Workforce Obligations described in the Motion, to, or for the benefit of, the Workforce, including the Independent Contractors, under the Workforce Programs. Such payments shall not exceed $8,500,000 in the aggregate without further order of the Court.

3. The Debtors are authorized to (a) continue each of the Workforce Programs, including but not limited to maintaining the Employee Benefits described in the Motion, in the ordinary course of business during the pendency of these cases in the manner and to the extent that such Workforce Programs were in effect immediately prior to the filing of these cases, and (b) continue to fund and to make payments in connection with the costs of and the expenses incurred in the administration of any Workforce Program.

4. The Debtors are authorized to reimburse the Employees for all Reimbursement Obligations incurred prior to the Petition Date. In addition, the Debtors are authorized to make direct payments to third parties owed amounts in connection with the Reimbursement Obligations.

5. The Debtors are authorized to continue their workers' compensation programs and to pay any outstanding prepetition claims, taxes, charges, assessments, premiums, and third party administrator fees arising under the workers' compensation policies and or programs in which they participate. In addition, the automatic stay of Bankruptcy Code Section 362 is hereby lifted to allow workers' compensation claimants to proceed with their claims under the applicable insurance policy or program and to allow the Debtors' insurance providers and/or third party administrators to negotiate, settle, and/or litigate workers' compensation claims, and pay resulting amounts, whether such claims arose before or after the Petition Date.

6. The Debtors are authorized to pay any and all local, state, and federal withholding and payroll-related or similar taxes related to the Prepetition Workforce Obligations including, but not limited to, all withholding taxes, social security taxes, Medicare taxes, and

7. The Debtors are authorized to pay claims of the Administrators, in connection with administering and delivering payments or other benefits to the Workforce for prepetition services rendered and claims for reimbursement based on prepetition disbursements made by the Administrators.

8. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay prepetition amounts owed to the Independent Directors and may continue to make such payments on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business.

9. The Debtors' banks and financial institutions shall be, and hereby are, authorized, when requested by the Debtors in their sole discretion, to process, honor, and pay any and all checks or electronic fund transfers drawn on the Debtors' bank accounts to pay all prepetition amounts owed to any party in connection with the Prepetition Workforce Obligations, whether those checks were presented prior to or after the Petition Date, provided that sufficient funds are available in the applicable accounts to make the payments. Further, the Debtors are authorized to issue new postpetition checks and initiate new postpetition electronic fund transfers to replace any checks or electronic fund transfers that may be dishonored and to reimburse any related expenses that may be incurred as a result of any bank's failure to honor a prepetition check or electronic fund transfer.

10. The Debtors' banks and financial institutions may rely on the representations of the Debtors with respect to whether any check or other transfer drawn or issued by the Debtors prior to the Petition Date should be honored pursuant to this Final Order, and any such Bank shall not have any liability to any party for relying on such representations by the Debtors as provided for in this Final Order.

11. Nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date, and subject to the terms of this Final Order, the Debtors are authorized (i) to continue to use (and allow the use by the Employees of) the Credit Cards subject to the terms and conditions thereof, as applicable, including, with respect to the JPM Credit Card, any and all applicable agreements between the Debtors and JPM for security or credit enhancement of the JPM Credit Cards.

14. Authorization to pay, and the payment of, any amounts on account of Prepetition Workforce Obligations shall not affect the Debtors' right to contest the amount or validity of any Prepetition Workforce Obligation, including without limitation, any amounts that may be due to any taxing authority.

15. Neither the provisions of this Final Order, nor any payments made or not made by the Debtors pursuant to this Final Order, shall be deemed an assumption or rejection of any Workforce Program, agreement or contract, or otherwise affect the Debtors' rights under Bankruptcy Code Section 365 to assume or reject any executory contract between the Debtors and any member of the Workforce, or other person.

16. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Final Order, the Debtors retain their right to modify or terminate any Workforce Program to the extent that such right exists under the terms of the Workforce Program or as may be required by applicable law.

17. Notwithstanding the relief granted herein or any actions taken hereunder, nothing contained in this Final Order shall create any rights in favor of, or enhance the status of any claim held by, any member of the Workforce, or other person.

18. Nothing in this Final Order shall be deemed to authorize the payment of any amounts in satisfaction of bonus or severance obligations that are subject to Bankruptcy Code Section 503(c).

19. Neither the provisions contained herein, nor any actions or payments made by the Debtors pursuant to this Final Order, shall be deemed an admission as to the validity of any underlying obligation or a waiver of any rights the Debtors may have to dispute such obligation on any ground that applicable law permits.

20. The requirements set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) are hereby waived.

21. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Final Order or in the Motion, any payment, obligation, or other relief authorized by this Final Order shall be subject to and limited by the requirements imposed on the Debtors under the terms of any interim and/or final orders approving the use of cash collateral.

22. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), to the extent applicable, this Final Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry hereof.

23. The Debtors are hereby authorized to take such actions and to execute such documents as may be necessary to implement the relief granted by this Final Order.
