PROCEDURES FOR FILING AND SERVING OMNIBUS CLAIMS OBJECTIONS

On [___], 2019, the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the “Court”) entered the Order (I) Approving (A) Omnibus Claims Objection Procedures and Form of Notice, (B) Omnibus Substantive Claims Objections, and (C) Satisfaction Procedures and Form of Notice and (II) Waiving Bankruptcy Rule 3007(e)(6) [Docket No. ___] (the “Order”) in the chapter 11 cases of the above-captioned debtors (collectively, the “Debtors”).² Among other things, the Order approved these omnibus objection procedures.

Omnibus Objections

Grounds for Omnibus Objections. In addition to those grounds expressly set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 3007(d), the Debtors may file omnibus objections (each, an “Omnibus Objection”) to Claims, in whole or part, on the following grounds:

- a. the Claims are inconsistent with the Debtors’ books and records;
- b. the Claims fail to specify the amount or assert the amount as “unliquidated”;
- c. the Claims have insufficient supporting documentation for such Claim;
- d. the Claims seek to recover amounts for which the Debtors are not liable;
- e. the Claims are classified incorrectly or improperly;
- f. the Claims are filed against non-Debtors, the wrong Debtor, or are filed against multiple Debtors, except to the extent permitted under the Bar Date Order;

² All capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein have the meanings given to them in the Order.

- g. the Claims are disallowed pursuant to section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code;
- h. the Claim has been satisfied in full by a party that is not a Debtor; and
- i. the claimant has withdrawn the Claim formally pursuant to either a pleading or the entry of a Court order.

Form of Omnibus Objection. Each Omnibus Objection will be numbered consecutively regardless of basis.

Supporting Documentation. To the extent appropriate, an affidavit or declaration may be provided in connection with an Omnibus Objection from a party with knowledge of the Debtors' books and records and the manner in which they are maintained that states that such party has reviewed the Claims included therein and applicable supporting information and documentation provided therewith, made reasonable efforts to research the Claim on the Debtors' books and records, and determined that the books and records do not reflect the debt or the amount of debt that is alleged in the Claim.

Claims Exhibits. An exhibit or exhibits listing the Claims alphabetically that are subject to the particular Omnibus Objection will be attached thereto. Each exhibit will include only the Claims for which there is a common basis for the objection. Claims that have more than one basis for objection will be on one exhibit with reference to all of the bases for objecting to the Claims; provided that such exhibit will only include Claims for which there are common bases for the objection. The Debtors' right to object to a Claim on an additional basis or bases will not be waived if such Claim has been included on an exhibit to either a previous or the same Omnibus Objection. The exhibits will include the following information and be alphabetized based on claimant:

- a. the Claims that are the subject of the Omnibus Objection and, if applicable, the Proof of Claim number(s) or schedule number(s) related thereto from the Claims Register;
- b. the asserted amount of the Claim;
- c. the grounds for the Omnibus Objection; provided that, if an objection is based on any of grounds (a), (d), or (g) above, the exhibit and/or the Objection Notice must provide a factual and legal basis beyond the mere conclusory allegation for the objection;
- d. a cross-reference to the section in the Omnibus Objection discussing such Claim; and
- e. other information, as applicable, including (i) the proposed classification of Claims the Debtors seek to reclassify, (ii) the reduced Claim amount(s) of Claims the Debtors seek to reduce, or (iii) the surviving Claims, if any, of groups of Claims the Debtors seek to expunge.

Objection Notice. An objection notice, substantially in the form attached to the Order as Exhibit 2, will accompany each omnibus objection (the “Objection Notice”) to address a particular creditor, Claim, or objection and will include the following:

- a. a description of the basic nature of the Omnibus Objection;
- b. information about the rights that creditors may have as a result of the Omnibus Objection and that failure to file a response may result in the Omnibus Objection being granted as to the claimant’s Claim;
- c. procedures for filing a written response (each, a “Response”) to the objection, including all relevant dates and deadlines related thereto;
- d. the hearing date, if applicable, and related information; and
- e. a description of how copies of Proofs of Claim, the Omnibus Objection, and other pleadings filed in the chapter 11 cases may be obtained.

Notice and Service. Each Omnibus Objection will be filed with the Court and served upon (a) the affected claimant party set forth on the Proof of Claim or their respective attorney of record, (b) the U.S. Trustee, and (c) the official committee of unsecured creditors, and (d) parties that have filed a request for service of papers under Bankruptcy Rule 2002.

Omnibus Hearings. Each Omnibus Objection shall be set for hearing no less than thirty (30) days after service of the Omnibus Objection (the “Hearing”). The Debtors may request at the Hearing that the Court enter an order granting the Omnibus Objection with respect to each Claim subject to the Omnibus Objection when either (a) no Response has been filed in accordance with the proposed response procedures with respect to the Claim(s) or (b) a Response has been filed in accordance with the proposed response procedures with respect to the Claim(s), but such Response has been resolved prior to the Hearing. If a Response to an objection to a Claim cannot be resolved and a hearing is determined to be necessary, the Debtors shall file with the Court and serve on the affected claimant(s) a notice of the hearing to the extent the Debtors did not file a notice of hearing previously. Hearings regarding Omnibus Objections may be adjourned as provided in the case management order [Docket No. 392] (the “Case Management Order”).

Contested Matter. Each Claim subject to an Omnibus Objection along with any Responses thereto shall constitute a separate contested matter as contemplated in Bankruptcy Rule 9014, and any order that the Court may enter with respect to an Omnibus Objection will be deemed a separate order with respect to such Claim. The Debtors may, in their discretion and in accordance with other orders of this Court or the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and the Bankruptcy Rules, settle the priority, amount, and validity of such contested Claims.

Responses to Omnibus Objections

Parties Required to File a Response. Any party who disputes an Omnibus Objection is required to file a Response in accordance with the procedures set forth herein. If a party’s Claim is subject to an Omnibus Objection and does not file and serve a Response in compliance with the procedures below, the Court may grant the Omnibus Objection with respect to such Claim without further notice to the claimant.

Response Contents. Each Response must contain the following (at a minimum):

- a. a caption stating the name of the Court, the name of the Debtors, the case number, the title of the Omnibus Objection to which the Response is directed, and, if applicable, the Proof of Claim number(s) related thereto from the Claims Register;
- b. a concise statement setting forth the reasons why the Court should not grant the Omnibus Objection with respect to such Claim, including the specific factual and legal bases upon which the claimant will rely in opposing the Omnibus Objection;
- c. a copy of any other documentation or other evidence of the Claim, to the extent not already included with the Proof of Claim, upon which the claimant will rely in opposing the Omnibus Objection; provided, however, that the claimant need not disclose confidential, proprietary, or otherwise protected information in the Response; provided, further, however, that the claimant shall disclose to the Debtors all information and provide copies of all documents that the claimant believes to be confidential, proprietary, or otherwise protected and upon which the claimant intends to rely in support of its Claim, subject to appropriate confidentiality constraints; and
- d. the following contact information for the responding party:
 - (i) the name, address, telephone number, and email address of the responding claimant or the claimant's attorney or designated representative to whom the attorneys for the Debtors should serve a reply to the Response, if any; or
 - (ii) the name, address, telephone number, and email address of the party with authority to reconcile, settle, or otherwise resolve the Omnibus Objection on the claimant's behalf.

Filing and Service of the Response. A Response will be deemed timely only if it is filed with the Court and served so as to be actually received at or before 4:00 p.m. (prevailing Eastern Time) on the day that is seven (7) calendar days before the Hearing unless the Debtors consent to an extension in writing (the "Response Deadline"). A Response must be filed with the Court served timely on the following parties, with a copy to the Court's chambers:

- a. Debtors. Kirkland & Ellis LLP, 601 Lexington Avenue, New York, New York 10022, Attn: Stephen E. Hessler, P.C., Trudy Smith and Kirkland & Ellis LLP, 300 North LaSalle Street, Chicago, Illinois 60654, Attn.: Ross M. Kwasteniet, P.C., Brad Weiland, and John R. Luze;

- b. Committee. Morrison & Foerster LLP, 250 West 55th Street, New York, New York, 10019, Attn: Lorenzo Marinuzzi, Todd M. Goren, Jennifer L. Marines, and Erica J. Richards; and
- c. U.S. Trustee. The Office of the United States Trustee, U.S. Federal Office Building, 201 Varick Street, Suite 1006, New York, New York 10014, Attn: Paul K. Schwartzberg and Serene Nakano.

Discovery. If either party to a Claims Objection determines that discovery is necessary in advance of a hearing on an Omnibus Objection, it will serve notice on the affected party and its counsel of record that the scheduled hearing will be treated as a status conference during which the parties will request that the Court issue a scheduling order to facilitate dismissal or resolution of the litigation. Such notice may be incorporated into the initial agenda letter for the hearing or may be provided in a separate notice. In accordance with Local Rule 9014-2, the first hearing on any contested Omnibus Objection with respect a particular Claim will not be an evidentiary hearing, and there is no need for any witnesses to appear at such hearing unless the Court orders otherwise in accordance with Local Rule 9014-2.

Failure to Respond. A Response that is not filed and served on or before the Response Deadline or such other date as agreed with the Debtors, in accordance with the procedures set forth herein, may not be considered at the Hearing before the Court. Absent reaching an agreement with the Debtors resolving the Omnibus Objection to a Claim, failure to both file and serve a Response timely as set forth herein may result in the Court granting the Omnibus Objection without further notice or hearing. Affected creditors will be served with such order once it has been entered.

Reply to a Response. The Debtors shall be permitted to file and serve, with a copy to chambers, a reply to any Response no later than one (1) business day before the Hearing with respect to the relevant Omnibus Objection, as provided in the Case Management Order.
