<sup>2</sup> Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in the Motion.

upon the entry of the Order (I) Authorizing Debtors to Continue Using Their Cash Management System, Including the Movement of Funds Between Debtors and Non-Debtor Affiliates, and Maintain Existing Bank Accounts and Business Forms, and (II) Waiving Compliance with the Deposit and Investment Requirements of Section 345 of the Bankruptcy Code [Docket No. 57], as amended [Docket 339] (the "Order"), providing, inter alia, a waiver of the requirement of 11 U.S.C. § 345 for a period of 60 days from the September 8, 2011, entry of the Order; and upon the consent of the Office of the United States Trustee; and the Court having found and determined that the relief sought as granted herein is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates and creditors, and all parties in interest, and that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor, it is ORDERED that, to the extent permitted by the DIP Documents (as defined in the DIP Motion), the Debtors are authorized to invest and deposit funds in the Bank Accounts in accordance with their prepetition practices, without the need for a bond or other collateral as required by section 345 of the Bankruptcy Code, and that the entities with which the Debtors' money is invested shall be excused from compliance with the requirements of section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code through and including December 1, 2011, without prejudice to the Debtors' right to seek further interim waiver or final waiver; and it is further

ORDERED that, apart from the relief in the foregoing paragraph, nothing contained herein shall effect a modification of the Order; and it is further ORDERED that this Court retains jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or relating to the interpretation or implementation of this Order.

Dated: November 7, 2011
