Amendment to the District of Delaware Bankruptcy Court's General Order Regarding Procedures in Adversary Proceedings dated April 11, 2005, hereby stipulate and agree as follows:

1. Pursuant to Rule 9019-3 of the Local Rules of Bankruptcy Practice and Procedure for the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Local Rules") and the Amended Scheduling Order [Adv. Docket No. 54] (the "Amended Scheduling Order"), the Parties select Raymond H. Lemisch as the replacement mediator (the "Replacement Mediator") in the mediation (the "Mediation") of this adversary proceeding (the "Adversary Proceeding"). If the Replacement Mediator is later found to be conflicted, or if the Parties otherwise determine it to be appropriate and agree, the Parties may then stipulate to the appointment of an alternative mediator who, subject to Bankruptcy Court approval, would then be substituted for the above-named person as mediator in the Adversary Proceeding.

2. Subject to the terms of this Stipulation, the Order of the Bankruptcy Court approving this Stipulation, or any other order of the Bankruptcy Court, the Mediation shall be conducted in accordance with the Amended Scheduling Order and the Local Rules. To the extent any part of this Stipulation conflicts with Local Rule 9019-5, the terms and provisions of this Stipulation shall govern.

3. The Parties shall share equally in the payment of the mediator's normal fees and reasonable expenses incurred in connection with the Mediation.

4. Each Party participating in the Mediation must appear with at least one (1) principal or other authorized employee or agent with authority to make a decision binding upon such person or entity.

5. Pursuant to the Amended Scheduling Order, on or before sixty (60) days from an Order Assigning the Adversary Proceeding to Mediation, the Replacement Mediator shall either:

(a) file the mediator's certificate of completion; or (b) if the Mediation is not concluded, file a status report that provides the projected schedule for completion of the Mediation.

6. Without limiting the applicability of Local Rule 9019-5, and unless otherwise ordered by the Bankruptcy Court: (i) all discussions among any of the Parties relating to or made in connection with the Mediation; (ii) any mediation statements and any other documents or information provided to the mediator or the other Party in connection with or during the course of the Mediation; and (iii) correspondence, offers and counteroffers produced for or as a result of the Mediation shall be strictly confidential and shall not be admissible for any purpose in any judicial or administrative proceeding, and no person or Party participating in the Mediation, whether a direct participant or not, including counsel for any Party, shall in any way disclose to any non-party or to any court, including, without limitation, in any pleading or other submission to any court, any such discussion, mediation statements, other document or information, correspondence, offer or counteroffer which may be made or provided in connection with the Mediation. Notwithstanding this confidentiality provision, any documents exchanged at the mediation that are also produced in connection with discovery in this matter shall not be subject to this confidentiality provision and may be later utilized in connection with the Adversary Proceeding.

7. To the extent that any Party to the Mediation is in possession of privileged or confidential information provided to it by the other Party pursuant to the terms and conditions of a confidentiality agreement between the Parties or an Order of the Bankruptcy Court, such information may be disclosed to the mediator for purposes of the Mediation, but shall otherwise remain privileged and confidential.
