

district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and this court having found that the relief requested in the Motion is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates, their creditors, and other parties in interest; and this court having found that the Debtors' notice of the Motion and opportunity for a hearing on the Motion were appropriate under the circumstances and no other notice need be provided; and this court having reviewed the Motion and having heard the statements in support of the relief requested therein at a hearing, if any, before this court (the "Hearing"); and this court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion and at the Hearing establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and upon all of the proceedings had before this court; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor, it is HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is granted on an interim basis as set forth in this Interim Order.
2. The final hearing (the "Final Hearing") on the Motion shall be held on January 11, 2018 at 2:00 p.m. , prevailing Central Time. Any objections or responses to entry of a final order on the Motion shall be filed on or before 4:00 p.m., prevailing Central Time, on January 8, 2018. In the event no objections to entry of the final order on the Motion are timely received, this court may enter such final order without need for the Final Hearing.
3. The Debtors are authorized to (a) continue operating the Cash Management System, substantially as identified on Exhibit C attached to the Motion, (b) honor their prepetition obligations related thereto, including the Bank Fees, (c) maintain existing Business Forms, and (d) continue to perform Intercompany Transactions, consistent with historical practice.
4. The Debtors are authorized to (a) continue to use, with the same account numbers, the Bank Accounts in existence as of the Petition Date, including those Bank Accounts identified on Exhibit 1 and Exhibit 2, without the need to comply with certain guidelines relating to bank accounts set forth in the U.S. Trustee Operating Guidelines, (b) use, in their present form, all correspondence and Business Forms (including letterhead) without reference to the Debtors' status as debtors in possession, (c) treat the Bank Accounts for all purposes as accounts of the Debtors as debtors in possession, (d) deposit funds in and withdraw funds from the Bank Accounts by all usual means, including checks, wire transfers, and other debits, and (e) pay the Bank Fees, including any prepetition amounts, and any ordinary course Bank Fees incurred in connection with the Bank Accounts, and to otherwise perform their obligations under the documents governing the Bank Accounts (collectively, the "Bank Account Agreements"), including to reimburse any Cash Management Bank for any checks deposited with such Cash Management Bank that have been dishonored or returned for insufficient funds, and any reimbursement or other obligations, such as overdrafts arising under the Bank Account Agreements (collectively, the "Bank Account Claims"). The Cash Management Banks are hereby authorized, without further order of this court, to deduct from the appropriate Bank Accounts the Bank Account Claims that are incurred in connection therewith in the ordinary course of business. All Bank Account Claims are hereby accorded administrative expense status under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

5. The Debtors shall have 30 days to comply with the requirements of § 345 of the Bankruptcy Code and Rule 7(b) of the Complex Chapter 11 Guidelines; provided that the Debtors must comply with § 345 of the Bankruptcy Code only to the extent that any of the Debtors' cash is (a) not held either in (i) a bank account that is an authorized depository under the UST Operating Guidelines; or (ii) a bank account that is insured by the FDIC; or (b) exceeds the applicable FDIC insurance limit.

6. The Cash Management Banks are authorized to continue to maintain, service, and administer the Bank Accounts as accounts of the Debtors as debtors in possession, without interruption and in the ordinary course, and to receive, process, honor, and pay, to the extent of available funds, any and all checks, drafts, wires, credit card payments, and ACH transfers issued and drawn on the Bank Accounts after the Petition Date by the holders or makers thereof, as the case may be.

7. Subject to applicable bankruptcy or other law, those certain existing deposit agreements between the Debtors and the Cash Management Banks shall continue to govern the postpetition cash management relationship between the Debtors and the Cash Management Banks, and all of the provisions of such agreements, including, without limitation, the termination and fee provisions, shall remain in full force and effect.

8. The Debtors and the Cash Management Banks may, without further order of this court, agree to and implement changes to the Cash Management System and procedures related thereto in the ordinary course of business, including, without limitation, the closing of Bank Accounts or the opening of new bank accounts.

9. The relief granted in this Interim Order is extended to any new bank account opened by the Debtors after the date hereof, which account shall be deemed a Bank Account, and to the bank at which such account is opened, which bank shall be deemed a Cash Management Bank. As required herein, to the extent the Debtors open a new bank account, they shall provide notice to the U.S. Trustee and counsel to any official statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

10. All Cash Management Banks maintaining any of the Bank Accounts that are provided with notice of this Interim Order shall not honor or pay any bank payments drawn on the listed Bank Accounts or otherwise issued before the Petition Date for which the Debtors specifically issue stop payment orders in accordance with the documents governing such Bank Accounts.

11. The Cash Management Banks are authorized, without further order of this court, to deduct all applicable fees from the applicable Bank Accounts consistent with historical practice.

12. Subject to the terms set forth herein, any bank, including the Cash Management Banks, may rely upon the representations of the Debtors with respect to whether any check, draft, wire, or other transfer drawn or issued by the Debtors prior to the Petition Date should be honored pursuant to any order of this court, and no bank that honors a prepetition check or other item drawn on any account that is the subject of this Interim Order (a) at the direction of the Debtors or (b) in a good-faith belief that this court has authorized such prepetition check or item to be honored shall be deemed to be nor shall be liable to the Debtors or their estates on account of such prepetition check or other item being honored postpetition, or otherwise deemed to be in violation of this Interim Order. The Debtors shall promptly furnish to the Cash Management Banks a list of those checks, drafts, wires, or ACH transfers and other withdrawals made, drawn, or issued in payment of prepetition claims, the payment of which has been authorized by any order of this court.

13. Any banks, including the Cash Management Banks, are further authorized to (a) honor the Debtors' directions with respect to the opening and closing of any Bank Account, (b) accept and hold, or invest, the Debtors' funds in accordance with the Debtors' instructions, (c) accept and honor all representations from the Debtors as to which checks, drafts, wires, or ACH transfers and other withdrawals should be honored or dishonored, consistent with any order of this court and governing law, whether such checks, drafts, wires, or ACH transfers and other withdrawals are dated prior to, on, or subsequent to the Petition Date, and (d) have no duty to independently inquire as to whether such payments are authorized by an order of this court; provided that the Cash Management Banks shall not have any liability to any party for relying on such representations to the extent such reliance otherwise complies with applicable law.

14. The Debtors are authorized, in the ordinary course of business, to open any new bank accounts or close any existing Bank Accounts and enter into any ancillary agreements related to the foregoing, as they may deem necessary and appropriate.

15. The Debtors are authorized to enter into and engage in the Intercompany Transactions and to take any actions and to pay prepetition obligations related thereto. All postpetition payments from a Debtor to another Debtor under any postpetition Intercompany Transaction are hereby accorded superpriority administrative expense status and shall have priority over any administrative claims that arise under section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. In connection with the Intercompany Transactions, the Debtors shall continue to maintain current records with respect to all transfers of cash so that all transactions, including the Intercompany Transactions, may be readily ascertained, traced, and recorded properly on applicable intercompany accounts.

16. Nothing contained in the Motion or this Interim Order shall be construed to (a) create or perfect, in favor of any person or entity, any interest in cash of a Debtor that did not exist as of the Petition Date or (b) alter or impair any security interest or perfection thereof, in favor of any person or entity, that existed as of the Petition Date.

17. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Motion or this Interim Order, any payment authorized to be made by the Debtor herein shall be subject to the terms and conditions contained in any orders entered by this Court authorizing the use of cash collateral (the “Cash Collateral Orders”). To the extent there is any conflict between this Interim Order and the Cash Collateral Orders, the terms of the Cash Collateral Orders shall control.

18. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Interim Order and any actions taken pursuant to such relief, nothing in this Interim Order shall be deemed: (a) an admission as to the validity of any prepetition claim against a Debtor entity; (b) a waiver of the Debtors’ right to dispute any prepetition claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any prepetition claim; (d) an implication or admission that any particular claim is of a type specified or defined in this Interim Order or the Motion; (e) a request or authorization to assume any prepetition agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; or (f) a waiver of the Debtors’ rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law.

19. The banks and financial institutions on which checks were drawn or electronic payment requests made in payment of the prepetition obligations approved herein are authorized and directed to receive, process, honor, and pay all such checks and electronic payment requests when presented for payment, and all such banks and financial institutions are authorized to rely on the Debtors’ designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as approved by this Interim Order.

20. The contents of the Motion satisfy the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b).

21. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such Motion and the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and the Bankruptcy Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

22. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), the terms and conditions of this Interim Order are immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry. As soon as practicable after the entry of this Interim Order, the Debtors shall serve this Interim Order on the Cash Management Banks.

23. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Interim Order in accordance with the Motion.

24. This court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Interim Order.
