Re: Evergreen Status of Commissions earned under previous PAETEC Sales Agent Agreement

Dear Zev:

It has been raised to my attention that you have some concern around Windstream's commitment and legal obligation to continue the practice of paying commissions you earned on revenue secured under your previous PAETEC Sales Agent Agreement. I wanted to write you to clarify our interpretation of the relevant contract language and ensure you that Windstream will maintain that practice as our commitment to you and our legal obligation.

Pursuant to paragraph 6(b) in the PAETEC Sales Agent Agreement (the "Agreement"), Windstream will continue to pay the Agent the commissions earned under the Agreement for as long as those customers remain customers of Windstream except in cases where we terminate the Agent's Agreement for any of the following activity:

- breach of the Agreement (as described in paragraph 2(b));
- or because of the Agent's misrepresentation, fraudulent activity, or Agent's interference with a current customer (as described in paragraph 2(c)).

As long as the Sales Agent Agreement is not terminated for either of these two bullet points above, then Windstream will continue to pay commissions for the duration of the relevant customers' relationship with Windstream. If you have any further questions, please feel free to contact your Windstream Channel Manager.

Very truly yours,
