LIMITED OBJECTION OF Y BAR RANCH TO CONFIRMATION OF THE JOINT PLAN OF REORGANIZATION OF THE DEBTORS AND DEBTORS IN POSSESSION AND RESERVATION OF RIGHTS

Y Bar Ranch (“Y Bar”), by and through undersigned counsel, hereby files this limited objection to the Joint Plan of Reorganization of the Debtors and Debtors in Possession (as amended, the “Plan”) and respectfully states as follows:

Brief Background

1. Y-Bar owns fee simple interests in 2,520.17 acres in McMullen County, Texas (the “Leased Premises”). On October 23, 2006, Y-Bar signed an oil and gas lease (the “Lease”) covering the Leased Premises to Broad Oak Energy, Inc. A memorandum of the Lease is recorded in Volume 449, Page 79 of the Official Records of McMullen County, Texas (the “Official County Records”).

2. On July 18, 2007, Y-Bar and Broad Oak Energy executed a Limited Amendment to Oil and Gas Lease. On October 5, 2009, Y-Bar and Swift (then the assignee of the Lease) signed an Extension and Amendment of Oil and Gas Lease, recorded in Volume 473, Page 57 of the Official County Records. A Correction and Ratification of Oil and Gas Lease, effective October 23, 2006 is recorded in Volume 20, Page 679 of the Official County Records.

3. Effective July 1, 2007, Broad Oak Energy assigned its right, title, and interest in the Lease to Swift Energy Operating LLC (“Swift”). A copy of the assignment is recorded in Volume 466, Page 457 of the Official County Records.

4. The Leased Premises are located in north central McMullen County, in the area for Eagle Ford oil production. Broad Oak Energy drilled the first well on the Lease – the Y-Bar No. 1. (the “Y-Bar 1”) Subsequent to acquiring the Lease from Broad Oak Energy, Swift drilled five horizontal Eagle Ford wells on the Leased Premises.

5. In November 2015, Swift ceased making payments to Y Bar for amounts due under the Lease. Y Bar and Swift are currently in a dispute over the payments due to Y Bar under the Lease, and the Debtors have continued to withhold payments to Y Bar. Prior to the Petition Date, Y Bar filed a petition in the District Court for McMullen County, Texas seeking, among other things, damages for Swift’s failure to make payments due under the Lease. That petition has been stayed by the filing of the Debtors’ petition for relief under the Bankruptcy Code.

6. The Lease creates a lien inuring to the benefit of Y Bar. Specifically, Section 19 of the Lease provides, in part, as follows:

Lessor hereby retains a first and preferred lien and security interest in all (i) Minerals produced and saved from the Leased premises or lands pooled herewith and (ii) all proceeds from the sale, disposition, exchange or transfer of such Minerals and all accounts arising therefrom and (iii) all equipment and fixtures of Lessee located on the Leased Premises (the “Collateral”) to secure Lessor in the payment to it of all sums owed to it under this Lease and to secure Lessee’s full compliance with the other terms and provisions of this Lease. In addition to any other remedies provided in this Lease, Lessor, as a secured party, may in the event of Lessee’s default hereunder, enforce its rights as to such collateral under the Texas Uniform Commercial Code. In the event of default by Lessee, Lessor shall have the right to take possession of the collateral and to receive the proceeds attributable thereto and to hold same as security for Lessee's obligations or to apply such proceeds on the amounts owing to Lessor hereunder.

Section 19.2 further provides:

Lessee is prohibited from granting a lien, mortgage, pledge or security interest on Lessor's royalty share or portion of produced Minerals or revenue or value derived from the production of Minerals. Any direct or indirect attempt to impress a lien, mortgage, pledge or security interest on Lessor's royalty share of production or revenue or value derived therefrom shall be void and constitute a breach of this Lease.

7. Additionally, Texas law creates a statutory lien, automatically perfected, on proceeds from the sale of production: Texas Business and Commerce Code Section 9.343 (TEX. BUS. & COM. CODE §9.343).

Limited Objection

8. Y Bar objects to confirmation of the Plan and seeks recognition, either in the Plan or in the confirmation order, that the Plan does not modify or amend the Lease and that the Plan does not change any of Y Bar's rights or remedies allowed under the Lease or relevant non-bankruptcy law, including but not limited to any special limitations arising pre or post-petition. Further, the Plan or the confirmation order, should be clear that in the event that the Lease terminates pursuant to its own terms, nothing in the Plan acts to prevent such termination (whether termination occurred pre- or post-petition) or to revive such Lease.

9. Y Bar objects to the Plan to the extent that the Plan does not recognize that timely payment of royalties is a special limitation on the grant of the Lease. Y Bar recognizes that the Debtors anticipate a significant distribution to unsecured creditors. However, should the Debtors object to the claims asserted by Y Bar, Y Bar needs to retain its rights under the Lease in the event an underpayment occurred and is not cured timely. Y Bar does not want the Debtors or any other creditors to later take the position that any right or remedy of Y Bar allowed under the Lease, including, termination of the Lease, has been waived or is no longer available.

WHEREFORE, for the reasons set forth herein, Y Bar respectfully requests that any Order confirming the Plan comport with, and not alter provisions of the Lease, preserve Y Bar's clear title to its Lease and all its rights under the Lease, and not prevent or otherwise prohibit Y Bar from terminating the Lease under its terms.
