Re: Verity Health System of California Inc., et al. (collectively, "VHS"), Case No. 2:18-bk-20151-ER

Dear Joel:

Pursuant to Section 1.12 of the Asset Purchase Agreement (the "APA"), dated April 3, 2020, Prime Healthcare Services Inc. ("Prime") is responsible for collecting the target "Accounts Receivable" transferred as of the "Effective Time" (as those terms are defined in the APA), as follows:

During the one hundred thirty-five (135) day period immediately following the Closing Date Purchaser shall (i) use good faith, commercially reasonable best efforts to collect the Accounts Receivable (including at least the efforts used by Purchaser to collect its other receivables) within the one hundred thirty-five (135) day period immediately following the Closing Date; (ii) not take any action for the purpose of or which would be reasonably likely to result in any of the Accounts Receivable not being collected in a timely manner and within the one hundred thirty-five (135) day period immediately following the Closing Date; and (iii) provide Sellers with weekly written updates on its collection of the Accounts Receivable.

APA, Section 1.12(e).

VHS is concerned that Prime is not fulfilling its obligations under the APA, including, but not limited to, the following:

1. Failure to adequately follow-up on the status of unpaid claims with respective payors. Once claims have been billed to the payors, the accounts require direct contact to ensure claims are paid or issues requiring further information are identified. As the following TRAC data illustrate, Prime has significantly curtailed efforts to follow-up directly with payors from 3,377 follow-ups on the week ending July 31st, to 257 follow-ups on the week ending October 30th, to only 65 contacts for the week ending November 13th. At VHS's collections productivity rate of 40 contacts per day, per employee, Prime has dedicated 0.25 FTEs to collecting the target receivables. During the same period, billings requiring follow-up increased from $68.5 million on October 30th to $97 million on December 4th.

4. Failure to provide transparency into the collections process with required weekly status reports and failure to meet regularly despite requests to do so. In fact, in an email, dated December 1st, from Ken Wheeler, VHS was noticed not to contact Ana Goff, Director PFS SFMC, because Mr. Wheeler had taken control of the collections process and had "moved a corporate team to the collections of those legacy accounts for now." Mr. Wheeler has not responded to attempts to meet and has not provided any updates on his corporate teams efforts to rectify the collections deficiencies.

We would like to discuss the foregoing issues with you and appreciate your prompt attention to this matter. VHS, the Liquidating Trustee, and the Trust (as those terms are defined in that certain confirmed plan of liquidation [Docket No. 5466]) reserve all rights respect to this matter.

Sincerely,

RE: St. Francis Medical Center: Meet and Confer re Purchaser's Notice of Accounts Receivable Reconciliation and Notice of Offset of Future QAF Receivables

Dear Tania,

Thank you for joining the call yesterday (February 18, 2021) to discuss Purchaser's Notice of Accounts Receivable Reconciliation and Notice of Offset of Future QAF Receivables. We appreciated the opportunity to discuss these issues and believe the discussion was productive. To memorialize the meeting, those in attendance included Steve Aleman, Lorenzo Moran, and myself for Purchaser, and Peter Chadwick, John Schlant, and yourself for Verity, as well as Andrew Turnbull on behalf of the bondholders. We began the meeting by discussing the Notice of Offset of Future QAF Receivables and specifically, Purchaser's normalized EBITDA calculation. On behalf of Purchaser, Steve reviewed our January 25, 2021 notice with Sellers and responded to questions from Peter, John, and Andrew. Peter requested workpapers showing the model used by Purchaser for QAF V and QAF VI payments, and we agreed to provide that. With regard to Sellers' recognition of COVID stimulus dollars, Steve asked to see Sellers' calculation of lost revenue and Peter agreed to provide that. With regard to the remaining adjustments included in Purchaser's normalized EBITDA calculation, Steve offered to provide the workpapers for those adjustments.

The meeting then turned to discussion of Purchaser's accounts receivable reconciliation. Steve reviewed Purchaser's January 25, 2021 notice responding to Sellers' claim that we did not exercise sufficient diligence in collecting the legacy accounts receivable, a claim which Purchaser vehemently disputes. The parties agreed to discuss those contentions at a later date. I noted to the group that if Sellers would like additional responses to their contentions regarding alleged lack of diligence, then Purchaser requests the underlying detail cited in Sellers' December 23, 2020 letter. The letter provides only summary tables that Purchaser is unable to replicate or meaningfully respond to without the underlying detail. Steve then reviewed the claim detail Excel file containing Purchaser's accounts receivable reconciliation. Sellers did not have any specific questions about the claim detail file other than that John noted that Purchaser did not include trauma payments received by St. Francis Medical Center in the reconciliation.

The meeting concluded with both sides agreeing to further review the information provided and to gather and subsequently provide the requested information and analysis. We did not set a specific follow up meeting date but remain available to discuss these issues further at Sellers' convenience. Purchaser will work on promptly providing the requested information. In the meantime, Purchaser would like to respond to Sellers' question related to the exclusion of trauma payments from the accounts receivable reconciliation. As set forth in Section 1.1(a)(iii) of the Asset Purchase Agreement ("APA"), Purchaser paid $61,000,000 as consideration "for the Accounts Receivable transferred at Closing." The term "Accounts Receivable" is clearly defined in Section 1.7(p)(i) of the APA as including, in relevant part, "all accounts and interest thereupon, notes and interest thereupon and other receivables of Sellers, including, without limitation, accounts, notes or other amounts receivable, and all claims, rights, interests and proceeds related thereto, including all accounts and other receivables " However, Accounts Receivable do not include "trauma payments," which are expressly defined as "Other Receivables" in Section 1.7(p)(ii). As set forth in Section 1.12 of the APA, only the Accounts Receivable are subject to the reconciliation process, but not the trauma payments which are "Other Receivables." Therefore, trauma payments should not be included in the Accounts Receivable Reconciliation.

Very Truly Yours,

Re: In re Verity Health System of California, et al. (collectively, "Verity"), Case No. 2:18-bk-20151-ER; St. Francis Medical Center ("SFMC")

Dear Mr. Gertler:

We are in receipt of your client's letter, dated February 19, 2021, with the subject "St. Francis Medical Center: Meet and Confer re Purchaser's Notice of Accounts Receivable Reconciliation and Notice of Offset of Future QAF Receivables" (the "Letter"), sent by Joel Richlin, Vice President and General Counsel of Prime Healthcare ("Prime").

While the asset purchase agreement related to SFMC (the "APA") does not set forth a meet and confer process, nor is there any pending litigation or proceeding that requires a "meet and confer," we understand Prime's desire to record the meeting in a light favorable to them. Please note, however, that we respectfully disagree with various characterizations therein and do not consider the Letter a comprehensive recitation of our call. By way of example, the Letter states:

As set forth in Section 1.1(a)(iii) of the Asset Purchase Agreement ("APA"), Purchaser paid $61,000,000 as consideration "for the Accounts Receivable transferred at Closing."... However, Accounts Receivable do not include "trauma payments," which are expressly defined as "Other Receivables" in Section 1.7(p)(ii). As set forth in Section 1.12 of the APA, only the Accounts Receivable are subject to the reconciliation process, but not the trauma payments which are "Other Receivables." Therefore, trauma payments should not be included in the Accounts Receivable Reconciliation.

Verity disagrees with this conclusion.

Specifically, two of Verity's professionals on the call recall a statement made by Mr. Steve Aleman that (a) if anticipated trauma payments were included in the calculation that led to the $61 million consideration, and (b) if these anticipated trauma payments were ultimately received, then (c) such received trauma payments should also be included in the accounts receivable calculation. Mr. Aleman's statement comports with Verity's understanding of the APA (including Sections 1.1(a)(iii), 1.7(p), and 1.12) and the transaction as a whole. Accordingly, Verity's position remains that, because the trauma payments that have been received formed part of the basis for the $61 million consideration, they should now be included among the accounts receivable.

We hereby reserve our right to respond in the future to any and all other issues arising from the Letter. Nothing herein shall prejudice Verity's rights or constitute an admission on behalf of Verity as to any facts set forth herein or the Letter or otherwise discussed among the parties, or a waiver of any rights, defenses or claims Verity may have with respect to any issues regarding the sale.

Very truly yours,

Tania M. Moyron

RE: St. Francis Medical Center: Response to Verity Letter Dated March 12, 2021

Dear Tania,

I write in response to your letter dated March 12, 2021, in which you set forth "Verity's understanding of the APA" as to whether trauma payments qualify as "Accounts Receivable." As set forth in my prior February 19, 2021 letter, the term "trauma payments" is expressly defined in Section 1.7(p)(ii) of the APA as "Other Receivables," not "Accounts Receivable." Nonetheless, as you state in your letter, "Verity's position remains that, because the trauma payments that have been received formed part of the basis for the $61 million consideration, they should now be included among the accounts receivable." According to your letter, "two of Verity's professionals on the call recall a statement made by Mr. Steve Aleman that (a) if anticipated trauma payments were included in the calculation that led to the $61 million consideration, and (b) if these anticipated trauma payments were ultimately received, then (c) such received trauma payments should also be included in the accounts receivable calculation." While I do not question the good faith recollection of any of the call participants, all of the call participants from Prime have a different recollection of what was said and vehemently disagree with your letter's characterization of Mr. Aleman's comments.

Regardless, and more importantly, Section 12.14 of the APA states that the APA, "the Disclosure Schedule, the exhibits and schedules, and the documents referred to in this Agreement contain the entire understanding between the Parties with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby and supersede all prior or contemporaneous agreements, understandings, representations and statements, oral or written, between the Parties on the subject matter hereof (the 'Superseded Agreements'), which Superseded Agreements shall be of no further force or effect." Therefore, any prior understanding by Verity as to whether "trauma payments" qualify as "Accounts Receivable" is irrelevant because the plain language of the APA controls. Similarly, Section 12.4 of the APA states that the APA "may not be amended other than by written instrument signed by the Parties." Therefore, any oral communication made after signing the APA is also irrelevant as to whether "trauma payments" qualify as "Accounts Receivable." Ultimately, the definition of "trauma payments" in Section 1.7(p)(ii) of the APA is clear and controls.

Very Truly Yours,

A. Joel Richlin, Esq.

Regina,

I hope you had a great Thanksgiving.

I want to apologize for not getting this email out sooner but last week just got away from me.

You had a call established with Carmen and now Ana regarding the Legacy A/R however I will be taking over those meetings because we have moved a corporate team to the collections of those legacy accounts for now.

If you could let me know the purpose of the meeting and the schedule, I can let you know what my best days for the meeting is.

Again sorry for the delay in getting this out to you but I did take Ana and the local team off from the Legacy collections so they can focus on the Epic A/R.

Thanks

Ken
