necessary; and upon the record herein; and after due deliberation thereon; and this Court having determined that there is good and sufficient cause for the relief granted in this Final Order, therefore, it is hereby

ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED THAT:

1. The Motion is granted on a final basis, as set forth herein.
2. All objections to the entry of this Final Order, to the extent not withdrawn or settled, are overruled.
3. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay prepetition Critical Vendor Claims in an amount not to exceed $1,217,438 in the aggregate, absent further order of this Court; provided, however, that the Debtors are authorized, after prior notice to the official committee of unsecured creditors appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases (the “Creditors’ Committee”), to pay prepetition Critical Vendor Claims in excess of such amount so long as the total amount of prepetition Critical Vendor Claims and prepetition Vendor Claims³ that are paid pursuant to the Interim Order, this Final Order, and any orders with respect to the Lien Claimant and Foreign Vendor Motion do not exceed $2,690,439 in the aggregate, absent further order of this Court.
4. The Debtors are authorized to undertake all appropriate efforts to cause a Critical Vendor to enter into the form of Vendor Agreement, substantially in the form attached to the Motion as Exhibit C, which form of Vendor Agreement is hereby approved, and the Debtors are authorized to negotiate, modify, or amend the form of Vendor Agreement in the exercise of their reasonable business judgment to the extent such negotiations, modifications, or amendments are not materially adverse to the Debtors. The Debtors shall provide copies of all executed Vendor Agreements to the Creditors' Committee promptly upon execution and shall consult with the Creditors' Committee to the extent practicable with respect to negotiations, modifications, and amendments to the form of Vendor Agreement.

³ “Vendor Claims” has the meaning ascribed to such term in the Motion of Debtors for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing Debtors to Pay Prepetition Claims of (A) Lien Claimants, (B) 503(b)(9) Claimants, and (C) Foreign Vendors, (II) Confirming Administrative Expense Priority Status for Outstanding Prepetition Purchase Orders, and (III) Granting Related Relief [Docket No. 8] (the “Lien Claimant and Foreign Vendor Motion”).

5. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, in the exercise of their reasonable business judgment, to condition payment of prepetition Critical Vendor Claims on the agreement of Critical Vendors to enter into Vendor Agreements.

6. If any party accepts payment pursuant to the relief requested by this Final Order and thereafter does not continue to provide goods or services on Customary Trade Terms (regardless of whether a Vendor Agreement has been executed), and subject to any Vendor Agreement that may be executed or otherwise agreed by the Debtors: (a) the Debtors may demand repayment in cash and otherwise take all action to have such payment be deemed to be an improper postpetition transfer on account of a prepetition claim and (b) upon recovery by the Debtors, any prepetition claim of such party shall be reinstated as if the payment had not been made and the deadline for such party to file a reinstated claim will be the later of (i) the general bar date established by order of this Court or (ii) 30 days after the Debtors provide written notice to the party of the reinstatement of its claim.

7. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Final Order, the Motion, or any exhibits thereto, the priority of a Critical Vendor's claim shall not be affected by whether such Critical Vendor executes a Vendor Agreement, provides goods or services to the Debtors under Customary Trade Terms, or otherwise.

8. The Banks shall be, and are, hereby authorized, when requested by the Debtors, to process, honor, pay, and, if necessary, reissue any and all checks or electronic funds transfers, including prepetition checks and electronic payment and transfer requests that the Debtors reissue or re-request postpetition, drawn on the Debtors' accounts, whether those checks were presented before or after the Petition Date, provided that sufficient funds are available in such accounts to make the payments.

9. The Banks may rely on the representations of the Debtors with respect to whether any check or other transfer drawn or issued by the Debtors before the Petition Date should be honored pursuant to this Final Order, and the Banks shall not have any liability to any party for relying on such representations by the Debtors as provided for in this Final Order.

10. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to issue new postpetition checks, or effect new electronic funds transfers, on account of prepetition Critical Vendor Claims as set forth herein, and to replace any prepetition checks or electronic fund transfer requests that may be lost or dishonored as a result of the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases.

11. Nothing in the Motion or this Final Order, nor any actions or payments made by the Debtors pursuant to this Final Order, shall be construed as: (a) an admission as to the validity of any claim against the Debtors or the existence of any lien against the Debtors' properties; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's respective rights to dispute any claim or lien on any grounds; (c) a promise to pay any claim; (d) an implication or admission that any particular claim would constitute an allowed claim; (e) an assumption or rejection of any executory contract or unexpired lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (f) a limitation on the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code to assume or reject any executory contract with any party subject to this Final Order; or (g) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's respective rights under the Bankruptcy Code, any other applicable non-bankruptcy law, or any order of this Court. Nothing contained in this Final Order shall be deemed to increase, reclassify, elevate to an administrative expense status, or otherwise affect any claim to the extent it is not paid.

12. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h) or any other procedural rule, to the extent applicable, this Final Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry hereof.

13. The Debtors are hereby authorized to take such actions and to execute such documents as may be necessary to implement the relief granted by this Final Order.

14. This Court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Final Order.
