM fails to allege facts 26 demonstrating that such alleged conduct breached a specific provision of the APA, 27 and fails to allege that it would have closed the sale transaction if such alleged 28 breaches had not occurred. This is no coincidence, given that SGM never intended

1 to close the transaction pursuant to the APA’s terms. As a result, SGM’s other breach 2 claims fail.

3 Finally, SGM has failed to plead its Count III for alleged tortious breach of the 4 APA and its implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing, for manifold reasons.
5 SGM did not plead an independent tort and failed to properly allege the elements of 6 a fraud claim under California law, and has merely challenged alleged 7 “misrepresentations” that are subject to the litigation privilege and also accurately 8 described undisputed court orders. Accordingly, Count III is barred by the economic 9 loss rule.

10 For the reasons fully described below, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the 11 Court dismiss Counterclaims I [First Cause of Action - Breach of Contract] (“Count 12 I”) and II [Second Cause of Action - Breach of the Implied Covenant of Good Faith 13 and Fair Dealing] (“Count II”), to the extent they are premised on purported breach 14 of the APA for failure to refund SGM’s $30 million deposit, and strike any 15 allegations seeking the refund of the Deposit. In addition, Plaintiffs respectfully 16 request that the Court dismiss the remainder of Counts I and II, and also SGM’s 17 Counterclaim III [Third Cause of Action - Tortious Breach of Contract] (“Count 18 III”).

19 II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

20 A. The Bankruptcy And The Hospital Sale

21 On August 31, 2018, Plaintiffs Verity Health System of California, Inc., St.
22 Vincent Medical Center, St. Vincent Dialysis Center, Inc., St. Francis Medical 23 Center, Seton Medical Center (together with St. Francis and St. Vincent, the 24 “Plaintiff Hospitals”), and Verity Holdings, LLC, and the above-captioned debtors 25 (collectively, the “Debtors” or “Plaintiffs”) each filed a voluntary petition for relief 26 under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, which are currently administered before 27 the Bankruptcy Court. See Counterclaim, Docket No. 58, at ¶ 16. The Debtors’ 28 bankruptcy cases are the second largest hospital bankruptcies in U.S. history.

1 In January 2019, SGM executed an agreement to buy the Hospitals and their 2 assets in exchange for (among other things) a cash payment of $610 million. See 3 Counterclaim, ¶ 2. On January 8, 2019, SGM executed the APA, which is attached 4 as an exhibit to the Plaintiffs’ First Amended Complaint (“FAC”). See FAC, Ex. A; 5 Counterclaim, ¶¶ 2, 17.

6 B. The Deposit And The Limited Circumstances For Its Refund

7 Pursuant to APA Section 1.2, SGM wired the $30 million Deposit into VHS’s 8 bank account. See Counterclaim, ¶ 18. APA section 1.2 expressly provides that the 9 Deposit is nonrefundable, except for four enumerated instances:

10 The Deposit shall be non-refundable in all events, except 11 as provided in Section 6.1(b) or Section 6.2, or in the event
12 [SGM] has terminated this Agreement pursuant to Section
13 9.1 (other than Section 9.1(b)) or as set forth in Section 9.2, 14 in which case [Plaintiffs] shall immediately return the 15 Deposit to [SGM] with all interest earned thereon.

16 FAC, Ex. A (emphasis added).

17 First, Section 6.1(b)(2) of the APA requires the refund of the Deposit in the 18 event the Hospitals were sold to an “overbidder” other than SGM, which SGM does 19 not allege and undisputedly did not occur:

20 [I]n the event that an overbidder (and not the Purchaser) is 21 the successful bidder for the purchase of the Assets (the 22 ‘Alternate Transaction’) and the Alternative Transaction 23 is approved by the Bankruptcy Court, (a) the Deposit, and 24 any interest earned thereon, shall be returned to Purchaser 25 immediately upon the entry of such sale order[.]

26 FAC, Ex. A.

27 Second, Section 6.2 requires refund of the Deposit in the event the Bankruptcy 28 Court’s “Sale Order” approving the APA was appealed and a stay was imposed:

In the event a stay is issued by any appellate court, including the United States District Court, which prevents the sale from closing, as scheduled, Purchaser shall have the right to terminate this Agreement if such stay is not vacated on or before 45 days from the date of the stay is issued, and Purchaser shall be entitled to the prompt return of the Deposit and any interest earned thereon.

1 FAC, Ex. A.

2 Third, Section 9.1 of the APA delineates the following grounds on which the 3 APA could be terminated, permitting a refund of the Deposit:

4 9.1 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated at 5 any time prior to Closing:

6 (a) by the mutual written consent of the parties;

7 (b) by Sellers if a material breach of this Agreement has 8 been committed by Purchaser and such breach has not 9 been (i) waived in writing by Sellers or (ii) cured by 10 Purchaser to the reasonable satisfaction of Sellers within 11 fifteen (15) business days after service by Sellers upon 12 Purchaser of a written notice which describes the nature of 13 such breach;

14 (c) by Purchaser if, in its sole and absolute discretion, 15 it is not satisfied with either (i) the results of its due 16 diligence examination of the Hospitals, or (ii) the contents 17 of any schedule or exhibit that was not completed and 18 attached to this Agreement, but which has been provided 19 to Purchaser after the Signing Date, and Purchaser has 20 notified Seller of its election to terminate the Agreement 21 under this Section 9.1(c) on or prior to January 8, 2019 22 [...];

23 (d) by Purchaser if a material breach of this Agreement 24 has been committed by Sellers and such breach has not 25 been (i) waived in writing by Purchaser or (ii) cured by 26 Sellers to the reasonable satisfaction of Purchaser within 27 fifteen (15) business days after service by Purchaser upon 28 Sellers of a written notice which describes the nature of such breach;

(e) by Purchaser if satisfaction of any of the conditions in ARTICLE 8 has not occurred by December 31, 2019 or becomes impossible [...].

(f) by Sellers if satisfaction of any of the conditions in ARTICLE 7 has not occurred by December 31, 2019 or
becomes impossible [...];

(g) by either Purchaser or Sellers if the Bankruptcy Court enters an order dismissing the Bankruptcy Cases or fails to approve the Sales Procedures Motion by the date specified in Section 6.1(b);

(h) by Sellers if, in connection with the Bankruptcy Cases, any Seller accepts an Alternate Transaction and pays the Break-Up Fee;

1 (i) by either Purchaser or Sellers if the Closing has not 2 occurred (other than through the failure of any party 3 seeking to terminate this Agreement to comply fully with 4 its obligations under this Agreement) on or before 5 December 31, 2019; or 6 (j) by Purchaser if a force majeure event [...].

7 FAC, Ex. A.

8 Finally, Section 9.2 of the APA states that the Deposit must be refunded if the 9 APA is terminated for any of the above reasons other than the Purchaser's default 10 under Section 9.1(b):

11 9.2 Termination Consequences. If this Agreement is 12 terminated pursuant to Sections 6.1(b), 6.2 or 9.1: (a) all 13 further obligations of the parties under this Agreement 14 shall terminate (other than Purchaser's right to receive the 15 Break-Up Fee if applicable), provided that the provisions
16 of ARTICLE 12, shall survive; and (b) each party shall pay 17 only its own costs and expenses incurred by it in 18 connection with this Agreement; provided, in the case of 19 any termination based on Sections 9.1(b) or (d) the 20 consequences of such termination shall be determined in 21 accordance with ARTICLE 11 hereof. In addition, *if this 22 Agreement is terminated pursuant to Sections 6.1(b), 6.2 or 23 9.1 (other than Section 9.1(b)), Seller shall immediately
24 return the Deposit to Purchaser with all interest earned
25 thereon.* Each Party acknowledges that the agreements 26 contained in this Section 9.2 are an integral part of the 27 transactions contemplated by this Agreement, that without 28 these agreements such Party would not have entered into this Agreement.

FAC, Ex. A (emphasis added).

20 C. The Bankruptcy Court Orders Effectuating The Sale And 21 Preventing Release Of The Deposit

22 On January 17, 2019, the Debtors filed a motion to approve, among other 23 things, the form APA and related "stalking horse" protections and bidding procedures 24 for the sale of the Hospitals, which the Court approved. See Plaintiffs' Request for 25 Judicial Notice In Support of Motion to Dismiss SGM's Amended Counterclaims 26 ("Plaintiffs' RJN"), Ex. A. On May 2, 2019, the Court entered an order approving 27 the sale to SGM (the "Sale Order"). See Plaintiffs' RJN, Ex. B. SGM filed a brief 28 in support of entry of the Sale Order. See Plaintiffs' RJN, Ex. M. ("SGM respectfully

1 requests that the Court grant the Sale/Bid Procedures Motion as submitted by the 2 Debtor.”)

3 The Sale Order required that all sale proceeds (including the SGM deposit) be 4 held in Escrow Deposit Accounts, pursuant to the terms and restrictions set forth in 5 the order authorizing postpetition financing, use of cash collateral, liens, adequate 6 protection, and other relief (the “Final DIP Order”), which were expressly 7 incorporated into the Sale Order. See Plaintiffs’ RJN, Ex. C. Pursuant to the Final 8 DIP Order, the subsequent cash collateral orders entered in the bankruptcy 9 proceedings, and the Sale Order, the Debtors cannot use sale proceeds held in Escrow 10 Deposit Accounts without the consent of the Prepetition Secured Creditors or an 11 order of the Court. See Plaintiffs’ RJN, Exs. D-H.

12 Specifically, the Final DIP Order required the Debtors to place “all proceeds 13 of any sale or other disposition of the Debtors’ property” in “Escrow Deposit 14 Accounts” subject to deposit account control agreements. Plaintiffs’ RJN, Ex. C.
15 Paragraph 4 of the Final DIP Order restricts the Debtors’ authority to use or transfer 16 funds held in the Escrow Deposit Accounts:

17 [T]he Debtors shall not be permitted to use Cash Collateral 18 of any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors held in any 19 Escrow Deposit Account for any purpose without first 20 obtaining the consent of the applicable Prepetition Secured 21 Creditor or obtaining an order of the Court pursuant to 22 Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code after notice and a 23 hearing. Id.

21 In addition, the DIP Agent was granted a first priority lien on the Escrow

22 Deposit Account and all Sale Proceeds:

23 As provided by the Interim Order, this Final Order and the 24 DIP Credit Agreement, the DIP Liens shall attach as first 25 priority liens and security interests, pursuant to section 26 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code and the DIP Financing 27 Agreements, to all proceeds of any sale or other 28 disposition of the Debtors’ property, including, without limitation, the Healthcare Facilities (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) and any other DIP Collateral (as defined below) (the “Sale Proceeds”). The Sale Proceeds shall be held in escrow in one or more deposit accounts subject to a deposit account control agreement in favor of

1 the DIP Agent (the “Escrow Deposit Account”). Any 2 funds held in the Escrow Deposit Account shall not be 3 commingled with any other funds of the selling Debtor, 4 the Sale Proceeds of any other Debtor or otherwise.

5 Plaintiffs’ RJN, Ex. C. (emphasis in italics added)

6 The terms of the Final DIP Order were expressly incorporated into the Sale 7 Order, which likewise provides that Sale Proceeds shall not be used for any purpose 8 “except as provided in this Order, the DIP Credit Agreements or the Final DIP Order 9 without further order of this Court”:

10 13. The terms and conditions of the Final DIP Order shall 11 apply with respect to the Sale Proceeds and Escrow 12 Deposit Accounts (defined herein). Without limiting the 13 foregoing, the Debtors shall comply with paragraph 4 of 14 the Final DIP Order in the following manner:

15 (a) the Debtors shall direct SGM, pursuant to the terms of 16 the APA, to remit all Sale Proceeds to the separate 17 accounts opened in the name of each Debtor for the Sale 18 Proceeds (each such hereafter referred to as “Escrow 19 Deposit Account”);

20 [. . .]

21 (c) without limitation of the rights of the DIP Agent and 22 DIP Lender under the DIP Financing Agreements and the 23 Final DIP Order, no funds held in any Escrow Deposit Ac-24 count shall be (i) commingled with any other funds of the 25 applicable Debtor or any of the other Debtors or (ii) used 26 by the Debtors for any purpose, except as provided in this 27 Order, the DIP Credit Agreements or the Final DIP Order 28 without further order of this Court, after reasonable notice under the circumstances to the DIP Agent, the Prepetition Secured Creditors and the Committee; and (d) each Escrow Deposit Account shall be subject to a deposit account control agreement in favor of the DIP Agent and DIP Lender, and subject to, without limitation of the rights of the DIP Agent and DIP Lender under the DIP Financing Agreements and the Final DIP Order with respect to the Sale Proceeds and Escrow Deposit Account, including, without limitation, following the occurrence of an Event of Default or the Revolving Loan Termination Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), the Debtors shall not be permitted to use the funds held in any Escrow Deposit Account for any purpose, except as provided in paragraph 14, 15, 16, and 17 of this Order [concerning payment of cure amounts for assigned contracts], and to fund any Purchase Price adjustment in favor of the Purchaser, without first obtaining the consent

1 of the DIP Agent, DIP Lender and the Prepetition Secured 2 Creditors or obtaining an order of the Court pursuant to §§ 3 363 or 1129 after reasonable notice under the 4 circumstances to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lender, the 5 Prepetition Secured Creditors and the Committee and, if 6 necessary, a hearing thereon[.]

7 Plaintiffs' RJN, Ex. B (Sale Order ¶ 13) (emphasis added).

8 After the bankruptcy court entered the Sale Order, the Debtors obtained 9 authority for the consensual use of cash collateral pursuant to a Supplemental Cash 10 Collateral Order and subsequent amendments to the Supplemental Cash Collateral 11 Order. See Plaintiffs' RJN, Exs. D-H. Each order explicitly incorporates the 12 limitations of the Final DIP Order.

13 In addition, per SGM's request, the Debtors, and the other proponents of the 14 plan of liquidation, agreed to include certain language in the disclosure statement 15 describing the plan, the plan, and the order confirming the plan, concerning the 16 parties' respective rights to the Deposit:

17 The Liquidating Trust shall not distribute the Deposit to 18 creditors in accordance with the Plan or take any other 19 action which would reduce or dissipate the Deposit, unless 20 permitted by a judgment or an order entered by the District 21 Court having jurisdiction over the Adversary Proceeding, 22 and such judgment or order has not been stayed.

23 See Plaintiffs' RJN, Ex. N (Omnibus Reply at 6-7); RJN, Ex. O (Disclosure 24 Statement at 43). This original language to which the parties agreed is substantively 25 included in the June 29, 2020 omnibus reply in support of approval of the July 2, 26 2020 disclosure statement, and was incorporated into the disclosure statement itself.

27 Id. SGM's request that the Court amend the word "Nonrefundable" from the 28 descriptor "Nonrefundable Deposit," used in substantively similar language 29 incorporated in the plan and confirmation order, was granted on September 3, 2020.
30 See Plaintiffs' RJN, Ex. S ("The Confirmation Order and Plan shall be deemed 31 amended such that the term 'Nonrefundable Deposit' is replaced with the term 32 'Deposit.'"); id., Ex. R. Furthermore, it "does not appear to the Court that use of the 33 term 'Nonrefundable Deposit,' instead of 'Deposit,' could have any effect upon the

1 Plan’s provisions pertaining to the deposit, or could in any way prejudice SGM’s 2 rights in the SGM Action.” Plaintiffs’ RJN, Ex. Q (Order on SGM Limited 3 Objection).

4 D. SGM Fails To Close And Never Terminates The APA

5 The background regarding Plaintiffs’ efforts to close the Sale with SGM are 6 detailed in the First Amended Complaint, and incorporated by reference. See 2:20-cv-7 00613-DSF, Docket No. 29. Specifically, on behalf of Plaintiffs, Plaintiffs’ counsel of 8 record sent a November 20, 2019 letter to SGM that summarized the Bankruptcy 9 Court’s November 18, 2019 Order ordering SGM to close the sale:

10 As the Court correctly noted in its memorandum of decision, 11 dated November 18, 2019 [Docket No. 3632], Section 8.6 12 of the APA has been satisfied. Section 8.6 provides that 13 SGM “shall consummate the Sale” if “the Supplemental 14 Sale Order becomes a final, non-appealable order prior to 15 the expiration of the Evaluation Period . . . and all other 16 conditions to closing have been satisfied.” Yesterday, as we 17 notified you, the Debtors reached a settlement agreement 18 with the United States, on behalf of Department of Health 19 and Human Services and the Centers for Medicare and 20 Medicaid Services, allowing for the transfer of the Medicare 21 Provider Agreement without successor liability.
22 Consequently, SGM must close this transaction promptly, 23 but no later than ten (10) business days from yesterday, or 24 December 5, 2019, because all conditions to closing are 25 satisfied. See APA § 1.3.

26 Failure to promptly close will result in, at a minimum, 27 SGM’s (i) loss of the $30 million non-refundable deposit 28 under Section 1.2 of the APA, (ii) liability for a further $60 29 million in damages under Section 11.1 of the APA, and (iii) 30 responsibility for the Debtors’ prevailing party attorneys’ 31 fees under Section 12.12 of the APA. The Debtors’ 32 expressly reserve all rights to bring any and all other 33 appropriate claims that may exist in law 34 or equity against 35 SGM or its principals.

36 See Counterclaim, ¶¶ 45-47. But SGM did not close the sale on December 5, 37 2019 or on any subsequent date, despite having ample opportunity. See 38 Counterclaim, ¶¶ 53-55. Instead, it sent the Debtors a letter on December 5, 2019, 39 demanding the refund of its $30 million deposit. See Counterclaim, ¶ 54.

1 On December 6, 2019, the Debtors filed an emergency motion for issuance of 2 an order to show cause why SGM failed to close the sale by December 5, 2019. See 3 Plaintiffs’ RJN, Ex. I. On December 9, 2019, the Bankruptcy Court denied the 4 motion and ruled that “[a]ny efforts undertaken by the Debtors with respect to the 5 alternative disposition of the Hospitals” would not violate the APA. Plaintiffs’ RJN, 6 Ex. J, at 2. The Bankruptcy Court recognized that:

7 By failing to close, SGM risks the loss of its $30 million 8 good-faith deposit as well as the possibility of damages for 9 breach of contract in an amount of up to $60 million. [. .
10 .] In the future, the Debtors will have an opportunity to 11 litigate the issues of whether SGM has breached the APA
12 and whether the Debtors are entitled to retain SGM’s 13 good-faith deposit.

14 Plaintiffs’ RJN, Ex. K at 2.

15 By letter dated December 10, 2019, Plaintiffs confirmed they remained 16 prepared to close, stating “[t]he Debtors were prepared to close on December 5, and 17 remain able and willing to do so today. SGM, however, has intentionally frustrated 18 the Debtors’ efforts, and has never proposed any alternative closing date[.]” FAC, 19 ¶¶ 103-104; Answer to First Amended Complaint (“SGM Answer”), Docket No. 41, 20 ¶¶ 103-104. On December 17, 2019, Debtors sent SGM a letter advising that the 21 APA would terminate effective December 27, 2019. See Plaintiffs’ RJN, Ex. L; 22 Counterclaim, ¶ 54. SGM never terminated the APA—only the Debtors did.

23 E. The Adversary Proceeding Against SGM and Its Alter Egos

24 Plaintiffs filed their original Complaint in this proceeding on January 3, 2020.

25 On March 11, 2020, Plaintiffs filed the FAC. See Docket No. 29.

26 On July 10, 2020, SGM answered the FAC and filed its Counterclaim, 27 asserting four counts. In response, Plaintiffs filed a Motion to Dismiss. See Docket 28 No. 39. On August 10, 2020, SGM filed its Amended Counterclaim, asserting three counts. See Docket No. 58. Count I and Count II allege Plaintiffs breached the APA and the implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing. Count III alleges that such breaches were tortious.

1 Each of SGM’s claims is premised on the allegation that the APA requires 2 Plaintiffs to refund the Deposit. See Counterclaim, ¶¶ 58, 60, 64-65, 68, and Prayer 3 for Relief ¶ 2. As explained below, that is incorrect.

4 III. LEGAL STANDARD

5 A motion to dismiss a counterclaim is subject to the same standard as a motion 6 to dismiss under Rule 12(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (the “Civil 7 Rules”). E.g., Eagle Eyes Traffic Indus. USA Holding v. AJP Distributors Inc., No.
8 218CV01583SJOAS, 2018 WL 4859260, at *2 (C.D. Cal. June 22, 2018) (citing 9 United States v. Ritchie, 342 F.3d 903, 908 (9th Cir. 2003)). “Dismissal can be based 10 on the lack of a cognizable legal theory or the absence of sufficient facts alleged 11 under a cognizable legal theory.” Id. (quoting Balistreri v. Pacifica Police Dep’t, 12 901 F.2d 696, 699 (9th Cir. 1988)). Civil “Rule 12(b)(6) must be read in conjunction 13 with Civil Rule 8(a), which requires ‘a short and plain statement of the claim showing 14 that the pleader is entitled to relief.’” Id. (quoting Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a)(2)). Thus, the 15 Court may not accept as true mere legal conclusions in the counterclaim, and the 16 legal “framework” of the counterclaim “must be supported by factual allegations.”
17 Id. (quoting Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 679 (2009)).

18 A motion to dismiss under Civil Rule 12(b)(6) is also the proper way to 19 challenge an improper request for relief contained within a count that also alleges 20 other claims. E.g., Whittlestone, Inc. v. Handi-Craft Co., 618 F.3d 970, 974 (9th Cir.
21 2010) (Civil Rule 12(b)(6), not Civil Rule 12(f), allows litigants “a means to dismiss 22 some or all of a pleading”); see Yeiser Research & Dev. LLC v. Teknor Apex Co., 23 281 F. Supp. 3d 1021, 1057 (S.D. Cal. 2017) (dismissing some but not all breach of 24 contract claims raised in one count); Williams & Cochrane, LLP v. Quechan Tribe of 25 Fort Yuma Indian Reservation, No. 317CV01436GPCMDD, 2018 WL 2734946, at 26 *7 (S.D. Cal. June 7, 2018) (dismissing one breach of contract claim, pleaded in a 27 single count with other unchallenged breach of contract claims, “[t]o the extent that 28 Count One is premised on a violation of Section 5” of the contract).

1 IV. ARGUMENT

2 A. SGM Cannot Recover The Deposit Because It Was Non- 3 Refundable Under The Express Terms Of The APA

4 Each of SGM’s claims in Counts I-III fail, at least in part, because the express 5 terms of the APA do not entitle SGM to recover the Deposit, and a series of Court 6 orders preclude the release of the Deposit. See Gosha v. Bank of New York Mellon 7 Corp., 707 F. App’x 484 (9th Cir. 2017) (affirming dismissal of claims based on 8 parties’ written agreements, because “absent ambiguity, the court construes the 9 words of a contract as a matter of law” (quotation omitted)).

10 1. The Deposit Is Non-Refundable Because None 11 Of The Exceptions Under Section 1.2 Are Applicable.

12 SGM admits it paid the Deposit to VHS “[p]ursuant to APA Section 1.2.” 13 Counterclaim, ¶ 18. As noted, Section 1.2 provides that the Deposit is refundable in 14 only four enumerated instances. APA Section 1.2 states:

15 The Deposit shall be non-refundable in all events, except 16 as provided in Section 6.1(b) or Section 6.2, or in the event
17 [SGM] has terminated this Agreement pursuant to Section
18 9.1 (other than Section 9.1(b)) or as set forth in Section 9.2, 19 in which case [Plaintiffs] shall immediately return the 20 Deposit to [SGM] with all interest earned thereon.

21 FAC, Ex. A (emphasis added).

22 The Counterclaim, however, does not seek a refund under any of these four 23 enumerated instances, none of which would entitle SGM to a refund of the Deposit 24 in any event.

Case 3:20-cv-00649-JCL Document 27 Filed 08/03/20 Page 50 of 37 Page ID #:3880

25 First, APA Section 6.1(b) would have been triggered only in the event that an 26 “Overbidder” successfully bid to purchase the Hospitals in an “Alternate 27 Transaction.” See FAC, Ex. A, § 6.1(b). There is no dispute this did not occur, as is 28 clear from the First Amended Complaint and the Counterclaim.

1 Second, APA Section 6.2 is likewise inapplicable on its face, because there 2 was no appellate court stay of the Sale Order preventing a closing and SGM did not 3 terminate the APA. See FAC, Ex. A, § 6.2.

4 Third, APA Section 9.1 (other than Section 9.1(b)) would only require a refund 5 of the Deposit in the event “[SGM] has terminated this Agreement.” FAC, Ex. A, § 6 1.2. As the Counterclaim confirms, however, this did not occur. Despite its baseless 7 allegations that Plaintiffs breached the APA, SGM never purported to terminate the 8 APA for any of the reasons unilaterally available to Purchaser as enumerated in 9 Section 9.1, e.g. § 9.1(c) [due diligence dissatisfaction before January 8, 2019], 10 §9.1(d) [Sellers’ material covenant breach], § 9.1(e) [Article 8 conditions unsatisfied 11 by December 31, 2019], 9.1(g) [dismissal of the chapter 11 cases], or §9.1(i) [failure 12 to close without fault of Purchaser]. Instead, it simply refused to close the transaction 13 and demanded the return of its Deposit in one letter, while seeking to keep Plaintiffs 14 locked in the APA, incurring estimated daily losses of $450,000 and being prevented 15 from selling the Hospitals to another buyer. SGM newly alleges in its Counterclaim 16 that it “would always be entitled to a return of its deposit if it did not breach an 17 obligation to close” under § 9.1(i). Counterclaim, ¶¶ 29, 31. But this allegation is 18 meaningless, as SGM still does not argue it is actually entitled to the Deposit under 19 § 9.1(i), nor can it. Again, it is undisputed that SGM did not terminate the APA, 20 under any subsection of § 9.1, or otherwise.

21 Fourth, APA Section 9.2 also does not entitle SGM to a refund of the Deposit.

22 That section provides:

23 9.2 Termination Consequences. If this Agreement is 24 terminated pursuant to Sections 6.1(b), 6.2 or 9.1: (a) all
25 further obligations of the parties under this Agreement
26 shall terminate (other than Purchaser’s right to receive the 27 Break-Up Fee if applicable), provided that the provisions
28 of ARTICLE 12, shall survive; and (b) each party shall pay
only its own costs and expenses incurred by it in connection with this Agreement; provided, in the case of any termination based on Sections 9.1(b) or (d) the consequences of such termination shall be determined in accordance with ARTICLE 11 hereof. In addition, if this

1            Agreement is terminated pursuant to Sections 6.1(b), 6.2 or 2            9.1 (other than Section 9.1(b)), Seller shall immediately
3            return the Deposit to Purchaser with all interest earned
4            thereon. Each Party acknowledges that the agreements 5            contained in this Section 9.2 are an integral part of the 6            transactions contemplated by this Agreement, that without 7            these agreements such Party would not have entered into 8            this Agreement.

9            FAC, Ex. A (emphasis added).

10           Here, the APA was not terminated pursuant to Sections 6.1(b), 6.2, or 9.2.
11           Rather, Plaintiffs terminated the APA, pursuant to Section 9.1(b). See FAC ¶¶ 88, 12           91, 93, 100, 107; SGM Answer ¶¶ 93, 107. Section 9.2 expressly provides that the 13           Deposit will not be refunded in the event of a termination pursuant to Section 9.1(b).
14           See FAC, Ex. A, APA, § 9.2 (“In addition, if this Agreement is terminated pursuant 15           to Sections 6.1(b), 6.2 or 9.1 (other than Section 9.1(b)), Seller shall immediately 16           return the Deposit to Purchaser with all interest earned thereon.” (emphasis added)).
17           Because none of the circumstances delineated in Section 1.2 occurred, the Deposit 18           remains “non-refundable” according to the APA’s express terms.

19           Consequently, SGM is not entitled to a refund of the Deposit.

20           2.        Section 11.2 Does Not Entitle SGM To A Refund of the Deposit.

21           To avoid the express terms of Section 1.2, SGM stretches Section 11.2 of the 22           APA past the breaking point. Contrary to SGM’s assertions, APA Section 11.2 did 23           not expand the limited set of circumstances in which the Deposit was refundable, or 24           otherwise create a new right to a refund of the Deposit. Rather, any right to any 25           refund of the Deposit under Section 11.2 remains subject to Section 1.2.

26           As its placement in the contract suggests, Section 11.2 merely outlines the 27           remedies available in the event of a termination under Section 9.1(b) or (d). See 28           FAC, Ex. A, § 9.2 (“in the case of any termination based on Sections 9.1(b) or (d) the consequences of such termination shall be determined in accordance with ARTICLE 11 hereof”). In contrast, Section 1.2 appears in the first section of the contract, sets forth the definition of “Deposit,” and expressly states the Deposit is 1 “non-refundable in all events,” except for the four instances set forth in Sections 2 6.1(b), 6.2, 9.1, and 9.2. FAC, Ex. A; see In re Keller’s Estate, 134 Cal. App. 2d 3 232, 236 (1955) (“We are convinced that consideration should first be given to the 4 order in which the provisions appear, for, unless some contrary design is apparent, 5 what could be more logical in applying rules of interpretation than to say that each 6 subsequent provision in a will must be considered in the light of that which has gone 7 before.”).

8 “The starting point for the interpretation of any contract is the plain language 9 of the agreement.” EduMoz, LLC v. Republic of Mozambique, No.
10 CV1302309MMMCWX, 2014 WL 12802921, at *7 (C.D. Cal. July 21, 2014) (citing 11 Klamath Water Users Protective Ass’n v. Patterson, 204 F.3d 1206, 1210 (9th Cir.
12 1999)). “If the language of the contract is clear, the intent of the parties should be 13 determined from the contract itself.” Id. (citing Cal. Civ. Code § 1639 (for written 14 contracts, “the intention of the parties is to be ascertained from the writing alone, if 15 possible”)). “The contract language, therefore, governs interpretation of the 16 agreement ‘if the language is clear and explicit.’” Id. (quoting Cal. Civ. Code § 17 1638)).

18 Indeed, the “fundamental rule of contract interpretation” is that “a contract 19 should be interpreted so as to give meaning to each of its provisions” without 20 rendering any of them “meaningless.” Brinderson–Newberg Joint Venture v. Pac.
21 Erectors, Inc., 971 F.2d 272, 278–79 (9th Cir.1992) (citing Restatement of Contracts 22 (2d) § 203(a), cmt. b (1979)). To supplement those four limited instances with a new 23 section that was not referenced would eviscerate the “non-refundable in all events” 24 language of Section 1.2. See Hints v. Am. Family Life Assurance Co. of Columbus, 25 No. 4:19-CV-03764-YGR, 2020 WL 2512234, at *3 (N.D. Cal. May 15, 2020) (“A 26 court cannot rewrite the contract – a court must enforce the explicit language of the 27 contract.”) (citing Gilliam v. Nevada Power Co., 488 F.3d 1189, 1194 (9th Cir.
28 2007)). SGM’s proposed interpretation of Section 11.2 is also inconsistent with 1 Sections 9.1 and 9.2, which list the specific circumstances entitling SGM to a refund

2 in the event Plaintiffs did not fulfill their obligations under the APA and SGM 3 terminated the APA. In other words, even if Plaintiffs breached the APA (which they 4 did not), SGM could only recover its Deposit if SGM itself terminated the APA 5 (which it did not).

6 For these reasons, SGM cannot recover the Deposit under the plain terms of 7 the APA. Accordingly, the Court should dismiss each of SGM's Counts to the extent 8 they are based on such a theory, or alternatively strike any allegations to this effect.

9 B. Plaintiffs Are Prohibited By Court Order From Releasing The 10 Deposit.

11 In addition, each claim asserted by SGM fails because orders issued by the 12 Bankruptcy Court preclude Plaintiffs from disbursing the Deposit. Specifically, as 13 explained above, the Sale Order incorporates the provisions of the Final DIP Order, 14 which requires that all sale proceeds, including deposits, be held in a segregated 15 Escrow Deposit Account, and precludes the Debtors from disbursing those funds 16 absent the consent of the Debtors' Prepetition Secured Creditors or an order of the 17 Court. See Plaintiffs' RJN, Ex. B (Sale Order at ¶ 13); Plaintiffs' RJN, Ex. C (Final 18 DIP Order at ¶ 4). The Counterclaim does not allege that such consent has been given 19 or that such an order has been issued.

20 In the face of these arguments, SGM has incorrectly asserted that the 21 Bankruptcy Court's orders are contrary to the express terms of the APA. However, 22 the Sale Order provides that "[u]nless otherwise provided in this Sale Order, to the 23 extent any inconsistency exists between the provisions of the APA and this Sale 24 Order, the provisions contained in this Sale Order shall govern." Plaintiffs' RJN, Ex.
25 B (Sale Order at ¶ 26). Accordingly, the more restrictive terms of the Sale Order 26 limiting disbursements of sale proceeds govern over any contrary language in the 27 APA.
28

1 Plaintiffs cannot be liable under any legal or equitable theory for refusing to 2 engage in conduct that would violate a court order, particularly one that takes 3 precedence over any inconsistent provisions contained in the APA. See Singh v.
4 Baidwan, 651 F. App’x 616, 617-19 (9th Cir. 2016) (“the public importance of 5 discouraging [illegal] transactions outweighs equitable considerations of possible 6 injustice between the parties”) (internal quotes omitted). This is particularly 7 underscored by the parties’ undisputed, agreed-upon language in the plan and 8 disclosure statement (approved by the Bankruptcy Court) explicitly restricting any 9 party’s ability to “distribute” or otherwise “take any action” regarding the Deposit 10 without a judgment or court order, discussed above. See Plaintiffs’ RJN, Ex. B 11 (Omnibus Reply at 6-7); id., Ex. O (Disclosure Statement at 43); id., Ex. P (SGM 12 Limited Objection at 1-2); id., Ex. Q (Order on SGM Limited Objection at 4).

13 In short, Plaintiffs are obligated to hold the Deposit pursuant to the Bankruptcy 14 Court’s orders, and they have not breached the APA by acting in conformance with 15 those orders designed to protect the interests of parties other than Plaintiffs.
16 Accordingly, Counts I, II, and III should be dismissed to the extent they are premised 17 on this theory. In the alternative, the Court should strike all allegations that seek to 18 impose liability for allegedly failing to remit the Deposit to SGM, as specified in the 19 above Notice of Motion.

20 C. SGM Has Failed to Allege Claims For Other Alleged Breaches Of 21 Contract And The Implied Covenant

22 SGM’s three counts also assert a random collection of purported other 23 breaches of the APA and the implied covenant, separate from SGM’s incorrect 24 contention that it is entitled to a return of the Deposit under the APA. For example, 25 SGM accuses Plaintiffs of demanding that SGM close the transaction without 26 satisfying certain closing conditions, failing “to comply with legal requirements” and 27 obtain an approval for operation of Hospitals, failing to respond to “building and 28 safety code violations,” violating “other specifically enumerated regulatory issues as 1 set forth in the parties' correspondence," "allowing" revenue to deteriorate, failing to 2 "reserve for its accrued obligations," and "incurring post-petition liability" 3 (collectively, the "Other Alleged Breaches"). See, e.g., Counterclaim, ¶¶ 58-59, 64, 4 67-68.

5 Despite such allegations, however, SGM fails to link the Other Alleged 6 Breaches to any specific provisions in the APA prohibiting such alleged conduct.
7 This is perhaps not surprising, given the APA's broad provision that the sale 8 transaction was expressly "AS IS, WHERE IS AND WITH ALL FAULTS AND 9 NONCOMPLIANCE WITH LAWS":

10 (a) THE ASSETS TRANSFERRED TO PURCHASER 11 WILL BE SOLD BY SELLERS AND PURCHASED BY 12 PURCHASER IN THEIR PHYSICAL CONDITION AT 13 THE EFFECTIVE TIME, "AS IS, WHERE IS AND 14 WITH ALL FAULTS AND NONCOMPLIANCE WITH 15 LAWS" WITH NO WARRANTIES, INCLUDING, 16 WITHOUT LIMITATION, THE WARRANTIES OF 17 MERCHANTABILITY OR FITNESS FOR A 18 PARTICULAR PURPOSE, SUITABILITY, USAGE, 19 WORKMANSHIP, QUALITY, PHYSICAL 20 CONDITION, OR VALUE, AND ANY AND ALL SUCH 21 OTHER REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES 22 ARE HEREBY EXPRESSLY DISCLAIMED, AND 23 WITH RESPECT TO THE LEASED REAL PROPERTY 24 WITH NO WARRANTY OF HABITABILITY OR 25 FITNESS FOR HABITATION, INCLUDING, 26 WITHOUT LIMITATION, THE LAND, THE 27 BUILDINGS AND THE IMPROVEMENTS. ALL OF 28 THE PROPERTIES, ASSETS, RIGHTS, LICENSES, PERMITS, PRIVILEGES, LIABILITIES, AND OBLIGATIONS OF SELLERS INCLUDED IN THE ASSETS AND THE ASSUMED OBLIGATIONS ARE BEING ACQUIRED OR ASSUMED "AS IS, WHERE IS" ON THE CLOSING DATE AND IN THEIR PRESENT CONDITION, WITH ALL FAULTS. ALL OF THE TANGIBLE ASSETS SHALL BE FURTHER SUBJECT TO NORMAL WEAR AND TEAR AND NORMAL AND CUSTOMARY USE OF THE INVENTORY AND SUPPLIES IN THE ORDINARY
COURSE OF BUSINESS UP TO THE EFFECTIVE TIME.

FAC, Ex. A.

27 The Counterclaim fails to allege how the conduct alleged in Counts 1-3 with 28 respect to the Other Alleged Breaches could have actually breached specific

1 provisions of the APA, given the broad “AS IS WHERE IS” provision. Such 2 conclusory claims fail to comply with Rule 8. See e.g., Smith v. Barrett, Daffin, 3 Frappier, Treder & Weiss, LLP, No. 18-CV-06098-RS, 2019 WL 2525185, at *9
4 (N.D. Cal. June 19, 2019) (“Smith’s damages allegations are conclusory, listing a 5 laundry list of harms without defining what it is that Smith has suffered in response 6 to Defendants’ averred conduct. Smith must plead specific allegations to allow for 7 the reasonable inference, not the sheer possibility, of harm.”); Architectural Res.
8 Grp., Inc. v. HKS, Inc., No. C 12-5787 SI, 2013 WL 568921, at *3 (N.D. Cal. Feb.
9 13, 2013) (same, dismissing breach of contract counterclaim).

10 In addition, SGM fails to allege that it would have closed the transaction absent 11 the Other Alleged Breaches. As a result, SGM fails to allege that it sustained 12 damages caused by the allegedly unmet conditions. See, e.g., DCR Mktg., Inc. v. U.S.
13 All. Grp., Inc., No. SACV1901897JVSDFMX, 2020 WL 3883276, at *3 (C.D. Cal.
14 June 26, 2020) (quotation omitted) (resulting damages are essential element of 15 contract claim); Hellenic Petroleum LLC v. Elbow River Mktg. LTD., No.
16 119CV00483LJOSKO, 2019 WL 6114892, at *4 (E.D. Cal. Nov. 18, 2019) (finding 17 failure to plead breach of contract claim where plaintiff failed to allege it would have 18 performed and/or any damages that could have resulted if plaintiff had not 19 performed) (quoting In re Nat’l Football League’s Sunday Ticket Antitrust Litig., 933 20 F.3d 1136, 1149 (9th Cir. 2019) (“[C]onclusory allegations of law and unwarranted 21 inferences are insufficient to avoid a Rule 12(b)(6) dismissal.”)).

22 Accordingly, the remainder of SGM’s claims for breach of contract and the 23 implied covenant in Counts I, II, and III should be dismissed for this added 24 deficiency.

25 D. Count III Fails On Additional Grounds.

26 Finally, Count III, for Tortious Breach Of Contract, fails on additional 27 grounds. “[O]utside the insurance context, a tortious breach of contract may be found 28 when (1) the breach is accompanied by a traditional common law tort, such as fraud

1 or conversion; (2) the means used to breach the contract are tortious, involving deceit 2 or undue coercion or; (3) one party intentionally breaches the contract intending or 3 knowing that such a breach will cause severe, unmitigable harm in the form of mental 4 anguish, personal hardship, or substantial damages.” Underwriters at Lloyd’s v.
5 Abaxis, Inc., No. 19-CV-02945-PJH, 2020 WL 1677341, at *3 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 6, 6 2020) (quoting Robinson Helicopter Co. v. Dana Corp., 34 Cal. 4th 979, 990 (2004)).
7 Here, SGM has failed to plead (and cannot plead) any of these elements.

8 The Counterclaim does not allege any separate tort, and instead only asserts 9 contract theories in Counts I, II and III. SGM previously asserted a tort claim in its 10 Counterclaim (conversion), but then dropped it in the amended pleading. Indeed, as 11 explained in Plaintiffs’ prior Motion to Dismiss, no conversion claim could possibly 12 stand because SGM was not entitled to the Deposit for the same reasons and the 13 economic loss rule barred the claim.

14 Further, to the extent SGM is attempting to allege fraud, it has failed to do so.
15 “Under California law, the elements of fraud are: (1) misrepresentation (false 16 representation, concealment, or nondisclosure); (2) knowledge of falsity (or 17 ‘scienter’); (3) intent to defraud, i.e., to induce reliance; (4) justifiable reliance; and 18 (5) resulting damage.” Westport Ins. Corp. v. Vasquez, Estrada & Conway LLP, No.
19 15-CV-05789-JST, 2016 WL 1394360, at *5 (N.D. Cal. Apr. 8, 2016) (citing Kearns 20 v. Ford Motor Co., 567 F.3d 1120, 1126 (9th Cir. 2009)). Here, the Amended 21 Counterclaim fails to show any of the elements, and certainly fails to do so with the 22 required specificity under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 9(b).

23 The only alleged “misrepresentations” identified in the Counterclaim were 24 purportedly contained in a November 20, 2019 letter sent to Defendants’ counsel by 25 Plaintiffs’ counsel pursuant to the underlying bankruptcy case. See Counterclaim, ¶¶ 26 46-47. That letter was protected by the litigation privilege, which applies to 27 statements: “(1) made in judicial or quasi-judicial proceedings; (2) by litigants or 28 other participants authorized by law; (3) to achieve the objects of the litigation; and

1 (4) that have some connection or logical relation to the action.” McNair v. City &
2 County of San Francisco, 5 Cal. App. 5th, 1154 at 1162 (citing Silberg v. Anderson, 3 50 Cal. 3d 205, 212 (1990)); see also Rothman v. Jackson, 49 Cal. App. 4th 1134, 4 1146 (1996).

5 As SGM admits, the November 20, 2019 letter is a communication between 6 counsel of record for parties to the bankruptcy proceeding (SGM had become a party 7 in interest to the underlying bankruptcy proceeding as of November 20, 2019 per 11 8 U.S.C. § 1109(b)). That letter extensively references orders issued by the Bankruptcy 9 Court, and recited that the Bankruptcy Court had ruled that APA § 8.6 was satisfied, 10 that the parties were obligated by court order to notify the Bankruptcy Court of the 11 status of the sale, that SGM was thereby obligated to close the sale under the court-12 approved and court-enforced APA, and that SGM’s failure to do so would cause it to 13 incur liability for damages to Plaintiffs. Accordingly, the letter is a classic example 14 of a communication between counsel of record, made in judicial proceedings, by 15 litigants, to achieve the very object of the bankruptcy litigation. See I & U, Inc. v.
16 Publishers Sols. Int’l, 652 F. App’x 558, 559 (9th Cir. 2016) (demand letter protected 17 by litigation privilege); Hedayati v. Perry Law Firm, APLC, No.
18 SACV1701411DOCDFMX, 2018 WL 3155186, at *5 (C.D. Cal. May 16, 2018), 19 report and recommendation adopted, No. SACV171411DOCDFM, 2018 WL 20 3129803 (C.D. Cal. June 25, 2018) (same); Sandoval v. Law Office of John Bouzane, 21 No. 15-764, 2016 WL 7383535, *4 (C.D. Cal. Jan. 5, 2016) (same); Taylor v. Quall, 22 458 F. Supp. 2d 1065, 1067 (C.D. Cal. 2006) (same). As a matter of law, it does not 23 amount to fraud.

24 In any event, the November 20 letter could not have contained any false 25 statements at the time it was sent, as a matter of law, because its language tracked 26 nearly verbatim the Bankruptcy Court’s November 18, 2019 Order, quoted above.
27 Again, as discussed above, Plaintiffs cannot be liable under any legal or equitable 28 theory for accurately describing a court order. See Singh, 651 F. App’x at 617-19.

1 Further, SGM has failed to specifically allege facts demonstrating that such 2 statements were knowingly false, and made with the intent to defraud, as required 3 under Rule 9(b).

4 Nor has SGM alleged the other essential elements of fraud. The word 5 “reliance” does not appear in the Counterclaim, let alone allege specific facts 6 demonstrating actual and justifiable reliance. See generally, Docket No. 58. To the 7 contrary, SGM alleges that it did not rely on the November 20, 2019 letter, and 8 instead sent its own November 22 letter disagreeing with the assertions in Plaintiffs’ 9 demand letter and refusing to close the sale. Id. at ¶¶ 48-49. Likewise, SGM does 10 not allege specific facts showing that it suffered damages based on the statements in 11 the letter, with which it disagreed.

12 Because SGM fails to allege a separate and independent basis for tort recovery, 13 it fails to allege the elements of the third count, and its “recovery, therefore, is limited 14 to contractual damages,” and Count III must be dismissed. See Westport Ins. Corp., 15 2016 WL 1394360, at *3, *5 (“[c]onduct amounting to a breach of contract becomes 16 tortious only when it also violates a duty independent of the contract arising from 17 principles of tort law”) (quoting Robinson Helicopter, 34 Cal. 4th at 988); Vigdor v.
18 Super Lucky Casino, Inc., No. 16-CV-05326-HSG, 2017 WL 2720218, at *6 (N.D.
19 Cal. June 23, 2017) (dismissing under Robinson Helicopter, finding that “the 20 economic loss rule requires that Plaintiffs plead a separate tort to be entitled to tort 21 remedies” and “Plaintiffs cannot simply retitle the same conduct ‘fraud.’”);
22 Innovative Bus Partnerships, Inc. v. Inland City Reg’l Ctr., Inc., 194 Cal. App. 4th 23 623, 631–32 (2011) (“A cause of action for tortious breach of the covenant of good 24 faith and fair dealing requires the existence and breach of an enforceable contract as 25 well as an independent tort.”).

26 V. CONCLUSION

27 For the foregoing reasons, Plaintiffs respectfully request that the Court grant 28 Plaintiffs’ Motion to Dismiss the Amended Counterclaim.
